

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

OUR CODE OF MORALS

Text: Ex. 20:12-31. The International Uniform Sunday School Lesson for Aug. 14.

By WM. E. GILBOY, D. D. Editor of The Congregationalist

The moral and social quality of the ten commandments cannot be adequately appreciated until one considers them in perspective, both in relation to the world surrounding the small nation to which they were given and in relation to the modern world.

Take such a commandment as the fifth—Honor thy father and mother that thy days may be long in the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee.

Men and women who have been brought up in the atmosphere of that commandment, who have had and have a proper feeling of love and reverence for their parents, are hardly in a position to realize its significance.

That profound family ethics, which was engendered in the Jewish race, which continues in that race today, and which coming from that quarter has been so emphasized in Christianity, is one of the brightest and noblest things in the history of mankind.

One might comment similarly upon the sixth commandment, which emphasizes upon the sacredness of human life. Unfortunately here the modern world lags far behind the commandment.

It is evident not only in the gangster's philosophy, but in the recklessness of automobile driving which ruthlessly and needlessly destroys many victims, in the relative disregard of life in industry and in the murderous practice of war which nations, despite the Kellogg pact, have not abrogated in practice.

The commandment against stealing is not quite so simple as it was for the primitive community to which Moses gave it. Then a man's possessions were rather clearly defined.

All the commandments issue in the matter of right relationships of men with one another, and they find their fulfillment accordingly in the law of Christ, which is love. Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself.

LOVING THE NEIGHBOR

BY GEORGE HENRY DOLE. International Sunday School Lesson Text, Aug. 14th. "Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself."—Lev. 19:18.

The head of a religious organization said to me: "It is impossible to love thy neighbor as thyself." He thought he clinched the argument by asking, "Can you love your neighbor's wife as your own?" Such superficiality need not disturb us.

There are millions who love their neighbor as themselves, though they do not know it. If you were starving, would you take food from another's table? If you were submitting to a painful operation, would you have the surgeon hasten his death, not that he has been confined to savage and primitive people.

To love the neighbor does not require that we pay off the mortgage on another's property as we pay our own, nor to provide for other's wives as we care for our own. There are first duties under natural laws, which if we do not observe, we do not love the neighbor as ourselves.

JAPANESE BEETLE SCOUTS IN TOWN

Government Agents Working Here To Prevent Spread of Beetle.

For the purpose of determining absence or presence of the Japanese beetle in South Manchester, field scouts of the United States Department of Agriculture, Bureau of Plant Quarantine, in co-operation with the appropriate State authorities, today began their annual survey of this locality.

Scouting in this community will largely be confined to nursery and greenhouse premises and properties adjacent to such commercial growths.

Under rules promulgated by the Secretary of Agriculture, certain restrictions are imposed upon nurserymen, greenhouse men and others who desire to ship nursery and ornamental stock, sand, soil, earth, pest, control agents or in the vicinity of the insect pest.

Scouts at once engaged only in making observations to determine Japanese beetle infestation. The limited time assigned to scouting activities in South Manchester does not permit them to give detailed information about the Japanese beetle work, nor to identify or suggest control measures for plant diseases or insect pests other than the Japanese beetle.

(A Recent Survey by the Julius Mathews Special Agency of Boston shows The Herald's Local Advertising Rate to be over 30% LOWER than 29 Other New England Dailies of the Same Circulation.)

Member Of
The Audit Bureau of Circulations

This bare statement of fact may not mean a great deal at first reading to the average advertiser or reader but therein lies the greatest amount of business prestige any newspaper can command in the minds of space buyers today. Those who are acquainted with the workings of the Audit Bureau of Circulations know that CIRCULATION FIGURES ACCREDITED BY THIS BUREAU REPRESENT PAID SUBSCRIBERS. It is the Sterling Mark of integrity in circulation among newspapers today.

This is one of the important reasons why readers of the Herald find such a variety of national advertising copy presented to them, the same as is found in the metropolitan dailies because Space Buyers in cities throughout the country KNOW WHAT THEY ARE BUYING when they turn to their A. B. C. reports for circulation, for it is on this basis alone that advertising space is bought by national advertisers. Personal feelings do not enter into these deals. These buyers are out to purchase paid reader coverage.

Circulation books of papers belonging to the A. B. C. are audited four times a year "without fear or favor."

Member Of The Associated Press

The Herald does not solicit advertising to appear in a low quality newspaper. It is serviced with a full news report of The Associated Press, a trunk line wire from New York and Boston running through its editorial rooms and a separate Morse wire giving complete state coverage and an auxiliary service to the trunk line. This news service is exactly the same as offered by some of New England's largest newspapers and is wider in scope than that received by any other newspaper in Connecticut of a circulation similar to The Herald's.

Thus the advertising of high quality merchandise has the advantage of appearing in a newspaper of high quality service at the lowest possible rates.

ALL PARTS OF U. S. SHARED SPOTLIGHT IN OLYMPIC GAMES

Record Smashing Sons of Uncle Sam Came From Every Section of Country

"A new Olympic and world record!"

This statement, slightly modified at times to indicate the topping of only an Olympic record, with perhaps the tying of a world record, rang out many times to reveal the fireworks in red, white and blue provided in Los Angeles Olympic stadium by those husky sons of your Uncle Sam.

From east, south, middle west and far west they came, these record-smashing huskies. No section was denied the glare of the spotlight. The east started it on the first day of the games when Leo Sexton, a giant from Brooklyn, Georgetown University and the New York Athletic Club, heaved the 16-pound shot a distance of 52 feet 6 3/16 inches. This effort added more than five inches to the Olympic record.

Quickly after Sexton came John F. Anderson from Cornell University and the New York A. C. He sent the discus spinning to the Olympic record distance of 162 feet 4 7/8 inches. And if Arkansas is willing, the east also may share the glory that is Little Bill Carr's for running the fastest 400 meters man ever raced. Although Carr is from Pine Bluff, he's Pennsylvania-schooled. But what's the difference? He ran the 400 meters in 46.2 seconds, Olympic and world record time.

There's a measure of glory for the south in Glen Hardin's heroic effort in the 400-meter hurdles. Hardin goes into the books as the Olympic record-holder at 52 seconds, although he failed to win the race. This time also equals the world record. The southerner was given the record when the Irishman, who beat him by a yard, toppled one hurdle in the race.

The west has Bill Miller, Stanford University pole vaulter, and Ralph Hill, 5000-meter runner from Oregon. The Olympic and world records are Miller's by reason of his winning vault of 14 feet 1 7/8 inches. Hill was awarded a half share of the Olympic 5000-meter record with Finland's Lauri Lehtinen at 14 minutes, 30 seconds, after the Finn beat the westerner by only three inches in a disputed finish.

Is the middle west proud of her stars? Detroit and University of Michigan are thinking seriously of running Eddie Tolan for a high public office. On what he showed at Los Angeles, he'd win without removing his sweat suit. Eddie scored the only double victory of the games, setting two Olympic records and equalling one world mark.

Camera Peeks Under Water

One of the thrills in the Olympic women's swimming contests was the way Willie Den Ouden, Little Dutch girl, pictured in the remarkable camera-free study above, splashed right out to set a world record for 100 meters free style in the trials and then forced the American queen, Helene Madison, to still faster time in the finals. Queen Helene proved too speedy for the Hollander, but not until she had splashed the fastest 100 meters ever swum by a woman.

Notre Dame's Four Horsemen' of 1924 Sponsor Grid Trophy Honoring Rockne

Chicago, Aug. 13.—(AP)—Four young men who helped make the country "national championship conscious" in their football championship days have joined hands to perpetuate the idea and to honor their coach. Notre Dame's "Four Horsemen" of 1924—Don Miller, Jimmy Crowley, Harry Stuhldreher and Elmer Layden—have sponsored the Knute Rockne Memorial trophy, annual award to the college eleven ranked highest by the "Dickinson system."

Notre Dame's great 1929 and 1930 teams "retired" the original trophy achieving the three titles in 10 years required for permanent possession. The Olympic and world records are Miller's by reason of his winning vault of 14 feet 1 7/8 inches. Hill was awarded a half share of the Olympic 5000-meter record with Finland's Lauri Lehtinen at 14 minutes, 30 seconds, after the Finn beat the westerner by only three inches in a disputed finish.

Atlanta, Aug. 13.—(AP)—The Southern association hasn't given the major leagues any high priced rookies this season, but fully three-score regulars in the big time now received their training in the Dixie class A loop.

Little Rock and New Orleans have shipped the largest number of players to the American and National leagues, but every club in the circuit has at least four former stars playing in the big show. Bill Dickey, the punch-swinging backstop of the Yankees and Charlie Grimm, first baseman and new manager of the Cubs, top Little Rock's list.

The Travelers also seasoned Earl Grace of the Pirates, one of the National League's best catchers; Benny Tate, the Red Sox receiver, and Tom Oliver of the Red Sox. Bob Smith, Cub pitcher; Joe Sewell, Yankee infielder; Morgan and Connaler, Cleveland first basemen; and Johnny Burnett, Tribe infielder; Duddy Vance of the Dodgers and Ducky Meyer, Washington infielder, went up from New Orleans.

RESNIK FAVORED IN GOLF TOURNEY

Defending Champ in Semi-Finals Today At Norwich; Ahern Is Biggest Threat.

Norwich, Aug. 13.—(AP)—Burton Resnik of Race Brook was within striking distance today of his second successive championship in the Norwich golf club invitation tournament. Overcoming some stiff competition from E. C. McKay of Norwich, the defending champion yesterday earned a two and one victory to enter today's semi-finals.

In another nip and tuck Lattie, Dow Ahern of Williamstown defeated Dom Scolliti, of New Britain 1 up on the 18th hole by sinking a ten foot putt. Ahern was picked as Resnik's biggest threat in the competition for the Noyes trophy.

Resnik met Dick Barry of Hartford and Ahern teed off against Dave Morton of Norwich today in the semi-finals. The four day tourney will end tomorrow with the 36 holes final.

OVER TWO MILLION MADE AT OLYMPIC

Closes Tomorrow With All Records For Attendance Smashed To Bits.

Los Angeles, Aug. 13.—(AP)—The 1932 Olympics, which with the closing ceremonies tomorrow, have far outstripped all records for gate receipts as well as performances. Unofficial estimates today were that paid attendance would total close to one million, and gate receipts around $2,000,000, the most brilliant athletic show ever conducted.

The record smashing track and field sports accounted for the bulk of these figures. Estimates were that 478,000 cash customers were accommodated in the big Olympic stadium in eight exciting days. Altogether day and night over the stretch of two weeks more than 600,000 passed through the main stadium turnstiles.

100,000 Watch Boats Rowing, including an estimate for today's finals, attracted 100,000 to the main stadium at Long Beach while the huge crowds at the swimming championships figured to reach 80,000 today.

Almost from the start there has been no doubt about the all around supremacy of the United States. The point tables, figured unofficially show the Americans with an overwhelming lead. The United States scored its biggest Olympic conquest in track and field sports since the war, captured the free style wrestling championships, clinched the majority of honors in women's swimming and hoped to retain the main laurels of the Olympic regatta this afternoon.

JOHN LAW TO TRY GRIDIRON TACTICS IN POLITICAL RACE

New York, Aug. 13.—(AP)—Johnny Law, captain of the unbeaten Notre Dame team of 1929, is bucking the line again—this time in the field of politics. He recently won the Democratic nomination for assemblyman for his home district of Yonkers and is meeting his opposition with the tenacity which, three years ago, won him a reputation as one of the greatest offensive guards football has ever known.

ROAD WASH MARS NORTH END WATER

Town Engineers Look Into Problem Presented By Effect On Reservoir System.

For the past few weeks the water from the reservoirs of the Manchester Water Company has been unsatisfactory to a large number of users in the north end. After heavy rains there has been much sediment in the pipes, due to the recent heavy rains which have washed soil and gravel into the storage reservoirs.

An effort to correct the condition has been made and the town engineering force has investigated the area within the jurisdiction of the town along roads which border the Manchester Water reservoir east of Lydell street and between the new Bolton Road and the upper part of Lydell street near the home of Samuel Prantice.

Due to the slope of the land it is thought that considerable sediment is washed down across the watershed from the Bolton road, recently constructed, through Wilson brook which crosses this property. At times the water tastes of road oil, due to the washing of roads recently oiled which is drained through the Manchester Water Company watershed.

PURCHASE ORDERS GLOBE MEET GIFTS

Winners To Get Merchandise Instead of Medals For Swimming Prizes.

Purchase orders instead of medals will be awarded the winners of the various competitive events in the annual town swimming meet, to be held at Globe Hollow next Saturday afternoon, it was announced today by Frank Busch, life guard and director of activities at Globe. The orders will be accepted by any merchant in town, wherever the winners desire to obtain the merchandise to which they are entitled.

More Acceptable The orders will be awarded the winners of first, second and third places. More information on this plan may be obtained by calling Mr. Busch, who believes this idea will be more beneficial than awarding medals, due to the fact that the winners may be in need of something more substantial and necessary at this time than an ornamental medal.

It was also announced today that the entry list for the meet may be closed in the near future because of the large number of applications being received. Any one planning to enter the meet are requested to hand in their names at once.

Classes The prizes to be awarded are only for the events in the various age groups which are included in the town championship program and do not apply to the events in the beginner's class. Other prizes will be awarded to the winners of the events in the latter class.

STOP REGISTERING FOR THE CAUCUSES

Registrars Conclude Sessions Last Night—71 Republicans Changed.

Registrars of Voters Robert N. Veitch and Edward F. Moriarty concluded their session at 10 o'clock last night for the registration of electors for the caucuses. Voters registering yesterday, can take part in the party primaries the second Tuesday in September but according to General Statutes those transferring cannot take part until six months have expired.

68 Changes Yesterday's registration found 11 men registering Democratic and 9 women. There were two men who registered Republican. These were straight registrations and not transfers. In the list of transfers 46 men changed their affiliation from Republican to Democratic and 22 women made the same change. There were no changes from Democratic to Republican.

A week ago yesterday three Republicans changed to the Democratic list and one Democrat changed to the Republican list. In the two-day sessions a total of 71 Republicans became Democrats and one Democrat changed to Republican.

To Be Made List Yesterday the Registrars received 41 women's applications to be made voters and 96 men. A week ago the applications of 82 men were received and 76 women. The total list of voters to be made so far received is 288. However, the Registrars will receive applications of voters to be made up to and including September 15.

Several interesting things developed in the transfers of affiliations. In two instances there were transfers from the Republican ranks to the Democrats and both of the voters making the transfers were signers of the Socialist-Labor petition for a ticket. These two voters were sure to have a hand in all party politics.

Two Remain Democratic workers have done considerable solicitation among Republicans in an effort to have them change parties. Batches of these applications were turned in together. Among them were two blanks turned in by Democrats petitioning for a transfer. The blank is filled out with the name Republican filled in and both voters are already registered Republicans. So at least two of the petitioners brought in by Democrats will still remain Republicans.

GEORGE OLDS GIVEN BIRTHDAY PARTY

George P. Olds of 18 Winter street yesterday reached his sixtieth birthday. A party of relatives and friends from Springfield had called to personally congratulate him, and he was further surprised later in the evening when a group of his former associates in one of the Rockville mills came to help him celebrate the milestone. They brought with them a variety of gifts, and one of the housewives had made and decorated a large birthday cake, which was a feature of the buffet lunch. Miss Ruth Olds was aware of the affair planned in her father's honor and tastefully decorated the home in pink and yellow flowers and streamers in her parents' absence. Card games and other social pastimes whittled away the evening.

E. J. McCabe, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, drove to Old Orchard, Me., this Thursday night and will start tomorrow on his return trip to Manchester with his family, expecting to arrive late tomorrow night or early Monday morning.

An average citizen states his own platform "Business is changing ... So am I!" "In the old days when stores were undergoing alterations they used to hang out a sign, 'Business going on as usual.' "Today business is having plenty of alterations but everyone knows it isn't going on as usual. "Let's face this fact, I say, and adjust ourselves to it. Let's not confuse hope with probability. Let's replace paper values with real values. Whenever we see a waste, let's cut it out. Whenever we see a more intelligent way of doing the old job, let's make it our way." If this line of thinking seems reasonable to you, and you apply it to your own affairs, what readjustments does it suggest? That you should revalue the net worth of your estate to your family? That you reread your will in the light of present conditions? That you should revise your plans for their protection? We invite any "average citizen" to discuss with us such changes for the better.
