Over-confidence, however, is not conducive to outstanding results.

4 VIOLENT DEATHS OVER THE WEEK-END

Two Caused by Autos—One Drowning and a Suicide Reported in State.

By Associated Press
Motor vehicle accidents resulted in two of the four violent deaths reported during the week-end in Connecticut. Besides the two highway fatalities, the list included a drowning and a suicide.
Candido Santos, 20 of Waterbury was killed in Thomaston when his motorcycle struck a pole and a tree after crashing through a group of rotary traffic signs. An unidentified man, believed to be about 25 years old, was run down and killed in Hamden by an automobile driven by Gordon K. Rustin of Clintonville.

Falls Into River
Edward Greiner, 13, of Hartford fell into Keney Cove at Glastonbury and drowned. The boy toppled off his bicycle while riding across the bridge and landed in the water.
Oscar Williams, 31, killed himself with a .22 calibre rifle on the porch of his wife's parent's home in New Milford. His wife left him the day before, taking with her their six children.

The week-end also resulted in the discovery of the body of John F. Keating, 61, printer of Newington, reported missing last January. The body was found in the Connecticut river. Dr. Oliver E. Brown, assistant medical examiner, said it had been in the water between five and ten days.

EDUCATOR WARNS AGAINST FASCISM

Says Care Should Be taken Not to Introduce Its Principles in Our Libraries.

Amherst, Mass., May 22.—(AP)—The American Association for Adult Education opened its eighth annual meeting here today with speakers warning against the "introduction of Fascist principles into the American educational system" and characterizing the library as the foundation of any system of adult education.

Morse A. Cartwright, in a report of the year's activities of the association prepared for delivery today, said "the introduction into the educational structure of principles definitely Fascist in nature is already taking place."

If we are to abandon our ideal of basic education for the whole American people and unlimited educational opportunity above that minimum, then it becomes wholly reasonable to question the continuance of the entire American system of democratic government if we are to denude our consciences and forsake the educational principles of a century and a half, then our only salvation as a nation lies in the quickening of a new Fascist force of arms—call it Fascism, a Monarchy, a Soviet or what you will.

Cartwright urged the facilities of libraries and public schools be made increasingly effective as instruments for the education of adults.

Other speeches prepared for delivery at today's sessions characterized the library as the foundation and central support of any system of adult education.

Benson Y. Landis, executive secretary of the American Country Life Association, prepared a speech on findings of a national study on the question of the system of adult education in the United States is the agricultural extension service.

"The only national system of adult education in the United States is the agricultural extension service," he said. "It is fairly general recognition."

FOUR NATIONS ACCEPT IL DUCE'S PEACE PLAN

Great Britain, France, Germany and Italy Agree to Support Mussolini Scheme to Avert War.

Rome, May 22.—(AP)—Great Britain, France, Germany and Italy have swung into line to support Premier Mussolini's plan for the maintenance of European peace for ten years, untroubled by desires to force their will on any other nation.

The agreement to a revised version of the four power pact first proposed by the Premier in March was given yesterday by the four nations.

Its main points:
1—Collaboration among the four powers to preserve peace for ten years without intention to impose any solution on any similar nations.

2—The statement that post war treaties revision is a possibility but only under Article 16 of the Covenant of the League of Nations.

3—The mention of disarmament only as a desirable necessity without specific recommendations.

4—An agreement to abide by Article 10 of the covenant protecting territorial integrity and independence of league members against external aggression.

No Force Pact.
The preamble stated the pact was based on the League Covenant, the Briand-Kellogg pact and the four power "no force" agreement of last December which guaranteed German arms equality after a serious misunderstanding in the disarmament conference.

The agreement hailed as a happy augury for the disarmament conference and the world economic conference may be initiated today at Geneva. Formal signing was expected to take place here later, in the honor of formally notifying the world of the understanding reserved for Il Duce himself.

Meeting Tonight.
Expectations were this formal notification might follow the meeting of the Fascist Grand Council tonight.

While admitting the possibility of treaty revision, the pact was careful not to mention either the necessity or the desirability of such action. This feature of Il Duce's original proposal met the objection of France and her so-called eastern allies of the little entente, Czechoslovakia, Yugoslavia and Rumania. They insisted any such revision must be within the framework of the League of Nations.

As the pact stands, diplomats agreed it represents the triumph of no one-party or country, but rather is the tangible result of sacrifices by all.

YOUTH FORCED TO KILL SELF

Boy Had Accidentally Killed Companion—Tribal Law Compelled Him To Commit Suicide.

Nairobi, Kenya Colony, May 22.—(AP)—Seven elders of the Nandi tribe today started sentencing a young man to death for accidentally killing a companion while he was grazing sheep.

The distraught young cowherd fled to the forest, but the elders gave chase and recaptured him. They handed him a rope and instructed him to tie it to a branch of a tree, fasten the other around his neck and jump. He did and was hanged.

JAPANESE TROOPS NEARING PEIPING

But Tokyo Denies Report That Old City Will Be Occupied Today.

Tokyo, May 22.—(AP)—The war office said today reports contained in a Rengo (Japanese) news agency despatch from North China, that the occupation of Peiping was imminent lacked official confirmation.

The Rengo despatch said Major General Heijiro Hatohi commanding the 14th Infantry brigade had occupied Tungchow, 13 miles east of Peiping Sunday night and expected to enter the latter place today.

A spokesman for the war office declared he believed the Japanese army would halt just outside the city walls to await Chinese peace overtures.

Keep Advancing
The News Agency despatch indicated that despite denials of Lieut. General Kunitaki Koiso, chief of staff of the Japanese colonial army, that his forces intended to occupy Peiping, Japanese columns swept on almost untroubled, apparently with no intention of stopping short of that ancient north China city.

The 26th Infantry Brigade of Major General Yoshitaka Takata and the forces of General Hatohi together occupied Suiho Sunday and then the latter continued on and seized Tungchow, said the report.

Early today two battalions of Hatohi's soldiers pressed on, continuing for the honor of their vanishing Peiping. One of the battalions was reported three miles northwest of the reported objective.

HOUSE COMMITTEE O. K.'S TAX RAISE

Program Increases Income and Gasoline Taxes and Dividends Are Included.

Washington, May 22.—(AP)—On a quick 13 to 9 vote, the House ways and means committee today approved a program increasing income and gasoline taxes and making corporate dividends subject to the income tax.

Devoted to finance the $2,500,000,000 public works-employment bond issue, it would lift the normal income tax rate from 4 to 6 per cent on incomes of $4,000 net and less, and from 8 to 10 per cent on all above $4,000—estimated to yield $48,000,000; subject dividends from corporate stocks to the income tax rates, estimated to yield $83,000,000, and levy an additional tax of 3-4 of one cent a gallon on gasoline to

MOONEY DOUBTS SLEUTH'S STORY

Detective Says That Explosion That Killed 10 Persons, Was Accident.

San Francisco, May 22.—(AP)—Another story of the 1916 San Francisco Preparedness Day bombing drew attention as Tom Mooney, convicted with Warren K. Billings of the crime, waited a California Supreme Court decision here today on his second trial.

The story, which was greeted with skepticism by Mooney himself, though he admitted willingness to have it investigated, was told by John P. Emerson, a former private detective.

Emerson, whose name has figured in connection with the 17 year old bomb case declared he had prepared to appear at the trial and support his claim Mooney and Billings were victims of a "plot" which killed ten persons and injured 40.

Emerson told Mrs. Rena Mooney, wife of the prisoner, and others connected with the defense, was an accident.

Bomb Abandoned
He asserted the bomb was abandoned by two men at Stewart and Market streets, where it exploded after they discovered it "sinking" from it. They had been hired to "plant" it in Mooney's room by an enemy of the former labor leader, the story added.

Emerson's claim aroused interest in the swayed Supreme Court decision on a petition by John O'Grady, law professor and a former assistant district attorney, asking that the trial, now set for tomorrow, be stopped.

AMERICA TO CONSULT, DAVIS TELLS NATIONS

Here Is The Full Text Of The Davis Address

Washington, May 22.—(AP)—The text of the speech delivered today before the Geneva disarmament conference by Norman H. Davis, chief delegate of the United States, follows:

The initiative taken by the President of the United States in communicating directly with the heads of the states participating in the economic and disarmament conferences was prompted by the pressing need for concerted and decisive action to solve the interrelated problems with which these two conferences must deal.

The disarmament conference has reached the moment for definite decision. We must face the issue; we must now determine whether the nations of the world propose to go forward with progressive disarmament or revert to the pre-war system of unrestrained competition in armaments with all the continuance of the international suspicion and fear which this will involve.

At the end of the World War the peoples of all states and their leaders resolved that the suicidal armaments race of the preceding decades must be changed. They were convinced that this policy had been one of the contributing factors which brought about the war. Hence a new policy regarding armaments was incorporated as a fundamental part of the peace settlement.

Armsament Race
This policy, adopted to prevent a future race in armaments, was based on the principle that armaments are a matter of general concern and that the time had passed when each state should be the sole judge of its armaments.

To carry out this conception provision was made for the disarmament of the defeated powers and at the same time a decision was taken unprecedented in history whereby the victorious states voluntarily assumed an obligation to reduce their own armaments.

As a first step the peace treaties reduced the armaments of Germany and her allies with a view to rendering impossible any aggression on their part. In fact the theory behind these treaties was that the military forces of the disarmed powers should be fixed on the basis of the maintenance of internal order and the necessary policing of frontiers, but no more.

The whole purpose of these provisions was to guarantee that the armies of Germany and her former allies should thereafter stay at home.

Not For All Time
It would neither have been just nor wise, nor was it intended, that when the nations take punitive measures against an aggressor the identity of the aggressors should be refrained from any action of a nature to hinder the collective effort to restore peace.

This doctrine, considered by League of Nations circles as an abandonment of America's traditional policy of isolation was announced by Mr. Davis to the disarmament conference in an eagerly-awaited speech this afternoon.

The doctrine was taken to mean that when the nation takes punitive measures against an aggressor the United States, if it agrees to the identity of the aggressor, will not insist upon the rights of neutrality.

System of Control
Mr. Davis also announced that the United States advocates a system of control and supervision of armaments and said that American readiness to participate in measures for this control would be effective, automatic and permanent.

Inferentially opposing a brusque revision of treaties the American ambassador-at-large urged the maintenance of the territorial status quo.

He also announced that the United States is opposed to the rearmament of any nation and declared in favor of the abolition of offensive arms.

He reiterated American acceptance of Premier Ramsay MacDonald's recent disarmament proposals.

Turning to the Versailles Treaty and its consequences Mr. Davis expressed the conviction that there is a contractual obligation for armed nations to reduce their armaments to a "defensive level" which would be comparable to the level to which the vanquished powers were obliged to reduce their armaments by the peace treaties.

He referred to President Roosevelt's proposal for an international agreement to prevent the sending of armed forces outside national territory and then gave his definition of an aggressor nation as its line with that proposal.

"To cut the power of offense and remove the threat of surprise attacks would do more than anything else to lessen the danger of war," Davis said.

"Further than that, in the event that the states in the future determine that a state has been guilty of a breach of the peace in violation of its international obligations and take measures against the violator, then if we concur in the judgment rendered as to the responsible and guilty party we will refrain from any action tending to defeat such collective effort which the states may thus make to restore peace."

The American ambassador-at-large came out for ratification of the powers of the proposed disarmament commission.

Ultimate Objective
"This commission," he said, "will have no more essential duty than that of effectively supervising fulfillment of the treaty. We recognize that the ultimate objective in disarmament must be obtained by stages, but we believe that the time for the next and decisive step is long overdue and it can not further be postponed."

If Peace is Menaced U. S. Will Confer and Will Not Insist on Neutral Rights if Aggressor is Identified— League Circles Take Eavoy's Declaration as End of Isolation Policy—Davis Tells Geneva Conferees His Country is Opposed to Rearmament and Favors Effective Arms Control.

Geneva, May 22.—(AP)—The United States, through Norman H. Davis, told the nations of the world today that she would consult with them when peace is menaced and if she agrees with them as to the identity of the aggressors she will refrain from any action of a nature to hinder the collective effort to restore peace.

SENATE TO PROBE MORGAN'S RECORDS

Pecora Predicts It Will Result in Important Legislation for Needed Reforms.

Washington, May 22.—(AP)—Ferdinand Pecora, counsel for Senate banking committee, predicted in an interview today that the investigation of J. P. Morgan and Company, opening tomorrow, would result in "much important legislation" to reform banking laws.

Pecora was busily engaged with his staff in going over the evidence to be presented to the Senate committee tomorrow, much of which has been gathered in preliminary investigation in New York.

While he would not discuss the nature of the testimony to be adduced, he said it would "probably suggest the wisdom of segregating commercial and investment banking" such as is now proposed in the pending Glass bank reform bill.

Provisions of Bill
The evidence, Pecora added, would "lend support" to the provision in that bill designed to prevent private bankers from "accepting deposits and at the same time underwriting securities."

The committee counsel planned to confer during testimony to be adduced by the Gay with Chairman Fletcher of the banking committee to make final arrangements for the opening of the inquiry.

Two additional trunk loads of evidence will arrive late this afternoon, Pecora said, to be added to the mass of documents already accumulated.

It was learned that the Morgan firm has engaged large quarters in a local hotel for its personnel and records which are being brought for the investigation. The firm was reported to be bringing to the capital several trunkloads of records which have been subpoenaed or may be needed during the inquiry.

RELIEF PROGRAM FOR STATE READY

Legislative Leaders Receive Copy of Bill Prepared by Commissioner Blodgett.

Hartford, May 22.—(AP)—For the first time this session legislative leaders of the General Assembly had in their possession today a complete program for unemployment relief to towns and cities in financial distress.

The plan is contained in a bill drawn by the Commissioner of Labor and presented this morning to Governor Cross, Majority Leader Frank S. Bergin and Minority Leader Howard W. Alcorn of the Senate. This afternoon William H. Blodgett and Alcorn and House Majority Leader Raymond E. Baldwin and House Minority Leader John A. Markham met again with the Governor in the latter's office to take action on the bill. Executive Secretary Wynne also was called in to the conference.

Though Governor Cross was unprepared to disclose the contents of the bill and would not predict definite action today, it was learned that the bill makes provision for Federal aid through an agency to be created in the state. The governor said he was convinced that Connecticut was eligible for Federal aid under the New Wagner bill and that this plan was receiving serious consideration in the conference.

PLAN TO GET LIGHTING BEFORE PEOPLE TWICE

Tax League Wants Town Meeting on Rate Appeal and June 20 Vote on Plan.

The voters of the town of Manchester will be asked to vote whether the town shall enter an appeal to the Public Utilities Commission for reduced schedules in electric rates according to a petition for a special town meeting filed Saturday by Sherwood G. Bowers, Selectman, and President of the Taxpayers' League.

The Taxpayers' League more than a year ago started a "rate case" against the Manchester Electric Company, before the Public Utilities Commission, in which an adverse decision was rendered by the Commission. The proposed vote would permit the town to conduct the proposed appeal, and not a specific group of voters or interested persons.

A vote to decide if a municipal plant shall be established may be held June 20 if approval of the Secretary of State is given. The vote would be taken in conjunction with the referendum on repeal of the 18th Amendment. Both questions would be placed on the voting machines at that time if within the provision of the statutes.

The special town meeting to be held Tuesday night in High School hall will be held for the specific purpose of approving the issue of the $500,000 bond issue. Opposition to the plan of funding the town's non-productive expenditures is understood to have received considerable support within the past few weeks and opponents of the bonds point out that interest charges over the ten year period, amounting to $100,000 or more, would be excessive. Rejection of the bond issue which would refund the town's deficits in the charity and unemployment appropriations would further complicate the situation which has been the single consideration of the Board of Selectmen for the past three weeks.

Polish Art Exhibition A very interesting and impressive exhibition of Polish art is now on display in the Art Studio at the High School. The exhibition was sent by the International School of Art, the school which Miss Josephine Piesick is at present attending.

The exhibit includes the various parts of the Polish costume which is still worn on special occasions and festive days. The clothing is beautifully embroidered on hand-spun linen in colorful designs. Along with the costumes are cut-paper designs and prints depicting Polish festivals, highly colored and rarely decorative.

Miss Harriet D. Condon, art supervisor, has invited anyone especially interested in Polish art to attend the exhibition, which will be in the studio only until Monday night after which time it may be seen at the Trade school.

SEEK QUICK RESULTS IN HOSPITAL DRIVE

Chairman Urges Fullest Possible Completion of Canvas Before Tomorrow Evening.

Chairman J. E. Rand, in charge of the Memorial hospital drive for $15,000, which started on Friday night, is urging field officers and workers of his campaign organization to make extraordinary efforts to complete their canvases of the community during today and tomorrow, if possible, so as to make a showing of at least two-thirds of the quota already raised when the teams turn in reports at a workers luncheon to be held at Masonic Temple tomorrow evening.

The luncheon is to be served at 6:30. Its cost, so far as the food is concerned, is to be defrayed by a few members of the Executive Committee and will be prepared by women volunteers. Expenses will be incurred either by the hospital or the campaign.

It has been definitely decided that the names of contributors to this drive shall not be published. This is a question upon which there was some divergence of opinion among the workers but the committee finally decided to eliminate the publication of these items.

gree, dependent upon the extension of public library services. Yet in 1928 the American Library Association found over 80 per cent of the rural people of the country without public libraries.

"The most promising type of library for meeting the needs of farm and village people has been that organized on a county basis, and supported by public funds.

"Under present circumstances the typical rural school cannot conduct a program of adult education unless its financial resources and its leadership are supplemented from sources other than those in the community—for example, by state workers and funds."

Landis said elementary education in rural areas was most widely organized in the South and added the state of California offered some of the best illustrations of adult education programs in rural communities.

Praises the Grange
He lauded the work of the Grange—"A School Out of School"—and the Farm Bureau.

What was needed, he said, was more experimentation and the development of an experimental attitude among more professional educators. The Grange, he added, was not for more organizations but for improvement of existing services.

Edmund DeS. Brunner, professor of education at the Teachers College, Knoxville, Tenn., said that the Grange, the Farm Bureau, and the Grange were the only support of his mother. In rendering his decision, Judge Johnson said that it was his opinion that a man without a job and depending on occasional days' work should not be operating an automobile.

land, Germany and Italy on the Mussolini peace pact to preserve the peace for a decade at least.

While regarded as essentially a European affair, the American administration believes the pact helpful in the general drive to reduce armaments and achieve economic stability, particularly since it appears here to go a long way toward France's demands for assurance of security in exchange for disarmament.

The American share in this provision of security was left to be told today at the Geneva disarmament conference by Norman H. Davis, the chief American delegate, in a speech supplementing President Roosevelt's appeal for disarmament sent to the rulers of the world last Tuesday.

ELECTRIC REFRIGERATION A MODERN HOUSEHOLD NECESSITY

The development of Automatic Electric Refrigeration for the home is considered one of the outstanding contributions of the present age. Designed first as a means of properly preserving food, it has quickly grown to be a most valued and modern household necessity.

CARE-FREE REFRIGERATION
One of the greatest advantages in owning an Electric Refrigerator is the absolute source of refrigeration. It is possible to leave for a week-end, or even longer, without giving a thought to food refrigeration.

A SOUND INVESTMENT
An Electric Refrigerator is an investment in health protection and proper food preservation. It contributes to the home and lightens household cares. It becomes a constant convenience and pleasure to every member of the family.

THREE IMPORTANT SAVINGS
Electric Refrigeration offers three important savings through the elimination of needless food spoilage, quantity buying and low cost of operation.

MONDAY, MAY 22.

THE PROSECUTION CURSE.

There must be something of rare therapeutic value about a prosecution in court. Particularly when it is directed against a person accustored to a life of ease, power and luxury. There are so many cases in comparatively recent history in this country to illustrate the idea.

Take that of Albert Fall, for example. He was very, very ill; so ill and old and worn that thousands of people cried out against the utter shame of prosecuting him for stealing some hundreds of millions of dollars worth of United States oil and handing it over to private individuals. The new columns were full of the illness of Fall for several years.
 He used to be brought into court, so to speak, on his bier. Something —it must have been the prosecutions because there was lots of medical testimony that nothing in that advance could help him—has removed Albert, apparently, from the "danger list." It is a long time, now, since there has been a single news item about his closeness to death.
 Apparently he began to get well as soon as the jail doors closed upon him.

Now we have Mr. Harrison. He was so very ill that it was going to be necessary to bring him into court in a wheel chair; he really was quite unfit to answer to anybody for anything, let alone a slight peccadillo like a false bank entry or two involving only a million and a half.
 Yet he was able, seemingly, to wander all over Queen's county, change his name, get his hair cut and take full care of himself in an obscure inn; also to buy a knife and make a suicide gesture when the cops found him.

The doctors couldn't put Harrison on his feet during a period of several months. But the prospects of a criminal trial lent wings to his feet. Perhaps a few years in the pen will restore his youth and put him into such physical shape that when he comes out, he can make a good living as a strong boy with a circus.

GONE FOR GOOD.

Not all of the unemployment problem is due to the depression. If we should have, overnight, a resumption of 1929 activity we would still have many men who could not get jobs. A lot of the men who were paid off back in the boom days were paid off permanently. Their jobs are gone for good.

An example of this is to be found in the coal industry.

The American Mining Congress
 the other day got a report from Clarence E. Pickett, executive secretary of the American Friends Service Committee, showing that at least 200,000 coal miners are never again going to make a living at their old trade.

The plight of these men is not due to the depression. Their industry has simply moved out from under them. Sooner or later they have got to be absorbed into other industries, and before a way of doing this is figured out a lot of people are going to have gray hairs and furrowed brows.

Nor is this problem one that concerns only the surplus 200,000. Until they are absorbed in other jobs, every coal miner in the land suffers with them. Wages in the coal fields cannot rise to higher levels as long as this reservoir of unemployed miners exists.

What is true in the coal mining industry is true in a great many others. This "technological unemployment," about which we used to hear so much before the ordinary, depression-bred kind of unemployment became so common, has laid its hand on almost every trade in America. It is a problem that will grow greater, and not smaller, in the future.

And that is why government and industry, moving to combat unemployment, cannot simply base their campaign on a plan to restore prosperity. The problem is too complicated for that. We need good times to be sure, and no relief scheme that fails to restore them will be any good. But we need a good deal more than that, and it will be tragic if we don't get it.

FOUR POWER FACT.

Heralded as a major measure for the advancement of the cause of world peace comes the news that France, England, Germany and Italy have reached agreement on the Mussolini proposals for a ten year term of mutual support for the prevention of war.

It is beginning to be a little difficult to keep track of the numerous agreements, understandings, com-pacts and multilateral treaties underwritten by European powers, all of them in their turns the subjects of much press-agenting and considerable ceremony and most of them immediately slid away much like depression time applications for jobs.

We are frank to admit our inability to discover in this latest of the peace pacts anything of substantial importance that has not already been signed for by all the four powers concerned.

Still, there may be some usefulness in a distinctly pacific anti-war pledge by nations like Germany, which only a few weeks ago was shouting defiance to the whole world and specifying all over the place as to the preference of Germans for dying in their blood rather than submit longer to the outrages being imposed on them by a hateful and inimical group of barbarian enemies; while there is some edification in the knowledge that the author of this latest of pacts is our old friend the Duce, who a couple of years ago was making a great deal of noise with a sabre.

So long as we do not permit ourselves to take these things too seriously they can do no possible harm.
 Especially when, as just now, they seem to be rather sincerely meant for the moment.

SHIFTING POPULATION.

It will be interesting to see whether the end of the depression will bring any change to the striking new shifts in American population growth.

Figures compiled by the Scripps Foundation for Population Research show that during 1932 American cities as a whole decreased in population by more than 400,000 persons. Farm population, on the other hand, increased in that year by 1,000,000.

A great part of this is undoubtedly due to the depression. The city-ward migration of farm youth was checked; and vast numbers of exruralites who lost their city jobs retreated to their parents' farm homes for the duration of hard times.

There are good reasons for believing that most of our cities are about as large now as they ever will be.
 A movement toward decentralization seems to have begun. How far is it apt to continue, and what will its ultimate effects be?

VANITY OF SUICIDES.

It is vanity, rather than material trouble, that causes most suicides among men. So says Dr. William Muhlberg, medical director of the Union Central Life Insurance Co. of Cincinnati; and his explanation sounds like a good one.

"The thing that drives a man to take his life is his inability to swallow his pride, built up during his more prosperous years," says Dr.
 Muhlberg. "It is not fear of seeing his children go hungry, or his wife weakened from doing housework. It is the agony of watching his neighbor's satisfaction when he has to withdraw from the country club and sell his 16-cylinder sedan."

The old urge to keep up with the Joneses is one of the most powerful motives any of us have. It is probably true that when a man finds himself losing in that silly race he is apt to feel that his whole life is a failure. The vanity of man is one of the queerest and most compelling traits that human nature displays.

THE FARMERS RECONSIDER.

Leaders of the National Farmers' Holiday Association acted with good sense in postponing indefinitely their scheduled national farm strike in order to give the national administration a chance to end the agricultural depression.

It is doubtful if the strike could have succeeded. There are definite indications that the American agri-culturalist is going to have a better year in 1933 than he has had in a long time. It might well have proved difficult to induce any sizable percentage of farmers to hold all their crops off the market at a time when prices are higher than they have been in many months.

Furthermore, the strike would absolutely certainly have alienated public sympathy. No American government ever went so far to relieve the farmers as the present one has gone.

 To strike in the face of that would have been to arouse intense resentment on the part of the general public.

CHILD AUTO DRIVERS.

A 14-year-old Chicago high school girl, driving an automobile along a public highway, recently struck a seven-year-old boy who was riding a bicycle. The boy wasn't badly hurt, and witnesses said that the girl did everything an adult driver could have done to avoid hitting him. But it preyed on her mind, and the tragic upshot was that after a sleepless night of brooding the girl committed suicide.

It's a pitiful little story, and it makes a sad commentary on the automobile age. Why should a child of that age be permitted to drive a car in heavy traffic—or, for that matter, in any kind of traffic?
 Handling an automobile these days is strictly a job for adults. The nervous strain that the accidents of the road can bring to a driver is something no 14-year-old ought to have to shoulder.

WOULD RESTRAIN DOGS THAT BREAK UP NESTS

Game Board Warns Owners of Statute Forbidding Free Roaming of Their Animals.

Control of dogs during the present nesting season of birds is urged in a bulletin of the State Board of Fisheries and Game today. Attention of dog owners is directed to Section 3363 of the Connecticut General Statutes which requires that no owner of a dog shall allow it to roam the lands of another unless the canine is under proper control.

"Qual, pheasants and ground nesting songbirds, some of which are already laying their eggs, are particularly endangered by roving dogs," Superintendent Arthur L. Clark points out. "The mother bird with a clutch of eggs or brood of nestlings, will often valiantly strive to lead the dog away from her nest or young by simulating injury. The disturbance caused by wandering, self-hunting dogs of all kinds is extremely harmful at this season and results in the destruction of many clutches of eggs and broods of helpless young.

"At this period of the year the State Fish and Game department receives numerous complaints concerning roving dogs and game wardens are instructed to co-operate with the dog wardens of the Department of Domestic Animals in enforcing the law in such cases. Citizens in rural sections particularly are urged to keep their dogs under control at this time.

"Section 3363 states: 'No owner or keeper of any dog shall allow such dog to roam at large upon the land of another, and not within reasonable call or control . . . nor allow such dog to roam at large in any public highway not adjoining the premises of the owner or keeper, and not within reasonable call or control of such owner or keeper or his agent, nor fall to confine or control such dog in accordance with the provisions . . . of this chapter.'"

PRESIDENT FISHES OVER THE WEEK-END

Washington, May 22.—(AP)—Brisk and refreshed, President Roosevelt last night wound up his final little vacation from the White House, a week-end boat trip down the Potomac and out on Chesapeake Bay.

He took business along, conferring with Director Lewis W. Douglas of the budget, and others, but most of the time was spent in delectable fishing—rotten catch, mostly eels and crabs—or just lying on the sunny deck.

The yacht Sequoia set out Saturday afternoon for the time of the Star Spangled Banner and a boomed cannon salute from the Navy Yard. It tied up for the night off Indian Head, on the lower Potomac and Sunday morning headed out on the bay for Port Tobacco, a historic landing where before the revolution cargoes set out for Europe which brought fortunes to the Colonists.

The return trip was made in the afternoon and evening.

MISS KRISKI TO APPEAR IN RECITAL AT WATKINS

Miss Grace M. Adams, well known local teacher of the piano, will present her advanced pupil, Miss Stella Krieki, in Miss Adams' fifth annual spring recital at 8 o'clock tomorrow evening at Watkins Brothers music room. The young pianist will be assisted by her brother, Frank Krieki, violinist, and Miss Adams will play a duet with her.

Miss Krieki is one of Miss Adams' most promising pupils. She has been working enthusiastically for this recital and will present a program of classical music, every number of a different type. The recital will be open to all lovers of good music without admission charge.

COLORADO'S "VOLCANO" SETS FIRE TO WOODS

Carbon Mountain Spouts Flames and Gas—Loud Rumbblings Heard.

Durango, Colo., May 22.—(AP)—Carbon Mountain, Colorado's pseudo volcano has ignited a forest. Belching flames and gas, the Rocky Mountain peak which has attracted both curious and scientific by its disintegrating over a period of months, belched forth flames and gas and covered the country side under a blanket of smoke.

The pyrotechnic display of the peak started last night after rumbblings and a loud explosion were heard in the depths of the big black mountain.

The timber fire was on private ground and authorities said they did not believe it would cause extensive damage. Geologists said the mountain probably is resting on a huge bed of igneous which caught fire and that the entire mountain eventually may crumble and burn.

Manchester Girl Scouts held their annual out-of-door rally Saturday afternoon at the Old Golf Links. Nearly one hundred parents and friends viewed the picturesque scene. About three hundred Scouts, headed by the Drum and Bugle Corps, marched on the hillside and marched down to the open field for their exercises which were led by Mrs. Charles Oliver, commissioner. A total of 218 badges and awards were given out by Mrs. John Fickles, chairman of that committee.

The Drum and Bugle Corps gave a most creditable demonstration of their work. The formation of a cross while they played and marching was interesting and exceedingly well done.

After a game period of an hour conducted by Captain Burdick, who divided them into seven groups, each led by a captain, making a relay of games, they all went to the shady trees for ice cream cones and a rest. The good-night circle rounded out a pleasant out-of-door afternoon. Badges and awards were given as follows:

PATERSON WEAVERS TO STRIKE TODAY

More Than 7,000 Workers Involved—Want Shorter Hours and $20 as Minimum Pay.

Paterson, N. J., May 22.—(AP)—A strike called by leaders of silk weavers affecting more than 7,000 workers was scheduled to go into effect today.

The proposed strike seeks to enforce demands for a 40-hour week and $20 a week minimum pay. A plan for the reorganization of the silk industry has been formulated by the executive committee of the silk manufacturers and it will be presented to the Silk Association of America tomorrow.

THEATERS AT THE STATE

Arrive in "Working Man" Gives Delightful Performance.

A remarkable double feature program is being presented by the State Theater today and tomorrow. George Arliss appears in what is perhaps his best liked picture, "The Working Man," with Betty Davis. The excellent detective story featuring Adolphe Menjou in the Thatcher Colt role. On Wednesday comes the New England premiere of Robert Montgomery and Sally Eilers in "Made On Broadway." This MGM picture is showing in Manchester by the visit to Manchester of the MGM Studio on wheels on Thursday afternoon. The novel studio will be open for general and free inspection in front of the State theater on Thursday afternoon from 3 to 7:30 p. m.

"The Working Man" is easily George Arliss' greatest and most down-to-earth picture. Especially entertaining it is to see George Arliss after a period of sedate, dignified characterizations, kicking up his heels, wearing wrinkled clothes, taking part in a drunken orgy, with his hair badly mussed and—actually appearing barefoot.

Kiwanis Camp Benefit Warner Benefit Book Coupons are being sold in town today and all this week by the State theater employees and a selected group of young men and women. Twenty-five per cent of all the money taken in on the sale of these tickets is being given

CHURCH CONVENTION

Columbus, O., May 22.—(AP)—The general assembly of the Presbyterian church in the U. S. A., convening here Thursday, will be confronted with numerous proposals that it meet less often for economy's sake.

One proposal, suggested by the Presbytery of Buffalo and concurred in by 60 of the church's 890 Presbyteries, calls for fewer meetings and a reduction in the number of delegates. The St. Louis Presbytery favors meeting every two years, instead of annually as at present, while some western Presbyteries consider every three years often enough.

All told, 25 of the 70 proposals to be placed before the assembly are concerned with some form of economy, according to Dr. Lewis S. Mudge of Philadelphia, stated clerk.

WAPPING

About two hundred persons witnessed the May Day program on the grounds of the Rye street schools last Friday afternoon, entitled "Our Immigrants." The program was planned by the pupils of Miss Marion J. Hiller room. All the children were in costumes made by the schools.

The South Windsor A. C. ball team played the Broad Brook team Sunday afternoon. The A. C. lost by a score of 3 to 1.

TO TEST LEGALITY OF NEW 3.2 BEER

Oberlin, O., May 22.—(AP)—A United States Supreme Court test of the legality of the new 3.2 per cent beer will be the first objective of a four-point "second dry war" outlined by Dr. Howard Russell, one of the founders of the Anti-Saloon League.

The 77-year-old dry leader, speaking here in the First Congregational church where he gathered followers for the League when it was just getting started 40 years ago, sounded the call for a new offensive against liquor last night. The occasion was the first of a series of meetings celebrating the League's 40th anniversary.

Three judges, said Dr. Russell, have held 3.2 beer intoxicating and illegal—two in lower courts at Columbus and Denver and one in a West Virginia Federal court.

Other points in what he called the "second dry war" will be a fight to prevent the states from repealing the 19th Amendment, a drive to win back state laws which have been repealed during the period of hysteria and the election of a dry Congress in 1934.

REVOLUTIONARY PLOT

Lisbon, Portugal, May 22.—(AP)—Police today arrested six men allegedly involved in a revolutionary plot. Fifty bombs were found in a search of several residences. One of those arrested was an army captain in whose flat bombs were concealed.

SOCIETY WOMEN GET POISON PEN NOTES

Police Believe All the Letters Were Written by the Same Person, a Woman.

Chicago, May 22.—(AP)—The Herald and Examiner today said that a series of poison pen letters had been received by Miss Josephine B. Harris, wife of the vice president of the Harris Trust & Savings bank, and a group of other prominent "Gold Coast" society women.

The newspaper said that contents of the letters had not been made public, but that they had been turned over to postal authorities two weeks ago. Apparently all were written by the same person—a woman.

Mrs. Harris was quoted as being unable to "understand the motive behind these communications" and declared she knew of no "anonymous" letters that had been addressed to my nervous system" and from other sources the paper said it learned that she had denied help to all visitors for the past fortnight.

Her husband is the son of the late W. W. Harris, founder of the bank, and for 15 years Mr. and Mrs. Harris resided in Paris while he was in charge of his father's European enterprises.

MANCHESTER LOSES 1ST DUAL TRACK MEET IN THREE YEARS

HARTFORD HIGH IN SURPRISE VICTORY OVER LOCAL SQUAD

Winners Show Unexpected Strength in Beating Red and White, 62 1-3 to 41 2-3; State Meet Saturday.

Displaying unexpected strength in the track events, Hartford Public High's track and field athletes turned back Manchester High's powerful squad at Trinity Field Saturday afternoon by a score of 62 1-3 to 41 2-3. The result gave the Red and White its first defeat in dual high school competition in three years and earned Hartford its first victory over Manchester since the schools began their sports rivalry four years ago.

Prepare For State Meet. Coach Pete Wigren of Manchester High had no allibi to offer for the defeat suffered by his charges, saying that Hartford showed too much power in the track events and had pointed for Saturday's meet in an attempt to break the three-year monopoly the local team has enjoyed over the Capital City squad. The Manchester team today began practice for its next dual meet, a C. C. I. L. encounter with West Hartford on the latter's field tomorrow afternoon. Saturday Coach Wigren takes his team to New Haven for the state intercollegiate meet and is hopeful of making an impressive showing, due to Manchester's victories over Meriden and Middletown and in the out-of-state meet at Rhode Island recently.

Hartford High's triumph Saturday was well earned and was brought about through sweeping victories in the 440, 880 and running broad jump, in all three of which the winners took first, second and third places. Hartford also captured both the 880 yard relay and the medley relay, although the latter was not counted in the scoring.

In previous meets this year Manchester has not shown any great strength in the field events but it was in this class that the locals did their heaviest scoring Saturday, taking four firsts, three seconds and a third in the field events, while they won only one first, two seconds and a third in the track events.

Murch Is Winner. Billy Murch, the stud and White's ace miler, came again through in the mile, winning by nearly 15 yards from Duffy of Hartford, who has beaten the local runner in longer distance events, chief among them the high school cross country race here on Thanksgiving Day. Murch set the pace at the start and acquired a comfortable lead that Duffy could not overcome in the last stages of the race. Duffy closed the gap considerably near the three-quarter mark but Murch's final sprint easily beat his challenge. Murch was clocked in the fast time of 4:38.8.

Other Local Stars. Arlon Judd featured for Manchester in the track events, taking second place in both the 100 yard dash and the 220 yard dash and Fraser finished third in the latter event. Robinson of Manchester won the discus with a heave of 104 feet, 9 1/2 inches. Lane took the high jump with a leap of five feet, 7 1/2 inches. Johnson placed second in the shot put and also in the javelin throw.

R. McCormick was high scorer for Manchester in the field events, winning two first places in the pole vault and javelin, the first by clearing 11 feet, four inches and the second with a throw of 133 feet, seven inches.

The summary: 100 yards: Won by Orr, Hartford; second, Judd, Manchester; third, Ives, Hartford. Time, 10 5-10. Mile: Won by Murch, Manchester; second, Duffy, Hartford; third, Petrowski, Hartford. Time, 4:38 8-10. 440: Won by George Oberg, Hartford; second, Murphy, Hartford; third, Lamb, Hartford. Time, 53 7-10. 880: Won by Orr, Hartford; second, Judd, Manchester; third, Fraser, Manchester. Time, 24 seconds. 1500: Won by Seymour, Hartford; second, Santorjian, Hartford; third, Heints, Hartford. Time, 2:3 2-10. 880 yards relay: Won by Hartford (Murphy, Hazy, Teban and Orr). Time, 1:38 1-10. Medley relay: Won by Hartford (McNamara, Korback, Sielicki and Camarocco). Time, 2:44 5-10. No point scores. Discus: Won by Robinson, Manchester; second, Gurnea, Manchester; third, Mooney, Hartford. Distance, 104 feet 9 1/2 inches. High jump: Won by Lane, Manchester; second, Oberg, Hartford; third, Murch, Hartford. Distance, 5 feet 7 1/2 inches.

German Sports Club Edges Manchester Olympics, 2-1

After attacking steadily for fully three-quarters of the game, the Manchester Olympics lost a hard fought soccer encounter to a much heavier eleven at Glastonbury yesterday afternoon, bowing to the German Sports Club Juniors by a score of 2 to 1.

In the first half Manchester had full command of the ball and their short shots made the opponent's goal tender believe that war had been declared but he proved his ability by turning back every offensive. After a scoreless first half the second half showed up considerably as the teams worked to put across a score. Manchester tallied first when Simmons cleared and Gray and Kennedy carried the ball up the field. From out of a clear sky Gray shot a perfect kick for the first and only Manchester score.

For the next ten minutes the ball swung back and forth before Faulkner found the local goal wide open and took full advantage of the Manchester pressed hard but lacked ability to score. A few minutes after the score was tied, Simmons came out of his goal to clear the ball and was missed by Ekstrand saw this and with a trouble at all put the German team in front with a neat goal.

HOLD INTERCOLLEGIATES AT HARVARD THIS WEEK

Nearly 300 Athletes to Compete Friday and Saturday; West Conceded Team Title; McCluskey Leading Contender in 3,000 Meter Event.

New York, May 22.—(AP)—The college track season with a long series of sensational and thrilling performances already behind it, reaches one of its major climaxes this week in the 57th annual championships of the Intercollegiate A. A. A. to be decided Friday and Saturday at Harvard stadium.

Thirty-four colleges and universities, including three from the Pacific coast and two from the midwest have nominated 279 athletes for the meet. About 300 of them actually will compete.

Concede West Title. Conceding the team championship in advance to either Stanford or Southern California, eastern stars will concentrate their efforts on snaring a majority of the individual titles. Although they've surrendered the team crown to the far west 11 times in the past 12 years, the last eight years in succession, eastern schools have earned their share and more of the individual championships.

On the basis of their performances this spring, leading contenders in each event lineup something like this:

- 100 meters, Ward, Michigan, Hables, Stanford.
- 200 meters, Parsons, Southern California and Hables.
- 400 meters, Eastman, Stanford, Ahlswold, Southern California and Warner, Yale.
- 800 meters, Eastman, and Bonthron, Princeton.
- 1500 meters, Bonthron, Princeton and Mangano, Cornell.
- 3,000 meters, McCluskey, Fordham, Fook, Harvard, and Canning, Yale.
- 5,000 meters, Ward, Paul, Williams and Zaches, Stanford.
- 110 meter hurdles, Ward, Maier, Stanford, and Lockwood, Yale.
- 200 meter hurdles, Herbert and Maier, Stanford and Dunbar, Yale.

FIGHTING HANDS ACROSS THE SEA

The huge mitt of Primo Carnera, Italian challenger, enclosed the comparatively dainty paw of Jack Sharkey, heavyweight champ, and the two fighters' troth was pledged for their title match, June 29, in New York. The above photo, taken at the time of the signing of the articles, shows Sharkey, left, Carnera, right, and Jimmy Johnston, promoter, supporting the ham-like hands of the two gladiators.

SAVITT GEMS DRUB FALCONS IN OPENER

Gain Easy 13-2 Victory Over New Britain Nine; Sipples Stars at Bat.

Manager Tommy Sipples' Savitt Gems bounded back into the winning column with a vengeance, yesterday in the opening game of the official season against the New Britain Falcons, smothering the heavy-hitting hardware city crew, 13-2 at the Bulkeley Stadium in Hartford. Lanky "Cy" Waterman, pitching his first game for the Gems, held the Falcons to seven hits well scattered.

Sipples' team was aided yesterday by the home run driving of Caldwell. "Jigger" Farrell and "Red" Munn, a triple against the fence in center field by Sipples and the sparring fielding of "Red" Putnam, who accounted for four of the 13 hits the Gems garnered off Armand Brooks and Lanke, who replaced Brooks in the fifth inning. Waterman pitched steady ball for the Gems, fanning six batters and giving no free passes. His battery mate, "Red" Munn, formerly with Springfield of the Eastern League, contributed two singles in addition to his circuit clout.

The Falcons started off as if they were going to clean up the current series. Charlow, nicking Waterman for a hit on the first ball pitched, Jean Hawkins grounded out, Charlow going to second. Wojack was also out at first and on Caldwell's misjudgment of Wilk's fly to "Jig" Wojack scored.

In the game's half of the first, on Farrell's single, Sipples' double and Munn's screaming loft over the left field fence, three runs were scored. They made the score six to one in the second on two singles, two errors and Sipples' triple to left field in center, and two stolen bases. In the last of the third three more Gems crossed the platter on two singles, two doubles, and an error.

The opening game was marked by impressive ceremonies. Led by the band of Our Lady of Sorrows School, players and officials paraded to the flagpole in center field. Mayor Rankin of Hartford and George Quigley of New Britain. E. Gilbert Martino, state commissioner of aviation dropped two baseballs from the plane piloted by "Frenchy" Desjardins. Mayor Quigley donning mask, protector and a smile, only to miss the throw by a foot.

The Savitt Gems will play the Brooklyn Colored Giants and will play Connie Mack's Athletics, May 31 at 4:15 p. m. d. a. t. The gates of the park will be open at 3 p. m.

"Woody" Walleit did not appear in the Gems' line-up yesterday but sat on the bench throughout the game. Inadvertently the name of Jack Stratton was not mentioned in a local play yesterday but acted as coach at the third base line.

RED BIRDS ONLY HALF GAME BEHIND NEW YORK

SUB-ALPINES SPLIT DOUBLEHEADER BILL

Trounce Green in Opener, 11-1, Then Lose Nightcap to Pioneers, 8-6.

The Sup-Alpines split even in a doubleheader bill at Jarvis Grove first game against Manchester Green, 11-1, and losing the nightcap against the Pioneers, 8-6, after leading 6-0 for five innings of a seven inning contest.

The game against the Green started out to be a pitcher's duel between "Herb" Fraser and Babe, Trade School pitcher, until the sixth inning when the Sup-Alpines blasted the Green pitcher all over the lot. The Green team was held harmless the last six innings by H. Fraser, who got better as the game progressed.

Leo Johnson, Sup-Alpine shortstop, gave the fans a thrill when he roared center field and struck up his bare hand and pulled the ball down which would have been a hit in any league. Joe Lovett also fielded sensationally at third base. "Doc" Hutchinson starred in the field for the Green.

Pioneers' Rally Wins "Johnny" Melkoleit pitched masterful ball for the five innings he was in the box but was taken out when the score was 6 to 0 in his favor. The Sup-Alpines started out strong scoring two runs in the first inning on "Onion" Boggins' slash through shortstop scoring Sturgeon and Antonio, who singled the first time up. Three more runs were scored in the next inning on hits by Sartor and Lovett. The Pioneers hit "Al" Smith hard in the sixth inning scoring three runs and still nobody was out. Chick Fraser pitched next but was given poor support and the Pioneers scored five more runs clinching the game 8 to 6. "Bingo" Sturgeon then went in and retired the last batter. The last two innings kept the fans on their toes. The score was tied at six all with two outs. Two misplays by the Alpines let in the last two runs.

Nino Boggins, N. Y. U. player caught spindles behind the bat for the Alpines. With Boggins behind the plate the Sub-Alpines boast one of the best infields in town. With Sullivan in the outfield the Sub-Alpines can also boast a fine outfield. The Sub-Alpines have become quite popular with the fans on account of their scrappy playing. The Sub-Alpines challenge the Fairbairns of the West Side for a game this week.

Chicago moved to third place a few points ahead of the Cleveland Indians who were led by Babe Ruth when Walter Miller, veteran pitcher made his first start of the season and set the Washington Senators down with two singles to win six to 0. Bump Hadley's four hit singing sent the Browns into six place in the standing on the strength of expert pitching and some heavy hitting to go with it.

The Boston Red Sox, scrappy tail-enders of the circuit aided the Browns' advance when a former St. Louis singer, Lloyd Brown, gave them their second straight triumph over Detroit 2-0.

Chicago, May 22.—(AP)—Al Simmons, head coach of the Chicago White Sox's batting department, today had a string of 13 games in which he had hit safely. Today incidentally was Simmons' thirtieth birthday.

ties to peace treaties, that by successive stages they would bring the armaments down to a level strictly determined by the needs of self-defense.

While the United States is not bound by the provisions or the implications of those treaties, I have no hesitancy in saying that it is the will of our people, interpreted by President Roosevelt, to join with the other powers in disarming down to that level, and we are prepared to exert our influence to bring about the states of the world which embody many of the features of the American plan of disarmament through international agreement.

Need for Action The present situation admits of no further delay. The states of the world must either go forward in good faith to carry out in all its implications the disarmament policy which they adopted in 1919 or we must recognize frankly that the ultimate objective and the reconciliation of ourselves to reverting to a race in competitive armament. If the latter course is taken the consequences are inevitable. Soon or later there will be the breakdown of the peace machinery which has been so laboriously built up since 1918 and the world will be swept into another war.

The immediate result of a failure here would be not only a setback in recovery, which depends upon such mutual confidence between nations as will permit a real collaboration in the task of restoring international trade and the freer movement of goods, but a breakdown of the peace machinery which has been so laboriously built up since 1918 and the world will be swept into another war.

U. S. Will Cooperate. Further than that, in the event that the states in conference determine that a state has been guilty of a breach of the peace in violation of its international obligations and take measures against the violator, then, if we concur in the judgment rendered by the nations that other party, we will refrain from any action tending to defeat such collective effort which these states may thus make to restore peace.

Finally we believe that a system of adequate supervision should be formulated to insure the effective and faithful carrying out of any measure of disarmament.

We are prepared to assist in this formulation and to participate in the supervision which should be established by the nations that we are heartily in sympathy with the idea that means of effective, automatic and continuous supervision would be found whereby nations would be able to rely assuredly as long as they respect their obligations with regard to armaments the corresponding obligations of their neighbors will be carried out in the same scrupulous manner.

The disarmament conference has already formulated measures for the establishing of a permanent disarmament commission. The powers now proposed for this commission may well be reinforced. The commission will have many important duties but none more essential than that of effectively supervising the fulfillment of the treaty.

We recognize that the ultimate objective in disarmament must be attained by stages but we believe that the time for the next and decisive step is long overdue and can not be further postponed.

Virtually all the nations of the world have entered upon the solemn obligation of the Briand-Kellogg Pact to renounce war as an instrument of national policy and to settle their disputes only by pacific means.

If we are to keep faith with these obligations we must definitely make up our minds to settle our disputes around a conference table instead of preparing to settle them on the battlefield.

It was with such a thought that the President proposed an understanding by the nations that, subject to existing Treaty rights, armed forces should not be sent across national frontiers.

Who Is An Aggressor? In the long run we may come to the conclusion that the simplest and most accurate definition of an aggressor is one whose armed forces are found on alien soil in violation of treaties.

There have been two main obstacles to disarmament. One was apprehension that Germany proposed to rearm; the other the reluctance of the armed powers of Europe in the present state of the world to take a real step in disarmament.

At this decisive point any nation should fail to give conclusive evidence of its pacific intentions and insist upon the right to rearm, even though the other powers take effective and substantial steps toward disarmament, then the burden of responsibility for the failure of the disarmament conference, with the incalculable consequences of such a failure would rest on the shoulders of that nation.

The problem with which we are faced can not be solved if one nation insists on rearming while the others disarm. The result inevitably would be another race in armaments.

As regards the action of the other powers are not unaware in the United States of the political difficulties which still lie in the way

J. A. IRVINE RESIGNS AS CHENEY EXECUTIVE

Well Known Employment Manager Voluntarily Quits to Seek Broader Field.

James A. Irvine of 91 Robert Road has resigned his position as employment manager of Cheney Brothers, it was learned today. The resignation, which is wholly voluntary and comes as a surprise to officials of the firm, will take effect July 1. Mr. Irvine has no other position in sight at present but desires to engage in the field of textile engineering or personnel work.

Mr. Irvine has been employed at Cheney Brothers for ten years, coming here to assume charge of the training of employees. After four years he was also placed in charge of the employment department. Gifted with pleasant and likable personality, Mr. Irvine has gained many friends among his associates and those with whom he came in contact in his work.

During his ten years in Manchester he has not confined himself entirely to one sphere, being particularly active in local military and civic circles. A captain in the 301st Engineers, Mr. Irvine is a prominent member of Dilworth Cornell Post of the American Legion. For seven years he handled the administration of State veteran funds in Manchester.

He has also been most active in Boy Scout circles locally and for several years was commissioner of the Manchester District of the Hartford Council.

Mr. Irvine is a graduate of Lowell Textile Institute, where he was awarded the degree of bachelor of textile engineering. After the war he was employed by the Rodney Hunt Machine Company of Orange, Mass., before coming to Manchester.

The desire to enter another field of activity prompted his resignation from Cheney Brothers, Mr. Irvine said. He believes that opportunities for him are better elsewhere. Since they have lived here Mr. and Mrs. Irvine have made a great many friends. They have established a home on Robert Road and their neighbors and friends regret their probable departure. Mrs. Irvine has been active in church and civic circles. Within ten days she was chosen head of a new organization of Center church women. She has been president of the Cosmopolitan club and the Memorial Hospital auxiliary, and an ardent leader and worker in church and community affairs.

Campbell Council Breakfast Speakers, After Communion, Hear Words of Fortitude.

About 75 members of Campbell Council, K. of C., received communion in a body at the 8:30 mass in St. James' church yesterday morning. The members met at their club rooms in the State Theater building at 8 o'clock and arrived at the church at 8:25, where a part of the center of the church had been reserved for them.

Following the celebration of the mass by Rev. Thomas Stack, the members went to St. James' hall on Park street where a breakfast was served. The tables were set in the main hall and the decorations were purple and white, the colors of St. James' church. Edward J. Murphy was the toastmaster and Grand Knight Paul Moriarty spoke words of welcome.

At the close of the breakfast Father Stack, who was to celebrate the 10:30 mass, spoke of the benefits of such gatherings saying that man was created in need of companionship and stressed its special need in times like these.

William F. Shea, district deputy and Past Grand Knight of Campbell Council, spoke briefly. District Deputy Louis Chapman, the guest speaker, touched upon the unrest that seemed to be developing in certain sections of New England, even in places where employment was being resumed and where conditions were picking up.

Mr. Shea pointed out that the purpose of the Knights of Columbus, Constitution, state and the nation. Rev. William P. Reidy, pastor of St. James' church and chaplain of the local council, dropped in to speak a few words and took occasion to congratulate the members of the council upon their recent success in the election of officers.

Mr. Reidy said that the hardships which had fallen upon so many during the past three years might, when all was over, serve as a reminder that these are needed for work, be it in the sweat of the body or with the brain. All had their troubles to carry and all would probably come to a better condition as to the respect of God and country.

STOCKS OF POPPIES ARE QUICKLY SOLD

Legion and V. F. W. Groups Report Satisfactory Sale to Aid Veteran Funds.

Everett Kennedy and Mrs. John Gmney, chairman of the Legion and Auxiliary Poppy Day committees and Edward Fraser and Mrs. Alice Wetherell, chairman respectively of the Veterans of Foreign Wars Post and Auxiliary committees, reported today that the sale of poppies on the streets of Manchester, was satisfactory this year, the stock being disposed of in record time by both the Legion and the V. F. W. groups.

The proceeds of the annual sale will be turned over to the welfare committees of the respective organizations and will be dispensed as in past years, to give aid to veterans and members of their families. The annual sale date is left with the individual units and due to the other activities in connection with Memorial Day, the poppies are placed on sale annually two weeks before Memorial Day.

ONLY ONE MAJOR PROJECT NOW ON M. E. E. A. LIST

The work on the North End playground remains the only major project now being conducted by the M. E. A. A. as the season rapidly draws to a close. A payroll amounting to $1,538.57, the smallest of the current season of the Unemployment Association, will be distributed Friday at the office, 77 Center street.

Last week 194 people were given jobs and the number of those employed until the close of activity of the association will be reduced weekly. A large proportion of the work now being done is for individuals who contributed to the association fund during the winter months.
