Editor of The Herald:

Our town householding has become too expensive for our pocket-book. We have reached the point where further imposition of taxes on property will become intolerable; and if we are to keep the expenditures of the town within its income, we must economize. If we cannot economize, we must dispense with luxuries. If we cannot pay high salaries we must reduce high salaries. We have been told that our schools cannot be operated on three hundred thousand a year. They can be operated on that amount without discharging a teacher, closing a school, or discontinuing kindergarten, if our town officials go about it in a business-like way.

I would suggest that all those employed by the town, whatever the position may be, who receive a salary of two thousand dollars and upwards, be reduced twenty-five per cent, all those receiving less than two thousand, ten per cent. The saving in teachers' salaries, including superintendent and supervisors would be more than the cost of operating our schools would be reduced that amount.

The situation is bad enough; and discharging teachers and increasing the number of unemployed only makes a bad situation worse. It seems to me that it is much the better way that the many sacrifice a little, so that others may not lose all. Teachers should not forget that they have been exceptionally fortunate during these troublesome times. While the salaries of many among us have shrunk to the vanishing point, others whose salaries have been completely cut out, are steadily employed.

Some teachers who are in positions in our schools, but who should not be there, are a surplus of teachers and college graduates, and that there would be no difficulty in filling their places. Too much importance has been attached to superintendents and supervisors are to a great extent ornamental, especially so when an assistant does the work. For we know that country schools live and move and have their being, and function successfully without their assistance. After the important work of the school in our schools is done by the regular teacher.

Then there is the Recreation Center, known as the Rec. This is an expensive luxury, which should be dispensed with. The same men should be paid fifteen thousand a year for a place where a few may take a shower bath, and play pool, when we find it difficult to raise enough money to pay for the education of our children?

FRIEND OF VETERAN

Editor, The Herald:

Can you imagine, you being an ex-service man, how Herman Koppelman expects either Democratic or Republican service men to fall for his line when he is opposing a service man that has a record like Colonel Cy Seymour. There are many ex-service men in our town that know Cy Seymour, not through what they have heard about him, but through actual contact at the Mexican Border, in training camps and finally in France during the World War.

From a "Buck Private" at the border to a Captain when he was discharged at the end of the World War is a record all of us can understand. A former Commander in the American Legion and affiliated with every ex-service activity of any note since the World War.

Ex-service men, don't let Herman fool us, "Cy's" the real ex-service men's friend. Give him a boost when you get a chance. Let's put him over!

Yours very truly,
EX-SERVICE MAN.

Mothers! Face The Real Facts!

Your Child May Have Worms. Signs of Worms are: Constipation, irritable stomach, swollen upper lip, offensive breath, hard and full stomach with pains, pale face, eyes heavy, short dry cough, grinding of the teeth, little red points on the tongue, starting during sleep with troublesome dreams, etc.

Dr. True's Elixir

Laxative Worm Expeller will help relieve these conditions. "At the first sign of a cold coming on, or restlessness at night, or a sign of a sluggish appetite, I give it to my little girl. I find that she throws off a cold much more quickly. . . . In trouble caused by worms, often brought about by the overeating of sweets or uncooked fruits, I have found that Dr. True's Elixir given regularly for a short time is most helpful." — Mrs. Frank Belanger, Watertown (Mass.).

FOR KINDERGARTENS

Editor Manchester Evening Herald:

There is some talk of discontinuing the kindergartens in town. As an average mother I appeal to the parents not to let this happen. You must remember your Kindergarten days. Such happy and instructive days. The average mother is so busy with the general things about the home she does not have time to teach the small child of four or five.

The Kindergarten plays a very large and important part in our town. It takes the child at his most impressionable age and with trained hands and kindly guidance leads him into the early years of childhood that the formation of youth is laid.

I have heard people say the Kindergarten is a playground. Granted. But a constructive playground. Here the child is taught to build or to build or paint. This is part of his training to develop his ideas and teach him to express himself and be original.

I hope you readers here or will in the near future visit our Kindergarten and see the results of the things done by the children. It is quite remarkable the things they do. How many mothers could even, if they had the time, sit down and mould with clay, objects, with a lesson and often a moral in each one, or tell an original story with lesson to be remembered hidden therein?

If we give up our kindergartens and turn out those 310 children how terrible it will be. Will some of you mothers express your desire to keep the kindergartens? It is very difficult to adjust these matters to everyone's liking.

Thank you, Mr. Editor.
Sincerely,
A MOTHER.

COL SEYMOUR AND BONUS

Dear Editor:

It was amusing to read the reasons for W. Seymour's change of heart regarding the payment of the bonus.

I was present at the meeting last April when Mr. Seymour spoke about the bonus. I don't remember Mr. Seymour's exact words, but the substance of them was that he believed that the newspapers were all wrong in their opinion that the bonus could not be paid at that time. If we are to take the word of the party that he represents conditions have steadily improved since then, so why so vehemently against payment now?

He said he did not understand the true conditions then.

Does Mr. Seymour remember agreeing with Wright Patman's plan to issue new currency? Can he deny that he said that few people really understood what inflation really was, and that he gave quite a lengthy discourse on the subject?

Does the Colonel think that any sensible person would believe his vainglorious assertion that he thought the Democrats in the lower house would balance the budget in some miraculous manner and funds would become available to pay the bonus?

Does Mr. Seymour realize that he is doing the same words in opposing payment now that he criticized others for using last April?

the schools of the state. Do the people of Manchester want this standard kept? If so, they will do all in their power to keep their kindergartens in operation.

Adjusted such as some of those proposed by the Board may be made for next year, but it does not seem quite fair to everybody concerned to make them now.

I respect the teaching force that has been built up here in Manchester, and it is not in any spirit of vindictiveness or petty selfishness that this budget reduction has been proposed. I sincerely hope that most of the teachers now employed here will remain with us at their adjusted salaries, and that when a general economic conditions warrant, the townspeople will be glad to restore the salary schedule to the same level which it had reached before.

It is a sure thing that municipal salaries sooner or later must reflect the ability of the taxpayers to pay them. Right now we are in no position to pay what we used to, and municipal salaries cannot be kept up to their former heights without eventual disaster to the town's finances and to its property owners who foot the bill.

Sincerely,
W. WOOD G. BOWERS.

DRUNK DRIVER HITS CAR, RUNS INTO PARK

None Injured in Center Street Crash—Occupants Arrested, One Skips Bail.

Driving his automobile while under the influence of intoxicating liquors, Herbert Usher, of East Lyme, an employee of the Seaside Sanatorium, at 5:30 yesterday afternoon, crashed into the car of the Lopez car and drove it into the park at the junction of Broad street, Hartford at the junction of Center and West Center streets, at 5:30 yesterday afternoon. Usher's machine hit the curb and went into the park at the junction of Lopez's wife and infant were in their machine but were not injured.

In the car with Usher were Edward McCue and Edward Peters of New London. They were arrested for intoxication. All had come here to attend for the final meeting. It is further pointed out that the committee consulted the records of the annual meeting of the division and found that closing on Armistice Day was not favored, "although they felt they noted the final decision be left to a later date and be left to the Executive Committee of the Division."

The letter also says that "The Executive committee believes there is no greater tendency than the year formerly in making this a closed holiday, although they hope the day will come when stores, factories, schools and all institutions will close throughout the state or throughout the Nation. When that day comes you will find Manchester merchants ready to fall in line."

Only Solution

Jasper McLeary, Socialist nominee for governor, speaking at the same rally with Thomas at New Haven, asserted his party's program offered the only "ultimate solution and immediate progress" to the unemployment problem. Devere Allen, the party's candidate for Senator criticized the record in Congress of his two opponents, Senator Hiram Bingham and Representative Augustine Lonergan.

Meanwhile in New Britain, John H. Trumbull, Republican gubernatorial candidate discussed what he declared as the human side of the state government, mentioning specifically the widow aid law.

Asserting that this legislation was enacted by a Republican General Assembly, the former governor said: "It is the most liberal law of its kind in the United States, and that it has been a model for other states interested in the problem is shown by the fact that it has been copied verbatim by a number of states, including our next door neighbor, Rhode Island."

In the midst of the last full week of campaigning left before the election, the republican and Democratic leaders issued calls for final conferences.

Chairman David A. Wilson announced the Democratic state central committee will meet at State headquarters in Hartford Wednesday. The Republican State central committee will meet the next day at the Hartford Club.

ed plans for Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt's reception in Connecticut tomorrow afternoon, including a speech here and stops at six other communities were completed today by Democratic State headquarters.

The Presidential nominee returned to his home from an automobile tour of New England with a short address on the lawn of the State Capitol here at 3 p. m. Stops for greetings will be made at Thompsonville, Windsor Locks, Manchester, New Britain, Waterbury and Torrington.

Governor W. L. Cross, accompanied by National Committeeman Archibald McNeil, National Committeewoman Fannie Dixon Welch, State Chairman David A. Wilson and Vice Chairman Nora A. Harris will drive to the Massachusetts state line to meet Roosevelt's train, which will come into Connecticut from Springfield. The caravan of automobiles will reach Thompsonville about 2 p. m. and then cross the Connecticut river to Windsor Locks. Waterbury will be the next community visited, after which the cars will go through Broadville and Manchester.

In East Hartford
At East Hartford a band will meet the train, while Mayor William J. Rankin will be stationed at the Hartford side of the bridge to escort the governor into the city.

Leaving here at 3:30 p. m. for New Britain, where a parade will be held, the caravan will continue through Farmington, Plainville and Bristol.

Waterbury will be reached at 5 p. m. Then the route will be retraced to Thomaston and Torrington, where Democratic leaders expect a crowd of 5,000 persons to gather.

The cow town of Radiant is known to the straggling riders who come down off the hills as the "jumping-off place."

It is a short half day's ride from the Mexican border and it is close to the rough country on the north and touches the edge of the burning desert on the right. In Radiant no one asks questions of strangers and the past of each resident is a closed book. The test of a man is his ability to ride and rope.

Stan Ball leaned against a plank bar and watched a half dozen Mexicans playing poker with a deck of greasy cards. He was sure he would rather have been riding in the hills for one of the many big outfits near town, but he had not been able to get a job.

He had wandered from one cow town to another. Now he had only a few silver dollars left and he would have to find a job. It might as well be Radiant as any other in the sun-baked country, Stan thought. From now on he would have to be within easy riding distance of the border.

Stan half turned upon one elbow as the swinging doors of the pool room creaked open. Few men of interest came into a place like this in the daytime but Stan had reason to look every man over carefully. The man who entered was lean and leathery, a cow hand beyond doubt. He was covered with dust and plain thirty. He slapped a dollar on the bar and called for a glass of something cold.

The sound of his voice made Stan jump. With one great stride he was at the stranger's side and had slapped him on the back.

"How are you, Malloy?" Stan grasped his friend's hand. "That dried up and mad," Malloy grinned as he recognized Ball. "But darn glad to see you."

"What brings you down here?" Stan asked.

"Well I find a corner and I'll tell you why I dragged over all these miles of baked grass land," Stan said. "I was looking for a job. Stan was eager to ask questions but he held his silence and allowed his friend to take him over town.

"I just came down from Three Rivers," Malloy's mouth hardened. "There's a job up there for you." He looked Stan squarely in the eye. Stan shook his head. "I'll never go back to Folly Mountain."

SOCCER CLUB BEATS GERMANIA TEAM, 4-2

Local Booters Gain Second Victory At Glastonbury Field; Overcome Lead To Win Easily.

By OBSERVER
A contingent of approximately 150 soccer enthusiasts travelled with the local club to Glastonbury yesterday and urged them on to victory over the Germania Soccer club to the tune of 4 goals to 2.

Play at the beginning was quiet, each goal being visited with the defenses keeping a sound hold on the opposing forwards. What seems to be the policy of the local club to allow the opposing team to score first before settling down to serious play happened again yesterday when Germania registered first blood. A misunderstanding on the part of some of the local defensive players was taken advantage of by the Germania inside right who took the ball on the run, headed it forward and drove it smartly into the net well out of Wenberg's reach.

Local Score Twice

Realizing that it now took two goals to win, the locals set out to get them. Pressure on the left wing resulted in a beautiful cross by E. McConkey which was met by Fooks, who had closed in next to the opposing wing, and driven past the goalie for the equalizing goal. Stimulated by this success the "stripes" kept after the Germania defense. A free kick, 30 yards out, was taken by O'Neill. The ball was sent into the goal headed the ball past a surprised goalkeeper for number two.

Continuing the pressure, the locals were awarded a 12 yard spot kick which was taken by O'Neill to a splendid kick into the upper right hand corner had the Germania keeper beaten all the way. Half time arrived with the score sheet reading 3 goals to 1 in favor of Manchester.

Germania Halts

Upon the resumption it was seen that Manchester intended to increase their lead if possible. The interval, however, had given the Germania time to plan a recovery and their defense and they put up a stout opposition. Meeting with no success in the quest of goals the local attack slackened a little. This seemed to be the moment Germania had been waiting for. Released in the defense, the attack began to function and in no time Wenberg was in the midst of the fray. After persistent effort Germania was rewarded. The ball was driven in to goal and Wenberg had to get down on the grass to clear. In doing so he pushed the ball to the inside left who shook the net for number two.

Make Final Score

Not to be outdone the locals came right back and registered number four. This time the ball was taken down on the right and centered for E. McConkey to close in and make no mistake. An opportunity to get a fifth was missed by O'Neill who drove a 12 yard spot kick over the bar. The final whistle declared Manchester worthy winners by 4 goals to 2.

The teams:

Manchester: Goal, Wenberg; backs, R. Lindsay and G. Wilson; halfbacks, McConkey and Luman; forwards, Bruggerstrat, Schock, Lerner, Bruggerstrat and Berner.

Germania: Goal, Chamelors; backs, Hebel and Tischer; halfbacks, Rubenstein and Luman; forwards, Bruggerstrat, Schock, Lerner, Bruggerstrat and Berner.

YALE FOOTBALL STOCK IN UNEXPECTED JUMP

New Haven, Oct. 31.—(AP)—Yale's football stock has taken an unexpected jump as a result of the 6-0 beating administered by the Elis to the highly favored Dartmouth eleven. You can discount all past prognostications and everything else in the two games to come, Coach Mal Stevens said. "We'll be meeting Princeton and Harvard even up."

ORIOLES TROUNCE FAWNEES

The Orioles football team trounced the Pawnees at Hickey's Grove, Sunday by a score of 28-0. The Orioles had little trouble in running roughshod over the Pawnees. The scoring was divided between Olander, Seaborn, Budd, and Karkaveck. The victory brings the Orioles' total up to a straight win. They haven't been scored on this season. In three years they have played 23 games and have won them all. Next week they play in Rockville.

The lineup:

THURSDAY IS THE 33RD ANNIVERSARY OF VIOLENT BATTLE

Jim Jeffries Fought Tom Sharkey In Terrific Fray For Heavyweight Title; Former Got Decision.

By WERNER LAUFER
NEA Service Sports Writer

Thursday, Nov. 3, is the 33rd anniversary of one of the most violent battles ever seen in an American ring—the terrific fray between Champion Jim Jeffries and Sailor Tom Sharkey, at Coney Island in 1899.

The animosity between the two contestants offered a striking contrast to the friendly atmosphere in which modern fighters mingle. Both Jeff and Tom are age-worn men now, but it was years before the razor of that night of mayhem was buried by friendship.

The savage thrill that the spectators at Coney Island experienced that night will live in ring legend forever.

Jeffries had beaten Sharkey once before, becoming champion, when Tom was just a green sailor from one of Uncle Sam's battle wagons. But this meeting was to see the seasoned Tom's heart broken, and his ambition—to take the belt back to his mother in Ireland—thwarted cruelly.

Arrived before these two mountains of trained muscle and masters of the business of hitting and taking had come from their corners for the first time, the intense heat from the overhead ring lamps sent streams of perspiration down their rugged bodies.

As they swirled to the center of the ring for the first time, the impact, Jeffries came out of that famous crouch suddenly and landed a straight left that knocked Tom off balance and spun a red haze before the eyes of the Pride of Dundalk.

Jeff's lead was the signal for a barrage of body blows that were delivered as the two stood toe to toe and they were reluctant to go to their corners as the bell sounded.

The two went tearing and punching through the first eight rounds with hardly a lull—Jeffries like a bull, the water from his second's sponge dried on his body by the heat of the lamps before a round had gone half a minute. Sharkey was likened by the astute writers to a sturdy pony, ripping and snorting, giving and catching punches on the body and head—and some of those he caught brought groans of pain from his clenched mouth.

Once they charged together and their heads crashed with a resounding thud, Sharkey wore a red out above his eye, but that was quickly patched up by the crafty Tim McGrath, who kept shouting advice to his warrior.

Once they clinched and Jeff's hairy arms seized Tom's shoulders and sent him spinning across the ring. "You're not so very strong," muttered Jeff from blood-flecked lips.

The taunt enraged Sharkey, who hurled himself against Jeff's woolly body with both hands whanging a tattoo as he roared: "I show you who is the stronger!"

The ringiders stood to cheer that brave reprisal.

Yale tasted victory for the first time this season by triumphing, 6 to 0, over a stubborn Dartmouth eleven in the New Haven bowl. Above, Lasser, Yale halfback, is shown running into trouble for a short gain around left end. Note the stiff arm he's handing the tackler. Callan's 3-yard plunge for touchdown gave the Elis their only score.

ONLY TWENTY GRID ELEVENS UNBEATEN, UNTIED THIS YEAR

Colgate and Auburn Share Scoring Honors; Only Two Teams Boast Uncrossed Goal Lines; The Standing.

New York, Oct. 31.—(AP)—The 1932 football campaign enters the crucial November engagements with only 20 teams unbeaten and untied. Notre Dame, Harvard, Johns Hopkins and Catholic U. all suffered their initial defeats last week while Temple and Wagner College of Staten Island were tied. Colgate and Auburn jointly share the scoring lead among the unbeaten and untied teams with 196 points in six games.

Colgate and Southern California are the only elevens boasting uncrossed goal lines. The 20 teams which an Associated Press compilation shows neither beaten or tied follow:

Team	W	FF	PA
Colgate	6	196	0
Auburn	6	195	21
Columbia	6	188	19

Local Sport Chatter

The Boys Club of New London

showed about everything in football in their walkaway victory over the Red Men at Mt. Nebo yesterday afternoon. The yellow terrors from Wabash had everything needed to bring home the bacon, a good pair of passers in Edwards and Cawley, excellent receivers in Allen and Herko, two good kickers, Cawley and Edwards, and a wonder-working line.

It was interesting to watch the Boys Club power plays click. The interference was fast, charging up to the line and tossing the opposition into confusion. For a fast working crew, the New Londoners handled the ball with few fumbles.

White, former Conn. Aggie guard, passes the ball from the center position remarkably well for a cripple. He has but two digits on his right hand.

It began to look as if the local team was not going to register a first down in the game. Late in the second quarter they tallied the only 10-yard gain.

The team needed plenty of beef to stand up under the well-timed rushes of the down river boys, and Coach Harrison himself was in there most of the second half. Fentore was slightly injured last week, Spencer was out of town and Purdy did not report, weakening the team considerably.

EAGLES DEFEAT PRISON TEAM AT WETHERSFIELD

North Enders Win 7-0, Vince Making Fifty Yard Run To Score On Forward Pass Late In Third Period.

The Eagles journeyed to Wethersfield Saturday and returned with an impressive 7-0 victory over the prison team. Although outweighed, the Eagles fought stubbornly until they scored late in the third period.

The game was only three minutes old when the visitors threatened. Copeland after running back the kick to his own thirty-five-yard line, got away for thirty more yards. Slaga ripped through the line for twelve yards and a short pass, Balon to Varrick, brought the ball down on the prisoners' eight-yard line. Two line smashes and an end run netted but three yards and so Copeland attempted a field goal which was a little wide and the ball went to the home team.

In the second quarter, the ball exchanged hands several times and with the exception of Swilka's nine-yard run, there were no long runs in that quarter.

The Eagles kicked to their opponents in the third quarter and their rivals began a line smashing attack, led by their 310-pound fullback. An attempted pass was intercepted by Captain Balon who fought his way back to midfield. He dropped back and passed to Vince who ran for a touchdown. Copeland kicked the point.

A fourth period aerial attack was battered down by the Eagles' defense and so another win was added to their credit. "Nap" Kapradis played a splendid defensive game.

Eagles lineup: Varrick, le; Nielson, Kovis, lt; Kapradis, lg; Kroll, c; J. Mitchell, rg; M. Mitchell, rt; Sarabek, Vince, re; Hansen, Balon, qb; O. Mitchell, Moske, lb; Swelka, Copeland, rfb; Slaga, fb.

WEST SIDES NOSED OUT BY WHEEL CLUB AT ROCKVILLE, 7-0

Hold Own For Two Periods But Succumb To Heavier Team; Dahman Stars For Locals.

The West Side football team lost its second game in succession when they went down in defeat to the Rockville Wheel Club yesterday afternoon at the Rockville fairgrounds the score being 7-0.

Outweighed in every position, the locals put up a game battle all the way through. Holding their own for the first two periods, they weakened in the third and with "Slack" Brown doing most of the ball carrying the Rockville squad went through the West Side line for gains of 8 and 10 yards at a clip, bringing the ball down the field to the local's 18 yard line. At this point the local line stiffened and held for three downs.

Pass Brings Score

The Wheel Club chose to pass on the next play and caught the West Side backfield asleep when Birch tossed a 20 yard pass to Clechowski for the lone touchdown. Brown carried the ball over for the extra point.

The West Sides although outplayed and outweighed deserve credit for their game play every member of the team played hard, clean, football, especially Dexter Dahman. This blond-haired chap was shifted to the backfield this week and did a swell job of it. Had it not been for him the score might have been much larger. Time and again a Wheel Club player would break loose on what looked like a sure touchdown only to have this cool-headed chap appear from nowhere and bring the runner down, and when he tackled them, they stayed tackled!

Weight Counts

The Wheel Club made use of every ounce of their excessive weight and kept hammering at the local line all through the game. They made 6 first downs to the West Sides 3. They only tried two forwards, completing one, this being the pass which scored the touchdown while the locals, who are noted for their aerial attack tried but 3 and two of these were intercepted. Many of the local players were bruised pretty well at the end of the game but will be in shape for the next game.

West Sides Will Practice at the West Side Oval Tuesday night and all members are requested to be on hand.

The Lineups:

West Sides: Henry and H. Moriarty, le; Johnson and Barraro, lt; Wolfgram and Ryan, lg; Altken and Anderson, c; Rowe, rg; B. Douglas and C. Douglas, rt; Fields and Pohl, re; M. Moriarty, qb; Eagleston and Brown, lb; Dahman, rb; Happiness and Lucas, rfb; Wheel Club: Hartenstein and Bionas, lg; Holloran and A. Kowalski, lt; Kid, lg; Stone, c; Kelman and R. Geasey, rg; Geasey and C. Smith, rt; Klits, re; Clechowski, qb; Birch, lb; Zind, rb; Brown, rfb; Zigi, fb.

Wheel Club by periods: 0 0 7 0-7

Referee, Moran; Umpire, Murphy.

Football Stars CANZONERI'S TITLE AT STAKE ON FRIDAY

New York, Oct. 31.—(AP)—Tony Canzoneri stakes his lightweight championship against Billy Petrolle the demon puncher from Duluth in a 15-round battle in Madison Square Garden Friday night.

Despite Petrolle's lean sensational performance here and despite the terrific punch he packs in either hand, he will enter the ring on the short end of the betting unless plenty of money is rushed to his support this week.

Leading Scorers

Lou Bush, feet little halfback of Massachusetts State has widened his lead over the field in the race for National football scoring honors. Bush scored a pair of touchdowns against Amherst, Saturday to boost his season's total to 16 for a total of 86 points.

COLUMBIA

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Carpenter are visiting Mr. Carpenter's brother in Charlottesville, Virginia, and expect to be gone about two weeks in all. They made the trip by auto.

Miss Marion McCormick has returned to her home here after being on a nursing case at the Hartford hospital. On her return she picked a violet in her garden.

The lake has reached the high water mark and is running over the spillway. It is several years since it has reached such a high mark, owing to heavy rains of this fall.

The new state road is practically completed up as far as the Scott-Bell place, the men now being engaged in putting in the curbs and grading the driveways of that stretch of road. Beyond that point the road is impassable to traffic and almost so to the workmen.

Utley Hill is the consistency of soft putty owing to the heavy rains and work has had to cease here temporarily. During the night Wednesday a series of showers of cloud burst intensity has not made matters better. There will be plenty of water in the wells this winter, as it is the first time they have got a good supply since the first dry season three years ago.

The Ladies Aid Society held its October meeting Thursday afternoon at the chapel, with 35 ladies present, in spite of the storm. Miss Anne Dix was hostess and had decorated the chapel with the Hallows-eve costumes. Doughnuts, sweet coffee, coffee, salted nuts and candy were served.

Frequent showers occurred during the early morning hours of Thursday, followed by a rainy forenoon. A large limb of a tree on the Green fell on the electric light wires cutting off all power in that part of the town for an hour and a half until they were repaired. Later in the day the telephones went out of order and up to Friday evening service had not been restored.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schriever and little daughter Janet Marie of Deven were recent guests at the home of Mr. Schriever's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Schriever.

The Busy Highway 4th Clothing Club gave a Halloween costume party and masquerade Friday afternoon at the Town Hall. There were 12 girls present. Several from here went to Glead Friday evening to the chicken pie supper given by the Hebrew Grange.

Boston-Walter C. Conroy, Federal director of employment for Massachusetts, reports a general improvement in the employment situation in the state.

Boston-Nine persons killed in automobile accidents in Massachusetts last week.

Cambridge, Mass.-Harvard graduate school of business administration announces an emergency session to start January 30 for unemployed college graduates and young executives.

Madford, Mass.-Miss Ferris Anderson, 28, of Boston, receives serious injuries in a fall from her horse while riding in the Middlesex fellaway.

Boylston, Mass.-Six persons injured, two seriously, as a Worcester consolidated street railway bus leaves the highway on the Worcester-Boylston-Clinton road and drops down a 30-foot embankment.

Boston-Bias Veletrino, 53, sails for Italy on the steamship Saturnia shortly after finishing an 18 years' sentence at state prison. He had been sentenced for slaying his wife, whom he found with another man.

Foxboro, Mass.-Miss Agnes Murray of Burlington, Vt., who was arrested on assault charges after her aunt, Miss Margaret Stone, had been drugged and beaten in Brookline, is admitted to the Foxboro State hospital for observation.

Skowhegan, Me.-A stabbing affray, which resulted in the death of a youth and disrupted a religious service in West Athens, 12 miles from here, leads to the questioning of 66 witnesses and the holding of a grand jury.

Providence, R. I.-Nine men captured aboard the British motorboat Malbo of Sakonnet Point early Saturday are released under heavy bail. Preliminary trial on charges of possession and transporting intoxicating liquor was set for November 22. All pleaded not guilty.

Raymond, Me.-Body of Frederick C. Hussey, 54, a retired insurance dealer of Portland, is found in the Jordan river, near Hussey's camp. New York, Conn.-Oscar W. Raddock, 52, veteran vaudeville actor who retired from the stage three years ago, dies.

TO REOPEN MINES

Iron River, Mich., Oct. 31-(AP)-Faced with the alternative of paying taxes on a $500,000 welfare bond issue or reopening iron mines whose products are not now needed, the mine operators have chosen to provide relief through wages.

Approximately 1,050 former employees will go back to work in seven mines in Iron county Tuesday. Other mines will be opened within the month and a minimum of eight days or work a month is promised this winter. The pits have been closed since May.

SENSE AND NONSENSE

They feared her father would be unstrung when he heard of their elopement, so they wired him.

The radio has put oratory on the same basis as reading—listeners are no longer under obligation to be bored, unlike an audience sitting helpless in a hall.

Wife (coming out of ether after operation)—Am I in heaven?
Husband—No, dear, I'm still here with you.

How unfortunate that the only people who believe in "speaking their minds" have such hateful ones to speak.

Grocer—A thief entered my store last night and took everything but a box of soap.
Judge—The dirty crook.

To get on a man's friendly side say, "I've always admired your judgment."

Doctor—You must give up staying out late at night.
Patient—You think the night air is bad for me, doctor?
Doctor—No, it isn't that. It's the excitement after getting home that harms you.

Can you remember away back when engaged girls wore a wide band yellow gold ring on the first finger of their left hand? An engagement ring meant something in those days.

A person with a poor imagination is one who reads through a doctor's book describing all the different diseases and their symptoms and doesn't imagine himself having at least one of them.

The teacher asked a boy to define matrimony. He got it mixed up with purgatory and answered: "It is a place where the souls of the just suffer for their sins before they go to Heaven."

The Farmer's Spirit
Oh, the milks gone lame—the hens won't lay;
Corn's way down—wheat don't pay;
Hogs no better—steers too cheap;
Cows quit milkin'—meat won't keep;
Oats all heated—spuds all froze;
Wheat crop's busted—wind still blows;
Looks some gloomy—I'll admit—
Get up, Dobbin—we ain't down yet!

Geographical Romance: He met her at Friendship, Maine, followed her to Love, Virginia, and asked her to name the day at Ring, Arkansas. They were married at Church, Iowa.

and settled down at Home, Oregon, but the twins were born at Boise, Idaho.

Traveling Salesman—Do they change cars in this town?
Native Brunswick Citizen—Why, fer as I know, they ain't changed a thing in more'n forty years.

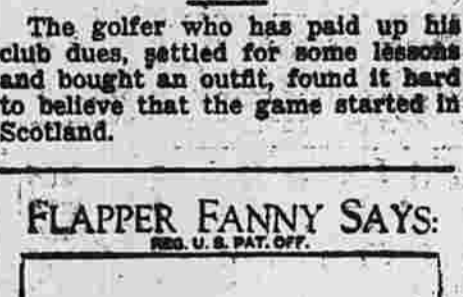

Just when a man thinks he's getting on real fatherly basis with his son the boy looks up and exclaims: "Say, will you give me a dime to go to the movies?"

Sergeant—Got away, has he? Did you guard all the entrances?
Patrolman—Yes, but we think he must have left by one of the exits.

FINISHERS: At eve when the sun goeth down we will not protest if there are no radio stars in our crown. . . . Before a boy vows to go to the end of the earth for you, he should be sure he can "make both ends meet" When a girl starts sowing wild oats every man in the vicinity leaves town before the harvest. . . . The reason why a good many marriages don't pan out is because of too much dish-pan. . . .

The golfer who has paid up his club dues, settled for some lessons and bought an outfit, found it hard to believe that the game started in Scotland.
