

DRYS GIVE SIDE OF PROHIBITION

Dozen Women Testify Before House Body — Say Beer Will Decrease the Source of Taxable Wealth.

Washington, Dec. 12.—(AP)—A dozen women brought to the big hearing room of the House ways and means committee today assertions that beer would decrease the source of taxable wealth by reducing productivity of citizens.

Led by Mrs. Henry W. Peabody, women opponents of modification of the Volstead Act, testified that beer was intoxicating, that even a small amount of alcohol tended to slow down the human machine and that the government had lost by elimination of the liquor traffic had been paid to it in other forms of levies.

There were frequently applause by the group for each other's assertions until Rep. Rainey, (D., Ill.), reminded that applause was forbidden.

Mrs. D. Leigh Colvin, president of the Women's C. T. U. New York, contended the election was no wet mandate, saying the dries had no chance to vote for either side of the party and at the same time vote dry.

Children's toys and bread, and milk, she displayed a bottle of milk, children will have to give up these for Christmas.

THE OTHER SIDE — Leading a dozen women in a defense of the prohibition laws, Mrs. Henry W. Peabody of New York told the House ways and means committee today that "a few Russian Communists" presented less cause for fear than "great interests and politicians who are determined to break down a law from greed, appetite or political advancement."

Mrs. Peabody, chairman of the Women's National Committee for Law Enforcement, was the first of the women to speak their opposition to modification of the Volstead law in an effort to refute testimony brought last week by advocates of light wines and beer.

She held a longnet in her right hand, Mrs. Peabody read from a prepared statement. She said her organization represented nine groups with a membership of ten million persons.

"We are here to present our opposition to any increase in the alcoholic content from one half of one per cent as authorized by the Volstead Act," she said. "This content was fixed by the brewers themselves forty years ago in a defense against the profit drink trade. Let this decision stand."

No Questions — After she completed her statement not one member of the committee asked a question.

The large committee room was well filled.

WATER, SEWER PURCHASE ACT TO BE SOUGHT

Petition General Assembly For Authority For Town To Buy Cheney Properties; Firm Also Seeking Rights.

A petition to the General Assembly will be filed at the January session, for an act empowering the town of Manchester to purchase and operate the water and sewer properties of the South Manchester Water Company and the South Manchester Sanitary and Sewer District and to finance the plan.

The petition also calls for the passage of an act amending the charter of the town of Manchester, making possible the purchase of the utility properties. Action on the Manchester petition is scheduled for a vote in the Assembly on Thursday, Jan. 5.

Acting as appraisers between the Town of Manchester and Cheney Brothers, Charles J. Bennett of Hartford, expert appraiser, has been engaged in making a revaluation appraisal on the several properties, based on present values and on replacement value.

The matter of the purchase of the utility companies was first brought to the attention of the Board of Selectmen six months ago. The price set on the two properties at that time was $1,300,000.

DEMOCRATS FIGHT OVER LEADERSHIP

State Senators Bring Up Old Guard—New Guard Battle Once More.

Hartford, Dec. 12.—(AP)—A contest between Senators David Goldstein of Bridgeport and John C. Blackall of this city for election as president pro tempore was imminent as the 18 Democratic State Senators prepared to organize the Upper House of the Legislature at a caucus in Hotel Bond tonight.

It will be the first time since 1913 when they controlled the Senate by a majority of seven that the Democrats will have organized that body—that is unless their present majority of one is lost by recount in the 21st District where the election of William C. Conley by 25 votes is being contested through court action.

Only one candidate is assured of unanimous support. Both factions are agreed that Senator Frank S. Bordin of New Haven, minority leader the past two sessions, is entitled to the office of majority leader at the forthcoming session and there will be no opposition to him.

However, factional lines are being drawn to some extent against Senator Goldstein's candidacy. The Old Guard led by Senator Joseph P. Cooney of Hartford, is prepared to oppose Goldstein. Their chief is being kept secret. However, friends of Blackall appeared optimistic today and, it was said, they have assurances that the Cooney forces may decide to back Blackall in order to stop Goldstein.

Thirteen Candidates — Though thirteen candidates are in the field for the Senate clerkship the outcome of that contest is dependent upon the result of the Goldstein-Blackall fight. If Goldstein wins out, it is said, former Senator Vincent W. Dennis of this city may be assured of the clerkship. But if Blackall is the victor the job will go to some other section of the state perhaps Fairfield county. Joseph M. Halloran of New Britain, former mayor of that city and a two term former Senator, is in the lead for the assistant clerkship. The latter post is an appointment by the clerk.

TREASURY BALANCE — Washington, Dec. 12.—(AP)—Treasury receipts for Dec. 9, were: $6,195,300.06; expenditures $12,734,824.10; balance $80,087,961.68. Customs duties for nine days of December were $7,255,041.56.

New Transport Plane Designed by Lindbergh

Col. Charles A. Lindbergh designed this new air transport marvel which the Pan-American Airways will install in its regular Central and South American air service. It will carry 50 passengers, mail and freight, and is capable of scheduled transport operation over the longest water haul between the two hemispheres. There are many revolutionary improvements in structure embodied in the new plane.

FEWEST BANK FAILURES WERE IN NEW ENGLAND

Of 10,104 Failures In Nation Only 72 Were In This Section—Only Two Failures In Vermont.

Washington, Dec. 12.—(AP)—The annual report of the comptroller of currency shows that New England had the fewest bank suspensions of any section of the country during the 11 1-2 years ended June 30, 1932.

Of the 10,104 bank suspensions in the United States, only 72 were in New England.

The closest approach to that section's low was the district comprising New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware and Maryland, where the total was 409.

Vermont held the distinction of having the fewest suspensions in the 11 1-2 year period—only two were reported—from that state. Rhode Island had 3, New Hampshire 4, Maine 5, Connecticut 25 and Massachusetts 33.

The report showed that the 894 New England banks, of all classes, serving a population of 2,258,000, had in June 1932 total resources of $7,063,206,000, capital stock paid in of $226,793,000, and surplus of $398,671,000. Savings bank deposits in New England banks in June totaled $4,454,730,000.

Report By States — The report for each of the New England states showed that in June: Massachusetts' 416 banks had total resources of $4,199,894,000 and surplus of $211,610,000, with savings bank deposits of $2,543,525,000.

Maine's 115 banks had total resources of $436,373,000, surplus of $19,885,000, and savings deposits of $300,532,000.

Vermont's 100 banks had total resources of $246,527,000, surplus of $12,744,000, and savings bank deposits of $181,350,000.

New Hampshire's 117 banks had total resources of $311,668,000, surplus of $21,442,000, and savings bank deposits of $220,232,000.

Rhode island's 34 banks had total resources of $545,420,000, surplus of $42,183,000, and savings bank deposits of $354,811,000.

Connecticut's 212 banks have total resources of $1,321,324,000, surplus of $91,407,000, and savings bank deposits of $854,280,000.

PRESIDENT IS BLAMED FOR WAR DEBT ISSUE

Soviet Union Resumes Relations With China

Paris, Dec. 12.—(AP)—Premier Herriot, blaming all Europe's debts troubles on the Hoover moratorium of 1931, told the Chamber of Deputies today that his government proposes to pay with reservations the $20,000,000 debt installment due the United States next Thursday.

France To Pay On Thursday But With Reservation; England Also Attaches Reservation But U. S. Refuses To Accept Them.

Washington, Dec. 12.—(AP)—European nations cannot attach strings to war debt payments due in three days.

The United States government made that clear to Britain at the same time as it advised against setting up reservations which would only increase the "difficulties that must be overcome" in attempting any new study of the debt tangle.

Senators Willing To Dispose of the Issue As Quickly As It Can Be Done.

Washington, Dec. 12.—(AP)—Senate leaders expressed agreement today with views of leading Republicans and Democrats that the World Court issue should be settled promptly, but they made no definite commitments of action at this session.

Opponents as well as supporters of American adherence to the court said they were willing to dispose of the issue as proposed in letters which have been sent by prominent Republicans and Democrats to the Senators of their own parties.

Democracy pointed out that the treaty is on their program of proposed legislation for this session.

Chairman Borah of the Senate foreign relations committee, who is opposed to the Root protocol for American adherence, said "I'm ready to take it up any time."

Senator Reed, Pennsylvania Republican and friend of the treaty, expressed agreement with the letters. "I hope it can be done," he said, "but a good deal depends on the outcome of the matter of international debts."

Other comment follows: Senator Swannow, (D., Va.): "I favor its consideration and disposal as soon as possible."

SNOW, RAIN, SLEET SWEEPING NATION

Far West Has Sub-Zero Weather—Heavy Snow In Pennsylvania.

By ASSOCIATED PRESS — Winter struck at the nation prematurely again today, with sub-zero temperatures, snow, rain and sleet, and left a trail of death.

Slippery streets and roads accounted for most of the deaths in traffic accidents.

Pennsylvania alone reported eleven persons killed when rain, following the heaviest snowfall of the season, made traveling a hazardous task.

The east had snow and rain yesterday with prospects for more of this kind of weather today. Rain and fog held sway over the south.

Residents of the far west, Rocky Mountain states, and portions of the mid-west shivered in temperatures well below zero during the night. In San Francisco it was the coldest in 62 years with a temperature reading of 27 above zero. The cold wave (Continued on Page Six)

MARSHAL PROBING THREE ALARM FIRE

Waterbury Building and 28 Autos Destroyed; Damage of $80,000.

Waterbury, Dec. 12.—(AP)—Fire Marshal Dan Lahey this morning was holding hearings in his office in which he probed into the three alarm fire which last night destroyed AP's tire shop, a two-story brick garage on West Main street in the center of the city, and practically all that was in the building, including 28 automobiles.

Officials of the company owning the garage, including Al Demanaska, were subjected to routine questioning and the company's books were called into the hearing. It was explained this was for the purpose of ascertaining accurately the loss, which is estimated at $80,000.

The fire marshal said that he had so far not learned the cause of the fire. It is believed to have started in the basement and one theory is that a defective oil burner in a heating boiler was responsible. The cells were still filled with water this morning, delaying the investigation as to cause.

NOT TO SURRENDER IN LIQUOR FIGHT

Bishop Cannon Says Challenge of Wets Must Be Met By Dry Forces.

Washington, Dec. 12.—(AP)—Bishop James Cannon, Jr., said in an address at the Anti-Saloon League "resist repeal" convention last night, that "the challenge of the opponents of prohibition must be met by the proclamation that in this warfare with the body and soul-degrading liquor traffic there will be surrender, no retreat, no compromise."

He asserted that "if the present political parties do actually permanently come under the control of those favoring 'general liberalization' of the moral legislation of states and nations, then 'more force of the country' must join together to plan for the organization of a new party."

Duty of the Hour — Pointing out that conferences and associations of church bodies recently have gone on record officially as "standing for the retention of our prohibition laws," Bishop Cannon said: "The duty of the hour is to organize once again the dry sentiment of this country—the opponents of this country—the opponents of 'Saloonism'."

POSTOFFICES HERE TO BE COMBINED

South End Postmaster To Be In Charge With Other To Be Mail Superintendent.

Washington, Dec. 12.—(AP)—Consolidation of the Manchester and South Manchester, Conn., post-offices will become effective on completion of new quarters, Representative Loneragan (D. Conn.) today was informed.

The office will be known as Manchester, with the present South Manchester postmaster in charge. The present Manchester postmaster will become superintendent of mail faces, the Postoffice Department wrote Loneragan, "was reached after a very careful investigation by post-office inspectors and will be in the interest of patrons of the service."

Representative Freeman has recommended reappointment of the following postmasters in the Second Connecticut District: Gordon Smith, at Saybrook; Merton Hanson at Mansfield Depot; James Service, Jr., at South Willington; George E. Dickinson, at Rockville, and Miss Mary A. Tracy, at Central Village.

ROOSEVELT STUDIES STATE'S PROBLEMS

Plans Drastic Reorganization of New York City's Government.

Albany Dec. 12.—(AP)—Franklin D. Roosevelt's attention today is on New York state's snowbound Capitol Hill where a Republican Legislature is considering his proposals in behalf of "drastic" reorganization in the New York City government and measures to further stabilize the credit of New York City and her smaller neighbor communities upstate.

Intent upon the fate of the program he cut out for the extraordinary session in his message last Friday, the President-elect decided (Continued on Page Two)

Plan to Salvage Treasure From the Sunken Lusitania

New York, Dec. 12.—(AP)—The American Association of Marine Loss Adjusters, who directed the opening of treasure chests on the sunken liner Eupyt last year, has been engaged to find the Lusitania venture.

The start of work will depend in part on how early in the spring favorable weather comes to the Irish coast.

SEVEN ARE DEAD IN WAKE OF STORM

Many Others Hurt In Traffic Crashes Common Throughout New England.

Boston, Dec. 12.—(AP)—Seven persons were dead in New England today and many others injured in highway accidents arising from a storm which began Saturday night and continued to sweep New England.

The storm, the first to bring a general fall of snow laid down a deposit ranging from snow to sleet, rain and freezing ice.

Rain was falling today over wide areas, while the temperature remained below the freezing point, and as a result roads, streets, automobiles and street car windshields were glazed with ice.

Cars Off Road Roosevelt, riding alone, saw three cars off the road but led by a car bearing state troopers and secret service men. His car and others carrying newspapermen crossed the ice safely. It took the governor's chauffeur ordinarily a fast driver, two hours and ten minutes to go seventy miles from the Roosevelt home at Hyde Park to Albany.

During the week-end at Hyde Park, however, he heard an expert on the railroad situation by three rail executives from Warm Springs, Ga., last week, the President-elect has devoted nearly all of his time to state matters.

NOTED MURAL ARTIST'S LECTURE THIS EVENING Thomas Benton, noted mural painter who will lecture this evening at eight o'clock at the Morgan Memorial, Hartford, was the subject of an article in yesterday's Herald-Tribune art page, and a cut in one of the murals, "The Arts of Life in America," used in connection with it. The picture is from a portion of the mural decoration in the Whitney Museum reading room, recently painted by Mr. Benton. For the past week a number of his murals have been hung in a room of the Morgan Memorial and many have viewed them. The colors are strong and the figures, which represent the various American types and industries stand out by the brush of the artist in an animated way.

In adjoining rooms at the Memorial the Salamagundi club which is composed of such well known artists as Albertus Jones, Paul Saling, Carl Ringius, William Brau'ford Green and others, opened an exhibition yesterday which attracted many people, and offers a wide range of subjects for gift suggestions. This display will continue through the greater part of the month.

Centenary of Louisa Alcott Recently Observed—Educational Club As Sponsor. "Little Women," the dramatization from the famous book by the same name by Louisa Alcott, whose centenary was recently observed throughout the land, will be the timely production by the Community Players in January. It was announced today by Manager Joseph Handley, Laurie, Mrs. March, Meg, Jo, Beth and Amy will appear on the stage, garbed in costumes that prevailed during the days of the Civil War. The play will not only serve to make us more fully aware of the immortal story, to little men and women of the town, but will be given under the auspices of the Educational club which is committed to a program of child welfare service in the community. It is probable that the play, which is in four acts, will be presented at a new Whitton Memorial auditorium, with special showings for the higher grammar grades. These details, together with the date and cast of characters is yet to be worked out.

ROOSEVELT STUDIES STATE'S PROBLEMS (Continued from Page One) to leave his executive mansion study this morning and go to the Capitol where the lawmakers are gathering for week-end for the meeting at 8:30 p. m. COMMUNITY PLAYERS IN "LITTLE WOMEN"

Centenary of Louisa Alcott Recently Observed—Educational Club As Sponsor.

"Little Women," the dramatization from the famous book by the same name by Louisa Alcott, whose centenary was recently observed throughout the land, will be the timely production by the Community Players in January. It was announced today by Manager Joseph Handley, Laurie, Mrs. March, Meg, Jo, Beth and Amy will appear on the stage, garbed in costumes that prevailed during the days of the Civil War. The play will not only serve to make us more fully aware of the immortal story, to little men and women of the town, but will be given under the auspices of the Educational club which is committed to a program of child welfare service in the community. It is probable that the play, which is in four acts, will be presented at a new Whitton Memorial auditorium, with special showings for the higher grammar grades. These details, together with the date and cast of characters is yet to be worked out.

ROOSEVELT STUDIES STATE'S PROBLEMS (Continued from Page One) to leave his executive mansion study this morning and go to the Capitol where the lawmakers are gathering for week-end for the meeting at 8:30 p. m. Most of his working hours in Albany recently have been at the mansion. Last night Mr. Roosevelt braved a snowstorm and treacherous roads to drive to Albany from Hyde Park for a conference with Lieut. Governor Lehman on the legislative situation.

Cars Off Road Roosevelt, riding alone, saw three cars off the road but led by a car bearing state troopers and secret service men. His car and others carrying newspapermen crossed the ice safely. It took the governor's chauffeur ordinarily a fast driver, two hours and ten minutes to go seventy miles from the Roosevelt home at Hyde Park to Albany.

During the week-end at Hyde Park, however, he heard an expert on the railroad situation by three rail executives from Warm Springs, Ga., last week, the President-elect has devoted nearly all of his time to state matters.

NOTED MURAL ARTIST'S LECTURE THIS EVENING Thomas Benton, noted mural painter who will lecture this evening at eight o'clock at the Morgan Memorial, Hartford, was the subject of an article in yesterday's Herald-Tribune art page, and a cut in one of the murals, "The Arts of Life in America," used in connection with it. The picture is from a portion of the mural decoration in the Whitney Museum reading room, recently painted by Mr. Benton. For the past week a number of his murals have been hung in a room of the Morgan Memorial and many have viewed them. The colors are strong and the figures, which represent the various American types and industries stand out by the brush of the artist in an animated way.

In adjoining rooms at the Memorial the Salamagundi club which is composed of such well known artists as Albertus Jones, Paul Saling, Carl Ringius, William Brau'ford Green and others, opened an exhibition yesterday which attracted many people, and offers a wide range of subjects for gift suggestions. This display will continue through the greater part of the month.

SEVEN ARE DEAD IN WAKE OF STORM predicted by the weather bureau for tonight and tomorrow. List of Dead Included Thomas Kenvin, killed by an automobile in North Adams; C. M. Are You A COLDS-SUSCEPTIBLE?

Colds-Susceptibles, According to Recent Medical Research, Are Those Having Four or More Colds a Year.

BEWARE OF COLDS NOW In clinical tests among thousands last winter, Vicks Colds-Control Plan reduced the number and duration of colds by half! How you can follow Vicks Plan in your home is fully explained in each Vicks package. SOME "COLD" FACTS It is estimated that one out of every four persons is a Colds-Susceptible. Approximately 30 million Americans belong to this group. Indoor workers, as a group, rate high as Colds-Susceptibles. For instance, office workers have nine times as many colds as taxi drivers and four times as many as soldiers. Children as a class are particularly susceptible to colds. Thousands are absent from school for three days to three weeks each year because of colds. Probably the greatest damage done by colds is that they so often lead to more serious complications. Colds-Susceptibles—their body resistance lowered by frequent colds—are an easier prey for flu, bronchitis, pneumonia, and other disabling diseases. TRIAL OFFER: Your druggist has Vicks VapoRub (now available in Stainless form, if you prefer.) Also the new Vicks Nose Drops, and a Cough Drop actually medicated with ingredients of Vicks VapoRub. If you wish to test these new products before buying, and learn more about Vicks Plan for better Control of Colds, send 5c in stamps to Vicks Chemical Company, Pomona Street, Greensboro, North Carolina. DRIVER BOUND OVER Greenwich, Dec. 12. (AP)—Baldassare de Marco, 21, whose light truck killed John William Fox, 8, Thanksgiving Day was held for Superior Court today on charges of reckless driving, improper registration, and defective brakes. De Marco had been held preliminarily responsible by Coroner Phelan. Testimony in court today was that De Marco was speeding through an avenue here and was unable to stop his truck because of defective brakes, when Fox, at play with other boys, ran in front of it.

PERSONAL NOTICES CARD OF THANKS Only through the columns of The Herald can we reach our hosts of friends who today express their sympathy and kindly acts, helped us to bear our recent bereavement, the tragic death of our beloved youngest son. We would especially thank our good neighbors for all help and comfort they have shown to us and all who sent beautiful floral pieces or loaned their cars. MRS. ANNIE S. JOHNSON.

Still some people want to know how to make "Depression Flowers", so here goes again: Cover the bottom of a shallow dish with medium sized pieces of coal. Cover the coal about half way up with six table-spoons water, six table-spoons salt, six table-spoons bluing, one table-spoon ammonia. Let stand four hours. Add (if you want a pink flower) a few drops of mercuric iodine. For a blue one, ink. No addition means a white flower.

Bill-folds as low as $1.00 are all leather with finished edges, plenty of compartments, at Dewey-Richman Co. Other bill-folds to $10.00.

Hollandaise A sauce to serve with fish and such vegetables as asparagus, cauliflower and artichokes is Mock Hollandaise Sauce, made as follows: 1-4 cup butter 2 table-spoons flour 1 egg yolk 1-2 teaspoon salt 1-2 cup hot water 5 table-spoons mayonnaise dressing 1-2 table-spoons cider vinegar

Melt butter, add flour and stir until well blended. Add egg yolk, beaten, and hot water. Cook over hot water until thick, stirring constantly. Remove from fire and add mayonnaise and vinegar. Serve immediately.

Clancy Hall Saleswoman says she has something different in scarfs, for both men and women. For Christmas they're priced from $1.25 to $1.75, in plain and printed silks. The all-silk men's scarfs are a bargain at these prices and you'll find both the square and long types. A special novelty for women is hand-printed silk scarfs from $2.00 to $5.00.

Unpreparedness The many of us who were caught unprepared without overcoats over the week-end made hurried visits downtown to be outfitted. Somehow our overcoats always disappear from one winter to another—we never wear them out, but just leave them somewhere.

A Gift Supreme For Her Among other services rendered at Mary Elizabeth's Beauty Nook (Rubinow Building), there is the much-discussed Zotos, or machine-less permanent wave. This newest method is most comfortable as no heaters are used in the process at all. And the price is most reasonable. Besides the Zotos, Mary Elizabeth gives permanent waves from $3 up. Original Don't you love to eat raw carrots? Lots of people do, and recognizing this, a fastidious hostess startled her guests by serving slender, long slices of raw carrot with beverages. She arranged these slices on a slender silver server and it was as pretty as well as an entirely different dish.

Arthur's For Gifts If you're looking for gift suggestions, visit the Arthur Drug Store, Rubinow Building. Here you will see hundreds of items for both men and women that will make your gift buying easy. Prices to fit everybody's pocketbook!

All Ready-Made It is possible now to buy a ready-made bathroom closet to supply the needed space for putting things away. They come about six feet tall, have six shelves for linen, medicine and beauty things, and a door that keeps dust out.

A little treasure of a gift is a small cedar chest (real cedar) containing stationery for $1.00 at Hale's. Any girl would love this.

For Visitors When Christmas visitors start dropping in—and they will about a week before Christmas and continuing until New Year's—you'll want something not too expensive on hand to serve. A big batch of cookies of the unadorned kind that you can buy for very little (or made by yourself, if you're that kind of housewife) will solve the problem, along with a cup of tea. Visitors don't want elaborate refreshments—just a bite. Too much afternoon tea only spoils their supper!

Among many quality gifts at only $1.00, the Dewey-Richman Co. has real Italian tooled leather book covers, beautifully designed and colored, with laced edges.

GOSS RECOMMENDATIONS Washington, Dec. 12.—(AP)—Representative Goss (R., Conn.), today recommended the reappointment of Albert N. Colgrave as postmaster at Waterbury, Conn.; Walter H. De Forest as postmaster at Derby and John F. Egan as postmaster at Lakeville. The nominations are expected to be sent to the Senate within a few days but in view of the announced Democratic opposition to confirming any Republican appointments Representative Goss does not look for favorable action.

GENERAL BUMOR Geneva, Dec. 12.—(AP)—An interview today between Maxim Litvinoff, Russia's foreign commissioner, and Dr. W. W. Obliging Faith The Christian religion is one of the few in the world that provide a holiday once in every seven days. For that reason, if for no other, we're rather pleased that we happen to be a Christian. The thought of Christmas makes us even more favorably disposed although other religions have gift-giving holidays, too.

Lovell & Covel's delicious candies may be found at Magnell's Drug Store. A very enticing special is peppermint patties, 29c per lb. box; also chocolate covered Crispy Chips, 35c the box.

With Bananas A deep-dish Banana Dessert is made with: 1 package lemon gelatin 1 pint warm water 3 bananas 1-2 cup cream, whipped 1-8 teaspoon salt

Dissolve gelatin in warm water. Chill. When cold and syrupy, pour half the gelatin into a deep glass dish. Slice two bananas into this gelatin and fold in carefully. Chill until firm. Place remaining gelatin in bowl of cracked ice or ice water, and beat with egg beater until fluffy, and thick like whipped cream. Mash remaining bananas with silver fork and fold into whipped gelatin. Fold in whipped cream and salt. Pile onto firm gelatin. Chill. Serves six.

What Christmas gift could bring more pleasure to Mother than a check which she could use to have the laundry done each week by the New Model Laundry? Such a gift, so practical and thoughtful, would bring her constant pleasure.

P. S. On Those Plants Once started, your "Depression Plant" ought to keep on growing lustily for several days. Add water once in a while if it seems to dry up. But otherwise, don't keep moving the coal around or fussing with it.

"Something for the house" is a welcome gift to the woman who takes pride in her home. Perhaps she has no room to have a room or two done over. Consult Olson's Paint Shop, Main street, as to cost, and then present "her" with a check for Christmas, to have the work done.

Fig Squares One and one-half cups figs cut in small pieces, 1 cup granulated sugar, 3 eggs, 1 cup flour, 1 teaspoon baking powder, 1-4 teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon lemon juice. Beat yolks of eggs until light. Beat in sugar and lemon juice. Add figs and flour sifted with baking powder and salt. Mix thoroughly and fold in whites of eggs beaten until stiff. Spread the mixture thinly in an oiled and floured dripping pan. Bake twenty-five minutes in a moderate oven. Cut in squares and remove from pan. Roll in powdered sugar.

Girls and boys love books for Christmas, and no gift could be better for them. Hale's has a whole department devoted to books for all ages up to 16. "Calico Classics," four books in a box, 50c; illustrated Mother Goose volumes, 50c; the Bombs and Boy Ranchers series for boys; the Betty Gordon and Ruth Fielding series for girls; standard volumes for grown-ups. Cut-out doll boxes and puzzles for youngsters are also featured.

Hyacinth You've seen some dresses and hats of it already—the new flattering hyacinth blue that has an orchid cast, and combines in dramatic fashion with more brilliant colors. You'll be very smart if you get one of these hyacinth dresses for Christmas wear—or one of the vivid red color which is named for the French designer, Patou.

Christmas boxes of Lovell & Covel's high quality chocolates, in thrilling fancy packages, are featured at Magnell's Drug Store. Don't forget that no woman's Christmas is complete without chocolates.

It's Catching The excitement of Christmas is in the air. Funny how we feel different when the holiday approaches. All of a sudden we have more pep, we get a bigger kick out of things, we love to spend money and wrap up packages to give away. It's easier to grin, it's harder to worry. Too bad this contagion doesn't last longer.

OUT OF JOB, SELLS LIQUOR FOR LIVING

Father and Son Arrested Following Raid — Father Ill, Family In Need.

A father and son were brought into Manchester town court this morning charged with keeping intoxicants with the intent to sell and the son "took the rap" to save his father who is in very poor health. John F. Kochin and his son Walter J. Kochin of 215 Autumn street were arrested as a result of a raid at their home Saturday evening. Both pleaded not guilty but on the stand the son admitted he had been selling intoxicants and said that he had been forced to do it in order to make a living.

As brought out in court the father is ill and under the care of a doctor. There is no employment in the family and the son started making liquor for sale in order to get some money. He admitted doing a pocket bootlegging business and said that he soon built up quite a trade. He said that friends came to his home to get the liquor. Complaints reached the police about the place and Saturday night Captain Herman Schendel and Patrolmen John Cavagnaro and David Galligan visited the Kochin home. They found three quarts of liquor, 83 gallons of mash, a 10 gallon still and other apparatus needed in the manufacture. The illness of the father made it difficult for Judge Raymond A. Johnson to pass sentence. After taking the young man's admission under consideration Judge Johnson sentenced the father to 15 days in jail and suspended the sentence. In the case of the son he exacted a fine of $100 and costs. The son was making an effort to raise the money and if unsuccessful will be sent to jail.

DRIVER RESPONSIBLE

Middletown, Dec. 12.—(AP)—Louis Scymaszek, 22, of Meriden, today was held criminally responsible for the death Nov. 4, of John J. Ferry, hurt by a car driven by the former who had no license and had taken his brother's car without permission, in a finding by Coroner L. A. Smith. The accused is under a bond of $1,000 furnished by his brother Walter, awaiting a court hearing.

Ferry, a church sexton, for more than thirty years, had alighted from a bus and was crossing the street near his home when struck. The body was carried more than fifty feet by the car.

SCHOONER BURNS

Lunenburg, N. S., Dec. 12.—(AP)—Captain Morris Walters, and three men, his crew aboard the little fishing schooner Katherine, rowed into Lahave early today. Fire drove them from the vessel last night as they were fishing on Lahave bank. They rowed eight miles to shore.

SOCIETY WEDDING

London, Dec. 12.—(AP)—Miss Diana Churchill, daughter of Winston Churchill, was married today to John Milner Bailey, son of Sir Abe Bailey, the wealthy South African mining official.

St. Margaret's church, adjacent to Westminster Abbey, was crowded with distinguished guests. Mr. Churchill gave the bride away.

She wore a wedding gown of white satin embroidered at the throat and wrists with seed pearls. A coronet of orange blossoms held her veil in place. She carried a prayerbook instead of a bouquet.

SALE OF CANDY HELPS LOCAL BENEVOLENCES

Watkins Brothers Have Booth Profits of Which Go To Help Some Need Each Week.

In connection with the sale of candy being conducted at Watkins Brothers store for local institutions and charity organizations, Watkins announced today that in addition to the other candies which have been offered for sale for the past week, five cent candies are being added today. Last week the profits from the candy sale were donated to the Manchester Memorial hospital, and this week will be given to the Employment Relief campaign. The candy is for sale at the rear of the store in a specially designed candy booth which carries out the bazaar effect of the Christmas decorations at the store.

GETS TWO YEARS

Torrington, Dec. 12.—(AP)—Harry B. Curtis, 19, of Torrington extradited from Texas last week, arraigned before Judge Arthur F. Ellis, in a special session of the Superior Court at Litchfield, today, pleaded guilty to escaping from the county jail on Sept. 1 and was sentenced from two to five years in state's prison. Curtis was awaiting trial for burglary when he escaped but this charge was not pressed, today. After his escape, he was entering in Texas for breaking and entering and sentenced to three years in the penitentiary.

L. C. COWLES DEAD

New Haven, Dec. 12.—(AP)—Harry B. Curtis, 19, vice-president and general manager of C. Cowles and Co., metal goods makers, died yesterday. He had been with the company which is largely owned by his Beat wife, since a member of Plymouth Congregational church 55 years and active in its affairs. Until recent years he clung sentimentally to his horse and carriage in preference to an automobile, having been a lover of horses throughout his life. Cowles is survived by his widow, a niece and nephew.

NEED BED CLOTHING IN MANY HOMES HERE

Needlework Guild Asks For Contributions of Blankets For Distribution Among Needy.

Many Manchester people are sleeping under winter coats due to a lack of blankets or sufficient bed clothes, the Herald was informed today by Mrs. William C. Cheney, head of the Needlework Guild, who asks for public contributions of such articles to assist the unfortunate.

Used blankets, quilts or comfortable, or money to buy new ones, are desired by the Needlework Guild to help them carry out their charity work. Anyone having a spare blanket or warm bedding of any nature, is asked to communicate with the Needlework Guild, Red Cross or Public Health nurses, so that they may be distributed to the most needy families. Any article of winter clothing will also be gladly received for similar distribution.

FOX HUNTERS MEET

Wilson, Dec. 12.—(AP)—Prominent fox hunters from all sections of the state will meet here on Tuesday night at the home of Commissioner Thomas H. Beck of the State Board of Fisheries and Game, for a discussion of the proposed tax on hound packs.

It is expected that the discussion will result in an approval of a tax of $250 on resident packs and $500 on non-resident packs.

URGES THIRD CLASS MAIL BE DEPOSITED EARLIER

Christmas Cards Can Be Sent For Cent and Half But Should Be Mailed Ahead.

Postmaster Frank B. Crocker, of the South Manchester post office today asked The Herald to remind the people of Manchester that all third class Christmas mail should be mailed earlier than the first and second class mail to make sure it will reach the destination at the proper time.

Christmas cards may be mailed in unsealed envelopes with the flap tucked in at a charge of only a cent-and-a-half but this sort of mail will not be handled as fast as the mail which requires three-cent stamps. Also the patrons are reminded that such cards cannot legally contain more writing than the mere name and address of the sender. No messages are allowed in the third class mail.

WELLESLEY GIRLS SNOWBALL POLICE

Did Not Know Occupants of Passing Auto Were Officers.

Wellesley, Mass., Dec. 12.—(AP)—Seven Wellesley college girls who whiled a dull Sunday afternoon by snowballing passing autos are in a tough spot. They had been at it all afternoon and were just about to call it quits when the trouble started. The girls lined up for their one last shot. Seven hard packed snowballs smacked into a passing machine and seven girls laughed uproariously. Then things began to happen. The machine stopped and for the first time the girls saw printed in huge letters on the side "Police."

New York, Dec. 12.—(AP)—Clarence Chamberlain's scheduled flight at 10:30 a. m. today from New York to Hartford, Conn., in connection with the opening of the New York and New England Airways, Inc., has been postponed on account of the weather until 10:30 a. m. tomorrow.

It may be small consolation to the jobless man, but he should be told that efficiency experts are in the same boat with him.

ROCKVILLE

NO SERIOUS ACCIDENTS CAUSED BY STORM

Car Turns Over On Crystal Lake Road But No One Is Injured—Many Cars Stalled.

No serious accidents were reported in this city during the first snowstorm of the season on Saturday, but one was narrowly averted on the Crystal Lake road Sunday when a New Jersey car turned over to allow another car to pass. The former machine turned over on an incline. The driver was uninjured, but the car was damaged and brought to the Barstow garage for repairs.

Many cars were stalled in the city streets during the storm Saturday night. The streets became so slippery that cars with worn tires were almost unable to continue on their way. The city trucks, under the direction of Superintendent of Streets, George B. Milne, were busy spreading sand at the various corners and dangerous intersections.

Fined in Police Court Christopher J. Robinson, colored, of Boston, Mass., was before Justice John E. Fink in the Rockville Police Court on Saturday morning charged with driving an automobile while under the influence of liquor. He was fined $100 and costs of $16.68. He pleaded guilty to the charges against him.

Robinson was arrested by Police Captain Richard Shea, after the car which he was driving collided with a wagon driven by William Shely of South street. He claimed he was on his way to Philadelphia to attend a funeral. Robinson was represented by Attorney Howard Drew of Hartford.

Part of Lights Eliminated In order to meet the $2,000 cut in the appropriation for city lights the start of eliminating some of them was made in the center of the city Saturday night. Half of the White Way lights have been turned off around Central Park. The number of the White Way lights on Market street have been reduced from seven to three. These lights have cost the city $4,000 annually, as the White Way system was in effect each night until 1 a. m. when half of them were turned off.

It makes considerable difference with part of the lights off and was very noticeable to those in the center of the city. The lighting committee will make changes in eliminating some of the lights in the residential sections of the city, but will be careful in the matter so as not to create hazards.

90 Years Old Today

Lyman C. King, a former Rockville resident, now making his home in Waterbury, is 90 years old today, and was remembered with post card and gifts by his friends here. Mr. King conducted an insurance business here for many years in the Doane building. He left Rockville about four years ago.

Cornelia Meeting The regular meeting of the Cornelia Circle will be held at the home of Mrs. Charles Mead, 123 Union street, on Tuesday afternoon, December 13. The literary program will be in charge of Mrs. A. R. Newell.

Nursing Class Meeting This evening there will be a meeting of those interested in the Home Nursing Class to be conducted by the local Chapter Red Cross. It is expected the class will be a large one this year, and will be under the direction of Miss Miranda Bradley, supervisor of public health nursing in this city. The meeting will open at 7:30, and the time and place of which the classes will be conducted will be planned at this time.

Chimney Fire The Hockanum truck of the Rockville Fire Department responded to a still alarm Sunday morning, which proved to be a chimney fire at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Winters of Grove street.

"Tiger Earl" Coming The dramatic committee of the Young People's Society of the Baptist church of New Britain, will present a three-act play entitled "The Tiger Earl" at the Rockville Methodist church on Wednesday evening. The Epworth League is sponsoring the play as one of its projects for this year. It is the plan of the League to bring to the people here and vicinity the best talent that can be found. These players have appeared before many Connecticut audiences, and it is expected there will be a capacity house to greet them when they appear here on Wednesday.

Planning Christmas Program At a recent meeting of the teachers and officers of the Ellington Congregational church, a committee was appointed to arrange for a Christmas program. The exercises for the Junior Department will be held on December 24 in the social rooms of the church. The committee in charge follows: Edwin Davis, Ruth Charter, Agnes Miller and Winifred Arens.

Attended Religious Rally

A large number of the young people from the Union Congregational Methodist and Baptist churches in this city attended the first of a series of religious rallies for youth of the Protestant churches in Tolland County at the Andover Congregational church on Sunday evening. Rev. William F. Tyler, pastor of the Vernon Center Congregational Church, conducted the devotional exercises. The address was given by Rev. Charles C. Noble, pastor of the First M. E. church, Hartford. These services will be held on the second Sunday of each month. Funeral of Mrs. Hutchinson The funeral of Mrs. Ida M. Hutchinson, widow of Frank Hutchinson, was held from Union Congregational church on Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. George S. Brookes, pastor, officiated. Mrs. F. H. Holt presided at the organ. Burial was in Grove Hill cemetery. The bearers were: John McClellan, Max C. Wetstein, Herbert Holmes, William Thrall, Everett North and Clinton Tryon.

Notes The flowers on the communion table at Union church on Sunday morning were placed there by the Bell family in loving memory of Mrs. Lena Bell who died December 10, 1928.

The women of Union church are to sew garments for the Rockville Welfare Association from cloth turned over by the Red Cross. Sewing machines are needed and members of the church having machines, and are willing to loan them, are asked to telephone one of the following: Mrs. Richard Blankenburg, Mrs. Herbert Cockayne or Mrs. Gertrude Fuller.

Frank Orcutt of New London was at his home in this city for the week-end. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Elliott of Prospect street, were recent guests of friends in Westfield, Mass. Miss Margaret Burke of West Street is able to be about again after her recent illness.

NAVAL MANEUVERS

San Pedro, Calif., Dec. 12.—(AP)—Moving out to sea today under overcast skies, ships of the U. S. fleet within the next three days may reach the goal for which they have been striving for the last decade—the successful operation of the fleet air force with the surface squadrons.

The three-day exercises will be the last tactical maneuver of the year of the ships, numbering nearly 100 combatants. It will be climaxed Wednesday by simulation of a general action between two great fleets. The fleet will return Jan. 3 for final gunnery practice at sea before the war games which begin Jan. 23 in Hawaiian waters.

STORM WARNING

Washington, Jan. 12.—(AP)—The Weather Bureau issued the following storm warning: "Advisory 10:30 a. m., northeast storm warnings ordered Portland to Eastport, Maine. Disturbance over southern New England coast will move north-northeastward with increasing intensity and cause strong east winds probably reaching gale force later tonight."

AMY JOHNSON DELAYED

Benguella, Angola, Africa, Dec. 12.—(AP)—Delayed about five hours by fog, which forced her to turn back, Amy Johnson Mollison, who is seeking a Cape Town-London flight record, took off at 4:30 a. m. (11:30 p. m., E. S. T., Sunday) for Duala, Cameroons. The aviatix left Mossamedes, southwest Africa, at 10 p. m., last night, expecting to make her next stop at Duala. She passed over this town but was unable to get through beyond Lobito and turned back here.

She was well ahead of her schedule when she left Mossamedes, her first stop after the takeoff at Cape Town early Sunday. She hoped to beat her own record time of four days, 17 hours and 19 minutes for the flight between England and Cape Town.

Mrs. Mollison set this record November 18 when she arrived in Cape Town, beating the mark established by her husband, Capt. J. A. Mollison, by more than ten hours.

FREIGHTER RELOADED

Kingston, Ont., Dec. 12.—(AP)—The freighter Novadoc which had been aground for nearly a week on the Frontenac shoals near Alexandria Bay today was being towed to drydock at Kingston. The vessel, which was refloated yesterday will require extensive repairs. Fifteen hundred tons of the Novadoc's 2,000 ton cargo was removed before she was released.

CIVIL SERVICE EXAMS

The United States Civil Service Commission will accept applications for a position as female elevator conductor in Washington, D. C., until Dec. 22. The salary is $1,80 per year but all applicants must have had at least three months' experience during the past three years. Harold Agard at the South Manchester Post Office can give any further information.

FIRE IN NORWALK

Norwalk, Dec. 12.—(AP)—While a three-cornered probe was being pursued in connection with the $35,000 Goldstein Fur plant fire, here early Sunday morning which took a watchman's life, six persons were driven into the street at 4 a. m. today when an overheated chimney set fire to the house of Anthony Salvato in Harbor avenue.

Damage at the Salvato home was confined to a small portion of the roof and the firemen quickly extinguished the blaze. Smoke filled the house, however, and the parents, two children and two other relatives were forced to take refuge with neighbors.

Officials of the fire and police departments and Bernard R. Scully, representing the National Board of Fire Underwriters are investigating the fur factory blaze, but so far have been unable to determine its cause. Dr. William H. McMahon, medical examiner, said that the body of Stephen Rous, 55, the watchman who perished in the flames, was too badly burned to allow an autopsy.

MILITARY APPOINTMENTS Washington, Dec. 12.—(AP)—Graver C. Baldwin of Carlville, Conn., has accepted appointment as a second lieutenant in the U. S. Army Reserve Corps and Harold W. Fairchild of West Hartford, has been designated a first lieutenant in the Reserve Corps.

TRAVEL DIFFICULT AS ICE TOPS SNOW

Only One Accident of Consequence However Despite Bad Conditions.

Traffic conditions over the weekend were hazardous, due to the snowstorm and sleet which blanketed the town starting last Saturday night, and continuing Sunday and today.

Late Saturday night traffic conditions at the center were so bad, that the highway department sanded the more dangerous sections, especially around the silent policeman at the center, where cars were having trouble.

Only one accident was reported over the weekend. Frederick Dobson and Charles Welch, both 18, of the Naval Training Station, Newport, R. I., were slightly injured Sunday morning when the car in which they were driving east on the Bolton road, west of Bolton Notch, was struck by a car driven by Dr. Amos E. Friend of 79 Comstock road, who was driving west.

TALCOTTVILLE

A very pleasing entertainment was sponsored by the Golden Rule club on Friday evening in Talcott hall.

The program opened at 8 o'clock with community singing followed by a dainty sketch entitled "Coon Crick Courtship" featuring Miss Arline Monaghan and Alfred Rivenburg.

The program was followed by a series of musical numbers were given by Miss Dorothy Wood, pianist and soloist, Fred Webb, violinist and Clinton Webb, banjoist.

The auction which followed was in charge of Raymond E. Reid of Manchester. Reid kept his audience well amused throughout the bidding with good natured banter and witticisms.

Only one accident was reported over the weekend. Frederick Dobson and Charles Welch, both 18, of the Naval Training Station, Newport, R. I., were slightly injured Sunday morning when the car in which they were driving east on the Bolton road, west of Bolton Notch, was struck by a car driven by Dr. Amos E. DRYS GIVE THEIR SIDE OF PROHIBITION ISSUE in our country's life and loyalty to the Constitution is one of the supreme demands of the hour," Mrs. Darby said.

"Clean government and obedience of law are the world's two greatest needs."

"The 18th Amendment is essential to the control of interstate liquor traffic which always defies every state law. This committee has held its conventions at Washington, Chicago and Indianapolis, all of which we have attended representing the National Council of Federated Church Women."

"Since both parties stand virtually for the repeal of the 18th Amendment, we must stand as significant to us as Church women."

"Women form one half of the electorate. Eleven million voted in 1928 for President Hoover on a dry platform."

"Women want clean government. Women want no repeal of the 18th Amendment except through the usual method prescribed in the Constitution. When Congress has recommended the same by a two-thirds majority vote and three-quarters of the Legislatures have ratified this action, we will know the people want it."

"Church women want to stand by their denominational Church bodies, all but two of which have registered their support of the 18th Amendment or continued confidence in prohibition."

"Women want moral welfare. Physical conditions improved. Law makers to be law observers."

Mrs. Darby was asked by Representative Treadway (R., Mass.): "Are members of Congress not expected to support the platforms of their political parties?"

"I did not know that any member of Congress could place his platform above the wishes of his constituents," Mrs. Darby replied.

"But we must assume that the delegates to the conventions represent the wishes of the people," Treadway said.

"Several of the prohibition group laughed. Mrs. Peabody then asked that all her colleagues give their direct statements before being questioned. Her request was granted."

Miss Margaret Hamilton, secretary of the Women's Law Enforcement committee, smartly dressed in a brown ensemble, then read her statement.

"Professors Benedict, Miles and Dodge of the Carnegie Nutrition Laboratory, have shown that small quantities of alcohol slow down the human machine, that is, reduce its productivity," she said.

"The bill now before this committee advocates that 2.75 percent beer, or as Mr. Levi Cook advised last Thursday, 3.2 percent beer, be sold as a non-alcoholic beverage under the National Prohibition Act, and sold without further restriction as a soft drink, with a tax for Federal revenue."

"The wealth of a democracy is the wealth, real and potential, of its citizens. Any industry which reduces the productivity of these citizens decreases the source of taxable wealth in the state. In other words, it kills the goose that lays the golden egg."

"Samuel Crowther, well-known economist, states that prohibition has cost at least fifteen billion dollars has been diverted from booze to the consumption of goods."

END JOBLESS FUND CAMPAIGN TONIGHT

See $50,000 Guaranteed By Weekly Contributions; Want All Present.

The finals in the Manchester Emergency Employment Association's drive for funds are to be held this evening with the last report meeting of workers in the High School hall.

The financial committee desires that all workers in the campaign attend the meeting this evening, regardless of whether they have made their reports to their captains or not. The meeting will last but one hour.

Expect $50,000 fund. Reports from industrial concerns, received over the week-end, indicate that a sum approximating $50,000 will be received from the campaign to carry on the association's work projects during the winter months.

The C. R. Burr Nurseries reported a 100 per cent contribution from employees of that company as did the Manchester Evening Herald. Cheney's $5,000.

At the last meeting of the workers, a total of $23,284 was reported. At tonight's meeting the blanket contribution from Cheney Brothers will be given. It is expected that the contribution from the silk mills will approximate $15,000, $5,000 of which will be given by the firm, per their agreement to contribute dollar for dollar of their employees up to a maximum of $5,000.

The meeting this evening will begin at 7 o'clock sharp.

CUTTING DOWN AMOUNTS SENT ABROAD AS GIFTS

Fewer Donations Going From North End While Lesser Amounts Go From South Office.

The amount of money being sent to people in foreign countries for Christmas by Manchester people is smaller than it was a year ago, it was revealed by a check at two post offices here today.

The north end drop was the bigger and it was reported the comparatively little money is being sent to foreign countries. At the south office, however, the number of people sending money is almost as great as last year although the amounts being sent are, in most cases, considerably smaller.

Most of the money orders have been sent to Great Britain and to Scotland. In connection with money going to Great Britain, it was stated that the value of the British pound increases tomorrow from $3.20 to $3.30.

EDW. HESS INVENTS A NEW OIL BURNER

To Manufacture Them In New Location To Move By First of January.

Edward Hess, well known Manchester business man, has invented a new oil burner which will operate with hot air, steam or water heating systems. A patent will be applied for by Mr. Hess. The Hess store on Main street at the south end is to be moved to a new location on the Richmond heading next to the Montgomery Ward store on the opposite side of the street.

The oil burner will be a Manchester production as far as possible. The machine work will be done at the Schiele Machine shop and the electrical work at the Manchester Electric and Plating Company. About a dozen of the burners have been assembled following rigid tests by friends of Mr. Hess out of town. The assembling will take place at Hess' new location where the burners will be on display. Two have already been sold to people in Arizona.

In his new location Mr. Hess will handle all of his present line of stock. The space will be larger and will be as ideal to shipping. He expects to finish moving by the first of January.

repeal, the enemies of the saloon, of the early sensual liquor traffic. We must have county and state conventions, within the next few months, which will register in thunder tones its opposition to repeal or modification of our prohibition laws.

"And this coming winter the dry forces must serve notice on the men now in Congress that they will nominate and vote for men who will stand for our prohibition law unchanged, and that the men now in Washington will be responsible for their action. And what applies to Congressmen applies with equal force to our state officials."

Bishop Cannon attributed the extent of the present opposition to prohibition to "false propaganda of the wet press."

Week-end MURDER

GABRIELLE E. FORBUSH

BEGIN HERE TODAY

AMOS PEABODY, elderly cousin of LINDA AVERILL, falls to his death from the second story balcony of the Averill's Long Island home. Linda reaches him just before he dies, in time to hear him gasp a few words which convince her he was murdered. Linda rushes upstairs. Someone tries to strangle her and she falls in a faint.

There are four guests in the house—all suspects of the crime. They are: MR. STATLANDER, business associate of TOM AVERILL; CAPTAIN DE VOS, handsome Belgian; MARVIN FRATT, former suitor of Linda; and LIAN SHAUGHNESSY, Irish writer. When Linda tells her husband what happened she persuades him they must keep these four men in the house until they can decide which one is guilty. There is no evidence sufficient for arrest. Tom and Linda are aided in their plan when DR. BOYLE, official medical examiner, sends word that everyone must remain until he has questioned them. Boyle is on his fishing trip and can not return for several hours.

Linda finds the towel with which the attempt was made to strangle her—identified by a smear of sunburn ointment. It was in Statlander's bathroom. She overhears ROSIE, the maid talking to Shaughnessy about a shirt Rosie has promised to launder.

FLEUB STONER AND DOLLY ALGER come to play bridge for the evening. Linda talks to Statlander about the happenings of the morning. He says he would like to have been present when the body was examined, adding, "It would have been very interesting."

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY

CHAPTER XXIX

No one would have guessed from Linda's tone that she was thinking, "You cold-blooded old ruffian!" as she said sympathetically, "I'm sure Tom—if you'd spoken to him—"

"Couldn't attract his attention," Statlander objected. He spoke as though he had a real grievance. Why, she wondered, should that thwarted creep creep into his voice?

"Just what it is about the accident—?" Purposefully Linda hesitated before the word. If he had suspicions, this might draw him.

"I wished to find out whether they put the fall down to apoplexy or sudden dizziness or," he added with what seemed to Linda a darkening emphasis, "to some other cause."

"Some other—surely you do not suppose—?" Her voice trailed away weakly. Would he catch the suggestion? He did, and turned upon her with unexpected savagery.

"That it was not an accident? Certainly, Mrs. Averill, it was an accident! There could be no other possible explanation," he said, "but it was an accident!" His voice rose, urgently emphatic.

"Now why should he get so excited? I'm not disputing him!" thought Linda. As though he read her mind, his voice dropped and he went on with his usual heavy, rather different manner.

"You can take it for granted, Mrs. Averill, that Mr. Peabody went out on the balcony for air. The night was oppressively sultry. It only meant that he must have been actually leaning against the railing when he lost his balance. It was sound enough before his fall."

"Why, Mr. Statlander," cried Linda in honest astonishment. "When were you on the balcony?"

For the first time she saw an intimation of the sudden black fury which Tom had witnessed on golf links. His face became a deep mottled purple. Caught up unexpectedly he stuttered like a boy, yet she felt that his rage was directed largely against himself. He was furious at being taken unaware and betrayed out of his self-elected position of authority.

"Why—why—?" He mopped a brow grown suddenly wet. "Appallingly hot still, isn't it?" Now he was more controlled but she did not like the lurking gleam in his eye. Suddenly she shivered. It was right—if it were their guests were a homicidal maniac—After all, nothing infuriated a man more than an affront to his pride. He had been so comfortably pontifical over his superior medical knowledge, his criticism of the behavior of others. Now he was on the defensive. He knew that she knew it. For the first time she was actually afraid, alone there in her peaceful garden, with that dark, strange, angry man who spoke politely enough but looked at her as though he could willingly kill her.

"No wonder you ask, Mrs. Averill. I must confess to having made myself rather too much at home last night." How he hated it, this need for apology. "It was, as we said, hot. Very hot. It occurred to me that there might be more breeze on the other side of the house. I would not for a moment have you think I was displeased with my quarters—after all, I understand that Mr. Peabody was the older man and a relative—" ("But you're furious that he had the better room than that interesting thought Linda.") "After returning from the dance I found sleep impossible. I had heard you say the room opposite me was empty—"

"Yes. You asked me and I told you so during our drive back from the Club." Linda was disposed to give no quarrel.

"Ah, yes—quite so! I ventured to tiptoe across, without waking anyone I hope, and found the room, as you said, empty and the door to the balcony closed. I thought if I opened it and left that room door and mine open, the current, through might stir the air a little."

"That's so," said Linda, honestly sorry. "I never thought of suggesting it."

He went on more smoothly. "It was growing light and I stepped out on the balcony to admire the view and get the fresh morning air."

"Now that," thought Linda, "is lame. You don't care for views and early morning air. That's more like poor old Cousin Amos' rhapsodies. Did you meet him there and are you unconsciously repeating what he said to you? The story weakens!"

Aloud she inquired placidly, "The railing?"

"Well—I simply laid my hands on it." Again the gleam in his eyes. He certainly disliked being called to account! His habit of authority was so firmly entrenched that he probably believed he should never be put on the defensive.

"And you say it seemed quite sound and firm?" She flashed a confident smile at him and sensed that he imperceptibly relaxed.

"Why, yes—entirely so." Gradually he became again the informative, condescending man of affairs talking to a pretty but rather stupid little woman. "Naturally, I did not give it any violent treatment."

"How did it seem later?" Linda inquired blandly.

"Well, of course the upper rail was broken through the center but otherwise—"

"Oh, I wish you went there after Cousin Amos tell?"

How quickly that ugly color came up! Linda, feeling literally in danger of having those dark, square fingers go around her neck (again!) noted dispassionately and entirely without fear the rust of dark red, gleaming crepe satin hostess gown which can go to dinner at home or is equally regal in the boudoir.

He studied her face narrowly and then seemed to absolve her of any ulterior motive.

"Well," he said gruffly, "I was interested in the scene of the accident." Was it true or did Linda imagine a hesitation like her own? "I stayed behind the others and looked about a little."

"And as to the little girl, did you not see a miniature ice-box that freezes water into cubes, these are made in such exact counterparts of the big ones that the utility part can be left out of the picture. However, there are Tom Thumb washing machines that do operate perfectly."

Even doll-houses, some of them, contain real plumbing and resemble the affairs we live in, most amazingly.

Children Are Realists

All this fits in with the latter-day theory that children are realists. Demand for such toys has increased 100 per cent in the last two years.

I wonder if we can lay it to the depression and the habit of children copying their mothers, or to the fact that such toys have only been on the market for a short time. Probably both.

We know that boys' playthings have fallen into better ways also. What is not made today for boys that would work as cleverly as the big models they are copied from?

And yet—I don't know. It seems to me that perhaps we are leaning over backward in this matter of real, honest-to-goodness, no-imagination, gadgets for the children.

Isn't there something missing when a little fellow can't turn a chair down and with two of dad's neckties for reins ride off across the plains to fight the Indians?

And as to the little girl, did you not see the story by Laura Spencer Porter about Uncle Nate and Victoria?

Victoria's mother had spent weeks getting together a such-as-never-was doll house with all the tiny tables and chairs in perfect period styles—to cultivate "Victoria's taste!"

While she was out one day, along comes old Uncle Nate, owner of the "Bloomin' Adeline" mine, and he proceeds to cut a ranch house out of a shoe box with Victoria's help. Swoops of paper and matches did for Bill, Manuelo and Shindy.

Victoria loved it. She took the whole business to bed with her where her parents discovered it later and threw it in the trash, which broke her heart.

She behaved very well about the real doll house, but she built a dream about the other.

Appeal to Imagination

And so, these we have it. Things to keep children busy are fine, but those things that appeal to imagination must not be forgotten.

Many people this year will have no money for real toys. Well—that means there cannot be any! How about a shoe-box and a "Bloomin' Adeline" ranch house? How about an orange crate and a ten-cent saw? I can make a knock-out doll house out of a crate. I know, because I have done it, painted it, made windows and door and everything.

One time a small boy I knew got two presents for Christmas, a stone crusher and a gasoline truck. "Oh-o!" thought I. "Aren't we getting technical though! Why couldn't Santa have made one of those presents something less mortal, something in which the Spirit of Christmas could find a haven to rest its tired wings! It is a problem, isn't it?"

DEMAND GROWS FOR REAL TOYS

Hard times have made women more domestic and the girls are naturally falling into line. Little girls have gone back to house-keeping toys, and these are the real things toy makers say.

Stoves really cook, sweepers really sweep, brushes actually scrub, and although so far I have not seen a miniature ice-box that freezes water into cubes, these are made in such exact counterparts of the big ones that the utility part can be left out of the picture. GLORIFYING YOURSELF

DO NOT NEGLECT BEAUTY SLEEP

You often hear of beauty sleep. "Just what," a reader asks me, "is beauty sleep?"

The old-fashioned answer would be, "Any sleep before midnight."

Today we know better. A ten minute catnap after lunch can be beauty sleep. So can a half hour or forty minutes just before you dress for the evening.

Beauty sleep really is any sleep in which you lose yourself utterly and from which you arise refreshed and happier.

Every single night's sleep should be beauty sleep. As a rule you do need an average of eight hours a night or none of it is real beauty sleep.

Moreover, the bed you sleep on has a lot to do with it. A woman I know bought herself a new box spring and hair mattress bed last winter. I hadn't seen her since, until the other day. She looks younger and fresher and gives her bed a lot of credit for it. It is so even and comfortable that she has been sleeping better than she ever has before.

Too heavy covers in winter often keep you from sleeping quietly and pleasantly. You may not be conscious of the weight, but your sleep will be troubled and you may dream and toss about. Bedclothes tucked in too tightly at the foot may be another discomfort that you could avoid.

Your pillow is another thing that should receive consideration.

Fortunate are those individuals who learn to sleep without pillows. Pillow-less sleepers give their backs a greater chance at perfect relaxation than those who sleep with their heads elevated at an angle. Moreover, double chins aren't helped any by propping heads high and letting chins sag during the night.

Most important to beauty sleep is the way you drift off to pleasant slumber. For some a hot bath is the thing needed. Others like a cup of hot milk. Still others learn to concentrate on giving their minds a scene that is peaceful and sleep inducing. The one thing you mustn't do is to worry. Develop the faculty of dropping all your cares when night falls. It is a gift.

Applications for the Hoover award for troop advancement should be made early in January, and should be based upon records of December 31, 1932.

Court Of Honor

The last court of the year will be held at the Center Congregational church at 7:30, on Tuesday, December 27th. Applications will be accepted for this court up to 8 p. m. on December 22. Following the court there will be an entertainment in the form of a motion picture, and a talk by Dr. Donald Lane, chairman of the camping committee of Charter Oak Council. All scouts are invited. Those scouts who are applying for badges that require writing Scout or other articles, must have the same with them to receive badges.

Troop No. 1 held its regular meeting on Monday evening, with 18 scouts and three officers present. After the meeting had been opened, patrol meetings and a test period were held. John Heritage passed his Tenderfoot tests, and a Tenderfoot pin was presented to Carlton Chase by Scoutmaster Griswold. Second Class pins were awarded to William Gess, Albert DeVito, and Bill Killa, by Edward Hines. First Class Scout Charles Tobin of Troop No. 64, Rockville, presented his transfer papers and joined the troop. An American Flag was presented to the Troop by the Mary C. Cheney Tent No. 14 Daughters of the Scout Oath and Law, which was enjoyed, and the meeting closed at 9:00 with the Scout prayer.

The Business Men's volley ball class at 5:15 Monday and Thursday is getting better all the time. There is still room for a few more recruits however. Drop in and see what it's all about. You will go home with a lot better appetite and feel like you had lost ten of those years after a few such games and a bit of work out to close with the Volley ball is fast becoming the great American sport for the business man in the winter time. It's not too strenuous but can be made as fast and furious as you have the pep to put into it. Some gamblers have called it a silly game until they tried it. More some real volley ball players when they changed their minds. The national volley ball tournaments are great things these days and create much enthusiasm and draw great crowds. Should you ever witness some such tournament you would never after respect the game of volley ball.

The Highland Park Y boys had a good game in our gym Saturday evening against the C. E. House. They have the hour regularly on Saturdays from seven to eight p. m. A team from Wapping visited us again Saturday night and gave a good game to our boys under Joe's leadership. It was a close call for our local boys but finally brought victory to Joe and his group. One thing fine about the boys from Wapping is that they like to play good and hard but are clean sportsmen at all times.

The Oxford (pin boy group) as they have been doing all fall came out victorious in their Saturday night game with the Collegians, winning to the tune of 32-24. One thing about this group of boys is that they practice and practice and then practice some more at goal shooting. Such practice is worth more than merely scrimmaging all the time as so many teams prefer to do. Naturally it's more fun to have a game going all the time but the boys who desire to get ahead and be expert basketball players are the ones who study their shots and practice the fundamentals of the game.

The Cardinals and Shamrocks will have their usual workout tonight at 6:30. The girls' gym class and the mixed Badminton team will have the floor at 8 o'clock and the Falcons at 9.

Tomorrow night at 6:30 the Intermediates will have their work out. All members on this squad should get their birth certificates in by this period. This is necessary to be eligible for the Intermediate county league.

At seven o'clock Tuesday the Rangers will have their work out.

At eight o'clock tomorrow night the Senior league games for this week will be played off. The first game will be between the Rangers and Shamrocks and the second game between the Eagles and Cardinals.

Next Saturday is the state-wide Younger Boys convolve of the Y. M. C. A. to be held at the New Haven Y. Boys from the grammar grades interested should see Mr. Simonds at once.

The different groups that have been meeting to sew for the Manchester Memorial hospital are hereafter to meet in the Y. M. C. A. building to do their sewing.

Hints on How to Keep Well by World Famed Authority

This is the fourth of a series of six articles by Dr. Fishbein on the prevention and treatment of diphtheria.

By DR. MORRIS FISHEIN

During the first few days of diphtheria the child should have a liquid diet as nourishing as possible, including plenty of milk and eggnog and cereals. Thereafter it is best to gradually improve, particularly with substances that will aid the rebuilding of blood which may have been injured by the infection.

In the prevention of diphtheria in recent years chief reliance has been placed on the use of the Schick test, on toxin-antitoxin and on toxoid. The Schick test is simply a method of injecting a very small amount of the toxin of diphtheria into the arm.

Those persons who can develop antitoxin in their blood, or who have antitoxin in their blood, against the diphtheria poison will have a negative test. On the other hand, those who do not have antitoxin or who cannot develop it will have a positive Schick test.

In a positive Schick test the spot at which the toxin was injected becomes red and slightly raised within 24 to 48 hours. The application of Schick tests in thousands of cases has shown that about 8 per cent of newly born and young infants are susceptible to diphtheria, which means that they are likely to become infected if exposed to the disease.

The remainder are not likely to have the disease at this early age cause they have from their mothers a certain amount of resistance to the disease. This is gradually lost, however, so that from 30 percent to 40 percent of children will be susceptible at one year of age, and about 65 percent at five years of age.

Apparently, through mild infections, this susceptibility then begins to decrease so that approximately 30 percent are susceptible at 10 years, and 18 percent at 15 years.

In the presence of an epidemic it is, of course, desirable that Schick tests be performed on all of the children exposed so as to know which ones are to be especially watched and which ones are to be immediately immunized against the disease by the use of toxin-antitoxin or toxoid.

Millions of children have been given toxin-antitoxin and toxoid without the slightest harmful reactions, so that it has become customary in most large cities where there are competent health departments to recommend immunization of all children against diphtheria.

NOTE: Toxins and antitoxins.

SNOWING IN MAINE

Portland, Maine, Dec. 12.—(AP)—Snow and sleet were falling generally throughout Maine today in the first real storm of the season. Temperatures ranged from five above in parts of Aroostook county to 15 above at Bangor.

At a meeting of the Hartford Council, held December 8 for the purpose of adopting the revised Constitution which will definitely establish the district plan of operation, the name of the Hartford Council was changed to Charter Oak Council, Incorporated Boy Scouts of America.

An important meeting of the Scoutmasters' association will be held at the Center Church on Wednesday evening, December 14, at 7:30. District officers will be elected, and plans laid out for work for the coming year. All Scoutmasters and their assistants are urged to attend.

Plans are being made for a Rec Scout night, to be held in the near future. The date will be announced soon.

A request has come from Hartford for those troops which register in January, to do so before the 15th.

Applications for the Hoover award for troop advancement should be made early in January, and should be based upon records of December 31, 1932.

Troop No. 5

The weekly meeting of Troop No. 5 was opened with the Flag, ceremonies. Instructions were given on knot tying, and a little later a contest was held between the patrols. A game period under the supervision of Irving Carlson was next in order. The meeting closed with the repeating of the Scout Oath and Law. A troop committee meeting was held during the evening.

Where is your news? See Scouts. We haven't heard from you yet. Cup Pack No. 2

No news. Cub Pack No. 4

Another well attended meeting of the pack was held on Wednesday evening, at the Center church. The meeting was opened with a game period. Cubmaster Lynn instructed the pack in a method of signals by which the pack can be quickly formed. Denner Wilson showed that his den was the best drilled in following the commands. Games of "Tug of War," and "Cris-Cross Re-lays" were played under the supervision of Assistant Cubmaster Irwin. Den meetings were held, and the dues collected. Plans for a hike on Saturday was discussed. The customary story was read by Cubmaster Lynn. A meeting of the Dumb-bell club was held, and the meeting closed.

A BOOK A DAY

VICTIMS SAVED HIM THE BOTHER OF KILLING THEM

"Before The Fact" is Exciting Story of Murderer's Clever Scheme

Francis lies is an Englishman who writes murder stories that are different. He hardly writes mysteries at all; his tales seem rather to be studies in murder, with the murderer's identity and viewpoint always kept before the reader's eye.

His newest offering is "Before The Fact," and it is highly readable.

It tells about a likeable but irresponsible young Englishman who takes to removing from this earthly sphere such people as are apt, on their death, to leave him money; and he does it, not by killing them himself, but by inducing them to do things which he knows will cause them to die of more or less natural causes.

The story is nicely constructed, and it works up to a really frightening bit of suspense at the very end. Published by Doubleday, Doran and Co., it sells for $2.

"About the Murder of the Circus Queen" is another of Anthony Abbott's mysteries, and why it should have been published at all is the most mysterious thing about it, as far as I'm concerned. Humorous and heavy-footed, it sounds almost like a burlesque on the conventional detective yarn, and getting to the end of it is a monotonous task.

In case you're interested, it has to do with a circus lady who gets murdered while doing acrobatic stunts. Published by Covici-Friede, it retails at $2.

Troop No. 2

The meeting opened at 7:30 with 23 scouts present. After the presentation and salute to the Flag, and the Scout Oath and Law had been repeated, a half hour instruction period followed. Assistant Deputy Houghton was present and presented a Bronze Palm to Raymond Mosser, and an Eagle badge to Raymond Donahue. Following a short talk on obedience to authority, Commissioner Houghton presented the troop with some tents as a prize for winning the inter-troop swimming meet held at Camp Nathan Hale in June. All members of the troop are requested to be present at the next meeting.

Troop No. 3 held its regular meeting Tuesday evening, at the Center church. The meeting was opened with the repeating of the Scout Oath and Law and salute to the Flag. A patrol game period was held. Dues were collected, and the patrols went to their corners for short meetings. A test period was held, and during it the newly formed Bicycle Scout patrol had its meeting. The patrol plans to hold a race from Rockville to Manchester, on Saturday, December 17. The meeting was closed at 9:15 by repeating the Scout Oath. The troop planned to attend church in a body on Sunday morning.

Schaaf and Winston Will Fight Tonight

Hartford Colored Heavyweight Seeks Second Victory Over Boston Scrapper; Fuller vs. McLarrin Friday.

Boston, Dec. 12.—(AP)—Figuratively speaking, Ernie Schaaf's broad back will be against the wall tonight when that Boston heavyweight clashes with Unknown Winston, stiff-punching Hartford negro, at the arena.

They will battle 12-rounds for the Massachusetts Boxing Commission has agreed to consider the victor as the New England champion, a title Jack Sharkey, one of Schaaf's managers, voluntarily vacated several weeks ago.

This will be a rubber engagement for the pair. Last summer, when Schaaf was regarded as one of the few promising heavyweights, he registered a five-round knockout over the negro. After Ernie started sliding, he gave Winston a return bout and the latter pounded out an impressive decision.

Schaaf has not been in action since then. He has been trying to regain his 1931 form, resulting in another defeat which banished him from the heavyweight title picture.

His dangerous plight has been recognized by Sharkey to such an extent that the world champion mended the recent breach with his protégé and supervised the training. Schaaf fought without the benefit of Sharkey's expert advice when he was on his losing streak.

Winston, who gave this flustered section one of its most amazing upsets when he humbled Schaaf, is considered to have almost an even chance to repeat his victory, despite the fact that he will be outweighed by a considerable margin.

This sectional title bout will be supported by an eight-round heavyweight semi-final between Obie Walker, Miami, and Humberto Arce of Porto Rico, a six-round and five four-round preliminaries.

New York, Dec. 12.—(AP)—Sammy Fuller, scourge of the lightweights a few months ago, aims at bigger game this week.

The aggressive Boston battler, an eastern sensation last spring, faces Jimmy McLarrin, crafty Vancouver weight, in the feature ten rounder of Madison Square Garden's Friday night card.

Fuller came down to the Garden last February and belted Ray Miller, Chicago southpaw, into submission in ten rounds.

In his next Garden start, in March, he knocked out Billy Wallace of Cleveland in seven rounds. He battled Jackie (Kid) Berg of England to a draw in ten sensational rounds and returned to the Garden in a return battle.

Increasing weight led him to abandon the lightweight division and aim at a leading place among the middleweights. Despite unimpressive performances in his two starts here, McLarrin probably will be a 2 to 1 favorite.

Boston opens the week's schedule tonight with a ten-round return fight between Ernie Schaaf, Boston heavyweight, and Unknown Winston, of Hartford, Conn. Winston outpointed Schaaf in their first meeting. George Godfrey, Leiper-ville, Pa., negro heavyweight, faces Walter Cobb of Baltimore in Philadelphia's headline all tonight.

TRADE 2NDS LOSE TO HARTFORD SCHOOL

The Watkinson school of Hartford defeated the Manchester Trade school seconds Saturday afternoon by a score of 18 to 12. Bradley and Reedy were best for the losers. Stafford High will pit its first and second team against Manchester at Stafford Springs Friday afternoon.

REC VOLLEY BALL TEAM IN DEFEAT

Naugatuck defeated the Rec volley ball team Saturday afternoon in Naugatuck, 15-5, 15-12 and 15-7. Today the locals play in Norwich.

BOSTON CUBS LEAD BY A SINGLE GAME

Saunders and Harrington Top Scorers in Canadian-American Hockey Loop.

Boston, Dec. 12.—(AP)—Ted Saunders, winger for the Boston Cubs who has led the Canadian-American Hockey League scorers during most of the current season, today found his lead whittled down to a single point by "Hago" Harrington of the Providence Reds.

The Boston Star had to cage two tallies against Harrington and his mates Saturday night to boost his total to 13 points while the Cubs avenged the Reds for their mid-week setback. Alex Cook, Boston center, and Les Jardins of Springfield, were tied for third place with 10 points and three were deadlocked with nine points, Eddie Burke and Paul Range of Philadelphia, and Dutch Gainer, former Boston Bruin and New York Ranger, now toiling with the Springfield Indians.

The race for the "bad-man" title continued to be waged by Callighen of the Quebec Beavers and Bill Regan, burly Springfield defenseman. The former has been off the ice for 35 minutes and sentences totaling 25 minutes, 15 minors and a major have been imposed on the Indian. Pringle of New Haven, was third on the list with 15 minors, getting two in last night's scoreless tie with the New Haven Eagles.

The Cubs continued setting the pace in the championship race, although their lead was cut to a single game by the fast traveling Philadelphia Arrows. New Haven and Springfield were unable to break their deadlock for third place but their tie game gave each an additional point. Last year's champions, the Providence Reds, and Quebec trailed in that order.

The standings, including last night's game:

It was the 19th consecutive win for the Californians and the second time in succession that they have defeated Notre Dame. More than 100,000 persons watched the game.

IMPROVED "RECS" PLAYING TUESDAY

Manager Clune's Team Plays Bay State Quintet Here; Girls in Prelim.

The National Guards won another basketball skirmish Saturday night when they defeated the Knights in Meriden by a score of 49 to 34. The high-gear Guards set a burning pace that was a pleasure to watch.

The Knights, composed of former Meriden high stars, the same combination which won the State League title last season, could not cope with the attack of the Silk City team. Manchester started fast and didn't slow down once during the contest.

At halftime the locals were out in front by eight points. Farr, Mattson and McCann were the high scorers, each getting into two figures. Kocin and Tomkiewicz were best for Meriden. The game was unusually well officiated by Referee Casman.

Guards Win Again, Top Meriden 39-34

The National Guards won another basketball skirmish Saturday night when they defeated the Knights in Meriden by a score of 49 to 34. The high-gear Guards set a burning pace that was a pleasure to watch.

The Knights, composed of former Meriden high stars, the same combination which won the State League title last season, could not cope with the attack of the Silk City team. Manchester started fast and didn't slow down once during the contest.

At halftime the locals were out in front by eight points. Farr, Mattson and McCann were the high scorers, each getting into two figures. Kocin and Tomkiewicz were best for Meriden. The game was unusually well officiated by Referee Casman.

PONZI IS BEATEN BY BENNY ALLEN

Big Upset Takes Place In Pocket Billiards Tournery At New York.

New York, Dec. 12.—(AP)—The national pocket billiard tournament entered its second week today with four of the ten contenders still unbeaten. Heading the brigade was the defending champion Ralph Greenleaf of New York. The champion had won three successive matches and had Young Jimmy Caras of Wilmington, Del., Erwin Rudolph of Cleveland, and Pasquale of Natick, Mass., sprang the biggest surprise of the tournament when he handed Andrew Ponzi, Philadelphia, previous pick to dethrone Greenleaf, a 15 to 85 beating last night.

Local Sport Chatter

The faculty volley ball team of the Manchester Trade school was defeated by the faculty team of the Hartford Trade school in a very close and hard fought game Saturday morning at the West Side Rec gym. The visiting team was accompanied by Director E. D. Packard and a large group of instructors.

This is the first of a two-game series. The next game will be played in Hartford Jan. 7. The players for the Manchester team were, Crowley, Higgins, Kitching, Roscoe, Pingree and Panclera.

Brantford squared accounts with Burnside Saturday night, the Tanks winning 32 to 28 in Brantford where the Rec plays Saturday night.

The Hartford K. of L. lost a 37 to 24 decision to the Brooklyn A. C. in Waterbury Saturday evening. Bristol High won over Torrington 29 to 15 the same night in Torrington. Albie Gurske with 14 points was high scorer. It is understood that he will be ineligible in a few weeks owing to age limit and may not play against Manchester.

The West Side Buddies will hold an important practice and business meeting at the West Side Rec at 8 o'clock tonight. All members are requested to attend.

NEW HAVEN WANTS MANCHESTER GAMES

The West Haven Boys' Clubs maroon-red basketball squad, composed of players, each towering six feet, and all with enviable records on the courts of the state, are completing the basketball schedule for the present season and would like to announce that they are ready to receive communications from the managers from semi-pro teams in Manchester.

Communications should be forwarded to Joseph Kantrow, 18 Arthur street, New Haven.

Each member of the squad have been members of New Haven district teams while at high school. The team and former connections on the courts are as follows: The Cohen, forward, former West Haven High, Alton Club player, now coaching at Conn. College of Commerce; Edward (Schoolboy) Moran, former West Haven High and Hebron Academy, Me. player; Charlie Hargarty, West Haven and Wakeforest High; Steve Collins and Bill Northrup, members of last season's West Haven High team; Bob Reilly and William Fogarty, former New Haven Boys' Club and Hillhouse High stars; William Carroll, former West Haven High star, recognized as all state guard at Yale tournament; Louis Freedman, former Connecticut High player and Frank Trutta another West Haven High star.

MAROONS, RANGERS TOP HOCKEY LOOPS

Numerous Overtime Games In National Hockey League Indicate Close Races.

New York, Dec. 12.—(AP)—Overtime games, a sure sign of a close hockey race, gave last week's National Hockey League results the appearance of a late season race for playoff places instead of the first quarter of the season, as the Montreal Maroons fought their way to the top of the Canadian division and the New York Rangers increased their American section lead.

No less than three games were decided in overtime periods and during the week three more ended in ties after extra sessions. The Boston Bruins, vainly trying to overtake the Rangers, participated in two of the overtime decisions. Tuesday they scored twice in the extra ten minutes to defeat the New York Americans 2-0 and last night the Rangers turned the same trick against them in one of the most furiously contested games of the season to win 3-1.

At the same time, the Chicago Blackhaws, who haven't had worse than a tie at home this season, battled the Montreal Maroons to a 2-2 deadlock and captured second place in the American group. It was the Hawks' second draw of the week. They tied Ottawa 1-1 and turned in a 3-1 victory over Detroit in earlier games.

The Maroons first gained the lead Thursday when they defeated Toronto's champion Maple Leafs 1-0. The Leafs tied their Saturday night by playing a two-all tie with the Montreal Maroons. The Rangers picked up a three-point lead in their section with three straight victories, defeating the Montreal Canadiens 5-3 and the Americans 3-1 before meeting Boston last night.

The third overtime victory went to the Canadians, who had lost to the Rangers and to Ottawa before Howie Morenz scored an overtime goal Saturday to give them a 3-2 triumph over Ottawa's Senators.

The standing of the clubs to date:

Canadian Division	W.	L.	T.	Pts.
Maroons	6	5	1	13
Toronto	5	3	2	12
Ottawa	5	5	1	11
Americans	3	5	2	8
Canadians	3	5	0	6

American Division	W.	L.	T.	Pts.
Rangers	7	2	1	15
Chicago	4	4	4	12
Boston	5	4	1	11
Detroit	4	6	0	8

Fourteen College Teams, However, Show Substantial Gains; One Gains 300 P. C.; Brown and Colgate Gain Fifty Per Cent.

New York, Dec. 12.—(AP)—Despite a general decline of approximately 15 per cent for the 1932 season, college football attendance recorded an exceptional and unexpected number of gains, due to the attractions supplied by teams combining the winning habit with colorful performances.

A survey by The Associated Press among representative colleges revealed substantial gains in attendance by 14 out of a total of 40. These ranged from a fractional increase to a high mark of 300 per cent reported by George Washington University (Washington, D. C.), in playing this season before 92,500 fans in seven home games.

The undefeated or championship teams enjoyed good business, although the reduction of ticket prices scaled down the year's profits. Pittsburgh's Panthers, with the Rosebowl game to go, drew 25 per cent more cash customers than last year.

Notre Dame although meeting two unexpectedly decisive defeats continued to "pack 'em in." The Ramblers played to virtual capacity crowds in their last three engagements against Navy, Army and Southern California, in Cleveland, New York and Los Angeles.

In the east, Brown and Colgate had banner seasons in every respect, each enjoying about a fifty per cent increase in attendance.

Harvard and Yale experienced their biggest falling off in attendance as well as receipts, since the depression hit the gridirons. The Crimson's attendance figures dropped about 25 per cent while Yale's declined nearly 35 per cent to the lowest level since the war. Pennsylvania, with a successful team, just about held its own on the basis of games played at Franklin Field.

Army played before 284,000 as compared with 223,000 the year before. Comparative figures on football attendance for 1932 and 1931 include the following:

College	1932	1931
Notre Dame	440,000	413,000
Michigan	228,000	228,000

ANDOVER

All places were occupied at the tables set for the annual church supper and roll call which took place in the Town Hall Friday evening. After a delicious supper of scalloped potatoes, meat loaf, celery, cranberry sauce, rolls, coffee, pie and cheese, served by the Ladies Benevolent Society, the business of the evening opened. The Rev. Wallace I. Woodin presided. During the roll call letters were read from Miss Marion Woodin of New York, Mrs. Edward Nicolini, of Hartford, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Thompson, Jr., of Chancelor, Va., and Mary A. Hyde, of Amherst, Mass. A letter of dismissal was requested by Mr. and Mrs. Thompson. These young people were active for many years in the church work in this town, and are now taking major parts in the religious work in Chancelor, Va.

Reports were read by Mrs. Benton, as secretary, and by H. A. Thompson, Sr., treasurer. George Nelson called attention to the pledge cards which were at the dinner table. The pledge cards were read and the names were added to have as many as possible filled out, to lessen the number of house to house calls to be made by the canvassers. Mrs. Turner gave a report of the work done by the Ladies Benevolent Society, and H. A. Thompson reported for the Sunday school. George Nelson spoke of some length of the progress of the Christian Endeavor Society and read the list of the in-coming officers. No report was sent in for the Girls' League although a number of the members were present.

The first report given on such an occasion by a member of the Friendly Girls was presented by Emily Yeomans. This club has been in existence three years and has for its slogan "Be a Friend to Everyone." It is an active, progressive club. It will be included in the number of church organizations to present a report each year hereafter. Nathan Gatchell and Miss Amy Randall reported for the music committee, including comments on the Sunday school choir and the Junior and senior choirs.

The following officers were voted in for the coming year: Clerk of church, Mrs. Benton, re-elected; treasurer of benevolence is also included in this office; Mr. Hamilton, whose office as deacon expired this year, was also re-elected; music committee, Miss Amy Randall, Nathan Gatchell, Mrs. Eugene Platt and Mrs. Birmingham. This committee was given the authority to appoint additional members if deemed advisable. Mrs. Milburn was re-elected to act as representative of the church on the parish committee. Mrs. Benton spoke on church projects and those were voted accepted as reported. In the home of Deacon Herbert Thompson is a book of church records dating back to 1747. Mrs. Benton has the book of church records dating from the year 1828. It was voted to close the latter book of records with those of the year 1928, and to begin a new book with the 1930 records. Then these two books will be placed in the State Library. Interesting facts about the starting of the present church building were brought out. These and many others that may be brought forward will be compiled for use at the centennial celebration next year.

A vote of thanks was rendered to Amy Randall and to Nathan Gatchell for the splendid service rendered last year. Mr. Woodin gave a report of the ministerial work, during which it was brought out that he made last year 546 calls, getting in contact with 135 families. The meeting adjourned soon after this report.

E. W. Platt, of Wapping, was a caller in town Friday evening. Miss Lila Halsted of Thompsonville spent the week-end in town. The school board will hold a meeting in the town clerk's office Monday evening.

SOLVE MURDER MYSTERY

Rome, Dec. 12.—(AP)—A three-week-old mystery involving three suitcases containing the dismembered body of a woman who solved today with the confession, police said of Cesare Servietti, 57, of Subiaco.

The body was said by authorities to have been identified as that of Paulina Corietti, of Assisi, his sweetheart.

Servietti, police alleged, kicked Signorina Corietti to death during a quarrel in their apartment in Spieria. The man was arrested as a result of information supplied by the woman's brother.

The mystery has stirred Italy during the last three weeks more than any crime in recent years. For a time police believed that the victim might have been Miss Anna Dersneri of Rome, N. Y. But after an investigation they eliminated this possibility.

Police said the victim was scalped before parts of the body were stuffed in suitcases and abandoned on the Rome and Naples train, both of which passed through Genoa and Florence before the suitcases were discovered.

BURGLAR SENTENCED

Torrington, Dec. 12.—(AP)—William Robinson, 38, of Waterbury, one of three men accused of holding up the Sullivan drug store in Waterbury on Oct. 11, in a special session of the Superior Court at Litchfield today pleaded guilty to a charge of robbery with violence and was sentenced by Judge A. F. Ellis to not less than 15 years or more than 25 years in state prison. Michael Stanco and Dominic Giglio, both of Waterbury, alleged accomplices of Robinson in the holdup are still in Litchfield county jail awaiting trial. Robinson was shot in the abdomen by Daniel G. Sullivan, proprietor of the store, at the time of the holdup and was a patient at a Waterbury hospital for several weeks.

Motorists who go speeding along the roads at this season of the year miss a great deal, it is true. But they manage to hit a great deal, too.

Man—So you enjoy showing your wife how to run the car? Friend—Yes, it's the first time she ever admitted that I could teach her anything.

There is a danger of people who know about such crossings becoming careless in the vicinity of others where trains do run. Signals and crossing notices on unused railways should be taken down.

Fresh Young Man—I beg your pardon Miss, but would you care to take a ride?

Sweet Young Thing—Sir! I'll have you know I'm a lady! Fresh Young Man—I know that. If I wanted a man, I'd go home and get my brother.

ROD AND GUN CLUB RE-ELECTS OFFICERS

Annual Meeting Held Saturday Night At Osano Cottage In Bolton.

The annual meeting of the Manchester Rod and Gun club was held Saturday night at the Osano cottage, Bolton, with a large attendance of members. Chief Urbano Osano served a lobster and chicken dinner preceding the business meeting.

The officers for the past year were all re-elected. They are: Frank Irons, Manchester, president; Francis P. Pallotti, Hartford, vice-president; William J. Robb, East Hartford, secretary and treasurer; David Mullen, Manchester; Charles F. Richmond, Hartford; E. L. G. Hohenbush, Jr., Manchester; Samuel J. Turkington, Manchester; and Dr. D. C. Y. Moore, Manchester, board of governors.

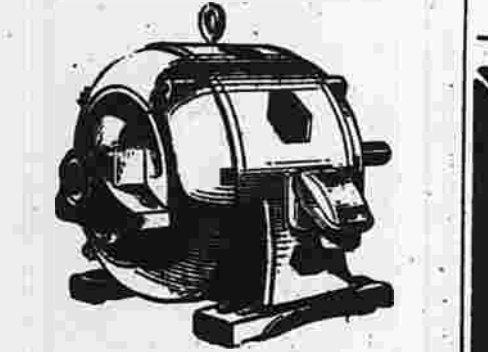

The reports of the officers showed the club to be in good condition. No definite action has been taken by the club towards purchasing property for a club site and hunting and fishing grounds but the committee on this matter, headed by Edward C. Elliott, Jr., is biding time awaiting the most advantageous time to purchase. Several are under consideration.

Francis P. Pallotti who represented the club at the last state meeting of game clubs told of the various pieces of legislation Commissioner Thomas H. Beck proposes and urged the members to give him their support. It was decided to revise the constitution and by-laws of the club in order to bring them up to date and a committee consisting of Francis P. Pallotti, William J. Robb and Ronald H. Ferguson was named to bring in a proposed revision at the next meeting.
