

BIG TASKS AHEAD FOR STATE SOLONS

Many Measures Still to Be Debated During the Remaining Three Days of General Assembly.

Hartford, June 3.—(AP)—Drawing some comfort from the knowledge that with the passage of the municipal relief bill the biggest job on its hands was finished, the General Assembly faces the prospects of grueling hours of labor during the remaining three days before final adjournment.

Legislative action on the relief bill providing for state guarantee of municipal bonds and creating a state relief commission was completed during a week which found Legislators almost overwhelmed by the avalanche of bills which poured out of committees either to be summarily rejected or to find places on heavily laden calendars.

In an effort to keep up with the fast moving parade of proposed legislation, both Houses stuck dogmatically to their work through hours of wearying debates and roll calls on such controversial issues as relief, minimum wages and 48-hour bills for women and minors in industry, taxation of bill boards, branch banking, taxation of athletic properties of educational institutions, sales tax, creation of a state council of education and numerous other measures of lesser importance.

With legislative leaders determined to reach as close to the bottom of the formidable pile of work as possible, an even faster and more harassing pace was predicted for next week.

Battles expected in the House over the Senate approved minimum wage and 48-hour bills, while the Senate expects to find much to argue about in the unfavorable reports which the judiciary committee has decided to submit on the old age pension bill drafted by the state commission named two years ago to study the subject.

Indications were also given during the week that a class was expected on two railroad bills. One of these, popularly referred to as the "crew bill" makes more stringent the requirements for manning passenger and freight trains and is reported as unfavorable regarding by the New Haven and Hartford road. The other would authorize railroad companies in the state to engage in commercial aviation.

Shea's Threat
Senator Shea, Hartford informed his colleagues yesterday that unless the full crew bill receives legislative approval, he will make every effort to have the aviation bill turned down. He charged the New Haven road came to the General Assembly this year with "outstretched hands" but that it has refused to give anything in return.

Debates on the municipal relief bill forced both Houses to sit through the longest meetings of the session as legislative leaders fought repeated attempts to have the measure amended. Opponents assailed the plan as one which did not provide direct, monetary state aid.

They attacked also a provision empowering the proposed state relief commission to petition for receivers for municipalities defaulting in the payment of principal or interest on any of their obligations. Amendment after amendment was turned down. Among them were proposals for a retail sales tax of two per cent and a state bond issue.

SEVEN KILLED, 50 INJURED BY AN EXPLOSION

Hundreds of Thousands of Dollars Damage in Signal Hill, Cal., Called Richest Little City in the World.

Signal Hill, Calif., June 3.—(AP)—The richest little city in the world today appraised the cost of its first catastrophe, an explosion and fire which blackened an area of four square blocks, killed seven persons, sent fifty more to hospitals and caused damage of several hundred thousand of dollars.

Signal Hill, adjoining Long Beach at the northern city limits, still watches black streams and glowing drift from the remnants of oil derricks ravaged yesterday by concussion and flame when a little compression chamber loosed havoc on this area.

Rescue workers searched throughout the night for additional bodies but only two persons definitely were reported missing. Of those in the hospitals, none was expected to die of injuries.

Chamber Explodes
Latent power in the "black gold" gushing from Signal Hill became a roaring inferno as the chamber exploded. Gas rushed from the tank, enveloping the field in fire.

Concussion added its destructiveness as fire licked at oil soaked derrick structures in the packed field, demolishing frame buildings within an area of many blocks and giving rise to frantic shouts of earthquake. Long Beach and the surrounding area on March 10 was wracked by an earthquake which claimed more than 100 lives.

Felt 100 Miles Away
At May Wood, ten miles from Signal Hill, the explosion was felt with such force that an earthquake alarm was sounded and schools were emptied.

Those who lost their lives included five men, a woman and her young daughter. The man was trapped in the company absorption plant. Five of them were credited with sacrificing their lives in an effort to prevent the fire.

The dead:
Duke Gaughan of Bellflower; Ed Weiler of Anaheim; Charles Cope of Long Beach; E. Brown of Fullerton; J. L. Shumway of Bellflower; Mrs. Lotte Carlyn, of Long Beach; her daughter Marilyn, 8.

Grand Old Man of Sports
World Passes — Health Farm Made Him Wealthy.

Purchase, N. Y., June 3.—(AP)—William Muldoon, state boxing commissioner and grand old man of athletics, died today in his 89th year.

The veteran sportsman, a noted expert on health methods, originator of the "health farm idea" and intimate of leading sports figures for half a century, succumbed shortly before 5 a. m. at his estate here.

Only nine days ago he celebrated his 88th birthday. His first experience with a sick-bed was two years ago when he fell from a horse. Later he recovered and announced he would "live for many more years," but the tell-tale ailments of old age began to take their toll, and on his last birthday he was confined to his home.

POPE EXCOMMUNICATES GOVERNMENT OF SPAIN

In Surprise Encyclical Pontiff Expels from Church President, His Cabinet and Some Deputies.

Vatican City, June 3.—(AP)—The entire government of Spain has been automatically excommunicated from the Catholic Church for signing anti-Catholic decrees, the Vatican State Department announced today after Pope Pius had issued a surprise encyclical declaring that new Spanish religious laws constituted a grievous attack on the Church.

The department explained that no decree of excommunication will be proclaimed because the acts committed by the Spanish government come automatically under the provision of canon law.

Vatican City, June 3.—(AP)—Pope Pius unexpectedly issued an important encyclical today on the situation in the Catholic church in Spain. He expressed his deep love for this nation but profound sorrow for the wrong and injuries he said were done the church.

No advance notice was given of the Pope's intention to publish the encyclical until the secretary of state's office announced it was ready this morning.

JAMES MATTERN HOPS ON SOLO WORLD TRIP

Coast to Coast Mark Is Lowered by Hawks

By ASSOCIATED PRESS
New York, June 3.—(AP)—Los Angeles and New York are only 13 hours, 26 minutes and 15 seconds apart to Frank Hawks.

When he set down his "flying laboratory" at Floyd Bennett field at 10:19 p. m., e. s. t., last night it ended a non-stop solo flight from Los Angeles which broke Hawks' own record by four hours and ten minutes. He established the record four years ago.

While the Hawks time yesterday is the best for a non-stop cross continental flight, it is not the swiftest plane time between the two coasts. Captain James Haislip spanned the continent last year in ten hours and 19 minutes, but his flight was not non stop.

New York, June 3.—(AP)—An aerial Jack-of-all-work with six oranges in his pocket and a grin on his lips hopped off from Floyd Bennett field today in a single-handed try at the globe-girdling record.

James Joseph Mattern, of San Angelo, Tex., who has done all kinds of flying chores, from toting food to Mexico to hopping the Atlantic, roared down the mile-long runway in his "Century of Progress" and got away at 4:20 a. m., eastern time, last night.

The record, eight days, seven hours and 51 minutes, was set two years ago by Wiley Post and Harold Gatty.

His First Stop
As Mattern's first stop on the terrific grid, there were several versions and much confusion. First he was represented as hoping to get to Moscow without a stop. Later it was said that Berlin, more than 4,000 miles from New York, was his first aim.

After he soared away, however, Jack Clark, II, his personal representative, announced that neither of these was right, that he would stop first in Paris, about 3,600 miles from New York, snatch a little sleep and go on to Moscow. Clark said he should make Paris in about 27 hours.

Tremendous Speed
After the red-white-and-blue monoplane had soared to a height of 3,000 feet, it streaked away in a tremendous burst of speed, toward Harbor Grace, N. F., where Mattern planned to head out over the Atlantic.

The oranges were Mattern's only food supply.

"All I mean is them and a good tail wind to get over there in short order," he said with a smile as a crowd which had stayed up all night cheered.

Rest of Program
After Moscow plans for "forty winks" at Yakutsk, Siberia, Nome and Fairbanks, Alaska; and Edmonton, Alberta, whence he hopes to fly non-stop back to New York.

This route follows closely the one which he and Bennett Griffin mapped last year for a world circling attempt which came to grief in a Russian peat bog.

Mattern is a native of Freeport, Ill., and for years flying sports has been made a colonel on the staffs of Governors Murray of Oklahoma and Ferguson of Texas.

Attendees at Floyd Bennett Field expressed the opinion Mattern would be over Harbor Grace in six or seven hours after leaving here, over Ireland in perhaps 17 or 18 hours and over Berlin in 21 or 22 hours, if ideal conditions prevail.

NEW ENGLAND WATCHES.
New York, June 3.—(AP)—James Mattern was not sighted during the early hours of his solo flight around the world which began here at 4:20, eastern standard time, this morning.

New England points were on the watch for passage of his plane, painted to resemble a great bird, but he was not seen. The Coast Guard had an eye out for him but he passed unseen.

It was thought probable he might not be sighted until he reached Nova Scotia or even Newfoundland, where he was to head out across the open sea.

In his flight with Bennett Griffin last year Mattern made the first leg of the journey, New York to Newfoundland, slowly, taking more than 10 hours for the 11 hundred miles. Wiley Post and Harold Gatty, in their record flight around the world, took only six hours and 52 minutes.

Although it was hoped that Mattern might be sighted at least at Newfoundland, this was by no means certain as he planned no stop there.

LOOKS LIKE EAGLE
New York, June 3.—(AP)—The plane in which James Mattern, of San Angelo, Tex., is trying to circle the world looks in the air like a gigantic eagle.

The bullet shaped body and the wings of the fast monoplane are dappled with red, white and blue splashes to simulate feathers, and the red stream-lined "pant" over the wheels are in the shape of outstretched talons.

The name of the ship, "Century of Progress," is painted on the sides of the fuselage. Under the wing on either side and on the rudder is the Department of Commerce license NR 891 E. There is no radio equipment.

SUSPECT IS HELD IN SKULL MYSTERY

Stafford Goat Farmer Held Under Coroner's Warrant; State Police Silent.

Stafford Springs, June 3.—(AP)—Joseph Brule, 45, West Stafford goat farmer and charcoal burner was held on a coroner's warrant in Hartford county jail as state police tried to link a skull found on his farm with the disappearance of two men 5 years ago.

Brule already was in jail facing trial on a charge of receiving stolen goods after he was implicated in the robbery of an Avon store to which police say Alexander Markievicz of Watertown was confessed.

The skull came to light Thursday while state police were searching the neighborhood for stolen goods. It had been found, they said, weeks ago by Fred Jarvis, a farm hand, near Brule's charcoal pit, but was hidden in the attic of a tenant house on the Brule arm.

State Police Silent
The state police who searched the charcoal pit yesterday for the remainder of the skeleton and that of the second man who vanished in 1917, are keeping their findings secret.

Markings which may have been caused by a surgeon's knife, are said to be the only clue to the identification of the skull.

The two men disappeared, police say, after they appeared in this section seeking to buy a farm.

FACTS UNCOVERED IN MORGAN PROBE

Outstanding Disclosures About Noted Banking Firm Made During Week.

Washington, June 3.—(AP)—Here are the outstanding disclosures about J. F. Morgan and Company brought out in the Senate banking committee seven days of investigation. The banking house's articles of partnership give J. P. Morgan, head of the firm, the final word on virtually all important matters affecting the firm.

The twenty partners in Morgan and Company have paid $51,538,000 in income taxes from 1917 to 1929 but only about $48,000 for 1930 and nothing for 1931 and 1932.

The group of utility companies in which the United Corporation, Morgan holding company has stock, is the largest in the country.

Morgan and Company's gross profits on security underwritings for 1929, 1930 and 1931 were $12,797,000.

At the close of 1932, the Morgan firm had deposits of $240,000,000 and assets approximating $425,000,000.

Amory, the prominent man who accepted invitations to buy stock from the House of Morgan at bargain prices were the late Calvin Coolidge, Secretary Woodin, Justice Owen Roberts, Newman D. Baker, John J. Raskob, Norman H. Davis and Senator William G. McAdoo.

Morgan and Company was one of seven firms in 1928 which pooled $250,000,000 for use in stabilizing the declining Stock Market.

The banking house reported profits of $18,284,000 from security flotations during the 1927-1931 years.

During this time the firm participated in more than fifty pools, syndicates and joint accounts.

Morgan partners hold 187 directorships in banking, industrial and other corporations.

NO CHANGE MADE IN NORTH END P. O.

Depot Square Group Gets Word That Senator Loneragan Has Taken Action.

After being advised that Federal Inspector E. A. Courter's recommendation for a change in postal facilities at the north end would be accepted despite the protest of the local Chamber of Commerce, business men at Depot Square sent a flood of telegrams to Senator Augustine Loneragan at Washington Thursday night and the latter immediately obtained the promise of the post office department that no change would be made.

The federal inspector investigated local postal conditions and found that the north end service could be handled through a contract station instead of the present Station A. The Chamber recommended retention of the present service but Mr. Courter said that his report would be accepted. Senator Loneragan was then notified and he convinced officials in Washington that Station A was necessary and should be retained. It was also said that service would be improved at the north end.

Farm Board Investigators Uncover Startling Facts

Washington, June 3.—(AP)—An exhaustive investigation of the Farmers National was organized under auspices of the Farm Board and dealt with the Grain Stabilization Corporation.

McCarl said the Farmers National bought grain handling facilities from the Farmers' Union Terminal Elevator Association, at St. Paul for a price including $100,000 for "good will."

This $100,000 was one item of a $600,000 total shown by the report to have been paid for "good will."

McCarl said the Farmers National still owes the Farm Board $125,000.00.

EX-GERMAN PRINCE MARRIES COMMONER

Prince Wilhelm of Prussia Defies Tradition; Forfeits All His Chances.

Bonn, Germany, June 3.—(AP)—A Hohenzollern tradition, a rigid "house law" since the 15th Century, was broken today by the marriage of former Prince Wilhelm of Prussia to Dorothy von Salviati, a vivacious 25-year-old girl of "unequal" birth.

The prince, who will be 27 July 4, once was in line for the German throne, but by the marriage he may forfeit all his chances if the dynasty should return to power.

Their engagement was received with "painful surprise" in Monarchist circles, who knew the wedding might be the end of Hohenzollern aspirations to the throne, for the continuity of the house depends upon "legitimacy," a term with many implications.

Proceeding the ceremony, set for 1 p. m. today, was a round of festivities beginning last night with a torchlight procession, in which university students affiliated with the Steel Helmet veterans organization paraded to martial tunes through streets lined with thousands of persons.

Given Ovation
Handsome Wilhelm, eldest son of the former Crown Prince, and Fraulin von Salviati, who is of Italian descent, responded to ovations from the porch of the villa of the latter's parents. Wilhelm, whose full name is Wilhelm Friedrich Franz Josef Graf, is a Steel Helmet battalion leader.

Since the announcement of the engagement April 20, the royal house has maintained the strictest silence on whether any of its members would attend the ceremony. A representative of the bridegroom's father, the former Kaiser, visited Wilhelm for a talk that was described as "harmonious." It was reported that the former Kaiser was deeply disappointed.

The term "legitimacy" to Monarchists means, for one thing, implicit obedience to the chief of the dynasty. In this case the former Kaiser, Young Wilhelm asked neither his grandfather nor of $15,000,000. The relief measure met its chief opposition from Democrats although some House Republicans were bitter in their denunciation of some of its provisions.

The minimum wage measure sailed through the Senate with little opposition but the 48-hour bill had a close squeeze, being approved by a strictly party vote of 18 to 12. The latter bill was supported solidly by Democrats.

Eight Hour Day Although supported by Senator Julius C. Stremlau who led the fight for the minimum wage and 48 hour bill a measure proposing an eight hour day for all state employees, as a strictly party vote of 18 to 12, was voted down by the Senate without a record vote.

Branch Banking Although assailed as an octopus the legislation branch banking in Connecticut won concurrent approval from the House.

The Senate also gave its approval to another important bank bill. This authorizes 16 or more mutual savings banks to incorporate for the purpose of creating a fund from which members banks may borrow during periods of stress.

Unanimous confirmation by the Senate of the nomination of Senator William H. Hackett, New Haven Democrat as state tax commissioner, came somewhat as a surprise to the many who had forecast a battle as fierce as that which preceded confirmation of another Democrat, Michael A. Connor, to the motor vehicle commissionership.

The Pontiff said he had made representations to the Spanish government because of "the error of its course in wounding the dearest and most deep-seated sentiments of the people in disturbing mutual union and harmony, while assuring his beloved children of the clergy and laity how near his heart they were in the course of persecution."

After approval had been given the law concerning religious congregations, however, he said he feels it his duty to raise his voice anew.

His Holiness described the new law as one "which constitutes a new and more serious attack not merely on religion and the church, but also on those accepted principles of civic freedom on which the new Spanish regime pretends to be based."

The encyclical, addressed to all bishops in the world, said the Pope does not take this action to thwart political reforms because the church accommodates herself to all forms of government and civil institutions which provide the rights of God and Christian conscience are not in tact.

He imputed antagonism against the church to "a hatred which secret organizations that seek the destruction of all religious and social order entertain against the Lord."

The Pope made eight charges against the Republic. One was the separation of the church and the state, which was described as being a "most grievous error."

Two, the Catholic religion has an odious watch set over its teachings in schools; the exercise of worship, religious processions, the administration of Sacraments for the dying, and services for the dead were hampered.

Three, the Church was stripped of all property and forced to pay a tax.

Four, churches were declared the property of the state.

Five, religious congregations were deprived of the right to teach.

Six, religious congregations were suppressed which took a vow of obedience to authority other than the state.

Seven, a blow was aimed at the supreme authority of the Church by the declaration that the "authority of Jesus Christ is foreign to the Spanish nation."

Eight, religious buildings were seized in order to establish lay schools.

His Conclusion "We invite all our beloved sons in Spain to rise up, to employ every legitimate means to induce the legislators to reform enactments so contrary to the rights of every citizen and so hostile to the Church, substituting others acceptable to the Catholic conscience."

He urged the bishops to use every means to further religious instruction, recommended that all unite in the defense of the faith, and emphasized the necessity to the Church of developing the Catholic Action organization.

The Pontiff ended with an invitation to have confidence in the unfailing assistance of God and imparted his blessing to the whole Spanish nation.

FIRST DUAL FIELD DAY IS HELD HERE

Grade Pupil Contests for Both Boys and Girls Attract Outside Visitors.

The innovation of a girls' "Play Day" in connection with the annual field day of the children of the Hollister Street, Buckland, Manchester Green, Highland Park and South Schools contributed to the complete success of that affair when it was held at Hickey's Grove in the North End yesterday.

One hundred and sixty-seven girls from the fifth and sixth grades participated in the various Play Day games, each girl taking part for thirty minutes each in two games, on the list of which were volleyball, serve-up ball, volleyball, baseball and hit-pin baseball.

The fifth grade event was in three relay races—simple relay, man-monkey, crab and human obstacle relays. Color teams of girls, one girl from each class, competed.

The Pinks won the contest among the fifth and sixth grades and every girl on that team was awarded a blue ribbon.

Bigger Girls In the afternoon the seventh and eighth grade girls played the same games and ran the same races, 118 of them taking part. Here, too, the Pinks team was victorious, scoring 18 points, the Reds being second with 16.

The boys' field day events were run in similar fashion with the girls' competitions, there being two groups of competitors, one consisting of fifth and sixth grade pupils, the other of boys of the seventh and eighth grades.

Running high jump—1st, Paul Yokitis, Hollister; 2d, George Converse, Hollister; 3d, W. A. Tedford, Hollister; 4th, seven contestants tied for third.

Relay race—1st, South school; 2d, Miss Whitney's room, Hollister; 3d, Miss Prescott's room, Hollister.

Bigger Boys The contests of the bigger boys in the eighth grades resulted as follows:

Running high jump—1st, Richards, Manchester Green, 4 ft. 8 in.; 2d, A. Hall, Hollister, 4 ft. 7 in.; 3d, Hahn, Manchester Green, 4 ft. 6 in.; 4th, Hahn, Manchester Green; 5th, Richards, Manchester Green; 6th, Berk, Hollister.

Broad jump—1st, Peter Osofus, Hollister; 2d, White, Hollister; 3d, Converse, Hollister.

Relay race—1st, South school; 2d, Miss Whitney's room, Hollister; 3d, Miss Prescott's room, Hollister.

The contests of the bigger boys in the eighth grades resulted as follows:

Running high jump—1st, Richards, Manchester Green, 4 ft. 8 in.; 2d, A. Hall, Hollister, 4 ft. 7 in.; 3d, Hahn, Manchester Green, 4 ft. 6 in.; 4th, Hahn, Manchester Green; 5th, Richards, Manchester Green; 6th, Berk, Hollister.

Broad jump—1st, Hahn, Manchester Green, 15 ft. 6 in.; 2d, Murdoch, Hollister, 15 ft. 4 in.; 3d, Richards, Manchester Green, 15 ft. 4 in.

Relay race—1st, Manchester Green; 2d, Hollister; 3d, Hollister.

This combined field day and "play day" was the first of its kind held by a Connecticut public school system and it attracted more than local attention, a number of out-of-town visitors being present, who were favorably impressed at the manner of handling so large a number of young pupils.

In charge of the boys' field day were Principal Thomas Bentley, E. J. Simonds and David Hamilton. Supervising the girls' Play Day were Mrs. W. W. Crockett, assisted by teachers of the schools, by seven student referees provided by the Manchester High School and by Miss Helen Maloney, Miss Emily Smith and Miss Naomi Foster.

Mr. Bentley and Mrs. Crockett have asked that their appreciation of the assistance rendered them be publicly acknowledged.

ATTEMPT TO REMOVE REV. HOWELL FAILS

Norwalk Vestrymen Vote 32 to 17 to Retain Rector of St. Paul's Episcopal Church.

Norwalk, June 3.—(AP)—An attempt to remove Rev. Louis B. Howell, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church, the First Episcopal church to be consecrated in America, failed last night when the parishioners voted 32 to 17 to retain Howell.

Following the vote five vestrymen and the junior and senior wardens resigned. With the exception of Senior Warden Edric Salisbury, all of the resignations were accepted.

For the first time in the history of the church a woman, Mrs. Francis Leonard, was chosen a member of the vestry board.

Before the meeting concluded it was voted to tender Mr. Howell a testimonial dinner in the near future, to celebrate the twenty-fifth anniversary of his pastorate.

GIVES SHOWER PARTY FOR SISTER-IN-LAW

Mrs. Joseph Dimlow of 84 Ridge street gave a large miscellaneous shower at her home last night in honor of her sister-in-law, Miss Margaret Dimlow who is to be married this month to Roger Dunbar, son of Autumn street. About 85 were present from this town, Hartford and Broad Brook.

A pleasant evening was passed and a buffet served. This was Miss Dimlow's second shower and she received a choice collection of gifts. Miss Dimlow is employed by Chesney Brothers and Mr. Gustafson by the Manchester Electric company.

KING'S DAUGHTERS REVIVE OLD CUSTOM

Table Hostesses in Charge—More Than 200 Attend—Mrs. Knofia Chairman.

Ever Ready Circle of King's Daughters successfully revived a custom of former years at its June dinner at the Second Congregational church last evening. Each one of the more than 200 tables was in charge of two member hostesses, who assembled their daintiest china, table linen, silver, glassware and decorations, serving coffee from tables and personally attending to the preferences of their table guests.

All members of the circle assisted in some way or other in catering to the preferences of their table guests. The result was an unusually varied and attractive group of tables.

More than 400 persons, many of whom were from Hartford and all parts of this town. Mrs. William A. Knofia, general chairman, was the recipient of congratulations on the success of the dinner.

Mrs. Knofia feels that the community welfare work conducted for more than 40 years by this organization will receive a boost when the net profits are known.

Chairman and committee are grateful to all who cooperated in any way, and especially to those who generously furnished without charge several of the articles of food used in preparing the meal.

DRAMATIC PUPILS PRESENT RECITAL

Mrs. Hazel Hughes McComb's Classes Give Fine Program at Center Church.

Junior pupils of Mrs. Hazel Hughes McComb, local teacher of dramatic art, delighted a large gathering of their parents and interested friends at Center church last night with a varied program of readings.

Miss Helen Viers played at intervals Bach's Arioso, the Cradle Song from Brahms and Der Sohn der Halde, Keler Bela. Mrs. Paul Mosley was the accompanist.

Six-year-old Shirley Clemson appeared twice on the program. Her first number, "The Mechanical Doll" by Marshall Stedman, was remarkably well executed for one so young.

The stiff, mechanical gestures of the automatic doll, and the squeaking voice were imitated cleverly and sustained throughout the number. In her second monologue, "Playing Postman" by Peggy Reece, the small girl showed her versatility by impersonating several characters in a way that might be expected of a seasoned professional.

Elaine Straughan, slightly older than Shirley, gave a realistic portrait of the trials of a child during "Fractious Time," a poem by Edgar Guest. Elaine also took part in a pleasing sketch entitled "Poems of Nature," which represented a huge volume of poems, from which the children entered and re-appeared to recite nature verses.

Other numbers were Joyce Kohler, Barbara Murphy and Louise Dewey. Every one of the children showed much natural dramatic talent and the effects of excellent training.

The Kehler sisters, Emma Lou and Joyce, in a funny dialogue, "Imagination," gave an imitation of father giving mother a lesson in driving an automobile. This called for much action and expression and the sisters were fully equal to it.

Emma Lou appeared again in a humorous monologue, "Janice Wanted a Watch," and received much applause, as did Barbara Andberg with her impersonation of the careless shopper who is obliged to call back to her home from the store, over a busy booth wire.

Barbara played a prominent part in the final number, a one-act play, purporting to be a dormitory scene in the Linwood boarding school under the title "Betty, Behave!"

Barbara Murphy and Louise Dewey were the other juvenile actresses in this pleasing little sketch of school life.

POLICE COURT

Carroll Ayer, of 317 Arlington street, Rocky Mount, North Carolina, was fined $10 and costs in town court today for driving a car with improper brakes. He pleaded not guilty and was defended by Attorney William J. Shea. Ayer's defense was that his car had been inspected in North Carolina before making the trip here. He said that his state requires periodical examinations the brakes being tested every 15 days. He showed a slip that brakes had been found satisfactory two weeks ago.

Nevertheless the brakes on Ayer's car were practically useless and it was so testified in court and Judge Johnson found him guilty.

Clifford W. Massey of 299 Fern street was before the court charged with having an unlicensed female dog. Judgment was suspended upon payment of costs as has been the procedure in other cases of this type.

EX-GERMAN PRINCE MARRIES COMMONER

his parents what they thought of the step. He just went ahead and announced the betrothal.

"Legitimacy" further connotes marriage to someone who, should children be born to the union, can produce offspring of pure royal blood. This was laid down in the "Royal House Law" of the Elector Albrecht Achilles in 1473, and further expanded in an order of Frederick I of Prussia dated 1710.

By this "house law," only such offspring shall be entitled to succeed to the throne as issues from a union of Hohenzollern with someone of equal rank.

Not of Royal Blood. Wilhelm's bride is not of royal blood. Her forbears were commoners from northern Italy. Declining to become Roman Catholic, they emigrated to Prussia during the reign of Frederick the Great.

In Prussia they acquired German citizenship and served their masters so well that they received the patent of nobility in 1830. Dorothea's father, Alexander von Salviati, followed a military career at Bonn, and became marshal of the court of Prince Adolf of Schaumburg-Lippe. He died here in 1922. Her mother is of an old family of Hamburg merchant princes.

The romance of Wilhelm and Dorothea dates from their student days in Bonn University where he matriculated in 1928. Here, too, he met his future brothers-in-law, a retired cavalry captain, another a Nazi storm troop leader, and a third an army officer.

Since, Wilhelm has been engaged in farming and managing one of the large family estates at Stermalitz, in German Upper Silesia, where they plan to make their home.

The bride, like her brothers, is an enthusiastic Hitlerite. "We are thinking of nothing except working for the realization of the ideals of the new Germany," she said after the engagement was announced.

"We are not concerned about the question of Monarchism—a remark described as "sensational" in some circles.

FUMES KILL MAN IN NEW BRITAIN

Three Others Overcome in Big Gas Tank in Stanley Works—One Dying.

New Britain, June 3.—(AP)—One man is dead, two others are in the New Britain General hospital, one in a very serious condition, and a fourth was overcome after being gassed at the Stanley Works plant this morning.

Joseph D'Amato of 65 Lorraine street and Michael A. Kalnik of 26 Schultz street, both employed as gas makers at the factory, were trapped in the gas producer, a container resembling a giant mine used at sea during the World War.

An Attempted Rescue The other two, Parker Fairbanks of 415 Monroe street, and John Grip of Sexton street, had gone to the assistance of D'Amato and Kalnik. Fairbanks attempted to get the men out of the gas producer and Grip had obtained gas masks but discarded them in his attempts to rescue the men.

Calls to the police department and the Connecticut Light and Power company brought lung motors. Kalnik was unconscious when brought through the opening in the top of the gas producer which is about 18 inches in diameter but D'Amato failed to respond to resuscitation efforts.

Tomorrow the new 20 minute schedule on Hartford-Manchester trolley lines and the Cross-town Manchester Green bus lines go into effect. It is going to be a rather complicated schedule at the start, but is expected to turn out to better advantage and a faster running time than at present. The change will bring many new faces on the Manchester-Hartford trolley line. SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

Jesus Faces Betrayal and Denial

Text: Mark 14:17-31 The International Uniform Sunday School Lesson for June 4.

By WM. E. GIBBOY, D. D. Editor of The Congregationalist

The upper room in Jerusalem where Jesus commemorated the Passover with his disciples has become a sacred place in the thought of Christendom. It no longer exists so that men make pilgrimages to it, but they cherish it in their hearts, and perhaps it is just as well that it should command their souls through the imagination rather than at a traditional reality. The upper room is a sacred symbol of communion and nearness to the Master.

The communion of the upper room was not, however, in the happy ecstasy of religion. A cloud of sorrow was cast over the group as Jesus spoke of his betrayal and assured the disciples that one of them would be a traitor. It was natural that these disciples should ask one by one, "Lord, is it I?" He did not immediately satisfy their questions, but instead, reminding them that it was one of them who would dip with him in the dish, he first of all pronounced his blessing, and in the sharing of food and in the common drinking of the cup he established the historic basis for that rite which is still the symbol of communion and fellowship in the Christian Church.

In mystic words Jesus referred again to his approaching death and to the blood of the covenant poured out for many. Then, when they had sung a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives. Apparently as they went, or after they arrived at the mount, Jesus again spoke of the traitor, and he who was to betray the disciples. Peter, bold in his self-assurance, boasted that though all disciples might deny the Master he would be faithful.

It was then that Jesus spoke that prophecy so soon to be fulfilled. "Verily I say unto thee that this day, even in this night, before the cock crows twice, thou shalt deny me thrice." The Master's prediction only roused Peter to more vehement protestation, in which the disciples joined; yet how soon the Master's words were to be fulfilled. They were to fall of one by one through weariness and temptation, while the Master went alone to Gethsemane and Calvary.

When we look beyond the cross and beyond the agony of the Master in Gethsemane how much may we not cherish the experience in the upper room! Here the disciples were at their best, still earnest and intense in the devotion that had allied them with Jesus and that had led them courageously and helpfully to share in the enterprise of the Kingdom.

Who knows how little even in the heart of Judas there may have been the lurking purpose of betrayal, or how sudden may have been the gust of temptation that assailed him and overwhelmed him? The remembrance of the upper room must have done much to hold the disciples true after their downfall, when conscious of their weakness, and repentant, their souls were still filled with the glory of hope and with the faith that revived in power as they realized that their Master was still living.

Perhaps one suggestion of the lesson is that we must not trust too much to the experiences of the upper room, but in the times of stress and strain, when we are tempted and tried in daily life, we must look to the living presence of the Master to strengthen and save us.

REJECTED OF MEN

By GEORGE HENRY DOLE

International Sunday School Lesson Text, June 4th. "He was despised and rejected of men; a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief."—Isaiah 53:3. Betrayed, smitten, scourged, spat upon, arrayed in mock apparel, a hollow reed placed in His hand, as the emblem of His Kingship, a crown of thorns upon His head, nailed upon His dying agony! Thus is pictured to us the masterpiece of hate in which the Lord was rejected of men. Why did He who has all power suffer such a tragedy? The reason, containing a lesson, can be clearly seen. That tragedy was a drama, a living picture. On the one hand it shows and proves the steadfastness of the Lord's love, and that He would suffer the last extreme for our uplift and salvation. On the other hand it reveals what every one who rejects the Word of God to Him in this individual soul. How is this possible? John declared that the Word was God, and that all things were created by it. This is true because Scripture is so written that the very creative power, which is the love and wisdom of God, comes from God to man. The Word is the heart and mind of the Creator clothed in man's language. In the letter of the Word the Lord resides in all fullness and power. Through it He sends the lightning flashes of the living truth, and by it His divine nature is revealed. Though the letter of the Word in itself is paper and ink, and dead, it is the medium of spirit and life, as the Lord declared. Jesus said, "The words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and are life." Hence it is that the rejection of the Word is the rejection of the Lord Himself. The Lord suffered Himself to be crucified as He was, that what one does in his heart when he rejects the Word might be made visible, might be dramatized. To despise the Holy Scriptures, to scoff at its teachings, to pervert its claims, to deny its authority and power, to judge it a history, song and fable, to regard it as superstition, to go contrary to its precepts, is to do the same to Him that those did who crucified Him.

No one can reject the Lord as King in his heart, thought and act without doing to Him on spiritual levels, exactly what crucifiers did to His body. That we might see this, know of the depth of evil in rejecting the Word, and treasure as most holy the written Word of God, the appalling scene of the crucifixion was dramatized in the world stage.

TAKE SUNSHINE; AVOID SUNBURN, HEALTH ADVICE

State Department Bulletin Explains Beneficial Effects of Gradual Exposure.

Although the light rather than the heat rays of the sun have a powerful curative and preventive effect on the living cells of the body, those who have had but little outdoor sunshine during the winter should take their doses of sunshine gradually in order to avoid the harmful effects of excessive exposure, the State Department of Health said today in its weekly bulletin.

The bulletin points out the fact that although it is generally recognized that sunshine is an important factor in health during the entire year many people pay no attention to this until they feel the first welcome heat rays at this time of year.

Through direct contact and by slow degrees these rays penetrate the skin, activating the living cells and giving the whole body their benefit. Tanning is an indication of the beneficial effect of these ultraviolet rays and it takes place in winter as well as summer, as is shown by the tanned bodies of the children being treated for bone tuberculosis who are exposed to the sun all year around.

On the other hand, burning of the skin is an indication of too sudden and too prolonged exposure, which is harmful and often produces pathological effects as well as the distressing irritation of the skin.

The verdict in the rate case last October was that earnings were reasonable, and that existing rates should stand.

Since that time earnings have sharply decreased--$16,300 less for the first four months of this year--and do not now cover interest and dividend requirements according to the following comparison made by Webster Blanchard and Taylor, Certified Public Accountants.

WEST SIDES ROUT OLD TIMERS, 9-3

Collect 16 Hits and Score in All But Two Frames to Beat Stars of Yesteryear.

The West Sides managed to beat the Old Timers to the tune of 9 to 3 at Mount Nebo field Thursday night, when they collected 16 bingles off the deliveries of Jack Burkhart and Tommy Sipples.

Tedford knocked in two of the oldsters runs in the eighth inning when he connected for a triple deep into center field that cut Holland, scoring Edgar and Kitch. The West Sides scored in all but the first and seventh frames, each player except Burkhart scoring at least once. McCann was the heavy hitter for the winners, rapping out four out of five, while Dowd, Hewitt and Stavitsky got three apiece.

For the Old Timers, Tedford and Sipples got extra bases in the "Big Jack" got three strikes for a walk in the third inning. Godek went the entire route for the West Sides, keeping the Old Timers well in hand until the eighth when they scored twice and in the ninth when they got another.

The West Sides will travel to East Hartford this afternoon to return an engagement with the Cardinals. All players are slated to Sunday afternoon, the team goes to Wilimantic to meet the American Third nine. Players should report at the West Side Rec not later than 1:15 o'clock.

Harness Racing

New York, June 3.—(Special)—Only a fleeting half-second may decide an argument which was waged up and down the Grand Circuit, major harness horse league, for years.

That they chip off Old Man Times would be discarded with a shrug by the average citizen, but not with harness horsemen. For the half-second represents the difference in time checked up between a northern-trained trotter and one which has been wintered and worked in the south the past winter.

Harness horse owners and trainers set up any foot of the other day when Mrs. John L. Dodge moved Hollywood Park, 3-year-old filly eligible to the $50,000 Hambleton Stakes, around the Lexington mile track in 2:07. For the half-second represents the difference in time checked up between a northern-trained trotter and one which has been wintered and worked in the south the past winter.

MR. DEMPSEY TRAINS-- AND FIGHTS BESIDES!

A Bit Flabby, But Able to Throw Plenty of Punches, Ex-Champ Dons the Gloves with Schmeling in One Round Bout at Camp.

By PAUL HARRISON
NEA Service Writer

New York, June 3.—"I think," said Mr. Dempsey, "that it would look better if I did some training for these fights."

"But Jack!" expostulated Mr. Sam Taub, who is his publicity man, "the fights are tomorrow and the next day, and everybody knows you haven't had on a pair of gloves for six months. Also everybody knows you have been promoting a large black cigar from his morning-after whiskers and looked at Mr. Taub with a pair of sleepless blue eyes. You call the photographers, Sam. We'll do some training for these fights."

So Mr. Taub called the photographers and everybody went up to Central Park. Mr. Dempsey removed his tie and parked his cigar. "Now get all ready so there won't be any didn't swing the camera click," Mr. Dempsey put on his tie, retrieved his cigar and went back to his promoting.

HEAD PLAY IS GIVEN EDGE IN RACE TODAY

Chicago, June 3.—(AP)—Victorious in the Preakness, nosed out in the Kentucky Derby and a lagging third in the Wood Memorial, Mrs. Silas Mason's Head Play was sent after the $25,000 added American Derby at Washington Park today to try to prove he is the season's best three-year-old.

The general impression was that the red filer from Kentucky was good enough to conquer a field which included nine other three-year-olds included Mr. Khayyam, his conqueror in the Wood stake two weeks ago. Head Play was the overnight favorite at 7-5, with Mr. Khayyam and Charley O, which ran third in the Kentucky classic behind Brokers' Tip, and Head Play, the second choice at 40 to 1.

Gold Basis, which has not started in some time was regarded as the big upset possibility and was held 10 to 1 in the overnight wagering. The others in the prospective field were Fair Rochester, Silent Shot, Swinhaven, Bamboula, Technician and Sun Envoy.

Paul Ballsieper Takes First In Golf Tourney

Paul Ballsieper last night took the opening golf match in the Manchester Country Club when he defeated John Ehmalian, local Trade school director, by the score of 5 and 3. Ballsieper had to give Ehmalian eight strokes according to their respective handicaps and had not the Trade school superintendent been off form the match would have been much closer.

Ballsieper was not in the best of form medaling an 80. But, where the card allowed Ehmalian strokes he took too many to make it possible for him to take advantage of Ballsieper. Ehmalian carded a 92 taking too many strokes on holes that should have been counting for him.

GIANTS LOOM AS EAST'S ONLY HOPE IN NATIONAL

Hammer Phillies, 11-3, and Are Now Only 1-2 Games Behind Leaders; Indians Tie Washington for Second Place in American Loop.

By Associated Press

Although the end of the baseball season still is a long way off, it begins to look as if the New York Giants were about the east's only hope in the National League pennant race. With Hal Schumacher and Bud Parmelee coming through in fine style their mound staff has rounded into good shape and at times they can give a very convincing demonstration of hitting the ball.

They showed how it is done yesterday when they hammered the Phillies into submission in two big innings to win 11 to 3 for their sixth straight over the tall enders this year. The victory put the Giants within 1-2 games of the pace setting St. Louis Cardinals.

The Cleveland Indians created something of an upset in the American League standing as they won two mound duels from the St. Louis Cardinals. The double triumph sent Cleveland into a tie for second place with Washington, which downed the Boston Red Sox 8-3, while a 6-4 defeat at the hands of the league leading N. Y. Yankees sent Philadelphia's A's down into fourth place.

The fourth American League game saw the Detroit Tigers batter the Chicago White Sox into submission 14 to 1.

Regaining its hitting stride after a drastic change in the batting order, Manchester High's baseball aggregation swept to brilliant victory over William Hall High at West Hartford yesterday afternoon in a hectic struggle that lasted two hours and one half and was not decided until the final out of the contest. The score was 11 to 10.

A sudden lapse in fielding accuracy, after perfect offensive play had given the Red and White a 6-2 margin in the first three innings, almost lost the game as West Hartford drove seven runs across the plate in the fourth to take a 9-6 lead, after which both teams tallied once in the sixth and Manchester came through with a rousing, four run rally in the eighth to clinch the battle and rise to third place in the C. C. I. L. standing.

Manly Tie for 2nd. With one game remaining to play that with East Hartford at Mount Nebo Monday afternoon, Manchester has a chance to tie Meriden for runner-up honors, providing the latter team is defeated by Middletown. Middletown split a double-header with East Hartford yesterday, winning the first game, 4-2, and losing the nightcap, 9-6.

Yesterday's results sent Middletown into a tie for fourth place with West Hartford and East Hartford remained in the league cellar. Should Manchester beat East Hartford Monday and Meriden lose to Middletown the two second place teams will finish with an average of .500.

To Norman Lashinske goes the credit for Manchester High's victory yesterday. William Hall's seven run outburst in the fourth shelled Lashinske, who stepped into the breach and hurled splendid ball to tame the home team through the remainder of the game. He allowed only five hits, got four strike outs and did not issue a base on balls. Then to top it off, Lashinske pulled a perfectly executed squeeze play in the eighth, with the count tied at 9-all, that brought Bob Smith home with the winning run.

West Hartford used five pitchers in the game. Sullivan started the game and was reached for three hits and three runs. He was replaced by Holcomb in the second and he gave way to Woodridge in the third. Kulik started in the fourth and Rautenberg stepped into the breach and hurled splendid ball to tame the home team through the remainder of the game. He allowed only five hits, got four strike outs and did not issue a base on balls. Then to top it off, Lashinske pulled a perfectly executed squeeze play in the eighth, with the count tied at 9-all, that brought Bob Smith home with the winning run.

LEVINSKY WINS OVER GRIFFITHS

But the King's Purse is Held Up Because of the Way He Fought.

Chicago, June 3.—(AP)—King Levinsky, Chicago's wild swinging heavyweight was all square with Tufty Griffiths of Sioux City, as far as fighting was concerned, but had some explaining to do before coming into possession of a purse of about $2,000.

After the King had mauled out a ten-round decision over Griffiths last night at Mills Stadium, Joseph Trainer, chairman of the Illinois State Athletic Commission ordered the winner's purse held up pending an investigation into the Levinsky conduct in the ring.

BASEBALL

PLAY THE GAME. Highland Park and the Baldwin A. C. played a tie game last night, 8-8. The Baldwin's scored four runs in the first inning making it look bad for Highland Park. In the third inning both teams made one run, and in the fourth inning they both made two. In the fifth inning of the Baldwin, Highland Park came through with four runs tying the score. In the sixth the Baldwin's made one run, but Highland Park retaliated with one in the seventh. At the end of the seventh inning the umpire called the game on account of darkness while the score was tie.

J. Nichols starred at bat for Highland Park with three hits out of four times at bat. Buggini for the Baldwin A. C. featured with a homer, a double, and a single. Gleason and B. Sullivan also starred with three hits apiece.

Highland Park has played eight games this season, winning six, losing one and tying 1. Highland Park will play Bolton Sunday afternoon and the North End Community club will play at Highland Park on Monday evening at 6:15 o'clock.

ACES PLAY TIE

The Aces played a tie game with the Invincibles 17-17 before the game was called in the ninth on account of darkness. The Invincibles had a 10-1 lead entering the fourth inning but the Aces put on a rally to score five runs. The Aces went into the lead in the sixth on a hitting spree and tied the score. Connor, J. Simmons, and L. Webb, Koss and Squarrito starred for the Invincibles. The Aces want games, dial 7768.

To Norman Lashinske goes the credit for Manchester High's victory yesterday. William Hall's seven run outburst in the fourth shelled Lashinske, who stepped into the breach and hurled splendid ball to tame the home team through the remainder of the game. He allowed only five hits, got four strike outs and did not issue a base on balls. Then to top it off, Lashinske pulled a perfectly executed squeeze play in the eighth, with the count tied at 9-all, that brought Bob Smith home with the winning run.

West Hartford used five pitchers in the game. Sullivan started the game and was reached for three hits and three runs. He was replaced by Holcomb in the second and he gave way to Woodridge in the third. Kulik started in the fourth and Rautenberg stepped into the breach and hurled splendid ball to tame the home team through the remainder of the game. He allowed only five hits, got four strike outs and did not issue a base on balls. Then to top it off, Lashinske pulled a perfectly executed squeeze play in the eighth, with the count tied at 9-all, that brought Bob Smith home with the winning run.

THIS NEEDS NO DIAGRAM
He has a very ancient flivver—but there's nothing ancient 'bout his darling wife; which means until he buys a classy bus in his dear home there'll be a lot of strife.

OUR ANNUAL SPRING LIE: "My husband seems to thoroughly enjoy teaching me," she said, "although I am the dumbest thing you ever saw in learning to drive a car."

Mechanic—How are those fenders I put on your car?
Motorist—Dunno. My wife hasn't tried 'em on the garage door yet.

The fat sisters are not the only ones going light on their meals—many a family are on short rations in order to keep the car in gas.

A PARKING SPACE IS WHERE YOU LEAVE THE CAR TO HAVE THOSE LITTLE DENTS MADE IN THE FENDERS.

Vivienne—You used to have a low-priced car, didn't you?
Eloise—Yes, but I wasn't crying as well then as I am now.

Prof. M. T. Tanck, column statistician, calculates that if all the cars in America were placed end to end the fellow up front wouldn't be able to get his started.

Sometimes We Wonder Which Is The Most Pathetic Picture: A Horsefly Sitting On A Radiator Cap, Or A Sparrow Pecking Away At A Discarded Spark Plug?

In the good old days people used to fall into temptation. Now they get into their cars and drive there.

Man—Is your wife a good driver?
Neighbor—Is she? Say, she can handle that car the way she can me.

Horses are coming back. The farm tractor which never was practical or suitable or profitable for a small farmer, is going out of business. Tractors and power trucks belong to farming where it is done on a large scale but the small farmer is going back, and wisely, to the horse power.

Hobart—How's your car running?
Klutz—Not so good. I can't keep it throttled down.
Hobart—How's your wife?
Klutz—Oh, she's about the same.

Traffic
When the motor's new, And running true, Don't be a reckless fellow; Don't run the light, When the cop's in sight, Or park upon the yellow.

The wrecks and spills Of the pace that kills, Are never very funny; To face the court With a bad report, May cost a lot of money.

If Every Fellow Who Is In Such A Hurry When He Drives A Car Down The Street Had Business At His Destination, The Depression Never Could Have Started In This Country.

Not so long ago a chauffeur was brought in after having run down a man.

Judge—Did you know that if you struck this pedestrian he would be seriously injured?
Chauffeur—Yes, sir.
Judge—Then why didn't you zig-zag your car and miss him?
Chauffeur—He was zig-zagging himself, your Honor, and out guessed me.

Hal—So you were up all night working on a puzzle, eh?
Joe—Yes, I couldn't afford to buy a jig-saw, so I took the clock apart and tried to put it together again—and I still have a good many pieces left over.

Only organization could bring this about, said Mr. Starr. It was shortly after this that the jobless and others who listened to the talk went home, leaving the Manchester Unemployed League still lacking a staff of officers.

DOUGHERTY RACED WITH DAN O'LEARY

Local Man Walked Against Famous Athlete - Recalls Contests Here.

The death of Dan O'Leary, famous walker, brings to the minds of many older Manchester residents the recollection of the many walking contests which were held in this town 45 years ago...

In fact, Dougherty, when in his prime, walked an exhibition mile in Hartford against O'Leary when the latter was ageing and unable to do his best on the tracks or floors...

At that time there was an athlete and runner just arrived from the States named Tom Hopkinson. Tom took Dougherty in charge and began training him for a return match with Husband.

The two men began training for the race in Bissell Hall in 1897. The race was to be held on a Saturday night and a big crowd was expected. On Tuesday night Hopkinson took his charge and gave him a good rub-down and sent him around the hall for a preliminary half-mile...

The race was held that Saturday night and Husband collapsed on the 20th lap around the hall, Dougherty winning with ease. Another runner who was credited with a win over Dougherty was Captain Charles Bissell in a race held in the Rink on Wallis street.
