CONTINUING PROBE OF ALLEGED MURDER

Although Wife's Body Has Not Been Found Police Believe She Was Killed.

Plymouth, Mass., Sept. 13.—(AP)—State and town police today continued their investigation into the reported death of Mrs. Charles E. Dubois, wife of a Tuckaboe, N. Y., jeweler.

Police began an investigation of the neighbors of Dubois, who had a summer place on Great Herring Pond, near here, had reported that he had told them conflicting stories regarding the absence of his wife from her home.

In spite of their failure to produce sufficient evidence to get a complaint, state and Plymouth policemen said they would continue their search for evidence.

Husband's Story Dubois had told the police, they said, that his wife was burned to death in an automobile accident in Canada but had been unable to substantiate the story.

Massachusetts authorities asked the aid of the police in New York state. A woman's body was found in Tuckaboe Aug. 23 and although the police were certain that it was not that of Mrs. Dubois the authorities here nevertheless, sent a detailed description of Mrs. Dubois to Medical Examiner Amos O. Squires of Westchester county, N. Y.

On this ballot it was suggested that those favoring Gagliardoni use the name "Gene," as the full name was pretty formidable to many of the voters.

There was another contest for registrar. Mrs. M. L. Woodward received 50 of the 77 votes cast, Mrs. Anna Swanson getting the rest.

WOODWARD WINNER IN BOLTON G. O. P. CAUCUS

Defeats Broll Forces in Good Natured Contests; John Albani Heads Selectmen Ticket.

The most largely attended Republican caucus ever held in Bolton was presided over last night by David Toomey in the Town Hall.

For the office of assessor Samuel Woodward and Eugene Gagliardoni were nominated on the first test vote of the evening.

Two ballots were necessary in nominating for first selectman Arthur G. Genovesi, Walter Gieseke and John Albani were put in nomination, the latter's name being presented by Samuel Woodward.

There was no contest for the member of the Board of Relief, Oscar S. P. Anderson being nominated. A check list was used in the earlier voting but when the office of second selectman was being voted for its use was abandoned on the suggestion of A. J. Broll, who was leading the minority.

There was another contest for registrar. Mrs. M. L. Woodward received 50 of the 77 votes cast, Mrs. Anna Swanson getting the rest.

Only three constables were nominated. Constable Pierce was not among them and will not serve for the coming year.

INVESTIGATE HOLD-UP

Greenwich, Sept. 13.—(AP)—Police continued their inquiry today into the story told by Harry Cohen, manager of the Pickwick Motion Picture theater, of $1,030 robbery which occurred yesterday while he was counting the week-end receipts.

Police Chief Patrick J. Flanagan said he expected to call in Prosecutor Henry B. White for consultation after completion of the investigation.

Three officials of the theater company came here to join the police inquiry. Cohen who became manager of the theater two weeks ago, reported a man and a woman held him up in his office and bound him to a cabinet.

Only Woman "Shrimper" Formerly Lived In Town

One of the most successful "shrimpers" of Florida, who has gained quite a bit of notoriety lately for her activities in that profession, and a new one for women, is none other than Sadie Miller, of Daytona Beach, Florida, formerly of this town.

Miss Miller owns and operates the largest shrimp dock on the Halifax river at Daytona Beach, and is known to thousands of tourists who flock to the Florida resort to fish during the year.

Left Here 8 Years Ago As a resident of this town, Miss Miller lived at 231 Porter street and left Manchester eight years ago with her brother, who had been in the habit of going north each winter. The sudden change in real estate values in certain sections of Florida caused Miss Miller to seek employment—as it did others similarly caught when the Florida bubble burst.

When the real estate bubble burst, a few years later circumstances made it necessary for me to go to work. I owned this shrimp dock in Daytona Beach, and had a man operating it. Miss Miller was quoted as saying, "When he went north for his vacation, he decided not to come back, so I decided to try it myself. Much to my surprise, I liked the work, and since it made me a good living, I kept right on."

Hard Work Miss Miller has said that "shrimping" is hard work—a man's work if you please—but Sadie Miller of Manchester and Daytona Beach, the one and the same person, was built for hard work, being strong and supplied with energy comparable to a man's. Although it was hard at first, Miss Miller has said that she loves the work, night or day, and expects to continue in business that is due to come to her through the publicity in magazines and many daily papers. She is said to have been the first "shrimp" in the United States and perhaps the world.

This business of shrimping, Miss Miller says keeps a person up all hours. No one can tell when a man will plan to go fishing, so the proprietor of the shrimp dock has to stay on duty nearly all the time.

Often Looses Sleep "There have been many times when I have had only one or two hours sleep out of 24. I have a small bedroom and cot on my dock, and when I'm tired I just doze off to sleep until a customer arrives. Of course, during the busy seasons, I have my helpers," she added. This past summer she ran four boats to get the shrimp every night.

Sadie Miller is 49 years old, her close cropped hair is sprinkled with gray, but her eyes are brimful of youth and pep. They snap as she talks. When business is slack she likes to sew and makes her own dresses in the dull season. She is independent and gets a great kick out of life when she dons her rubber boots and rubber "overalls" and goes out to tend her nets at night under the Florida stars.

As a resident of Manchester, Miss Miller was formerly employed in the J. W. Hale Company store.

Arthur Bushnell, Board of Relief, William L. Ayers, Selectman for first, L. Ernest Hall was nominated, but declined the nomination after which Frank A. Newman was nominated. He also declined. George D. Neff was nominated for first and L. Ernest Hall accepted the nomination for second Selectman; Agent Town Deposit Fund, I. Tilden Jewitt; Auditor, James Galavin; Grand Jurors, John A. Usher, Andrew J. Buckley and Arthur Bushnell; Collector of Taxes, James E. Rhodes; Constable, Samuel Lewis; Registrar of Voters, Frank A. Newman; School Board, Helen A. Jewitt. Other vacancies are to be filled by the town committee.

Rev. James A. Davidson, Mrs. Davidson and Mr. and Mrs. Hoyt Hayden with their son Henry and daughter Emily Jane attended the prohibition mass meeting Sunday afternoon held at the summer home of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Lawson at Ochepetuck Mountain in Union. A large company of people numbering several hundred assembled and listened to an able talk on prohibition by Dr. John Phillips of the Center church, Hartford and other speakers. A sunset service was held and a crowd of people gathered for that service. A cafeteria lunch was served in the grove where many enjoyed this unique feature. The Woodstock Band furnished music and there was a chorus of many voices which made the gathering for the afternoon and evening full of zest and interest.

FIFTIETH ANNIVERSARY. Torrington, Sept. 13.—(AP)—Prof. and Mrs. Henry S. Monroe observed the 50th anniversary of their marriage at their home in Litchfield yesterday. Prof. Monroe was for many years on the faculty of the Columbia University school of mines.

"Nature in the Raw is seldom MILD"

THE CALL OF THE WILD "Nature in the Raw"—as portrayed by Paul Bransom, America's foremost animal painter... inspired by the savage struggle between the ferocious wild dog and the vicious wolf... as described in Jack London's famous novel of combat against crude nature in the frozen north.

—and raw tobaccos have no place in cigarettes

They are not present in Luckies... the mildest cigarette you ever smoked

WE buy the finest, the very finest tobaccos in all the world—but that does not explain why folks everywhere regard Lucky Strike as the mildest cigarette. The fact is, we never overlook the truth that "Nature in the Raw is Seldom Mild"—so these fine tobaccos, after proper aging and mellowing, are then given the benefit of that Lucky Strike purifying process, described by the words—"It's toasted". That's why folks in every city, town and hamlet say that Luckies are such mild cigarettes.

"It's toasted" That package of mild Luckies

"If a man writes a better book, preaches a better sermon, or makes a better mousetrap than his neighbor, he builds his house in the woods, the world will make a better path to his door."—RALPH WALDO EMERSON. Does not this explain the world-wide acceptance and approval of Lucky Strike?

Revenue Decreased
Officials of the electric company feel that the dividend will be especially helpful to its patrons at this time. Despite the fact that the firm's revenue has been considerably decreased during the past year the directors decided that because of various economies in management effected the company's surplus warranted another dividend this year.

Credit Extension
During this past year the Manchester Electric Company extended to its patrons a new form of credit extension. A number of customers who have found themselves in difficult financial straits because of economic conditions have taken advantage of this offer.

today by the trawler Lord Talbot, it was reported here, but the airplane "City of Richmond" in which they set out from the United States for Europe was wrecked.

Little Boom on Ship
The Lord Talbot is one of the biggest and best equipped of the Aberdeen trawler fleet, but accommodations aboard the vessel are restricted and it seemed likely that it would be difficult to find room aboard her for the eight castaways.

Adverse Comment
Before word of their rescue reached here the newspaper Politiken, commenting on the flight, asserted that even if the Hutchinsons were found the Danish government already has been fully justified in refusing permission for their landing in Greenland. The flight served no useful purpose, either scientific or practical, but was merely a sensational stunt, the editorial said.

Not a Fact
"My friend, Mr. Gibbons, told you that the soldiers set fire to the humble homes of these men. That is not the fact. The fires were set by the men themselves. No members of the Army would do that. All the fatalities that occurred on the day of which you have heard so much took place before the arrival of the United States Army."

Many Fine Men
"There were men among that group in Washington who came in an orderly way to state their case for whom I would lay down my life to protect. There were wonderfully fine men among them. But there were other men there, too. All were not angels. And I want to tell you that this is a government of a majority and not a government of a minority."

Afloat Two Days
New York, Sept. 13.—(AP)—In a wireless message received here today by Hubert Malkus, manager of the flying Hutchinson family whose airplane was wrecked near Angmagssalik, Greenland, George Hutchinson said his party had been afloat in the icy waters for two days.

Up to the time Harlow put her signature on that contract, McGrew had regarded her interest in motion pictures as just another of her enthusiasms.

TAKE 15,000 PRISONERS

On Sept. 18, 1918, the First American Army completely wiped out the St. Mihiel salient, taking more than 15,000 prisoners and extending the battle line past Norroy, Jaulny, St. Benoit and Herbeville.

Their net advance was as much as 18 miles and their gains extended over a front of 86 miles. Territory taken during the two days' fighting had been in the hands of the Germans since 1914. Wiping out of the salient removed the threat of a German flank attack on Verdun and threatened the German fortress of Metz.

French troops on the Alma renewed their attacks and advanced more than two miles on an 11-mile front.

The British steamer Galway Castle was sunk and 189 persons were lost.

PAINTING CONTRACTORS

Gene are the Days of Gloomy Dignity!

Gene are the times when people painted things dark so as not to show the dirt!

So easy! So inexpensive! Once you discover HOW easy, HOW inexpensive, you'll rush home smiling with cheery color in every room.

Such colors to choose from in WATERSPAR Varnish and Enamels! Soft, pastel shades, delicate hues! Rich, entrancing tones! Gorgeous, brilliant, stunning colors! Never before did women have such a palette of ready-to-use beauty, and best of all, the fuss and muss of re-fishing is gone because of the fast-drying of WaterSpar Varnish and Enamels.

Forget Price-Per-Gallon When You Buy Paint!

Forget it because cheap-price-per-gallon paint is expensive paint! You can pay over a dollar less per gallon for it, but because of its short covering capacity it saves only $4 total on the initial cost of painting the average house.

This Store is Headquarters for paints, varnish, enamels and brushes and features the Pittsburgh Proof Products line—famous for 75 years as products of the finest quality at reasonable prices.

Remember this About the Master Painter

The Master Painter isn't just a handy man. He is a highly skilled, responsible craftsman with the knowledge and experience to solve special problems in painting and decorating.

Better Work With a Horsehoe Brush

Don't try to do a good paint or varnish job with a poor brush. It can't be done. If it is a HORSESHOE Brand brush, it will help you do the best possible job.
