

END OF DEMOCRACY IS SEEN BY HITLER

Leader of Nazis Says German Republic Has But Few More Days To Live; Other Fiery Speakers.

Berlin, July 28.—(AP)—Democracy in Germany was given only a few more days of life today by Adolf Hitler, fiery National Socialist leader.

Winding up a dashing airplane campaign for next Sunday's elections with a speech at the great Berlin stadium last night, Hitler brought thunderous cheers from 100,000 of his followers when he said:

"July 31 must remove the rule of Democracy and of Marxism and its vessels from Germany and restore a regime of discipline, National confidence, honor and power."

"We aim," he continued, "to sweep the thirty political parties out of the country. We Germans must be a united people. We are on the eve of a great historical decision. The thirteen years of decadence (the life of the Republic) are nearing an end. We don't believe in the possibilities for international aid but only in aid founded on our own strength."

Speech Causes Trouble

The Tuesday night radio speech of General Kurt Von Schleicher continued to kick up a furor throughout the country. His endorsement of Adolf Hitler's theory that the Reichswehr (Army) alone is responsible for Germany's defense also brought down a crash of criticism.

The National Socialist Premier

Reverend of Oldenburg, where a Nazi strike government is in control, went one better than Hitler who has said that "heads shall roll" when the Nazis come into power in the nation.

Nazi Victorious

The Nazis scored a considerable victory yesterday when they succeeded in having the Prussian state ministry, now under the dictatorial control of Chancellor Von Papen, repeal the long-standing order which barred National Socialists from holding civil offices.

Success Followed a Couple of Pot Shots which the Nazis and Nationalists fired at the Von Papen government, indicating the government was having a difficult time with its strongest right wing support on the eve of the elections.

Hans Kerrl, Hitler leader and president of the Prussian Diet demanded that the chancellor's decree of June 5 taxing civil servants 2 1/2 to 5 per cent of their salaries be rescinded.

Dr. Alfred Hugenburg, Nationalist leader, called for the repeal of the emergency decree of June 14 taxing every German with a job.

In political circles these demands were looked upon as an attempt by the Hitlerites and the Nationalists to square themselves with their own followers, many of whom have for an explanation why they have supported the Von Papen government in financial measures rated just as drastic as any imposed by former Chancellor Brüning.

Chancellor Von Papen's reply to the demands was guarded. He pointed out that far-reaching financial reorganization would take place after the elections and he said the administrative apparatus would be simplified.

Three deaths and a number of injuries were recorded in political clashes last night. Police shot and

THREE ARE KILLED IN AIRPLANE CRASH

American Wife of Famous British Architect Is Among the Victims.

Farnham, Surrey, England, July 28.—(AP)—Mrs. Alfred C. Bosson, American wife of a noted British architect, her son Bruce and their friend, Prince Otto Erbach Furstenberg, were killed last night in an explosion and crash of their airplane near Farnham.

Mrs. Bosson, daughter of Samuel G. Bayne, president of the Seaboard National Bank of New York was on her way from Heston, Airframe, Middlesex, to Southampton when the plane, piloted by her son, suddenly appeared to explode and fall to the ground in a thousand pieces.

Her husband, a member of Parliament is well known for his architectural work including restoration of Fort Ticonderoga.

The announcement of the son's engagement two weeks ago to Odette Herald, daughter of a fashionable London dressmaker, brought him into notice because of the opposition of his parents, who objected to his marrying while so young and especially as he was planning dangerous flights abroad. The engagement was not broken however.

VETERANS HURL BRICKS AT COPS IN THE CAPITAL

Bonus Marchers Were Being Forced Out of Federal Building When Trouble Starts—Several Injured.

Washington, July 28.—(AP)—A group of the bonus seeking war veterans today resorted to violence after being evicted from a building they had been occupying on lower Pennsylvania avenue. They chased police for some distance by throwing bricks at the officers.

Apparently without any reason the fighting broke out near the assembly ground of the veterans after they had been removed from their shelter.

A thousand or more of the bonus seekers had arrived on the scene from Anacostia and had broken through thin police lines around the block.

This developed after Pelham D. Glassford, superintendent of police, had ordered every officer available for that purpose to the site to guard against trouble.

Federal Orders

Earlier, the government in a statement through Attorney General Mitchell had ordered the evacuation of all veterans from Federal property.

Quick reinforcements were rushed into the area and the brick throwing veterans soon subsided so far as actual violence was concerned but continued yelling and boisterous "Let's run them out."

Meanwhile police reserves from every precinct in the District of Columbia arrived on the scene.

Veterans were moving on the Pennsylvania area from all directions and gathering bricks and stones enroute.

Bricks on Hand

The lot on which the veterans have been living was covered with bricks and debris from buildings which have been demolished.

Police men sought quick refuge from the brick barrage when it started and a few officers drew their pistols.

None fired, however. Glassford was less than a half block away when the trouble began and

EUROPEANS BUYING AMERICAN DOLLARS

Foreign Exchange Market Unusually Busy; England, France Lead Buyers.

New York, July 28.—(AP)—The usually orderly Foreign Exchange Market was churned up considerably in early dealings today, the American dollar bounding forward sharply at times as large purchases of the American currency were made from abroad.

Bankers reported that buying of dollars was largely in settlement of recent European purchases, notably English and French, of securities in the New York Bond and Stock Markets.

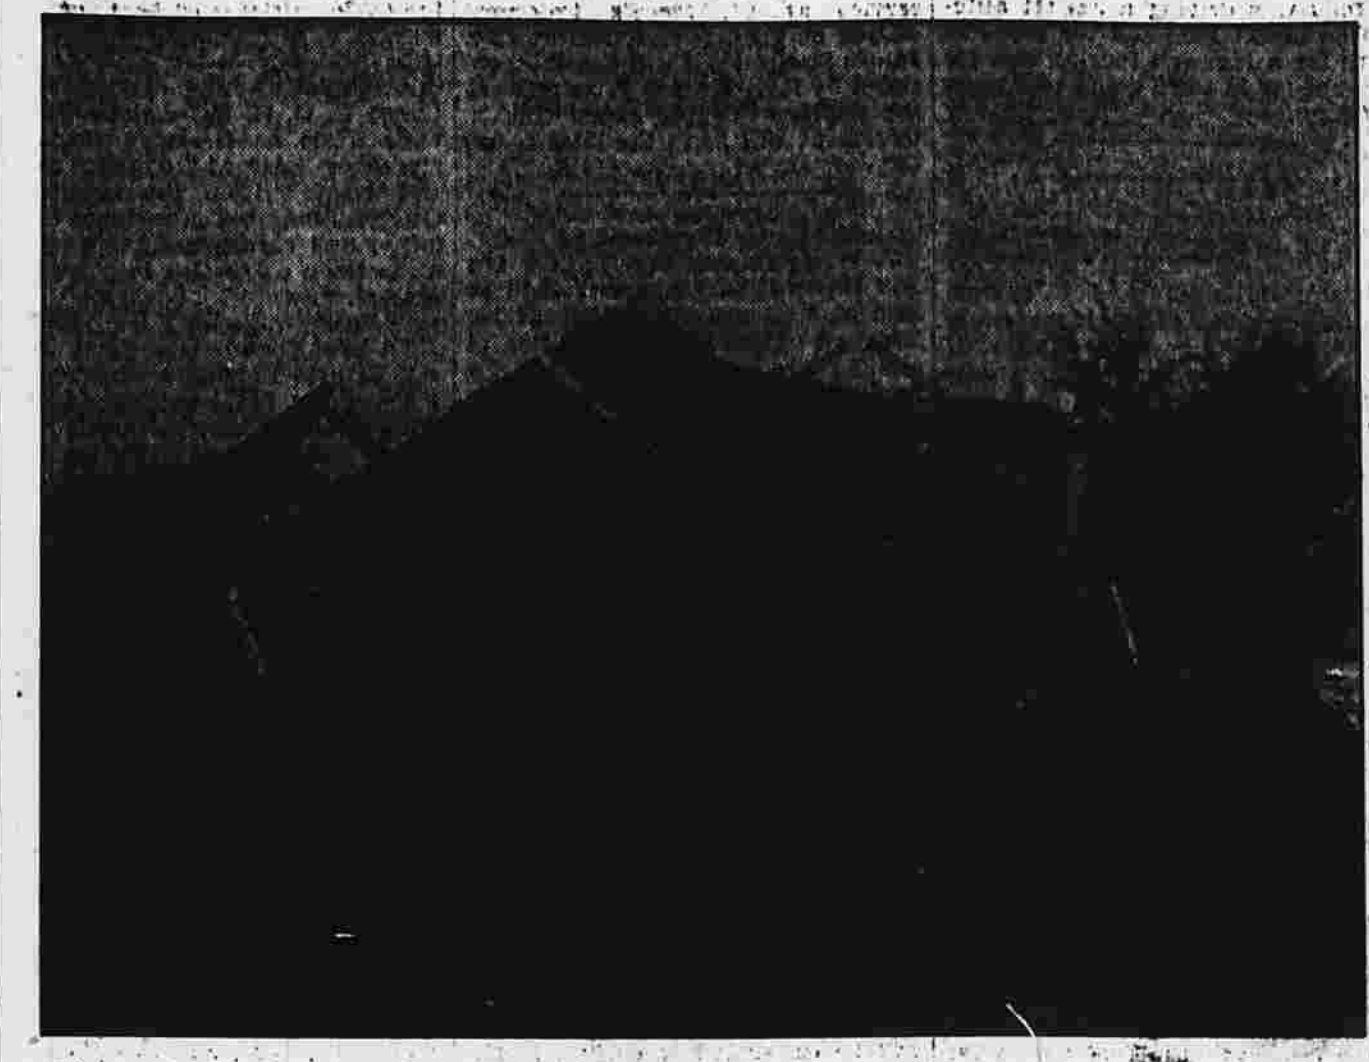

After fairly lively trading as the local market opened for business, the action of foreign currency prices turned more orderly, with the dollar holding most of its early gains.

Sterling cables dipped below $3.51 at one time, where it was off about 2 cents from yesterday's closing price. Later, sterling recovered part of its loss.

Other Exchanges

French franc cables opened at 3:50 5-8 cents, off 7-8 point, but later rallied moderately. The gold export point of francs, on the other hand, was estimated today at $500,000,000 against $3,000,000,000 several months ago. In the meantime, American balances abroad have held steadily around $1,000,000,000. As a result of Europe's heavy call on the New York market for gold, a movement which terminated last month, it was believed that foreign balances here may have been unduly reduced and that a readjustment upward might now be made.

WHAT MANCHESTER'S FIRST TWISTER LEFT IN ITS PATH.

Ruins of Lenti Storage Shed on Gardner Street

Huge maple uprooted in lawn of Mrs. Mabel Case Viot home.

Tree down in lawn at Lawrence Case's Highland Park home.

The above pictures vividly portray the destruction wrought by Manchester's first cyclone when it hit here yesterday afternoon. The photographs were taken for The Herald by Leon Falot. In the top picture can be seen what remains of John Lenti's 100 foot long tobacco storage shed. In the center of that picture amidst the barn's ruins can be seen the automobile truck under which five men crawled to save their own lives. Sections of the roof of this shed were hurled 150 feet into the raspberry and asparagus beds nearby. The picture in the center shows one of the beautiful shade trees that was destroyed at the Viot estate. Two others like the one shown were down as well as numerous smaller trees. In the picture at the bottom can be seen another shade tree, this one in the front lawn of the Lawrence Case home. On the further side of the Lawrence Case home a large maple tree was hurled against the house. The repair truck of the Manchester Electric Company can be seen at the left of the bottom picture on the job almost before the storm was over.

To Use Men, Not Machines On Federal Aid Highways

Washington, July 28.—(AP)—Men, not machines, are to be favored for jobs resulting from the new $120,000,000 in Federal highway aid.

The bureau of public roads is ready to speed the expenditure of many millions next month on the $120,000,000 in Federal highway aid. The new law, first reported by House must prepare regulations to carry out the Congressional mandate of "the maximum employment of local labor consistent with reasonable economy of construction."

Machines will not be banished, but it will be up to state highway departments, with the cooperation of the Federal supervising engineer to determine what work reasonably can be done by hand. There is latitude for differing opinions.

No applications have yet been received for the new funds, but officials believe the entire $120,000,000 will be expended.

WIND WRECKS SHEDS, UPROOTS TREES HERE

Two Vets Shot In Fight With Capital Cops

Washington, July 28.—(AP)—Shooting broke out today between police and veterans encamped on Pennsylvania avenue two blocks from the Capitol.

Veterans surged about a large and partially dismantled brick structure which they were occupying when suddenly a fight broke out with an officer attempting to disperse them.

A half dozen shots were fired and one veteran was seized and carried to a patrol wagon.

Two veterans were shot, one in the neck and one in the side.

AMERICANS WATCH CANADIAN PARLEY

Unofficial Observers Worried Over Action Which May Hurt U. S. Interests.

Ottawa, July 28.—(AP)—American interests, eyeing the British-Canadian economic conference opening in an effort to protect their trade advantages in Canada began today the drafting of an unofficial statement of views.

The Americans, outsiders at the conference but keenly interested in it, planned to indicate to Canadian officials which might result to Canadian-American trade if certain proposals before the conference were agreed to.

At the same time Great Britain sought diplomatically to force Canada's hand and to learn what British industry may expect in return for preference tariffs favoring Canada.

Britain's Position

From the outset Great Britain has made it clear that she cannot act on Dominion requests for export advantages until she knows what to expect in return.

Conference procedure provided that the daughter nations agree among themselves on trade bargains before Great Britain discusses separately with each what she must claim. The delegations representing the units of the British Empire, are inclined to delay actual bargaining until Canada, titular leader of the conference, indicates what she intends to offer.

The interests of the United States, Argentina, other non-empire nations centers around Canada's stand there outside nations are especially concerned as to what Canada will offer Great Britain in connection with the list of eight thousand industrial articles proposed by Premier Bennett of Canada, as a bargaining basis.

The first plenary session of the committee on customs administration attracted special notices today because under the Canadian tariff act of 1930 the powers given to the minister of national revenue include virtually arbitrary control over imports.

Trade experts blame this law for the fact a package of cigarettes selling in the United States for 14 cents retails here for 55 cents, compared with 25 cents for a comparable Canadian brand.

There was the possibility that the common customs administration might discuss duties outside as well as within the Empire. It so United States exporters would get definite notion of what to look for in Canadian trade.

REODIESIA ACTION

Ottawa, July 28.—(AP)—Southern Rhodesia, which produces livestock agricultural products and citrus fruits in considerable quantities, today followed Canada's lead by offering Great Britain increased tariff preferences.

Similar advances will be made to

THE TREASURY BALANCE

Washington, July 28.—(AP)—Treasury receipts for July were $3,443,143.42; expenditures, $73,302,541.81; balance, $182,436,778.88. Customs duties for 30 days of July were $15,302,596.09.

TWISTER IN WAKE OF ALL DAY RAIN

Cuts Path Through Southeastern Farm Section and Ends Destructive Visit By Felling Huge Trees In Highland Park—Big Tobacco Shed On Lenti Place Squashed; No One Badly Injured In Town's First Cyclone; Think Twister Originated In Cove At Wethersfield Where Water Spout Was Seen Previous To Storm Here.

A real Kansas "twister" that dipped out of an inky sky in the southwest part of Manchester late yesterday afternoon caused thousands of dollars worth of damage to fruit and shade trees, barns, poultry houses and several persons just escaped death as it swept over a narrow pathway traveling in a northeasterly direction across Fern and Gardner streets and on into the Highland Park section.

Comes from Glastonbury

The cyclone struck Manchester at 5 o'clock near the Glastonbury line after sending up a waterspout in Wethersfield Cove. It passed to the west of the Jesuits farm near the Manchester line, swept over the Manchester Country Club fairways, uprooting several apple trees nearby and continuing easterly along Fern street.

Whistling Sound

At the Country club little or no damage was done. There were no players on the course and Bill Martin, professional golfer here, was in his office. He noted a heavy wind blowing and with it a whistling noise. Looking out he saw the wind swirling along the globe reservoir bending so low they almost reached the water.

In the woods along Fern street in back of Dr. R. P. Knapp's and the Fred Van Ness home, here and there, big trees were broken showing the path of the heavy wind. The Albert Borowski farm shows the first effects of the heavy wind. A chicken coop was demolished here and several apple trees were uprooted. The garage was damaged and the electric wires were broken down when one big tree fell through them.

Damage at Tedford's

Further on to the left the home of Robert Tedford shows still greater damage. A big apple tree in the Tedford front lawn was whipped against the roof and a half farm-house knocking the chimney capstone off and plunging a hole through the roof. Part of the shingles along the edge of the roof were ripped off and several panes of glass were broken when apples were picked off the tree and hurled at the house. A large chicken coop was completely demolished. Mr. Tedford had placed some setting hens in the coop and a half dozen of these were killed by the falling timbers. A dozen trees in the large orchard to the rear of the Tedford home were lifted up by the roots. Another chicken coop was turned quarter way around on its foundation but was not further damaged. Two large electric light line poles in front of this house were bent to a 45 degree angle.

Big Tree Down

At the home of Fred Leidholdt east along Fern street a huge maple tree, six feet in diameter at its base, was ripped out of the ground and dropped along the eastern side of the house. The tree missed crashing the house by inches some of the branches picking off shingles on the edge of the roof as they came down with the tree. The hole left by the tree in the ground measures easily five feet square and is about five feet deep. The soil around the roots of the huge tree seems to be pulverized as the thousands of roots, large and small, were ripped out of the ground, grinding the earth. In the quick action. Several other smaller trees were also blown down on the Leidholdt place.

At the Ernest F. Jacobs place next along Fern street the corn in the fields was swept to the ground and some of it nearly uprooted. So strong was the suction that squash and pumpkin vines were nearly ripped from the ground. Apple trees and other fruit trees were torn from the ground by their roots when the twister hit the Adolf Kisman and William Keish places but when it swung along Gardner street to the John Lenti farm it did its greatest damage.

At the Lenti Farm

On the Lenti farm, 270 Gardner street, the wind ripped up a long barn and split it apart. In one end of the barn Lenti, well-known farmer and fruit grower, with several helpers were arranging equipment for the fruit picking season just started.

The first blast of the wind struck the southwest end of the building, and seeming that danger was imminent, Lenti and his helpers crawled beneath a small truck for safety just as the building collapsed on the truck. Lenti received a bruise on his left temple. Carlton Cummings, a brother of B. W. Cummings of Lebanon, a brother of B. W. Cummings was visiting his relative then milking at the Lenti farm, walked into the Lenti outbuilding just as the storm struck. He was struck by a falling timber and bruised about the body.

Peach Trees Ruined

Hundreds of young peach trees exposed to the full force of the five-minute blast on the Lenti farm were snapped off or uprooted. The trees were loaded with fruit and the peach crop was badly affected. The Lenti barn, 100 feet in length, large enough for six acres of tobacco, was demolished and hundreds of strawberry crates piled away for next season in the end of the building were tossed upon the small truck which was run into the building out of the storm. The picture showing the debris of the storm, gives an impression of the narrow escape from death or serious injury, in the storm's path.

At Bengston's

Across the road from the Lenti farm the corn was snapped off two beautiful Norway spruce trees in the front yard of the farm of Gustaf A. Bengston. The top section of one of the shade trees, valued highly by the owner for its beauty and symmetry, was blown against the dwelling a few feet away. Two sheds between the farm and larger barn on the Bengston property were demolished. A collar dog owned by Mr. Bengston, chained in one of the sheds escaped when the roof of the building toppled over backwards into the garden. Two large maples were twisted off at the base. Bengston's yard and a chicken house in the field in the rear of the barn was also demolished. The roof of one of the sheds was blown 50 feet into the field.

Across Gardner street from the Rohan farm the wind scattered 35 acres of corn on the farm of Albert Schendel and destroyed about a dozen fruit trees. A large apple tree in the Schendel front yard was twisted off at the base.

Several old apple trees were blown down the farm of William Keish, 307 Gardner street. Mrs. Keish escaped serious injury while riding towards her home in com- pany with James J. Rohan, 2nd, a neighbor, when Rohan's truck was blown into a cornfield.

Rohan told a Herald man of the unusual experience. He was driving Mrs. William Keish, who lives at the south end of Gardner street, and her daughter to their home. Soon after the wind struck the Lenti farm the tree along Gardner street seemed to twist. The tree fell in front of him. He backed the car and just as another tree fell, just missing him. He backed away but was stopped when he ran into a utility pole that had also blown across the road. For a moment he sat in the car and then there was a feeling as though a great suction was descending over them and he felt he or the other members of the party realized it the car had been lifted up, twisted at a right angle and deposited in the driveway about 12 feet from the road where he had come to a stop. None of the party was injured.

Roof Taken Off

A large section of the roof of the Rohan barn was ripped off and part of the Rohan home was moved three inches off its foundation. A large number of fruit trees were also uprooted on the Rohan farm.

A work crew under Line Superin- tendent James McCaw of the Man- chester Electric Company was busy shortly after the storm shoring up the fallen utility poles on Gardner street and crews from the town and highway department under Fred Lewis and Henry Bradley cut up several large trees that had fallen across Gardner street, carrying the electric and telephone lines with them.

Hits Highland Park

After doing its damage in the farming area along Gardner street the twister proceeded east either along Spring street or through the woods to the east of Gardner street. Several large trees are twisted and torn along Spring street indicating that at least part of the storm was felt in that section. Striking Highland Park was the storm's last

PAY LAST TRIBUTE TO NOTED JURIST

Funeral Services For Ex-Chief Justice Wheeler To Be Held On Saturday.

Bridgeport, July 28 — (AP) — While arrangements for the funeral of George Wakeman Wheeler, former chief justice of the Connecticut Supreme Court of Errors, were being completed, men and women prominent in the legal profession and civic affairs paid tribute to him.

Funeral services, W. Parker Sealey, non-lawyer of Justice Wheeler, announced today will be held Saturday afternoon at 2:30 at St. John's Episcopal church, Bridgeport.

The Rev. Stephen F. Sherman, the rector, will officiate, coming from his summer home at Lake Placid, N. Y., for that purpose. Burial will be in Mountain Grove cemetery, Bridgeport.

The body will lie in state in a chapel at 84 Lafayette street tomorrow afternoon and evening. Burial will be taken to the church and may be viewed after 11 a. m. until the service.

It is expected the justices of the Supreme Court and the judges of the Superior Court will be among the honorary pallbearers and the active bearers will be close friends.

HOSPITAL NOTES

Miss Mary McCaughey of 47 Chestnut street and Ignatz Berzansky of 58 Bissell street were admitted yesterday.

Mrs. Ethel McCoy of 52 Arch street and Miss Helen Westcott of 319 Center street were discharged yesterday.

Hospital tonsil and clinic patients admitted today were Priscilla Ferris of 67 Glenwood street, Rudy and Rose Piaro of 94 Clinton street, George Pallein of 224 Oak street, Raymond Thompson of 618 Center street and Carl Riemer of 191 Maple street.

LATEST STOCKS

New York, July 28.—(AP)—The reborn bull market in the securities markets showed no sign of flagging today, as stock prices swept forward again, spurred on by pronounced strength of the dollar against foreign currencies, and further gains in wheat and cotton.

Virtually all groups of shares forged ahead, after a few waves of active profit taking had been absorbed in the morning. Gains by early afternoon ranged from 1 to 5 points in many of the leaders.

Efforts were squeezed in such issues as American Telephone and Union Pacific. Brokers reported buying from London, Paris and many cities in the interior. Trading was the most active since February in the first two hours.

A number of shares sagged fractions to a point in the early profit taking, but these declines were short-lived. Advances of 3 to 5 points appeared in such issues as Allied Chemical, American Telephone, Santa Fe, Union Pacific, Norfolk and Western, and Delaware and Hudson. Issues up 2 or more included U. S. Steel Preferred, Coca Cola, Du Pont, Consolidated Gas and Southern Pacific, and about 1, U. S. Steel Common, Standard of N. J., General Electric, and General Motors. Oils were somewhat tardy in joining the move.

Chart readers pointed out that the rebound would shortly reach a testing area, as it approached the halfway point between the peak of the preceding rally, recorded early in March, and bear market low touched on June 1. Each succeeding phase of the major bear movement has been followed by a temporary recovery of roughly half of the ground lost. The March-June decline was the seventh downswing since autumn of 1929, and the usual rebound was somewhat slow in getting started. If the market is able to carry on beyond the limits of a normal technical rebound, market theorists will be greatly encouraged. Much may depend, they contend, on the autumn recovery in business, first, scattered signs of which are now appearing, and the avoidance of any unexpected shock to confidence.

The fresh strength of the dollar was generally attributed in banking quarters to sales of Sterling and French francs to buy dollars to pay for American securities. London has recently shown a pronounced increase in speculative interest in the American market. Continental gold currencies have reached levels suggesting a substantial return flow of gold to this country.

Bankers were inclined to the opinion that current gold stocks were adequate, and such a large movement of metal to this country as would disturb Europe was undesirable. Nevertheless, some said that with our currency circulation at such an abnormally high level, more gold might help the Federal reserve in its credit expansion program.

Bradstreet's weekly food index showed a slight recession for the first time in weeks, but the way a number of commodities have pushed up in the last two days indicated that it was temporary. Improvement in metals would be viewed as decidedly constructive, and some observers were encouraged by the signs of firmness in steel scrap, and the advances in lead prices this week.

AGAINST SALES TAX

Waterbury, July 28.—(AP)—Mayor Frank Hayes said today that the city of Waterbury is strictly opposed to the levy of a general sales tax at proposed special session of the General Assembly to provide revenue for unemployment relief.

"Waterbury is handling its own relief problem efficiently," he said. "If the citizens of Waterbury are taxed for a general state relief fund, a proportion of the funds so realized in this city would go for the assistance of the 148 towns in the state."

Mayor Hayes said, however, that he would not criticize a general relief plan if it allowed Waterbury to use all the funds raised in Waterbury for the relief of its own people.

MR. ZERO ARRESTED

New York, July 28.—(AP)—Urban Ladoux, whose work among the elderly needy, earned him the title of "Mr. Zero", today was accused of having issued worthless checks in Atlantic City, N. J., and was committed to Tombs prison by Magistrate Adolph Stern in default of $1,000 bail, for a hearing Monday.

Assistant District Attorney Eugene B. McAuliffe said a telegram had been received from Prosecutor Louis Repetto at Atlantic City that Ladoux would be extradited at once and the adjournment was requested to await arrival of extradition papers. Ladoux consented to the adjournment after a detective told the magistrate he understood Ladoux had been indicted in New Jersey on one check for $50 and that he understood there were a number of other checks.

MARKERS IMPROPER, DRIVER ARRESTED

New Haven Man To Appear In Court Here Tomorrow For Illegal Car Registration.

Leo Louis Sovella, 22, of 872 Chapel street, New Haven was arrested on Pine street at 12:45 this afternoon and charged with the use of improper markers. When stopped by Officer Raymond Griffin, Sovella was driving a Jewett automobile model 1928 and the markers were for a Maxwell touring car. He will appear in town court tomorrow morning.

RINALDI-BUKOWKY

Frank Rinaldi and Johanna Bukowky, both of Hartford, were married in Manchester last night at 7 o'clock by Thomas Brennan, Justice of the Peace.

GRAVEYARD CROONER WAS PRISON TRUSTY

Joliet, Ill., July 28.—(AP)—The ghost of the convict Fetter's Field will croon no more.

A sentry posted by state penitentiary officers found the phantom singer early today in the quarry whence his melodies and Latin chants had floated up to an entranced and mystified audience from the surrounding countryside.

William Chrysler is the phantom's name—a prison trusty on night watch duty in the stone quarry behind the burying ground for convicts. He had been on that post three weeks; and in that period the songs seeming to come from the little graveyard had brought hundreds nightly in search of the ghost singer.

Chrysler was brought before Colonel Frank D. Whipp.

"I have to come down behind this old cemetery every morning," he explained "to look at these pumps and its kind of spooky around there. I usually sing something like 'Book of Ages' or 'Onward Christian Soldiers' to sort of cheer myself up."

Colonel Whipp suggested that hymns be sung hereafter in the daylight hours, and far away from the burying grounds.

OBITUARY

FUNERALS

Thomas J. Stratton, Washington Loyal Orange Lodge, No. 117, will attend in a body the funeral of Brother Thomas J. Stratton who died suddenly Tuesday night at the Memorial Hospital. Prayers at the house, No. 46 Garden street, will be held tomorrow at 2 o'clock, and will be followed by a service at St. Mary's Episcopal church at 2:30. The rector, Rev. James Stuart Nell will officiate, assisted by Rev. Watson Woodruff of the Center Congregational church. Interment will be in the East cemetery.

A brief funeral service for the late Ulysses G. Lippincott will be held at 7:30 o'clock tonight at his home on McCabe street, prior to sending the body to Beverly, New Jersey, for burial. Rev. L. Theron French will have charge of the service.

The funeral will be held in New Jersey Saturday afternoon. The Junior Order of United American Mechanics will have charge of the service. Burial will be in the Cooper-town cemetery.

LOAN FOR ILLINOIS

Washington, July 28.—(AP)—Exactly a week after the new Federal relief bill became law, Illinois today has a $5,000,000 addition to her bank account with which to feed and care for the needy.

A Federal loan of this amount—at three percent interest—was announced by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation yesterday and made available immediately, because "it appears that relief funds will be exhausted in certain localities" of that state by Monday.

Other applications for state loans are pending but it was believed the corporation would withhold action on most of them until the new directors take office.

YOUTH DISAPPEARS

Washington, Vt., July 28.—(AP)—A posse of 30 men searched along the north end of Lake Whitingham today for William Stetson, 20, son of Selectman Albert Stetson. Young Stetson disappeared while on a fishing trip but his father fears foul play.

ABOUT TOWN

The Ladies Aid Society of the Quarryville Methodist church at Bolton Lake will serve a salad and baked bean supper, country style, this evening, from 6 to 8 o'clock, daylight time. Weather permitting the meal will be served outdoors.

Ensign and Mrs. George D. Williams of the local Salvation Army Corps will leave tomorrow on their vacation. After a short visit with Mrs. Williams' brother in Flushing, L. I., they will go for two weeks to the Officers Home of Rest at Belmont, N. J.

A special meeting of Manchester Lodge L. O. M., will be held in their home on Brainard Place tomorrow evening at 7:45 when action will be taken on the death of George Tomlinson, a member of the lodge, and arrangements will be made for a delegation to attend the funeral.

An infant and pre-school clinic will be held tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Memorial Hospital clinic building.

The annual picnic of the Mesarens church and Sunday school will be held Saturday at Columbia Lake. Three buses will leave the church at 9 o'clock. Various committees are in charge of transportation, athletic events and providing for ice cream. Families will carry their own basket lunches.

Mrs. Adelaide R. Battaglio of the office for C. E. Wilson and Company, Allen Place, is away on her vacation.

MOTHER TO BATTLE DEPORTATION ORDER

Norwalk, July 28.—(AP)—Mrs. Viola King Dugdale Bates of this city is fighting today to prevent the deportation of her husband, Stanley Bates, a citizen of Great Britain who is held by immigration officers at Hartford charged with illegally entering the U. S. in 1921.

In arguing for her husband Mrs. Bates discovered she herself had lost her citizenship by marriage on September 18, 1922.

As a result Mrs. Bates will appear before the Naturalization Court in September to be admitted again to citizenship. When this step is completed, she will ask for the admittance of her husband under the "non quota plan."

Mrs. Bates was born in Darien and is the daughter of George Dugdale, prominent merchant of that town. Bates, originally a sailor, jumped ship at New York to enter this country. That he was here illegally would not have been discovered had he not visited England a year ago and then got back in the United States via Canada. Bates is to be released on bond pending his wife's appeal to Washington.

THEY INVENT A RACKET TO SEE TWISTER AREA

Those Who Haven't Automobile Make Up Clever Means of Getting To Damaged Section.

Nearly everybody in Manchester wanted to see just what did happen when the "twister" visited the Highland Park and south section of Manchester yesterday. They did not all have automobiles and a scheme was hit upon that worked well.

Approaching a person who owned an automobile they would ask, "Been up to Highland Park?"

If the person who owned the automobile said that he had and started to talk about the size of the trees and other damage, "Impossible," would be the rejoinder.

"Well, if you don't think it is so, get in and I'll show you," the driver of the car would say and in this way many who would otherwise have been unable to view the trouble were given a free ride around the district.

BOND THIEF SENTENCED

New York, July 28.—(AP)—Louis Gersamer, 26, formerly employed as a messenger by the Ernst and Company, brokers of 120 Broadway, was sentenced by Judge John J. French in General Sessions Court today to five to ten years in Sing Sing prison.

Gersamer entered a plea of guilty to grand larceny in the first degree on an indictment returned November 18 last, charging theft of $56,000 in bonds from the firm. He had worked for the firm only a day and a half, was given the bonds to deliver and nothing was heard from him for months after the theft.

Finally, June 28, last, his mother received a letter from him from Chicago and notified the surety company which had bonded him. When arrested in Chicago, police said they found $10,000 of the bonds in his possession.

The Probation report said it was believed he was the tool of an organized group of bond thieves.

PUBLIC RECORDS

Marriage Application: Leroy E. Chapman and Antoinette Reimer, both of Hartford, applied for a marriage license in the town clerk's office yesterday.

Warranted Deed: The Hull Investment Company to Henry P. Upton and Mary Goodwin, lot 80 in the "Pinehurst" tract on Alton street.

UPSHAW OPTIMISTIC

Chicago, July 28.—(AP)—William D. Uphaus predicted today the National Prohibition Party of which he is the presidential nominee would meet success in November if the nation's prohibitionists followed the dictates of their consciences in voting.

"If all the citizens in America who are dissatisfied with the Republican and Democratic platforms as regards prohibition" Uphaus said, "will be brave enough to vote their dry convictions, then the prohibition party presidential nominee will be elected."

DIES SUDDENLY

Waterbury, July 28.—(AP)—Rhoderick M. De Land, 78, died suddenly at his home in Watertown near here last night at 7 o'clock of heart trouble as he was preparing to go out for the evening. Although not in good health recently, he was able to do light work.

Mr. De Land was born in Lynn, Mass., in 1854 and lived there until he came to Watertown 45 years ago entering the employ of Merritt Hemmaway with whom he had been associated ever since.

NEW TRAFFIC MANAGER

Chicago, July 28.—(AP)—William Haywood was appointed freight traffic manager of the Illinois Central system today, effective August 1. He succeeds V. D. Fort, who has been selected for the new position of eastern traffic manager at New York.

Fort, who has been with the Illinois Central since 1893, having served at Memphis, New Orleans and Chicago, will have charge of all eastern freight and passenger traffic offices.

Haywood has served as secretary of several Illinois Central offices.

GORGULOFF TO DIE ON THE GUILLOTINE

Russian Who Killed President Doumer Asks That He Be Shot Like Soldier.

Paris, July 28.—(AP)—Dr. Paul Gorguloff, who shot and killed President Paul Doumer faces death on the guillotine.

He was found guilty of murder by the jury yesterday and sentenced to die under the famous knife which began lopping heads in France during the bloody days of the revolution, nearly a century and a half ago.

The jury's vote was 10 to 3 for conviction. Unanimity is not required under the French law. He was given three days to appeal.

Earlier in the day he cried: "Let me on the guillotine!" after the sentence was read and he changed his mind and asked to be shot.

"Shoot me with a gun, like a soldier," he said. "Do not guillotine me."

ANDOVER

F. A. Sackett, 89, died Wednesday morning at 4:30 at the home of Mrs. Florence Platt. Mr. Sackett was in business in Andover for 43 years and held town offices for 30 years. He sold out about six years ago and went to Florida. He returned to Andover a year ago last May and has made his home with Mrs. Platt and her son George. The funeral will be held in the First Congregational church Friday at 2 p. m. Rev. Wallace I. Woods will conduct the service. The bearers will be L. J. Merritt, George Merritt, Winthrop White, Charles Whitt, Fred Bishop, all of Andover, and Arthur Combs of Hartford. Burial will be in Cedar Hill cemetery, Fairfield avenue, Hartford.

George Platt left for Nashua, N. H., Tuesday, on a business trip for John Allen, of South Coventry. William Palmer is accompanying Mr. Platt.

Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Foote of Colchester and Edward S. Raymond and daughter, Miss Ruth, of Amston, spent Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Foote's sister, Mrs. Addison E. Frink.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Phelps and sons, Charles and John, attended the wood-sawing contest at Storrs College Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Wright of Wilimantic visited Mrs. Florence Platt Wednesday afternoon.

George Green is spending a few days at Rocky Point, R. I., and at Vinton.

HELD FOR FEDERAL COURT

New Haven, July 28.—(AP)—John T. Campton who admitted ownership of the building on George street raided as a speakeasy was held for the next term of the Federal Court today by U. S. Commissioner R. E. Alcorn. Bond was fixed at $1,000.

Campton denied knowledge or ownership of liquor found in basement lockers. Alcorn overruled an argument by Campton's attorney that the search warrant was incompetent.

STATE GRANTS GIVE 97 TOWNS $24,380

Payment in Lieu of Taxes To Be Made This Month, Budget Announces.

Payment of $24,380.53 by the state to ninety-seven towns, where certain state-owned tax exempt property is located, will be made during August, State Tax Commissioner William H. Budgett announced yesterday.

A total valuation of $1,177,518 has been placed by the tax commissioner upon the land subject to the state grant.

The state now owns 32,951 acres of land subject to this law, an increase over 1831 of 10,710 acres or 14.8 per cent.

State forests constitute the largest single class of property involved, with state parks second largest.

(a) 60,943 acres of state forests, valued at $495,584, upon which $10,923.20 is paid to towns.

(b) 10,787 acres of state parks, valued at $275,400, with grant of $5,289.92.

(c) 3,720 acres occupied by state hospitals, valued at $121,875; resulting in payment of $3,200.27.

(d) 3,394 acres occupied by correctional institutions, value, $158,355; grant, $3,319.81.

(e) 2,382 acres of camp grounds, value, $61,000; grant, $1,227.71.

(f) 598 acres of fish and game preserves, value, $10,919; grant, $248.45.

(g) 586 acres of fish hatcheries, value, $8,493; grant, $222.21.

(h) 475 acres of forest reservation and game preserve, value, $4,748; grant, $119.70.

(i) 30 acres at Fitch's Home for Soldiers, Darien, value, $7,000; grant, $157.50.

(j) 10 acres occupied by the state pier at New London, value, $3,000; grant, $67.50.

(k) 4 acres under jurisdiction of highway commissioner, leased for private use, value, $944; grant, $19.47.

An increase of 17 per cent, or $3,800.53, over last year's grant is noted.

In the seven years that the tax commissioner has administered this statute, the sum distributed has increased sharply.

In 1928, $8,753.01 was the amount of the gross grant for fifty-five towns having certain state-owned properties.

In 1931, eighty-eight towns were in the group. Nine towns received the money this year for the first time.

They are: Beacon Falls, Bethany, Egglest, Naugatuck, New Haven, Old Lyme, Stratford, Tolland and Waterford.

East Lyme Gets Largest Share. East Lyme received $2,036.78, gets the greatest portion of the state grant.

Other towns which will receive more than $1,000 are: Middletown, having state hospital, Long Lane Farm, Dart Island State Park, $1,604.12.

Maddison, having Hammonasset State Park and Cockaponset State Forest, $1,483.89.

Eastland, Tolland State Forest, $1,299.29.

Barkhamsted, having American Legion, People's and Tuxis State Forests, $1,135.71.

Voluntown, having Pochaug State Forest, $1,067.53.

Other towns benefiting by the state grant are: Ashford, $350.89; Beacon Falls, $208.80; Berlin, $12.03; Bethany, $5.94; Bethel, $3.00; Bolton, $11.20; Burlington, $363.64; Canaan, $192.05; Chaplin, $14.70; Cheshire, $885.50; Chester, $15.00; Clinton, $18.50; Cornwall, $524.21; Coventry, $45.00; Danbury, $19.00; Darien, $137.50; Durham, $1.18; Eastford, $736.84; East Haddam, $189.20; East Hampton, $468.36; East Haven, $304.80; Ellington, $107.23; Enfield, $90.25.

3 YEARS OIL SUPPLY ON S. S. MANHATTAN

One of the amazing advances achieved by modern lubricating engineers is the long life of lubricating oil under severe operating conditions.

The supply carried aboard totals 13,000 gallons, according to Commander Edward Ellsberg, who is principally known for his submarine salvage work, but who is now aboard the Manhattan as official observer for Tide Water Oil Company, which supplies all lubricating oil for various uses throughout the ship.

The Manhattan's two main gear wheels weigh over 800,000 pounds apiece, and are subjected to enormous stresses, some of them peculiar to marine engineering. Among these are the strains set up by the gyroscopic effect created by the rotors of the great turbines revolving at high speed and the transitory but powerful strains occurring on occasion when the propellers are lifted out of, and then suddenly submerged in the ocean during major storms.

HOLLYWOOD STARS IN BIG PAGEANT

Imperial Council of Shriners
To Close Its Session On Coast Tonight.

San Francisco, July 28.—(AP)—Star and crescent flashed in a final blaze of pageantry here today as Hollywood film luminaries joined in celebrating the conclusion of the fifty-eighth annual Imperial council session of the Ancient, Arabic Order, Nobles of the Mystic Shrine.

The climax of the closing program is to see the shrine uniformed units and the motion picture celebrities massed in an electrical pageant at the specially constructed Civic Center Stadium tonight. Grand marshal of the fourth and final parade of the three-day convention will be Harold Lloyd, actor and Shriners.

Wallace Beery, an advance member of the Hollywood delegation, has been in San Francisco for several days attending the convention, as has another motion picture celebrity, George Bancroft.

More Stars
Among stars from filmland in the announced list of pageant participants, are: Tom Mix, Joe E. Brown, Bebe Daniels, Ben Lyon, Edward G. Robinson, Buster Keaton, Anita Page, Polly Moran, George Raft, Dorothy Jordan, Boris Karloff, Romeo Ates, William Desmond, Hedda Hopper, Estelle Taylor, Richard Bennett, Joan Bennett and Wallace Ford. Joseph Schenck, producer, also will be present.

On the night, the third parade of the convention passed in review before packed stands. Shrine patrols of North America paid tribute to their new Imperial Potentate, Earl C. Mills of Des Moines, Ia., and their retiring leader, Thomas J. Houston of Chicago.

Earlier a Mardi Gras of Industry carried out the convention's keynote of optimism with an impressive display of progress and farewell to "Old Man Depression."

WAPPING

Wapping Grange No. 30, P. of H., held their thirteenth regular meeting this year, last Tuesday evening at the Center School hall. There was a short business meeting with 34 members present. The lecturer, Miss Esther Wells, announced the next meeting would be Melodious Night and appointed the following committee in charge: Mrs. Franklyn G. Wells, Jr., as chairman; Miss Evelyn Twele, Miss Agnes Brandenburg, Levi T. Dewey, Leslie Collins, and James Folk, and in answer to the Roll Call, each one must tell "one of my favorite songs." After the business meeting all went over to the Parish Hall grounds where they held a lawn social, where about 75 enjoyed games for about two hours, after which all enjoyed watermelons. When this was over all enjoyed dancing in the hall until a late hour.

Miss Harriett E. Sharp of Mytic, is spending the week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter N. Foster.

Mrs. Eva C. Stoughton of East Hartford, was the guest of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Edward P. Collins last Sunday and attended church service at the Federated church.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Bidwell of South Windsor spent Saturday in Milford where they attended the White Shrine picnic held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Donnes.

Queer Twists
In Day's News

Springfield, Ill.—It was his idea of community pride that led him astray, Postmaster William L. Beebe of Manito told a judge as he pleaded guilty to embezzling $1,200. He said he used the money to buy new office equipment because he was ambitious to give Manito "the best equipped third class post office in Mason county."

Chicago—Nary a wound has Policeman Martin Condon suffered in coping with evildoers, but houses the thing day was his Waterloo. His wife assigned him to do the bedroom. As he turned over a mattress his pistol beneath a pillow shot him in the leg.

Chicago—The ghost of the larem queens of Xerxes, ancient Persian ruler, must be furious. Scientists from Chicago University report they are now quartered in the six golden apartments of Xerxes' favorites in the Palace of Persepolis.

Rome—Toot! Toot! It's the honeymoon special coming down the track. The state railroads have cut 80 per cent off the cost of round trip tickets to Rome—for newlyweds. The idea is to get more young folk interested in marriage.

Joliet, Ill.—Maybe there won't be trouble if Peter Buschnell catches the thief who stole his garden. While Buschnell slept, the scoundrel walked off with 30 heads of cabbage and 60 hills of potatoes.

New York—It all came out in the wash. Racketeers seeking to intimidate a dry cleaner sewed explosives in the neckbands of soiled shirts and sent the bundle to his shop. The idea was that things would be blown to bits as soon as the explosives came into contact with gasoline used in the laundry. But some one spotted the plot in time.

New York—Fog-top trousers are due for a comeback, decries the International Association of Clothing Designers. The bottoms will be narrow and the tops pleated. The association didn't say anything about reviving the tandem bicycle, nor the Florida sextette.

COAL TRADE IMPROVES

Wilkesbarre, Pa., July 28.—(AP)—Revival of activity in the anthracite trade was indicated today by the postings of notices of several coal companies for operation of collieries in this region, and in the Lehigh valley railroad's recall of several crews.

Collieries called for operation include: Glen Alden Coal Company, 11; Lehigh Valley Coal Company, 8; Hudson Coal Company, 3; Susquehanna Collieries Company, 2.

The Kingston Coal Company also will work several operations. Approximately 2,000 men returned to work today in the Prospect, Henry, Warrior Run and Malby collieries of the Lehigh Valley Coal Company, since since May 4.

NOTED ENGINEER DIES

Cairo, Egypt, July 28.—(AP)—Sir William Willcocks, British engineer and projector and designer of the noted Egyptian Assouan dam, died today of pneumonia.

He was former adviser to the Turkish ministry of public works and created a sensation a number of years ago by declaring the Garden of Eden was situated north of Baghdad.

In 1914 he was retained by the United States government as consulting engineer for the reclamation service.

Chris Peterson To Open New Place of Business On Depot
Square—Campbell Manager.

Chris Peterson, well known market gardener in Wapping will open a retail market in the block on Depot Square formerly occupied by Campbell's Market. The front of the store has been painted red and the entire interior has been repainted in gray. Some alterations have been made to meet the needs of this type of business. Irving P. Campbell will be manager of the store.

Mr. Peterson has been growing garden produce on a large scale for many years and his products are sold throughout Manchester and Hartford. He has always had a reputation for raising first class vegetables and fruits.

It is the plan of Mr. Peterson to feature all of the fruits and vegetables raised at his farm as they come along in season in addition to fancy Southern and Western fruits. He will be able to keep the very freshest supply of local produce at his retail store at all times in view of the proximity of the source of supply. It is expected that all of it will be attractively priced.

TWO MEN ARE KILLED IN BATTLE IN CHURCH

Somerset, Ky., July 28.—Two men were shot fatally, and three were wounded when a revival meeting at the Carter Grove Baptist church at Quinton was disrupted by a gun battle last night.

A party of officers went to the mountain church to arrest Dick East, who allegedly was creating a disturbance at the meeting, on a charge of breach of peace.

Murphy Johnson, deputized to assist in making the arrest, was instantly killed and Dick East's brother, Tom East, was mortally wounded, dying a few hours later.

Deputy Sheriff Kenneth M. Brown was so gravely wounded he was not expected to recover.

Deputy Bunk Hardwick was seriously wounded and Dick East was shot in the arm.

MAYOR CERMAK SAILS

New York, July 28.—(AP)—The mayor of Chicago sailed for Europe shortly after midnight today, leaving two thousand persons very much in the dark.

Mayor Walker had accompanied Mayor Anton Cermak of Chicago to the pier of the liner Bremen, and had spoken his adieu, bon voyage and have-a-good-time.

Five minutes after Mayor Walker had departed, but with the Bremen still at her pier, a transformer blew out, plunging the huge pier into darkness. Fire started in a pall of oil, and the crowd, gathered to see friends depart, threatened to stampede.

A watchman extinguished the fire and order returned. Headlights from automobiles were focused on the pier until those gathered there were safely off.

AUTO VICTIM DIES
Montreal, July 28.—(AP)—Rev. J. H. Heenan, 45, of Lynn, Mass., died in a hospital early today of injuries received in a motor accident. He was struck by an automobile at a street intersection Tuesday night and his skull was fractured.

DEATHS LAST NIGHT

Hunolch, Germany—Princess Leopold of Bavaria, at the age of 75, following an apoplectic stroke May 24. Prior to her marriage to Prince Leopold she was Archduchess Gisela of Austria.

El Paso, Tex.—Former Mayor C. E. Kelly, 68. He was noted as the man who once disarmed Pancho Villa in an El Paso hotel lobby.

Warynsburg, Pa.—Warren D. Jacobs, prominent eastern oil man, of Marietta, O., in a hotel room here.

Fragus, Czecho-Slovakia—Joe Novak, of the staff of a Social Democratic daily paper. He worked for eight years as an employe of a Chicago Czech paper.

PREMIER RESIGNS
Bucharest, Rumania, July 28.—(AP)—Premier Alexander Vaida-Voevod, who became head of the government on June 6, resigned today and agreed to participate in the new Cabinet to be headed by Juiu Maniu.

POLICE COURT

Paul Longo, of Whitehall, Mass., paid a fine of $10 and costs for speeding on Center street. He was arrested by Traffic Officer Herman Muske on July 24.

Philadelphia still likes to be known as the City of Brotherly Love, but even the most ardent native will admit that the bootleggers and police have been carrying a good slogan too far.

BEWARE OF STALE GASOLINE!

ONLY fresh GAS PACKS FULL POWER!

THE longer gas is stored, the weaker it gets. Volatile "easy starting" elements evaporate. In addition, a definite chemical change takes place—so that as gas gets staler, it gets feebler and feebler!

Stale gas is stickier, too—and is far more apt to knock. The entire petroleum industry has long known these facts—has long sought a way to halt gasoline deterioration. Now, by radical advances in refining and distributing, Gulf protects you from staleness—assures you of getting FRESH, full-powered gasoline. In this way...

By making the finest possible gasoline and by refining out of that gas the elements which cause fast deterioration—"staleness." Hence Gulf gas stays FRESH longer.

And by rushing you this FRESH-MADE gas like some perishable food—giving it no chance to get stale.

Careful location of Gulf refineries has made this possible. So wisely are these refineries placed that every Gulf station is close to a source of FRESH-MADE gas. A huge fleet of tank trucks rushes FRESH gas to Gulf pumps every day.

Get FRESH-MADE, power-packed gasoline! Get Gulf—and nothing else. Your motor will be cleaner. Quieter. Faster.

down several apple trees near the baseball diamond and pulled a half dozen poplars along the paper mill road out as if they were baby teeth. At least ten large shade trees and 15 or 20 smaller fruit trees were ripped up in the Highland Park area. Three beautiful trees about the estate of Mrs. Mabel Case Viot were torn out of the ground, three on the grounds of the Lawrence Case house were blown down and two were ripped up in the lawn at the Robert Furinton home. At the Furinton home the roots of one of the trees ripped up two large slabs of the concrete sidewalk.

At the Case Home
A handsome maple tree which Lawrence Case had recently transplanted near his beautiful home was ripped out of the ground and hurled against the house. Herald photographs taken at the Case and Viot homes show the extent of the damage there. The falling trees did not do much damage in the Highland Park area, the edge of the roof on the Lawrence Case home being broken but a little where the tree fell. Electric light and telephone wires were brought down by some of the trees, but the Electric company and Telephone company had crews at work shortly after the storm repairing the damage.

First Cyclone Here
Yesterday afternoon's experience gave the town its first cyclone as far as records reveal. While the path of the storm was narrow, being less than 200 yards in width on Gardner street where it did the most damage to property, it swept over an area about three and one-half miles long from the Glastonbury-Manchester town line, northwesterly to Highland Park where it lifted.

Many of the trees which were either snapped off at the base or uprooted cannot be replaced, especially many of the large trees around the Case estate at Highland Park. The dwellings without the wind without serious damage resulting, shingles and parts of exposed roof being the only parts of houses damaged.

Town Suffers Most
Manchester suffered the most damage, evidently due to the fact that the town was more exposed to a greater elevation than sections of Glastonbury and East Hartford. In Glastonbury a dozen trees were blown down and two telephone poles were broken but service on the utility lines was not impaired. Despite the damage which property owners said would run into thousands of dollars, farmers described the accompanying downpour as the most beneficial received in this district for several years.

Equalled the Test
The storm water trunk line that was built from West Center street to Folly Brook, proved its worth during the storm yesterday. The pool that had always formed on West Center street after rains was not noticeable yesterday and at no time was the street flooded. The big pipe line took care of all the trouble and instead of a section of roadway in front of John Stone's being deep with water there was not sufficient water to cause any delay in traffic at any time. The sewer line was put to a real test yesterday and equalled it.

Big Tree Snapped
On Spring street, between the Case Brothers property and the intersection of Spring and Gardner street a large pine tree that stood on the north side of the road measuring over three feet across was snapped off ten feet up from the ground and twisted and thrown into the woods with the part that was broken off being fully fifteen feet from the tree's original position.

Lightning Causes Accident
When the rain was falling hardest Harry Krantz, of 11 Whitney street, East Hartford, was driving west on Center street. He had crossed the bridge over Folly Brook and had gone under a guy wire. He felt his hands and arms become numb which caused him to lose control of the wheel. The car shot off the road to the left, struck the soft shoulder and turned upside down, resting against a fence. In the car with him at the time were his two sons, Raymond, 11 and Irving 8. There were also two crates that held 36 chickens. Nobody was injured. Mr. Krantz went to a nearby telephone and called for a wrecker from East Hartford.

Washouts
The most damage to highways in Manchester was on Laurel street. This street had been torn up and regraded. The screen traprock was ready to apply, but work was held up awaiting the arrival of oil to form the binder. It had not arrived. The rainwater flooded the gutters from Chestnut street down it took large sections out of the road and cobbles and sand were washed down into the freight yards and on New street.

Swimming in Baseball Field
The water that came through Cedar, High and Pleasant streets and entered the West Side playgrounds formed a pool that covered the entire diamond and out into the rightfield. The water was so deep that children in that vicinity took their bathing suits and at one time, soon after the rain stopped, there were twenty-two children counted in bathing.

Cars Stuck
The rain formed such a deep pool under the railroad pass on Center street that automobiles detoured through New street when going west and those from the west headed east took the trip by Pine street and over the Park street bridge. Several did get through the pool, but there was trouble with their ignition as a result and about 50 cars were affected.

Home Gardens Flooded
The water that went into the storm water sewers resulted in the overflowing of the river that runs behind Cheney Brothers lower mill and was further added to by the storm water outlet that drains a large section of the West Side and enters the brook just north of the Prospect street bridge. The stream from there to where it flows under the bridge on Hartford Road overflowed and the meadows were all flooded. There was considerable damage to home gardens when the storm water sewer that drains from West Center street outlet joined the brook on Olcott property on Olcott street and overflowed.

The Union pond at the North End which has been high all summer as compared to some other years, was much higher today than usual. The rain of yesterday and last night filled the stream running into the pond and the water was going over the dam this morning.

Miniature Niagara
Niagara makes more noise, but for beauty it has nothing on the water falls that developed as the result of yesterday's rain. Right on Main street. The water that fell in Center park flowed towards the Locust and Main street entrance of the park resulting in the water flowing over the stone wall and onto the sidewalk for a distance of about fifteen feet, slightly north of the entrance to the park. It came over in good volume and those who took occasion to get out in the rain and look around felt well rewarded for the sight, even if they had seen the great Niagara.

Bissell St. Flood
Bissell street carried more water off than any of the streets leading off Main. During the shower all the water on the east side of Main street which had escaped the curb drains turned in at Bissell street, drained down over the top of the dry brook and formed a pond reaching from the L. T. Wood Ice plant to The Herald office.

Cars proceeded through the street with difficulty, the water reaching the running boards of passing automobiles. At one time the water was within two inches of the basement windows of The Herald office and had the water entered the building, it would have caused much damage to The Herald press, filling the press as it did three years ago during another heavy hail and rain storm.

Foles Down
Three of the utility poles which toppled over on Gardner street last night are owned by the Southern N. E. Telephone Company and the wire crew worked until midnight getting them cleared. Twelve telephones were out of commission last night but were put on service again today.

The Manchester Electric Company worked late shoring up two poles on Fern street. Damage to poles and lines was $250.00. No trouble was experienced by either company from short circuited lines during the heavy shower.

Much Traffic
All that was needed around Highland Park, Gardner, Spring and Fern streets today was a man with a megaphone. The traffic became so great at 7:30 this morning through these streets that it was necessary, in the Highland Park section, to have signs erected calling for one-way traffic. People who had taken a trip to look over the havoc caused and returned to town and told about it often would have the story doubted. Just to prove that they were telling the truth they would take another load out and cover the section. One man up to 11 o'clock this morning had made twelve different trips around the section pointing out the different things that he had noticed.

FIGHTING FRUIT MOTHS
New Haven, July 28.—(AP)—Eleven million trichogrammas—an egg parasite propagated at the Connecticut Agricultural Experiment station are aiding peach growers in fighting Oriental fruit moths.

The parasites have been mailed to 155 orchard owners and now Dr. Philip Garman and John C. Schread are producing two or three million more. Hartford county is reported to be the most heavily infested with the fruit moth, although trees in Fairfield, New Haven and New London counties also have been affected.

SAME OLD STORY
New Britain, July 28.—(AP)—Before putting gasoline into the supposedly empty tank of his automobile, Alphonse La Flamme, 27, of this city this afternoon took one look into the tank, using a lighted match to aid him. The resulting explosion burned his face so severely that it is feared he may lose the sight of both eyes, and after treatment by Dr. Charles T. Schechtman, he was removed to New Britain general hospital.

Several children who had clambered into the car just before the explosion were uninjured.

CASES OF HUMAN HYDROPHOBIA IN STATE ARE RARE

Dr. Osborn Praises Work of Local Physicians and Explains Need of Precaution.

Connecticut has had only two cases of human rabies in the last fifteen years, its health officers and dog wardens, having been continually on the alert in isolating infected dogs and very strict about the quarantine on other dogs when canine cases were discovered. Dr. Stanley H. Osborn, Connecticut Commissioner of Health, declared last night in the weekly broadcast of the State Department of Health.

Emphasizing the role of Dr. Brown, a local health officer, Dr. Osborn explained to the department's "Smithson Family," which was worried about picnicking near the town because of a recent outbreak of rabies, the precautions which the health officer takes when a mad dog is discovered in the neighborhood.

When a dog is suspected of being infected with rabies, he is immediately locked up by the health officer or dog warden and placed under quarantine. When infection with rabies becomes certain, the dog is kept completely confined until death occurs or, if necessary, the dog is killed. After death, the head is sent to the laboratories of the State Department of Health for examination. No time is lost in restricting the freedom of the infected canine after he becomes sick, no matter how valuable he may be, for should he spread the disease to humans there is no hope for their recovery. Rabies is positively fatal.

A person bitten by a mad dog or even playing with such a dog is in extreme danger. Even though the dog is only suspected of being mad, persons who have come into contact with him should immediately go to their physician and be given the Pasteur treatment. There should be no delay, remembering that there is no hope of cure after symptoms of the disease are observed. If the situation warrants it, the health officer and the Commissioner on Domestic Animals upon discovery of a case of rabies cooperate in placing all dogs under quarantine until after sufficient time has elapsed for symptoms of the disease to show themselves. Even though a dog may not have been bitten by an infected animal, he may have been in close enough contact to receive rabies germs and therefore he must be kept in quarantine so that humans and other dogs will not be infected by him.

The best protection against rabies among dogs would be to have all dogs inoculated once a year by the veterinarian and recommended by the Commissioner on Domestic Animals. If such a procedure were made compulsory it would be a long step toward eliminating this disease.

UNCLE SAM'S NEW TAXES WHERE THEY HIT YOU —AND HOW!

Tax Is New Auto Accessory — But Air for Tires Is on Free List

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the third of 20 daily articles explaining the new federal taxes. By ROBERT TALLEY, NEA Service Writer

Going to buy a new automobile? Get ready to fork over 3 per cent of the price to aid Uncle Sam in raising an additional $32,000,000 needed to balance the budget.

Going to buy a new truck? The tax on that will be 2 per cent, estimated to yield $3,000,000.

Need new parts and accessories to put your old hack in condition, instead of buying a new one? The tax on these will be 2 per cent, estimated to yield $7,000,000.

And do you need new tires and tubes? The government tax on these will be 2 1/2 cents a pound on the tires, plus 4 cents a pound on the tubes. These items are expected to yield another $33,000,000.

Air for your tires — up to the present, at least — is still tax free. The tax on a $1,000 automobile is $20, other in proportion. Since this is a manufacturer's tax it does not apply to second-hand cars.

Roughly, the new tax on tires figures about 11 per cent of the retail sale price. For instance, take a standard make six-ply tire of size 5.25x21, which has numerous cars. The new tax adds $1.15 to the price of this casing, making it cost $11.40 instead of $10.25.

On tubes of the same size, the tax has hiked the price from $1.95 to $2.25, or an increase of 80 cents. Thus, a motorist who buys four new tires and four new tubes pays Uncle Sam about $5.80 additional.

This tax is paid by the tire manufacturer. In some cases dealers absorb it. Other dealers pass it on to the consumer.

The tire tax runs from the cradle to the grave — it applies to every form of rubber-tired vehicle from baby carriages to motor hearses. Even bicycles, invalid wheel chairs and children's rubber-tired toys are not exempt.

The tax on parts and accessories covers "any article, either useful or ornamental, to be attached to the car." It includes spark plugs, storage batteries, leaf springs, coils, timers, tire chains, radiator ornaments, etc.

The tax on motorcycles is the same as on autos. There is no tax on tractors.

NEXT: Theaters, movies, ball games, etc.

SHOOTING VICTIM DIES

Danbury, July 28.—(AP)—Michael Chinese, of the Bronx, N. Y., died in the Danbury hospital early today from wounds received when the loaded chamber of a double-barreled shotgun exploded while he was using the wooden stock to kill a bird which he had winged while hunting Sunday. The bird-shot entered the upper portion of his legs and penetrated the intestines in several places. A coroner's inquest will be held.

SEARCHERS REWARDED

Madison, Conn., July 28.—(AP)—The four youths who found eight-year-old Robert Driscoll Tuesday after an all-night search have been rewarded by the child's mother. Mrs. Donald Driscoll sent checks to William Stack of Guilford and Donald Norton, Louis Trussell and Salvi Lupone, all of Madison, in appreciation of their services.

TO SAFEGUARD CROSSING

Bristol, July 28.—(AP)—Representatives of the New Haven railroad the state Public Utilities Commission and Bristol city officials today adopted a plan for safeguarding traffic at the Doolittle crossing where two women were killed by a train June 25. Traffic will be diverted from the city onto the State trunk road and will avoid stalling of automobiles on the railroad tracks.

SEVEN ROCKET FLIGHT SEVEN MILES A SECOND

Columbus, O., July 28.—In a rocket flying more than seven miles a second, Lester Denslow Woodford, mechanical engineering student at Ohio State University, hopes some day to take a trip to the moon.

Woodford has tested a small model of a rocket ship in the Marble Cliff quarries near here and is confident his ideas will take shape in the future in the form of a rocket more than 700 feet long, weighing at least 20,000 tons, and carrying more than 10,000 tons of fuel.

LAUREL MAIL PILOTS

Washington—Glorification of the U. S. Air Mail pilots, coming from none other than Maj. Gen. James E. Fitchet, U. S. Army (retired), is quite a feather in their caps. Says Maj. Gen. Fitchet: "No set of men sail the skies today who have had more experience, or possess greater skill, than that gallant group which daily streaks with the air mail across our skies. This is a tremendous potential war reserve which our military leaders will be quick to utilize in the next national emergency."

GERMANS IN RETREAT

On July 28, 1918, Americans and French troops pushed German forces back nearly five miles in the Marne salient in a day of bitter fighting. Americans crossed the Ourcq in many places despite stubborn resistance by German troops. French and American troops entered Fere-en-Tardenois after the day's advance and reached the outskirts of Ville-en-Tardenois. Thousands of prisoners and vast quantities of equipment and ammunition were lost by the haplessly retreating Germans. Allied military observers hailed the victory as the Marne as the most decisive conflict on the western front since the first battle of the Marne in 1914.

GIRLS ON OUTING AT HOLL ESTATE

Kiwanian Campers Enjoy Day At Bolton Lake Despite the Heavy Storm.

Despite the continual rainfall yesterday, the forty-four girls spending two weeks at the Kiwanis Kiddies Camp at Hebron held a most enjoyable outing at E. J. Holl's cottage on Bolton Lake. The inclement weather failed to dampen their enthusiasm as they dashed pell-mell around the property, some playing games and others swimming and boating to their hearts content.

According to Director Hilda Pearson, "the girls are the finest group ever sent to the camp. Everyone is co-operating to make the two weeks period a vacation long to be remembered. The girls are of a uniform age and size and from the first day of camp were able to get along with each other to perfection.

The refreshments yesterday disappeared rapidly, the weather and sports program combining to make the girls unusually hungry. Hot dogs and coffee were served, followed by ice cream donated by the Manchester Dairy. The rain fell in torrents on both trips, to and from the camp, but the girls were un-mindful of the storm as they sang and laughed and joked, completely satisfied with the day's outing.

ALL WAS QUIET TODAY ON MAIN STREET WHEN—

But a Good Story Was Lost and Pedestrians Were Robbed of the Thrill of a Lifetime.

All was quiet on the "main stem" at 11 this morning. An automobile came down the street from the north and swung into a parking space directly in front of the home of the Manchester Trust Company. No sooner had it reached the curb than a loud report rang out. Pedestrians stopped quickly and stared, not knowing whether to run, or stay and see the action. Bank officials rushed to the windows to investigate. The occupant of the car nonchalantly stepped out and walked towards the bank.

Those who saw him knew it was no bank bandit. They recognized him as Robert M. Reid well known local auctioneer. In answer to the querying glances in his direction Reid pointed to the front tire on an automobile next to his. It had blown out while parked against the curb.

All was quiet again on the "main stem" at 11:08 this morning.

BUYERS' MARKET FOR BUCKINGHAM

Local Farmers in New Organization That Will Offer Produce To Wholesalers.

Plans for the establishment of a Buyer's Market for the retail and wholesale disposition of fruit, berries and vegetables have been made by representatives of fruit farmers and truck gardeners from Glastonbury, South Glastonbury, Buckingham, part of Bolton and Manchester.

The market will be located at Buckingham Four Corner, on Hebron Avenue and will be opened about August 19. The hours of operation will be from 8 to 6 p. m. daily.

It is the plan of the originators to induce the buyers to select stock available through the affiliated groups represented at the Buckingham stand. It has also been planned to contact the buyers from other eastern cities including Worcester, Providence and Boston to have representatives of wholesale buyers to attend the daily sale.

Joseph Tiboni of Buckingham is acting as temporary chairman of the market and is also a director of the concern. Other directors from the town represented are: Joseph Fero of Manchester; Louis Vanni and Frank Buss of South Glastonbury and Guido Mainati of Buckingham.

ROCKVILLE DISAPPROVES OF BATHING IN NUDE

Two Arrested For Indecent Exposure But One Skips—Passersby Entered Complaints.

Rockville, July 28.—The practice of bathing in the nude in public places was frowned upon in Rockville Police Court today, the frown extending to a fine of $5 and costs of $12.96, imposed on Frank Kashady, 16, who was arrested on a charge of indecent exposure. A companion, Everett Smith, arrested on a similar charge, jumped his bail by leaving for New York.

Kashady, who lives in the old Campbell place at Dyden's Corner, bathed in the swimming pool known as "Sucker's Hole," located on the state highway from Manchester. Other young men also make use of the place but Kashady and Smith were the only ones to use it without benefit of a bathing suit. Passing motorists and nearby residents complained to Constable Clayton Richard, who arrested the boys. They were released on bail for their

TWO COMPANIES BIDDING FOR RICHFIELD ASSETS

Los Angeles, July 28.—(AP)—Persistent but unverified reports were in circulation today that both Shell Union and Cities Service Company contemplate outbidding the Consolidated Oil Company's $22,500,000 offer for the assets of the Richfield Oil Company.

Although the joint reorganization committee representing Richfield creditors last night formally accepted the Consolidated's offer, it was revealed the committee reserved the right to consider other bids submitted within the next 45 days.

Formal acceptance of the Consolidated offer, however, was seen as a virtual end to the rivalry for the control of Richfield, a company which once had assets of more than $200,000,000 and was a leading marketer of gasoline on the west coast.

The Consolidated offer calls for $17,500,000 Consolidated oil 6 per cent 15 year debentures, 300,000 shares Consolidated oil common and $2,500,000 in cash. At current market prices for the stock, the cash equivalent of the total is about $22,500,000.

The offer of the Consolidated company calls for no consideration of stockholders of Richfield. Final recovery for bondholders has been calculated at approximately 50 per cent par value of Pan American bonds, 35 per cent on Richfield bonds and 15 per cent on claims of unsecured creditors.

WOULD REDUCE FEES OF FAMILY DOCTORS

New York, July 28.—(AP)—Dr. A. J. Rongy believes it is time to cut the cost of medical care and he suggests that the family doctor do something about it.

Dr. Rongy, chairman of the Greater New York committee on health examination, expresses his view in the current "Health Examiner."

"The methods of medical practice which obtained during an era of prosperity can no longer continue," Dr. Rongy says. "The lavish expenditures which prevailed in the treatment of the sick, will no more be possible.

"The family doctor, to a large degree, is responsible for the tremendous and very often unnecessary hospitalization of patients throughout the country.

"During a prosperous period it was inevitable that specialization as we now know it should grow to disproportionate prevalence. The function of the family doctor became reduced that he practically became a referring agent for specialists."

FOR DEBT REVISION

Washington, July 28.—(AP)—An indication from an administration Republican that he might be willing to talk about debt revision if Europe will reduce arms created more talk in the capital today over what actually is going to happen.

The latest pronouncement was from Watson of Indiana, Senate Republican leader. Watson found it "unthinkable" that the United States should let Europe keep the money it owes to build more war strength.

But he did not find it "unthinkable" that the United States might be willing to trade debt reduction or cancellation for disarmament.

STEEL TRADE IMPROVES

Youngstown, O., July 28.—(AP)—Youngstown Sheet and Tube Company today announced that small orders will enable resumption tomorrow of one of its seamless tube mills, which have been idle since June 11. The duration of the operating period is uncertain.

INJURED IN WRECK

New Haven, July 27.—(AP)—Mrs. G. Schusky, 22, was in St. Raphael's hospital today with a possible skull fracture suffered when an automobile driven by Russell Reynolds, 22, struck a pole in Hamden.

Reynolds who was slightly hurt, was held on a reckless driving charge by Hamden police.

FIVE DAY WEEK

Washington, July 28.—(AP)—Two federal departments today sought for the President information as to how fast the five day week is spreading and how it can be used even more.

They were obtaining facts Mr. Hoover intends to have ready next Monday when he meets representatives of a recent New England conference on re-employment. At the coming meeting, the White House said, the talk will be of "what further co-ordinated steps can be taken to shorten working hours and spread employment."

ROCKVILLE DISAPPROVES OF BATHING IN NUDE

Rockville, July 28.—The practice of bathing in the nude in public places was frowned upon in Rockville Police Court today, the frown extending to a fine of $5 and costs of $12.96, imposed on Frank Kashady, 16, who was arrested on a charge of indecent exposure. A companion, Everett Smith, arrested on a similar charge, jumped his bail by leaving for New York.

Kashady, who lives in the old Campbell place at Dyden's Corner, bathed in the swimming pool known as "Sucker's Hole," located on the state highway from Manchester. Other young men also make use of the place but Kashady and Smith were the only ones to use it without benefit of a bathing suit. Passing motorists and nearby residents complained to Constable Clayton Richard, who arrested the boys. They were released on bail for their

FLIERS TAKING REST

Montreal, July 28.—(AP)—Captain Wolfgang von Gronau, German aviator and the three members of his crew were the center of a whirl of social engagements today.

Reports they would continue westward around the world were denied by the captain himself. He said he knew nothing of refueling depots reported to have been placed for him on the northwestern route to Japan. He planned to take off for Chicago Saturday.

TWO WITHDRAW CLAIMS FOR WENDEL FORTUNE

New York, July 28.—(AP)—Surrogate James A. Foley announced today that two of the claimants to the $30,000,000 Wendel estate had withdrawn from the case altogether and that another had withdrawn a claim to being a fourth degree heir.

The surrogate said that counsel for Ethel May Rous had conceded that she was not a fourth degree relative of the late Ella V. Von E. Wendel, but now asserted she was probably related in the sixth or seventh degree. The lawyer was given 10 days to file an amended bill of particulars.

Today's announcement reduced the number of fifth degree claimants to 25, nine of whom have been recognized by the estate, and there are still two fourth degree claimants,

REGIN HERE TODAY MONA MORAN, receptionist in a Wall Street law office, goes with her childhood sweetheart, STEVE SACARELLI, to a popular supper resort, the Halcyon Club. Mona lives on Third avenue, supports her invalid father, mother, little sister, KITTY, and her do-well brother, BUD.

Steve has been mysteriously absent from New York for three years. Now he appears, well dressed and prosperous. With no thought of impropriety, he has ordered a gown and wrap sent to Mona which, after much indecision, she decides to wear.

At the office that day Mona had met BARRY TOWNSEND, rich and socially prominent, but refused to dine with him. However, she cannot resist Barry's charm and mind. Mona is pleased at the improvement in Steve's appearance and manner but does not think she is in love with him.

Bud Moran comes to the Halcyon Club to see BUCK HARKINS, the proprietor, who has underworld connections. It appears that Bud is becoming involved with gangsters.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY "Why, it's Lottie!" Steve exclaimed, directing Mona's gaze across the room.

It was indeed Lottie. She had not seen her friends apparently, for she was not looking at them. Lottie sat at a wall table on a platform slightly raised above the rest of the floor so that she could watch the floor show (when it began) over the heads of the other diners. Just now she was eating busily and neglecting her companion quite mercifully.

Her escort was a bored looking youth with sandy hair, dinner-coated, morose and rather distinguished. The evening was not pleasing him. But, looking at her, Mona observed that this young man belonged to that group of society that never is by tradition and precept pleased. He lived to be bored and Lottie would serve for company as well as anyone else.

"Great Heavens, the girl is having breakfast!" Mona added, amused. But Mona was not really amused at finding Lottie here, ready at any moment to join them. Steve's interest in Lottie rather irritated Mona. Half an hour before he had been making love to her!

"Breakfast?" repeated Steve, his eyes on Lottie and humor reflected in his tone. Lottie had just finished a huge half grapefruit sunk in a silver basin of ice and was about to attack an omelet when she spied Mona and Steve.

She waved a fork gaily at their table and called to the waiter to bring her second. "Hello, Mona, darling. And Steve! Why, where—when in the world did you get in—or out?"

Mona stiffened, her face flushing. How could Lottie behave so! The innuendo in the other woman's words meant that Lottie believed, or pretended to believe, that old story that Steve had been in prison. It was gossip that had died away three years ago. Perhaps Lottie thought it rather cute to revive it, she believed it. Privately, Mona knew Lottie was as convicted as Mona herself that the gossip was not true.

The evening, began so pleasantly, was ruined. How could Lottie say such a thing? She was rarely thoughtless and never so. Why was she here at all, with so many other places in New York to go?

"Oh, I've been around for a week or so," Steve was replying cheerfully, unperturbed by the implication in Lottie's words.

"Yes? Mona didn't tell me." "Mona didn't know. I couldn't manage to get in touch with her until today."

Lottie raised her coffee cup to her lips smiling. "Then that's all right," she remarked. "Just as long as she hasn't been holding out on me. Meet the boy friend." With a wave of her hand she indicated the young man opposite. "Perhaps you can help cheer him. I'm making no headway at all and I'm keeping the bill very low."

Flushing, the young man rose stiffly. "Mr. Parker, Mona, Jimmy, Miss Moran, Mr. Saccarelli. We thought Mr. Saccarelli was dead—or something. Now all at once he comes to life again!"

Young Parker bowed distinctly, disinterestedly and sank again into his chair. There had been discussion between him and Lottie all evening. It was clear that Lottie believed she had gained a point. "Jimmy is never very happy here," she went on coolly. "I like this place though. Don't you, Mona?"

"Yes. But we've only been here a few minutes." The orchestra began its low wailing. "Let's dance," Steve said abruptly.

Mona rose gratefully. She remembered that she had always liked to dance with Steve. In the three years of absence his feet had lost nothing of their skill. Their steps fitted as perfectly as they had in times gone by.

"You dance as wonderfully as ever, don't you, Steve?" "You're wonderful partner, Steve. Been dancing much?" "Not at all. Except in my mind with you."

They were dancing dreamily and rather perfectly, swaying slightly, dipping and rising. There might have been the only couple on the floor. The leader of the orchestra watched them admiringly, followed their steps with careful attention. Mona and Steve might have been professional who had practiced together for years. Their faces were rapt, their feet in perfect accord, their bodies swaying.

"Remember that contest at Cloverland?" "We didn't win it, Steve."

EDUCATOR SCORES BRITAIN'S YOUTHS

Says They Are Timid, Cowardly, Untruthful, Vain and Also Dishonest.

London, July 28.—(AP)—Cuthbert Blakiston, a widely known educator, shocked Great Britain today by denouncing the modern boy as a timid, cowardly, untruthful, easily bored, vain and dishonest.

Blakiston, headmaster of Lancing college, one of the nation's famous public schools, voiced all this criticism in a speech before the British Medical Association.

His talk caused a sensation, for England for centuries has been proud of her public school boys, whom many historians have described as the rocks on which the great Empire was founded.

The nation has verily believed that "Waterloo was won on the playing fields of Eton."

Scare headlines were put over the headmaster's speech by the afternoon newspapers.

Blakiston said there was no comparison between the boys of today and those of thirty years ago. The keen adventurous outdoor sportsman of other days has been replaced, he asserted, by youths who do not know how to saddle a horse and who deck themselves out like peacocks so they will look pretty.

It is his belief that the old spirit of adventure is largely gone and initiative is considerably impaired. Nowadays, he said, youths are unwilling to go abroad to seek their fortune.

Blakiston blamed it on the war.

SANDERS CONFIDENT OVER THE OUTCOME

"We Are Going To Re-Elect President" He Tells New York Reporters.

New York, July 28.—(AP)—Republican National Chairman Everett Sanders, a man of few words, arrived in New York from Chicago today to complete his eastern organization, declaring with quiet conviction:

"We are going to reelect President Hoover."

A large, deliberate, soft-spoken man, Sanders refused to be drawn into any discussion of the economic situation and whatever bearing it may have on the President's chances of reelection.

"Do you think you're going to have any harder a fight than you had four years ago?" he was asked.

"We waged a vigorous fight in 1928," he replied slowly. "We shall do the same this year, and we are going to reelect President Hoover."

Sanders indicated he expects to have his eastern organization completed and running next week. The eastern campaign manager and eastern treasurer have not yet been selected, he said.

Among those who have been given serious consideration as eastern campaign manager, he said, is Gen. Edward Martin of Pennsylvania.

"But I don't think we'll get him," he said. "He is state treasurer of Pennsylvania, you know, and Republican state chairman down there. Besides, the National committeeman from Pennsylvania is not at all well, so I think it would be rather difficult for General Martin to get away."

Sanders said he had conferred today with Postmaster General Walter E. Brown, Charles D. Hillis, National committeeman from New York, and with former Governor Henry J. Allen of Kansas, publicity chief for the National committee. He expected to see W. Kingsland Macy, state chairman, later in the day.

"In laying out our campaign," he said, "we consider every Republican worker, from the National chairman to the precinct worker, a unit in the National organization and we shall operate that way."

TUNNEY SPEAKS AGAIN Greenwiche, July 28.—(AP)—Gale Tunney made his second political speech last night but it was a private talk to members of the Democratic Town committee.

He reiterated his intention to vote in November and pledged his aid to the campaign of Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt and Governor W. L. Cross.

Homer S. Cummings, former National chairman, and Representative W. L. Tierney also addressed the committee.

DEMOCRATS DESPERATE, G. O. P. LEADER STATES

Burke Defends Action of President In Appointing Democrat On Board of Big Relief Organization.

Pittsburgh, July 28.—(AP)—James Francis Burke, general counsel of the Republican National committee, in a statement today said that "no more amazing evidence of Democratic desperation has been furnished than the commission of Democratic leaders on President Hoover's appointment of ex-Senator Atlee Pomerene to the Reconstruction Finance Corporation."

Burke said that "no matter what the President does, they (the Democrats) are determined to criticize."

"The fact is this appointment is another evidence of the President's determination to lead the country out of its present dilemma, regardless of partisan politics."

"He has been responsible for every measure and every movement that has withstood the assaults from every source on our social, political and economic structure."

"Today he is being criticized for non-partisanship, while but a short time ago he was being denounced as a partisan by John N. Garner, Speaker of the House."

Burke said that at that time he replied to Garner in a letter and that the things he said to the Speaker then apply now.

Burke's Letter "No exclusive history has more wholesomely thrust aside partisanship and acted as president of all the people than Herbert Hoover since the hour of his inauguration."

"In fact, he was the first President in history to call into White House conference leaders in regard to line of American activity, regardless of party, in order to stem the forces of a world-wide panic."

"From the very beginning of our present economic adversity, he has not only invoked the best brains of the Republican Party, but he has sought the counsel of more outstanding Democrats than any other President."

"To prove his political unselfishness in this he did openly and not secretly. He never sought to deny them any credit to which they might be entitled."

"In every major plan evolved by him for the relief of the American people, he has consistently and continuously called into conference Democratic and Republican leaders alike from both branches of Congress."

"Not only has he refrained from sending his measures to Republican legislative leaders to be sponsored by them alone for partisan advantage, but he has courteously and generously established a new practice of encouraging Democratic sponsorship of his own remedial measures."

"It was manifest to the entire country that what he was seeking was the prompt enactment of laws that would avert further disaster and lay a substantial foundation for the rebuilding of our economic structure rather than to gain any partisan or personal advantage."

Burke said he told Garner that he would avert further disaster and lay a substantial foundation for the rebuilding of our economic structure rather than to gain any partisan or personal advantage."

He said Garner sent him a "good natured reply" but "there is no answer to the facts I set forth."

Greenwood, S. C., July 28.—(AP)—The fact that Fred H. Dominick of Newbury, Democratic Congressman for 16 years, married the daughter of a Republican Congressman, has been injected into Dominick's fight for renomination from the Third District.

Three years ago Dominick married Miss Alva Seger, daughter of Representative George Seger, (Rep., N. J.)

announcing it as a "contemptible, cowardly and dastardly political trick," Dominick made public the following telegram, sent him from Hendersonville, N. C.:

"In appreciation of the splendid service you and your father-in-law, the Hon. George M. Seger, have rendered in Congress, your Republican friends in North Carolina join in extending you much success in your campaign for re-election. You may rest assured that there will be no opposition put up against you in the general election."

(Signed) Your Republican Friends.

Dominick said he would attempt to find who sent the telegram. His wife, he said, has voted the Democratic ticket since their marriage.

Veteran Hurt He stopped the men and asked to confer with company leaders. One small veteran, apparently the leader of the attack, attempted to urge the men on again. He had been struck with a brick and the right side of his face was covered with blood. Police seized him and put him on a patrol wagon.

Walter W. Waters, commander of the bonus expeditionary force, was present but at first refused to take any part in the discussion. Later he talked with Glasford.

Police reinforcements poured in constantly, motor sirens screaming and officers were ready for action with their clubs. No tear gas bombs were used in the first clash, officers fighting the veterans off with their sticks.

NO ONE OWNS $6,000 Washington, July 28.—(AP)—While most folks are fretting about how to obtain more money the Department of Commerce is worried over what to do with $6,000 in its custody which apparently belongs to no one.

The money is interest accumulated by the Bureau of Navigation in New York City from unclaimed wages of seamen, left in the department's care over a period of 35 years. The unclaimed wages total $1,100.

Department officials have ruled that no one holds a legal claim to the interest. Treasury officials have been asked for a decision on its final disposition.

ANOTHER VICTIM OF BANDIT DIES

Son of Man Who Was Killed By Thugs Passes Away; Revolver Found.

New Haven, July 27.—(AP)—A revolver and a good description of the automobile used in the holdup furnished police today their chief hope of capturing three bandits who fatally wounded Louis Albino, 60 year old Woodbridge storekeeper and his son, John.

The 18-year-old boy who was shot as he sought to protect his father from the bandits described the automobile to police before his death yesterday. The elder Albino died twelve hours before his son.

State policemen describing the double slaying as "the most brutal incident to occur in this section of Connecticut in many years" found a loaded .38 calibre revolver near the scene of Tuesday's holdup. They expressed the opinion the weapon was thrown away by the bandits as they fled in their car.

A weapon of like calibre was used by the bandit who shot the pair. Bridgeport, Waterbury and New Haven were reported to be the scenes of the most intensive search for the slayers. Three men were questioned yesterday afternoon by State and city police but were released after they had established alibis. Police said they were running down a number of possible leads.

POMERENE SEES HOOVER Washington, July 28.—(AP)—Atlee Pomerene, lawyer and former Senator, today discussed with President Hoover the duties of his new post as chairman of the board of the $3,800,000,000 Reconstruction Finance Corporation. Secretary Mills and Charles Miller, regional director for the corporation's activities in the New York district, also joined in the parley.

As he left the White House, Pomerene said he had discussed money lending affairs as well as the appointment of a director to fill the vacancy on the board of seven.

BUTLER AS KEYNOTER Waterbury, July 28.—(AP)—The Waterbury American will say today that a committee of the Democratic State Central Committee meeting in Hartford yesterday afternoon decided on David A. Wilson of Hartford as temporary chairman of the State convention and Robert Butler of Hartford as the keynoter.

John H. Cray of this city, Alton T. Miner of New London and Mrs. Catherine Bartlett of Putnam were the committee.

It was also decided to hold the caucuses in this State on August 18.

BADLY HURT IN CRASH Springfield, Mass., July 28.—(AP)—Mrs. Helen Kelly of Hartford suffered serious injuries when a car in which she was a passenger was in collision today in Agawam with one driven by Richard W. Hovey of Boston. She was brought to a hospital here. Mathias Clayton of Longmeadow was driving the car in which Mrs. Kelly was riding. Adelaide Lord of New Britain, also a passenger, suffered minor injuries.

She Reduced 38 Pounds The Safe Way "I have been taking Kruschen Salts for 4 months and I think they are wonderful. I am 23 years old and 5 ft. 3 in. tall. I was very fat. I weighed 165 lbs. and now I weigh 127 lbs. and feel fine. If I let up taking the Salts one morning I feel like a leaden heavy," Mrs. Florence Lafan, Boston.

This is just one of hundreds of letters we get every month—Kruschen not only causes you to lose fat but while you are losing it you gain in health—in vivaciousness—you feel fat where there is most prominent and at the same time keep stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels functioning naturally.

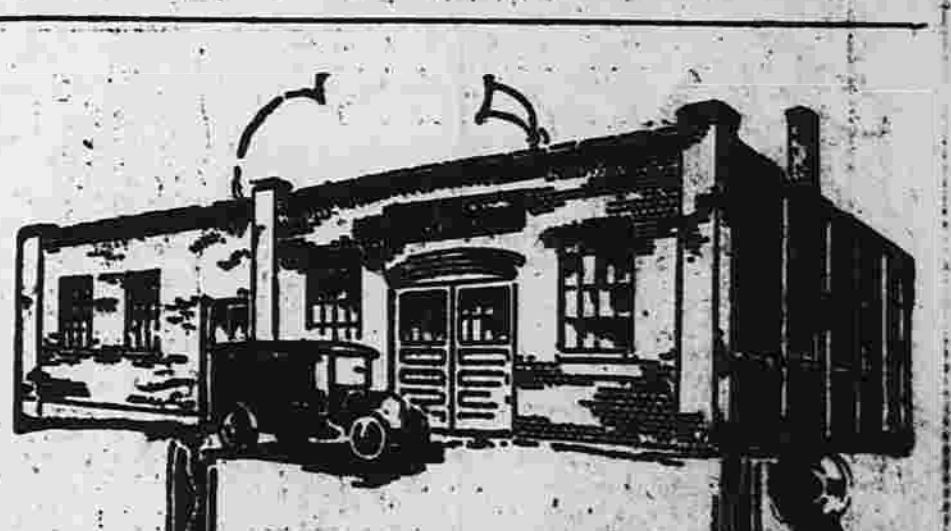

J. H. Quinn & Co., South Manchester—or any drugstore in the world will sell you a jar of Kruschen for a trifling sum—like one-half teaspoonful in a glass of hot water every morning—go light on fatty meats, potatoes and sweets. But for your health's sake demand and get Kruschen Salts—imitations are numerous. Try the little daily dose.

SENSE AND NONSENSE

The easy mark is usually hard up. Never strike while the head is hot. By their laughter ye shall know them.

The long winded are usually short sighted. Hard Work is the father of the Success family. Happiness increases as you spread it around.

Many men can argue over religion they do not have. No man is wise who cannot learn from his mistakes. We are what we are when we are doing as we please.

He who peddles gossip is no worse than he who listens. Some folks seem to think they have religion just because they have indignation. Some men spend more energies defending their failures than in making their successes.

Mr. MacDonald (arranging with clergyman for his second marriage)—And I should like the ceremony in my yard this time, sir. Clergyman—Good gracious, why? Mr. MacDonald—Then the fowls can pick up the rice—we wasted a great deal last time.

Freshman—We sure have a fine landlady. She saved me the tenderest part of the chicken when I was late for dinner yesterday. His Dad—What part was that, son?

Freshman—The gravy. First Man—My wife wants everything she sees. Second Man—Well, you'll have to make your income keep pace with her yearning power.

Old Aunt Maria from Brushville says: "My old man fell over yesterday and tore his trousers. I was wild. It don't matter to you," I says, "But what about young 'Erby when they're his turp?"

Husband—I may be detained at the office until very late tonight — If I am, don't wait up for me. His Experienced Wife (very firmly)—I won't I'll go down and get you.

The Kid—Pop, how soon will I be old enough to do as I please? The Old Man—I don't know. Nobody has ever lived that long yet.

Johnny's mother was unable to attend church one Sunday morning but gave Johnny particular instructions to remember the preacher's text. When Johnny returned from church his mother asked him to repeat the text.

Johnny—A hawk between two pigeons. Mother—Why Johnny, that can't be correct. So she called the minister and his text proved to be: "Why halt ye between two opinions."

How Like the Average Taxpayer! Cows are wise. They show surprise. At nothing you may do; They chew their cud. Because its good. And swing their tails and moo.

Famous Explorer—On my last hunting trip I bagged two elephants. Flapper—How thrilling! Did you have much trouble getting them into the bags?

Bryan may have been right when he declared this country would never have another panic, but he did not make any predictions about "depressions."

ABOUT TOWN

Officers and members of Washington Loyal Orange Lodge, No. 117, will meet at the clubrooms at 8 o'clock tonight and will proceed in a body to the homes of their late brothers, Thomas Stratton of Garden street and George Tomlinson of Pleasant street. The members are also requested to meet at Orange Hall tomorrow afternoon at 1 o'clock to attend the funeral of Mr. Stratton.

Members of Myrtle Review, Woman's Benefit association, and the W. B. A. guards held an outing yesterday afternoon and evening at Marlborough Lake. The usual swimming and boating events were followed by a basket lunch, and the rain did not interfere with the sports until the evening.

Miss Mary McLagan of Woodland street is spending the summer with her sister, Mrs. E. Victor Gordon of Clifford.

Mr. and Mrs. John J. Sinnamon of Highland Park have as their guest this week, Andrew Taylor of Boston.

Miss Barbara Lawrence and Miss Ethel Hewitt, clerks at the Burr Nurseries, are on vacation leave at the present time.

Clerks at the Manchester Trust company out on vacation include Miss Phyllis Burdick and Thomas Rollason, and in the Savings Bank, Miss Martha Stoughton and John F. Shea.

The families of James M. Shearer and William S. Hyde who have been spending the past five weeks at the Shearer cottage at Grove Beach Point, expect to return to town tomorrow.

The Manchester Green Boys' baseball team will give a setback and dance at the Green school assembly hall tomorrow evening at 8:15. The boys are trying to raise funds for equipment.

Rev. Harris B. Anthony, Mrs. Anthony and their baby daughter are planning to leave on Monday for a motor trip to Nova Scotia, where they will visit with Mr. Anthony's relatives.

KIDDIES' PICNIC

FRIDAY NIGHT
Postponed From Last Night Because of Storm—To Be Held At West Side.

Yesterday's rainstorm forced postponement of the Kids' Picnic at the West Side playgrounds last night, but unless the weather interferes again the event will take place tomorrow evening, starting with a baseball game at 6 o'clock.

The committee in charge has worked hard on this Kids' Picnic and it is expected that more than 1,500 youngsters will gather at the West Side for the program, which will include a concert by the American Legion band, dancing to music by the Boys' Club orchestra, quartet singing, and refreshments consisting of sandwiches, cake and lemonade.

All members of the Sunday school and congregation of Emmanuel Lutheran church planning to go to Columbia Lake Saturday afternoon, are requested to provide their own basket lunches and meet at the church shortly before 2 o'clock.
