

DENIES HE BOUGHT STOCK FOR WALKER

Park Commissioner Herrick Disputes Portion of His Testimony Made Before the Hofstadter Committee.

Executive Chamber, Albany, N. Y., Aug. 15.—(AP)—Walter R. Herrick, New York City park commissioner and friend of Mayor Walker disputed a portion of his testimony before the Hofstadter committee, when he told Governor Roosevelt at the ouster hearing today he did not know for whom at the City Hall he purchased 300 shares of stock.

Herrick, subpoenaed as a witness by Governor Roosevelt, was the first to testify at the hearing now in its third day, other than Mr. Walker himself.

The 300 shares of Interstate Trust Company stock he bought in addition to an allotment for himself, later appeared as collateral for a loan to J. Allan Smith, which Samuel Seabury, Hofstadter committee investigator, claims was used to finance a campaign to obtain a bus franchise for the Equitable Coach Company.

Seabury contends Walker profited from the granting of the franchise.

Roosevelt read a portion of Herrick's testimony at the Hofstadter committee session that there was no question in his mind that $39,000 to pay for the stock came from the mayor.

"I think that's wrong," Herrick replied. "The money came, I thought from Mr. Stanton."

Herrick twice answered he "assumed" Stanton was acting for the mayor.

The governor read from the record of a private hearing of Herrick in which he was quoted as saying the mayor had told him he "had put up his Interstate stock for collateral."

At the Hofstadter public hearing, Herrick said he was not sure the mayor had made that statement. He said again today he was uncertain.

SEABURY ARRIVES.
Executive Chamber, Albany, N. Y., Aug. 15.—(AP)—Samuel Seabury, counsel to the Hofstadter legislative committee on whose records the proceedings are based, was first to arrive for today's session of the hearing before Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt of ouster charges against Mayor James J. Walker of New York.

Seabury who had motored to Albany from New York this morning, was accompanied by George Trosk, his assistant.

A few minutes later members of his staff arrived carrying huge bundles of documents.

COTTON INDUSTRY FACING A CRISIS

England Fears Half Million Men May Have To Give Up Jobs.

Blackburn, Eng., Aug. 15.—(AP)—One of the gravest crises which ever threatened the British cotton industry confronted Lancashire today with a decision by the Central Board of the Northern Counties Textile Trades Federation to withdraw all workers on Aug. 27 unless the present dispute over a new wage agreement is settled.

A general stoppage in the weaving and spinning sections of the trade would affect nearly 500,000 operatives.

The dispute is the bitter culmination of negotiations which have been proceeding since December when the mill owners served notice of their intention to end the wages and hours agreement under which the industry has been operating for a decade.

No Alternative
Luke Bates, secretary, said the Federation had no alternative but to recommend withdrawal unless the

DROWNINGS, SUICIDE TWO AUTO DEATHS

Five Fatalities Reported In State Over Week End; One Leaps To Death.

(By Associated Press)
Five violent deaths, including two drownings and a suicide, occurred over the week-end in Connecticut.

James J. Case, 65, prominent in Bristol fraternal circles and retired foreman in the Bristol plant of the New Departure Company was one of the drowning victims. A strong swimmer, he was believed to have suffered a heart attack while proceeding some distance from shore by leaping from a car driven by William Smith, 47, negro. Smith was held for the coroner.

Clarence Erickson, Norfolk, a junior at Yale college, was fatally injured when his car ran into the side of an underpass east of Canaan. His companion, Frank Tierney, suffered cuts and bruises.

The fifth fatality occurred in Derby when William Lord, 37, night garage mechanic and the father of three children, committed suicide by leaping from a second floor window. He had expressed fear he might lose his job.

GERMANY QUIET; SCHLEICHER IS NEW CANDIDATE

Minister of Finance May Be Next Chancellor—No Sunday Riots For the First Time In Many Weeks.

Berlin, Aug. 15.—(AP)—A possibility that General Kurt Von Schleicher, the soldier-junker who is minister of finance and the recognized power in the present cabinet, might be Germany's new chancellor appeared today.

With the country quiet over the week-end, following the collapse of the bid of Adolf Hitler, Nazi leader, for the chancellorship Saturday, party newspapers began putting out leaders today for a coalition of the Hitlerites and the Centerists, with General Von Schleicher at its head, as a neutral.

The state also included Dr. Franz Bracht, now virtual dictator of the state of Prussia and Mayor of Essen, as premier of Prussia.

The Nazis and Centerists, who were represented in the cabinet, according to the press suggestions, on the basis of two to one.

There were indications Chancellor Von Papen had changed his mind about going before the Reichstag and denying it to unseat him. Political commentators pointed out that to do so would challenge the Nazis, Nationalists, Socialists, Centerists, Bavarians and Communists—a total of 583 votes, all but 21 of the total membership.

Hitler suddenly cancelled a conference of his Nazi Parliamentarians which had been summoned to meet tomorrow. He gave no reason but it was assumed he wanted to consult first with his principal advisers, such as the chiefs of the storm

MINERS IN RUSSIA GO ON STRIKE TOO

Between 20,000 and 25,000 Quit Jobs Because of the Low Wages.

Moscow, Aug. 15.—(AP)—Dissatisfied with low wages and inferior living conditions, between 20,000 and 25,000 miners in the Donbas coal field have walked out of their jobs in the past two months.

This is Russia's chief coal producing area and if its output continues to decline there might be a serious shortage of fuel this winter, placing the nation's industry in a precarious position.

Below the Average
During the first few days of August the daily production of the mines was 85,000 to 100,000 tons. This is below the average of August, 1931, and considerably below the March average of 128,000 tons despite the increased mechanization of the mines.

The newspaper for Industrialization, publishing results of a recent investigation of the labor turnover, says the Donbas region had lost 20,000 to 25,000 workers between June 15 and August 1. This is about 8 per cent of all the workers employed there. The replacements being brought in are unskilled, and this will mean a further loss in production.

Unskilled workers are now paid 75 to 100 roubles a month. Their food costs a minimum of 70 to 120 roubles monthly.

Eight Pound Son Is Born To Former Princess Ileana

Meodling, Austria, Aug. 15.—(AP)—The newest member of the 900 year old Hapsburg family, an eight pound boy, was born today to former Princess Ileana of Rumania and her husband, Archduke Anton.

The Princess was attended by two queens, her mother Dowager Queen Marie and her sister, Queen Marie of Yugoslavia.

The baby was born at 4 a. m., just before dawn broke over the ancient walls of Meodling Castle which was closely guarded.

For several days Austrian police had taken precautions against troublemakers.

The baby will be named Stephen. He is 21 inches long and has the traditional Hapsburg blonde hair.

FACTIONAL FIGHTS MAY LEAD TO COURT SUITS

State Democrats Now Engaged In Battle Over Action of New Haven Committee Demanding Money Deposits.

New Haven, Aug. 15.—(AP)—Two major controversies faced Connecticut Democrats today as they strove to elect delegates for an extraordinary state convention.

Leaders were hopeful that one of the controversies will be settled tomorrow when Governor Cross will be asked to advance a plan for the distribution of places on the State ticket between New and Old Guard Democrats.

The other dispute, centering around the efforts of Major James A. Shanley to obtain the nomination for Congressman from the 3d District, seemed headed for the courts and a fight to the finish.

Reports were current that factional leaders at their conference with Governor Cross tomorrow will suggest that four places on the state ticket be divided equally between the Old and New guards. Under this plan one faction would get the

CUT FOOD RATIONS OF U. S. WORKERS

Russia Reduces By Half Supplies of American and Other Foreign Experts.

Moscow, Aug. 15.—(AP)—Food rations allotted to American and other foreign specialists stationed here in the employ of the Soviet government are cut in two by a recent order to the stores in which they buy their supplies.

A general shortage of foodstuffs has been felt by the natives for some time but hitherto has not affected foreigners in the government employ. The new reduction, while it cuts the amount of food available to foreigners, leaves them fairly well supplied with basic staples, except butter, and still much better off than the average Russian citizen.

Monthly rations for one man include: Meat 7 kilograms at two to three roubles per kilo (a kilogram is about two pounds); the rouble is nominally worth fifty cents); fish, three kilos at one rouble ten kopecks; four, two kilos at 80 kopecks; butter, one kilo at five roubles; sugar, three kilos at 65 kopecks; sixty eggs at ten for a rouble; sausage, three kilos at six roubles; cheese, three kilos at three roubles fifty kopecks; bread, 800 grammes a day at 42 kopecks a kilogram. Heretofore bread has been sold in unmeasured quantities.

FEAR OF SNAKES CAUSES 100 DEATHS

Serpent Drops on Ferryboat from Tree—Panic Follows and Vessel is Tipped Over.

Bombay, Aug. 15.—(AP)—The fear of snakes, which is deep-rooted in India, was responsible for the drowning of what was estimated at more than 100 Indian ferryboat passengers near Kolhapur today.

A snake dropped from a floating tree in the swollen river and landed on the ferryboat deck. The passengers, who were crowded together, fled in panic.

Part of the crew and 122 passengers reached shore, but it was believed the number was small.

DRY ORGANIZATION CONSIDERS ACTION

W. C. T. U. Flays Both Major Parties For Stand On the 18th Amendment.

Seattle, Aug. 15.—(AP)—Organization of an informal committee by leaders of the Women's Christian Temperance Union, in convention here, to develop a "policy" of political action, indicated today that, although unable to ignore either of the two major presidential candidates, the union would not remain silent while the forces of prohibition repeal seek victory.

"Political action" committee is composed of two Republicans, three Democrats, and Mrs. D. Leigh Colvin of New York City, a member of the newly formed Law Preservation Party in New York state. The Republicans are Mrs. Ella A. Boole of Brooklyn, N. Y., National president, and Mrs. L. B. Wise Smith, vice president of Des Moines, Iowa; the Democrats are Mrs. Nelle Burge of Springfield, Mo., Mrs. Minnie Welch of Chattanooga, Tenn., and Mrs. Mary Harris Armour of Atlanta.

Strategy Discussed
The strategy discussed by the committee would call for election of drys to Congress with the understanding they would seek to prevent passage of any resolutions to repeal or weaken National prohibition. However, should such resolutions pass Congress, then the committee believes an attempt should be made to see that state legislatures, rather than state conventions, act on the repeal. Feeling that congressional repeal might be stonewalled, a telegram from Commander Evangelina Booth of the Salvation Army to the Union convention, assured the Union of the Army's support in its stand against either the Republican or Democratic liquor planks.

Return of Saloon
There can be no liquor traffic without a return of the saloon," the commissioner said, "and such legislation will mean unavoidably the permanent cessation of political support to the party which permits the saloon to exist. The party which permits the saloon to exist and distribute liquor, have always flouted the law by flooding the dry states with liquor.

MARKETS MOVE FORWARD AGAIN, RAILS LEADING

Prices Advance $1 To $4 a Share Despite Slight Volume of Trading—Firm Tone in Wheat Market.

New York, Aug. 15.—(AP)—The securities markets moved forward again today, although trading was of a more restrained character than it had been in several days.

Despite the light volume leading stocks moved about $1 a share higher, and bonds made moderate progress. A firm tone in the wheat market, and steadiness of cotton, helped the movement in securities.

Rails led the advance, which was marked by occasional moderate waves of profit taking. When Newport announced a reduction in its quarterly dividend to 50 cents from 75, that issue lost $2 3/4, and several others receded moderately, but the list stiffened again later.

Other moderate selling wave appeared in the early afternoon, which took a few stocks off moderately from the best.

CANADA, BRITAIN IN TRADE ACCORD

Finishing Touches of Agreement To Be Applied Today—Highlights of Pact.

Ottawa, Ont., Aug. 15.—(AP)—Canada and Great Britain were reported today to have solved most of their important differences and virtually to have reached an accord on a trade agreement which would include preference in Britain for Canadian farm products and reciprocal favors by Canada for British iron, steel and coal.

The negotiations were shrouded in close secrecy, but they became the chief topic for unofficial conversation among the delegates and observers. The finishing touches to the agreement were to be applied at a meeting between Premier Bennett and Stanley Baldwin today.

Delegates estimated, however, that with all the agreements completed, the diversion of trade from the United States was not likely to reach more than one-third of the $200,000,000 additional business Great Britain might expect from the Dominions.

Under the proposed agreements with Canada and the other Dominions, Great Britain recognized empire preference as a definite part of her fiscal policy. Foodstuffs now on the free list will be brought within the preferential field.

Subject to later changes, the tentative basis of the accord was understood to include the following: 1. A duty of four cents a bushel on foreign wheat with a preference of 2 1/2 cents in favor of Empire wheat. 2. A duty of one and one-half cents a pound on foreign lamb, mutton, pork and bacon. 3. Four cents a pound on foreign

DEATH LIST MOUNTS TO 22 AS STORMS SWEEP GULF COAST

Hundreds Injured and Much Property Damage in Texas Hurricane—Many of Those Hurt Expected To Die—Path of Storm Over 200 Miles Wide.

Houston, Tex., Aug. 15.—(AP)—The death list mounted to 22 today as farming communities near the gulf coast purveyed widespread damage from the tropical hurricane that raked the vicinity of Houston and Galveston Saturday night.

Most of the fatalities were in villages or on farms about 30 miles southwest of Galveston, where the greatest force of the storm apparently centered as it whistled inland from the tumbling waters of the Gulf of Mexico.

Crops were ruined over a wide stretch of the coastal country, the heaviest loss being in cotton.

Galveston, protected by its sea wall, and Houston escaped damage of major proportions, although windows were smashed, some buildings unroofed and bath houses and some frame structures demolished. The wind rose to 70 miles an hour here.

The dead:
John Baggett, 24, farmer living near Angleton, 24.
Edward Hudgins, 6, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam P. Hudgins of Oyster Creek.
M. F. Briscoe, 25, sulphur worker.
Mrs. William Dockson, 62, Angleton.
S. E. Giescke, 25, West Columbia.
Miss Ruby Seay, 16, Angleton.

Mrs. Rosie Suggs, 44.
Beulah Suggs, 8, their daughter.
Mrs. O. V. Reed, mother of Miss Suggs, 73.

A negro known as "Happy Jack" Clute.
L. L. Reese, Sr., Hoskins Mound.
R. Lewis, Rossendale, fisherman, Hoskins Mound.
Two unidentified negro men, West Columbia.
One unidentified negro woman, West Columbia.
There were unconfirmed reports of another death.

The hurricane swept 200 miles of the Texas coast—from Sabine to Seadrift—and then entered the interior to devastate large areas of the high farming country of south Texas.

The known injured number around 150, but this list was expected to be greatly increased as a more general check of isolated areas is made. Emergency rattles were rushed to Angleton, apparently the hardest hit of the towns, and Eagle Lake. Reports from the emergency hospital at Angleton said some of the injured was not expected to recover.

PRESIDENT CALLS ECONOMIC PARLEY

To Meet At Capital On Aug. 26—Mr. Hoover Is Now On His Vacation Trip.

Washington, Aug. 15.—(AP)—President Hoover, in fulfillment of the forecast contained in his speech last week, today called a national conference of the business and industrial committees of the twelve Federal Reserve districts to meet at Washington August 26 to arrange a co-ordinated program of action for the entire nation to be directed against the economic depression.

This is expected to be the first movement in the counter-offensive promised by the President as distinguished from the defensive operations by which he has so far sought to protect the country against further irreparable hard times. The new conference will seek to raise the level

Slayer of Bonus Marcher Killed Probing a Fight

Washington, Aug. 15.—(AP)—Detectives decided early today that chance and nothing else last night sent George S. Shinault, 39, policeman-slayer of a bonus marcher, to his death.

Shinault, already exonerated by a coroner's jury for shooting William Huaska, Chicago veteran, in the rioting July 28, was cruising about the capital last night in a scout car when three came radio orders to go to the third block on F street, north-west, to stop a fight.

He and Ralph E. Edwards, the other private who was with him, went at once. When the policeman stopped near the scene of the re-

ROOSEVELT, GARNER HOLD CONFERENCE

"I'm Here To Get Orders From My Boss," Speaker Tells New York Governor.

Albany, N. Y., Aug. 15.—(AP)—A traveling conference between the two Democratic National candidates, Governor Roosevelt and Speaker John N. Garner, that began on a hillside outside Peekskill yesterday, continued to Hyde Park and that ended in the executive mansion today, mapped the campaign the two nominees will pursue in their effort to unseat President Hoover and Vice President Curtis.

Mr. Garner who met the governor at Camp Smith, and motored first to Crum Elbow, Mr. Roosevelt's Hudson river home and then to Albany, returns to New York today to confer with James A. Farley, the national chairman. He was an overnight guest at the mansion.

The first meeting between the presidential nominees and his running mate was made so they could agree on speaking trips.

TANNED AND TIRED GUARDSMEN BACK

Arrive Yesterday Afternoon From Two Weeks Training At Niantic.

Sun-tanned and tired, after two weeks at Camp Cross, Niantic and Peck's Farm, the National Guard's new rifle range, Company G and the Howitzer Company pulled into Manchester by train at 2:10 yesterday afternoon and marched directly to the state armory where they were paid for the annual field training duty.

Rigidly Inspected
The Manchester boys were pleased to get home, but they came back with the honor of having taken part in one of the best and largest camps in years. Colonel Orville A. Pettit, Commander of the 189th Regiment inspected the men Saturday morning at the far western end of the Stone ranch, and found all units in almost perfect order. Colonel Pettit was accompanied in the inspection of the regiment by Major Francis M. Maddox, U. S. Army and Major James W. Carroll of the Brigade staff, and the clean company streets and bright field kitchens earned for the regiment the praise of the Regimental Commander and his aides. Company G was complimented by the Regimental Commander for excellence in ordnance and equipment.

Due to the large amount of work necessary in breaking camp, packing mess hall and kitchen gear, taking down tents and loading boxes and military equipment aboard the long lines of baggage cars lined up on the New Haven tracks at the Niantic depot, there was little sleep Saturday night for the regiment.

Receive Pay
Upon arrival at the armory, the men removed their heavy uniforms and after the various details had stored the camp equipment away for another year, the men received their pay. Approximately $5,300 was distributed among the 128 men and officers of the two local units for the two weeks camp training period.

Lieut. Raymond E. Hagedorn, of Company G commanded a detail of men who manned the pits during the combat firing problem conceived and initiated this year at the new National Guard range by Captain Charles Sargent, U. S. Army instructor formerly of this town.

Honor for Hagedorn
Due to the fact that Captain Sargent has been detached from the regiment and ordered to Fort Benning, Georgia, Lieut. Hagedorn remains the only officer in the regiment conversant with all features of the firing problem, which is considered one of the best ever supervised by the regiment. The problem is used next year, Lieut. Hagedorn will undoubtedly have charge of the range detail.

Company G's combat firing team, composed of Sergeant Storrs, Cassella, Murphy, Bycholski, Gowda, and Privates Quinn and Giorgetti placed third in the combat firing problem. Sergeant Storrs, 20-year-old member of the company, and a graduate of the Connecticut Agricultural College, missed qualifying for expert rifleman by one point. Sergeant Storrs made seven bullseyes out of eight shots, falling to fire the last round.

Quality 18 of 25
The Howitzer company qualified 18 out of 25 men who took the gunner's tests at Camp Cross this year. Only 10 men were qualified last year. The company received training in the 87 mm. howitzer and trench mortar at the new range this year.

CANADA, BRITAIN IN TRADE ACCORD

butter as against the present duty, approximately two cents a pound.

Additional restrictions by special order on products such as wheat and lumber whenever the necessity arises.

This was the British answer for the demand that Britain cut down or place an embargo on its trade with Russia.

On the Canadian side, the chief concessions are likely to be on coal, iron and steel. The United Kingdom would like restrictions in the rates now imposed by Canada on British textiles. While this seemed likely on certain high-grade lines, it was doubted that the British request could be fully met in textiles generally.

Free trade between the United Kingdom and Canada on motorcycles, side cars and motor trucks was regarded probable.

There was a suggestion Canada would give license free entry since the Dominion industry is small and cannot compete with northern Ireland. For that, Canada would get a better market for flax by reason of a higher British duty on Russian flax, now a considerable competitor.

Canadian newspaper, it was suggested, might get a larger British market in view of the fact the Dominion now sells approximately $10,000,000 worth of goods to the United States, compared to $8,000,000 worth to British publishers.

ASKS STATE TO PAY

Waterbury, Aug. 15.—(AP)—The State of Connecticut is asked to pay the cost of printing the evidence taken at the trial of Frederick E. Kingston, the stock broker who is serving a five to twelve year term in prison. He has taken an appeal to the Supreme Court of Errors. This morning Attorney Thomas R. Fitzsimmons of New Haven appeared before Judge F. P. McEvoy of the local Superior Court to ask the state to have the cost borne by the State. State's Attorney Hugh Alcorn of Hartford appeared in opposition to the request.

GIVES SWEET CORN TO THE NEEDY HERE

Selectman Bowers Distributes Produce of Half Acre Through Town Charity Department.

Sweet corn picked from a half acre at the farm of Selectman Sherwood G. Bowers on Deming street is being distributed to needy families in Manchester through the town charity department. The ears on this particular plot of corn were not large enough for marketing, but the kernels were fully developed and as sweet as any corn that can be bought. But because of the size Selectman Bowers could not place it on the market, and he called Town Treasurer Waddell to see if it could be used for families on the charity lists. A man was sent to the Bowers farm to pick the corn and it is being distributed to the most worthy families today.

PATRON SAINT FESTIVAL ATTRACTS BIG CROWD

Large Number of Italians Take Part In Celebration At Sub-Alpine Club Yesterday.

The largest crowd in many years gathered at the Sub-Alpine Club on Endridge street yesterday for the annual grand festival in honor of the Madonna dell'Olmetto, patron saint of the city of Coscombarato d'Assi in Italy. About 150 persons attended the banquet at noon and many more arrived for the sports program in the afternoon.

The festival is held annually by natives of the Italian town who brought the custom to the United States from Italy. Those present were from towns and cities throughout Connecticut, including New Haven, Torrington, Bridgeport, Coventry, Bolton, Glastonbury and Wallingford.

The first event of the day, Palla Al Tamburello, was won by Frank Camillo and William Belfiore of the town, who defeated P. Garrone and D. Belletti, also of Manchester. Mario Marchesotti acted as referee and Angelo Monseglio was score keeper.

The Bocce tournament was won by G. Magiorotto and F. Addone of Torrington with V. Musso and P. Marchelli of New Haven in second place. The team of Mario Marchesotti and Frank Sonico of the town captured third place. Gold medals, imported from Italy for the festival, were awarded the winners of first and second place.

The setback tournament was won by Ralph Aceto and Joseph Felice of Manchester and second was taken by Antonio Innocente and Giannantonio Garibaldi of that town. Dancing was also enjoyed through the afternoon and evening, music being furnished by Henry Viens orchestra.

TWO SAFES RIFLED

Bridgeport, Aug. 15.—(AP)—Safe-crackers entered two stores owned by Logan Brothers before dawn today and in each instance opened safes in exactly the same manner and escaped with loot.

At a store at 199 Stratford avenue the thieves carried a small safe from the first floor to basement where they opened it and at 384 Lindley street they broke open a hole in the floor in order to get at the safe. They carried this safe into a backroom and broke it open. The Stratford avenue robbery was carried out boldly. After cracking the safe the burglars were rewarded only with cancelled checks and account books.

He was convicted of involuntary manslaughter in connection with the death of John E. Maghan in an automobile accident on May 23. Judge James J. Lenihan of the Canal Zone District Court imposed sentence.

FACTIONAL FIGHTS MAY LEAD TO COURT SUITS

lieutenant governorship and the other the comptrollership. Each faction would also receive either the treasurership or the post of secretary of state.

The possibility of a convention fight over the nominations for United States Senator and Congressman-at-large, leaders said, virtually eliminates these posts as subjects for any deal.

Week-End Developments
The latest wrinkle in the Shanley controversy occurred during the week-end, when the New Haven Town Committee ruled that a deposit of $15 must accompany each ticket filed for next Thursday's city primaries.

Shanley, saying that he was acting on advice of his supporters, refused to pay the deposit and as a result the town committee voted to accept slates presented by the organization in each of the 33 wards as the official primary tickets.

Shanley supporters immediately announced they intended to resist a reported plan to deliver New Haven's 61 delegates to Mayor F. T. Maloney. They charged the town committee had acted beyond its power in demanding the fees and indicated they might make the matter the subject of a court fight.

While declaring himself "ready and able" to make the deposit of $495, Shanley said his unwillingness to do so was "based on the principle that this procedure shuts off opposition at any time to the wishes of the town committee."

WOMAN WARDEN AWAY, 20 CONVICTS ESCAPE

Granite, Okla., Aug. 15.—(AP)—Menacing their guards with a smuggled pistol, about 20 convicts escaped from State Reformatory here last night in the absence of the woman warden, Mrs. George Waters.

Those who were recaptured, two at Sayre, Okla., and one at Quanah, Tex. A score of guards were searching for the others in the Wichita mountains.

Those at large were described by Day Sergeant Claude Moore as "among the toughest men we've got." The men forced their way from the west cell block by overpowering Night Sergeant Tom Owens. Then they disarmed W. H. Dean, on guard at the door, and escaped in the automobiles of two officers. No shots were fired.

Mrs. Waters returned today and began an investigation. There were 500 men in the cell block, which forms part of the outside wall.

violation was the real problem of National prohibition, although he is almost immune from the direct action of the law itself.

Arthur M. Barnhart, chairman of the Illinois Conference of Dry Organizations, told the delegates that President Hoover "morally, if not legally, has abdicated his right to hold the office of Chief Executive in the United States. The President has backed down at a moment when every true prohibitionist must fight more ardently than ever for the cause of temperance."

Barnhart also flayed Gov. Rockefeller D. Roosevelt and John D. Rockefeller, Jr. for their attacks on the 18th Amendment.

VINES WINS MATCH IN NEWPORT TOURNNEY

Newport, R. I., Aug. 15.—(AP)—H. Ellsworth Vines of Pasadena, Calif., the Newport Casino tennis tourney's defending champion, today gained the second round by defeating Hugh G. M. Kelleher of New York, 6-3, 6-4. It was Vines' first competition since his Davis Cup victory over Henri Cochet of France.

H. W. "Bunny" Austin of England, too seeded in the large foreign contingent, overwhelmed Huntington Hartford of Newport, 6-0, 6-2, to get out of the opening round. Another early victor was Frankie Parker of Milwaukee, newly crowned National junior champion who drew a first round bye and then defeated Elliott Hobbs of Newport, 6-1, 6-1.

The Japanese Davis Cup entry also survived the opening play. Tak Kuvabara defeated John A. Marshall, Detroit 6-0, 6-1, in a first round and Jaro A. Satch entered the third round with a 6-0, 6-2 decision over C. W. Winslow of Newport. George Lott, seeded fourth played his first grass court game this season against Louis Hobbs, Newport and gained the third round on a 6-0, 4-6, 5-2 victory.

DEPUTY NOT SLAIN

Carlsbad, N. M., Aug. 15.—(AP)—Chief Deputy Sheriff Joe Johns, erroneously reported to have been slain after being kidnapped from a tourist camp near here, telephoned Sheriff Walter McDonald today he had been released by his captors—two men and a woman—near San Antonio, Tex.

troops and others of his political bureau. The Reichstag might not be summoned, by announcing that it will be called within the time provided by the constitution, and not later than August 30.

In today's edition of the newspaper Angriff there was a bitter editorial by Joseph Goebbels, Hitler's propaganda chief and reputed to be one of the most powerful figures in the Nazi movement. It announced a new campaign against the government and warned the ultimate triumph of the party is inevitable.

Another article gave the schedule for various week-end social events, urging the storm troopers now on furlough to "Join in and have a good time before the new fight begins."

CENTER FLUTE BAND WINS MERIDEN AWARD

The Center Flute Band of this town captured first prize at the best playing piccolo and flute corps at the state convention of the Flutes and Drummers Association at Meriden over the week-end. Sixty-eight corps, representing four states, took part in the parade and competitive events.

MAN SERIOUSLY HURT
Hamden, Aug. 15.—(AP)—A man believed to be Charles Reynolds of 1106 North avenue, Bridgeport, was seriously injured today when he was struck by an automobile driven by Nicholas Fumento of New York. He was taken to New Haven hospital with a fractured skull, and was placed on the danger list.

After hitting the man, Fumento's car swerved to the other side of the road and crashed into a truck driven by Felix Gogiol. Police are investigating.

 MONDAY, AUGUST 15.

Regions is doing business now when Detroit and Pittsburgh and many other industrial centers are in the doldrums.

The great Watkins sale is a result of the keen intelligence and animating the furniture trade. It is predicated on the understanding that the past is over and done with and that the sale must be cleared for a new day and a new deal. And on the courage to write off the day before yesterday as though it had never been, even though it be at heavy cost.

When American industry as a whole catches up with the idea that the era of the 20's has been permanently deflated, as it obtains in Grand Rapids and in this Watkins
 sale, then we shall see everywhere,
 as is to be seen right now at the Watkins store, concrete evidence of the huge reserve power of the people of the United States to absorb
 their own products and pay for them.

PECULIAR POLITICS
 It is rather peculiar politics that Mrs. Ella C. Boole, head of the national W. C. T. U., indicates that her followers will play as a result of Mr. Hoover's abandonment of federal prohibition. Declaring that there is not sufficient time for the building of the Prohibition party to the point where it could "carry the election"—in which she is completly right—Mrs. Boole says her organization will direct its activities
 to the election of members of Congress who are still devoted to the cause of the Eighteenth amendment
 and Volsteadism.

There is just one possible meaning to this—that Mrs. Boole's followers will be expected to support
 at the ballot box congressional candidates of the Republican and Democratic parties who accept nomination
 when they are in direct opposition to both the platform and presidential candidates of their respective parties.

What kind of a Congress would be assembled if such a policy were to become effective it is not easy to imagine, except that it would be a very bad kind of a Congress for the country to have on its hands and one likely to work an infinite amount of mischief.

Fortunately there isn't the slightest risk of the election of any considerable number of bitter-end prohibitionists to Congress next November. Both major parties are now definitely committed to getting rid of the Eighteenth amendment
 and the fanatically narrow Volstead
 law. Candidates who refuse to implicitly subscribe to the accepted policy
 of their parties in this important matter simply will not be nominated—
 nor should they be.

There is one party in which a con-vinct prohibitionist can now seek a candidacy for Congress and do so honorably. That is the Prohibition party. Does Mrs. Boole measure righteousness by the prospect of success?

HE'LL BE THERE
 The warring factions of Connecticut's Democracy are to have a peace conference at Hartford tomorrow—
 and may the dove come out of the parley with all its feathers! Also,
 according to announcement Government Cross is to be among those present. That ought to help somewhat—that is, it ought to help to something, either peace or its antithesis.

Perhaps the Democratic factions
 know why they let the dear old governor stick around when they are—
 so far in vain—trying to patch up
 an armistice good until the day after election. Certainly no outsider can see why. It is evident that the sight of the governor to Smithites and Rooseveltians alike acts like salt
 on a raw wound and the wonder grows that the factions never hit upon the idea of taking a broom-
 stick and poking the good dead out of the room and into a corner somewhere while they are striving to un-
 clinch their fists sufficiently to shake hands.

NO NEED OF IT
 There seems to be little probability that more than a handful of America's voters, relatively speaking, will get a chance in this campaign to see or hear either of the major Presidential candidates in person. Mr. Hoover certainly will undertake no barnstorming tour and
 it is improbable that his opponent
 will speak in more than a very few cities.

There is no good reason why
 either should put himself to the fatigue, the risk and the psychological hazards of personal appearance
 before the voters. In former times,
 and unless a candidate went on tour
 and showed himself to the people, he remained more or less a stranger to them. They had to draw their own pictures of his personality, let their imaginations supply their lack of knowledge as to the sound of his voice and his platform mannerisms.
 That is no longer true.

The sound pictures and the radio

bring the living men themselves into the presence of thousands of audiences simultaneously all over the country. Millions of people are perfectly familiar with the midwestern quality of Mr. Hoover's excellent speaking voice and with the grave and thoughtful manner of his address, just as they have learned at first hand that Mr. Roosevelt specializes in expensive smiles and has succeeded in junking all but the slightest traces of a Harvard accent.

Wherefore the country is already
 much less interested in the manner in which their candidates say what they have to say than in the message itself. And why should a candidate go riding on railroad trains on the chance of being able to talk to ten or twelve thousand people a day when he can stay at home and by facing the mike talk straight into the ears of ten or twelve million—or twice that many?
 What price barnstorming?

BEHIND THE SCENES IN Washington

MILLS, HURLEY TO BEAR
 CHIEF BURDEN OF G. O.
 P. CAMPAIGN ORATORY

By RODNEY DUTCHER
 N.E.A. Service Writer

Washington—The younger states-
 men of the administration, men
 whom President Hoover has appointed to high office in the last three years or so, will carry the hod
 for the Republican ticket as the campaign oratory begins to thicken.

The most feverish loyalty to Hoover is to be found right in the Cabinet, whose members have been partly responsible for the conduct of the administration and are eager to defend it. That's where the most important speeches will come from,
 except those that may be made by Hoover himself.

Some of the Cabinet members
 are not regarded as such hot stuff
 on the platform or over the radio
 as others and, although probably
 they all will be functioning before election day, the heavy work will fall to Secretary of the Treasury
 Ogden Mills, Secretary of War
 Patrick J. Hurley and Secretary of the Interior Ray Lyman Wilbur.

As for Roosevelt
 Of course there are those who will suggest that this represents a good fall from the heavy campaign
 artillery that Hoover had in 1928,
 but it may be questioned whether
 the best of the Cabinet boys won't compare favorably with the best of the Roosevelt orators.

Roosevelt himself will make more speeches than Hoover, and the chances are that he will put them
 over better, but unless he can recreate such pre-convention form as Al
 Smith, Governor Ritchie of Maryland and Owen D. Young and get them speaking for him his assistant orator will look no more impressive than Hoover's.

On the Republican side, since Charles Evans Hughes has gone
 over to the Supreme court since his effective campaign for Hoover in 1928 and Senator William E. Borah says he won't support anyone who runs that Republican platform
 the best possibility this year is none
 other than Calvin Coolidge, who used to be president.

ILLNESS FROM WEAK
 ABDOMINAL WALLS

The relation between strong abdominal muscles and vitality has not been stressed as much as it should be in medical text books; in fact, in many important medical sciences one may search in vain for any reference to the relationship between a position of the abdominal organs and the tone of the abdominal walls. It is nevertheless,
 true that strong abdominal muscles
 are even more important than a good spine. All of our nourishment
 comes from the abdominal region
 and most of our organs of elimination are also located there. Weakness of the abdominal walls means that such important organs as the kidneys, stomach, liver, spleen, and intestines may become seriously
 propped and their functions impaired. No person can be really healthy without firm abdominal muscles, and the time used in developing them and preserving their tone is well spent.

Many serious surgical operations
 have been performed simply because surgeons have not realized the importance of the abdominal muscles
 and the fact that patients who must be kept strong if the patient
 wishes to remain healthy. The operations of the intestines and many others could almost all have been prevented if people had been trained
 from childhood to guard against flabby abdominal muscles.

Men would find work less tire-
 some, and women would find childbirth easier if the important functions of the abdominal muscles were realized. These muscles have been wonderfully arranged by nature to protect the internal organs,
 and it is the patient's own fault if
 he has neglected to use them sufficiently so that they are unable to carry out the design that nature intended. Man probably evolved from a lower type which originally walked at least a good part of the time on all fours. This is shown by the fact that most of the attachments of the abdominal organs are on the back. Walking in an upright position as we do
 makes it imperative that the organs
 through which the pressure of the atmosphere is exerted must be supported by the abdominal muscles.
 In this connection it is important to realize that the pelvic organs and
 the abdominal organs are not separated by any strong muscular partition and therefore, a prolapse of
 the abdominal organs will press
 upon the pelvic organs, producing congestion and pressure which always produces severe nervous disturbances.

Most people do not exercise regularly and even those who do often neglect the special kind of exercise
 which develops the abdominal muscles. The usual exercise which people use of bending over and touching
 the floor with the fingers has no effect whatever on the abdominal muscles. The only exercises useful for this purpose are the exercises
 of raising the trunk or the legs
 while lying on the back. Remember to include these special exercises in your daily calisthenic program if you wish to avoid the ill effects of weak abdominal muscles.

THE SANDERS ANGLE
 It is said that the chief reason
 Everett Sanders, former Coolidge
 secretary, was chosen as Republican national chairman was that it was believed he could line Cal up for full
 and active support of the ticket.

One can't think, of course, of any other special reason. It is that as if Sanders has been up to see Coolidge at Northampton and it does not yet appear that the ex-
 president has promised anything.

A good bet is that sooner or later the frugal Cal will come through with a single speech.

Some of the Republican senators will be on the job, but most of them will be busy in their own
 states, especially those up for re-election.

No one seems to expect a great deal of effort from Vice President Charles Curtis, although he campaigned strenuously in 1928. The chances are that Mrs. Dolly Gann,
 his famous half-sister, will be almost as effective a drawing card
 if she campaigns this year—as she undoubtedly will.

Mills and Hurley
 Meanwhile, the efforts of Mills
 and Hurley are not likely to be anything to be sneezed at. Wilbur's campaign speeches doubtless will be scrutinized to see that he doesn't tell any more voters that the depression has been a fine thing for the children or that this is a propitious time for the unemployed to take tours through the national parks.

But Mills, one of the most intelligent multi-millionaires who ever came into the government, proved himself a powerful, forceful speaker when he defended the administration prohibition plank at the Chicago convention. Short and chubby,
 he is nevertheless regarded as a
 "tower of strength" and already has attracted much of the admiration
 the business world used to bestow
 on Andy Mellon.

Hurley writes: "For a

HE FOUND OUT
 Akron, O.—Joseph Axalrod
 thought he was running out of gasoline, so he looked at the tank. And there was no gasoline, but because he had used a match for illuminating purposes. Anyway, at the hospital where he was treated for burns on the face, it was reported that he was not seriously hurt.

HE GUESSED!
 The motor bus was proceeding
 rather jerkily, when a pretty young woman passenger asked: "What's wrong with this bus, driver?"
 "The engine misses," he replied.
 "The young woman blushed and smiled. 'Why, I've only been start-

IN NEW YORK

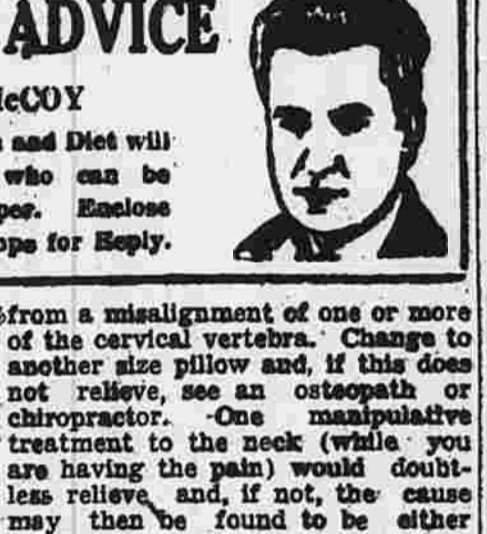

"Bring Back, Bring Back . . ."
 New York, Aug. 15.—"Better be gettin' your clothes in off the line,
 maw—show folks is comin' to town. . . ."
 After a generation or so, this venerable small town warbling found its way back to Broadway the other evening at one of those annual stage
 benefits. On stage George M. Cohan and Jack Benny headed an old-fashioned minstrel first part. Back stage old timers, chattering in the wings, heard this echo of another
 day's humor and smiled sadly.
 It was a wheeze born of the troupe
 minstrel shows of yesteryear.
 Jests of the period visioned harcops being robbed, laundry being fished and railroad ties being counted
 by stranded actors.

"Order my shoulder a veteran sighs
 for the passing of the blackface actor. Burnett, he went on, at the rate of 1-2 cents for each 10 cents
 or fraction thereof."

If a fixed admission or cover
 charge is imposed, and such charge
 is deemed fair and reasonable in
 comparison with charges made for
 similar performances and entertainments, then the tax applies to this place.

The law also provides that no tax

UNCLE SAM'S
 NEW TAXES
 WHERE THEY HIT YOU
 —AND HOW!

CABARETS AND NIGHT
 CLUBS HIT BY BUDGET
 BALANCING BILL

Editor's Note: This is the 17th of 20 daily articles explaining the new federal taxes.

By ROBERT TALLEY
 N.E.A. Service Writer
 (Copyright, 1932, By N.E.A. Service)

Devotees of gay night life who patronize cabarets, night clubs, roof
 gardens and similar entertainments are helping Uncle Sam aid his depleted federal treasury. Though the rates are not changed by the new 1932 revenue law, such places are still taxed by the 1926 law which the 1932 law extends.

The tax is 1-2 cents for each 10
 cents or fraction thereof of the amount paid for "admission" to public performances at such places,
 where the charge for "admission" is included in the price paid for refreshments or service. To arrive at the "admission" figure, Uncle Sam
 fixes it arbitrarily at 50 per cent of the total cabaret or night club bill.
 Only in cases where such "admission"
 charge figures 50 cents or less is
 the tax omitted.

Thus, wherever the entire bill for food, service, etc., exceeds $2.00, an
 "admission" charge arises and there is a tax on the same. Even though this is expended on behalf of more than one person, it is not permissible to prorate the amount of the bill among the persons in the party
 and thus increase the exemptions
 and evade the tax. Where, therefore,
 a party of six persons is presented with a bill for $12, the amount of the tax is 96 cents. (Explanation:
 The tax is payable on the 20 per cent of the party's total bill, at the
 rate of 1-2 cents for each 10 cents
 or fraction thereof.)

If a fixed admission or cover
 charge is imposed, and such charge
 is deemed fair and reasonable in
 comparison with charges made for
 similar performances and entertainments, then the tax applies to this
 place.

The law also provides that no tax
 shall be collected from a guest bent merely upon eating a meal, if he leaves the place before the entertainment begins. Likewise, no tax accrues against a guest in a separate or a private dining room where he can see or hear nothing of the entertainment in the main dining room of the cabaret where the entertainment is in progress.

There are many other provisions,
 equally as complicated.

MARVELOUS MANHATTAN
 BY WILLIAM GAINES

New York.— Promptness in meeting business appointments certainly is a virtue anywhere, but in filling
 social engagements in this big city
 it is very apt to prove cause for homicide.

It is traditional in New York that one arrives a bit late for informal as well as formal affairs. Not too late—but there is that certain margin between the specified time and the correct time for arriving which
 the person of tact can measure instinctively after a little experience
 in Manhattan.

Traffic obstacles and other complications of life in the metropolis
 long ago established the tradition.
 Nowadays the home entertainer has the right to expect it to be upheld. If he is one whose business has to come before he can afford pleasure
 for others, he needs that margin
 for final touches.

So it is that showing up at the party on time just isn't being done,
 as the wife saying goes, even when possible. Yet the host, a thoughtful conscientious individual who will break
 a leg to do it—and probably they never get it through their heads why
 the welcome lacks enthusiasm.

Some evening an intruder's host,
 the latter still in his jowls, is going to rush to the door with razor in hand to meet some grinning, self-satisfied Johnny-on-the-spot, and a jury of fellow-sufferers is going to pronounce the consequences justifiable.

DANES CONFIDENT OF HAGUE COURT'S GREENLAND VERDICT

Copenhagen.—(AP)—Denmark is confident that the permanent court
 of international justice at the Hague
 will award her undisputed sovereignty over all Greenland.

Denmark's rule over sections of eastern Greenland is disputed by Norway and the case is expected to be decided in late December.

Both countries have promised to abide by the finding.

No Earthly Paradise
 For Denmark, the question is,
 apart from prestige, principally that
 of reserving Greenland for the Eskimo, over whom the Danes claim
 an altruistic guardianship.

Materially, the question is hardly worth debating. In the whole of eastern Greenland it would be impossible for more than 100 white men to live the year around, and then only with supplies from other lands.

Greenland produces no food except fish and meat from occasional bears and musk ox. Neither Danish nor Norwegian expeditions have been paying concerns and could not operate without financial backing.

The historical rights in the case
 go back to the time of Erik the Red,
 reputed discoverer of America about 1,000 A. D. Norwegians or Ice-landers of Norwegian extraction
 were undoubtedly the first settlers.
 But the line was broken, Denmark
 acquired, in the 13th century when Norwegian ships failed to call with food, as agreed, and the colony
 starved.

Norway's Revives Claim
 When Norway came under the sway of the Danish kings, Greenland automatically became a Danish colony. After the Napoleonic wars, Denmark, as penalty for aiding the Coalition, was forced to give up Norway, but was allowed to retain Greenland.

Norway began pressing her claims
 in 1906 and after the world war the movement took on a national character. Denmark in 1926 granted trading privileges to Norwegian in certain parts of Greenland.

Vegetable Kindly
 The vegetable kindling is not nearly so well represented in the Manhattan telephone book as the animal kingdom. There are just a few subscribers named Bkks, and more Peppers, Kale makes the list,
 there's one Beet, and Broccoli appears a couple of times.

But when a browser can't even find
 the good old family name of Onion, there is little left for further searching. It's small proportion to remind you that there is,
 of course, the Squash club.

Upward and Onward
 The highest point on the elevated in Manhattan is at the north end of Central Park. It's the Cathedral Parkway-Eighth Avenue curve, and the men in the transit service know
 it as "Suicide Bend." Here the tracks are 65 feet above the street.

That's a very unusual thing
 eighth avenue does, when you stop to think about it. Without going out of its way to do it, the street
 loses its name and practically all of its identifying characteristics for a stretch of about 60 blocks, only to become Eighth Avenue again and continue a dead course, northwest to Harlem river.

At Columbus circle, Eighth Avenue
 becomes Central Park West, without altering its direction. It also pretties up, rather extravagantly,
 about the Plaza and goes to the prettiness behind at Cathedral park-
 way. Just to add to your confusion,
 the avenue becomes 116th street.

Really, though, if you happen to come from such a place as Lima or San Antonio, you will find Manhattan's street puzzles relatively easy to solve.

But cross the street and suddenly,
 or worse still, try to find your way
 about the Bronx, and you'll get the idea that all the street-puzzles are those that originate west and west
 drafting triangles and irregular curves.

 output of coal.

GETS SIX MONTHS

Meriden, Aug. 15.—(AP)—A twenty-four year old Norfolk youth, Patrick De Caprio, was sentenced to jail for six months when arraigned in Police Court today as a second offender on drunken driving charges.

Shortly before 1 o'clock Sunday morning an automobile operated by De Caprio was stopped by Patrolman Morache as it was being driven along Pratt street.

Prior to the convening of court this morning, a query was sent to the Motor Vehicle Department at Hartford asking whether or not the young man had any previous motor vehicle department record.

TWO COMMIT SUICIDE WHILE ON STEAMER

New York, Aug. 15.—(AP)—The disappearance of two passengers, both of whom were listed as suicides, was reported today by the liner California, which arrived from San Francisco.

The first to disappear was Ernest Boulter, a landscape gardener of Pasadena, Calif., who jumped overboard Aug. 8. The second was William Kerr Scott, formerly a representative of the Royal Indemnity Company at Portland, Oregon, who presumably also jumped overboard.

Scott's disappearance was noticed Aug. 5 and a search of the ship was made, but no trace of him was found.

ROCKVILLE

BELIEVE SUNDAY FIRE OF INCENDIARY ORIGIN

Blaze At 23 High Street Found in Three Different Places and Kerosene Odor Is Detected.

A fire believed to have been of incendiary origin awakened the firemen and people of the community at 6:50 a. m. Sunday when an alarm was rung in from Box 21, the second alarm from that box within two days.

The fire was in a one and a half story empty store owned by Albert Taylor of this city.

At the present time there is little activity apparent in Rockville political circles concerning party choices for the nomination to the office of representative or other local political positions.

George Arnold, republican representative to the General Assembly in the sessions of 1897, 1929 and 1931 has stated that he is not a candidate for renomination.

George E. Dunn, prominent in Democratic circles, and registrar of voters, states that there has been a little misleading information in some of the newspapers regarding the enrolling of democratic voters.

There has been much activity in registering Democrats in the Town of Vernon. At a session of the board of registrars John Doyle and John Reg handed in a list of about 30 voters names which list the registrar said he would accept, but as these persons were not going to appear personally he would mail each one of them a postal card stating he had received their applications for enrollment or would see them personally.

Leo L. Sokolis, 22, Chicopee, Mass., pleaded guilty to breaking and entering in the night time when he was presented in the Ellington Justice Court on Saturday morning. He was bound over to the next term of the Tolland County Superior Court on bonds of $500.

Thirty-three members of Court Foresters Frigate, Juvenile Court, F. of A. attended a picnic held at White City, Lake Quinsigamond, Worcester, Mass., on Sunday. They were accompanied by five officers of Court Hearts of Oak.

The funeral of George F. Davis, 68, of Ellington avenue, who died at the Hartford Hospital Wednesday, was held on Saturday morning at St. Bernard's Church.

The funeral of Frederick Lull, 70, who died at his home at Jobe Hill, Ellington, Thursday, was held Saturday from his home. Rev. J. T. Nichols, pastor of the Ellington Congregational church conducted the services.

Burial was in the Ellington cemetery.

Injured Foot. Francis Barboro, 8, of East Main street was given treatment at the office of Dr. E. H. Metcalf Saturday night to an injury to a toe on the left foot.

Notes. Rockville Lodge No. 1359, E. P. O. Elks, will have its next regular meeting on Thursday evening, August 25, at the Elks Home on Ellington avenue.

GERSHWIN'S LATEST TOMORROW NIGHT

"Rumba" To Be Played in New York By the Philharmonic Orchestra.

New York, Aug. 15.—(AP)—Despite the chronology of George Gershwin calls his new "Rumba" an older brother to his eight-year-old "Rhapsody in Blue."

He wrote it and orchestrated it in three weeks and it will be played for the first time tomorrow night at the Stadium, when the composer will receive the signal distinction—for a living man—of an entire concert devoted to his works by the Philharmonic Symphony Orchestra.

"Rumba" will not be a bigger brother to the rhapsody, Gershwin said, because it is not as long, but it will be older because it will be more experienced and have many elements that were not in "Rhapsody in Blue."

Where He Got Ideas. He got the idea on La Frits street

in Havana where native musicians play for the patrons of little street cafes. It is called a symphonic rumba and scored for full orchestra augmented by native instruments, such as the maracas (a kind of Cuban rattle), Cuban sticks, the gourd and the bongo, which is a double tom-tom.

Playing time is about nine minutes. It is based on rhythmic idioms of Cuba and the chief theme, "Sostenuito," is preceded by a lively introduction with typical rhythmic and melodic figures, Gershwin explained.

Because he will play the piano three times during the concert, Gershwin will not conduct the new piece. This will be done by Albert Coates, who also will conduct Gershwin's "Second Rhapsody" and "An American in Paris."

Gershwin is 33 years old and looks even younger. He composes and paints in a penthouse apartment on Riverside Drive and finds great satisfaction in both arts.

DROWNED IN LAKE

Danbury, Aug. 15.—(AP)—John Dickson, 35, of Brooklyn, N. Y., was drowned yesterday while bathing in Pease Lake, near Brewster, N. Y., ten miles west of this city.

His body was recovered by fellow bathers. Members of the Brewster fire department, who went to the scene with a pump motor, were unable to restore the man after long efforts.

RECIPROCACTION

Editor, The Herald:

In Wednesday's Hartford Courant editorial, "A Word of Caution," the editor remarked, "In the natural order of events the optimists are now entitled to have their inning."

So, at the moment, we in Manchester have reason to be happy for two events. One is the Watkins Bros.' action in stimulating business, the other is Mr. Rogers's enthusiastic letter giving them praise.

The action of Watkins Bros. is praiseworthy indeed, as a contribution to the general good. With their shelves cleared, the new purchase of stock will help to start the wheels of industry in those localities where raw material and the manufactured furniture are obtained.

that such benefit should chiefly come if those industrial communities which receive stock orders from Manchester, will induce merchants dealing in silks, etc. obtained from us, to reciprocate Watkins' action.

May I inquire through The Herald where and how information concerning the program and activities of the New England Council is available to the public? Also, what benefits may Manchester expect through the efforts of the Council? CAROLINE KORNER BRITTON.

This bare statement of fact may not mean a great deal at first reading to the average advertiser or reader but therein lies the greatest amount of business prestige any newspaper can command in the minds of space buyers today. Those who are acquainted with the workings of the Audit Bureau of Circulations know that CIRCULATION FIGURES ACCREDITED BY THIS BUREAU REPRESENT PAID SUBSCRIBERS. It is the Sterling Mark of integrity in circulation among newspapers today.

This is one of the important reasons why readers of the Herald find such a variety of national advertising copy presented to them, the same as is found in the metropolitan dailies because Space Buyers in cities throughout the country KNOW WHAT THEY ARE BUYING when they turn to their A. B. C. reports for circulation, for it is on this basis alone that advertising space is bought by national advertisers. Personal feelings do not enter into these deals. These buyers are out to purchase paid reader coverage.

Circulation books of papers belonging to the A. B. C. are audited four times a year "without fear or favor."

*Member Of
The Associated Press*

The Herald does not solicit advertising to appear in a low quality newspaper. It is serviced with a full news report of The Associated Press, a trunk line wire from New York and Boston running through its editorial rooms and a separate Morse wire giving complete state coverage and an auxiliary service to the trunk line. This news service is exactly the same as offered by some of New England's largest newspapers and is wider in scope than that received by any other newspaper in Connecticut of a circulation similar to The Herald's.

Thus the advertising of high quality merchandise has the advantage of appearing in a newspaper of high quality service at the lowest possible rates.

BEGIN HERE TODAY MONA MORAN, receptionist in a Wall Street law office, is in love with BARRY TOWNSEND, rich and socially prominent, whom she met through STEVE SACARELLI, her childhood sweetheart.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY CHAPTER XXIII

The Townsend limousine arrived at Lottie's apartment promptly at 10 o'clock. It remained there waiting until well after 11 because Mona and Lottie had set out at 9:30 to shop.

Lottie's suit, donned with much twisting and twisting before the mirror, had been pronounced exactly right for Mona. Both girls agreed that it was far better than a new one, hastily selected and not fitted properly.

"Well, I've a lot to learn," observed Mona. "And I do want to be a credit to them."

"What I mean is this," the other girl interrupted. "When you get back right after the ceremony you're going to find time heavy on your hands. No job, no house work. Just time to kill. Well, suppose we step out and buy your clothes together. Maybe I dress like a vamp myself but I know what the well-dressed young 63rd street wife should wear. That will take up part of your time. Of course I'll be as busy as a bee myself but I can get off now and then."

"Busy as which bee?" asked Mona, wrinkling her nose, her disturbing thoughts for a moment forgotten.

Lottie was wriggling into the sleeves of her coat. "The one that hangs around the hive and doesn't work, maybe," she answered. "Still, that's not fair, Min. I did work every day this week."

"And earned twice what they paid you," Mona said promptly. "Do you have everything?" Lottie paused at the door to ask. "Take a last look at this place, Miss Moran. Maybe Mrs. Townsend won't be able to get here often." "Don't be like that!" Mona's voice was distressed. "You know I'll always keep all my old friends."

Lottie slammed the door shut, tried to make sure of the lock and tossed the key into her purse. It was a trim little bride whom Jackson, the chauffeur, saluted before he opened the door of the car with a low bow.

"The yellow roadster?" Jackson thought a moment. "Yes, miss. The yellow roadster was there yesterday. Not at the garage because Mr. Steve never bothers to drive to the garage. I saw the roadster last night parked by the hedge."

"Was it there this morning, Jackson?" Mr. Steve staying over for the wedding? You've heard about the wedding, I suppose?" "Who indeed in the Townsend employ had not heard about the wedding? But Jackson's reply was circumspet. "Begging your pardon, Miss, about the roadster I could not say. I left early to do some errands for Mr. Townsend."

They rode now in silence. The sun was shining and spring was in the air. A breeze from the west filled the distant fields and finally the dim outlines of Twilands raised above the sheltering branches across the valley.

Lottie craned her neck as the car entered the gate but failed to spy Steve's car.

"Listen, honey," she whispered as they drew up before the door, "if you want to back out right now I'm with you. Nobody on earth can make you go through with this if you don't want to."

Whatever Lottie was to see could not be explained at the moment. Mr. Garretson entered the room and murmuring, the butler bowed himself out.

Historic New Orleans Cathedral Oldest In Mississippi Valley

New Orleans, La., Aug. 15.—Sixth house of worship to stand upon its site, the Old St. Louis Cathedral of New Orleans, completed in 1794, is 138 years old, but its altar stands upon the oldest altar site in the Mississippi Valley.

The first shack, reared in 1718, burned. A wooden warehouse in its place, the cathedral in one end of the warehouse, which stored arms and ammunition against Indian attacks.

Slave labor reared the building. It is Renaissance in architecture, but patchwork Renaissance.

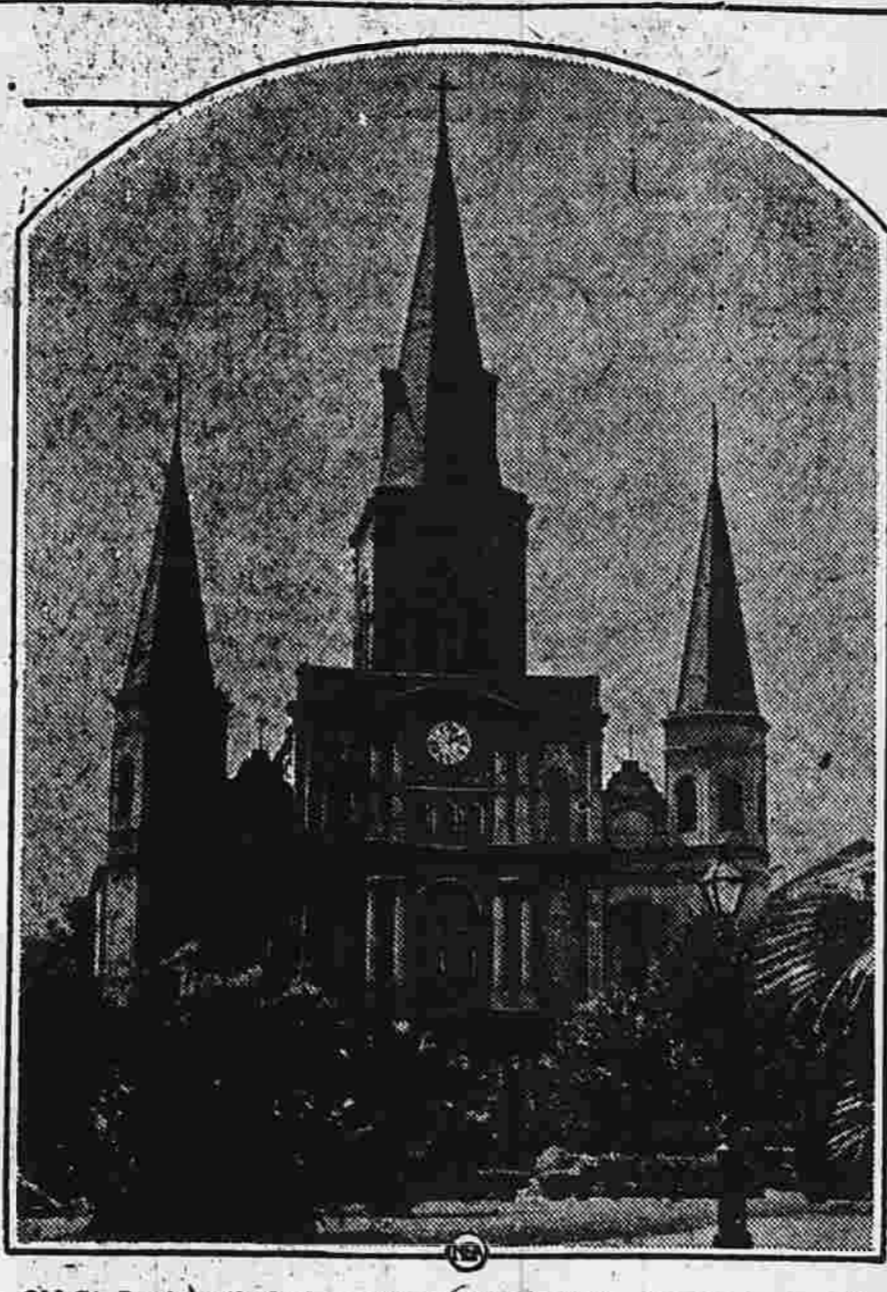

Flanked by two smaller spires, the central spire is an architectural curiosity, the only "telescopic" double spire in church history.

Historic bells in all three spires ring the devout to worship. In the central spire is a clock nearly as big as a one-car garage, of intricate French workmanship.

The thoughtful housewife usually plans her dessert from three angles: nourishment, cost and beauty. The summer dessert especially can be planned to provide much nourishment for the meal.

Fruit is the ideal dessert for summer on several counts. One of the criticisms of the food of the average family is that too little fruit is used.

Chilled Orange Souffle is a nourishing summer dessert that is most refreshing.

AMERICAN ATHLETES SWEEP THE FIELDS

Win Eight of Seventeen Events In Greatest Sporting Spectacle In World's History; Beat Crew Wins.

By ALAN GOULD
Los Angeles, Aug. 15.—(AP)—The Athletic forces of the United States emerged today from 16 days of unprecedented Olympic competition with the greatest collection of victories gained in this quadrennial carnival in at least 30 years.

In a swiftly moving drama unequalled in sports history for its color and spectacular elements, American boys and girls romped out in front of the rest of the world. They won no less than eight of the seventeen separate events unofficially where team championships were involved.

Italy with three titles to her credit was the nearest rival to the U. S. A. had.
The Americans at the outset ran away with the track and field for both men and women and came down the stretch to add the chief prizes of rowing and boxing. They yielded the supremacy in men's swimming, for the first time to Japan's spectacular young team, but American mermaids continued their unbroken succession of team triumphs.

All Sections Represented
All sections of the United States contributing to the total of 54 events, the Olympic front, where the fray was continuous and dazzling. Track and field stars of the American middlelands, including the great Jim Bausch, of Kansas record-breaking decathlon star; Eddie Tolan, of Detroit, the double sprint king and Bill Carr, if his allegiance may be switched for the moment from Pennsylvania to Arkansas, contributed much to the sweeping victories of an American team that captured altogether 11 out of 23 men's events, to the irreducible Babe Didrikson, double winner and world record breaker in women's track and field sports, while the Pacific northwest contributed Helene Madison, only double winner of the swimming battle. Eastern states like Leo Sexton and John Anderson asserted their supremacy in the weight tossing duels, besides the contribution of Philadelphia's oarsmen to the nation's rowing triumph. The south's Eddie Flynn of New Orleans gave a spirited boxing exhibition that helped add another team victory.

As the climax
As a climax California's unbeaten eight oared crew came along to beat off Italy's remarkable rowing team. It was the starkest feat, margin of one-fifth of a second the American won the big boat race with Canada and Great Britain a close third and fourth.

For the celebration of the next Olympic, at Berlin in 1936, the record books have already been completely rewritten in swimming and track sports. Due to a variety of causes, chiefly the competitive pace and the favorable track conditions, records fell in 15 of the 29 track and field events and in ten of the eleven swimming races. Eleven world records, all told, were toppled in track and field events and two more in the Olympic pool.
Records were shattered for attendance in every Olympic sport, with track and field alone drawing nearly half of the aggregate paid attendance of 1,000,000 for all events. The Olympic stadium was packed to its capacity of 105,000 for the opening ceremonies and nearly 100,000 were on hand yesterday to see the games officially closed and the flaming torch extinguished.

LOCAL PLAYERS HELP GEMS TROUNCE RAFFS

Surprise Victory Gives Savitt Team First Place Tie; 4,000 See Game.
Jack Stratton's crashing double in the third inning yesterday, coupled with "Red" Putnam's "swingin' bunt" down the third base line, scored two runs for the Savitt Gems in their benefit game between the Frederick Raff team, leading the second half of the Hartford Twilight League.

The Gems early lead was matched when the Raff team gathered a run in each of the second and third innings. Then in the fifth after two were gone, Fisher the Gems' pitcher doubled and Stratton walked and stole second as Fisher took third. Fisher and Stratton scored on Putnam's triple to deep right center. The final score was 5 to 2.

More than 4,000 people watched the two games yesterday, which were regularly scheduled games, played for the benefit of the two Hartford camps for children. Six of the players on the Gems' team are Manchester boys, Stratton, Dowd, Waller, St. John and Smith are the players; and Tommy Sipples of Park street; is the first baseman and captain of the league-leading Hartford Twilight team.
The Gems won the first half of the league race and are now tied for first place in the second half, due to their unexpected win yesterday.

JAPAN'S PROGRESS IN ATHLETICS IS SURPRISE OF MEET

Head of Olympic Committee Says Men From Far East Have Improved On Our Methods.

By AVERY BRUNDAGE
President American Olympic Committee
Los Angeles, Aug. 15.—(AP)—In many ways, the 1932 Olympic games contributed the greatest forward strides to the development of athletics in history.

They demonstrated, in really startling fashion, what our own athletes and the best from other nations can do under conditions as nearly perfect as they can for 15 runs.

Japan's Progress
They witnessed the tremendous progress made by Japan, notably in swimming, but in track and field, rowing and other branches of competition. Italy, too, manifested progress all along the line, while our Latin-American neighbors made their best showing, featured by the crowning of Juan Carlos Zabala of Argentina as the Marathon champion. I regard Zabala's performance as one of the greatest individual feats of the whole games, well worthy to rank with the brilliant and conquest of our James Bausch in the decathlon. If there were disappointments, they were reflected in the fact that Germany and Finland did not sustain the advances they made in the 1928 games at Amsterdam.

Fastest Track
The Olympic stadium track is the fastest I have ever seen and contributed largely to the fact every Olympic track record was broken. With a few exceptions, the American athletes entered their events in top condition. This was particularly true of our short distance men, who outclassed the rest of the world for the first time since 1912.

What the scientific improbability of two or more objects occupying the same space at the same time, the eight clubs of the National League are busily trying to demonstrate that it can be done.

The New York Yankees stretched their American League lead to nine games by whipping Washington, 5-4. Lefty Gomez won his 20th victory of the season.

McCLUSKEY EASILY DEFEATS EVANSON

BLUEFIELDS TAKE FIREMEN, PIRATES Beat No. 1, 13-3 and Hartford Team, 27-4; Play West Side Stars Tonight.

The Bluefields of McKee street began this ambitious schedule of three successive games in as many days by winning the first two contests. Hook and Ladder Company No. 1 of the S. M. F. D. was the first victim in a game Saturday afternoon, 13 to 3. Yesterday afternoon the West Side Pirates of Hartford fell before the local team, 27 to 4.

The fact that the fire laddies were being courted in their first effort is believed to have kept the team quiet during the game before they drew away from Evanson, who seem to tire in the closing laps. Dawson of the United States finished second, Evanson third and G. W. Bailey, also of Great Britain, fourth. The race included four hurdles and a water jump.

Tonight the Bluefields play at Four Acres against the West Side Stars, and Wednesday evening against No. 2. Next Saturday the Bluefields will meet the Turf A. C. of Middletown at the Bluefields diamond. This is the only team that has defeated the Bluefields.

Gets Some Measure of Revenge For Recent Defeat In Olympics By Winning Two Mile Race; Britisher Finishes Third.

Kesar Stadium, San Francisco, Aug. 15.—Joe McCluskey, the United States champion steplechaser, won some measure of revenge for his defeat by Tom Evanson of Great Britain in the final of the 2,000 meter Olympic steplechaser, by defeating the Britisher in the two mile steplechase team race in the quadrennial competition between the British Empire team and Olympic athletes of the United States here yesterday.

McCluskey won easily in 10:05.2. The Manchester title being back during the first few laps and then drew away from Evanson, who seem to tire in the closing laps. Dawson of the United States finished second, Evanson third and G. W. Bailey, also of Great Britain, fourth. The race included four hurdles and a water jump.

Capt. Lancaster's Friend Tells Court That Flier Bore Splendid Reputation.

Miami, Fla., Aug. 15—(AP)—Testimony that he never heard Captain W. N. Lancaster threaten the life of Eason Clarke, was brought into the latter's murder trial today by Joseph Ince of Detroit, former flying comrade of Lancaster.

Lancaster is charged with the slaying of Clarke who had replaced him in the affections of Mrs. J. M. Keith-Miller, Australian aviator.

"Did you ever hear Captain Lancaster say in discussing Clarke, that he had been hundreds of dead men and that one more wouldn't make any difference?" asked Defense Counsel James M. Carson.

"I never heard him say any such thing" replied Ince.

Ince testified he met Lancaster in El Paso in April, with M. G. Tanciel who was in the west with Lancaster on an unsuccessful flying venture, previously testified that Lancaster threatened Clarke, in Ince's presence after hearing of his love affair with Mrs. Keith-Miller.

PONSETTAS AND SNOW IN JUNE IN AFRICA

Boston, Aug. 15—(AP)—Snow and flaming ponsettias in June, South Africa saw the gorgeous red blossoms so closely associated with Christmas by New Englanders, and it also saw a snowfall on June 7, reports Miss Ruth C. Cowles, R. N., of New Britain, who has just returned to her work under the American Board of Commissioners for foreign missions in Johannesburg.

Miss Cowles, foreign nurse of the First Church of Christ in New Britain, is the niece of Mrs. Marcus White, 99 Forest street. She is the daughter of Mrs. Amy B. Cowles, retired missionary living in Alhambra, Calif. Miss Cowles is a graduate of Oberlin college and New York Post Graduate hospital.

Miss Cowles has worked among the native people of Johannesburg who live in what are known as the "world's worst slums." On her return from her first tour last Spring, Miss Cowles was assigned to the staff of the Bridgman Memorial hospital for the organization of its district mid-wifery section.

This hospital for black women was founded in 1928 by Mrs. Clara Davis Bridgman, aunt of Miss Cowles in memory of her husband, Dr. Frederick E. Bridgman. Mrs. Bridgman is now in America, making her headquarters at St. Helen, Mich.

YETERN CRITIC PREDICTS NEGRO SOON WILL DOMINATE OLYMPICS

Los Angeles, Aug. 15—Two more Olympic games—three at the most—and the black man will put it all over his white opponents in the performances of American athletes in the international games.

This is the observation of Paul Lowry, veteran scribbler of sports in Los Angeles, who has seen many of the better athletes since the days of Howard Drew, first of the negro sprint record holders, who ran the century in 9-3-5 seconds 20 years ago.

"The negro has ease and grace and natural ability without the white man's besetting ailment—fatigue," writes Lowry. "No colored man is ever beaten because he ties up. But the white athlete is temperamental; he strains and presses on the day of the big race, and away he goes his chances. The negro is emotional to a high degree, but he is capable of doing big things in a relaxed manner."

Two negro athletes trained in American colleges won three Olympic championships in the recent track and field games. They were Eddie Tolan, former Michigan star, who won the 100 and 200-meter dashes, and Ed Gordon, former Iowa athlete, who won the broad jump.

Ralph Metcalfe of Marquette ran second in the 100-meter dash and placed third in the 200 meter, Phil Edwards, former New York University athlete, won points for Canada by placing third in both the 900 and 1500-meter runs.

"Years ago the negro had an inferiority complex," Lowry writes. "They are coming into their own now because they have proved to their own satisfaction that they are good competitors."

SENSE AND NONSENSE

It's nobler to give than receive, you will find. All sages have said that, and yet there's something else also you should bear in mind. The sure way to give is to get.

WE THINK IT'S HEREDITY
Fort Dodge, Iowa—Triplets born to the Rev. and Mrs. Frank Selby last week are the first in Fort Dodge in a decade. They have been named Donald James, Darold Franklin and Deloris Martha, and have twin aunts, twin great-aunts, and twin great-grand-uncles. The Rev. The Difference: The difference between death and taxes is that death does not go up 20 per cent every time the Legislature meets.

Two old ladies had decided to take a short trip in an aeroplane. When they were just about to start, one of them said to the pilot: Old Lady—You will bring us back safely, won't you? The Pilot—Oh, yes, Madam. I've never left anybody up there yet.

What has become of the old-fashioned fellow who used to go to church and sing: "Come Thou Fount of Everl Blessing?"

Old Lady—Is this the train to Chicago? Gateman—Yes, lady. Get aboard. Old Lady—Are you sure it goes to Chicago? Gateman—Well, the station master, the engineer, the fireman, and the conductor say it goes to Chicago, and that's all I know.

When a woman takes in washing for four dollars a week, that's labor. When she does it for nothing... that's love.

Doctor—How in the world did you get such a black eye? Patient—My wife hit me with a sock.

Doctor—Your wife? That's the first time I ever heard of a woman hitting anything she threw at!

Patient—She wasn't throwing at me. She was throwing at a neighbor's cat, and I was standing directly behind her.

You can turn on the radio but you can't make the guests listen.

Beryl—Somehow I can't get Jack to propose. Ruthie—Can't you give him a hint in some way? Beryl—I do. Every time he lights my cigaret I blow smoke-rings towards him.

It is understood that the first fellow who said property was just around the corner, worked in a roundhouse. The White House picked up the idea later.

Mother—Did you get two cigars for that quarter for Daddy's birthday? Little Freddie—Yes, and look at all the candy I got for change.

"Time," remarks a scientist, "flows both ways." Just like toothpaste, after a woman has used the tube once.

WALKED WITH WALK

Toledo, Ohio.—What good two sections of sidewalk would do anyone in beyond Mayor Add Thacher, but it seems that someone stole them from Huron street near Madison avenue. After the theft the following appeared in a local paper: "If the party who stole two sections of pavement from Huron street near Madison avenue will return the pavement, no questions will be asked by Mayor Add Thacher except name, address, record, and why, for goodness sake, did he steal it."

BIG ICE BILL

Detroit, Mich.—One hundred dollars, which would pay for enough ice to build a colony of Eskimo igloos—was the price Arthur Hillman, of Essex, paid to cool 6 pints of beer. And all because he put them in his landlady's ice box. The magistrate fined him that amount for the beer, purchased by Hillman under an Ontario government permit, because it is the minimum fine for illegal possession.

TAX LEAGUE STARTS WAR ON INERT CLOCK

Wants Outdoor Timepiece of Defunct-Home Bank Removed Because It's Always Noon.

The Home Bank and Trust Company's clock, which has shown Main street the time for seven years is in danger of being outlawed if a report heard on Main street this morning is true. Just why anyone should have anything against the clock because it occupies a two-foot space on the sidewalk in front of the former Home Bank and Trust Company location is hard to say, although sometimes it is exasperating to look at the quadruple faces of the tower-timepiece and find it pointing—day in—day out—to 12 noon.

Anyway, the Taxpayers' League, officially or otherwise, according to Walter Mahoney, who made the complaint, has decided that the clock is a nuisance and Mahoney notified Lewis H. Sipe, former treasurer of the Home Bank and Trust Company, to that effect. He said further that the League intends to force the company to remove the clock from the street.

The clock, known to everybody in town, was bought by the bank directors in 1925 at a cost of $2,800 and was later taken over by the bank. The works of the outside clock are controlled by a master clock which was formerly located in the bank corridor and, while the bank was a going concern, kept reasonably good time. Since the Home Bank was merged with the Manchester Trust Company, the bronze tower has been unlighted and a source of disappointment to the time-inquiring public.

Lewis H. Sipe said today that several business men along the street had considered taking it over and wiring it up for duty. It was found that to properly wire the clock in a new location would cost over $100, about prohibitive in these times of dollar watches and electric clocks.

If the clock is removed to another location, it would cost approximately $500 to repair, remove and re-establish the clock and tower and replace the works and batteries. Mr. Sipe said today that he hoped something would be done about it before long.

appeared in Manchester. Bandmaster Erik Leiden was here as leader of the New England staff band about two years ago and later as leader of the Metropolitan ensemble, which gave a concert at the High school. Bandmaster O. A. Swanson was here last spring as leader of the Swedish Handbell Ringers. Viktor Hedgren is the leading agent of the Bellringers. Emil Sandstrom took first prize in the Jubile competition held in New York two years ago. Harold Turkington of the local band was second and Hedgren was third in the march competition.

In the contest for selections, Bandmaster Swanson captured first prize and Major Kristian Fristrup second. A brass quartet number that gained first prize at the same time was arranged by H. Otway, a Norwegian, and will be played by Hudson Lyons, Alfred Clough, Maynard Clough and David Todd. Harold Turkington will play a cornet solo, a composition by Leiden built around an old Scandinavian tune and entitled "A Happy Day." Ensign Victor Diamond of New York and Ensign George Williams will contribute a concertina duet, an arrangement, "The Lord Is My Shepherd." Among the Swedish numbers will be the well known "Engelbrekts March," "Til Vapen," "Act, Varnland, Du Skona" and "Du Gamla, Du Friska."
