

HULL CONFERS WITH LINDSAY ON ECONOMIES

Secretary of State and British Ambassador Seek Means of Improving the Level of World Prices.

Washington, April 3.—(AP)—Means of improving the level of world prices were discussed today in a resumption of economic conversations between Secretary Hull and Ambassador Lindsay of Great Britain at the State Department.

A joint statement by Hull and Lindsay afterward said: "The informal conferences concerning world economic conditions continued today, ranging over the general subject of world price levels."

The improvement of world prices is among the subjects on the program of the world monetary and economic conference to be held this summer in London.

While no date was set for resuming the discussions, Ambassador Lindsay said an appointment would be made soon.

While no details were given as to the nature of the discussion of price levels, one method that has been mentioned for restoring equilibrium is to limit supply. This would be done by international economic agreements in the case of such products as wheat, timber and coal.

Another proposal that has been advanced is international lending to put purchasing power into the hands of countries with limited supply of domestic capital.

Six men participated in the conference. As usual, Hull was joined by Assistant Secretary Moley and Dr. Herbert Feis, economic advisor. Mr. Donald was accompanied by T. K. Bewley and H. O. Chalkley, financial and commercial counselors.

PREPARING TO CUT VETERANS' PENSIONS

Field Workers Sent Out To Follow Orders Issued By the President.

Washington, April 3.—(AP)—Instructions to field workers were prepared today by the veterans administration to carry out President Roosevelt's order for a slashing cut of $400,000,000 in annual benefits paid to war veterans.

The chief executive's action hits all along the line, with officials indicating that new construction at veterans hospitals will be held up unless the improvements already started under way. Some institutions may even be closed if conditions warrant.

The biggest savings, about $100,000,000 will come through removing from the benefit lists all veterans whose injuries or sickness are non-service connected, unless the victims are totally or permanently disabled. Those totally or permanently disabled, even though not regarded as service-connected, will receive only $20 a month as compared with $40.

The new allowances, effective July 1, for service-connected cases are cut a flat twenty per cent and a new system of five ratings of disability established. The new ratings and allowances: Ten per cent disability, $8 monthly; 25 per cent, $20; 50 per cent, $40; 75 per cent, $60; 100 per cent, $80.

In between ratings such as 41 per cent disabled are discontinued and all such cases will be reclassified. All payments for temporary disability of a non-service character and free hospitalization for such disabilities will be eliminated.

Under other regulation veterans of the Spanish American war, Philippine insurrection and Boxer rebellion and the widows and children of World War veterans will continue to receive present pensions under a "presumption" that the pension is payable because of service-connected disability, but the government can challenge this "presumption."

Officials said there also would be a cut of ten per cent on July 1 in pensions for Civil and Indian war veterans and their widows under the new economy law.

Former Mayor Walker To Wed N. Y. Actress

Cannes, France, April 3.—(AP)—Former Mayor Walker of New York, and his friend Betty Compton, the actress, called at the City Hall today and received full information about the marriage regulations here.

"We were just getting the necessary information," he said when he was asked about a rumor that he and Miss Compton had been married, "when I get married I'll let you know."

Officials at the bureau said Mr. Walker had notified them several days ago he would be married soon. They refused to disclose the date he had set, explaining that he had asked them to keep that a secret.

Mr. Walker is an honorary member of the Municipal Council of Cannes, and probably would be permitted to waive the ordinary regulations such as the posting of banns ten days in advance of the wedding. No banns have been posted.

Alfred Sharon, Mr. Walker's lawyer, went to the Marriage Bureau with them.

LIQUOR CONTROL BILL COMES UP TOMORROW

State Federation of Labor Would Have Five Instead of Three On Board; Other Objections.

Hartford, April 3.—(AP)—With organized labor already recorded against many of its provisions, the state liquor control bill will be tossed into the legislative arena tomorrow as the subject for public debate. The first organized group to voice its opposition to the measure since it was reported Friday to the General Assembly by the State liquor control study commission, the Connecticut Federation of Labor spent nearly all of yesterday in a session studying the bill and in drawing up its own to place before the General Assembly.

The federation criticized the proposal to place control traffic in the state in a three man commission appointed by the governor, protested against the bill and in drawing up its own to place before the General Assembly.

During the week end came a statement also from Dr. Robbins W. Barstow, president of the Hartford Summary Foundation, in which he criticized certain features of the measure.

Has Possibilities A member of the study commission, Dr. Barstow said, however, that "even as it (the bill) stands it has it, it possibilities of real excellence."

Dr. Barstow was prevented by illness from signing the commission's report but reserved the right to comment on certain of its features. In a letter to Governor Cross he expressed the opinion that the measure should have contained a stronger statement of its intent. He listed what he considered other deficiencies in the measure as follows:

Failure to eliminate private profit from the liquor traffic, failure to include provision for temperance education, lack of more rigid fixing of personal liabilities for hotels, clubs and restaurants, and lack of recommendations for stiffer penalties in the original code for offenses involving liquor.

Five Man Board The Federation of Labor said it favored a five rather than a three man commission for control of liquor traffic, he members to be appointed by the governor but endorsed by the General Assembly. One of the members would be a representative of labor.

John J. Egan, secretary said in behalf of the organization: "If a syndicate of bootleggers or others, anxious to gain control of

FATHER COUGHLIN RENEWS CHARGES

Radio Lecturer and Detroit Newspaper in Controversy Over Bank Failures.

Detroit, April 3.—(AP)—Reverend Father Coughlin today renewed yesterday's renewal of charges and countercharges in which the Rev. Father Charles E. Coughlin and the Detroit Free Press have engaged for a week.

Much of Father Coughlin's address yesterday afternoon was in criticism of the Free Press and its publisher, E. D. Stair, who also was president of the Detroit Bankers' Co., holding company for the inactive First National Bank-Detroit.

The Free Press published the entire text of the address and in a front page editorial declared that "Father Coughlin inaugurated the by year of his church on Sunday with a hymn of hate."

Father Coughlin made only passing mention of a Free Press statement of last week that it had proof of Stock Market transactions by him, in which funds contributed by his listeners were used.

The present controversy dates back to Father Coughlin's championing of the plan that since has materialized here for organization of a new National Bank, 50 per cent of the capital coming from the government, and liquidation of the two old national banks. A week ago Father Coughlin charged that bankers had "gambled with other people's money" and that holding companies were "hidout companies" organized to evade stockholders' double liability to depositors.

At that time he directed criticism against Mr. Stair, who later, replied, citing figures and quoting government officials in support of his contention that the banks had not handled funds recklessly.

Class Supremacy Yesterday, Father Coughlin said of his critics in the bank controversy that they were "wedded to silly class supremacy," "carrying on a fight for the old order" and "moribund."

The present, he said, "is a period of class supremacy."

The Federation of Labor said it favored a five rather than a three man commission for control of liquor traffic, he members to be appointed by the governor but endorsed by the General Assembly. One of the members would be a representative of labor.

John J. Egan, secretary said in behalf of the organization: "If a syndicate of bootleggers or others, anxious to gain control of

BOYCOTT ENDS; NOT LIKELY TO BE CONTINUED

Hitlerites Say It Will Not Be Resumed On Wednesday As At First Reported; Hundreds of Jews Leaving.

BULLETIN

Berlin, April 3.—(AP)—Without offering any explanation, the government announced today that beginning at midnight no one will be allowed to leave German soil without special permission of the police stamped on his passport.

For several days reports have told of an exodus of Jews in considerable number to neighboring countries. At Koenigsberg, today the authorities ordered all passports withdrawn from Jews living in East Prussia.

Berlin, April 3.—(AP)—Chancellor Hitler's National Socialist Party apparently was satisfied today that it had dealt a stunning, if not a knockout blow to what it regards as an international Jewish menace.

A resumption of Saturday's nation-wide boycott which paralyzed all Jewish commercial activity was considered unlikely. Its announced purpose to force an end to the spread abroad of stories of anti-Jewish atrocities in Germany, was believed achieved.

The Nazis also had reason to be satisfied with the permanent effect of the great organized demonstration. The boycott was kept alive throughout the day in several towns in Lower Silesia. There have been hundreds of Jews discharged from businesses and many more permanently eliminated from medical and legal practice, from teaching schools and from newspaper staffs.

Many Refugees (Reports from Switzerland said two hundred Jews and Socialists spies were arriving daily from Germany and trains entering Denmark from Germany were crowded with Jewish refugees.)

But there were reports of strong opposition to the boycott, in several towns in Lower Silesia. There have been hundreds of Jews discharged from businesses and many more permanently eliminated from medical and legal practice, from teaching schools and from newspaper staffs.

The Nationalist Party majority in the cabinet has long been criticized by the Jews to curb any radical anti-Semitic feeling by the Nazis. The disclosure of the attempt by Konstantin von Neurath to resign as foreign minister last week brought the explanation that he opposed the boycott. He was persuaded to keep his post by Vice Chancellor Franz von Papen.

The state of Bavaria yesterday issued a ban for an indefinite period.

REDS MAY TRANSFER TRADE TO AMERICA

Not Pleased With Actions Directed Against the Communists in Germany.

Moscow, April 3.—(AP)—A possibility that Soviet Russia may transfer to the United States some of its purchases heretofore placed in Germany was voiced today by the Soviet government's chief economic organ, "For Industrialization," in warning Germany that it risks trade reprisals if attacks on Soviet economic organizations and Soviet citizens there continue.

The newspaper declared recent anti-Soviet activities in Germany, in the face of Chancellor Hitler's enunciation of a friendly policy toward Russia, "provides sufficient ground for a change in our economic relations with Germany, no matter how valuable those relations have been to both countries."

It added that Russian economic organizations concerned with foreign trade "should consider the possibility of developing imports from France, Sweden, Czecho-Slovakia, Poland and other countries and also think about the possibilities offered by American industry."

For the last two years Soviet Russia bought more goods from Germany than from any other country, its purchases amounting to $24,411,000 rubles (about $182,208,000) in 1932 and $10,698,000 rubles (about $205,847,000) in 1931. Its purchases in the United States dropped from $29,915,000 rubles (about $114,957,500) in 1931 to $1,988,000 rubles (about $2,859,500) in 1932.

BRITAIN TAKES ACTION ON RED SABOTAGE CASE

Government To Present Bill Empowering Cabinet To Deal With Importation of Russian Goods.

London, April 3.—(AP)—Prime Minister MacDonald informed Parliament today that the government will present a bill tomorrow empowering the Cabinet to deal, without consulting Parliament again, with the importation of Russian goods.

The bill, a result of strained relations growing out of the recent arrest of six British engineers in Russia, will be passed through Parliamentary stages on Wednesday.

The galleries were crowded and the House tensely awaited this announcement of the government's policy with regard to Russia.

Sir Esmond Ovey, the ambassador who was recalled from Moscow to report on the arrests, the subsequent investigation of sabotage charges against the prisoners, and their impending trial, was present.

It had been expected that the announcement of policy would come from Sir John Simon, the foreign secretary, but he told the House early in the session that Mr. MacDonald would make the statement.

Specific Provisions The prime minister did not explain what the specific provisions of the government's measure will be, but it was assumed it will give the government power to deal with Russian imports as it sees fit, even to the extent of imposing an embargo.

George Lansbury, the Labor floor leader, wanted to know more about the impending bill. "It must be serious," he said, "since you

MICHIGAN VOTING ON DRY AMENDMENT

Indications Are That Wets Will Win As They Did At Last Election.

Detroit, April 1.—(AP)—Michigan blazes an unmapped trail today as the first state to elect its constitutional convention for consideration of the amendment to repeal the 18th Amendment.

An estimated nine hundred thousand voters will elect 100 delegates to the convention, one from each of 102 representative districts. In each district there are two candidates. One is pledged to vote for ratification of the repeal amendment, the other for retention of the 18th amendment. The convention will assemble April 10.

ROOSEVELT URGES REFINANCING OF FARM MORTGAGES

WILL SERVE BEER IN WHITE HOUSE

First Lady Says There Will Be No Ban Against the Legalized Brew.

Washington, April 3.—(AP)—Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt today issued a statement saying there would be no ban against legalized beer in the White House.

In her statement, Mrs. Roosevelt said: "When it is legal to serve beer, in any government house it will naturally be proper to do so for anyone who desires it at the White House."

"I hope very much that any change in legislation may tend to improve the present condition and lead to greater temperance. There has been a great deal of bootlegging in beer and once it is legal, this will be impossible and I hope that a great many people who have used stronger things will be content with legal beer so that the cause of temperance will be served."

"No matter what the legislation, I myself do not drink anything with alcoholic content but that is purely an individual thing. I should not dream of imposing my own convictions on other people as long as they live up to the law of our land."

Mrs. Roosevelt signed her statement simply "Eleanor Roosevelt." Questions brought out that Mrs. Roosevelt had no intention of permitting beer to be served in the White House until the beer bill for the District of Columbia is enacted.

Mrs. Roosevelt said she had not the slightest idea whether there were any beer stains in the mansion.

At her press conference, Mrs. Roosevelt showed her attitude was that the residence, as a public building, belongs in a way to all who come there.

As hostess in this executive mansion, when beer becomes legal, she sees no reason for not serving it to guests who want it.

When the subject of beer was broached to Mrs. Roosevelt last week, it was recalled by a New York newspaper that she had helped Mr. Roosevelt win one of his first political victories by serving beer, cracklers and cheese at night supper while he was an Albany legislator.

Believe Passenger Set Plane Afire

Jumped From Plane Before It Crashed — Was Thought To Be Deranged.

Salford, Eng., April 3.—(AP)—Authorities were investigating today the possibility that Albert Voss, English passenger aboard the ill-fated airliner City of Liverpool, may have set a fire, while mentally deranged, which resulted in the plane crashing in Belgium last Tuesday and the terrible death of all 15 persons aboard.

Coroner A. H. Flint, who will direct an inquest into Voss's death, said, however, it was difficult to reconcile such a theory with the fact that Voss had his 15 year old school girl niece, Miss Lottie Voss, aboard with him.

The inquest also will try to clear up any suspicion that Voss may have taken poison. Flint said he understood that some time ago Voss

Dispatches Seventh Message To Congress Asking That Interest Rates Be Reduced, Time Given To Make Payments and the Use of Federal Loans.

Washington, April 3.—(AP)—President Roosevelt recommended to Congress today the enactment of legislation authorizing refinancing of farmers indebtedness.

Beginning his fifth White House week with the dispatch of his seventh message to the Legislature, the President opened the way for inclusion of this latest major plan as an amendment to the farm relief bill in the Senate.

Applying on farm mortgages, the message proposed both readjustment of the principal of the farmers' debts and a reduction of interest rates.

He also proposed "a temporary readjustment of amortization, to give sufficient time to farmers to restore to them the hope of ultimate free ownership of their own land."

Small Home Owners The President said he would soon propose an extension of this program to the debt burdened owners of small homes.

He also disclosed he would ask Congress soon for legislation permitting the initiation of reciprocal tariff agreements.

"The legislation I suggest," said the President, "will not impose a heavy burden upon the National Treasury."

His text follows: "As an integral part of the broad plan to ease the 'forced' liquidation of property, to increase purchasing power and broaden the credit structure for the benefit of both the producing and consuming elements in our population, I ask the farmers for specific legislation relating to the mortgages and other forms of indebtedness of the farmers of the Nation. That man's thousands of farmers in all parts of the country are unable to meet the obligations incurred when their crop prices had a very different money value is well known to all of you. The legislation now pending, which seeks to raise agricultural commodity prices, in its definite attempt to force farmers to pay their indebtedness in commodity terms more closely approximating those in which the indebtedness was incurred; but that is not enough."

Mortgage Refinancing "In addition the federal government should provide for the refinancing of mortgage and other indebtedness so as to accomplish a more equitable readjustment of the principal of the debt, a reduction of interest rates, which in many instances are so unconscionably high as to be contrary to a sound public policy, and, by a temporary readjustment of amortization, to give sufficient time to farmers to restore to them the hope of ultimate free ownership of their own land."

Seek an end to the threatened loss of homes and productive capacity now faced by hundreds of thousands of American farm families.

"The legislation I suggest will not impose a heavy burden upon the National Treasury. It will instead provide a means by which, through existing agencies of the government, the farm owners of the nation will be enabled to refinance themselves on reasonable terms, lighten their harassing burdens and give them a fair opportunity to return to a sound financial position as a part of the additional legislation as one of the broad program, extending this wholesome principle to the small home owners of the nation, likewise faced with this threat."

"Also, I shall ask the Congress for legislation enabling us to initiate practical reciprocal tariff agreements to break through trade barriers and establish foreign markets for farm and industrial products. (Signed)

"FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT," "The White House," "April 3, 1933."

ANALYSIS OF BILL Washington, April 3.—(AP)—Here is an analysis of the administration's farm indebtedness refinancing bill introduced today by Senator Robinson, of Arkansas, the Democratic leader. The analysis was issued by Robinson soon after he introduced the bill:

"The bill to refinance farm mortgages contains among others the following important provisions: 1. The Federal land banks within two years from the time the act takes effect, (or until the farm loan commissioner finds that Federal land bank bonds are readily saleable on the market at 4 per centum) may issue not more than two billion dollars in 4 per cent bonds on which the interest shall be guaranteed by the United States. The bonds may be

HURT BY RUNAWAY. Danbury, April 3.—(AP)—Aime Lambach, a farmer 82 years old, is in a serious condition in the Danbury hospital from injuries received when a horse which he was driving through the streets of this city Saturday afternoon took fright and ran away. Lambach was thrown from his wagon and rolled underneath the wheels of a passing oil truck. His hurts were not considered serious at first but indications of internal injuries have developed. Mrs. Lambach, who was riding with her husband, was also thrown from the vehicle but escaped with slight injury.

FINDS WOMAN DEAD, SHOCKED, HE DIES

Former Manchester People In Dual Tragedy At Home In Springfield.

Manchester friends and old neighbors of Mrs. Darius Barlow, who had made her home at 217 Main street for the past 22 years, were shocked today at the news of her sudden death, which occurred this morning at her home at Manchester Terrace, Springfield, where Mrs. Barlow would last November to be near her son Harry who has a home in East Longmeadow. Mrs. Barlow had been in poor health for some time, and local friends who called on her Saturday, saw that she was rapidly failing. Mr. Barlow who is in the roofing business has been at home nearly all winter, and is over 80 years old.

The shock of finding Mrs. Barlow dead is believed to have hastened the death of P. Waldo Smith, an old friend of the family, who hastened to telephone for a doctor. Before the physician arrived Mr. Smith had died. Mr. Barlow's parents had died in childhood and he made his home with Mrs. Barlow's mother until the latter's death, when he came to Manchester to live.

Mrs. Barlow leaves besides her husband and son Harry another son, Waldo Barlow of Scarsdale, N. Y., and a daughter, Mrs. Henry L. Sweet. Mr. Sweet is a teacher at Exeter Academy and was in Florida for his health, accompanied by his wife. Their son, a student at Amherst, was with his grandparents in Springfield for the spring vacation. Details as to the funeral arrangements are not available at this time.

VICTIM IDENTIFIES

HARTFORD BANDIT

Alexander May Picked Out of a Lineup at Police Station—His Pal Is Sought.

Hartford, April 3.—(AP)—One of the alleged perpetrators of a series of "stick ups" committed in Hartford and surrounding towns during the past few weeks was taken into custody this forenoon by Detective Sergeant Thomas J. Hickey and Philip H. Dooley. He is Alexander May, 19, of this city, a graduate of Cheshire Reformatory. Taken to police headquarters this noon May was singled out of a lineup of a dozen persons by one of his alleged victims and positively identified. An immediate search for May's pal in the holdups was instituted by the police.

May, is being held in bonds of $10,000. He shot and wounded the late William Bergen, a patrolman in the Hartford department, in April 1930. May was arrested for that crime in December of the same year and in the Superior Court he was committed to Cheshire reformatory. He served 18 months. Early this year Policeman Bergin died after an attack of pneumonia and other complications.

issued for two purposes, namely, (1) Making new loans; (2) Exchanging bonds for outstanding mortgages.

"2. The Federal land banks are authorized to purchase first mortgages on farm land within their respective districts or to exchange bonds for first mortgages at a price not exceeding the sum of the unpaid principal or 50 per cent of the normal value of the land mortgages plus 20 per cent of the improvements, whichever is the smaller, the mortgagee being entitled to have his indebtedness reduced for the amount paid by the bank for his mortgage.

"3. To provide for extensions the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to subscribe at such periods as the farm loan commissioner shall determine, to the paid in surplus of the Federal land banks the sum of $100,000,000 to be repaid when resources of the bank become available thereafter.

"4. The maximum rate of interest payable on loans on mortgages outstanding or made within two years from the effective date of the act shall not exceed 4 per cent, and an annual $15,000,000 being made available from the Treasury to compensate the banks for the reduction, the payments to be made quarterly when certified by the farm loan commissioner.

Limit of Loans "5. The limit as to amount of a loan is proposed to be raised from $25,000 to $50,000 in cases approved by the farm loan commissioner.

"6. Where lands are located in territory not covered by a National Farm Loan Association or when the Federal Land Bank of the district in which the lands are situated is unable to accept applications from an association, direct loans may be authorized at a rate of 1-1/2 per cent in excess of the interest charged to borrowers through National Farm Loan Associations. Such borrowers are required to covenant that when ten or more borrowers whose loans aggregate not less than $20,000 reside in a locality which may be covered or served by a National Farm Loan Association, they will unite in forming such an association, the adjustments or readjustments are to be made respecting the stock that will put them on the same level with other borrowers belonging to such associations.

"7. Receivers of land banks approved pursuant to the Farm Loan Act are authorized to borrow from the Reconstruction Finance Corporation on receivers' certificates for the purpose of paying taxes on real estate owned by the bank or secured to it by mortgages, such receivers being substituted prior liens on the assets.

"8. Title II contemplates the voluntary liquidation of joint stock land banks, forbids them to issue hereafter any tax exempt bonds except such as are necessary to refinance existing loans or bond issues, or to finance the sale of real estate belonging to the bank. (Title II-2.)

"9. The Reconstruction Finance Corporation is directed to make available $100,000,000 for loans to joint stock land banks at 4 per cent per annum, the amount to be loaned to any one bank being apportioned in accordance with the proportion of the unpaid principal of the mortgages they hold to the total amount of the mortgages held by all the joint stock land banks, the loans to be secured by first mortgage or purchase money mortgages on farm land, first mortgages on farm real estate owned by the bank or such other collateral as may be available. The real estate underlying the collateral to be appraised and the borrowing capacity to be limited to 60 per cent of its normal value. As a condition precedent, the joint stock land banks borrowing must agree to reduce to 5 per cent the rate of interest carried in its mortgages pledged as collateral and to refrain from foreclosure during a period of two years except where the property is abandoned by the mortgagor.

Sum Made Available

"10. $200,000,000 of the credit of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation is made available for loans to farmers for refinancing their indebtedness in accordance with the amendments adopted at the last session to the bankruptcy act relating to compositions and extensions, and of the objects being to protect the farmers where circumstances permit against having his operations suspended or shut down by unsecured creditors or inability to obtain funds with which to carry on his business even though he may have arranged to refinance the first mortgage on his real estate.

"11. An important feature of the bill is Title IV which authorizes loans in the aggregate amount of $50,000,000 to drainage, levee and irrigation districts to reduce and refinance their outstanding indebtedness, it being impossible to assure any relief in areas covered by many of such districts under the refinancing terms of the act for the reason that the drainage, levee and irrigation taxes constitute prior liens and the payments are in default. All reductions made through refinancing the indebtedness of such districts must be passed on to the taxpayers in the districts.

"12. The lending power of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation is increased by $300,000,000.

HIGHLIGHTS OF BILL

Washington, April 3.—(AP)—Main provisions of the Roosevelt bill to refinance farm mortgages: Federal land banks authorized to issue up to $500,000,000 in 4 per cent bonds, interest guaranteed by government. Some banks could purchase first liquor in the state, pulled the proper strings and gained enough support, they could put their own candidate in as governor at election time, and he in turn would select confederates for the commission, thus putting the liquor situation into the hands of their bosses.

"The commissions appointed by the governor may all be composed of clean, honest men in years to come, but the opening for bootleggers or others to gain control will always remain. If the legislation is authorized by the legislature, it could be reorganized in case of the slightest doubt."

Another objection The federation also opposed the plan to have beer sold only with meals in all establishments except taverns.

"Under this system, a man finishing his day's work and desiring a glass of beer before going home to supper is forced to visit a tavern or else go to one of the other establishments and eat his meal there instead of going home to the supper table."

Under the federation's idea, the tavern would be recognized as an establishment permitted to sell beer with or without meals.

Instead of a gross tax on wholesale sales of five per cent and on retail sales of 1-1/4 per cent as proposed in the bill, the federation advocated a manufacturer's tax of $1 on every 30 gallons of beer.

Speakers at the all day special session warned against "over taxation of beer."

The bill will be given a public hearing at 2 p. m., tomorrow before the legislative committee of the legislature.

AGAINST LABOR'S PLAN

New Haven, April 3.—(AP)—Dean Edgar Furness of the Yale graduate school, a member of the liquor control study commission said today that the General Assembly should confirm the appointments made by the governor and declared organized labor should be represented on the commission.

Furness said he believed the commission was in unanimous accord with the view that towns and cities of the state should receive some revenue, but declared such revenue should not come through any increase in the taxation rates proposed in the commission report. Hurred preparation of the proposal, he said, was the reason for the failure to mention this feature.

Against Proposal

As for the proposal that the labor organization have a representative on the commission Furness said he did not see why any one group should be so represented. There would be objection he said, to the increase of the membership of the commission from three to five men if it could be done in the interest of economy, efficiency, and to promote a sense of personal responsibility but members of the commission felt that the labor group could probably handle the commission business better than a larger group.

The proposal that the General Assembly confirm the nominations of the governor, he said, would be unanimous to the whole spirit of the commission's suggestion. As for charges that the possible election of a corrupt governor through manipulation by the liquor interests might result in the appointment of corrupt commissioners, the dean expressed confidence there were sufficient dry bones in the liquor law in the state to block such a move.

Corrupt administration by the commission, he said, would, in any case, be checked by the specific provisions of the act.

The study commission, he said, was willing that the recommendation that no tavern be established 500 feet from a school or church might be reduced, "so long as it is definitely provided there is a limitation and the matter is not left to the discretion of the commissioners."

NO BEER ON FRIDAY. Hartford, April 3.—(AP)—There will be no legal beer in Connecticut April 7, when the Federal act permitting 3.2 per cent beverages becomes effective, Governor Cross indicated today. Pointing out that the liquor control law as proposed by the special study commission headed by United States District Attorney John Buckley prohibits the sale of beer and wine in the state until a proclamation by the governor makes it legal, Governor Cross said:

"I expect the bill to pass without serious delay, before Friday, in any case."

Asked whether it would be possible to set up the necessary regulatory machinery if the prohibition claim to be issued by Friday, the governor replied in the negative.

Attended suicide. Apparently Voss fell from the liner nearly two miles before it crashed near Essex. Voss's body had been brought home and the mourners were assembling for the funeral here yesterday when police suddenly held up proceedings.

BOYCOTT ENDS; NOT LIKELY TO BE CONTINUED

On the opening of new chain stores and drygoods stores. Outbreaks of violence in connection with the Saturday boycott resulted in the slaying in Kiel of a Jewish attorney and a Nazi leader. A number of Jews were arrested in Kiel and in Hamburg a bomb wrecked the Nazi headquarters.

Streicher issued this statement today: "I have a feeling the battle will not be further taken up Wednesday. This will prove a disappointment to millions of Germans but discipline must be observed in any event. It was not easy to yield but Adolph Hitler can only proceed one step at a time."

The Nazi Party in its determination to dominate all fields of German endeavor, apparently has picked the Olympic games committee of Germany as its next target. The newspaper Angriff, edited by Dr. Goebbels, today published a broadside attacking Chairman Theodore Lewald and Secretary General Carl Diem of the German Sports Federation, who also are the most prominent members of the Olympic committee, for having, in the days before the present regime, solicited funds from the Jewish Ullstein newspaper concern.

This action, the Angriff held, disqualified them as sports officials.

MT. EVEREST CROSSED FIRST TIME BY PLANE

Highest Mountain In World Conquered From Air—Trip Carefully Planned.

Bombay, April 3.—(AP)—Mt. Everest, highest mountain in the world, was crossed by airplane today for the first time in history.

Three Englishmen, financed by Lady Houston, have been preparing for months for the daring adventure of looking down from the air upon a peak where men have never trod. Recently, after all the preliminaries had been arranged, they set up the independent state of Nepal, and during the past few days they have made a series of test flights across that forbidden land, always in the direction of the snow-capped mountains.

From their base at Purneah, 160 miles from Everest, they planned carefully the flight in a light plane in which they hoped to photograph the giant.

Having gone through the month of March without any meeting at all the board of police commissioners have decided to hold their regular April meeting tonight. Professor Mark A. May of Yale, a member of the state board of education, predicted with others that a storm of protest would arise in his county which would ask, "why pick on New Haven?"

Mr. Butterfield replied smilingly, "It is very sad. I supposed the people of New Haven are citizens of Connecticut first and of New Haven second."

Without opposition the meeting at the state trade school, passed a resolution introduced by Supt. Lloyd E. Hughes of West Hartford that whether or not the bill which is coming before the education committee of the Legislature tomorrow, is voted by the present Legislature, an advisory committee of public school administrators be appointed to cooperate with the state board in formulating a program.

TO INVESTIGATE DELAY IN PROBE OF HARRIMAN

District Attorney Was Ordered By Washington So To Do, He Declares.

Washington, April 3.—(AP)—The Costigan resolution, calling for an investigation of delay in prosecution of Joseph W. Harriman, New York banker, was tentatively approved today by the Senate Judiciary committee.

The committee, acting without a full quorum, approved the resolution subject to a poll of absent members. The resolution, introduced by Senator Costigan, (D., Col.), calls for an investigation by the Judiciary Department of the delay under the Hoover administration in prosecuting Harriman, former chairman of the Harriman National Bank and Trust Company, on a charge of making false entries in the bank's accounts.

George Z. Medala, district attorney at New York, asserted that he held up prosecution of Harriman on instructions from the Justice Department at Washington. It was explained the delay was ordered to afford opportunity to straighten out the bank's affairs, in an effort to save the institution.

want to get it through so quickly." But Mr. MacDonald had no explanation beyond pointing out that the trade agreement with Russia expires on April 17 and "something must be done to set up a system of trading."

The Labor opposition declared that they would battle the bill as hard as they can, raising all the obstacles possible to its passage. Their number is small, however, and there is little likelihood that they will interfere seriously with the government's program.

LIBBY LEAVES HOSPITAL

Philadelphia, April 3.—(AP)—Mrs. Libby Holman Reynolds and her son have left the hospital where the baby was born on January 10. Her departure on Saturday was kept a secret until today when visitors were told she had left without leaving a forwarding address.

The former Broadway "torch" singer and widow of Smith Reynolds found fatally shot in his North Carolina estate last summer, in a statement last week did not make known her future plans. She said she would not decide whether to return to the stage until her baby, who has not yet been named, no longer needed her entire attention.

RUSH OF BUSINESS AS NEW BANK OPENS

Employees Nearly Swamped As Depositors Open New Accounts At Trust Co.

The Manchester Trust Company, reorganized to take over the assets of the bank of the same name that was not allowed to continue following the recent bank holiday, opened for business today. It was strictly the business of the new Trust Company that was transacted today, some of the old bank's accounts being yet available to the new institution.

The bank's employees were nearly swamped with business all day. Local firms and individuals, who have been withholding their deposits for the past month either in safe and vaults of their own or in safe deposit boxes at the bank hurried to deposit new accounts in the new bank so that their checking facilities may be quickly brought back to normal.

Bank officials took the all-day rush as an indication of the confidence placed in the institution by Manchester people. One bank officer said that he did not know where all the money came from that was brought in today for deposit.

There was no information available today with regard to the day counts. Just as soon as the officials of the new bank know what percentage of old balances can be made free it will be announced.

MITCHELL TRIAL APRIL 17

New York, April 3.—(AP)—Federal Judge John C. Knox today fixed April 17 as the date for opening the trial of Charles E. Mitchell, former head of the National City Bank, on an indictment charging him with attempting to defraud and evade the income tax law as to 1929.

The government claimed that $573,312 in income taxes should have been paid by Mitchell for 1929, but he reported a loss of $45,000 for the year and paid no tax. Mitchell, in testimony before the Senate banking committee, claimed the loss resulted from the sale of bank stocks to his wife, but the government alleges that the sale was not bona fide.

Mitchell was not in court today when the date for trial was fixed on motion of U. S. Attorney George J. Medalle. The motion was opposed by Max D. Steuer, counsel for the banker, who was represented by Irving J. Levy, of his office.

DEMANDS FEDERAL CONTROL OF GAS

Head of Texas Co. Says Government Should Take Up Work of Oil Conversation.

Washington, April 3.—(AP)—Federal and State regulation of the oil industry to enforce conservation and gasoline tax laws was urged upon President Roosevelt, members of Congress and state governors today in a telegram from R. C. Holmes of New York, president of the Texas Oil Company.

The message said he believed "at least 95 per cent of the legitimate" petroleum producers, buyers and refiners were represented at the recent conference with Secretary Ikes.

Criticizing the conference minority which declined to go along with its recommendations, Holmes said: "Are we going to allow a part of the press, with misinformation or lack of full information, and a few uninformed, misguided politicians to ruin the oil industry and perpetuate a scandal that makes the oil scandals of the Harding administration look like petty graft and larceny?"

Suggests Program Holmes suggested the following four-point program: "The honest application and enforcement of the Federal and State gasoline tax laws on all alike without exception."

"The enforcement of the conservation laws on all alike without exception."

"Enactment only of such Federal and State legislation will insure this being done as equitably to all interests as is practical."

"That such machinery of government, Federal and State, be set up as will provide for the above, not only now but in the future, hoping that in so doing we can have some real effective conservation of this great natural resource, petroleum, and realization of economies and values."

Holmes said "legal oil" apparently meaning oil produced in violation of state proration laws, was nullifying efforts to aid the industry.

BEER, LIQUOR CONTROL
 Unless we misjudge the capacity and intelligence of the Judiciary Committee of the General Assembly that body should be able to promptly and effectively dispose of the Act to Control the Manufacture, Distribution and Sale of Alcoholic Liquor and to Impose Taxes on Such Sale, submitted by the Commission on Liquor Control.

The proposed act is verbose, infinitely fussy, and with the product of haste and snap judgments. It could not well be otherwise. The Commission doubtless did as well as any other commission could have done if it undertook to do a year's work in a few weeks. But none could have done a good job—and it is extremely urgent that a good job be done.

If we were confronted merely by the problem of beer the task of regulation would be relatively simple. But that is not the case. The repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment impends. Connecticut should have a scientific, socially admirable liquor law when it has any. The one proposed by the Commission hardly falls into that category. It is a hastily conceived and hurriedly framed makeshift. The state would be better without it.

As for the regulation of the sale of beer, the Judiciary Committee should be able to draw an emergency law, frankly to be regarded as a temporary measure, empowering some competent state authority to regulate the sale of that beverage until the next General Assembly should have time to adopt a well considered plan. If the Judiciary Committee could not, for such purpose, encompass within three paragraphs a better law than the one now under consideration, general respect for the acumen of that committee would fade.

The proposed act is a hodge-podge. At points it is ludicrous—as in the provision prohibiting the advertising of beer; when beer will be advertised by radio and in every newspaper and magazine coming into the state of Connecticut. And in the provision against the issuance of tavern permits for a building within 500 feet of a church or school "in a straight line" when, for all practical purposes, the distance by street might easily be a quarter or even half a mile.

Connecticut does not want to operate for years under a liquor law that was knocked together in a few minutes under the pressure of fire-alarm haste.

The best possible way of meeting this situation—which itself is the result of stupid procrastination on the part of the administration and the Assembly of 1931—would be for the Judiciary Committee to treat the present as an interim period, provide for a temporary beer control and for emergency handling of the situation of the hard liquor problem to continue not later than May 15, 1933, and then advocate the creation of a new and more carefully organized commission to bring in to the next Legislature a competent liquor law that will be a credit to the state.

LOBBY PROTESTS
 If veteran organizations continue as some of them appear to be determined to do, to agitate against the economies put, into effect by President Roosevelt, they will probably find themselves regarded, by a very great majority of the American people, as a mere public nuisance.

Hundreds of millions of dollars have been squandered in veteran benefits. Of the thousands upon thousands of beneficiaries of these squanderings there probably isn't one single individual who thinks of himself as getting anything that was not properly coming to him. It was inevitable, then, that any step to curtail this wholesale distribution of the public's money would arouse resentment in those who might be deprived of their comfortable benefits. So long as it was possible for these deprived veterans to bring their influence to bear on members of Congress for the prevention of reforms, their protests were likely to be of effect. And they possessed so much of the quality of respectability as always attaches to any cause, no matter what, which has a good chance to succeed. Now, however, the protests and lobbying of the disaffected veteran has lost that element of respectability. There is no chance whatever of bullying this administration because this administration is playing for a higher stake than the votes of some aggrieved ex-service men; if it doesn't get the country out of its hole it is sunk—and this cut in veterans' benefits is a vital part of the problem.

So that the shrieks of the lobbyists and the protests of those who must be hit by the cuts in benefits, being without possible effect, are bound to make the rest of the country weary. Nothing possibly can be gained from them but discredit to those who utter them. That would be a high price to pay for the mere satisfaction of making a futile noise.

OPPOSING VIEWS
 On the last day of March it was announced at Washington that President Roosevelt would be asked within a few days to approve an extensive naval construction program designed to bring the fleet up to the approximate strength fixed for the United States by the Treaty of London. This would involve a little matter of $239,000,000 for construction alone, in a period of three years.

The treaty of London is ancient history. Only the day before this announcement was made Brigadier General William Mitchell, one-time head of the allied air forces in the World War who was fired out of the United States army for telling the truth, appeared before the House Military Affairs Committee and urged the adoption of the McSwain bill to consolidate the War and Navy Departments in a Department of National Defense which would have control of all the defenses of the nation, including those of the air. He said that the spending of money on surface going war ships was "a racket." He said that the country could save from $180,000,000 to $300,000,000 a year by a combination of defenses in which the air forces would have their due responsibility—and provide far greater security.

There are probably ten people who believe with Mitchell for every one who believes that building a fleet up to the London treaty standard would serve any important purpose in adding to the safety of the nation.

If these are the days of a new deal, of actual realization, it may be expected that the administration will be heard from before long in firm opposition to these everlasting proposals to saddle the country with new burdens of waste on naval defenses as archaic as bows and arrows.

MORTGAGE REFINANCE
 It is a stupendous banking enterprise on which President Roosevelt seeks to have the nation embark, this business of refinancing two or three billion dollars worth of farm mortgages. But is there anyone who doubts that the United States government is already the biggest banking institution in the world? Or that the principal trouble with its adventures in major finance is that until just now the beneficiaries of its activities have been favored classes or enterprises?

Having come to the rescue of the individual banks, the insurance companies, the railroads, and only in a very small way to the aid of the farmer and not at all to the direct aid of the home owner, it seems to be the theory of this latest proposal that it would only be an extension of an already adopted principle if the government were to become banker for the distressed little fellow on the farms and in the mortgage-dwelling.

To be sure the proposal to make a huge bond issue for refinancing mortgages at a lower interest rate, so far, relates only to the farms, and it might have been better, perhaps, to group the farm and the home together and deal with them at the same time. But there will be, it is to be expected, a general willingness to accept the promise of the administration that very soon the same sort of relief will be extended to the home owner if the proposed measure is authorized.

Times have changed since it was the usual thing to dispose of such legislative proposals as this by the very simple process of declaring that they would "put the government in the banking business." That, just a little while ago, was a thought not to be tolerated for an instant. It is different now. Old Uncle Sam is the very top-noddy of all bankers. If he hadn't been we should be now very thoroughly drowned in the soup.

So we can be perfectly calm about proposals that, three or four years ago, would have thrown us into a pale and perilous faint.

BOYCOTT REACTS
 It is just now beginning to be realized that the new dictator of Germany took a pretty ghastly chance with his power when he ordered the boycott against all Jews. And that, as a matter of fact, he may not have been altogether lucky in the outcome.

Dispatches from Berlin today indicate that the boycott may be abandoned. Announcement to the effect that it will not be resumed on Wednesday if the outside world refrains from accepting Jewish propaganda and outside Jews refrain from propagandizing, constitute a pretty thin face saving operation. Of course foreign opinion will not change nor will its expression be smothered. Hitler and his Nazis can, however, pretend to believe that they have. And they are pretty likely to do so in view of the storm of internal trouble that the Nazis have made for themselves.

Public opinion in Germany, it is now obvious, has split wide open on this subject of anti-Semitism. Thousands of influential Germans who had acquiesced in Hitlerism now see in it a dangerous, mad enterprise. Hitler has hurt his own position immensely. He was sure to do it by some insane stroke before he had been in power long. He seems to have lost no time.

BEHIND THE SCENES IN Washington
HE'S 'ECONOMIC ADVISOR' TO THE NATION'S FARMERS
 Washington, April 3.—The administration's big push for farm relief has resulted in the establishment of a new office in the Department of Agriculture. But to Dr. Mordecai Ezekiel, recently appointed economic adviser to the Secretary, the position will mean only a continuation, in a larger field, of the work which he has been doing for the government for the last ten years.

As one of the "big three" of the Department, Dr. Ezekiel assisted in drafting the new agriculture relief bill, together with Secretary of Agriculture Henry A. Wallace, and Assistant Secretary Rexford Guy Tugwell.

In Department 11 Years ago, he entered the Department of Agriculture in 1922. Dr. Ezekiel's special interests have been in the problems of adjusting farm production to demand. Along this line he developed the agriculture outlook service of the Bureau of Agriculture Economics, which estimates agricultural planting and production under normal conditions for the coming year; pointing out probable fields of over or under production.

In 1930 Dr. Ezekiel was made assistant chief economist of the Federal Farm Board. Many of the board's publications have been written by him. He is also the author of a statistical textbook, "Methods of Correlation Analysis."

Native of Virginia, 34 During his term with the Farm Board he took a year's leave to study in Europe on a Guggenheim fellowship, giving special attention to the economic organization of European countries.

He was born in Virginia 34 years ago, graduated from the University of Maryland, and took a master's degree at the University of Minnesota, and later a Ph. D. degree at the Brookings Institution.

 Montreal, April 3.—(AP)—A close watch was placed on all Catholic churches today after the destruction of the 5th one in Quebec, in six months by fire and abortive incendiary attempts on several others.

Blazing papers were found yesterday in St. James Basilica after a milkman reported seeing a man jump from the roof of a low wing of the building. There was evidence of uneasiness among many persons who went to Montreal Catholic

A WELL-FORMED NECK PORTRAYS CHARACTER
 Few people realize how much the appearance and poise depend on the shape of the neck. A scrawny neck denotes physical weakness, whereas a strong neck is apt to be associated with physical vigor and strength. When judging from this light, the neck is an important diagnostic guide to vitality. Consider how important the neck is as the connection between the head and the body; through the neck pass the great blood vessels that nourish the brain and bring color to the cheeks and also in the neck are the important nerve cables that carry orders from the brain to the muscles and glands of the body. The muscles of the neck are extremely important, for if they are insufficiently strong or are developed unevenly, there is an interference with both the blood supply and the nerve energy passing through the neck.

The development of a well-formed neck is not difficult; it simply requires the persistent use of a few definite exercises, principally those which move the head in various directions. I have found especially suitable. Care must be used not to take the exercises too vigorously at first or one is apt to have a very sore neck for several days. (1) Nod the head slowly as far forward and then back as you can without straining. (2) Lay the right ear on the right shoulder, then the left ear on the left shoulder. (3) Touch the chin first to the right then the left shoulder. (4) Lie on the back and raise the head a number of times. (5) Lie on the face and draw the head upward and backward. (6) With the head erect, alternately tense and relax all of the muscles of the neck.

Those who wish to add more strenuous exercises may add the following two: (a) Stick the jaw out and tense the muscles in front of the throat, contracting and relaxing these muscles alternately as you make the chin protrude and recede. Do this a few times, then try tightening these muscles by tensing and throwing the head quickly backward, so as to put a sudden strain on the front of the throat. Practice this before a mirror and hold your hand on your throat when you do this exercise so that you can feel the muscles when they become tense. (b) Place a pillow against the wall, stand back about three feet and rest your weight on the forehead while pressing it against the pillow. Partly support your weight with your hands against the wall but gradually hold as much weight with your neck muscles as possible. Roll your forehead back and forth in the pillow so as to strain the neck muscles as much as possible. You can also perform this exercise with the head sideways, which will develop the muscles at the side of the neck and take out hollows at the collar-bone. Then turn your back to the wall and raise and lower your weight, supporting the body entirely on your feet and the back of the head.

Remember that exercise is like a putty knife that takes off fat where it is too plentiful and adds it where it is needed. There is no danger of overdeveloping the neck muscles. Those with a lot of fat at the back of the neck or with double chins will notice a distinct improvement in using these exercises. Scrawny necks will also fall out. Extra-prominent Adam's apples will become less noticeable as the muscles beside the larynx become developed. The best part of all is the increase in the feeling of strength and self-confidence when the neck becomes stronger and under good muscular control. The poise and carriage are also improved and add distinctly to the general appearance.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS
 (Foods Beneficial to Hair)
 Question: "Mrs. Lorena K. writes: 'I wish to know which foods contain certain elements beneficial to the hair. Does the violet ray help to bring blood to the scalp?'"
 Answer: A loss of hair may result from several causes, such as: (1) Severe toxemia during a fever. (2) Poor circulation of the scalp. (3) Diseases of the scalp. (4) A lack of mineral elements in the diet. The mineral that is usually lacking is silicon, cucumbers, lettuce, bran, dandelion, parsnips, fruit skins, strawberries and beets. If the hair roots are not entirely dead, a well-balanced diet containing a good proportion of these foods accompanied by a vigorous massage of the scalp and any other treatment should be beneficial. The violet ray, while not specifically helpful to growing the hair, might assist in increasing the local circulation. I have usually found that the ultra-violet rays is most satisfactory for this purpose. This ray is also present in sunlight and it is now not an unusual sight to see men going without their hats the year round, as they believe the sunlight prevents their becoming bald.

(Child Sucks Fingers)
 Question: "Granny" writes: "My grandchild three years old sucks two of her fingers most of the time; how can we overcome this habit? We have tried many things but all have failed and would appreciate it very much if you could help us to break her of this habit."
 Answer: I would suggest that you get some aluminum mittens for the grandchild who sucks her fingers. This will successfully break the habit and these mittens may be purchased from a surgical supply store.

IN NEW YORK
 By PAUL HARRISON

New York, April 4.—This is a town where spring is supposed to arrive according to the calendar; where a Flower Show, with blooms under glass, heralds the vernal equinox; where, whatever the weather, dress shop windows burst into color on a pre-appointed date . . . New York is a place where people strive to rear cold, gray walls against the sun; and where the first warm south winds carry dust instead of the smell of awakening loam . . . New Yorkers in their canyons, seldom glimpse a wedge of wild geese flying north. And if they did they'd only mistake them for a V formation of army airplanes.

And yet, in its fashion, spring comes anyhow. It seems to awaken first the hearts of children and the business judgment of the hurdy-gurdy man . . . In pet shop windows, rickety-legged p u p p i e s stretch and romp in the new, permeating warmth . . . Lean squirrels make timid advances to proffered peanuts in Central Park; and dowdy pigeons resume their gormandizing at the Library plaza.

Getting Wind of Spring
 Atop the Whitehall Building, at the Battery, Meteorologist Scarr oils his spinning anemometer. And at Times Square the same wind that he has measured is molding the frook about a graceful show-girl, poised on a tip-toe as she signals a taxicab . . . On the lower east side, old woman raises tenement windows and, elbows on sills, takes up their customary vigil. They watch the teaming streets, take mental notes for evening gossip, and inhale stray vernal spherules mixed with carbon monoxide . . . On the avenues, newly-plumbed ferris strain at leashes and sniff at the legs of haughty doormen. High above, on penthouse terraces, servants stir the sour and shallow earth where shrubbery and wistful little trees are coaxed to grow.

Spring comes to Gotham. You can even trace its advent in the daily press . . . A rich young do-nothing slopes with a dime-a-dance girl . . . A Greenwich Village poet, doubtless dreaming of lush violets by a dimpled pool gets hit by a truck and wakes up in a hospital . . . J. Otis Swift, leader of those nature fans who call themselves Yonians, writes little snazzy about "the perfume of Gaea—Mother Earth" . . . Boy Scouts, about in the parks, report so less than 35 different harbingers, including 3-inch-high catnip and burdock blue buds . . . On Broadway, the same are

On a window ledge of a Wall street brokerage firm, two pigeons are building a nest of string and scraps of ticker-tape, match-sticks and rubber bands. That window won't be opened or washed until the eggs are hatched . . . Filibustering time is over, at the age, and Dr. Dittmar makes aw fondly trying to rub off their last year's stink . . . In the ghetto, gyrfax are bundling their affairs into gay affairs in readiness to take to the road again . . . Dime stores are selling potted plants and small containers of top soil . . . Yet there are always some native New Yorkers who say: "Well, it wouldn't be too sure. Remember, it snowed here in the middle of May in 1893."

JAPANESE SUGGEST HANDS OFF POLICY

Envoy Says Europe and America Should Not Interfere in Manchuria.

Chicago, April 8.—(AP)—Yosuke Matsuoka, Japanese statesman on his way home from Geneva, Switzerland, following the country's withdrawal from the League of Nations, said that in his opinion America and Europe could help speed the return of peace to Japan and China by refraining from further interference. "We want to use force no longer than is necessary, and we want to come to terms with the Chinese," he told a group of his countrymen residing in Chicago as he spoke of the Manchurian question.

"We believe we shall be able to do so if there is no further interference from Europe and America," Matsuoka said in a speech Sunday from Washington and planned to go to Detroit Tuesday following an address today before the Chicago Council on Foreign Relations.

The statesman, leader of his country's delegation at the League of Nations session investigating hostilities in Manchuria, said it was Japan's duty to help stabilize the civil government in Manchukuo.

"That is no easy task," he said, "in a country which has known, heretofore, only the rules of ruthless dictators."

OVER TWO MILLION REPORTED LAST DAY

Income Tax Total For the Month Was Over 180 Millions, Treasury Reports.

Washington, April 8.—(AP)—Income taxes of $2,380,200 reported on March 31 the last day for filing taxes compared with $20,984,729 for the month of February and $185,410,800 a year ago.

The amount, however, does not represent all returns filed because many mailed and would not be counted until today. So officials believe the government still has a chance of exceeding the amount collected during last March.

The Treasury statement for the end of March showed the government completed 9 months of the 1935 fiscal year with a deficit of $1,361,613,759, with receipts of $1,523,239,493 and expenditures of $2,885,853,253.

The gross debt of the nation on March 31 amounts to $21,362,464,177 as compared with $20,984,729,209 at the end of February and $18,506,720,307 on March 31, 1934.

A drop of nearly $900,000,000 in income tax collections for the 9 months of the fiscal year was one of the causes of the deficit. In that time the tax has amounted to $564,044,349 compared with $653,582,185 last year.

The statement showed that National banks had taken advantage of the Glass-Steagall amendment to the Home Loan Bank Act to increase their circulation backed by government bonds carrying not more than 3 1/2 per cent interest.

On March 31 there was outstanding $484,660,540 on National bank notes with $980,841,999 in actual circulation.

This was an increase of $81,000,000 since February 28 and $250,000,000 since the law became effective last July.

Before that time National bank notes could only be issued when backed by certain varieties of 2 per cent government bonds.

Queer Twists In Day's News

Belfast — When Sir Thomas Beecham, famous British orchestra conductor was held up by Customs men in the Free State border he did an Irish jig—just to show there was no ill feeling.

Enroute to Belfast he and his party were held and their music cases searched for arms or valuables. To prove his party were only innocent musicians he assembled the orchestra in the street and treated the officers to a piece of classical music.

Then the orchestra broke into an Irish air and Sir Thomas performed a jig.

Milwaukee, Wis.—Several hundred bottlers contend they have the world's most aggravating job. They have been filling hundreds of thousands of bottles with good beer, and they haven't tasted a drop. Brewers have issued stringent orders against pre-tastes of the brew, and prohibition agents are watching the thirty wottlers bottle.

Chicago—Barney Cohen can't say he's exactly enthusiastic about some of the persons who come into his drugstore.

Three men who weren't customers came in and took his money from the safe, which wouldn't have been so bad, he told police, if he hadn't had 11 other visits of a similar nature in four years.

Chicago—Police have men for this and that, but right now they say the thing they need is a listening squad.

Somebody stole Frank Libbus's piccolo and right after that a thief took an accordion from a shop window.

Camden, N. J.—Paul Miller's wooden leg failed him but the defection was not a physical one. He was in court charged with deserting his wife.

"He ran away from me when I met him on the street, Judge," said Mrs. Miller.

"Just a minute, Judge," interposed Miller. He pulled up his trousers and displayed a wooden leg. "Did you ever see a man with a wooden leg run?" he asked.

The judge said he never had but sentenced Miller to eight days in jail.

N. Y. DOCTORS OPPOSE SOCIALIZED MEDICINE

Says It Would Be Group Care of the Most Disinterested Kind.

New York, April 8.—(AP)—Socialized medicine, with taxes or insurance paying the physician, was opposed before the Medical Society of the State of New York today in a report by its treasurer, Frederick E. Sonder, M. D., of New York City.

"In practice it would mean that the large majority of our physicians would be in the employ of the state or some subdivision of it and most probably, though not necessarily, under political influence or even control. Their compensation would be such that the earning of an income in keeping with the cost of their education in years and money, would require the care of an immense number of patients daily, quite incompatible with careful, interested and really efficient medical service."

"It would be group care of a most disinterested kind and would bring about a serious loss of what is today the essential which upholds the standards of medical practice, namely the personal relationship of patient and doctor."

Frederick H. Flaherty, M. D., of Syracuse, president elect of the society, made a report also contending that "efforts to change the present status of care of the sick are dangerous." He opposed especially "movements to place the treatment of the sick in the hands of commercial organizations."

This is the 127th annual meeting of the State Medical Society, simultaneously the Women's Medical Society of the state of New York is holding its 27th annual meeting here under the presidency of Mary J. Kazmierczak, N. Y., of Buffalo.

RED SOX PLAYERS IN TRAIN WRECK

Engineer and Fireman Killed When Engine Turns Over—None of the Players Injured.

Dover, Del., April 8.—(AP)—An intensive manhunt was on today for train wreckers, authors of what officials termed the plot which caused the wreck of a Pennsylvania railroad flyer bearing the Boston Red Sox baseball team northward, killing the engineer and fireman.

Thundering toward New York early yesterday, the train struck a switch which officials said had been tampered with and left the rails three miles south of here.

The locomotive turned over on its side, killing C. A. Burkhard of Wilmington, Del., the engineer, and Fireman E. L. Foulson of Delmar, Del. The express car immediately behind the locomotive plunged into a concrete warehouse, partially wrecking it, and six other cars, including the three Pullmans occupied by the Boston ballplayers, were derailed but remained upright.

None of the Red Sox party was injured although many of them were hurled from their berths and shaken up. Water from a damaged tank car flooded their cars to a depth of several inches and in the darkness confusion reigned for some time.

Five hours after the wreck, a special train carried the passengers on their way.

London, April 8.—(AP)—Miss Emilia Terani, an English girl, was awarded a judgment of $4,200 (approximately $14,500) today in her breach of promise suit against Primo Carnera, the prizefighter. Carnera did not appear in court.

Miss Terani brought suit against Carnera a year ago. In 1930 there was a report that they were to be married, but Carnera and his manager, who were in Minneapolis at the time, denied it.

THROWING KNIVES BLINDEFOLDED! It's fun to be fooled... it's more fun to KNOW ILLUSION: You see knives flash from the magician's hand and plunge into the board, framing the girl so closely that she cannot move.

EXPLANATION: Here is one way the blindfold throw is done! The knife thrower lets the knife go over his shoulder into the wings. The knife that you see quivering beside the girl is another knife. The girl standing against the board presses at the right place and a knife is sprung from behind the board into position.

NO TRICKS... JUST COSTLIER TOBACCOES

It is a fact, well known by leaf tobacco experts, that Camels are made from finer, MORE EXPENSIVE tobaccos than any other popular brand.

This is the most important statement ever made in a cigarette advertisement. Weigh its words. Consider what it means. Smoke Camels critically and learn to appreciate what costlier tobaccos can mean to you in mildness, in throat-ease... in added pleasure! Other cigarettes, we believe, will taste flat and insipid to you forever after.

EXPLANATION: All popular cigarettes are made in much the same way. Cigarettes vary greatly in mildness because they vary greatly in the quality of tobaccos used. Mildness, as well as character and good taste, depends upon the quality of tobaccos used.

HASCO RANGERS DEFEAT OLYMPIC BOOTERS, 4 TO 3

Defensive Weakness Is Main Factor In Junior Eleven's Loss; Seniors Trounce Stafford Springs By 5 To 1 Score.

By OBSERVER

While the Olympics were going down to defeat yesterday afternoon before the Hasco Rangers at Charter Oak street grounds, the team of 4 goals to 3, the Senior eleven was taking the measure of Stafford Springs by the score of 5 goals to 1 at Stafford Springs.

The junior teams were fairly evenly matched with the Rangers eleven slightly better balanced. Several ex-senior players served the purpose of blending experience with the dash of youth. Plenty of goal scoring was seen but with the exception of the Olympics first goal all of them were due to defensive weakness. A new ball was very lively on a dry ground and seemed to bother the Olympic backs by its high bounce.

Goal Scoring Offences
Kicking off against the sun the Olympics had the better of the opening exchanges and kept play confined to their opponent's half. Several Rangers' raids looked dangerous when weak clearing by the home backs let in their forwards. Two excellent chances were missed by erratic shooting. The first goal and the best of the game came after 15 minutes when Gray slipped the ball back and fullback to cross in front of goal for Kennedy to score with a first time shot which left the goalkeeper helpless.

A hard ball by Tierney inside the 18 yard area gave the Rangers an opportunity to equalize. The 12 yard kick was almost straight at Simmons who managed to partially clear it. In the ensuing scrimmage several of home defense made weak clearances, and the ball was finally driven through for the equalizing goal. Goals came fast thereafter. First the Rangers took the lead when weak defensive play gave them a gift. Next the Rangers goalie let a simple shot pass underneath his hands and Gray made sure when he dashed in and drove the ball through. Even terms did not last long for the Rangers again took advantage of a weakness in the last lines of defense to gain the lead which they retained until after the interval.

Players Ousted
Play at the opening of the second half was confined mostly to midfield. An unfortunate incident marked this period when McConkey and Miller came under the strict attention of the referee and were requested to watch the remainder of the game from the sidelines. Each team played the last half with ten men and as a result play was somewhat disorganized.

At center-half Rooney played like a Trojan and was almost straight on the efforts of the others. Not content with battling up the Rangers inside forwards he assisted his forwards to excellent advantage. The "Olympic" third goal came when he drove the ball straight at the center. Gray followed it in between the backs and the goalie advanced to meet him. It was a question who would get it first when the Rangers left-half stepped in and neatly deflected it past his own goal for the equalizing goal.

Rooney Is Star
For some time after this the Olympics pressed strongly but ill luck dogged them. Kennedy got right through only to have the referee pull him up for offside (one of the many decisions by an incompetent official) and again both Kennedy and Gray just missed a cross from the left by inches. At the other end Simmons picked up a beautiful shot from the outside left at the corner of the post. The final and winning goal came in the last few minutes. A weak clearance by the home backs came to the Rangers' inside left who lobbed in a high dropping shot which dropped in just under the bar at the junction of the upright at cross-bar.

The best player afield was Rooney. He was in the thick of the game from start to finish and played himself a standard. The remainder on the Olympic side who were worthy of note were Kennedy, Gray and McConkey. The latter was the most accomplished inside player afield until he left the game. On the Rangers side Ferguson, J. Murney, Miller and T. Murney were outstanding. Both teams suffered from the decisions of a weak official and as a result tempers were frayed and play suffered.

Two practices will be in order for the Olympics this week. One on Thursday night at 8:45 at the West Side and the other on Saturday afternoon. Special attention will be devoted to the defense in an endeavor to overcome the glaring weakness so apparent yesterday afternoon.

At Stafford Springs the forward line of the senior club functioned like clock-work and gave the Stafford defense such a hot time that all their efforts were devoted to defense and as a consequence the forwards suffered for lack of attention. A new center forward, Hatton, found the passes of O'Neill and company to his liking and scored three of the five goals. O'Neill and Dowse got one each.

The University of Minnesota's Western conference hockey championship for 1935 was the eighth that school has won.

TANKS PROVE EASY VICTIM OF HERALD

Newsies Gain 34-14 Victory Over Opponents in Speedy Game.

The Herald Newsies defeated the Tanks at the School street Rec Saturday night, 34-14. The defensive play of the Herald was particularly good while the fast breaking offense that has come to be recognized as the Herald style of play functioned perfectly.

The work of the Herald at the free throw line was particularly noticeable. The Herald scoring 14 points via this method. Moszer made good 5-6 tries, Swanson 2-3, Sears 1-1, Sullivan 1-1, Sheldon 2-4, Schultz 2-3. The Tanks in their attempts to halt the Herald's scoring committed foul after foul. Bing Sturgeon was the only player for the Tanks who played any length of time in the game that did not have any personal fouls. Hansen who played the second half with three was the only other regular that wasn't sent to the showers before the game ended. The failure of the Tanks to take the Newsies seriously until it was too late was undoubtedly one of the factors in their defeat.

The Crescents, State Intermediate Y champs, will try to avenge their 25-14 defeat by the Herald at the Y two weeks ago at 7 p. m. tomorrow at the School street Rec. The smaller Rec door is expected to be an advantage to the Herald and a majority of the fans look for a Herald victory. The Crescents, however, feel it will be their game and will come south ready to prove their ability.

The Herald Newsies would like to arrange games with teams that played in the Rec Senior League. The Celtics, Truffs, Independents and Sons of Italy or teams that played in the West Side Rec league. Games to be played at the School street Rec. Managers call 8175 after 5 p. m.

M. H. S. Golf Team To Pry Lid Off Season April 20

Manchester High's golf team is making preparations for what is expected to be a successful season, as all four members of last year's team are back to represent the Red and White. The schedule for the season has not been completed but will consist of at least twelve games, two matches with Middletown High being indefinite as yet.

INDEPENDENTS BOW TO ENDEES IN 1ST TITLE GAME, 52-21

West Side Champs Smother East Siders With Brilliant Attack; Fillers Top Collegians, 35-23.

Over 500 fans packed the School street Rec Saturday night to see the Independents, winners of the East Side Rec league, swamped by the Endees, winners of the West Side Rec league 52-21. The Independents playing on their home floor and having the advantage of experience and height were favored to cop the first game of the series. The Endees however, unleashed a fast passing attack that not only exhausted the Independents but left them befuddled in their attempts to bottle up the Endee scoring.

Wilkinson, Gribbon and P. Anderson rang in swishers this, bordered on the sensational. The fans were divided in their opinion of the Endee skill in this respect some claiming it was basketball ability while others classed it as something of an entirely different nature. The West Side Rec fans however, claimed it was only a sample of their brand of basketball. Nelson, Larson and Selert went best for the Independents while the all-around team work of the Endees makes it impossible to pick any outstanding players. The Endees will probably win easily at the West Side Rec this week.

In the preliminary, Merz's Fillers, champion of the local Y, trounced the Collegians, Rec champs, by a score of 35 to 23, the Fillers rallying from a halftime count of 13-12 against them. Kalkavek and Korch starred for the winners and Ragusius for the losers.

Local Sport Chatter

The Rhymers defeated the Speed Boys of Middletown Saturday night, 28 to 24. Jimmy Gray at right, 28 forward, setting 14 points.

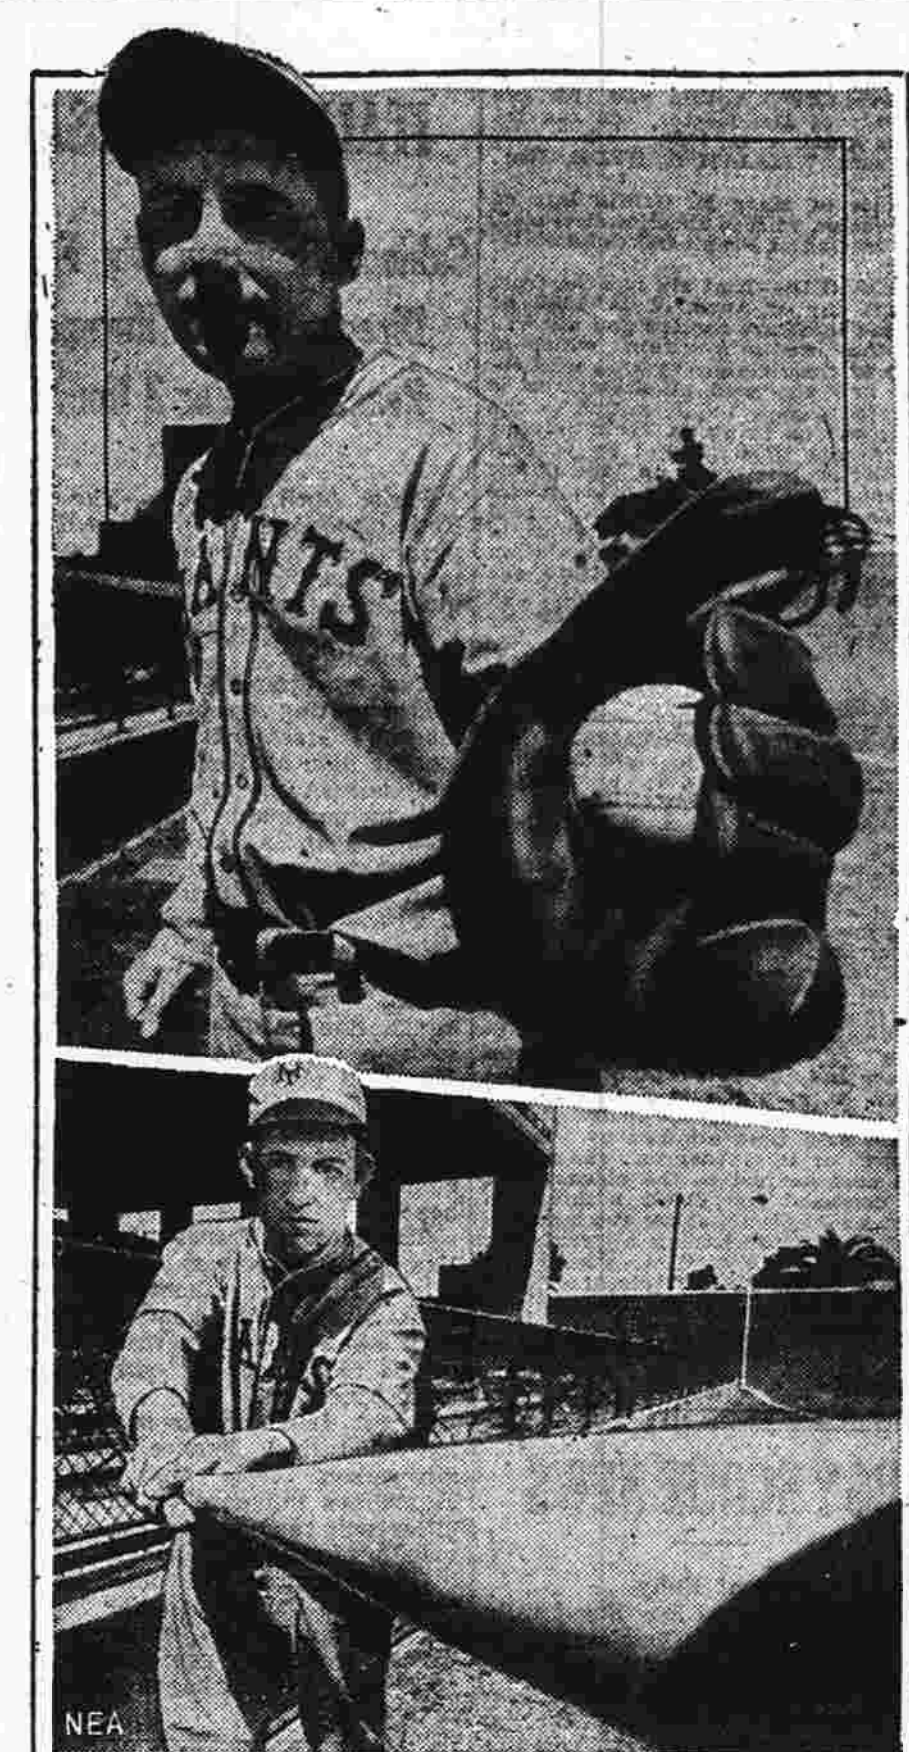

The Phantoms, twice victors over the Guards during the season, won the New Britain title by defeating the Nettletons, another team that beat the soldiers, in the final games of the series, 37 to 29. The Phantoms lineup has undergone several changes since they faced the Guards.

The basketball program at East Hartford Friday night, bringing together the Guards and All-Burnsides and East Hartford and Manchester High is for the benefit of the East Hartford High athletic fund.

This was the first year that the Recreation Centers' team has been a member of the State League and the players deserve plenty of credit in bringing back the much-coveted title in their initial year of play. The Hartford Y team held this title for the past twelve years.

The Rec team also won a Tri-State tournament held in Pittsfield, Mass., on New Year's Day, against teams from New York, New Jersey and Massachusetts.

REC VOLLEY BALL TEAM CAPTURES STATE TITLE IN Y. M. C. A. PLAYOFFS

Locals Defeat Waterbury In Finals, 15-13, After Edging Winsted By 1-15, 15-11 and 15-9; Team Play Brings Honors.

The Recreation Centers' volleyball team captured the state Y. M. C. A. volleyball championship at New Haven Saturday—the first state title ever to come to Manchester in this sport—by defeating Waterbury in the finals after turning back Winsted in the opening match of the playoffs.

Waterbury was matched against Hartford and Manchester was pitted against Winsted in the first matches of the day. Waterbury came through victorious by scores of 15-8, 10-15 and 15-9. The locals had a difficult time overcoming Winsted, playing ragged ball throughout the match. Winsted took the first game by the overwhelming score of 15 to 1. With their backs to the wall, the locals were determined to prove the superiority that brought them their triumphs over Winsted this season. And prove it they did, coming back to win the second and third games, 15 to 11 and 15 to 9.

The Recs had only beaten Waterbury once in four years previous to Saturday's match but the locals were unbeatable in the finals and won two straight games by the same score, 15-13, 15-13.

It is difficult to praise any one member of the team as every player was in there fighting every minute. Much praise was heard after the finals from officials and spectators alike at the remarkable comeback of the locals in the first match.

This was the first year that the Recreation Centers' team has been a member of the State League and the players deserve plenty of credit in bringing back the much-coveted title in their initial year of play. The Hartford Y team held this title for the past twelve years.

YALE HAS STRONG BASEBALL NINE TO DEFEND ITS TITLE

Elis Somewhat Better Prepared This Year But Will Face Tougher Opposition In College Loop.

New Haven, Conn., April 3.—(AP)—Defending the first league baseball championship won by any Yale team since 1886, the varsity Eli nine faces the eastern intercollegiate campaign somewhat better prepared than the team which nosed out Columbia for the Hutchinson Cup a year ago. The opposition, however, will be stronger as Harvard has become a league member as well as a traditional rival for Yale this year.

The Yale team has a more reliable infield to back up the excellent pitching of John Joseph Broaca, and adequate relief hurler to help out Broaca in George Parker.

The fleet Dud Parker is the only outfielder available but he will have two heavy hitting sophomores as flankers. Stewart McKenzie in left and Johnny Dugan in right. It will be a difficult job replacing Joe Maine behind the bat. His place apparently will be taken by Bill Browne, a senior whose ability was hidden last year because Maine was better.

The Eli chances were jeopardized several times last season by a weak left wing of the infield before Albie Booth returned to action. To remedy this condition this year there is Charley Williamson, showing the benefits of more experience at third base and a sophomore star, Pres Woodcock, at shortstop. Alex Fletcher at second base and Captain Richard Palmer Kimball at first are counted upon to round out the best Yale infield in a good many seasons.

Yale won the championship a year ago largely because Broaca pitched invincible ball in seven of his eight starts. The schedule this year is such that Broaca can pitch no more than nine of the 12 games unless he should work 14 innings of an abbreviated doubleheader against Cornell at New Haven May 13. Parker and Ned Wheeler are expected to fill the gaps.

ICE TITLE RESTS ON GAME TONIGHT

National Hockey League Honors At Stake As Bruins and Leafs Clash.

Toronto, April 3.—(AP)—Toronto's Maple Leafs and the Boston Bruins come together tonight in the fifth and final game of their playoff series with the championship of the National Hockey League at stake in the Stanley Cup finals at stake.

With two victories apiece so far, the whole matter hinges upon the outcome of the game, advanced a night from its scheduled date to enable the winner to hurry to New York and start the final series against the Rangers tomorrow. The New Yorkers won their place in the duel for the ancient emblem of world hockey supremacy last Saturday by eliminating the Detroit Red Wings.

The see-saw series that has seen first one team, then the other in the favorite's place, has left only the prospect of a hard and even battle in the final game. All of the first three games went into overtime, the Bruins winning the first and third 2-1 and Toronto the second 1-0. They the Leafs came through rather surprisingly with a 5-3 triumph last Saturday and things were all even again.

Toronto's chances tonight may hinge upon the condition of Joe Primeau, center and play-maker for the famous "kid" line. An infected foot kept Primeau out of Saturday's game but didn't slow down the Leafs, who clearly outplayed their husky rivals. He may be able to play tonight but the injury probably will slow him up a bit. Eddie Shore, Boston's "powerhouse," and the rest of the Bruins are in good shape despite the wear and tear of four hard games.

Mahero wound up with a startling 68, two strokes better than the even par turned in by Mehlhorn. They placed fourth and fifth respectively. The gallery which had neglected them while watching the play of Runyan, Shute and Horton Smith clustered around the New Yorkers as they thundered home in record breaking figures.

The spectators were inclined to agree with the sentiments of Mehlhorn who remarked that "Tony was a hot new record and getting liked by two strokes."

EASTERN TO REMAIN DORMANT THIS YEAR

League May Be Reorganized Next Year; Baseball News In Major Leagues.

Hartford, Conn., April 3.—(AP)—The Eastern League, disbanded last year, will remain dormant during the 1935 baseball season. Delegates from five of the six New England circuits proposed as members of the circuit decided yesterday the time was too short to revive the league before May 10, the suggested opening date. They plan to meet next fall, however, to consider reorganizing it for 1934.

Providence, Hartford, Springfield, Pittsfield and New Haven were represented at the meeting. Bridgeport had been mentioned as the probable sixth member of the circuit.

Tucson, Ariz., April 3.—(AP)—A preview of Teddy Lyons' 1935 pitching assortment was scheduled for today as the White Sox moved into action against the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Lyons, an outstanding hero among White Sox fans through all the lean years, has been showing fine form during the spring training just and probably will draw the opening pitching assignment against St. Louis April 12.

Knoxville, Tenn., April 3.—(AP)—Three home runs in one game and three innings of hitless pitching by Little Art Herring, blazing along the come-back trail—those were some of the things that made Manager Bucky Harris happy today as he led his Detroit Tigers out to Knoxville for an exhibition game.

The circuit blow, by Charley Gehring, Frank Reiber and Harry Davis, figured in the 9 to 2 defeat the Bengals administered to the New York Giants at Nashville yesterday.

Dean showed his stuff here yesterday in holding the Birmingham Barons to four hits and shutout, 5 to 0. To make the victory even sweeter, the Cards pounded the Veteran Ray Caldwell for nine hits in the first five innings. Caldwell was the nemesis of Dean in the 1931 Dixie series when Birmingham defeated Houston, for which Dean was pitching, in the deciding game, 1 to 0.

Jacksonville, Fla., April 3.—(AP)—Hopes of the St. Louis Browns for first division have received impetus from their impressive exhibition victories. By defeating Brooklyn, 3 to 1, in a five-inning game yesterday, the Browns hold an edge of 3 to 2 in their six game series, with the final contest slated this afternoon.

Paul Runyan, who blazed a victorious path through the winter golf tournaments, right now is a popular favorite to capture this year's National Open.

Meet All-Burnsides Friday Night With M. H. S. and East Hartford High In Preliminary; Seven Games Likely To Prolong Season Until Last of April.

At least seven more basketball games seem in prospect before the already-prolonged season will come to an end and three of the contests are scheduled for this week, bringing into action both the National Guards and Manchester High School guards. Wednesday night the Guards tackle the Rhymers of Hartford at the State Armory here in the first of a series to decide the championship of this section of the state.

Friday night the Guards face the All-Burnsides shooting circus at East Hartford in the third meeting of these two teams this season, the local basketballers having won both previous encounters. In the preliminary Manchester High will attempt to avenge two defeats suffered at the hands of East Hartford High during the scholastic season. It is expected that games will be arranged between these combinations for next week also.

Layoff A Handicap
With a record of twenty victories against nine defeats, the Guards are hopeful of turning back the Rhymers in straight games to settle all doubts as to basketball supremacy in this vicinity. The Guards will have to win the main attraction and Art McKay's orchestra will furnish music for dancing.

The All-Burnsides haven't forgotten the two defeats administered by the Guards during the season and believe they can turn the tables after long layoff, both before and after the town series, however, may prove a decided handicap. The soldiers will certainly have to be in better form than they displayed in the local series. They expect to triumph Wednesday night.

The Rhymers have a squad of capable and enthusiastic players and the manner in which they polished off the Hakoobs to win the Hartford city title and then swept through the season in two straight games is evidence of their ability.

Burnsides Seek Revenge
The Guard Reserves will meet an opponent, as yet unselected, in the preliminary, starting at 7:45 o'clock. Al Boggin will referee the main attraction and Art McKay's orchestra will furnish music for dancing.

The All-Burnsides haven't forgotten the two defeats administered by the Guards during the season and believe they can turn the tables after long layoff, both before and after the town series, however, may prove a decided handicap. The soldiers will certainly have to be in better form than they displayed in the local series. They expect to triumph Wednesday night.

M. H. S. Has Chance
Manchester High was in the throes of a slump when defeated by East Hartford the first time, 28 to 18 and only the remarkable work of the second team in the second encounter made the final score 27 to 25 in the East Siders favor, after the latter had run up 14 points against the varsity in the first five minutes of play. The Red and White showed considerable improvement towards the end of the season, winning four straight games. If Coach Wilfred Clarke, who also handles the Guards, can bring his team back into the high caliber games they are capable of playing East Hartford should how in defeat.

As it looks now the basketball season will continue until the first of May; should the various series now arranged, go the limit. Neither of the local teams has played basketball consistently during the last few weeks and it is impossible to foretell just what condition the players will be in when they take the floor this week. Lack of practice is one of the biggest handicaps to contend with. If both teams are right they should come through with victories.

Burdette Hawley as accompanist. Studio officials and others present at the station expressed many admiring comments on the singing of the club and from reports heard this morning listeners also felt that the concert was a huge success.

The club sang eight numbers in all. The announcements stressed the fact that the Beethoven sang its entire program from memory. The numbers were as follows: "Border Ballad" by Maunder; "Lullaby," Brahms; "Who Sails With Drake," Carducci; "Moon," Logan; "Deep River," Burlingame; "Thou My Strength," Kromer; "Schneider's Band," Mundy, and "Good Night," a German Folk Song.

PEARSON LEADS CHORUS OF 650 AT CONFERENCE

Manchester Chorister Directs Two Numbers in Concert of New England Lutherans.

An audience of 3,450 persons packed the Bushnell Memorial at Hartford yesterday afternoon for the final session of the sixth annual Christian Conference of the New England Conference of the Lutheran Church at which a chorus of 650 voices sang for the first time.

Helge Pearson of this town directed the gigantic chorus in its last two numbers, "Beautiful Saviour," by Christensen and the "Hallelujah Chorus" from Handel's "Messiah." The appearance of the Conference chorus marked the climax of years of effort to bring about such an organization, composed of singers from the four New England districts.

The Manchester Luther League entertained nearly thirty delegates to the Conference overnight. Saturday night, the Schubert Singers of Hartford, under the direction of G. Albert Pearson of this town, sang at the inspirational rally. Rev. K. E. Erickson of the Emanuel Lutheran church here was in charge of the prayer service that preceded the rally.

The speakers during the Conference were the Rev. N. J. Gould Wiley of Washington, D. C., executive secretary of the Board of Education of the United Lutheran church of America, and Rev. Ralph H. Larson of Brooklyn, N. Y.

Miss Mitzi Berggren was the delegate from the local league and Alvin Johnson was the only one invited having been received as yet, the place of the annual convention of the conference, scheduled for June, was not announced.

DRUNK-DRIVER JAILED IN LIEU OF $100 FINE

Five Prisoners Keep Appointments With Judge In Police Court Today.

Rudolph Reich, 36, of 18 Hazel street was convicted of drunken driving in town court this morning and was fined $100 and costs by Judge Raymond A. Johnson. In default of payment of fine and costs he was sent to jail.

Reich was arrested by Officer Joseph Prentice at 3:30 Sunday morning driving a car owned by his brother-in-law, Raymond Kulpinaky, north on Main street. Officer Prentice testified that Reich was driving all over the street. He was examined by Dr. LeVerne Holmes at 8:55 a. m., and adjudged drunk.

Albert Clifford of Burnside paid $10 and costs for taking an extended nap on a Manchester trolley car last Saturday night. The motor-man of the car tried to wake him but failed. He called Officer Raymond Griffin who made the arrest.

Clifford told the court that he asked the motor-man to wake him at his stop in East Hartford but the "few drinks" that he admitted taking during the evening lulled him into a sleep that ended at the Terminus here.

William Daley, 58, and Peter Sheridan, 48, both roomers in Minter's Hotel, were found guilty of intoxication and breach of the peace and fined $10 and costs on each count. The pair were arrested in the kitchen of the hotel following a fracas.

William R. Kuhne of Yantic, arrested by Officer Prentice on Center street for driving an automobile with improper markers, was fined $10 and costs. Kuhne said he took the markers of his own car and attached them to a car which he was testing following a repair job.

LOCAL FOLK ATTEND EXHIBITION AT ARNOLD

Between former graduates and others, there were quite a number of Manchester people at the annual Arnold College exhibition held in the Fair Haven Junior High school Saturday evening. Unlike the usual exhibitions, which deal with modern gymnastic technique, this year's program was an interpretation of the history of physical education depicting man's slow and struggling process through the march of time.

Among those from Manchester were Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Massey, James Dowd, director of the Berkshire Industrial Farm in Canaan, N. Y.; Clifford Gustafson, director of physical education and athletics at Greenwich High; Miss Viola Lalande, director of the Young Women's Christian Association in Norwalk but former assistant director of the Recreation Centers here; Elmo Mantell, former well known Manchester athlete who is now a student at Arnold; Miss Kathryn Giblin, graduate of Arnold College, and others.

POLISH CHURCH

Lenten services at the Polish National church on Golway street have been well attended. The choir under the direction of Organist F. J. Skowronek has rendered excellent services at both Sunday and weekday services. Yesterday, Rev. Andrew Gusk, of Wallingford, was present to assist Rev. Peter Latas and to hear confessions. Rev. Gusk delivered a stirring sermon in Polish on the way the way the parents should bring up their children.

On Wednesday evening the Junior choir will meet at 6:30 for its monthly business session, and at 7:30 there will be vespers. Friday at 6:30 the Senior choir will sing, followed by stations of the cross. April 10, Palm Sunday, the children's mass will be at 8:30 and high mass at 10:30.

Y. M. C. A. Notes

Saturday's schedule at the Y was full as usual with the regular groups and several special games. Every minute of the day from nine in the morning till eleven at night except for the noon time something was doing. The Junior North Ends took revenge on the Junior Merz Fillers by defeating them 18 to 14.

In the evening Buckland lost to the Uncas 17 to 11 then the Uncas took on the Tigers and defeated them 17 to 15 then on top of all that the Uncas team played their own fellow townsmen, the Wapping B Boys and lost 31 to 28. That surely should be enough basketball to hold Wapping steady for a while.

The boys of Merz's Fillers who have come out so successfully in the North Side championship went to the School Street Rec on Saturday night and defeated the Collegians, champions of that end of town, in a hard fought battle. The Collegians started off with a great spurt and ran up 8 points before our boys even got started. The Merz's finally got unbound and let loose some fine plays and were able to come out on top. Tomorrow night the second game of this series will be played here at about 8:30.

The Volley Ball tournaments will begin tomorrow night with the various groups we have here. The first game will be between the Junior Bucklands and Junior North Ends at seven tomorrow. All players are asked to watch the bulletin board for Wednesday night games.

BOY BICYCLE RIDER INJURED IN CRASH

Baldwin Lad Hurt in Collision With Car of Dr. Mortimer Moriarty.

Edward Baldwin, 15, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter A. Baldwin of 86 Wells street, was injured at 9 o'clock Saturday evening when he was involved in a collision with an automobile driven by Dr. Mortimer Moriarty on East Center street near the East Cemetery. Dr. Moriarty said that he did not see the boy until he was close to him probably due to the fact that the boy carried a flashlight which he used off and on. The light resembled that of a "weak one-eyed automobile." Dr. Moriarty averted sharply into the curb to avoid hitting the boy blowing one tire and breaking one wheel in the attempt but the bicycle struck the rear of the automobile.

Young Baldwin was found to have lacerations on both legs. These were treated by Dr. Moriarty at the Memorial hospital where he had the boy removed. Sergeant John McMillan made the police investigation but found no cause for an arrest.

Although rain made the fairways too soft and soggy for play Saturday, golf courses in this vicinity were frequented by quite a few players who were anxious to get out and limber up their arms. Temporary greens were in use at the Manchester Country Club but the East Hartford golf course had greens in use and a number of Manchester men had their initial practice of the season. Only the first seven holes were playable at the latter course.

OPEN FORUM

FAIR TO SEKTON

Editor, The Herald: I read with quite a little interest the letter on cemeteries, the sexton, his automobile, etc. Now I don't hold any brief for the sexton, but just in a spirit of fairness I would like to make a few remarks. As regards the sexton donning overalls. Now as a matter of fact there are people coming into the cemetery from Maine to California wanting to know about a grave or a lot. And surely there ought to be someone on the job fully qualified with the necessary information. Personally I think it would convey altogether a wrong impression if a man had to hop out of a grave all dirt and go along with some of these people. A man in the sexton's position should be neat and tidy, in good shape to meet no matter who visits the cemetery. As regards the gentleman's auto, I think that was uncalled for. I understand he runs his car at his own expense, so why growl? If he wants a pair of shears or a pound of nails from the hardware store he can go down and get them a lot quicker with a car. Or if anyone is in distress in the cemetery after hours or on Sunday, which frequently happens, he can get in his car and be there right away. Why growl about the car? Everybody has a car. The East Cemetery, the largest cemetery, needs a super or boss. There is quite considerable more to it than the average citizen thinks who just takes a walk through the cemetery. Honestly I think your correspondent could have found lots of others who have less responsible jobs to pick on. Was there a first seven holes were playable at the latter course?
