

HOLD CLASS DAY PROGRAM TODAY AT HIGH SCHOOL

Commencement Festivities Begin With Annual Frolic—Senior Dance in Assembly Hall Tonight.

Commencement functions at Manchester High school opened today with the annual Class Day exercises in Educational Square.

Class Day is looked forward to by the students as their last day of fun together. The solemnity of the impending commencement ceremonies on Friday morning is forgotten in today's revel in good-natured, fine-spirited joviality.

At exactly 1:30 this afternoon the senior class, led by President Elmore Hultine and vice-president Barbara Hyde, started the long procession which would take way from the main High school building to the enclosure in Educational Square for the last undergraduate activity for the class of 1933.

President Hultine's welcoming speech in full followed. "Mr. Quimby, teachers, parents, friends, and fellow seniors. We are gathered here this afternoon to participate in our last assembly.

Mr. Quimby, it has been difficult to show our appreciation of your advice, your sympathy, and your profound understandings although it has been deeply felt at all times.

Havana, June 20—(AP)—American Ambassador Sumner Welles refused, Cuban newspapers said today, to accept the conditions imposed by the secret society O. C. R. R. for his mediation efforts in the Cuban political controversy.

The society then drafted a new memorandum, it was said, omitting the conditions but reserving the right to withdraw acceptance of his decision. This reservation also was made by the A. B. C., another group opposing President Machado's administration.

After thirteen years of prohibition, voters of Manchester as well as the rest of the 169 cities and towns in the state went to the polls today to register their will on the retention or repeal of the 18th Amendment.

At exactly 1:30 this afternoon the senior class, led by President Elmore Hultine and vice-president Barbara Hyde, started the long procession which would take way from the main High school building to the enclosure in Educational Square for the last undergraduate activity for the class of 1933.

TO ANNOUNCE REPEAL RETURNS TONIGHT

The Herald's state wire will be open tonight for the returns on Connecticut's vote on the repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment.

Despite Pleas of Both Wet and Dry Leaders, Little Interest Is Shown in Today's Special Election—Wet Victory Regarded as Virtually Certain.

By Associated Press. Although implored by leaders of opposing forces to vote, the Connecticut electorate appeared to manifest very little interest today in the special election on repeal of the 18th Amendment.

A very light vote was reported at noon in key cities of the state, although balloting at the time had been in progress five hours.

The electorate appeared more interested in the diverse interpretations of the liquor control act in respect to the sale of beer.

Wet Victory Certain. The light vote was attributed to the fact that a wet victory was regarded as a virtual certainty.

Result of Survey. A survey of towns adjacent to New Haven at 11 o'clock indicated the vote was running light except in Shelton, where a judge of probate is being voted for to fill a vacancy created by the death of Thomas G. Ward.

WOMEN SEEK POSTS IN LITTLE CABINET

Leaders Say They Are Entitled to More Than One High Federal Position.

Washington, June 19.—(AP)—Feminine Democracy's goal for 1933 was defined today as a "woman assistant secretary for one of the government departments."

Miss Sue White, acting leader of Democratic women, admitted the conquest of the "Little Cabinet" was the next objective. It has no women now. As executive secretary of the Women's Division of the Democratic committee, Miss White has been chosen by business and professional women's club to present the topic "Women in Public Office," at a Century of Progress exposition meeting in July.

She said today she plans to predict the sweep of all ten Federal departments by the next feminist line of advancement.

"Four years ago," she said, "Nealie Taylor Ross, as chairman of this division, made the goal of a woman in the Cabinet a talking point for building up a strong woman's organization following the 1928 defeat."

NEW YORK BERRIES BRING PRICE SLUMP

Twelve Hundred Crates Sold Here at Average Price of $2.75, High $4.10, Low $1.60.

New York state strawberries, which generally come in later than this have started to make their appearance in the New York City market and as a result the sales at the Charter Oak street auction market took a sharp drop in the prices. There were 1,282 1/2 crates disposed of during the auction, bringing a total of $3,524.54.

The low price was $1.60 and the highest price was $4.10. The average price was $2.75. Ninety-five loads were sold at the price bid, but nine growers refused the price offered and passed the bid, taking their berries away.

There were a number of buyers present, one coming from Lewiston, Me., but he did not make a bid. It was evident that the market would slump and when the largest buyers paid little attention to the first ten loads appeared the farmers began to expect a bad day.

Anthony Pepe of New York, who has been one of the largest buyers in the local market, was present and his truck was on the grounds. Just before the auction opened he received a telegram, went to a corner platform and read it. He then left the platform, drove to a telephone and did some telephoning. When he returned he did not start any heavy bidding, nor did the First National Stores' representatives.

It was whispered around that the New York market had broken. This slowed up the bidding and the advances were from 4 to 10 cents after the $2 mark was reached.

Raymond Reid had charge of the auction in Manchester and his father, Robert M. Reid, of the New Haven auction. There were 1,045 crates sold in New Haven with a low price of $2.45 a crate there and $4.80 as high.

The growers complained yesterday that they were short of pickers and unable to get as many crates to the market as they would have had there been more help. Trucks are now coming to Manchester at 6 o'clock and picking up those who wish to do picking, transporting them to Bolton and bringing them back early in the afternoon or just before noon.

MISS PETICOLAS PLAYS PRINCESS IN DRAMA

'The Queen's Husband' to Be Presented Friday Night in High School Hall.

Miss Patricia Peticolos will play the role of the princess in "The Queen's Husband," which the Community Players will present Friday evening at 8:30 in high school hall for the benefit of the Verplanck Ahlumi fund. Miss Peticolos has performed excellent work heretofore in productions of the Town Players, as well as the Community Players, in both acting and directing. The roles assigned to her and Mrs. Margaret Handley as the queen are about equal in importance. Miss Peticolos if anything has more to do. The other young women are ladies in waiting and besides being ornamental have but a few speeches apiece.

Joseph Handley as the king has an excellent part, as has Leonard Johnson in the prince, another favorite in local amateur theatricals and the star this season in the Community Players' "Broken Dishes." The present play is one of the best so far produced by the Community Players, which are closing their second season. There is considerable subtle humor in this satire on life behind the Buckingham throne, and they believe it will have an appeal to all lovers of the spoken drama.

Reserved seats may be obtained without additional charge at Watkins Brothers, Pottery and Glass store on Depot Square, or at the High school office. Tickets are in the hands of High school students and Community Players.

Army cadets defeated Harvard students in higher mathematics contest. Maybe the War Department can now tell the treasury how to collect an income tax from Mr. Morgan.

Reach for a Lucky

-for always Luckies Please!

A man's cigarette? Well—here's why I enjoy Luckies

Somehow, I have always felt that it takes a really fine cigarette to please a man. And since many of the men whose judgment I value smoke Luckies... I reach for a Lucky, too. True, I enjoy Luckies' fine tobacco quality and their delicious mildness. But my real reason is perhaps a trifle feminine. Men may not appreciate this as much as a sensitive woman—but I'm particularly grateful to "Toasting" for that comforting assurance of purity. I've talked to many women about this—remember, a cigarette becomes an intimate thing with us, we place it between our lips. And so, perhaps, because I am a woman this is my woman's reason for always saying "Luckies Please!"

because "It's toasted"

LEADERS MAINTAIN CONTEST STANDING

Miss Betty Crooks, First; Mrs. Mary Strong, Second, for World Fair Trip.

The count at the end of the seventh week in the free trip to the World's Fair contest being conducted by The J. W. Hale Co. and C. E. House and Son, Inc., shows Miss Betty Crooks still maintaining a nice margin of lead over her nearest rivals. With the contest now well past the halfway point the leading contestants are settling down to the real grind. Miss Anna Swanson showed a good gain moving her vote up to 6158 and still retaining third place. Mrs. Mary Strong is consistently holding second place although an analysis of the count shows that she is slowly closing each week and cutting down the margin of difference between herself and Miss Crooks.

Miss Adella Cullin's vote was the real surprise of the week jumping from 815 to 3237. This puts her in the running in a very decided fashion. The standing follows:

Betty Crooks	10,905
Mrs. Mary Strong	8,987
Anna Swanson	6,158
Adella Cullin	3,237

Queer Twists In Day's News

Kansas City.—Mrs. Henry Eyer bought a combination ticket at Riverside Park yesterday on La Manga. The four-year-old filly won and Mrs. Eyer's investment brought her $493.20.

"Were you just taking a chance on a long shot?" she was asked. "I should say not," Mrs. Eyer replied indignantly. "I'm from Kentucky and know my horse flesh."

Fisher, Okla.—Charles Carlin, mail carrier, drove over a fire hose. Charles Cruzan, fire chief, filed a complaint with the police judge and a warrant was issued for Carlin's arrest.

Carlin announced his defiance of the warrant on the ground the United States mail must not be delayed.

Baltimore.—The body of John Mittella was found in Baltimore harbor. He was a vagrant and it appeared he would have to be buried by the city.

Anthony Cleric, a local bartender, stepped in, however, and said: "He (Mittella) wasn't a friend of mine, but I told him years ago: 'If you do the right thing, John, I'll see you are put away right.' And I want to be as good as my word."

So Cleric has arranged the funeral.

Philadelphia.—For a quarter of a century John MacMahon stood the wind and rain, taking every kind of "beating" the elements had to offer. He directed traffic at 7th and Race streets.

Things are going to be different now, though. He retired the day he completed 26 years in the department—his 54th birthday—and his superiors gave him a big leather armchair.

New York.—The animals would be sad if they could understand Harry Daniel Moran, head of the Humane Society of New York, who spent 16 years helping suffering beasts, is dead. One of his latest good deeds was for an emaciated cat.

When it was found unable to take food, Moran ordered a diet of egg nog. The cat is now flourishing, as mascot of Jefferson Market Court.

Pittsburgh.—John Patros excitedly 'phone police: "There's a man driving like a wild Indian down Penna avenue—75 miles an hour."

Brought to court the offending driver said he really was an Indian, Chief Hill Canoe, 36.

"But my car won't go that fast," he protested. He was discharged.

Towanda, Pa.—Hearing screams, motorists with flashlights and pitchforks rescued Mrs. William Barrigan, 35, from a tree in which she had been chased by an angry bull.

TOBACCO CLOTH IS SET ON FIRE

Much Damage Done on East Granby Plantations of the American Tobacco Co.

Windsor, Conn., June 20.—(AP)—Fire of incendiary origin early this morning at the Haslewood plantation of the American Sumatra Tobacco Company at Rainbow and East Granby, did unestimated damage. Tent cloth over the shade grown tobacco fields was set on fire in five different places. Much cloth was either burned or torn down to prevent its spread.

The Windsor fire company was called to the plantation. Little could be done to put out the fires, with the exception of cutting away the cloth and several acres will have to be re-covered, to save the growing tobacco plants.

The tobacco is from one foot to 18 inches high, and considerable of this was damaged either by being trampled down or by being burned from sparks from the falling tobacco cloth.

Several theories were advanced in connection with the five fires. It is generally believed that it was the work of some disgruntled employe or some one that has been working at the plantation and discharged. There being but little dew this morning, the cloth burned quickly. This plantation is located partly in Windsor and in East Granby.

It is generally believed that it was the work of some disgruntled employe or some one that has been working at the plantation and discharged. There being but little dew this morning, the cloth burned quickly. This plantation is located partly in Windsor and in East Granby.

REGISTRATION FEES DROP EARLY IN YEAR

Pick Up With Coming of Good Weather, However — Loss of Revenue Large.

Total registration fees for the period January 1 to June 10 amounted to $5,702,287.79 as compared with $6,010,500.60 for the corresponding period in 1932, states a bulletin issued to-day by Colonel Michael A. Connor, Commissioner of Motor Vehicles. This is a net decrease in registration fees of about $308,212 for the same period in 1932.

However the decrease at the close of business on May 31 compared with the same date in 1932 totaled $338,083.75, indicating, as figures of the department demonstrate, that registration within recent weeks, has been accelerated.

The bulletin stated that 17,139 private owners registered their cars temporarily during the period as compared with 4,526 in 1932. Moreover there were 3,676 commercial vehicles registered temporarily as compared with 1,000 for the 1932 period.

SENSE and NONSENSE

With more than 300 Americans insured for more than $1,000,000 each, it looks as if there is a campaign on for better-dressed widows.

Friend—And when did you become acquainted with your husband?
Woman—After I married him.

Dentist (as he started to drill)—Think of something very nice, then you won't notice the pain.
The patient did not move.
Dentist—Splendid! What did you think about?
Patient—Well, I thought my boss was here in my place.

You never appreciate the people's love of home so emphatically, as when the show is over and a thousand hurrying elbows poke you in the ribs and stomach.

Jasper—Why does Fred Wyrick wear his hair so long?
Gerald—It's the only way he can create the impression that his brain is fertile.

Even though she refuses him, a woman always admires the good judgment of the man who proposes to her.

MISS VANE—He's an absolute stranger to me, but I hear he's been praising my complexion to everyone he meets.

MISS KEEN (sarcastically)—Perhaps, dearie, he's the local agent for it.

From the crowds that gather one would think there is a law against watching a dog fight.

Schultz—Which would you rather have, a million or twelve daughters?
Levy—Twelve daughters.

Schultz—Why?
Levy—If I had a million, I'd want to have two, three, ten, a hundred millions more. But if I had twelve daughters, that would be enough.

Currency inflation is very much like a left-handed pitcher, wonderful if it can only be controlled.

America is now in the "healing stage," says one economist. Well, we hope there'll be no more cuts.

A young man just out of college bought the advice of a hard-headed and successful business man:

College Man—Tell me, please, how I should go about getting started in the great game of business.
Business Man—Sell your wrist watch and buy an alarm clock.

Love may be blind, but it frequently causes a fellow to see a lot of trouble he didn't know existed.

"I don't think you should wear that bathing suit," said a careful mother to her daughter, who replied: "Why, Mother dear, I have to. They're very strict at the swimming pool."

Bulldozer—Look here, Charlie Lee, didn't I tell you not to put any starch in that soft collar?
Chinaman (trembling)—V e l l y so l l y, mister, it mustar got scared stiff.

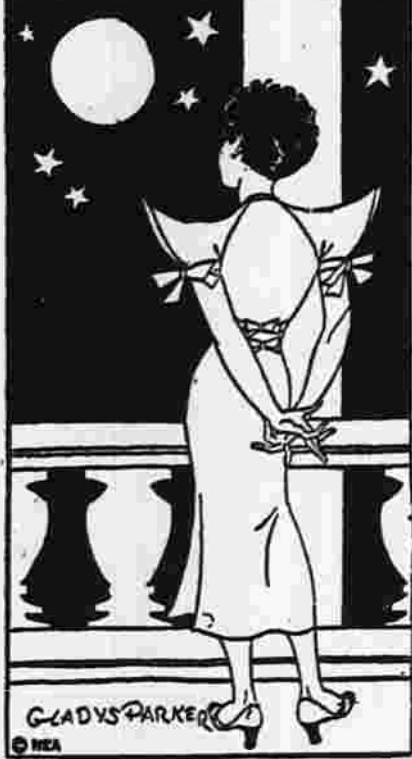

Some men "get by" by looking wise, others by acting wise and a very few by being wise.

A POEM ON WORK: "Some men work for power and some men work for fame. Some men keep on working, because they like the game. Some men work for health's sake, some to show their grit—some men work because they'd starve if they quit."

Ground for divorce are usually battle grounds.

Edith (cooly)—Albert, you have such affectionate eyes.
Albert (pleased)—Do you really mean that, dearest?
Edith—Yes, they are always looking at each other.
