BANK KEPT SECRET BAD PERU REPORTS

Official Testifies That Unfavorable Conditions Were Not Made Public When Bonds Were Offered.

Washington, Feb. 27.—(AP)—The Senate banking committee was told today that a National City Company prospectus which offered $15,000,000 of Peruvian bonds to the public in 1927 made no mention of unfavorable reports of Peruvian conditions that were held in the files of the company. The evidence was presented during the testimony of Hugh B. Baker, who resigned today as president of the company.

Questioned by Ferdinand Pecora, the committee counsel, Baker said his company handled $5,000,000 of the bonds. They were sold at $96.50 per hundred dollar bond and now are around $7 for the same bond.

Charles E. Mitchell, who also has resigned as chairman of the National City Bank, was waiting to testify.

Hearing resumed today in the Senate banking committee resumed its investigation of the National City Bank today shortly after the bank's board had accepted the resignation of Charles E. Mitchell as chairman of the board.

The start of the hearing was delayed half an hour by a conference between members of the committee and Ferdinand Pecora, the committee counsel.

Baker said he could not recall the total of South American bonds sold by the National City Company, adding that Ronald Byrnes, acting director of the South American issues. The issues were always approved unanimously by the officers, Baker said.

Pecora asked about an issue of $15,000,000 bonds for Peru March 1, 1927, participated in by the National City Company.

FORDS ORGANIZE TWO DETROIT BANKS

To Use Their Millions To Help Other Institutions Weather Financial Storm.

Detroit, Feb. 27.—(AP)—Henry Ford's "go it alone" policy has been given another striking manifestation in his undertaking to set up two new banks to relieve the banking situation in Detroit.

Under the terms of his offer, accepted after numerous other proposals had been discussed at length and failed of materialization, Ford and his son Edsel, are to be the sole stockholders in the two new institutions, unless they choose otherwise.

"Go it alone" long has been the Ford policy, and in the case of the automobile industry just was getting started it was threatened with a practical impasse by the famed Selden patent suit.

$25,000 IN TIRES BURN IN TRUCK

Three Gasoline Tanks Explode On Post Road At Westport—All Destroyed.

Westport, Feb. 27.—(AP)—Irving Franklin Elias, of South Glastonbury, had just stepped from the cab of his truck and trailer on the Post Road here early today to investigate the small of leaking gasoline, when one of three gasoline tanks exploded and ignited the entire cargo of 1,000 tires and tubes and a large quantity of tires from Jersey City this afternoon.

Flames spread to a nearby colonial building, now a workshop and tool house, owned by Henry Liswell, and two Westport fire companies poured streams of water into the blazing truck and building for four hours before the fire was extinguished.

State Troopers William S. Tripp and Thomas J. Dealey scouted the wreckage and traced 60 miles an hour for two miles along the icy Post Road to overtake the truck to follow the explosion and believing them gunshots rushed to the scene. Assisted firemen.

The three policemen added firemen in handling the hose. Low temperature and cold wind handicapped firemen. The water froze as it struck. The Post Road was a mass of ice. Flames were carried 100 feet across the road, but missed the Turnpike Tavern by ten feet. The Turnpike Tavern had a few houses on either side of the street.

Fire Chief Dunnigan estimated the loss at $20,000. Police quoted the driver as saying the loss was $25,000. The driver, on duty in the center of town a mile away, was owned by the Consolidated Trucking Co., of Springfield, Mass.

OBITUARY

FRANCIS H. LEWIS, LIFE RESIDENT HERE, DIES

Francis Herbert Lewis, lifelong resident of Manchester, died at his home, 52 Mt. Nebo Place, at 12:30 Saturday noon following a brief illness with heart trouble, at 83. He was the older resident of the town, though of a retiring nature.

Mr. Lewis was a cousin of the late Christopher Spencer, to whom has been attributed the invention of the first roadless carriage. Mr. Lewis bought the carriage and operated it for a good many years. Many will remember him as a salesman in the old W. H. Cheney store, which for many years was the only store at the south end of the town.

Son of Abel Lewis, he was born on South Main street, Sept. 16, 1849, and had lived here all of his life. He was married twice, both wives now being dead. His first wife, who was Mrs. Nellie Woodward of Hartford, died about 50 years ago. His second wife, Miss Emma Mae Lee of Bolton, died Dec. 17, 1932. Two daughters and three sons survive. They are Mrs. William F. (Mabel M.) Corner of 50 Mt. Nebo Place, Mrs. Julius A. Greyce of East of Elm Terrace; Walter F. Lewis, 11 Vine street; Philip of 217 North Elm street and Ferdinand D. There are six grandchildren and two great grandchildren. Thomas and Lucile Marie Corner.

Mr. Lewis was a painter before he entered the old Cheney Store. He was a member of the South Methodist Episcopal church. The funeral will be at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at the home with Rev. R. C. Colpitts officiating. The bearers will be Thomas Conran, Stuart Corner, Andrew Ansaldi, John Walsh, John Peterson and William Prentice. Burial will be in the East cemetery.

Mrs. Martha Schaub, 70, of 44 Griswold street, died at the Memorial hospital at 1:15 Saturday afternoon. She had been confined at the hospital for six weeks.

Mrs. Schaub was the widow of John Schaub who died in 1899. Born in Ireland she had lived here for 60 years. Besides her daughter, Mrs. Herman J. Klasmann with whom she lived, Mrs. Schaub leaves two sons, James H. Schaub, regular drummer at the Home Company No. 8, S. M. F. D., and Charles E. Schaub, former restaurant proprietor; also a grandchild.

The funeral will be held at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at the funeral home of T. G. Dougan on Hill street. Rev. Watson Woodruff will officiate and burial will be in the East cemetery. Friends are asked to omit flowers.

Mrs. E. J. Zimmerman, wife of Henry J. Zimmerman of 182 Bissell street, died yesterday at Manchester Memorial hospital after a long illness. Besides her husband she leaves two sisters, Mrs. Charles A. Spiers and Mrs. William H. Zimmerman of Hartford and several nieces and nephews.

The funeral service will be held Wednesday at 2 o'clock at the Thomas G. Dougan Funeral Home, 59 Hill street. Rev. Watson Woodruff will officiate and burial will be in Spring Grove cemetery, Hartford.

FUNERALS

Andrew Young, who died in Boston Friday morning, was held at the rooms of E. F. Holman, Center street, this morning at 9:30, with a requiem mass at St. James' church at 9 o'clock. The body arrived from Boston last night at 9 o'clock. Deceased was a son-in-law of Mrs. Michael Price of Laurel street. He was married to his eldest daughter, Mrs. Mary, who died ten years ago and was buried in St. James' cemetery. Today Mr. Young was buried beside his wife.

The bearers were William E. Egans, Jacob Corcoran, Elmore J. Ryan, Robert E. Carney, Philip H. Carney and John Price Carney.

Mrs. M. F. Pierson, funeral services for Mrs. Margaret Poy Pierson, who died Saturday, were held this afternoon at 2:30 at her home, 119 Maple street. Rev. J. Stuart Nell, rector of St. Mary's Episcopal church, officiated. Bishop Gordon sang "Till We Meet Again" and "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere." The bearers were Albert and Les Poy, John Lonsy, Fred Wohlbe, Charles and George Davidson. Burial was in the East cemetery.

Felix P. Hendron, a former Manchester resident, who left here thirty years ago to make his home in Hartford, held this morning at Our Lady of Sorrows church, Hartford at 9 o'clock. Following the mass a funeral cortege came to Manchester where burial took place at 11 o'clock in St. Bridget's cemetery.

DEES SUDDENLY

New Britain, Feb. 27.—(AP)—George E. Bartolowicz, 38, of 34 Silver street dropped a cigarette on the floor while visiting his sister Mrs. Helen Leonard of 615 Spruce street, last night, stopped over to pick it up, had a heart attack and died soon afterward.

HOOVER OUTLINES STAND OF REPUBLICAN PARTY

Bandits said the resignation was accepted "without comment." Albert G. Sims of Albuquerque, New Mexico, the husband of the former Ruth Hanna McCormick, was chosen to represent New Mexico in his stead, and J. D. M. Hamilton, of Topeka, Kansas, was elected to represent that state. Vacancies on the committee from Pennsylvania and Puerto Rico were not filled.

President's Letter The President's letter to the committee follows: "You have asked that I should address a few words upon questions of party organization to the executive committee which meets today. I first wish to take this opportunity to express my appreciation of the loyal and effective work of your committee and the thousands of party workers."

"The work of party organization is a public duty often thankless to a degree, yet in the highest sense a public service, for organized political parties have become an absolute necessity for the functioning of a popular government in so large a population as ours. Only through such organization can the people express their will."

Need Organization "The nation would be a bedlam of who's without without such organization, without loyalty to it. Party organization must assure cohesion in public action and upon their pledges their principles and their ideals."

"You have also asked for some words on the policies to be pursued by the party. Political parties have great obligation of service whether the party be in power or not. In these times of co-operation and not of antagonism in the need of the country it is no less an obligation of the party to subject all proposals to the scrutiny of constructive debate and to oppose those which will hurt the progress and the welfare of the country."

"The proposals, the principles and the ideals of the party were set out in the last campaign. They require no repetition here. They will justify themselves. Rather than to review them even in the setting of present events, I prefer to say a word as to the platform upon which all Americans can stand without partyism."

"There are certain fundamentals and safeguards of our government which are not the property of any political party. They are the common property of the entire people. They embrace rigid adherence to the Constitution, the enforcement of laws without respect to persons; assurance of the credit of the government through restraint of spending and provision of adequate revenue; preservation of the honor and integrity of the government in respect to its obligations, its security and its sound currency; insistence upon the responsibilities of local government; advancement of world peace; adequate preparedness for defense; the cure of abuses which have crept into our economic and social system; development of security to homes and living; persistence in the initiative, equal opportunity and responsibilities of individuals and institutions; and finally every encouragement to the development of our intellectual, moral and spiritual life."

"In great emergencies humanity in government requires the utilization of the reserve strength of all branches of the government, whether local or national, to protect our institutions and our people from forces beyond their control. This must and can be accomplished without violation of these fundamentals and safeguards."

"Upon these foundations lies the freedom, the welfare and the future of every citizen in the country. By them we will march forward. We do not claim them as the exclusive property of the Republican Party. They are the inheritance of all parties."

"This is a program which can command the respect and support of all who would maintain the United States in the high position amongst nations it now holds, and one from which we should not deviate."

TO DISCUSS JUDGESHIP New Haven, Feb. 27.—(AP)—Leading attorneys from throughout the state gathered here today for a private meeting of the executive committee of the State Bar Association at the Graduate Club. It was expected they would discuss the situation with regard to the appointment of judges of minor courts.

Chief Justice William M. Eshelby, in a recent address in Hartford sharply criticized the political trading involved in the appointments and challenged the bar association to take steps to end it.

COLLEGES TO SEASON THIS YEAR

Yale and Princeton Only Remain Remaining Contenders For Cage Title.

New York, Feb. 27.—(AP)—The six teams of the Eastern inter-collegiate basketball league enter the home stretch of the 1935 campaign this week with Yale and Princeton the only remaining contenders for the title. Pennsylvania still has a mathematical chance of figuring in a two or three-way tie for the championship, but it is a remote possibility at best.

Developments last week, particularly Princeton's decisive 46-30 conquest of Yale, served to keep the tigers in the running for the crown they won in a playoff with Columbia last year. Today Yale was leading the field with seven victories and two defeats and only one more game to play. Princeton ranked second with five victories and two defeats with three games to go.

Yale closes her regular season at New Haven Saturday against Massachusetts Cornell and if the tigers win as she should, they will clinch at least a tie for the title. In that event, Princeton, in order to get a tie with Yale and force a playoff, would need to beat Columbia at New York on Wednesday. Dartmouth at Princeton on Saturday, and Pennsylvania at Philadelphia on Saturday, March 11.

Pennsylvania, holding third place with four victories and seven defeats, can figure in the title chase only if both Yale and Princeton drop one more game. Penn and Dartmouth will open the week's firing tonight at Princeton, and the Princeton-Columbia game Wednesday. All six teams will be in action Saturday, Yale facing Cornell, Princeton meeting Dartmouth, and Columbia playing Penn at Philadelphia.

M. H. S. ORCHESTRA WILL PLAY FOR SARDOU SHOW

The high school orchestra will give a concert tonight before the curtain rises on the Community Players' "A Scrap of Paper" and will play between the acts. Sardou's French comedy of the sixties will be given at the Wilton Memorial auditorium under the direction of Miss Patricia Petcolas, the youthful director who successfully staged "Little Women" last month. Margaret Petcolas, Miss Harriet Coburn, Miss Evelyn Jones, Miss Florence Bieri, Robert Marchant, Richard Owens, Ray Metz, Herbert Wright and Arthur Scraman make up a cast, sure to hold the interest of the audience for the two hours of the performance.

The play is given for the benefit of the Y. M. C. A. There are a few good reserved seats left, available to those who call the Y, 7406, until 4 p. m.

Weddings

Karvalis-Collard Joseph Karvalis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Karvalis of 339 Toland street, Hartford, and Miss Margaret Collard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Ambs, both of Hartford, were married this morning at Holy Trinity church, Hartford. The ceremony was performed by Rev. John J. Ambs.

The bride attendants were Miss Isabel Brown of this town and Anthony Brown of Hartford. The bride wore white tulle veil trimmed with lace and tulle veil caught with orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of white lilies and roses with a spray of sweet peas. The bridesmaids wore white-colored lace and carried tall roses and sweet peas.

A wedding breakfast and reception were held at the home of the bridegroom's parents, where the young couple will live on their return from a wedding trip.

Shrimp Jambolaya One and one-half cups boiled shrimps, 1 medium sized white onion, 2 tablespoons butter, 2 tablespoons flour, 3 tomatoes or 2 cups canned tomatoes, 1-2 cup well washed rice, 2 tablespoons minced parsley, half a clove of garlic, 1 bay leaf, 1 teaspoon file powder, 4 cups boiling water.

Melt butter in sauce pan, add onion peeled and minced and let cook slowly until a golden color. Sift over flour and stir until blended. Stir and cook until four colors slightly. Scald tomatoes, plunge into cold water and slip skins. Chop finely and add to first mixture. Add rice, parsley, garlic, bay leaf and boiling water. Let cook slowly until the rice is tender and the mixture thickened. It will take about 40 minutes. Add shrimps, file powder, salt and pepper. Heat thoroughly but do not let mixture reach the bubbling point. Serve with carrots cut in thin slices and fried in deep fat. Crab meat and mushrooms in tomato sauce is a delicious combination to serve with boiled rice.

HEARTILY COMMENTS CROSBY AS SPEAKER

Waltham Chamber Secretary Praises Bridgeport Man Coming Here Tomorrow.

Robert A. Crosby, executive secretary of the Bridgeport Chamber of Commerce, comes here tomorrow night to speak at the all-member meeting of the Chamber of Commerce at the Country club at 7:30 o'clock on taxation problems, with a fine recommendation from Earl Arnold, secretary of the Waltham, Mass., Chamber, under whose auspices Mr. Crosby spoke recently.

Mr. Arnold writes: "Secretary Crosby is one of the most effective speakers I've England possesses. He is concise, very definite, yet presents his subject in a most interesting manner. He will hold the close attention of your men for whatever time you give him. He is a business man's speaker. No great flourishes, just plain, ordinary common sense presented with a well modulated voice and in a gripping manner."

Mr. Crosby came to the Bridgeport Chamber in 1928 as executive secretary, after a successful career as a newspaperman and civic worker. He is a past president of both the Connecticut and New England Secretaries' Association and has also been an enthusiastic supporter of the work of the New England Council since its inception. Last year when the Bridgeport Chamber was instrumental in the organization of committees and prepared the outline of procedure. The completion of the work of the work of the fourteen sub-committees of the Committee of One Hundred was prepared under his direction.

A good turnout of local Chamber members is expected at this meeting, the first of a new type of meeting that eliminates a dinner. Following the speaker, a question period will be held after which motion pictures of travel will be shown.

CANNOT CUT RATES Bridgeport, Feb. 27.—(AP)—The United Illuminating Co., today informed Bridgeport and five other Fairfield county communities who sought a 35 to 50 per cent cut in municipal light rates that the company is unable to give any reduction in its rates at this time.

Screens Screens add a certain atmosphere of charm to almost any room. They serve a useful purpose in masking unsightly corners, and they are decorative in themselves. Attractions for a kitchen can be made by covering them with old cloth to match the table cover. A faded screen can be revived by a new cretonne covering to match the curtains.

Cotton Topcots Mannish fashions in feminine clothes have brought about a brand new interest in topcots. Many of spring's smartest suits have their own separate topcots, and these are certain to make their mark in the fashion world. When it comes time to put the tweeds away for cottons, the topcoat is still going to carry on. Many clever cotton frocks are being made with their own topcots to match or contrast, and a smarter fashion than this cotton topcoat has never seen light of day. For this purpose the wooly weave cottons are holding the stage.

Wall Street Briefs

New York, Feb. 27.—Dividend meetings are scheduled for this week by several important companies. Those on the list include: Loew's, Inc., P. Lorillard, Reynolds Tobacco, Singer Manufacturing, Standard Oil of Kentucky, McKeesport Tin Plate, American Water Works and American Power and Light. Directors of the last named are due to take action on the preferred stock payments.

Standard Statistics company's weekly summary of business conditions says retail trade has continued to reflect the declining dollar value of goods sold, as well as the further restriction of consumer buying power. January department store sales were 24 per cent under a year ago, while grocery and variety store chains reported decreases of 14.5 per cent and 9.8 per cent, respectively.

FISHERMEN TO SAIL

Lunenburg, Feb. 27.—(AP)—Courageous in the face of low prices for fish, 26 Lunenburg ships will put out to sea early in March on the "spring trip" to the Banks. Hopes for profits are slim and for a while it was doubtful if any vessels would sail this spring.

MILLION DOLLAR SUIT

Bridgeport, Feb. 27.—(AP)—Damage of $1,500,000 is asked in a suit filed today in the Superior Court by Orthopedic Sales, Inc. of Wilmington, Del., against the Kahler Shoe Company of Harrisburg, Pa., which is a record for amount of damages asked in Connecticut courts. As the Kahler Shoe Co. owns a factory building in Stamford assessed at $68,000, which is attached in the suit, the case comes into the Connecticut court. The damages are based on a series of business transactions.

ROCKVILLE

ICE HARVEST POOR, HOPE FOR LATE CROP

Horse Owned by Raymond G. Willis Falls Through Ice At E. A. Ludwig Pond.

The scarcity of good ice or even a fair crop in Rockville seems remote at the present time as but very little ice has been harvested. What has been harvested has come from the smaller ponds and there is practically no worthwhile ice on either Snipic or Crystal lakes, Tolland County's chief source of supply. The work of harvesting ice on E. A. Ludwig's pond near Crystal Lake was started on Saturday by Raymond G. Willis, who had hopes of cutting a crop of ice ranging from six to eight inches.

Late Saturday afternoon while marking out the crop, the cutter was being drawn by a horse weighing over 1300 pounds. When the horse drove over a section, it broke through the ice which was only about five inches thick. The horse's rear quarters went in first and at the end of the horse was showing. The owner saved the horse by choking him and shutting off respiration necessitating the horse being hoisted up, but allowing him sufficient air to keep alive. After considerable hard work a channel was cut to the shore and the horse dragged in until his feet touched ground. The horse seems no worse off for the experiment.

Speaking Contest Trials The first trials in the Alumni Prize Speaking Contest at the Rockville High School will be held on Tuesday before a committee of teachers. The best eight speakers selected in these trials shall compete in the final prize Speaking Contest to be held Friday evening, March 24th in the auditorium of the George Fykes Memorial School, with position on the program being determined by lot. Three prizes will be awarded, first being $10 in gold, second, $5.00 in gold and third prize, two and one-half dollars. There will be three judges appointed by President James A. Calver of the Alumni Association. The following points will be considered in determining prize winners: Enunciation, delivery, expression, gesture, presence, subject matter and preparation. The only student at the Rockville school who cannot enter this contest is Goldie Lavitt, winner of the 1932 Alumni Prize Speaking Contest.

Hearing to Be Tuesday. Thomas J. Brynes, aged 61, for over 30 years a clerk at the Rockville post office, will be given a hearing in the United States District Court at New Haven on Tuesday, Feb. 28. He was placed under arrest at Rockville by a trio of Federal Post Office Inspectors on Saturday, Feb. 19. Bonds in the amount of $1,000 were furnished by Harry Norton of East Hartford.

Legislative Hearing Called. Rockville is expected to be well represented at the Legislative hearings before the General Assembly this week. Particular interest is being shown in House Bill No. 910 which is to come up before the Cities and Boroughs Committee on Tuesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. Instead of making the Board of Education an appointive board of five, the bill has been so altered that the membership still remains at nine members, in place of five, who are to be elected by the voters.

Funeral of Mrs. Royal. The funeral of Mrs. Augusta Royal, aged 61, widow of the late Otto C. Royal, who died at her home at 112 High street on Friday morning, following a general breaking down in health and due to the infirmities of old age, was held from her late home yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. H. Otto Kletka, pastor of the First German Lutheran church, officiated. Burial was in the family plot in Grove Hill cemetery.

Former Vernon Girl Weds. A former resident of Vernon, Miss Adolpha Merta, 32, now of 108 Monrovia street, Springfield, Mass., and Holman V. E. Hokanson, 35, of 88 Franklin street, Springfield, were married in New York Saturday in the Municipal Building shortly after they obtained a marriage license. Deputy City Clerk Thomas J. Barry performed the ceremony officiating in the City Chapel.

Miss Alice Hanson Weds. Miss Alice Hanson, 24, a nurse, formerly of West 37th Street, New York, and Edwin E. Sundt, 45, a carpenter, of 79 Cambridge street, Ellsworth, Conn., obtained a marriage license at the Municipal Building Saturday.

It is this which will occupy the various classes and a most interesting program will be presented. Chairman S. Matthews of Stafford Springs, who for a number of years connected with the "Ring" at 116 Madison Avenue, in Stamford, has taken over the Park Street Garage in Rockville, located at 29 Park street. It will now be known as the "Central Garage."

The second in the series of what is being conducted by the Rockville Lodge, Loyal Order of Moose will be held on Thursday evening, March 2nd at the Moose lodge rooms on Elm street.

Theodore E. Sebekin, of 128 Union street, has been appointed administrator of the estate of the late William Fingie of Rockville who died two weeks ago. The estate which presented the entertainment "Elmer's Ankles" at the Spikes Auditorium several weeks ago for the benefit of the Rockville City hospital, has organized a dramatic club. The club will be known as "The Hospital Players". Edward Smith has been named president; Mrs. Elbridge Leonard, vice president; Miss Dorothy Ashe, secretary; and Carlton Walters, treasurer. Elbridge Leonard has been named business manager. This newly formed organization will meet at least once a month and will present plays for charitable purposes at the Rockville House on Wednesday evening. Rev. Mr. Cooper will take for his topic "A Visit to London." He is the author of the book "The Love Stones of John Wesley."

David Hirth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Hirth of Ellington avenue, a student at Bowdoin College, has received the Bates scholarship at the college. He is a graduate of the Rockville High school.

The 37th annual fair of the Rockville fire department closed at midnight Saturday. The attendance this year was by far the best in several years but the cash receipts of the booths were much smaller than usual.

Mrs. William Otto, of Tolland, who received a broken ankle on Friday when struck by an automobile driven by William Kunz of Kellrose, is reported as resting more comfortably at the Rockville City hospital.

Bishop E. Campion Acheson of the Diocese of Connecticut, who was to make an official visit Sunday at St. John's Episcopal church, was unable to come. Bishop Acheson notified Rev. H. B. Olmsted, pastor, on Saturday, that it would be impossible to attend because he had been called to another part of the state in connection with his duties. The service with Rev. BAD GOING NO BAR TO S. H. E. MUSIC LOVERS

Large Attendance Listens To Special Service At South End Sunday Evening.

Inclement weather did not prevent a good attendance at the musical service held at the South Methodist church last night. It was clear that a good many Manchester people are not to be kept from such affairs by bad going when the presentation is something worth while. The program which G. Huntington Byles had arranged was fully enjoyed. It consisted of choral numbers contrasting in theme and in spirit. The first selection was the composition by Williams, "Christ in the Universe." In this number a mood is submitted by the composer that is out of the ordinary. The chorus seems to be in the nature of an obituary to the organ setting.

The remaining choral offerings all taken from "The Holy City" by Gaul, comprised many of the favorite numbers in this well known cantata. The solo in these numbers were taken by Miss Eleanor Willard, soprano; Edward Taylor, tenor; and Robert Gordon, bass. Each gave a very fine interpretation. At the organ both in his accompaniments to the choral numbers, and in his individual organ numbers Mr. Byles displayed a high degree of artistry. The well known "Aria" from Symphony Six by Verne was his opening number. As the organist he played "Au Couvent" by Bordin, the very delicate shadings and setting forth of the essential atmosphere were delightful. A fitting climax to a successful program was his playing of the "Choral" in A minor by Cesar Franck, always looked upon as being one of the master productions of this renowned composer of organ music.

The devotional exercises were conducted by Rev. R. A. Colpitts, the pastor.

SHOT ACCIDENTALLY

Waterbury, Feb. 27.—(AP)—Charles Reilly, 28, who shot himself in the chest late last night accidentally, according to police, was said at St. Mary's hospital to be in no danger today although his condition was uncomfortable. Police said a gun Reilly was cleaning accidentally discharged.

DEATH ACCIDENTAL

Bridgeport, Feb. 27.—(AP)—The death of Jack Beckerman, 37, of East Hartford, who was fatally injured in a truck collision early on the morning of Feb. 24, on the Boston Post Road, opposite the entrance of the Westport Country Club, was accidental, according to a finding here today by Coroner John J. Phelan.

Washington, Feb. 27.—(AP)—Applications asking an increase in the duty on abrasive papers and cloth have been filed with the tariff commission by Abrasive Products, Inc., of Boston, and the American Floor Surfacing Machine Company of Toledo, Ohio.

Y. M. C. A. Notes

Pratt and Whiting basketballers swept at the Manchester, Y. M. C. A. Saturday evening and defeated the Wapping team 25 to 23 in a game that was close all through.

Tomorrow afternoon and evening Ernest K. Schiedge will appear in an entertainment in the afternoon for the children and for the grown-ups in the evening. His performance will be magic. In the afternoon the program will be known as "A Trip to Finland" and the evening's program will be "A Mystic Review." The Cooking School which has been conducted by Mrs. Asra Mixer of the Manchester Gas Company will be held as usual tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. Mothers who are interested can bring along their children and a "parking place" will be provided for them while the demonstration and lecture is on.

The semi-finals of the ping-pong tournament held Saturday night resulted in Art Korch and Miss Swicka winning. They will enter finals to be played at a date yet to be selected, but some evening this week.

Saturday night the Fillers annexed another game by defeating Highland Park 28-28. Wright, put the game on ice just before the final whistle blew by a double counter from the side of the floor.

Next week the Tigers meet the Fillers in a league game. Both teams have gone undefeated to date and a fast contest is expected.

FEBRUARY FIRES TARDY SHOT IN SNOW STORM

Just when it seemed as though winter had paid its last call, another heavy snow storm struck Manchester and much of the rest of the state Saturday afternoon. Beginning the town with nearly six inches of snow. The storm started at about 1:30 in the afternoon and continued with slight intermissions for 2 1/2 hours.

The snow was wet and heavy and packed down hard to make driving dangerous but only one accident was reported in Manchester. Snow plows were out early and cleared the main highways but other streets were not plowed until yesterday and today. Shovelers by the score were out early yesterday morning clearing sidewalks in every section of town.

Trolleys and buses kept on schedule for the most part as the public utilities companies kept their routes cleared during the duration of the storm. A cold blustery wind, heralding the nearness of March, kept the sun from melting the snow swiftly this morning.

GIRL DISAPPEARS IN THIN AIR It's FUN TO BE FOOLED ... IT'S MORE FUN TO KNOW There is also a trick of cigarette advertising, whereby a few magic words are used to create the illusion of "Coolness." EXPLANATION: Coolness is determined by the speed of burning. Fresh cigarettes, retaining their full moisture, burn more slowly... smoke cooler. Paraded, dry cigarettes burn fast. They taste hot. This makes the method of wrapping very important. Improperly wrapped cigarettes begin to dry out as soon as packed. Camels are cooler because they come in the famous Humidor Pack of wadded, three-ply, MOISTURE-PROOF cellophane... and because they contain better tobacco. A cigarette that is fresh, full of natural moisture, and blended from choice, ripe tobacco tastes cooler than one that is harsh and arid. For coolness, choose a fresh cigarette, made from costlier tobacco. It is a fact, well known by leaf tobacco experts, that Camels are made from finer, MORE EXPENSIVE tobacco than any other popular brand. Try Camels... give your taste a chance to sense the difference. You'll appreciate it!

A STATE PARK DREAM
 Conservatism no doubt has kept persons, communities and nations out of many a pickle, but it never brought mankind down out of the trees or gave him chicken a la king in place of raw dog.

Conservatism prevented Connecticut from getting into the mess in which, after three years of depression, most of the states of the American Union find themselves.
 But the knowledge that is the dominating note in Connecticut policies spoils any expectation that the glorious vision of Charles Downing Lay will soon be realized.

Charles Downing Lay is a landscape architect of wide experience.
 We take it that he is a summer resident of Stratford, this state. At all events he is the dreamer of a beautiful dream that has about as remote a chance of coming true as any dream that ever was dreamed.

It is all about a wonderful state park. Mr. Lay tells the story in a fascinating pamphlet published by the Milford News. The base of the park would extend for about a dozen miles along the shore of Long Island Sound, straddling the mouth of the Housatonic river and embracing all the Sound frontage of the towns of Stratford and Milford from the Bridgeport City line to the Indian River. Extending north from this base park system Mr. Lay visualizes a riverside parkway on both sides of the Housatonic reaching clear to the Massachusetts line, with boulevards and scenic preservation. This, he conceives, would soon become the greatest summer residential area in the country, as it would almost all be within commuting distance of New York City.

He draws an intriguing picture of the seashore state park, with a number of splendid bathing plants, reclaimed marshlands converted into almost limitless pleasure grounds, athletic fields, etc. There would be several yacht harbors. A new bridge near the mouth of the Housatonic would join Stratford and Milford Points and lend continuity to the shore system.

It would all pay for itself, Mr.
 Lay is convinced, in the tremendous increase in land values throughout the contiguous areas. And it would solve for all time the problem of public access to the shores by the Connecticut public.

If Mr. Lay should be so fortunate as consciously to enjoy the privilege of another incarnation that would bring him back to this earth and to the town of Stratford along about 2033 A. D. he might, possibly, have the privilege of seeing his vision realized. Still, in view of the length of time it has taken Connecticut to make a move in the direction of developing Sherwood Island, that is probably too much to expect. Perhaps it would be wiser, unless he is one of those who do not mind disappointments, to slumber another century—the chances might be a little better by 2133.

TOBACCO CHILDREN
 With much waving of triumphant banners the Connecticut Department of Labor and Factory Inspection announces a great victory. It has succeeded—by what methods it is not difficult to guess—in wringing from a considerable number of tobacco growers an agreement not to employ children under 14 years of age on their plantations.

For several years the tobacco plantations and the employment of children in this branch of agriculture have been a special target for the commissioner of labor. In fact the tobacco farms and the so-called sweatshops appear to have complet-ly filled the eyes of that official and his numerous salaried assistants.
 Dreadful pictures, utterly lacking in truthfulness, have been drawn of the specter of children enslaved in the capacity of the tobacco growers. It has been a trump card for the Labor Department to play in sight of people who have never seen tobacco grown and who have never beheld a truckload of whooping kids returning home at the end of a summer day spent "in the tobacco."

There are operations in tobacco culture which children can perform, because of their small stature, without strain or discomfort, which would break the backs of adults. To the average boy and girl engaged in that work it is sheer "fun"—for which they have always been pretty well paid. Tobacco growers have always been particular to make these jobs attractive to the children; they had to, in order to get the workers. If they had attempted to drive or mistreat the kids they would have had no kids to mistreat or drive.

A good deal of the work in tobacco raising is essentially children's work—or work for small dwarfs; and there is no supply of the latter. It is vacation work.
 Hundreds of boys and girls in the tobacco country have looked forward to this employment, and its rewards, every year for many years, with anticipation. They have come out of the fields brown and tanned, suffering no harm but knowing something of the value of earned money.

It is rather nonsensical to expect that the tobacco growers will, because of the interference of the State Labor Department, attempt to revise the methods of tobacco culture. The work that children have done will, no doubt, continue to be done by children. It is inevitable that the growers who signed this much touted agreement should do so with their tongues in their cheeks.
 About the only result of the furor will be, in all probability, the education of a few boys and girls, and their parents, in the telling of lies about their ages.

IN NEW YORK
 New York, Feb. 26.—On nights when winter's white feathers are slowly binding the giant city, stilling its very voice and making sluggish its arteries, the two rivers meet in East 64th street; the East River and the river of men.

You come first to the river of men. They are, as if symbolically, facing the children because of the ignorance and carelessness of parents in regard to the most elemental
 facts of diet, training and exercise.
 Bowlegs, knock-knees, crooked
 spines, deformed ribs, misplaced
 teeth and similar deformities, although due to a practically insurmountable neglect on the part of parents, when once well established in children, are difficult if not impossible to correct. Deformities may also occur in those who are fully grown because of the habits of living that were formed during childhood.

Any disease, if long continued will change the appearance and generally result in ugliness. The alterations produced by a long-continued disease are usually so pronounced that any competent diagnostician can distinguish a healthy person from a sick one simply by the general appearance. In some cases the changes are so striking that it is possible to recognize the principal disease by a casual inspection.

The one who is hopelessly thin
 may have a natural tendency toward a slim build, but this is usually exaggerated by many errors on the physical and mental plane. Thin people are usually so active physically
 that they burn up too much muscular and nerve tissue; often they are nervous and irritable.

The conditions under which the
 average person lives are not conductive to health or beauty. The one who sits at a desk all day certainly
 has a physical disadvantage compared with the legendary Golden Age when all that was necessary was capering about in play under
 the green trees from which luscious and nourishing fruits fell when one wished to eat them. He who sits at a desk all day often finds that, after a few years, his weight is accumulating around his mid-section. When work requires too much of the sitting posture and does not require sufficient exercise, this tendency must be corrected by taking long walks each day, gradually increasing the distance until the excess baggage is removed.

SILLY CLAIMS
 Readers who are following the developments in Jehol will do well to bear in mind that all news dispatches from Japan or from Manchuria, or any Jehol point yielded by the Chinese to the invaders have been subjected to Japanese military censorship. It is equally important to take into consideration the peculiar policy of the Japanese war machine with relation to the publication of losses in military action.

During the Shanghai campaign last year, it will be remembered, the Japanese reports represented the Chinese defenders as being slain by the hundreds while the casualties of the assaults consisted of "one killed and eight wounded" or some such correspondingly insignificant figure.
 Never would the Japanese admit that the bullets of the Chinese had the power to kill the valiant soldiers of the Mikado save in the rarest instances. As a matter of fact, however, the Japs made some very heavy losses in the Shanghai area and many hundreds of them died in that campaign.

We are getting the same kind of information from Japanese sources concerning the Jehol campaign. It can be disregarded altogether. No troops can advance against entrenched positions, whether the defenders be American doughboys, German machine gunners or Chinese irregulars, without suffering losses more or less heavy. That is what the Japanese are having to do in Jehol. They are attacking an enemy who has selected his own defense position. Wherever there is any resistance some of the attacking forces inevitably must lose their lives, no matter how successful the attack may be.

For the Japanese to pretend that they can kill their enemies by the selves, and to expect anybody outside of Japan to believe it, is merely silly.

OLD DEALING TRICK
 President-elect Roosevelt is not going to give us a 100 per cent "new deal." In one respect at least he is following a thoroughly stuffed and mounted tradition; he is picking his postmaster-general not for any special ability as a director of the immensely important postal activities of a great nation but for his genius as a "practical" politician.

It is so long since a postmaster-general was selected with a view to skillful administration of the postal service that the incident, if ever it occurred, is lost in the dimness of antiquity. Postmaster-generals have been picked, for a long, long time, by whatever party was in power, with a sole view to their usefulness in perpetuating that party in office.

The result has been what might have been expected. It has been that in the country with the biggest postal business in the world and in face of the facts of tremendously improved transportation facilities, the postoffice service of the United States is slower, less accurate and infinitely less considerate of public convenience than in half a dozen other countries of the world.

 The United States postoffice service, as a whole, has not begun to keep pace with the general progress of the country. In some ways it is not even as good as it was thirty years ago.

The reason is obvious. The postal service has been subordinated to politics. The boss of the service has been, for many years, invariably a partisan politician first, last and all the time.

Mr. Farley has proven himself the ablest practical politician in the Democratic party. He probably knows a postoffice from a fish market. He is to be the new head of the service. To that extent, at least, Mr. Roosevelt is conforming to the old type of deal—from the bottom.

CHRONIC ILLNESS OFTEN CHANGES PHYSICAL SHAPE

Why some people are deformed while others are pleasing to the eye, why some are hopelessly thin and others eat a wholesome shadow and some are short and others tall, are problems that come under the research of that branch of science called morphology. We may do well to study this subject and its relation to the human form. By doing so we realize that most defects and deformities that are not due to accidents or injury are entirely preventable. Heredity plays a comparatively small part as a cause of defects and these could be entirely avoided if people would at least pay as much attention to the selection of their life partner as a cattle man does in the selection of his stock.
 The conformation of the various muscles, bones and tissues that make up our bodies and the postures we assume are all the results of our physical and mental habits.

By far the greatest number of life-long deformities are started in infants and children because of the ignorance and carelessness of parents in regard to the most elemental
 facts of diet, training and exercise.
 Bowlegs, knock-knees, crooked
 spines, deformed ribs, misplaced
 teeth and similar deformities, although due to a practically insur-
 mountable neglect on the part of parents, when once well established in
 children, are difficult if not impossible to correct. Deformities may also occur in those who are fully
 grown because of the habits of living that were formed during childhood.

Any disease, if long continued will
 change the appearance and generally result in ugliness. The alterations
 produced by a long-continued disease are usually so pronounced that
 any competent diagnostician can
 distinguish a healthy person from a
 sick one simply by the general appearance. In some cases the changes are so striking that it is possible to
 recognize the principal disease by a casual inspection.

The one who is hopelessly thin
 may have a natural tendency toward a slim build, but this is usually
 exaggerated by many errors on the physical and mental plane. Thin people are usually so active physically
 that they burn up too much muscular and nerve tissue; often they are
 nervous and irritable.

The conditions under which the
 average person lives are not conductive to health or beauty. The one who sits at a desk all day certainly
 has a physical disadvantage compared with the legendary Golden Age when all that was necessary
 was capering about in play under
 the green trees from which luscious
 and nourishing fruits fell when one wished to eat them. He who sits at
 a desk all day often finds that, after
 a few years, his weight is accumulating around his mid-section. When
 work requires too much of the sitting posture and does not require
 sufficient exercise, this tendency
 must be corrected by taking long
 walks each day, gradually increas-
 baggage is removed.

HEALTH-DIET ADVICE
 BY DR. FRANK MCCUYY

Questions in regard to health and diet will be answered by Dr. McCuyy who can be addressed in care of this paper. Answers stamped, unreturnable envelopes not reply.

Artists in seeking standards for physical beauty often refer to the classic statues of ancient Greece, such as Venus, Apollo, and Hercules. It is impossible to imagine that the models for these statues were ill in any way. How incongru-it is to think of Hercules being afflicted with tuberculosis, or Diana with rheumatism, or Apollo with biliousness. In examining patients in my office I sometimes sketch outlines of their physical build and it is an invariable rule that when the health of the patient improves through proper diet, exercise and treatment his physical propensities come closer to those that are considered beautiful. I sometimes observe astounding changes in the patients who faithfully follow the same methods that I advocate daily in this column. Many thin and sagging old men, whose physical build into astounding beauty, even in cases that appeared hopeless in the beginning.

It is not pleasing to gaze upon round-shoulders and crooked spines, nor is it healthy to be so deformed.
 All of the stoop-shouldered types will be found to have a poor respiratory function and the cure is found in taking exercises that strengthen the back muscles and increase the breathing capacity. There is undoubtedly a definite connection between health and beauty, not the temporary fleeting beauty of cosmetics but the permanent loveliness that seems to radiate health.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS
 (Myocosis Fungoides) Question: R. R. asks: "Will you please give some information about myocosis fungoides? What causes it?
 One of my brothers is thought to have this disease."
 Answer: Myocosis fungoides is a very serious skin disease marked by development on the face, scalp and chest of firm, reddish tumors which are painful and which have a tendency to spread and ulcerate.
 This disease causes a serious poisoning of the system and is very dangerous. It seems to be caused by a bacterial infection of a fungus nature. Of course, this explanation could not determine whether or not your brother has this disease, as there are a number of less serious disturbances which may closely resemble it. A careful bacteriological examination would make the distinction possible.

(Darkness Around Mouth)
 Question: Mr. Lemuel G. asks:
 "Just what causes darkness around the mouth, mostly under the nose?
 Is it kidney trouble? Also what causes me to rub my eyes a lot?
 What wash is good?"
 Answer: Darkness of the skin around the mouth usually comes from some liver derangement which is usually due to faulty diet. Your eyes may itch because of irritation of the mucous membrane of the eyelids from the discharge of irritating toxins, but you may need glasses, and should surely consult an eye specialist who can advise you to wear glasses or to use an eye wash which he would recommend.

Behind the Scenes in WASHINGTON

ROOSEVELT WILL WIELD RECORD-BREAKING POWER
 By RODNEY DUTCHER

Washington—Congress will give Mr. Roosevelt full dictatorial powers, but its delegation of legislative functions will combine with other factors to give him far more power than any other president has had in time of peace.

Even if he is only permitted to abolish federal bureaus and out-expenses up to a stipulated percentage, the power of the executive will be taking its longest jump in a history of gradual, constant expansion. Presidents have been seizing or being delegated added powers from the beginning, and long ago it was possible to say that they had more power than almost any European monarch.

New Congress has come to the point where it actually admits that certain fields in which it can't do the business entrusted to it by the Constitution. One such field is that of government reorganization, although the primary complicating factor there is that no two persons agree on how the government should be reorganized, and it's necessary to give the job to one man and trust his judgment. The principal other field is that of expenses for veterans, which congressmen dare not vote because they fear the veterans' wrath.

A president who is permitted to abolish government activities and jobs to the hilt's content, subject only to a reputation by a party representation in Congress of which he probably will be in full control, becomes nearly all-powerful.

That prerogative is added to his veto power, which has been vastly developed since the early days; to his right to remove all appointive officials, confirmed by the courts, a few years ago; to his almost invariable ability to bring about his own re-election and to the multiplicity of emergency powers affected all citizens within certain limits, confirmed by the courts, a few years ago.

You're likely to stand in awe at the power that will be

JAP FORCES MEETING WITH STIFF RESISTANCE

Casualties at 1,000 and claimed 600 Japanese were killed and wounded near Lingyuan.

After scaling Lingyuan heights, the Japanese expect to make a speedy advance over the 75 mile highway to Jehol City.

The other main offensive, driving down the mountain, was reported as having been successful.

Bombing planes had to be rushed south from here to help them smash a mixed force of Chinese and Japanese volunteers called the "Blood and Steel Corps."

The force which passed through Kailu and was approaching Chih-feng, including Major Gen. Kameyama's cavalry brigade, leading the way, the sixth Division under Lt. Gen. Masayemon Sakamoto, and the native Manchukuan army under General Chang Hai-peng.

The Manchukuan army established headquarters at Kailu and plans to move it next to Chih-feng. Ultimately it is to be established in Jehol City, if the campaign to bring the province under the Japanese-sponsored government of Manchukuo is successful.

These Japanese and Manchukuan troops were reported to have driven the strongest Chinese volunteer chief in eastern Jehol, Feng Chan-hai, out of his base yesterday.

The Japanese announcements have mentioned only 14 wounded and one slain, those being in General Sunuki's veteran force. These casualties were reported to have occurred before reaching Chaoyang.

COLUMBIA SPORTS GIVEN CLEAN BILL BY INVESTIGATORS

Committee Finds No Evidence To Support Charge of Professionalism At University in New York.

New York, Feb. 27.—(AP)—The special committee of five has completed its study of Columbia University athletics and discovered little to criticize. Appointed to the task after charges of professionalism had been printed by the Spectator, school paper, the committee in its formal report to Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler yesterday, said its investigation had revealed no evidence of favoritism toward athletes nor of recruiting and subsidizing. As a matter of fact, the investigating body recommended that greater facilities for athletic participation be provided.

"We find that the facilities at Columbia for games, play and outdoor sports are meagre," the report said. "The facilities for healthful outdoor exercise are not only insufficient for the entire university body but are inadequate for the undergraduate body of 1,800 students in Columbia college. The committee recommended more practice fields, a new gymnasium, development of Junior varsity and 100-pound football teams, appointment of coaches by the trustees and handling of athletic funds by the university treasurer, and the cutting down of schedules and training hours to the minimum required for safe play."

NAME NINE GOLFERS TO RYDER CUP TEAM

Olin Dutra and Paul Runyan Are Newcomers; Hagen Again Captain.

New York, Feb. 27.—(AP)—Two newcomers to Ryder Cup Golf competition have been named along with seven veterans of one or more international struggles to attempt the difficult task of beating the British Professionals in their own back yard next June. These two new men are Olin Dutra, winner of the professional golfers' association championship last year, and Paul Runyan, who performed brilliantly all through 1932 and recently won the Gasparilla open tournament at Tampa, Fla.

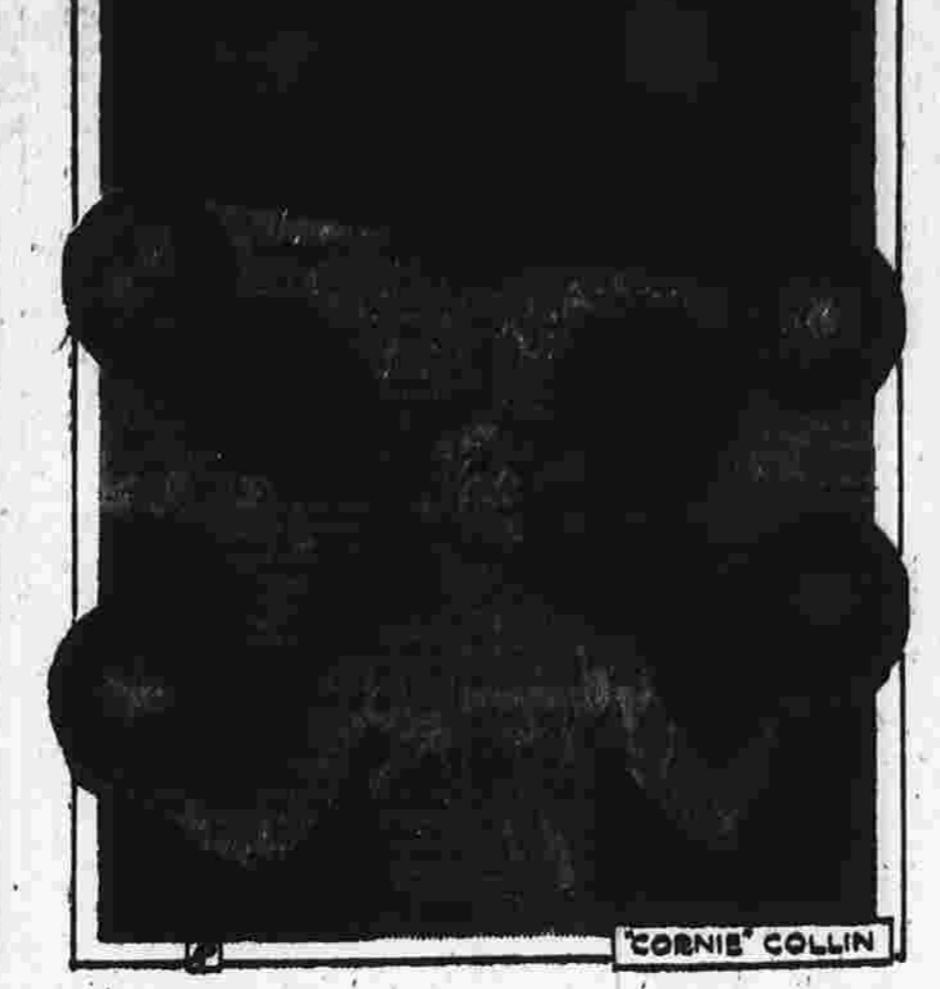

Walter Hagen again was chosen captain of the American team and he will have the experienced backing of Gene Sarazen 1932 British and American open champion; Denmore Shute, Craig Wood, Dudley, Leo Diegel and Horton Smith when the biennial series is played at Southport, England, June 28 and 29.

If an American homebred pro not included in this list should win the national championship at Chicago in June, he will be added as a tenth member of the team.

The team was selected by the Executive Committee of the P. G. A., headed by President George R. Jacobs, with the aid of an advisory vote of the presidents of the 25 sectional groups making up the national association. Performances during the past year largely dictated the makeup of the team.

One Year Ago Today—Fritz Crisler, director of athletics at the University of Minnesota, was made head football coach at Princeton University. W. C. Weant's Wife Anne won the $2000 Nursery Stakes at Hialeah Park, Miami.

INDIES UPSET SONS OF ITALY BY 24-20

Leaders Fall In Rec League; Celtics Top Dills, Taffey's Beat Newsies.

The East Side Recreation building, basketball league went into the third and final round of play Saturday night with the Independents upsetting the league leading Sons of Italy 24-20. The Celtics winning over the Dills 15-10, and the Original Taffey's winning over the Newsies, 44-29. The Herald's beat minus the service of their two foremost players, Schults and Sheldon.

RANGERS CHANCES LOOK THE BEST IN AMER ICE CIRCUIT

Are Only a Point Behind Detroit and Have More Home Games To Play; Bisons' Lead Cut Sharply.

New York, Feb. 27.—(AP)—With the waning National Hockey League season down to where each team has no more than ten games left and some of them as few as eight, fans have begun to inspect the schedules for an indication of how the two big struggles for playoff positions will come out.

Although the Detroit Red Wings got a bit the better of the argument in the American division last week and hold the lead with eight games to go, the prospects look better for the New York Rangers.

Detroit won the week's "big" game Thursday, shutting out the Rangers 8-0, but they could get 10 better than a 1-1 tie with the New York Americans, who played splendid defensive hockey, last night.

As a result, the Rangers are only a point behind Detroit and six of their remaining games will be played at their home rink while the Red Wings play five out of eight on the road.

The three-way international division race went unchanged with the Montreal Maroons, New York Americans and Montreal Canadiens holding second, third and fourth places in order, separated by four-point intervals.

FEATHERWEIGHT BOUT New York, Feb. 27.—(AP)—Baby Arismendi of Mexico and Freddie Miller of Cincinnati—two of the three claimants of the featherweight championship—met at Los Angeles tomorrow night in the one outstanding bout of this week's National Boxing schedule.

The winner of tomorrow's bout should go far toward clearing up the tangled situation forced upon the 128-pound division when Christopher (Bud) Battalino found he no longer could make the weight. Miller is the National Boxing Association title-holder at the weight while Arismendi is recognized by the California Commission. The winner of tomorrow's bout will have to recheck as with the third claimant, Kid Chocolate of Cuba, who is recognized by the New York State Athletic Commission.

OUTCLASSES FIELD IN 3,000 METER EVENT TO GAIN TRIUMPH EASILY

Runs Eight Seconds Faster Than Ever Before To Finish in 9:06.2, Despite Bad Cold; Vonzke Beats Cunningham in Feature 1,500 Meter Run of National A. A. U. Meet.

New York, Feb. 27.—(AP)—The original entry sheet for the twenty-fourth annual indoor meet of the Intercollegiate Association of Amateur Athletes of America listed 959 runners, jumpers and weight men from 27 colleges. Of these some 600, the plus the 100, who arrive to win points and championships at the 20th Field Artillery Army Saturday night or at the Squadron "A" Armory, where the 50-pound weight throw will be held in the afternoon.

Completely outclassing a field of eight runners, Manchester's Joe McCluskey ran around the Madison square Garden track in 9:06.2 Saturday night to set a new world's record for the 3,000 meter steeplechase event of the indoor nationals. His time was amazingly low, being 8 minutes, 6 1/8 seconds. This is eight seconds faster than he ever ran before.

McCluskey's feat was all the more surprising when it was learned after the race that he had been suffering from a bad cold, so severe in fact that he was at the verge of not competing. With a week's rest, however, he expects to be in good condition again for the defense of his two-mile intercollegiate title next Saturday. No college athlete ever won the event three years in succession and McCluskey has already bagged the trophy twice.

Lacks Excitement. McCluskey's race Saturday night was not exciting due to lack of dangerous opposition. Harold Manning of Wichita, Kan., who appeared to be Joe's foremost rival, was almost lapped at the finish, trailing McCluskey by more than 100 yards. Manning finished second and Sam Grodzman of the New York University A. A. came in third with Mike Portanova of the Boston A. A. fourth.

McCluskey lapped every one of the runners except Manning and Grodzman. The others included Paul de Bruyn of the German-American A. C. of New York; Robert MacInnes of the Millrose A. A. of New York; Edward Welle of the Seventh Regiment of New York; Joseph Adelphi of the Nativity C. C. of Philadelphia and Al Kelly of New York.

Lays Back At First. Running in his usual style, McCluskey was content to let other men set the pace after the first half lap. He dropped back as far as fifth during the early stages of the race and did not begin to close the gap until late in the last ten laps. In fact he waited until but four remained before he took the lead from Manning and then what a beating he proceeded to administer to his rivals! Try as he did, Manning could not begin to match the long smooth strides of the feet-footed Manchester boy. As a result he dropped behind.

McCluskey took the edge of the finish making it dull and unexciting except for McCluskey's attempt to set a world's record. The steeplechase course was around a banked wooden track about 150 meters in circumference and only two barriers were placed for the athletes to clear. It was not nearly as difficult as the outdoor steeplechase course at the Olympics in Los Angeles, where McCluskey placed second in the New York University A. A. race in 1935. He was a very tired young man at the finish. During the last few laps his face plainly showed his exhaustion.

A half hour later in his dressing quarters despite a retching stomach, McCluskey plainly showed the effects of the race and his touch of the grip. Between coughing spells, he spoke of his disappointment at not winning fourth place in the college relay. He was happy, however, over his new steeplechase mark and now looks ahead to the intercollegiate.

Not Yet At Peak. Commenting on McCluskey's career, Mr. Ferris said he did not believe the Manchester athlete has yet reached his peak. "He's coming along in fine shape and I look for him to set many more new records," he stated. "Manchester should be proud of that boy," he concluded.

More than 15,000 people packed the Garden to watch the indoor nationals. Among them were half a dozen from Manchester, including Miss Ellen McCluskey, Joe's young sister who is a few days past her Manchester High. It was the first big race that Ellen has seen and she was thrilled beyond words watching her brother run to a world's record.

Several athletes who have raced McCluskey in many of his past races, competed in the 5,000 meter run. They included George Larnond, who won the event in 1938 4-5; Johnny Fellows, who placed second; Paul Bakera, who came in third; Paul Kelly, the only runner to defeat McCluskey this year; and placing fourth; and George Foster, another of Joe's big rivals, who came in fifth.

Homosassa, was expected today.
Bobby Reis, young third baseman, and outfielder Max Rosenfeld arrived some time ago for preliminary workouts.

Avalon, Calif., Feb. 27.—(AP)— Babe Herman, who is expected to do a lot of hitting for the Cubs this year, today was credited with his first training camp home run, even though it was made off the pitching efforts of a catcher.

PERKINS TAKES PLACE
OF MITCHELL, RESIGNED

Head of National City Bank
Quits—Directors Quickly
Fill Vacancy — Perkins
Head of Farmers Trust Co.

Charles E. Mitchell

New York, Feb. 27.—(AP)—
The resignation of Charles E. Mitchell as chairman of the National City Bank was accepted today at a meeting of the board.

The board elected James H. Perkins, president of the City Bank Farmers Trust Company, a National City affiliate, as chairman to succeed Mitchell.

Perkins became president of the Farmers Loan and Trust Company in 1921. He became president and director of the City Bank Farmers Trust and a director of the National City Bank when the National City
Bank acquired control of Farmers Loan and Trust.

Perkins will immediately assume his duties as chairman of the National City Bank.

Speedy Action
The directors acted with dispatch in Mitchell's resignation, made public only last night. The meeting had been called for 9 a. m., and a little more than ten minutes later announcement of the acceptance and the selection of a successor was made by the board.

In becoming chairman of the National City Bank, Perkins returns to the institution which he served as a vice president in the war years, when Frank A. Vanderlip was president.

He left the National City Bank two years before Mitchell became president, but was brought back into the National City organization again in April of 1929, when the National City acquired the Farmers Loan and Trust Co., then a $200,- 000 organization.

Perkins, like Mitchell, is a native of Massachusetts, born in Milton, Jan. 11, 1876. He graduated from Harvard in 1898, and for seven years was employed by Walter Baker & Co. Ltd., chocolate manufacturers.

He entered banking in 1905, becoming vice president of the American Trust Co. of Boston. Three years later he went to Albany, N.
Y., to become a vice president of the National Commercial Bank of that city. He eventually headed that institution, becoming president in 1912.

ALL-AROUND SPORTS
TITLE IS CLAIMED
BY SO. CALIFORNIA

Single Decade Sees Trojans Rise To Power In Virtually Every Branch of Athletic Endeavor.

By PAUL ZIMMERMAN
(Associated Press Sports Writer)
Los Angeles, Feb. 24.—(AP)— Name most any sport from football to fencing, and University of Southern California followers of athletics will pop up with unimpeachable evidence to show that a Trojan team has won a championship at least once since 1920.

Such is the record of an institution of higher learning which, less than a decade ago scarcely had been heard from outside the city limits of Los Angeles.

The Trojan football team won the Pacific Coast conference title in 1931 and 1932 and the national title in 1931. There are many who consider the 1932 eleven, unbeaten and untied in ten games, the nation's championship aggregation.

In 1926, 1928, 1930, 1931 and 1932 the Trojan tracksters brought home the I. A. A. A. A. championship trophy and the National Interlegiate crown in 1930 and 1931.
They did not compete at Chicago last spring.

Superior Baseball
The California intercollegiate baseball champions in 1930 and again last spring were the Trojans.
Southern California won the conference basketball crown in 1930.
In water polo, ice hockey, tennis, golf, gymnastics and fencing, Trojan teams and individuals have won the California state titles. There were no coast championships except in golf, which Troy won last spring.

But the parade of the Trojan warriors does not stop here. The individual brilliance of Southern California's athletes over the three year period of time demands equal attention.

Erny Finkert and Ernie Smith were All-American grid stars of 1931 and 1932. Seven track and field stars were on the 1932 Olympic games team, including Frank Wy-koff, the world's 100-yard record holder, William Graber, applicant for the world's pole vault record, and Duncan McNaughton, Canada's Olympic high jumper.

Lillian Copeland, all-around diver, was on the women's team.

Clarence (Buster) Crabbe, Olympic 400-meter free style swimming record holder and 1932 champion, and Mickey Riley, Olympic spring board diving champion, were Trojans during this period.

Ellsworth Vines, Jr., was a honorary All-American tennis player in 1931 and 1932. Mary Groves was national intercollegiate tennis title holder in 1931 and Helen Kesslow shared the national women's tennis hard court championship.

ALMOST BLIND MAN
CALLED A SWINDLER

conversation to the Stock Market.
Assistant County Prosecutor Emerich Freed said the woman told him they were impressed by the blind man's apparent judgment and turned the money over to him readily.

Daily, they told him he called from his office to tell them how their stock had increased in value. But none of them saw any of the profits and one day in May, 1930, he disappeared.

Circulars were sent throughout the nation asking his arrest but Cleveland police said they had not heard from him until his arrest in Boston yesterday soon after he left a church, where, he said, he went to pray for his eyes.

The indictment on which he will face trial if returned here, Freed said, charges that he obtained money under false pretenses. It was sworn out by Mrs. Rose Koster of Shaker Heights, who said she lost the thousand dollars she "invested" in Brewer's stock.

RECOGNIZED BY USER
Boston, Feb. 27.—(AP)— John William Brewer of Cleveland was today recognized in connection with a $100,000 swindle in Cleveland in 1930.

Brewer, 67, and almost totally blind was arrested yesterday as he left a Boston church. He was recognized by police today in connection with the church and Burd's mother, Mrs. Louisa M. Burd, as a man sought in connection with the defrauding of Mrs. Caroline Gerber of Cleveland in an oil stock deal.

The Burd said they met Brewer at the Gerber home in 1930 while visiting there. Mrs. Gerber is the widow of a wealthy bridge builder.

Brewer, a charity guest at a Salvation Army hotel, had $93 in his pocket when arrested. He was accompanied by a man who assisted him in walking and police said he told them he had gone to the church to pray for better eyesight.

Cleveland police said they saw a warrant for Brewer charging he obtained money under false pretenses.

Sweet Young Thing—And is this the cut-out?

HEALTH HINTS FOR MOTORISTS:

1. Don't run over the motor cop's feet—you may poll his shine.
2. Avoid trying to beat the fire truck to the corner—picking you up may delay the fire fighters.
3. Don't use a rubber tire when you want to clip off a chunk of curbing.
4. Take along a girl with a new engagement ring to do the signaling—she likes to wave her hand.
5. Always give a woman driver enough room to change her mind—and then some.
6. Don't crowd a heavy truck to the curb—it wears out the curbing.
7. Don't sass the cop. If you want to sass anybody step up to a mirror and go to it.
8. A chicken at the wheel often leads to the kind of driving that means a chicken under the wheel.
9. Always try to beat the engineer to the crossing—it sort of livens up the dullness of his life.

MANCHESTER SINGERS IN STAMFORD CONCERT

More than 125 members of the Hartford District Luther League chorus, with nearly thirty singers from the Emanuel Lutheran church here, presented a sacred concert at the Methodist Episcopal church in Stamford last night. Helge E. Pearson directed the chorus and Miss Helen Berggren, contralto, was one of the soloists.

The concert was arranged in connection with a rehearsal of the chorus in Stamford at 4:30 o'clock, in preparation for the concert to be given at the Bushnell Memorial on Sunday, April 2, by the combined districts of the New England Conference.

The local singers made the trip by bus, leaving here at noon. The Stamford Swedish Lutheran church entertained the chorus and served refreshments before and after the concert in the evening. The Rev. P. Fry, D.D., executive secretary of the Board of American Missions of the United Synod, was the speaker at the service.

HIGH SCHOOL NEWS

M. H. S. students thrilled with pride when the report of Joe McCluskey's Saturday night victory with a new record enabled this local boy to retain his place as steeplechase champion of the nation. Another local high school graduate, however, has recently brought attention to Manchester on the collegiate indoor track. Bernard J. Sheridan, running in third position, enabled the Bates College one-mile relay team to set a new Class B record in defeating Amherst and Northeastern last week.

The race was one of a series of college relay races at the New England Intercollegiate Meet of the University Club held in Boston. Newspaper accounts state that Amherst gained the lead during the first leg of the relay with Bates running in second place and Northeastern third. The second Bates runner, Jack Lary, ran a beautiful race to hand the baton to "Red" Sheridan on even terms with Amherst's third runner, "Sheridan," a good dash man, who some thought would never be able to last the quarter mile, ran a fine race to hand the baton to Captain Arnold Adams, with less than a five-yard handicap which he quickly made up, winning with fifteen yards to spare. It was a thrilling race throughout.

It will be remembered that "Red" Sheridan was one of Coach Wigren's reliable dash men at M. H. S. and after graduation in '26 was prominent at several winter sports carnivals as a speed skater.

Notes Miss Gertrude Oshropf is spending the week's vacation in Boston.

Miss Mary Burke plans to spend part of the week in New York.

Miss Eleanor Rogers will leave for New York early tomorrow morning to spend part of the week there.

Miss Harriet D. Condon is at her home in Ipswich, Mass., during this week.

Miss Mary McGuire intends to spend part of the week in New York.

The combined Glee Clubs are asked to meet at the Lutheran church at 9:30 on Friday morning of this week. Following the rehearsal, the students plan to go on a hike if weather permits and they are requested to bring a lunch.

A. & N. CLUBHOUSE PACKED FOR PARTY

First Ladies Night Brings 164 Couples Out Despite Heavy Snowstorm.

A record attendance of 164 couples at the first annual "Ladies' Night," sponsored by the Army and Navy club Saturday night, in spite of the heavy snowstorm, proved beyond a shadow of doubt the success of future attractions sponsored by this ex-service club. A chicken dinner prepared by Chef David McCollum and an excellent program of entertainment was the magnet that filled the entire clubhouse for four hours' fun and policy, and will be, in the words of President Clarence Martin, "the forerunner of other affairs of like nature" in the future.

Clubhouse Filled When the snow began falling early Saturday afternoon the clubhouse was soon filled to capacity with the officers of the club and the Ladies' Auxiliary conceived the social affair, were skeptical of the outcome. But at eight o'clock the clubhouse was filled with a representative group of Manchester ex-servicemen, their wives, mothers, or sweethearts, the prevailing doubt was soon dispelled.

As the diners sat at the long rows of tables extending from one end of the clubhouse to the other, Mrs. V. A. Thornfelt, chairman of the storm and a fairly large audience heard him preach on "The key to revival." In this first meeting he formed an orchestra of six bandmen and piano and with their help he led a half hour of singing of choruses many of which are new to this locality. This method of congregational singing he plans to use in all his meetings.

Sunday morning his topic was "Love that loses and lifts." In the afternoon he spoke on "The tree of life," and at night he brought "The open door." He gave different aspects of a door; first was the door of prayer or approach to God, illustrating it by the story of an English sergeant-major who was killed because none of his thirteen were saved and who replied "Well I've lived a good life before them and have prayed for them constantly and that's all I can do."

Mr. Henry Strang, Mrs. P. J. O'Connell, Mrs. Mary Irish, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Dillon and Mrs. Mary Hickey.

During the banquet war songs were sung by the diners to the accompaniment of Ferrar's piano and cordon. Door prizes were won by Miss Josie Keating, John Cavagnaro, Walter Tedford, Mrs. John Mahoney, Paul Dougan, Mrs. John Arthur Keating, every minute good lucky tickets being drawn by Joey Benedict, Jr., eight-year-old entertainer who acted as master of ceremonies during the evening.

Present Clarence Martin, of the Army and Navy club welcomed the guests of the evening, and the regular monthly business meeting of the club was tabled until the next meeting.

Entertainment In honor of the Manchester boys who died during the World War, the assembly waited with bowed heads in a moment of silence. Secretary Arthur Keating presided. Five of all Manchester ex-service organizations lined the banquet hall, the Manchester Gold Star flag centered in the group.

Following the banquet, Chairman Martin introduced Joey Benedict, Jr., a capable little youngster, in whom the entertainment arts were splendidly magnified. Joey sang and danced his way into the hearts of the guests and introduced in return the Ithea Burk Sisters, dancing team, Ferrar, piano accompanist and banjoist, Chansy and Hart in comedy and chatter with Ivan White the piano thump-out the entertainment.

The dinner menu was fruit cocktail, anti-pasto, celery, olives, radishes, rolls, spaghetti, chicken, ginger-cake and whipped cream. Joyous and happy every minute good during the period of dancing at 11 o'clock.

The club management was well pleased with the success of the first annual Ladies' Night and other affairs of like nature will be planned in the future months.

Miss Elizabeth Deadalus, 32, of 109 Maple street, was struck and slightly injured by a car driven by Alfred Galland of Putnam street, night at 7:45 on East Center street near the intersection of Hill street during the snowstorm. Miss Deadalus had been visiting on Brookfield street and was crossing East Center street to the south side when the Galland car, going west, chided on the icy street, the rear end of the car striking Miss Deadalus, knocking her down.

The Galland car slid into collision with an automobile going east, operated by Frederick A. Warren of Rockville, throwing Mrs. Olive M. Warren forward from the back seat, spraining her back and injuring her hip.

Miss Deadalus was taken to her home and was treated for a laceration of the scalp. Both cars were badly damaged. No other arrests were found by Sergeant McGinn, the investigating officer.

BOTH C. N. G. COMPANIES TO BE INSPECTED TONIGHT

Major James A. Barratt, of New Haven, U. S. Army instructor, will inspect Company G and the Howitzer company at the Armory this evening. Both companies are at their required strength and every member is expected to be in attendance at the formation this evening.

The uniform for the inspection will be Maltins, Ferring cap, flannel shirt, black cravat, service shoes and leggings. An inspection of the company records and equipment will be held at 8 o'clock this afternoon. Major Barratt will be accompanied by a member of the Adjutant General's staff, and an officer of the 169th Regimental staff.

Colonel William Morehen of Toronto, Canada, conducted four meetings at the S. A. Citadel during the week-end and was gratified with impressions made and results secured. SAYS TRUTH IS LOST IN MODERN CHURCH

Nazarene Revivalist Deplores "Rambling Theology," Crowds At Services.

The need of preaching the "whole truth, and nothing but the truth" in the modern church was emphasized by Evangelist A. B. Carey of Beacon, N. Y., in the opening service of the two weeks series sponsored by the First Church of the Nazarene, Main street yesterday. The rambling theologues of the present day, dedicated to the exclusion of Jesus Christ were denounced, the speaker demanding that a religion embracing that of Paul be introduced, to the end that "Christ be Lifted Up" in the church and Him alone, for the good of all Christians.

S. S. Baily The simple yet beautiful story of the meeting in Ephesus of Apollos, learned and eloquent Jew and mighty man of the scriptures, with Aquila and Priscilla was the theme of the morning sermon yesterday. Subsequent to the morning service a great rally of the Nazarene Sunday school was held, at which a total of 307 members and visitors attended in spite of the stormy weather and poor traveling.

The story of Apollos, the Alexandrian Jew, born in the seat of learning in Asia Minor, eloquent according to the standards of the day, a deep student of the scriptures and numbered among those that had translated the scriptures from the Hebrew into Greek, held the attention of the large congregation during the service. It was Apollos who having studied diligently the scriptures his race could preach the most eloquent of sermons and teach better than the average Jew, the hidden secrets of his ancient forebears, yet who himself had but reached the halcyon mark in the course of the Christian—the baptism of John, the baptism of the Christian way, yet having had no deeper or more intimate experience with the Holy Spirit.

Greater Glory And Apollos, as the story unfolded, went into the synagogue to preach and the record says he "spoke boldly" the while, discoursing on his limited knowledge of the baptism of John. Among his listeners were Aquila and his wife Priscilla, driven from Rome by Claudius, and who subsequently had worked at tentmaking with Paul, "because they were of the same craft." The Roman Jew and his wife knew of the "Gift of the Holy Spirit" and it was while Apollos was expounding his primary doctrine in the Faith that they met and talked with him and told him of the greatness or glory to be found in the Holy Spirit as Paul taught. The record shows that Apollos was quick to grasp the significance of his lack, and in his later teachings convinced the Jews publicly, "showing that Jesus was Christ."

Evangelist Carey explained the entrance into the deeper knowledge came through enlargement of the heart and reception of what is all-ready—the Holy Ghost. The church of today, at the lack of the Faithful type of religion, is not taught today in the churches, the speaker asserted.

"Suppose the Church would preach Christ today instead of George Washington or Abraham Lincoln or other historical characters? What would happen? The church today should keep Christ—and Him alone in mind. Let Washington and Lincoln rest in peace—they have gone to their reward. The church is concerned today with Christ—it must preach Christ—and "Him Crucified" as Paul says.

French Christ "Let the politicians preach about Washington and Lincoln and history. They'll lie to you afterward. Let the churches everywhere preach Christ and "Let Him Be Lifted Up." Pastor Carey stated that he could tell the status of the average church-goer by the type of preaching that he has been having in his church, basically the Christian quality of the preacher whose primary duty to his flock which is to uphold and magnify Christ.

"The deepest and most perfect way of life is not always propounded from the pulpit. We often find that listeners have taken a post-graduate course in the religion of Jesus Christ as did Aquila and Priscilla of Ephesus."

At the evening service Rev. Carey took his text from Psalm 121: 1: "I will lift mine eyes unto the hills from whence cometh my help." The evangelist spoke of the progression of Christianity from the giving of the law on Mt. Sinai to the Transfiguration and the promise of Eternal life given by Jesus on Mt. Hermon.

Musical Services The Nazarene College Quartet from Wollaston, Mass., rendered a total of 33 selections, all services of the Nazarene Church well attended. The Nazarene Church band played during the Sunday school service at 9 o'clock and at the evening service. Evangelist Carey will preach each week night, except Saturday, at 7:30 p. m. A deep student of the bible, the New York Nazarene evangelist has spent thirty years in church and evangelistic work, and brings a clear understandable message on Holiness and the simple yet important steps along the way of the Christian.

MANCHESTER ADMIRERS SEE McCLUSKEY VICTORY

At least seven Manchester people watched Joe McCluskey set a new world's indoor steeplechase record Saturday night in Madison Square Garden, New York City. Among them was Joe's 14-year-old sister, Ellen, who is a freshman at Manchester High school. It was the first time she had ever seen her brother run in a major race. Ellen motored to New York with Mr. and Mrs. William Sharp, Sr., of Summit street and during her stay in New York was the guest of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. William J. McStee. She was accompanied by her cousins, Misses Lillian and Josephine McStee, and the track meet was a most enjoyable one. All three remained in New York over the week-end and will return home tomorrow.

Also from Manchester were Charles Donahue, Thomas Danaher, Thomas W. Stowe and Miss Marion McNeil.

POLICE COURT

Stanley Polinski of 84 Union street was sentenced to serve sixty days in jail by Judge Raymond Johnson in police court this morning. He was convicted on charges of intoxication and assault. The arrest was made by Patrolman Raymond Griffin on complaint of the man's wife who testified that her husband had been drunk and violent in the assault and that she had been injured.

George Coleman of Birch street who has a year's suspended sentence from Superior Court hanging over his head, was sentenced to 90 days in jail by Judge Raymond Johnson on charges of intoxication, breach of peace and assault. His wife, Helen and daughter Margaret, made the complaint. They testified that he struck them and was running around the house in a drunken condition with a knife in his hand.
