SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

JOSEPH, THE DREAMER

The International Uniform Sunday School Lesson for May 29.
BY WM. E. GILROY, D. D.
Editor of The Congregationalist.

Much of the ambition of Joseph was inherited by Joseph—a younger son among jealous and forceful brothers. The ambition that moved Joseph did not find such crooked and devious ways as his father's ambition had found, but it created in Joseph a lack of proper sensitiveness about the feelings of others, and a lack of reticence concerning his attitude toward the world and what he anticipated that the world would do for him.

The man who lives too exclusively in a world that centers about himself is not apt to be liked either by those of his own household or by those of his immediate environment. We do not like the man who talks too much about himself, whose conversation suggests that he is a child of preference, and revolves around himself. The attitudes of Joseph's brethren were wrong. They allowed what might have been a just cause for resentment, and for that matter, to develop in them a studied and intense hatred, awaiting only its opportunity for expression and action.

Joseph, as a matter of fact, was a very good and very competent man. He was a child of fortune in more ways than one. But in the story of his youth as he grows up among his brethren, talking too freely about himself and making too much of his dreams, there is something that is not altogether attractive.

There were lessons that Joseph of God" by Noel Hansford will be rendered by both choirs, Sunday, June 5th at 7:30 p. m.

ANTI-CRUSADERS ORGANIZE

Chicago, May 28.—(AP)—A new organization called the Saracens has been formed here to support the 18th Amendment.

Its aims were outlined last night at a meeting in the home of Anne A. Stagg, University of Chicago football coach, by Louis E. Ladin, Jr., one of the organizers.

He said an active campaign would be started soon in opposition to the Crusaders, an anti-prohibition group and efforts made to place the campaign on a nation-wide scale.

Officers said the name "Saracens" was selected because the Saracens of old defended their homeland against the Crusaders.

SAVED BY AFFLICTION

BY GEORGE HENRY DORA

International Sunday School Lesson Text, May 29th. "Provide things honest in the sight of all men."—Rom. 13:11.

The situation of Jacob and his son Joseph was difficult for a while, but it would be no profit and business would be ruined. But suppose the economic system were founded upon cooperation and coordination, national and international. Such a system would admit of infinite increase with coordinate profit. If by adversity we are led to the adoption of an economic system that works for universal justice and widely spread abroad the benefactions that come through modern inventions, the compensation would be many times the affliction. An unseen hand is leading the world on and upward to bring the world more into accord with the kingdom of heaven; and surely as the Lord brought to unforeseen and unexpected triumph, so He will bring the world into unprecedented harmony and happiness.

The age of unrestricted selfishness operating by a system of economics that naturally concentrates everything in the hands of fewer and fewer, must come to an end. It has served in developing the individual and the world. Now the world is called to a higher service, and use by the old method breaking down through bearing its legitimate fruits. Better is to come, for the Lord wills that peace and good will fill the earth.

PIRATES PROVING A JINX TO CARDS

Have Won 8 of Last 10 Games Played With St. Louis; Braves Lose.

By Associated Press.

One of the minor mysteries of the past league baseball season has been the ease with which the Pittsburgh Pirates, most of the time floundering around in the National League's second division, have been able to take the St. Louis Cardinals on the traces.

The world champions won their first two clashes from the Cardinals at the start of the season, but since then the Pirates have walked away with eight of the last ten games the clubs have played.

Their eighth victory over the champions achieved yesterday by an 8 to 4 count boosted the Pirates into fourth place, one game behind the third place Cincinnati Reds.

Errors By Locals Pave Way For Defeat; Berger Whiffs With Tying Run On Third In Ninth; Neubauer Pitches Out of Bad Hole In Eighth.

All good things have to come to an end sooner or later, and so it was with the great string of baseball victories recorded by Coach Tom Kelley's Manchester High school outfit which met its first defeat of the season after ten consecutive victories yesterday when Meriden came to town half an hour late and scored a 6 to 5 victory.

The game was the most exciting of the season and although it was marred at times by poor fielding, there were many hits of sparkling baseball, especially in the last few innings. The highlights included the brilliant all-around work of Meriden's brother battery, Walt and Joe McGuinness and the stellar mound work of Billy Neubauer, Manchester's sophomore pitching ace.

Go On Ahead
 When everything looks gloomy
 And your heart is sad and blue,
 And perplexities and worries
 Make you wonder what to do;
 When your sunshine's hid behind the clouds,
 And love and faith and hope is dead,
 Just put your trust in a higher star,
 And you'll come out ahead!

In a poor man's house, broken down furniture poverty. The same turn furniture becomes poverty. The same furniture in a rich man's house would be called quaint.

Mother—Why don't you wear that beautiful underwear you got for a birthday present?
Beautiful Daughter—I'm saving that for a good, windy day.

Harper—Why are the days longer in the summer?
Casper—Because the heat expands them.

What a sad world it would be, if we believed all that is said about civilization tottering to its doom.

CLEVERLY DONE

A swollen-headed young actor was told that an interviewer wanted to see him.

He gave the visitor full particulars of his new contract, mentioning an enormous weekly sum he was to get as a salary.

"And what paper do you represent?" he asked.

"No paper," said the visitor, cheerfully. "I am from the income tax office."—Tit-Bits.

WHAT ENJOYMENT!

The teacher was trying to boost the sale of photographs to her class. "Now, children," she said, "just imagine how you'll enjoy looking at this photograph when you grow up. As you look at it you'll say to yourself, 'There's Jesusie, she's a sure; there's Tom, he's a judge; and—'"

"And there's teacher; she's dead," came a voice from the back of the class.—Tit-Bits.

FINDS FOR JAFFE
IN SUIT BY WIOR

Judge Ellis Gives Decision
For Defendant — Wior
Asked $3,000.

Judgment in favor of Louis S. Jaffe, jeweler of 881 Main street, defendant in a suit brought by Matthew Wior, jeweler of 899 Main street, charging battery and assault, was returned in the Superior Court yesterday by Judge Arthur F. Ellis. Wior sought damages of $3,000 as the result of an altercation that occurred between the business rivals in Metter's Smoke Shop on January 26.

A counter-suit by Jaffe, asking damages of $3,000 for assault and slander, is included in this judgment. Therefore neither Wior nor Jaffe were awarded damages of any kind, as one suit offsets the other. The suit was heard Wednesday, after which Judge Ellis reserved decision. Attorney William J. Shea represented Wior, and Attorney William S. Hyde appeared for Jaffe. At the time of the meeting in the local store, it was claimed that Jaffe accused Wior of spitting on his display windows. The argument became heated and led to blows, the writ claiming that Jaffe pushed Wior breaking the latter's glasses and two of his teeth.

He was elected an alderman in 1925 from the 12th District on the Republican ticket and served one year. He was a member of St. John's Lodge, A. F. & A. M. and was a Thirty-second degree Mason. He was a past monarch of Syrio Grotto, M. O. V. P. E. R.

Mr. Ulrich was at one time Boy Scout Commissioner of the Hartford District Council and was instrumental in the formation of several troops of Boy Scouts. He was keenly interested in the work and devoted a great deal of time in the interests of Scouting.

He was a member of the American Society of Civil Engineers; the Connecticut Society of Civil Engineers; the Connecticut Society; Descendants of the Mayflower; the Connecticut Society, Sons of the Revolution; the Society of Robert Bartlett's Descendants; and the American Association of Highway Officials.

 Your Friend
 for Life

Here is a form of Trust which starts its good work—net after you are gone—but right now, while you are living and can see how it works.

With a LIVING Trust you can:
 — provide an income payable to yourself during your lifetime
 — provide an income for your wife or others during life
 — arrange for the income to be paid to you for the benefit of your children
 — relieve yourself or wife of investment cares
 — insure your savings against your own temptation to withdraw them
 — protect yourself against financial misfortunes in old age

THE MACHINERY FOR SETTING UP A LIVING TRUST IS SIMPLE:
 — An agreement is drawn up under which we act as your trustee and carry out your instructions as stated in it.
 — The Trust fund is formed by money, securities or other property which you turn over to us to be managed and invested by us as Trustees.
 — If you wish you can add to the Fund from time to time.
 — You can reserve the right to revoke the Trust or vary it at any time.

A Living Trust has proved to be a friend in need for many men and their families. We shall be glad to discuss the subject further with you in a friendly talk.
