

MAN POISONS FOUR; CONFESSES TO POLICE

Ohio Lawyer Kills Man Who Stole Papers For Him; Also His Wife And 2 Children; One Child Escapes.

Hot Springs, Ark., Aug. 16.—(AP)—A confession that he poisoned four members of a family was signed today by Mark H. Shank, an attorney of Akron, O. Police advanced as a motive, the imminent arrest of one of the victims for getting papers for Shank from the prosecuting attorney's office in Akron in a forgery case against a client of Shank.

Police said they found a letter from Shank in the clothing of one of the victims, Eihel Colley, advising her and her husband, Alvin, to "keep eyes open, mouth shut" and he would soon join them and "you will all be rich."

Colley and his wife and two sons, 7 and 11 years of age, were found dead of poisoning on a highway near Malvern late yesterday after their car had crashed into a fence and Shank had fled into the woods.

His Confession

Shank confessed activities announced in the following brief statement, which he said he would amplify after he had some sleep.

"I am guilty of the murder of the four persons at Malvern by poison and I only ask that you officers recommend to the courts that they grant me all the leniency possible."

Colley was sought by Wayne county, O., authorities on a warrant charging him with stealing receipts and other evidence from the office of prosecuting attorney Lyman R. Critchfield, Jr., which were intended for prosecution of Clarence Braucher of Barborton, O., on a forgery charge. Shank was attorney for Braucher.

Evidence Stolen

The evidence the Ohio prosecutor said, was stolen while Braucher was out on bond.

A three year old son of the Colleys, who escaped the poison was quoted by prosecuting attorney Miller as saying that he saw Shank put something in some grape juice which his parents and brothers drank while they were eating a picnic lunch near Malvern yesterday.

After Shank had been captured, following a chase with bloodhounds, he took the officers to the spot where he said they had all eaten lunch during a short motor trip.

There the officers found a jug of juice, some lunch meats and nearly some crystals which are to be analyzed.

There was evidence the Colleys and Shank had left the place hurriedly. At authorities reconstructed the case, they believed the poison struck the victims there and they hurried away for medical aid.

Shank was arrested in the woods by a posse with bloodhounds about an hour after a farmer, George

TRIES TO FLEECE RICH MERCHANT

Young Puerto Rican Trapped In New York After Writing Threatening Note

New York, Aug. 16.—(AP)—An attempt to extort $5,000 from Juan L. Boscio, reputedly wealthy dry goods merchant in Ponce, Puerto Rico, by threatening to kidnap one of his four young children, was charged in the police lineup today against Arroyo Eugenio Cadiz, 18.

Cadiz, a former employee of Boscio, left his wife and child in Puerto Rico and came to this country within the last two months. In the lineup today he wrote a kidnap letter to Boscio to get some "easy money" for his wife.

Cadiz was arrested last night by Detectives Cedo, Christiano and Schultze, of the alien squad, a few minutes after he was alleged to have received a registered letter from Boscio in response to the demand for $5,000.

Cadiz's Letter

The three detectives said Cadiz wrote to Boscio August 1 demanding the $5,000, reminding the merchant of the disappearance of a Puerto Rican boy about a year ago, intimating that the writer knew the circumstances of the disappearance, and warning Boscio that his agents in Puerto Rico would kidnap and kill one of the merchant's four children if the money was not forthcoming.

Boscio consulted the police and at their suggestion sent the registered letter to Cadiz at 35 West 114th street. The post office notified Cadiz the letter was waiting for him and he directed that it be sent to him at 26 West 113th street where, police said, he received it last night.

AUTOS, STEEL, COAL ARE SEEKING CODE

Oil Also One Of Big Four Trades That Employs Over Four Millions.

Washington, Aug. 16.—(AP)—Vexing difficulties in formulating trade codes for the four titans of American industry—steel, oil, coal and automobiles—today were shortening the present stride of the NRA toward its goal of enfolded all business in a work spreading, pay raising agreement.

To complicate further the issues affecting these four, administrator Hugh S. Johnson and his aides were told by organized labor that steel and oil men are making a "policy" of their own, which may be in line with the NRA's efforts to compose differences.

Johnson, bringing all NRA faculties to bear on the four major industries, sent word to them that codes must be agreed on quickly.

His action bore full approval of President Roosevelt. Both were eager to bring in these four basic trades, which employ four million to five million persons.

NRA Constitutional

As a cheery note, NRA officials had judicial approval in principle of their machinery from Justice Joseph W. Cox of the District of Columbia Supreme Court. In an opinion yesterday he denied an injunction against sections of the law permitting Federal regulation of oil production, challenged as unconstitutional.

The latest industrial entry in the campaign was newspapers. For them, Johnson approved a modification of the National re-employment agreement submitted by the American Newspaper Publishers Association.

Effective pending consideration of a permanent code, the plan prescribes with exceptions, a 40 hour

JAP NAVY STAGES BIG SHAM BATTLE

Nearly 300 War Craft Taking Part In Maneuvers Out On The Pacific.

Tokyo, Aug. 16.—(AP)—Emperor Hirohito sailed today for a point about 700 miles south of Tokyo where in a few days nearly all the ships on the commissioned list of his Navy will engage in a sham battle with a hypothetical foe from the equatorial Pacific.

The occasion is the grand maneuvers, held once in three years, which this summer will cost about $2,700,000 and bring into far eastern waters the greatest array of war-craft ever assembled there.

Defending ships, it is believed, are based near the Bonin Islands to the south and are lying in wait for the "enemy" fleet from the south or southeast. The craft will converge near Yokohama after the "warfare" for a grand review before the Emperor.

Those In Command

Commanding the two fleets are Admiral Seizo Kobayashi and Vice Admiral Osami Nagano, who recently returned from the disarmament conference in Geneva, where he represented Japan. The emperor is aboard the Hiei, which was converted under provisions of the London naval treaty from a battle cruiser to a passenger ship.

The present war games are based on the assumption that the enemy has seized the Caroline and Marshall Islands, between the Philippines and Hawaii, which the League of Nations mandated to Japan from Germany after the World War.

Part of Empire

When Japan announced her withdrawal from the League last March her right to retain the islands was questioned, but she maintained they were irrevocably a part of the Empire, to be retained by force if necessary. The defending fleet is commissioned to stop the enemy from advancing toward Japan from the islands.

TREASURY BALANCE

Washington, Aug. 16.—(AP)—The position of the Treasury on August 14 was: receipts $9,443,978.20; expenditures $13,752,133.75; balance $753,325,453.20; custom duties for month $14,808,709.01.

Receipts for fiscal year since July 1: $264,761,808.52; expenditures $443,728,087.04 (including $145,655,718.67 emergency expenditures); excess of expenditures $178,966,278.52.

TOWN SEEKING FEDERAL AID IN ROAD BUILDING

East Center Street Among Projects Under Contemplation; Town Board Can't Ban Blacksmith Shop.

Several residents of Williams street who petitioned the Selectmen in the Board's open meeting last night for action to prevent Joseph Chartier from constructing a blacksmith shop on his land on that street, were told by the Board that there was no town by-law or regulations of zoning within their province, whereby it could interfere.

Matthew Merz was the spokesman of the delegation which presented the petition to the Selectmen.

The delegates were informed by Chairman Wells A. Strickland that according to advice of the town counsel there was nothing that could be done under the present town by-laws. He advised them that the only course they could take, which would not in any way affect the present complaint, was to obtain 20 signers to a petition for a zoning ordinance, which, the Selectmen agreed, was badly needed. Later, in executive session, it was voted to take the necessary steps to prepare a set of zoning ordinances for the town.

The complaint resulted from a determination on the part of Joseph Chartier of 47 Main street, who owns land fronting on both Main and Center streets, to build the blacksmith shop in question on the easterly end of his property within a few feet of the residence of Matthew Merz. Mr. Merz told the Board that his relations with Chartier had been amiable and he could not understand why Chartier decided to place the shop so near his house.

"Soldiers' Field" Petition

A committee from the ex-service units, James Sullivan, secretary of the committee, and Fred Baker, made formal application for the reservation of a plot in East cemetery, to be known as "Soldiers' Field." The application was placed on file, pending the receipt of copies of recently enacted legislation. It is expected that a decision on the reservation of a portion of the East cemetery will be made before the annual town meeting in October.

According to the plans submitted last night, the plot would be for veterans of any war and their families. The management of the field to be by the special committee set up by the ex-service groups. All money received for lots in the area would be handled by the town treasurer as under the present arrangements. All headstones in the plot would be uniform, the committee stated.

Use of Federal Fund

Town Treasurer George H. Wadell notified the Board that Manchester was one of the towns which has made early inquiry into the plan of distributing the State's share of the Public Works allotment. After a conference with state highway officials, it was disclosed that Manchester could utilize its share of the federal aid which would be approximately $200,000, for the construction of state aid roads. State grants to this town of several thousands of dollars annually have not been received.

FRENCH PRISONERS FLEE BY WHOLESALE

Over 100 Escape From Convict Colonies In A Year, Officials Make Report.

La Rochelle France, Aug. 16.—(AP)—Wholesale escapes of desperate convicts from the dreaded Devil's Island and other prison camps in French Guiana were reported today by French authorities at this deportation base.

Eighteen men recently escaped, officials said, bringing to more than 100 the total of prisoners who, singly or in groups, have fled the convict colonies within a year.

It is supposed the escapes have been made through the connivance of a secret syndicate which has aided criminals to flee through jungles or across the Caribbean.

Many protests have been received by the ministry of colonies. In the last three months of 1932, 44 took to flight. The total for last year was 79, with the high mark, 266, set in 1923.

Self Protection

French residents at Garupano, a Venezuelan port where many of the fugitives are rounded up before being returned to French colonies, were forced to capture the outlaws as a measure of self-protection.

According to figures available in May 3,887 convicts were in penal institutions in Guiana, with 1,900 more exiled to Guiana but not actually held in prisons. This convict population is guarded by 866 men.

It is known that a number of escaped men have died in the jungles.

MRS. COSTELLO SET FREE BY MASSACHUSETTS JURY

Widow Of Fire Captain Acquitted Of Poison Charge; Weeps For Joy As She Hears Verdict.

Salem, Mass., Aug. 16.—(AP)—Jessie Burnett Costello awoke today in an atmosphere of freedom, the yoke of accusation cast from her square shoulders.

She awoke in the vine clad stucco cottage in Peabody from which she was wrenched five months ago, under indictment for the poisoning of her fire captain husband, William J. Costello.

Yesterday in historic Salem Superior Court, an Essex county jury after one hour and 43 minutes of deliberation, acquitted her of a charge of murder in the first degree; granted her request that she be sent back to her three children.

Her trial had lasted a month, during which she became an enigmatic personage to those who watched her stand up under one of the most trying ordeals a woman has ever faced in a courtroom.

Wept Few Times

She had been impassive as a reserve policeman asked a story of illicit relations with her; as a district attorney termed her "profane, vulgar, lewd and extravagant." Few were the times she wept; then so quietly that not everybody saw.

However, as James F. Campbell, foreman of the jury, pronounced the sentence of not guilty, and she was released by the court, she ran to an ante-room and there gave evidence she was capable of violent emotion.

The woman who failed to break down in her blackest moments, had found herself in tears in her hour of joy. She hugged with sobs as a friend helped her to a chair.

Crowd Cheers

A throng had awaited outside the court house all day to hear the verdict. Quickly, the news reached them, and before the comely widow had been dismissed, cheers of the crowd reached her ears.

She left the court house through a rear door and William E. O'Brien, one of her defense counsel, drove her to the little home she had not visited for five months. The shades were drawn and only a few close friends were allowed to enter.

The widow was greeted at the house by her three children, Anna Marie, 9, Jessie, 6, and Bobby 3. Bobby was glad his mother was "home from the hospital."

Her husband's lawyer, after the defense said the widow was negotiating with moving picture and vaudeville agents in anticipation of contracts and that she would not be interviewed or photographed until these dealings were concluded.

The little stucco cottage, on the second floor of which the fire captain was found dead February 17, was surrounded by the curious after the widow was sped there with two state troopers hanging to the sides of her car.

Andrew J. Fyfe, the widow's father who came stoutly to her defense during the trial, said the family would move from Peabody. He said he did not know where.

BANKS OF NATION ARE BACK ON FEET

13,951 Licensed Institutions Operating Without Restrictions.

Washington, Aug. 16.—(AP)—The American banking structure is virtually back on its feet.

The records of Walter J. Cummings, executive assistant to the secretary of the Treasury, today show 13,951 licensed banks operating without restrictions and only 2,870 closed or operating on a restricted basis. These figures include National banks and state members and non-members of the Federal Reserve system but exclude mutual savings institutions.

Called "Bank Opener"

Cummings brought to Washington by Secretary Woodin and regarded with the unofficial title of "bank opener" said that on August 12, there were 4,961 national banks doing an unrestricted bank business with deposits of $18,638,145,000; that 740 state member banks with

MONSTER TRAP SET BY POLICE FAILS TO WORK

Over 300 Men And Three Days Used To Prepare Ambush To Catch Kidnapers And They Escape.

Chicago, Aug. 16.—(AP)—A massive police trap carefully set for a gang of wily kidnapers snapped futilely, but authorities today claimed new evidence of interlocking connections between organized seductors for ransom in far flung sections of the country.

Three days of preparation, the blue printed scheming of city, county and Federal authorities, efforts by 300 selected policemen from city, suburban and state attorneys forces, with wireless squad cars directing and airplanes soaring over the scene, went for naught yesterday, as two members of a gang which sought a further $50,000 ransom installment from John Factor, recently abducted market speculator careened away in a burst of gun fire.

But out of the unhappy denouement which saw the suspects escape with a sackage representing final payment for their work, authorities had for their quarry, a sedan, abandoned by their quarry, two men in detention who claimed they were hikers, and six others seized in a saloon as a result of clues uncovered in the exciting bullet punctured pursuit.

Police Reports

Police reports indicated Richard (Yuma) Phillips, known here as an underworld go-between; Vernon Miller, one of the notorious Harvey Bailey gang of Texas; Tommy (Brother) of Roger Factor, released for the kidnaping of William Hamm, Jr., St. Paul brewer; and George Kelly, said by authorities to be wanted in the Urschel kidnaping case of Oklahoma, were the parties for whom the trap was laid.

This information was regarded as possible by linking closely the various gangs responsible for major kidnapings in the middle and far west of the last year. Only two men were believed in the fleeing car, however.

An over anxious motor car, which forgot orders to cruise lazily near the negotiation area, north of Suburban Lagrange, and spurred ahead with a roar of engines at the signal which was to start the huge net closing in, was blamed for the failure to get for a moment "between police machine gunner and the kidnap automobile forcing the policeman to

FIND THREE MEN DEAD IN AN AUTO

All Are Victims Of Bullet Wounds; One a Deputy Sheriff.

Raven, Va., Aug. 16.—(AP)—A triple tragedy faced Buchanan county officers today with only meagre evidence to aid them in attempting its solution.

The bodies of three men, all victims of bullet wounds, were held at Grundy awaiting efforts toward identification. Fragmentary written evidence dictated the might all be from West Virginia and one of them a deputy sheriff. In the shirt of one of the victims $400 in currency was found sewed.

The bodies were found in a blood-stained automobile about 20 miles from Grundy by a woman, Australian Jester, who lived nearby, it was understood by a messenger reaching here, and the reported to Sheriff A. H. Goff, immediately started inquiries in an effort to identify the bodies.

A Deputy Sheriff

Papers found on one of the bodies bore the name of J. J. Akers deputy sheriff, of Princeton, W. Va.

And other papers were found bearing the names of O. L. Hickman and Leo C. Webb, the former of Widemouth, and the latter of Tioga, W. Va.

Persons who visited the scene said indications were that the driver was shot and as he slumped over the wheel the car went over a bank and the others were killed. In the car were a woman's dress, hat and other articles of feminine attire. Mrs. Jester reported that sometime during the night she heard a woman scream and heard five shots in quick succession. Officers are of the opinion there was a woman and perhaps a fourth man in the car.

RUMOR DENIED

Washington, Aug. 16.—(AP)—It was stated emphatically today at the White House that President Roosevelt is not requiring the resignation of new appointees in advance as Governor Gove of Puerto Rico has indicated he would do. Reports of the governor's attitude occasioned some surprise at the White House.

PLAN AN EMBARGO ON FORTUNES OF MACHADO'S AIDES

60,000 ON STRIKE IN NEEDLE TRADE Workers In New York, New Jersey, Connecticut and Pennsylvania, Quit.

New York, Aug. 16.—(AP)—A strike order affecting some 60,000 garment workers went into effect at 9 a. m. e. s. t. today, but as rallying places of the strikers were scattered through the city it was difficult to determine to how great an extent the order was obeyed.

More than 150 extra police, including detectives from the radical anti bomb squads, were posted in the garment district in the West Thirties, but there were no early indications that any disturbance was likely.

The strike was called to demand a 30-hour week and to protest against sweatshop conditions in the dress industry.

In Four States

Shortly before noon headquarters of the International Ladies Garment workers union said reports indicated that the walkout of dress makers was in progress in New York City, Connecticut, New Jersey and a part of Pennsylvania.

In New York City, the strikers were being registered by 350 clerks in 144 places, a procedure expected to take until tomorrow to complete. Four industrial codes have been submitted at Washington by dress manufacturers association, on which hearings are scheduled for next Tuesday.

Temporary Accord

Action taken at once, however, by the New York Administration to effect at least a temporary settlement of the strike pending final action.

An invitation to effect a truce was extended to heads of the various factions by Grover Whalen, head of the city committee, and a meeting at his office was set for noon tomorrow.

Organizations submitting codes to date in addition to the National Dress Manufacturers Association, which yesterday endorsed the blanket code, are the Affiliated Dress Manufacturers Association, Inc., and the Wholesale Dress Manufacturers Association.

IN NEW HAVEN

New Haven, Aug. 16.—(AP)—Approximately 500 of the 1,700 persons employed in garment plants in New Haven were reported to be on strike today.

The walkout took place at 13 dress shops in New Haven at 10 o'clock—the hour at which the strike was scheduled to begin in New York, New Jersey and in other Connecticut communities.

Picketing began at 4 p. m., while Chief of Police Philip T. Smith, announced that two pickets would be allowed at each of the dress shops affected. He also ordered that no crowds be permitted to assemble

HOARDERS OF GOLD TO BE PROSECUTED

Last Reports Show 280 Persons Are Holding $845,025 In The Yellow Metal.

Washington, Aug. 16.—(AP)—Gold hoarders of the United States have about reached the end of the rainbow, for the government is going after their hidden pots of gold.

In the Justice Department, legal experts are quietly drawing up the case against gold hoarders. It would not surprise official Washington, if warrants for the arrest of the hoarders were announced by Attorney General Cummings, when he returns from his vacation Thursday or Friday.

Time Expires

Before he departed for his vacation, Cummings said that prosecution of gold hoarders, who continued to defy the government, would be started in two or three weeks. The three weeks expires Thursday.

At last reports there still were 280 persons holding $845,025 in the metal, which they refused to give up, while $27,481,498, not turned in when President Roosevelt ordered it done, had voluntarily been given to the banks after Justice agents visited hoarders.

In all, Justice Department agents called on more than five thousand persons, whose names were on the list of those who withdrew gold. Every hoarder has been informed of the law and of the penalties of up to ten years in prison, or a fine of not more than $10,000 or both.

Bank Accounts And Properties Of Deposed President And His Followers Being Probed By New Cuban Ruler—Charges Of Misappropriation Of Public Funds Filed Against Members Of Old Regime.

Havana, Aug. 16.—(AP)—Bank accounts and properties of the deposed President Gerardo Machado and his followers were investigated today with a view to requisition by their successors.

Secretary of the Treasury Joaquin Martinez Saenz, a leader in the A. B. C. secret society, began the probe as Provisional President Carlos Manuel de Cespedes administration needed out persons suspected of propping by the Machado regime.

It was reliably reported that embargoes are planned on fortunes and property of the Machadistas.

The newspaper Diario de La Marina said Machado sent Mrs. Isabel Caligier, private secretary to the Chief of the Palace household to Germany two weeks ago to buy a home for him there.

Many Changes

Criminal charges of misappropriation of public funds, frauds and illegal exactions, falsities and swindles, homicides, murders, personal attempts and use of fire arms have been filed against Machado and five of his adherents in the Havana instruction court, which is expected to name a special judge in the matter.

Almost simultaneously, Dr. De Cespedes issued a statement in which he declared the government would not lend "consent or aid" to municipal or provincial officials under Machado who were seeking to escape justice.

Named in the complaint, besides the former executive, were Octavio Averbach, his treasury secretary; Oreste Ferrera, former secretary of state; Antonio B. Almirat, one time police chief; Octavio Zubizarreta, former head of the interior department; and Jose Liguero, ex-chief of the central district.

Some in Hiding

Some of them have fled Cuba. Others are in hiding. An amnesty bill approved two weeks before Machado was overthrown cleaned the slate of the present charges refer to alleged acts since then. The killing of 21 persons last week following the circulation of a premature report of Machado's resignation, was specifically mentioned.

The administration's firmness against letting political offenders escape complicated the problems facing United States Ambassador Sumner Welles, who, as a mediator in Cuban politics, is held responsible by some Machadistas for their safety.

It was indicated that Welles, who helped obtain safe conduct for Machado Saturday, and for General Alberto Herrera Monday, is willing to intervene as "friend in case" where it is demonstrated life is actually endangered but will not act in cases where accused persons seek to evade responsibilities under the law.

The new President has among his other difficulties, the general strike which, while virtually settled in Havana, continued in parts of Camaguey and Oriente provinces.

Another heritage of the deposed administration was a burdensome foreign debt.

REACHES PHILADELPHIA

Philadelphia, Aug. 16.—(AP)—Mrs. Elvira Machado, wife of deposed President Gerardo Machado, is willing to intervene as "friend in case" where it is demonstrated life is actually endangered but will not act in cases where accused persons seek to evade responsibilities under the law.

Joe Emilio Obregon, a son-in-law, who acted as spokesman for the group, said the reason for the stop in this city was because "I knew it better than New York, and knew it would be a quieter place for the children."

"We'll probably stay in Philadelphia a few days, then the family will finish the summer at a nearby seashore resort," he said. "We have heard from President Machado continuously, and this morning received a cable in Washington saying he was well and happy in the Bahamas."

"Up to now there have been no arrangements made for the president to join his family."

Mrs. Machados party included three daughters, three son-in-laws, several grandchildren and servants.

withhold his fire. The suspects drove wildly off and finally lost themselves in the heavily forested region of the Western Cook county forest preserve area.

Tapped wires on Factor's telephone line started off the great man hunt. Police learned demands for additional thousands of dollars recently were made on the market plunger who is accused of securing several millions of dollars from British investors and who was released a few weeks ago after yielding $50,000 to his captors.

They persuaded him to arrange to meet the new requests with authorities participating at the payoff.

With a reported $5,000 marked money from Factor and additional bogus bills, a police detail disguised as cab driver and passenger set off to the appointed place. Under real orders the squads took position and an army airplane from Fort Sheridan and another piloted by an army flier both armed with sub-machine guns, dived overhead. They were to give the signal by firing their pistols and be ready if the kidnappers tried to escape by plane.

One of the men who escaped is believed to have been carried out of the woods to a city car line in the automobile of John A. Landall, a farmer of the vicinity. Landall said a stranger came to him, declared his wife had almost caught him in the forest preserves with another woman, and paid him $10 to save his reputation by getting him away. His companion hid himself in the thick underbrush. The abandoned car was carefully photographed for fingerprints.

Its ownership was traced to Eugene Crotty, whose west side beer tavern police raided but found him missing. The place, authorities said, was recently operated as a hand-book headquarters by "Pat" Tomey McFadden, one of four Touhy gangsters in Federal custody for the Hamm kidnaping.

Defense Funds
A plan to raise funds for the Touhy defense in the Hamm case was credited as a motive for the demands on Factor.

The men arrested at Crotty's beer tavern were listed as Hugh Bannon, William Leonard, who police said answered somewhat the description of the man who rode away in the farmer's car; Joseph Bannon, Hugh's brother; Albert Kirschner, Otto Fulsaki, and George Hanson. The hikers held were Morris and Charles Endlis, but authorities believed they knew nothing of the kidnapers plans. The farmer, Landall and his son, also were detained for further questioning.

and asserted that disorder would be met promptly with the full force of the law.

Meanwhile, Abraham S. Ullman, counsel for the Connecticut Dress Manufacturers Association, said that the association would meet again today to determine its action in the face of the walkout.

Need Higher Prices
The New Haven employers, Ullman, explained, contend that the prices paid for their products by New York jobbers, does not permit them to meet the demands of the strikers who announced they were seeking the minimum wages and maximum hours of the President's blanket agreement.

Labor Commissioner Joseph Tose at Hartford expressed the hope that the strike would prove the means of wiping out the low work standard which he said have maintained in the needle trades in Connecticut.

Secretary Francis Perkins, he said, "has given us here in Connecticut credit for bringing the sweatshop evil to a general public notice, and certainly we are interested in relegating it to complete extermination."

WORK FOR SETTLEMENT
Washington, Aug. 16.—(AP)—Dr. Leo Wolman, of the NRA labor advisory board, said today his organization was working on the strike of 60,000 dressmakers in the Metropolitan area period.

"There may be some announcement late this afternoon," said Wolman. The dressmakers' strike test case before the labor advisory board is viewed as sounding out for the first time the action of the Federal agency on labor policy.

The employees were reported to have struck in protest to the alleged violations by some manufacturers of the dress making code.

IN BRIDGEPORT
Bridgeport, Aug. 16.—(AP)—Several persons were arrested here today for minor disturbances in connection with the strike of between 2,000 and 2,200 persons, workers in the dress and cloas trades, which began this morning.

Anticipating the strike a number of employees failed to open their shops. A group of 200 employees of the Buddie Dress Shop returned to their work today, but assured the strike committee that they only intended to finish some left-over work and that they would join the strikers shortly.

Among those arrested here today in connection with the demonstrations and picketing was Mrs. Minnie Cederholm, secretary of the 5th district Socialist Party, Inc.

ATTEMPTS SUICIDE
Naugatuck, Aug. 16.—(AP)—Mitchael Arnotovich, 63, died today from a bullet wound in the abdomen which police said was self inflicted. Officials said Arnotovich had been described as despondent, but were unable to determine the cause of his despondency.

The man was found in a barn on his property, known as Cherry Farm. He died in a police ambulance enroute to a physician's office.

BOUND AND GAGGED AND MONEY STOLEN

New York Man Held Up In New Haven Garage; Loses $150.

New Haven, Aug. 16.—(AP)—John Wasekka told police he was man, flourishing pistols, robbed him early today of $150 at a garage here and then left him bound and gagged. Police said Wasekka, who is employed as a truck driver by the Fulton-Connecticut Haulage Company of New York, told them he loosened his bonds after a half-hour struggle and he summoned help from a nearby restaurant as the telephone wire at the garage had been cut.

Wasekka said he was checking his gas tank as the three men entered and ordered him to "shove them up and keep them up." He added that one of the trio went through his pockets and took his money while the others stood guard.

Chairman Emml Miller of the carnival committee announces that arrangements have been made whereby the Looping Nixes will appear in their thrilling "Globe of Death" act. This attraction was booked for a whole season at Atlantic City two years ago, and local people who saw the daredevil Grady Nix riding high-powered racing motorcycles 16 feet in the air, upside down in the gold-plated steel lattice cage, were spell-bound. Bunny Nix is called the Australian Mile-a-Minute Girl, and Grady might be given the title of king of hazardous exploits.

MOVE FOR DECISION
Washington, Aug. 16.—(AP)—President Roosevelt moved for a decision in the dispute over the new working code for the steel industry at a conference today with Myron Taylor and Charles M. Schwab, the leaders of the steel business.

ROOSEVELT WAITS WITH INFLATION

Will Only Use His Power When Necessary; Is Satisfied With Conditions.

Washington, Aug. 16.—(AP)—Inquiries today at the White House on President Roosevelt's policy for inflation and a managed currency brought the response that there has been no change and that future action depends on conditions.

This was interpreted to mean that Mr. Roosevelt will only employ the inflationary powers in his hands as is necessary to maintain the steady and regular upward swing in prices, which he wants.

Now Satisfied
So far, Mr. Roosevelt apparently is satisfied with the pace upward. His charts have shown a general levelling off between prices and wages with the average of 1910 to 1914 now prevailing.

The level of about 1924 to 1928 is the goal. Mr. Roosevelt gave indications he would pull the levers as he sees fit to reach that standard in prices, wages and interest.

Under the inflationary provisions of the Farm Relief and Mortgage Refinancing Act, President Roosevelt has the power to inflate the currency by three methods, including the issuance of currency, defating the value of the gold dollar and the issuance of bonds.

MARY REYNOLDS WINS FIRST RACE OF HAMBLETONIAN CLASSIC AT GOSHEN.

Goshen, N. Y., Aug. 16.—(AP)—Mary Reynolds, the six to five choice owned by W. N. Reynolds, of Winston Salem, N. C., today won the opening heat of the $41,000 Hambletonian, trotting the mile in 2:09 3/4 to defeat eleven of the country's fastest three year old trotters before a record crowd of 30,000.

Taking the lead at the quarter pole under the guidance of the veteran driver and trainer, Ben White, Mary Reynolds trotted the fastest mile of the year turned in by a three year old as she stopped at the judge's stand two and one half lengths in front of Brown Berry, from the Plainfield, N. J., stable of J. I. and E. L. Lyle.

William Hughes Maurice, of Cleveland, Ohio, was a half length back in third place, just managing to nose out Prince Hill from Thom as Ashworth's stable of Charlton City, Mass., which came from far back in furious stretch drive.

Anticipated Naming By Dolan Does Not Transpire; Not Registered In 10 Years.

Among those reported as about to be named for federal appointments from Manchester was F. R. Brannick of Middle Turnpike East. The fact that Mr. Brannick, who long had been employed at Thomas D. Smith's market on North School street, left that employment a week ago Saturday appeared to substantiate the report.

On Monday Dr. E. G. Dolan, new collector of internal revenue, announced the appointment of assistant collectors from the five congressional districts and in the list there was an East Hartford man's name to represent Hartford County. This was one of the positions that Mr. Brannick was being mentioned as likely to receive.

Today it was reported that the reason that Brannick did not get the appointment was to be found in his not being a voter. A check of the voting list revised to October 22, 1932, shows that Mr. Brannick's name is missing. A registrar said today that he had not been entered as a voter in the last ten years, if ever.

JOHNSON APPROVES NEWSPAPER CODE

Temporary Schedule O. K.'d
Until a Permanent Arrangement Can Be Made.

Washington, Aug. 16—(AP)—The way was opened today for American newspapers to join the parade of business organizations marching under the Blue Eagle. A modified presidential re-employment agreement providing for temporary minimum wages and shorter hours for newspaper workers was approved last night by Hugh S. Johnson, recovery administrator. As approved, the temporary schedule, submitted by the American Newspapers Publishers Association, left open several controversial questions, including insistence of the publishers on "constitutional" right to a free press. These questions will be determined before a permanent code is agreed upon after public hearings and presidential approval. A major provision of the temporary agreement provides a 40-hour work week for reporters and other editorial workers receiving less than $35 weekly.

Other Provisions
A 40-hour week for accounting, clerical, office, service or sales employees except a limited number of circulation and delivery men and outside salesmen. The same schedule for mechanical workers or artisans. Publishers may, however, employ these latter a maximum week of 44 hours for any six weeks within any six months period during the period of the temporary agreement, but not more than eight hours in any one day. The agreement exempts hours and wages under contract on or before July 1, 1938 which cannot be changed except by mutual consent. In other cases a 40-cent an hour wage was fixed for mechanical workers or artisans, except apprentices. Minimum wages for office and sales employees were prescribed at from $12 weekly in towns of less than 2,500 to $15 in cities of more than 500,000 population.

Queer Twists
In Day's News

Pittsburgh—Two years ago Fire Captain S. Westphal dropped through a burning floor in a box factory blaze. His wife, herself ill, nursed him back to comfort if not complete recovery from injuries. Death came to Mrs. Westphal, and less than 24 hours after her burial, Westphal died. His son says a broken heart was the cause.

Des Moines—The NRA in Iowa came to a complete halt yesterday—until rescued by an electrician.

As the Iowa board for the recovery program was proceeding to its meeting place in a state house elevator a fuse blew out and the car stalled between floors.

Seattle—The Municipal Street Railway decided to paint its orange cars red and green. Citizens set up such a commotion for and against the color scheme a committee from the Seattle Art Museum is to pass on the matter.

Portland, Ore.—While Portland sizzled in a temperature of 103, the hottest August day ever recorded by the Weather Bureau here, somebody broke into J. C. Pederson's store and stole a second-hand to-boggan.

San Francisco—Joe Giordani was arrested, charged with operation of a still. "Hah," he said to prohibition agents, "You can't arrest me for this. California repealed prohibition two months ago."

A United States Commissioner straightened the situation out in Giordani's mind by fixing bail at $2,000.

Wilmington, Del.—Truck drivers are snoring along Delaware's highways today, but its due neither to the depression nor the recovery program.

State police are stopping trucks and, whenever they find the drivers or helpers have been working more than 16 hours the troopers compel them to sleep.

PRIZE WINNERS OF WEEK IN KEMP'S PHOTO CONTEST

The winners for this week in the photographic contest being conducted at Kemp's, Inc., are as follows: First prize, Thomas Bristow, 10 West street; second, Mrs. Beaton, Proctor road; third, William Hagenow, Keeney street. These three will receive each an 8 x 10 enlargement, on display in Kemp's window today.

Children feature this week's winners. The first prize is an especially good piece of amateur photography as the snapshots were made indoors.

The contest, which has been running since Memorial Day, will close Labor Day, so the time is short for the winning of free enlargements as well as for getting in line for the movie camera which is the grand prize of the contest. The person owning the snapshot selected as the best for the entire summer season will receive the movie camera.

All that is necessary to become eligible for the movie camera is to buy a roll of Kodak film at Kemp's and after the roll has been "shot", to have it developed and printed there.

ECKERT IS ABSOLVED IN KUIS BOYS' DEATH

Coroner Exonerates Californian Whose Car Killed Lad On Crystal Lake Road

George Eckert, of 734 Mission street, San Francisco, Calif., has been absolved by County Coroner John H. Yeomans of Andover for causing the death of George Kuis, 14 year old Ellington boy on August 4 in front of the filling station of Carl Gangloff.

In a finding, handed down yesterday morning, County Coroner Yeomans finds the death caused by the boy's own negligence in running across the road in front of the oncoming car.

As a result of this finding George Eckert has been released of the bonds of $1,000 under which he was held pending the inquest and finding. In the course of his finding the coroner says:

"A short time prior to the fatal accident there had been a slight mishap some distance north of the station when an automobile had crashed into the fence. The noise attracted the deceased, who, in company with his brother, Nathan, went to investigate. The boys stopped at the east side of the highway opposite Gangloff's station. While they were standing there, Warren Nest drove into the station on the opposite side of the road. The boys knew he had been to the scene of the mishap and George started across the street to ask him what had happened. Apparently George was so intent on his mission that he neglected to look to the south for he ran directly in the path of Mr. Eckert's car. Eckert swerved to the left in an effort to avoid the boy, but the car struck George when the latter was near the west shoulder of the highway. The car passed over the boy. He received a fractured skull and various other injuries causing almost instantaneous death.

"According to the testimony Mr. Eckert was traveling at a reasonable rate of speed prior to the accident. An examination of the car, a Model A. Ford, disclosed that the brakes were not in good condition, but it is impossible to say with certainty that this fact contributed materially to the accident.

"I find that the deceased started to cross the road directly in the path of the Eckert car. I further find that said death was caused by the act of the deceased as aforesaid, and that no act, omission or negligence of said George Eckert materially contributed to said death."

Mayor Waite Returns
Mayor Albert E. Waite, who has been ill for several months, was able to resume his duties as the chief executive of Rockville last evening and presided at the regular meeting of the Common Council.

The one important action taken last evening was the passage of a resolution regulating hanging signs over sidewalks.

The ordinance committee brought in a prospective ordinance, drawn by Judge John E. Fisk, corporation counsel, who was present to explain the ordinance.

The council made several alterations and passed the measure in the form of a resolution. As revised, a section making it mandatory for an official of the Public Works Department to inspect all overhanging signs yearly and to collect a fee of one dollar for such inspection, was eliminated. The council was given power, however, to issue a verbal or written warning to the owners of signs regarded as dangerous, ordering same to be replaced or repaired. Where the owners of such signs failed to take proper action within five days after receiving either written or verbal warning, the council could take action through the Public Works Department, removing such signs at the expense of the owner. No penalty is imposed in the revised measure.

George Curlonis, a son of the accused, testified that his father had threatened his family. Judge Fisk found the elder Curlonis guilty and imposed a penalty of 13 days in the Tolland County jail with costs of $12.48. Curlonis will have to remain in jail for twenty-five and one-half days.

MAHATMA STARTS "FAST UNTIL DEATH"

Poona, India, Aug. 16.—(AP)—The Mahatma Gandhi began at noon today what he said would be a fast until death.

The little Nationalist leader, who was arrested August 1 at the outset of a new disobedience campaign and committed to Yeroda jail here for a year because he refused to obey a command to cease political activities, threatened to start the fast unless he was given full rights as a state or political prisoner.

At present he is treated as an ordinary prisoner, and certain privileges have been denied him. He had written the inspector-general of jails, asking for rights he enjoyed previously.

This he would be enabled, the Mahatma indicated, to conduct a campaign of the regeneration of the untouchables as he did while imprisoned up to May 8 when he started a three-weeks' fast in protest against "untouchability."

It was believed that the Mahatma's new fast was due to the fact he has been unable to supply his usual articles to the press this week.

Electric Housekeeping--- Easy Housekeeping

ELECTRICITY today is doing hard housework for thousands on thousands of women—the jobs that used to require much time and physical strength.

Are YOU trying to do housework manually because, perhaps you feel that electricity costs too much? Do you realize that the more current you use, the lower the average price becomes?

And do you realize how little electricity modern equipment uses?

One kilowatt-hour will operate a vacuum cleaner for 6 hours; or ten 50 watt lamps for 2 hours; or a sewing machine for 20 hours; or a washer for 4 hours; or a cooker—high heat—for 1 2-3 hours; or an iron for 1 2-3 hours.

When appliances require so little current and dollars go so far in buying electricity, it doesn't cost much to do your housework in the modern manner, ELECTRICALLY.

STREET CAPACITY MUCH INCREASED BY STREET CARS

Double Track Line Enlarges Number of Passengers Which Can Be Handled by Five Times.

An average sixty-foot street given over exclusively to the carrying of passengers by private automobiles would convey approximately 3,000 passengers per hour, while the same street equipped with a double track car service would have a carrying capacity of 15,000, it was found in a nation-wide survey, the results of which were sanctioned by the opinions of nearly one million members of the United States Chamber of Commerce, concerning the local transportation situation in this country.

Among the many features brought out in the survey by a committee which studied the transportation situation in hundreds of communities from coast to coast was that the average private automobile operating in a city street carried only 1.7 passengers at a time. Considering the amount of street space required by each automobile and the time that would be required for a continuous mass of private cars to pass a specified point, it was estimated that the private cars would move 3,000 passengers past that point in an hour.

Passengers riding on street cars use so much less street space per passenger than those in automobiles that the street with a double track line would have more than five times the capacity of a street of the same dimensions handling only automobiles. The same street if used by buses and taxicabs in addition to private cars, but without the street cars, would carry about 11,900 passengers per hour, with a four track subway beneath it, the same street with all of the above facilities combined would handle from 80,000 to 120,000 persons hourly.

AUTHORITIES PROBING TWO MYSTERIOUS FIRES

Damage of $22,000 Done to Five Buildings in Blackville, N. B.

Blackville, N. B., Aug. 16—(AP)—Two fires early today in this district razed five buildings, including a school house and public hall and disrupted communication service for several hours. It resulted in total estimated damage of $22,500.

There being doubt as to the origin of the fire and a suspicion of incendiarism, a resident who has lost some property said an investigation would probably be made. The losses were given as follows: In Blackville: Simon Bead, one-story wooden structure, $2,000. Public hall, two-story wooden structure, $4,000. J. H. Vail, dwelling and store, two-story wooden structure, occupied by Michael Burns, $3,000. At the tiny village of Bartholomew, three miles distant, the losses were: Patrick McCarthy's farmhouse, barns, outbuilding, newly cut hay, $8,000. Schoolhouse, one-story wooden structure, $1,500.

MISTREATED CHILD

Bethel, Conn., Aug. 16—(AP)—Luigi Lindaro, a laborer and his wife, Angelina, were arrested here last night on charges of mistreating, torturing and cruelly and unlawfully punishing their 12 year old son, Valentino. The boy informed Policeman Morris Britto, who found him after he had run away from home, that his parents had chained him to a post in the cellar of their home, leaving him with only an old burlap bag for a bed.

He said he had also been chained to a bed in another part of the house. Arraigned before Justice Arthur Taylor, the Lindaros were advised to secure counsel and their cases were continued until Thursday.

AMUSEMENTS AT THE STATE

Double Feature Bills Rule During Best of Week

Jack Holt in "The Wrecker," with Genevieve Tobin and George E. Stone, and "Disgraced," with Helen Twelvetrees and Bruce Cabot, are the two pictures on tonight's and Thursday night's program at the State. On Friday comes "Gambling Ship" with Cary Grant, Benita Hume and Jack LaRue, plus "She Had to Say Yes" with Loretta Young, Winnie Lightner, Regis Toomey and Lyle Talbot. The two pictures on Sunday will be "Ann Harding in 'Double Happiness'" with William Powell, and the co-feature, Zasu Pitts and Slim Summerville in "Her First Mate." Soon for five days, the State will offer "Tugboat Annie," with Marie Dressler and Wallace Berry.

"Disgraced" is the story of a girl who yields everything to the man she loves, only to find that he considers her purely a casual interest. Miss Twelvetrees, an attractive model, catches the eye of Cabot, a wealthy young man-about-town. They will be married, he assures her, as soon as he can break off his engagement to Adrienne Ames, a wealthy young debutante. Miss Twelvetrees is called upon to model a wedding gown for Miss Ames, and finds that Cabot has been deceiving her. She pockets a pistol and goes to Cabot. In a hectic scene, he prevents her from shooting him, locks her in a closet, and calls the police. It is Miss Twelvetrees' father who is sent out on the case. What happens when he learns that she has been betrayed brings the picture to a daring climax.

ITALIAN SHIP SMASHES OCEAN CROSSING MARK

New York, Aug. 16—(AP)—The Italian liner Rex arrived today from Gibraltar claiming a new record for a trans-Atlantic crossing by ships. The Rex made the trip from Gibraltar to Ambrose Lightship, at the entrance to New York Harbor, in four days, thirteen hours and fifty-eight minutes, at an average speed of 28.92 knots. The distance given was 3,181 miles. The fastest previous crossing was made by the Nord German Lloyd Bremen, sailing the westward course from Cherbourg Breakwater to Ambrose Lightship, in September 1932 in four days, fifteen hours and fifty-six minutes. Her highest average speed, however, was made on the eastward trip from Ambrose to Cherbourg on the long summer course of 3,199 miles June 30 last. On that voyage her average speed was 28.51 knots. The Italian line said today that the performance of the Rex made her the fastest ship afloat.

FREE STATE FORMS MILITARY TRIBUNAL

To Consider Political Charges And Confiscate Weapons Illegally Possessed.

Dublin, Irish Free State, Aug. 16.—(AP)—The establishment of a military tribunal to consider political charges and confiscation of firearms illegally possessed began today under the direction of the Free State government.

Simultaneously a membership drive was in progress for General Owen O'Duffy's Blue Shirt National Guard organization, which was forbidden to conduct a memorial service last Sunday or three Free State heroes. General O'Duffy has cancelled the church parades he decreed for next Sunday after his projected demonstration was banned and announced his Blue Shirts will assemble on that day to observe a two-minute silent period to honor the memories of the heroes, Arthur Griffith, Michael Collins, and Kevin O'Higgins.

After the period, the commanding officers will read a message from O'Duffy, the nature of which was not disclosed. Among the first to be summoned before the tribunal may be former Vice President Ernest Blythe and Deputy G. O'Sullivan, who refused to give up their weapons after revocation of their license. Some political writers expected that a general election would be held shortly, but this belief was scouted in government circles. It was understood that the government regarded the progress of the National Guard throughout the country with considerable misgiving. President Eamon de Valera plans to lead periodic campaigns to check this progress.

TOO MANY EAGLES? The operations of the National Recovery Act are so widespread and so varied, there are so many ramifications of the great adventure, that among the thousand and one new activities and undertakings it would be rather more than miraculous if no mistakes were made.

We are inclined to the belief that it may already have happened in connection with the Blue Eagle movement. The Blue Eagle, it seems to us, has been too easy to get and has tried to spread its wings over too many too small businesses.

The main idea of the all-inclusiveness was excellent. It was planned to enlist substantially all of trade and industry under the emblem largely for the psychological effect obtainable from the visible union of such an overwhelming number of establishments marching in step toward the goal of rehabilitation.

Beyond question there are a great many instances where the emblem is displayed without any significance at all—and with less than no dignity. Tiny businesses with not even one employe display it. You see it pasted on automobiles with the "Consumer" qualification.

It is flaunted on shops where the only possible employes are members of the owner's family. The Blue Eagle, it seems to us, has been cheapened by its own multiplicity, since it is all so patent that in innumerable instances it is the merest gesture and means nothing at all—not even, necessarily, enthusiasm.

The Blue Eagle, in this view, would have carried much more serious implication if its use had been limited, in the first place, to establishments employing a reasonable minimum of persons—perhaps ten, perhaps more, perhaps fewer; concerns at least which could with reason be expected to take some action justifying the display of the emblem.

It is far from too late for the NRA to backtrack if it now sees reason to doubt the wisdom of the Eagle's all-inclusiveness. In a week, if it deemed it the part of wisdom, it could, with the machinery now at its command, re-seem the Blue Eagle from the estate into which there may be some sanger of its falling.

UNCLE SAM, MANHUNTER Score one for the Department of Justice in its newly begun war on kidnapers, racketeers, killers and all the gorilla horde. The arrest of Harvey J. Bailey, known throughout the Southwest as the most dangerous criminal in that region, and ten other persons in Dallas, St. Paul and Denver, is the kind of achievement that impresses even the most cynical and hardened crook, well accustomed to defiance of state authorities, with the extreme unlikelihood of being long able to keep out of the toils once Uncle Sam turns manhunter.

The story of the capture of Bailey and his crew reads like a romance. But underlying the dramatics is the element of brains—detective brains working without the customary handicaps of limited expense accounts, authority stopping at state lines, lack of a maintained standard of ability on the part of operatives and the intrusion of the influence of crooked political bosses.

When the Bailey gang killed a Department of Justice man in the cold blooded "Kansas City massacre" they made the mistake of their lives. From that day the department has been remorseless in its search for the killers. The Urachel kidnaping, while it turned out to be the immediate occasion of the capture, was actually incidental to the marking down of the Kansas City assassins.

This demonstration of the federal government's special fitness for the conduct of the war on the new mode criminals is particularly timely. It comes at a moment when the mind of the country is opening to the suggestion that all major felonies be made federal offenses and that the business of capturing and prosecuting the perpetrators be made the responsibility of the United States government and its courts.

OUT-MODED ARTIST A thief, especially an Eastern thief, whose specialty has been horse stealing, is seriously out of luck these days. It is a good many years since we had to kill and bury a fictional horse thief of our own for whom we entertained a sincere affection, because horse stealing even then had become implausible.

Down in Eastern Penitentiary, Philadelphia, old Joe Buzzard, who has spent almost exactly half of his seventy-four years in jails, was due to be set free the other day. Joe couldn't see any comfort in the prospect and finally managed to arrange things so he could stay on for a couple of years more. He had a leaning toward the Eastern Pen, anyhow, because his eighty-four-year-old preceptor in horse stealing, his brother Abe, is also in that comfortable coop and still has considerable time to serve.

For that matter, come to think of it, it always was. SWINDLE VICTIMS A confidence man, posing successfully as secretary of the New York State Alcoholic Beverage Control Board, has been arrested for selling to twelve persons, for $500 each, imaginary jobs with the Board.

Such swindles are not unheard of but there is one fact in connection with the story that is interesting. It develops that two of the victims of the fraud were war veterans, both inmates of government hospitals.

Presumably incapacitated, it is noteworthy that as soon as assured of appointment to the phantom jobs under the Liquor Control Board both veterans promptly became well enough to be discharged and each managed to produce the $500 demanded by the swindler.

Which proves nothing except that out of the many thousands of hospitalized veterans there were two who had no particularly urgent reason, either physical or pecuniary, for being where they were. Possibly there may be one or two more who would suddenly become well if they thought they saw a pleasant job and easy money in prospect—and who could rake up five hundred frogskins to keep it away from somebody else.

LABOR GROWLINGS Misunderstandings and cross-purposes between employers and employes under the codification of industries were inevitable. Over-emphasis upon them is a disservice to the nation. Newspapers which hunt the state or the country over for instances of dissatisfaction owe it to their readers to present, at the same time, the other side of the picture. When they tell of threatened strikes in this or that industry it would be fair to cite, at the same time, the many instances of improved conditions under the National Recovery Act.

being encountered. If the women's garment industries, for example, permit in weighing on their agreements, there will be only one recourse—the government will have to resort to the licensing system, place a "keeper" in charge of each licensed industry to see that the law is complied with—or put the offending concerns out of business.

There is no danger whatever of the development of intolerable conditions of conflict between employers and employes. That there should be a lot of dust and smoke was to have been expected. But both employers and employes realize—can't help realizing—that the National Recovery Act makes the government boss, not of one of these elements alone, but of both. Unreasonable demands of labor can and undoubtedly will be treated to the same impersonal remedies as are applicable to employers who cheat.

AND THEN WHAT? There is one thing about a cock-of-the-walk; some folks may doubt what you say but they take good care that you shan't know it—and, for that matter, that nobody else shall know it. So when Wiley Post drawlingly and with the most casual air declares that likely enough the globe can be circumnavigated in 31 hours by planes already in sight, not even one little plish nor the smallest possible tush greets the statement.

"All you have to do," said Post at a Philadelphia luncheon, "is to take an airplane of 500 horsepower, supercharge the motor, design a propeller that can be turned at a variable pitch by a gearing arrangement and, at 40,000 feet, get anywhere from 500 to 800 miles an hour."

That's all. And the funny part of it is that not only will scarcely anybody believe that Post is talking through his hat, but they'll probably do it.

IT'S THE PUNCH THAT COUNTS Some of our contemporaries are greatly shocked at the rough language of General Hugh S. Johnson. What difference does the language make? A sack on the nose by any other name would smell as sweet.

IN NEW YORK By PAUL HARRISON New York, Aug. 16.—The scores of husky beach guards at Coney Island are kept pretty busy yanking venturesome people out of the "r." But all of them put together can't approach the life-saving record of a plump and elderly little man named Dr. Martin Couney, who runs a concession on the boardwalk.

Dr. Couney is the incubator baby man, and in the 30 years he has been at Coney Island (with branches now at Atlantic City and the Chicago fair) he has saved something like ten thousand lives. He was born in Breslau, Silesia, 68 years ago, and in the course of his studies of prematurely-born children invented the incubator by which they might be kept alive until ready to begin normal growth.

He was persuaded to bring his invention to America as a side-show, and started first in Omaha, Neb., where his babies were too healthy and normal, however, so he came to Coney in 1903. Found it a good location, too, for sometimes babies are born unexpectedly after their mothers have gone riding on a roller coaster. Also the city health officer inspecting the incubators, proved willing to deliver undressed infants into Dr. Couney's care.

All Races Accepted The place is immaculate—white enamel, gleaming chromium, polished brass glass partitions behind which nurses attend their red little charges. There are twelve incubators and they usually are all occupied; just now one of them is shared by 2½-pound girl twins, who are coming along famously. Premature babies can't breathe ordinary air, so this air is washed, filtered, warmed and mixed with oxygen before it is pumped into the incubators.

Lying there in swaddling clothes, and with big pink bows around their middles, the youngsters have little privacy but don't seem to mind the stares and exclamations of the curious. Milton Boyle, the lecturer, explains that most of them are incubated about five weeks; that they are taken out and fed every three hours; that there are two doctors besides Dr. Couney, and five nurses. All races are accepted, and the establishment has harbored lots of Negro and Chinese babies. The prize exhibit now is a little red-headed Irishman whose yells can be heard out on the boardwalk.

timetabling over the pretty romance of a husky Coney electrician (incubator class of '7) and one of Dr. Couney's young nurses. They were married about a year ago and now are expecting a baby, of their own.

Parents as a rule are deeply grateful, but troublesome. Can't seem to understand that the youngsters must not be touched. There was one father, though, who demanded a percentage of the gate receipts when he saw his tiny son attracting crowds.

DO YOU KNOW THAT— African wild dogs run in relays when hunting; by taking turns they can soon bring down the fastest game.

A bee has four wings, but when flying, the hind wings hook onto the fore wings so that each pair works as a unit.

Alaska, which the United States bought from Russia for $7,200,000, has produced $600,000,000 worth of minerals since 1880.

Sir William Cubic invented the treadmill as a mill to be operated by manpower; later, it was adopted as a means of punishment and introduced into the prisons of England about 1820.

We've got more government in business and more business in government. What we need now is more business in business and more government in government.

HEALTH-DIET ADVICE BY DR. FRANK McCUYY Questions in regard to Health and Diet will be answered by Dr. McCuYY who will be addressed in care of this paper. Enclose stamped, self-addressed envelope, for reply.

Dietetic and Physiotherapy Treatments for Epilepsy As I explained in previous articles, outside of those cases of epilepsy caused by accident or disease of the brain, the majority of cases are caused by a definite toxemia from intestinal putrefaction to which certain people are especially susceptible. The cure depends upon keeping the colon thoroughly clean so that these toxins will be avoided and afterward developing such a healthy condition of the intestines that no further trouble develops.

salts, starched and sugars should be eliminated for a time. The patient should use an abundance of the non-starchy vegetables both cooked and raw to furnish the bulkage needed. The enemas will guarantee a clean colon until normal functioning is restored, and they should be used several times in one day should the symptom of an attack start.

In yesterday's article I wrote of the manipulation treatments of the intestines. These are very valuable if correctly performed for they stimulate the peristaltic action and aid in restoring the intestines to their normal position. In every case it is advisable to take x-ray pictures before giving the treatments, for a prolapsed or kninked colon requires special corrective manipulative movements. The use of the slow sinusoidal or Morse wave currents is also toning to the intestines and a valuable adjunct.

In addition to the above directions I would suggest that the patient begin to take regular physical culture exercises. I have found it true in my own practice and others have also reported that the attacks are lessened when sufficient muscular exercise is used each day to induce a healthy tired feeling. For this reason a special time each day should be set aside for exercising and the patient should include the exercises for strengthening the abdominal muscles. He should also include a certain amount of walking. If his work is of the type which uses the muscles, this, to help. Plenty of sleep and a calm, steady mental attitude are also beneficial.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS (Skin Doesn't Redden When Bathing)

Question: C. Q. asks: "When I take a bath, my skin doesn't become red like most people; it just stays its natural color. What does this indicate, poor circulation? Are red cheeks a sign of good health?" Answer: Your skin not getting red when taking a bath would not necessarily indicate any disorder. Probably you do not rub your skin with a rough wash cloth or brush and possibly the water is not warm enough to cause the blood to come to the surface. Red cheeks are usually an indication of good health, but I have seen patients with chronic lung disorders whose cheeks were rosy.

(Hunger Causes Light Headedness) Question: Miss Betty D. writes: "Why is it that, when I am full and eat at intervals, I feel fine and can work hard, but the minute I am the least bit hungry I have a dizzy feeling or light headedness?"

Answer: The hunger you complain of is due to gastritis and overacidity of your stomach. You should stop eating and drink only water for a few days, and the dizzy feeling and headaches will disappear. If you will then adopt a sensible diet, you will not have any return of your trouble.

KIDNAPERS TRIAL TO BE HELD SOON

Government Moves Swiftly To Speed Up Hearing Of Eleven Prisoners.

Dallas, Texas, April 16.—(AP)—The Federal government moved swiftly today to bring to trial the first of 11 persons charged with the kidnaping for ransom of Charles F. Urschel, Oklahoma oil millionaire. Harvey Bailey, also identified by the Department of Justice, as one of the machine gunners, who mowed down four officers and Frank Nash, fugitive convict, at the Kansas City Union station plaza, June 17, faces arraignment before a United States Commissioner, along with four companions. All are charged with kidnaping Urschel from his Oklahoma City home the night of July 22. Urschel was returned nine days later.

The five have been held incommunicado in jail here. Those taken into custody along with Bailey were Mr. and Mrs. R. G. "Boss" Shannon, in whose farmhouse Bailey was hiding, and Shannon's son, Armon and his wife.

Federal warrants for Bailey and the other four were received here yesterday. It was expected Bailey would be turned over to Kansas City officers to answer for the Union station killings unless the kidnaping charges were pressed.

SEEK MARKED MONEY
Denver, Aug. 16.—(AP)—Twenty thousand dollars in marked currency from the reported $200,000 paid to ransom Charles F. Urschel, Oklahoma oil millionaire, was sought by police here today.

Detective Chief William Armstrong said he had information from an "absolutely reliable" source he declined to name that amount was hidden by Albert L. Bates before his arrest Saturday. Bates has been named by Department of Justice agents as one of the actual abductors of Urschel. Armstrong said $700 of the Urschel ransom money had been found in possession of Bates, wanted in many states for various crimes. In an attempt to connect Bates with the machine gun massacre at Kansas City last June, police asked two men, witnesses of the slayings, to view pictures of the prisoners. The men, Sisters Pauline and Mildred of the Order of St. Joseph, said they did not recognize him as one of the slayers.

been expended for the past few years, and at present there is standing to the credit of the town approximately $36,000. Various projects were discussed, including the construction of a new state aid road to the Glastonbury line, West Center street improvement and Middle Turnpike. The possibility of constructing an additional sedimentation tank at the sewage disposal plant on Olcott street, and the merging of the Eighth District sewers with those which empty into the Cheney plant, were also discussed.

The latter project if approved by the Eighth District and the Legislature, would provide a large amount of work suitable for the town's unemployed, it is believed.

Sidewalk Conditions
The report of the inspection of the town's sidewalks, ordered by the Board at the last meeting, was given the members last night. The report showed that over 500 concrete slabs in the town sidewalk system are broken, 145 slabs scaled and 460 slightly cracked. The total cost of repairs would be $1,500, Town Engineer J. Frank Bowen stated. The report was referred to the Highway Committee for study.

Town Report Printing
The contract for printing the town reports for 1933 was awarded to William H. Shieldege, printer, of Spruce street. T. F. Rody of Rockville submitted the lowest bids for the work, but the Selectmen voted to keep the work in town. The bid approved by the Board was $4.50 per page for approximately 50 pages of miscellaneous printed matter. Six thousand copies are to be delivered.

H. R. Tryon and David McCann, both of this town, filed applications for jobs in the Water Department when that department comes under municipal control. The applications were placed on file.

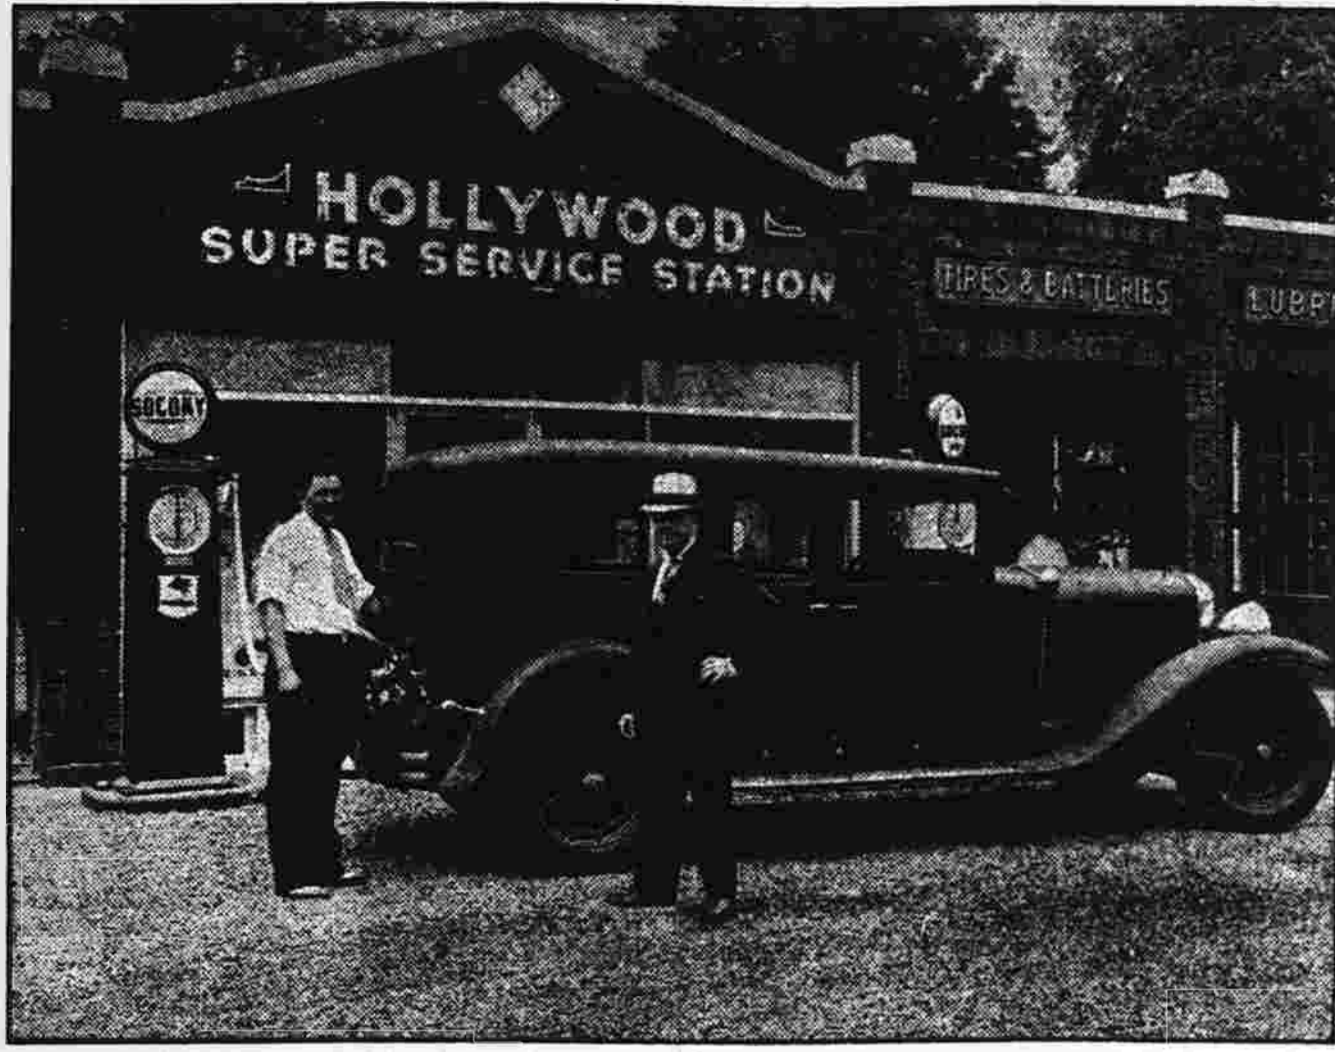

The building and plumbing inspector's report for the month of July was read and accepted. The building construction for July consisted of one single home dwelling, costing $1,500; one garage, $350; one gasoline filling station and service station, $2,000; one barn, $1,000 and miscellaneous construction totaling $4,340. In all, $9,190.

The town treasurer reported that final changes in the specifications for the sale of the town's $650,000 bonds for the Cheney utilities purchase, which were to be received yesterday from Boston, made it uncertain whether the scheduled town meeting would be held on Monday night or Tuesday night. The corrected draft was expected today. If the papers are received in time for the official five-day notice, the meeting will be held Tuesday night. It was expected that the warning for the special town meeting for next Monday night would have been signed by the Board last night.

The commission invites the cooperation and assistance of individuals and organizations in its investigation and calls attention to the provision of the law that suggestions must be presented in writing.

HURLEY PROBES FIRE

Winsted, Aug. 16.—(AP)—Robert T. Hurley, chief investigator in Connecticut for the fire insurance underwriters, came here today to investigate a fire which caused $2,000 damage to the tailor shop of Michael Ferraro.

Patrolman Frank Boulet reported ten minutes before the fire was discovered at 11 p. m., last night he saw Ferraro moving about in the darkened store. The patrolman said he and Ferraro walked away from the store together, after he warned the tailor that he might be mistaken for a burglar.

Ferraro came to Winsted from Waterbury two years ago.

FINANCIAL EXPERTS MEET AT BAR HARBOR

Bar Harbor, Me., Aug. 16.—(AP)—Simultaneous visits of three leading figures in world fiscal affairs gave rise to speculation today of whether a conference on international monetary problems may have taken place here.

The three were Montagu Norman, governor of the Bank of England; Secretary of the Treasury, William H. Woodin and Senator William G. McAdoo, former secretary of the treasury, in the Wilson administration.

Norman arrived here several days ago with Mrs. Norman to be the guest of Mrs. John Markoe, with whom he has visited frequently in the past.

McAdoo dropped in while he was in Maine on a yachting trip with Robert G. Elbert, of Washington, member of the Industrial Recovery Board. He left yesterday.

Woodin was recognized on the streets here Sunday. Whether he was still in Bar Harbor today could not be determined.

FEDERAL FUNDS ARE DISTRIBUTED

Cities And Towns in State Get One Third Of Amount Spent For Relief.

Hartford, Aug. 16.—(AP)—Allowing Hartford only $7,843.41, as compared to $90,816.02 for New Haven and $82,070.14 to Bridgeport, the state emergency relief commission today announced its first disbursement under the Federal grant of one-third of such expense made by towns and municipalities.

The figures released today cover 41 towns in the state, and figures on 30 more are expected shortly.

They represent 80 per cent of the sum allotted each town by the state commission from the Federal grant as one-third of its relief expense in the first three months of this year.

Other towns in the state are receiving the following sums at this time, as follows: Bristol, $18,885.32. Greenwich, $21,045.52. Waterbury, $19,849.42. Stratford, $16,805.75. New London, $16,177.05.

On or about December 1 of each year, representatives of the association and farm administration officials would determine the total acreage of shade tobacco type No. 61, considered necessary to keep production in line with demand.

If the allotment plan were not put into effect, the association proposed that it handle for the market an amount of tobacco not greater than the amount which could normally be produced on the tobacco acreage recommended for cultivation in the announced allotment for the area.

The proposed agreement provides for uniformity in sampling, weighing, invoicing and terms of sale. Brokerage fees would be limited to 2 per cent of the gross value of sales through listed brokers. Rebates would be prohibited.

MAN POISONS FOUR; CONFESSES CRIME

WAS INVESTIGATOR. Akron, O., Aug. 16.—(AP)—Mark H. Shank, held in Hot Springs, Ark., in connection with the murder of four Ohio people, was a defense attorney in an Ohio forgery trial out of which robbery charges developed against Alvin Colley, an investigator for Shank and one of the four dead.

At Wooster, Sheriff Charles A. Nauman said he held a warrant for the arrest of Colley on a charge of stealing receipts and other evidence which was used by Prosecutor Lyman R. Critchfield, Jr., in trying Clarence Braucher, of Barborton, on a forgery charge. Shank was attorney for Braucher.

Attorney Fred Cain, who shares law offices with Shank, said he had seen Colley in the offices several times and that Shank had used him in some investigation.

Evidence Stolen. Sheriff Nauman said evidence in the Braucher case was stolen from the prosecutor's office while Braucher was free under bond. Braucher was convicted last month, and is serving a penitentiary sentence.

Fingerprints identified as Colley's were found at the scene of the theft and a warrant was issued for him.

Neighbors of the Colley's said the family left suddenly on the night of July 7.

Shank left Friday, supposedly to go to St. Louis in connection with a court case. His wife said she had expected him home this morning.

BOLTON TO CELEBRATE "HOME DAY" SATURDAY

Neighbor Town Plans "Rain Or Shine" Program and Invites Everybody In.

Bolton, Manchester's next door neighbor on the East, is having an "Old Home Day" on Saturday of this week, rain or shine.

The celebration is to begin at 2 o'clock and from that time until nightfall there will be something of interest for everybody.

The headquarters for the festivities will be the Quarryville Church and grounds near Bolton Lake and the lawn of Nelson C. Taintor not far from the church.

The prime movers in the project are the little band of about 12 women who form the Quarryville Ladies Aid society.

They have mailed more than 100 invitations to the residents of the town, which by the way was incorporated in 1720, antedating Manchester by more than a century.

Through medium of the press they extend a cordial invitation to all former residents living here and elsewhere whom they have been unable to reach directly, and to all others interested, to attend the Old Home Day events.

At 2 o'clock a parade will start from Haling's and proceed to the Coventry line. Provision will be made for older residents of Bolton to ride in automobiles.

Decorated floats will be provided for the Bolton Orchestra, of which Jack Crawford of this town is leader; for the Ladies Aid Society promoting the community and church celebration; for the choir, for the small children of the town, and for boys of the age of 12 who will ride in a typical hay-wagon.

Refreshment booths will be constructed on the church grounds and a variety of aprons, bedspreads, rugs and other articles will be offered for sale. The old-time supper from 6 to 8 will, it is believed, attract so many that reservations must be made by Friday noon to Mrs. A. N. Skinner, Rosedale 38-13.

Particulars as to the Bohemian folk dances, speeches by Manchester's Matthias Spies and Bolton residents will be found in the advertisement of the Old Home Day elsewhere today.

CARBON MONOXIDE POISONING IS CAUSE OF MANY DEATHS. Deficiency of Oxygen in Body Produces Acid Conditions; Newer Treatments Restore Normal Ratio.

By DR. MORRIS FISHBURN. Editor, Journal of the American Medical Association, and of Hygiene, the Health Magazine.

A tremendous number of persons die each year in the United States from asphyxia or strangulation as a result of poisoning by carbon monoxide gas...

Control of the amount of alkaline substance in use in the blood is apparently regulated by the amount of carbon dioxide present. This is essentially the most important relationship in regulating the relationship of oxygen carbon dioxide and the alkali in the blood.

So important has asphyxia become as a cause of death, that leading physicians have recently formed a special society for the prevention of death through this method.

It is of the greatest importance in all such cases to obtain medical advice as soon as possible. In order to get the best results, the patient should be kept warm and stimulated.

SISTER MARY'S KITCHEN. HEIGHTENED TASTE OF SUMMER SQUASH BY STEAMING AND SERVING WITH SAUCE.

While the woman who serves many vegetables can set an abundant, varied and satisfying table at low cost, she must spend much time and thought in its preparation.

Summer squash is an excellent vegetable too often overlooked by homemakers. Fried and mashed seem to be the common ways of cooking this vegetable which is consequently criticized as tasteless.

YOUR CHILDREN. By Olive Roberts Barton. SHOW PATIENCE TOWARD CHILDREN WHO COMMIT OFFENSES UNKNOWNLY.

Victor had a ball. It was a red rubber ball that took both his little hands to hold.

His daddy was a baseball fan. Of all Victor's toys he favored the red ball the most. He taught him how to throw it. When it went out in the street he would shout "Atta boy! You scored a run that time, old fella! Come here, Mom, and see how Vicky can throw."

When it hit somebody on the head he would roar and laugh. "That's it, kid. Soak 'em and soak 'em!"

Later he bought a smaller ball so Victor could hold it in one hand and throw.

One day Victor found a croquet ball on a neighbor's lawn. He picked it up and threw it at Charley and it hit him on the head.

Charley went in screaming. Out came Charley's mother and ordered the visitor off the premises. When he got home his mother scolded. He ought to know better than to hurt another boy.

Two-year-and-a-half-old Victor wondered what it was all about. Another day he found his daddy's old baseball. It had been in the street and down a sewer. His father was furious. He talked turkey to his offspring about not touching things that didn't belong to him and said he had a good notion to whip him.

Again Victor wondered what all the fuss was about. Still another day he was visiting at his aunt's and appropriated the spherical paperweight with the snow-storm inside that stood on her desk.

Perplexing to Youngsters. It was Sunday and it whole family was there. They all acted as though Victor had taken an ax and killed the cat. He was the meanest little devil alive. He was just everything. And this time he got whipped. They all felt better. The five-dollar bill had been averaged.

For the LOVE of EVE. BEGINS HERE TODAY. EVE BAYLESS, pretty assistant to EARLE BARNES, advertising manager of Sixby's department store...

The same day Eve learns that she is to go to New York for the store and must leave that night. Dick takes her to the station but throughout the week in New York she has no word from him. The days there are busy. She meets THERON REECE who is much attracted by her and she visits IRENE PRENTISS, a former schoolmate who is playing the stock market and advises Eve to do the same.

Eve returns to Lake City at the end of a week. Back at the office she finds a new copy writer, MAX ALLEN, who appears to be a trouble-maker. MARYA VLAD, fashion artist, and ARLENE SMITH, stenographer, are Eve's friends.

Dick and Eve spend several days at the fashionable Miramar, and then move into an apartment in an old-fashioned house. Eve works late at the office and arrives home to find Dick preparing dinner. They have a quarrel and she leaves.

Dick was firm in his arguments for announcing their marriage. He repeated to Eve all the objections against secret marriages, including the embarrassment she would feel if her business friends should learn of it on a roundabout way and question her.

After repeated discussions and arguments Eve and Dick compromised. It was agreed that their relatives should be informed of their marriage but that, for the present, Eve need not announce it to her business associates.

She took into her confidence a friend who was a promising young artist and asked her to design and wedding announcement. These were brought home by a very excited Eve one snowy Saturday early in December.

SMALLER CROWD HEARS BEST BAND CONCERT. Detroit, Aug. 16 (AP) - Mrs. Beatrice Stanley, who said her husband had been unemployed for two years, was held by police today following the poisoning at breakfast of her three children.

Attributed to the fact of a circus in town, the band concert rowd at Center Park was not large as usual last night. The stated program of the Salvation Army band was given with one change, that being the substitution of "White Lie Days are Going By" for "Beulah Land."

As several of the band members are going to Old Orchard for the next two weeks there will be no concert during that time. The next one will be announced in this paper.

These were changes that would affect the rentability of the apartment and Dick seemed to enjoy making the improvement.

Tonight's Track Meet Promises Stiff Competition

GEHRIG EXPECTED TO EQUAL MAJOR LEAGUE MARK TODAY

PLAYS HIS 1307TH STRAIGHT CONTEST AGAINST ST. LOUIS

National League Fans Watch Braves Stand Against Western Clubs; Yankees, Senators Both Victors.

By HUGH S. FULLENTON, JR., Associated Press Sports Writer

While American league baseball fans had their eyes turned toward St. Louis and Lou Gehrig's approaching record, those who follow the National League were watching the Boston Braves today and wondering if they would nominate themselves as official "softener" of the Western clubs for the New York Giants.

Gehrig, who played his 1306th consecutive game with the Yankees and set the batting pace with three hits as they beat the Browns 8 to 5 yesterday, was to equal "Doc" Scott's record today.

The Braves started their home stand against the third place Chicago Cubs, in a manner which reminded fans of their famous 1926 feat, when they bunched all four western clubs in succession and virtually took charge of a pennant race although they finished in seventh place. Yesterday their stunt was to make five hits off Guy Bush good for a 2-1 victory over the Cubs.

This result dropped the Cubs a full game behind the idle Pittsburgh Pirates and kept the Braves close behind the fourth place St. Louis Cardinals, who won the only other game on the National League program. With Bill Hallahan striking six hit ball, the Cardinals trimmed the Phillies 5 to 1.

Sensors Hold Margin

The Yankees victory served only to keep the world champion 5 1/2 games behind Washington. Trailing the Chicago White Sox in the early innings, the Senators whaled Sam Jones for four hits and three runs in the sixth and went on to win 5 to 1. In perspective, the Senators' triumph between Lefty Grove and right-handed Wes Ferrell turned out to be a slugging match as the Philadelphia Athletics beat out the Cleveland Indians 8 to 7. The Boston Red Sox averted their series with Detroit by a 5-3 victory.

Stangle Nominating

New York, Aug. 16.—(AP)—The railbirds entered a new candidate today in the job of managing the Brooklyn Dodgers, next season, a job that for no other reason that that the club is going terribly has been taken from Max Carey by unanimous consent of all but the club owners.

The club officials, in fact, have denied that they intend replacing Carey this season or next, but the baseball sharps believe that a new manager is certain to be named.

The latest nominee is Casey Stengel, coach with the club, who managed Toledo in the American Association after his big league outfield career with the Dodgers, Pirates, Phillies and Giants was through. Gabby Street, recently replaced by Frankie Frisch at the Cardinals' helm, also has been mentioned.

The Recreation Centers netmen will play Middletown Y Thursday afternoon at 8 o'clock in Middletown, the match being postponed from yesterday. It is expected that Henry Cieslewski, Naugatuck Valley champion, will be in the visitors line-up, and if so, he will be matched against Walter "Ty" Holland, local title holder.

Sport Briefs

Howard McPhee, Vancouver, B. C. high school boy, is being groomed as a successor to Canada's fleet Percy Williams.

VINES MEETS VETERAN

Newport, R. I., Aug. 16.—(AP)—Ellsworth Vines, striving to rehabilitate himself as America's premier tennis player, today found the road to his third consecutive Newport Casino blocked by a hardy veteran, R. Norris Williams.

JAMES AITKEN DONATES RACQUETS TO WINNERS OF TOWN NET TOURNAY

Well Known Sportsman, Former Resident Here, Makes Generous Gift; Sturgeon Beats O'Leary, 6-3, 6-3; To Meet Lebro Urbanetti.

Through the generosity of James Aitken, former local resident and a well known sports enthusiast, the winners of the men's and women's singles tennis championship of Manchester will each receive a fine tennis racket. Mr. Aitken, who now lives in Pawtucket, R. I., has donated rackets to the winners of the local tournament for a number of years to encourage the progress of the sport locally.

Last weekend he was visited by his brother, Walter T. Aitken of 81 West street. On learning that the local net tournament was in progress and nearing the finals, the sportsman gave his brother two beautiful racquets, which have been turned over to the sports department of The Herald for presentation to the winners. It is possible that Mr. Aitken may be present at the finals here and in that case he will probably present the racquets personally.

Last year Mr. Aitken was away when the tournament was held, but on his return home he sent two racquets to Walter Holland and Miss Gladys Lamprecht, winners of the championships. The racquets are an outstanding make and should prove a welcome prize to the persons who come through to win this year.

SHOOTING CLASSIC DRAWS OVER 1,000 TO VANDALIA MEET

Nation's Crack Shots Oil Up Their Guns For Grand American Handicap; Eight Ex-Champs Entered.

Vandalia, Ohio, Aug. 16.—With eight former champions trying to do what no other trapshooter has done before—win the Grand American Handicap twice—that classic of trapshooting will get under way here Aug. 21 for a six-day session.

Starting out with an entry list of 74 in 1930, this annual affair, now in its 34th year, will attract more than 1000 shooters with eagle eyes from all parts of the United States, and even from the Cana Zone.

There'll be a lot of ammunition burned up in shooting for the $14,000 prize money in the singles targets, doubles and team shoots.

A. E. Sheffield of Dixon, Ill., a railway mail clerk, was the winner in 1932. Sheffield broke 98 targets out of 100 from 21 yards, and will be trying for his second win this year.

RAMBLERS DEFEAT BALDWIN'S, 6 TO 4

Pull Four Squeeze-Plays To Get First Four Runs; Seek Games Locally.

The Ramblers took the measure of the leaders of the Manchester American league, Baldwin's Aces, 6-4. The game was well played with the Ramblers getting six hits and Baldwin's getting the same.

The Ramblers won by pulling four squeeze plays to get their first four runs. Jolly pitched well for the Ramblers and Gevensky for Baldwin's Aces. Wilkinson and Baldwin were the sluggers for the evening although Guy Gustafson pulled the game out of the fire with a beautiful hit over second. The Ramblers would like to arrange more games with the leading ball clubs of the town.

New York, Aug. 16.—(AP)—They fired their shot and they fired 'em low, but when the battle was over, the last spade mangle sheathed, Jack Hagen remained today the only golfer who ever stepped up to a tee in competition for that purpose alone and fired himself in a hole in one.

News From Gridirons Is Already Coming In

New York, Aug. 14.—(AP)—The North Carolina baseball team is as hot as it ever was. The air is full of base hits and box scores, tennis rackets and golf clubs. The world series is still over six weeks away. But despite all the signs and the times, the heat waves and summer storms, football is elbowing its way slowly into the sports page, totally unmindful of the incongruity of the setting. Just three weeks from today, Sept. 4, to be exact, the crimson tide from Alabama, rolls out to the practice fields of Tuscaloosa. The good news and the bad already is seeping out to encourage the faltering and warn the exuberant. Kentucky has eight men scaling better than 200 pounds each, four of them sophomores, but Bernie Birman fears Minnesota will be big and green, a soft touch for the rest of the big ten. Oreste Solem figures he will have to make ends out of ties in Iowa, but Virginia is happy with ten varsity men ready to answer the roll call, six of them linemen. It all seems to make the hot weather hotter.

N. E. GAS ASSO. AMONG FIRST IN TRADE HISTORY

Origin Dates Back to 1871 Although Present Group Was Founded to Help Industry in 1926. Ancient records in its files show that the New England Gas Association of which H. R. Sterrett, vice president and general manager of the New Haven Gas Light Company, is now president is not only a direct descendant of the oldest gas association in America, but is also one of the oldest trade associations in the world. Its origin dates back to the merging of three different associations in 1871 in the gas industry, the New England Association of Gas Engineers, which was established in Boston on February 2, 1871; the Gas Sales Association of New England which was established in 1917; and the Industrial Gas Association of New England which was formed in 1923. The merger of the three and the founding of the present New England Gas Association took place on February 25, 1926.

Build Character, Too

Of course, some of the American objection to paid coaches developed from the rallycry against expense surrounding their methods, as well as a belief that many of them often were thinking of how best to keep their jobs instead of first considering what was best for the charges. Happily, such coaches were and are the exceptions. Happily, too, deflation all along the line, including salaries, has compelled most of our coaches to pay strict attention to the business in hand. The majority of college coaches probably has done as much, if not more than any college professor to develop the character and well-being of the boys. I know that coaches laugh at each other and remark that the fellow who has a losing streak with one of his teams must be going in for "character building," but they take their responsibility whole-heartedly and they do a good job.

FUGITIVE CAUGHT

Newton, N. J., Aug. 16.—(AP)—Albert Flynn, 25, described by police as a fugitive from Concord, Essex County, Vt., is being held in Sussex county jail, pending his return to face charges of breaking jail, burglary and larceny. He was arrested yesterday on the Henry Frye farm at Augusta by State Trooper C. J. Riggio after a communication had been received from Sheriff Fred E. Hastings of Essex county. Police said Flynn was working under the name of Jack McDermott.

TARIFF BOOST AN ERROR

Paris, Aug. 16.—(AP)—The latest boost in tariffs on American products, imposed by what was described officially as an "error," was rescinded today. This followed representations made by the American Embassy.

NATION'S FINANCES

Washington, Aug. 16.—(AP)—Uncle Sam had more cash in his pocket this morning than at any time except during the war. There were $1,247,889,348 of spendable money in the Treasury. It got there through the sale of $1,187,801,650 of bonds and notes. This netted $89,758,150 to be spent on the administration's Recovery program after deducting refunding operations and payments of interest on the public debt.

SPORT PLANTS

ALAN GOULD ASSOCIATED PRESS SPORTS EDITOR

Probably the American system of professional coaches for college and club athletes needs no defense. The one-time rallying cry of reformers seeking to "give the game back to the boys" has progressed little father than the movement to give horse-racing back to the horses.

Nevertheless my good friend Earl J. (Tommy) Tomson, a great hurdler in his day and now track coach at the Naval Academy, writes at length in rebuttal to a recent suggestion that our colleges well might profit from the "coachless" methods of Oxford and Cambridge, whose athletes have deported themselves ably and well in a number of command events.

"The trend of the times is apparent even this early on several fronts. At Marquette you see four games for $4. The top seat price at Southern California will be $3.30; at Wisconsin the $2 top will be the lowest in ten years, and Ohio N. R. A. notwithstanding.

"England has long been the home of great athletic clubs such as the Achilles, Harriers and others. England has always rallied her best on her runners from the sprints up and there are more of the professional type there than any other place in the world. When England's professional runners know something they pass it on. Alf Shrubb coached at Oxford for a while.

"We use coaches here because we think there is a lot more in doing a thing unless we can learn to do it by ourselves. We think a boy should be started out in the proper direction. So do the English, but they have the aid of the old-timers (like W. G. George, Harold Abrahams and others) who are constantly educating the schoolboys with their writings.

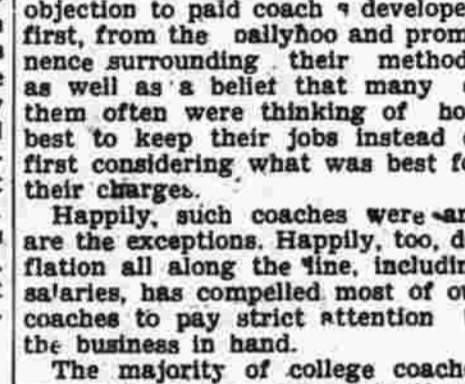

"The great equine had a truly enviable record. In his four years of campaigning he has started 38 times, won 24 of the races, and was unplaced in only five. His earnings total $297,170, and a win in the Hawthorne event would place

"The Hawthorne race with its rich purse was probably foremost in the minds of Equipoise's handlers when he was withdrawn from the recent 'aratoga handicap. That race, with a much smaller purse, would have had "Ekky" carrying the crushing burden of 42 pounds. Had he accepted the issue and won he would have carried more weight than any other horse in a major event.

THE TINY TINYMITES

(READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE)

Wee Cobby jumped up to his feet and shouted, "Say! That jump was sweet! I've seen a lot of frogs jump, but you're the best by far. 'Til bet that you could leap right up out of the easily. Let's see you jump right past us all, right now, from where you are."

"Now wait," cried Shrimpy. "I've a thrill that you can help with, if you will just hop upon ol' Bull Frog's back and let him leap with you."

"Each leap he takes, of course, won't last so very long, but you'll go fast and you'll know you've been on a very strange ride, when you're through."

"All right," said Cobby. "I am game." Then up to him the fat frog came. "They're off," exclaimed one Tiny as brave Cobby hopped aboard.

The frog jumped high up in the air, and instantly his back was bare. Poor Cobby lost his balance and the Tinymites all roared.

"Ha, ha!" laughed Shrimpy.

"Twas a trick. I knew that you could never stick. The frog's back's much too slippery. Oh, well, you had some fun."

"You bet 'did," said Cobby. "Gee, at first that big jump frightened me, but anyway I tried it and I was the only one."

Just then fair Doty shouted, "Hark! I thought I heard a real faint bark. 'You did," replied ol' Shrimpy, "and 'twill soon be very loud. You'll also 'saw a cat's meow. If you will look, you'll see, right now a little catfish and a dogfish coming toward this crowd."

"And he was right. 'T' fish came near. Soon Doty loudly cried, 'I fear the dog is swimming fast enough to catch the little cat."

"Then there will be an awful fight. The cat'll scratch with all its might. Come on, all of you Tinymites, we'll put a stop to that!"

(Doty saves the catfish in the next story.)

EQUIPOISE IS NEAR TURFDOM'S CROWN

Great Handicap Champion Has Truly Envyable Record In Four Years Of Racing; Is Slated To Meet Australian Wonder Horse

By WERNER LAUFER NEA Service Sports Writer

They'll be putting Primo Carnera on the back of that great horse, Equipoise, pretty soon. And when they do not be surprised to hear that Equipoise's greatest weight-carrier since Whiskbrook II broke the record of two minutes for a mile and a quarter.

"Ekky," C. V. Sonny Whitney's great handicap champion, will take up his freight car duties as a race horse again in the Hawthorne Go' Cup, a $25,000 added affair to be staged at the Cicero, Ill., racing plant Aug. 24. But unlike other handicap races he's competed in this year, he'll be at an advantage.

The Jold Cup is made to order for Equipoise. It is a "weight for age" event which means that horses will carry weight according to their ages, rather than according to their ability. Thus Equipoise, a five-year-old, will carry 128 pounds, while any three-year-old will go in at 116.

The Hawthorne race with its rich purse was probably foremost in the minds of Equipoise's handlers when he was withdrawn from the recent 'aratoga handicap. That race, with a much smaller purse, would have had "Ekky" carrying the crushing burden of 42 pounds. NORTH ENDER SUEDE BY NEW BRITAIN MAN

Peter Brown Defendant In $2,000 Auto Accident Action; Bodily Hurts Claimed.

A civil action for damages of $2,000 has been brought against Peter Brown of North Britain street by John W. Preston of New Britain, the suit being returnable in the Court of Common Pleas on Tuesday, September 5.

The action is the result of an automobile accident in New Britain on August 10, last. The plaintiff claims, according to the writ, that Brown collided with his car on Stanley street, causing heavy damage to the machine and serious injuries to the occupant. He charges the defendant with negligence and driving under the influence of liquor, and claims to have suffered a wrenched leg, back, shoulder and other injuries.

NICE-LITTLE CIRCUS GETS A SURPRISE

Kay Brothers' 'Big Top' Too Small For Crowd Here.

Kay Brothers' circus played this town yesterday, afternoon and evening, and struck luck. Last night it played to the biggest crowd it had encountered all season, so the director, Ray Thompson, announced. It is a little circus, a one-ringer, and it is soft-billed. But it tickled the youngsters of Manchester pink—and plenty of their elders enjoyed its naive but honest efforts to give good entertainment.

The tent, pitched on the Dougherty lot on Center street, wasn't really big enough for the almost 10,000 youngsters and children who attended last evening's show. It was just about right for the afternoon crowd. But Thompson, who had most reluctantly parted with the fifty dollars he had to pay over to Police Chief Gordon for his permit, earlier in the day, last evening declared that this was a great town and promised that when next the circus came it would have a bigger tent.

The show has an elephant—not very big—and it has some very youthful clowns who got just as many laughs from the youngsters as the most famous Jerry of all circus history; and it has a small party of very earnest performers who don't, apparently, object to "doubling" over and over again. It has a sideshow, too; a clean one, with the girl who is put in a box and sliced up with a sword and then comes out smiling; and an Indian chief in full feather panoply who does stunts with war clubs.

In the "big show" the elephant is a star, for he is a stunter. There is a troop of trained dogs just as wonderful as any troop of trained dogs; there is a fairy-like damsel who walks a tight wire—and a Jap who does a juggling act on the wire; and a variety of other "turns" which, because they came one at a time, and

One of the young fellows who was riding with Schwarm was seriously hurt and is still at the Hartford hospital.
