O'BRIEN NOMINATED BY TAMMANY HALL

But the Tiger Loses Out When Prial Defeats Harman as Controller—Other Tammany Defeats.

New York, Sept. 20.—(AP)—Mayor John P. O'Brien, the number one candidate of Tammany Hall, won a walkway nomination...

Harman was the personal choice of John E. McCooney, Brooklyn ally of John Curry, Tammany chief...

As a consequence of the Seabury testimony, Farley, long an active Tammany figure, acquired the nickname among his political foes of "Tinbox" Farley.

Several disorders marked the voting especially in the 14th (Yorkville) Assembly District of Manhattan where Farley has ruled a score of years.

Several hours after the destruction of the beer garden, Teddy Logan, proprietor of the garden, appeared at the headquarters of Farley.

Tammany will go into the November 7 election backing Mayor O'Brien against a fusion ticket headed by Fiorello H. La Guardia.

Overthrow of the 22-year reign of Samuel S. Koenig as the head of the New York County Republican organization was claimed today by Chase Mellen, Jr., as the result of yesterday's primary election.

Let's in the morning, the eighteenth assembly district on the extreme east side was still under protest by Mellen.

Backed by the conservative faction of the county Republican organization, including George W. Wickerman, Elliot Root and Ogden W. Mills, Mellen based his fight on allegations that Koenig has been too intimate with Tammany Hall to the detriment of Republican prestige in New York city.

FEDERAL OFFICIAL GETS DEATH THREAT

'Machine Gun' Kelly Writes That He Will Kill Man Prosecuting Bailey.

Oklahoma City, Sept. 20.—(AP)—The life of Joseph B. Keenan, assistant attorney general leading the Nation's drive against crime, has been threatened by George (Machine-gun) Kelly, kidnaper and handout, it was learned on good authority today.

Keenan received the threat in an airmail letter from Chicago at the end of yesterday's Federal court session, in which Harvey Bailey, Albert Bates and ten other prisoners are on trial, for the kidnaping of Charles F. Urschel, oil millionaire.

Kelly, accused by the government of having aided Bates in carrying out the Urschel abduction, and his wife are both at large.

Like another letter likewise purporting to have been written by Kelly and received by the Daily Oklahoman at Oklahoma City, yesterday, the Keenan threat bore the finger prints to identify the writer.

Federal authorities were non-committal about identification of the finger prints, but it was learned.

DAVIS CONTINUES ARMS CUT TALKS

France and Italy Near Accord on Germany's Rights Under the Treaty.

Paris, Sept. 20.—(AP)—The French and Italian positions on disarmament problems were said in diplomatic circles today to have been brought closer together as a result of exchanges between Foreign Minister Paul-Boncour and the Italian ambassador.

It was understood that a plan, attributed to Italy, for granting Germany the right to keep sample models of arms was no longer involved.

Further, Germany under a militia scheme would be entitled to rifles, machine guns, and field artillery in proportion to her increase in effectiveness. Tanks, heavy guns, and the like would, however, remain barred.

Norman H. Davis, American ambassador-at-large, expected to confer with his government today on developments during a talk with Paul-Boncour on France's new plan for control of armaments, with an accompanying postponement of disarmament for five years.

Davis planned also to visit the French minister a second time after the British Cabinet indicates its stand on overtures concerning a common disarmament front made to Captain Anthony Eden of the British foreign office.

The German army would be increased from the 100,000 allowed under the Versailles Treaty in return for the abolition of semi-military organizations.

2 MORE STATES FAVOR REPEAL; 5 MORE TO GO

Idaho and New Mexico Join 29 Others to Change Dry Laws—Virginia to Vote Next.

By Associated Press The score card in the fight over repeal reads today: Repeal 31, prohibition 0. Idaho and New Mexico, voting yesterday, approved the proposed 21st Amendment, which would strike the 18th Amendment from the Constitution.

This placed the repeal forces in a position where they can spot the prohibitionists three states between now and November 7, and still have National prohibition out of the Constitution in December.

The next state to vote is Virginia, Oct. 3. Florida votes Oct. 10, and six more—North and South Carolina, Ohio, Kentucky, Pennsylvania and Utah—November 7. The anti-prohibitionists need only five of them to obtain the 36 states needed to amend the Constitution.

IN IDAHO Boise City, Idaho, Sept. 20.—(AP)—By a vote of approximately five to four, Idaho today had ranged herself alongside the 29 other states that had previously declared for repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment.

IN NEW MEXICO Albuquerque, N. M., Sept. 20.—(AP)—New Mexico had joined the National prohibition repeal parade today by virtue of a three to one majority cast for elimination of the dry law in yesterday's special election.

Terms of the proposal were not revealed but the plan is believed to have been worked out by Mr. Moffitt acting under instructions of Senator Wagner, N. J. labor board chief, on conjunction with the Institute of Silk Dyers and Printers which comprises most of the Paterson employers.

The new proposal will be submitted to the workers who, if they accept it, will return to the mills.

Senator Davis Goes To Trial Again

On trial for violation of the Federal lottery laws, United States Senator James J. Davis of Pennsylvania here is shown (left) leaving Federal court in New York with his counsel. A previous trial, involving his conduct of charity drives in the capacity of director general of a fraternal order, resulted in a mistrial nearly a year ago. Judge Johnson Hayes (lower right) of Greensboro, N. C., is hearing the present case.

SEC. WALLACE FAVORS CONTROLLED INFLATION

Warns That Attempt to Fix Prices Without Control of Production Is Doomed to Failure.

Chicago, Sept. 20.—(AP)—Secretary Wallace today told the Grain Dealers Association that he still favors controlled inflation.

Along with this, President Roosevelt's secretary of agriculture criticized high tariff psychology and warned that the price fixers and inflationists will have great power in Congress this coming winter and there will be passed legislation which will make the Agricultural Adjustment Act seem extraordinarily conservative.

COUZENS SCORES JUDGE'S ACTION AT BANK PROBE

Michigan Senator Declares He Was Prevented from Giving All of His Evidence at the Recent Hearing.

Detroit, Sept. 20.—(AP)—U. S. Senator James Couzens in a statement today declared that Judge Harry B. Keiwan, who sat as the recently-closed one-man Grand Jury investigating bank closings here, had prevented him from giving further testimony before the jury on the Detroit Bankers Co., holding company for the First National Bank.

In a lengthy discussion of the activities of the Grand Jury and the possibility of a payoff to depositors of the closed First National and the Guardian National Bank of Commerce, the Senator charged that Judge Keiwan had restricted his testimony, in his second appearance before the jury, to a reply to bankers who had denied the truth of statements he made in a previous appearance.

Had the Evidence He said he had a large amount of evidence he intended to introduce, but that Judge Keiwan told him he felt that such a presentation would "cause the bankers to again request a chance to be heard and further delay the conclusion of the Grand Jury."

The Senator expressed his "sincere regret" that Judge Keiwan did not in his findings after the conclusion of the bank investigation, "express any view with respect to the orgy of high finance in the management of the banks whose affairs came before him."

HARTFORD STAGES MONSTER PAGEANT 25,000 Persons in Line and 200,000 on Sidewalks at NRA Demonstration.

New York, Sept. 20.—(AP)—A sudden change of procedure, ordered by the court today, speeded up the second Federal lottery trial of United States Senator James J. Davis.

EPIDEMIC IN CUBA REPORTED AS REBS DEFY GOVERNMENT

Widespread Outbreak of Malaria Add to Island's Sufferings — Prominent Havana Newspaper Calls Hernandez Revolt "Open Civil War" — Rebels Reported Surrounded.

Washington, Sept. 20.—(AP)—Two codes of fair competition, one covering the general retail trade and the other drug stores, were made public today by Deputy Administrator A. D. Whitehead of the NRA with the announcement that they were now up to Hugh S. Johnson for decision.

As finally drafted the codes carried the much controverted price control provision framed so that every merchant would be required to keep his minimum prices at ten per cent above "wholesale delivered price" of any merchandise except for special sales.

Various and conflicting reports came from the hill country of Camaguey province, where soldiers, students and workmen were attempting to stamp out the rebellion headed by Captain Juan Blas Hernandez, the "Cuban Sandino."

Efforts to combat the outbreaks of malaria were carried on against difficulties in some places. Thus at Nueva Gerona, on the Isle of Pines, druggists refused to furnish supplies because the authorities have not paid their bills.

AUSTRIA MENACED BY MARTIAL LAW Chancellor Dollfuss Says It May Invoke Death Penalty for Law Breakers.

Vienna, Sept. 20.—(AP)—A threat that the government of Chancellor Engelbert Dollfuss, which is beset by dissension within the Cabinet and by Nazis who desire to overthrow it, may resort to martial law and the death penalty, was published today in the official Wiener Zeitung.

ON TRAIL OF REBELS Havana, Sept. 20.—(AP)—A motley crew of soldiers, students, and workmen tracked the rebellious Juan Blas Hernandez in the rugged Camaguey hills today while at home the scenes were set for another political skirmish.

At Moron, the northeastern Camaguey province town which the Hernandez force occupied before pushing on into the hills, the police force was disarmed by soldiers and imprisoned by staunch supporters of the rebel leader.

On the Havana front a less dramatic but no less important episode was being enacted in 5,000 hearers as "duel to the death," in which he and his followers were "sworn to maintain the free country of which our fathers dreamed."

Washington, Sept. 20.—(AP)—The position of the treasury Sept. 18, was: receipts $32,692,501.09; expenditures $19,868,888.62; balanced $12,823,612.47. Customs receipts for the month $19,173,521.26.

Receipts for fiscal year to date (since July 1) $377,685,529.42; expenditures $792,590,169.97 (including $271,347,287.03, emergency expenditures; excess of expenditures $414,874,551.55).

JOINT BOARD PUTS SCHOOL BUDGET UP

Adds $11,000 to Appropriation Figure So That Teachers Won't Be Cut

A proposed additional cut in the pay of teachers and janitors in the Manchester schools, amounting to five per cent, was resolved in the budget estimates at a meeting of the joint board of apportionment yesterday afternoon. By this action on the part of five members of the Board of Education and four members of the Board of Selectmen, $11,000 will be added to the education item. The budget estimate for education is now $289,198. The budget as it stands now is $1,063,598, or $500 more than the total reductions made by the Selectmen Monday night amounting to $10,500. The Selectmen pared $100 per cent in the highways and street lighting budget estimates and $500 from parks, tree warden and spraying.

The salaries of school teachers and janitors had previously been reduced from 21.315 per cent to 17.25 per cent in the various classifications. Contracts were signed by the teachers with the five per cent proviso included, as it was expected that other municipal departments were to receive cuts of a like amount. The reductions in other departments, however, did not materialize and in justice to the teachers and janitors, some of whom are now receiving less than $1,000 annually, the restoration of the proposed five per cent cut has been made.

THE BARGAIN HOUND

Among their Manchester Day specials, Watkins are featuring a group of poster beds in maple and mahogany veneer. All these beds are full size and are being sold at $9.95. Really this is a splendid opportunity for you to buy an unusually good bed at a price greatly reduced from the original.

Quince honey is delicious with hot buttered toast for tea or with baked powder biscuits on a cold winter day. Pare and core quinces. Grate or put through fine knife of food chopper. To three cups of chopped quince add 1 cup of water and cook until tender. Slowly mix in 4 cups of granulated sugar and cook fifteen or twenty minutes. Pour into sterilized jars and seal while hot.

Have your hair smartly bobbed and swirl finger waved at the Welton Beauty Salon, Hotel Sheridan.

Frills, bangs, lunics, draperies and other almost discourteously feminine furbelows are all in again, but they are all used with that restraint and subtlety which is so essential to modern. The technique of cut is more than ever at a premium, so is the knowledge of the natural feminine form and the way in which trimming or "masses" should be distributed. The result is a mode which, although faintly reminiscent of the 1920's, is in reality essentially 1933. Waistlines, by the way, are not but slightly below the waist, and the silhouettes of the 90's, Paris still maintains the slim and fitted line. Decolletes, when they are not square back and front, show at times a more generous expanse of back, perhaps accentuated by strap effects, but nearly always quite high in front. There are sleeves to all informal dinner gowns and to many of the very formal evening gowns.

Fall housecleaning time is here again! You owe it yourself to make it as easy as you can. You can't do the impossible—that is, clean the house from top to bottom without a vacuum cleaner. And there's really no need to when you get a Svesper-Vac at the Manchester Electric Company as low as $39.50 with a very liberal payment plan.

A child who goes to school should have a desk and, better yet, a whole room of his own. It increases his desire to do his home work conscientiously. Make sure that there is a good reading lamp on the little student's table and a chair which encourages him to sit up straight while he studies.

Have your prescriptions filled at Hale's new drug department. There are two regular pharmacists and assistants here and they guarantee to fill your prescriptions quickly and satisfactorily.

Hair ornaments are important new notes, not only the Chanel stars and Alice-in-Wonderland beehives, but combs, pins and flowered, beaded and tassels. Lavinia introduced a diamond and pearl tiara by wearing it herself. Dilikusha's silver tiara of early spring now finds its spinules topped by coral, turquoise and filigree balls. The hair is combed smoothly back when the tiara is worn. It is for the young matron or the older woman to whom it gives a charming dignity.

If your permanent looks just a bit frazzled it's time to have it retouched at the Lily Beauty Parlor.

After you've seen Mrs. Baker's knitted suits you won't be happy till you have one. She has Tioga, Boucle and novelty yarns in every shade imaginable. You may see her Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday afternoons from one to five and Thursday evening from seven to nine o'clock at Hale's or other times by appointment if you'll dial 6972.

Freshly cut rosesbuds will not open but will remain buds for several days if the stems are singed with a match before placing in water.

If you have furniture that you no longer need and it is in good condition, Mr. Benson at the G. & B. Bedding Co., 35 Oak street will sell it for a commission.

The evening hat or restaurant hat is definitely a feature of the winter styles theme, fashioned of velvet, feathers or both these elements combined with net.

If you want to be completely satisfied with your child's haircut, take him to Miner's Barber Shop. He'll want to go back a second time.

Interesting woollens fashion those smart little dresses that you wear under your fall coat. Tailored they are—but at the same time dressy enough to wear to lunch, tea or informal dinner in a restaurant. And that ought to gladden the heart of the girl who goes to business. Brown, ecru gray, green, and all of the rich zinnia shades are good. White or pastel revers and jabots give individuality to many.

Don't let your favorite lingerie be ruined by washing it carelessly. For safe results use Robertson Sudy Soap Chaps.

He always has to be a brilliant marksman—regardless of sun, wind, or rain. There is no question about his knowing the secret of healthy nerves!

DURING THE DAY'S SHOOTING, and later around the evening fire, Camels add to the pleasure of your outing. As Virgil Richard says, "Camels are a much milder cigarette and they never interfere with my nervous control, no matter how much I smoke."

Steady Smokers turn to Camels

VIRGIL RICHARD, in discussing smoking and shooting, says: "People often ask me if a professional sharpshooter can smoke as much as he wants. I've been enjoying cigarettes for years, without difficulty in keeping my nerves in shape for making record scores in tournament shooting events. That's because I have long been a Camel smoker. I have experimented with all the popular brands, and I find Camels are better for steady smoking. They're a much milder cigarette, and they never interfere with my nervous control, no matter how much I smoke."

Switch to Camels. You'll be the remarkable mildness... the fine, rich flavor of Camel's costlier tobacco. You'll have satisfying proof that Camels do not interfere with healthy nerves.

COURT OBLIGES LARSON WITH A LONG SENTENCE

Auto Thief Arrested Here Asks to Be Put "Where They'll Be More Strict."

Robert Larson, 21, of Bordentown, N. J. yesterday found Connecticut justice willing to oblige when he told the court that he had been treated with too much leniency in the past. Arrested here a month ago for stealing an automobile in South Windsor, Larson appeared in the superior court yesterday.

"Put me some where they'll be more strict with me," he pleaded. Judge Alfred C. Baldwin sentenced Larson to state prison for from three to six years.

Larson was in town court August 27, charged with the theft of an automobile owned by Thomas J. Heritage of Ellington Road, South Windsor. He pleaded guilty and was bound over to the Superior Court in bonds of $1,000, and in default of the bond was remanded to jail.

Larson, hitch-hiking along the Ellington Road saw the Heritage car standing in the yard and drove it away. He was arrested at the Oakland bridge on Tolland Turnpike by Patrolman Joseph Prentice and Herman Moske.

While awaiting trial here Larson was fingerprinted and photographed by Chief Samuel G. Gordon, the description being sent to Washington and to other metropolitan police centers in an effort to learn if he had former police records. A reply to the broadcast of description was received from the Superintendent of the penitentiary at Eastview, N. Y., to the effect that the local prisoner had escaped from that institution the day before.

SARGENT IS SENTENCED FOR THEFT OF BONDS

Hartford, Sept. 20.—(AP)—Arthur G. Sargent, 55, alias John E. Brooks of New Haven, was under sentence today to serve from one to three years for obtaining $10,000 under false pretense.

He pleaded guilty to the charge in Superior Court yesterday before Judge Alfred C. Baldwin.

State Attorney Hugh M. Alcorn told the court that Sargent, posing as a probate lawyer, obtained $10,000 worth of stock from F. R. Cooley and Company, Hartford brokerage firm. Sargent, Alcorn said, intended to change the numbers on the certificates and sell them.

The state attorney told the court Sargent had a police record dating back to 1914.

James J. Peterson, 27, Camden, S. C., negro, was sentenced to prison for from one to thirty years after pleading guilty to breaking and entering and being an habitual criminal. The 30-year-old sentence was mandatory under the criminal code.

COMPLIANCE BOARD HAS LITTLE TO DO

Only One Complaint Awaits Completion of Organization of Committee.

The duties of Manchester's NRA Compliance Board consist of education, conciliation and mediation in the handling of complaints of violation of the President's Re-employment Agreement, but the extent of such duties at the present writing is limited to only one complaint of non-compliance with the Agreement.

The fact that only one complaint has been received to date is a compliment to the thorough campaign of education and publicity that has been accomplished by the local NRA committee, with the assistance of the Chamber of Commerce staff. This committee has gone to much effort to obtain all possible information on the many phases of the National Recovery Act and in so doing has been able to pass this information on to local employers and consumers, giving them a clear knowledge of all that is required under the Act.

Manchester's NRA compliance Board was appointed yesterday by the general staff and a meeting of the six members will be held at 4:30 o'clock this afternoon at the Chamber office to select a seventh member as permanent chairman. The Board will also discuss and determine its policy in regard to anticipated complaints in the future.

The Board consists of Attorney William J. Shea, chairman pro tem, who is calling today's meeting; Mrs. Emma Nettleton, Earl Seaman, Charles Ray, James McVeigh, Dennis McGuire. The term of appointment is forty-five days.

MAN'S BODY RECOVERED.

New Haven, Sept. 20.—(AP)—The body of Pasquale Porpora, 39, vegetable dealer who drowned last Thursday after his truck crashed through a rail of the Tomlinson bridge was recovered by police today from the Quinnipiac river.

COMPLETES SALE OF TWO UTILITIES

Transfer of Deeds Gives Water and Sewer Plants at South End to Town.

The sale of the South Manchester Water Company and the South Manchester Sanitary and Sewer District was consummated yesterday afternoon when the deeds to property owned by Cheney Brothers in Glastonbury and Manchester were signed, transferring to the town the two utility companies. Two checks, each for $225,000 were signed and delivered to Cheney Brothers company.

An agreement was reached between the Selectmen and officials of the firm respecting the assumption of liability incurred through the granting of rights of way by property owners. In addition to the $250,000 delivered yesterday, the town assumes the $500,000 bonded indebtedness of the water company. The Selectmen will begin at once to study plans for the formation of a commission to supervise the operation of the newly acquired units. Although the actual sale was made yesterday, Cheney Brothers will continue to supervise the management of the companies, the town to pay the salaries of the employees retroactive to Sept. 1.

To date the Selectmen have received nearly 200 applications for the office of manager of the companies.

FIRST NATIONAL BUYS 36 BABY BEEF STEERS

Will Be Placed on Sale in Markets the Week of Oct. 9 — 4-H Club Product.

Somerville, Mass., Sept. 20.—Thirty-six best steers were purchased yesterday by First National Stores, Inc., at the annual 4-H Club baby beef sale at the Eastern States Exposition, Springfield. This is the third consecutive participation in the buying of the 4-H heaves by First National which was the first chain food organization to co-operate in helping to furnish a market for the steers raised and fed by New England 4-H members. The First National purchases included the Reserve Champion animal shown by Robert S. Rymph, LaGrangeville, N. Y., which brought 35 cents a pound; the Highly Commended, Billy Potter, Millbrook, N. Y., and the Commanded, Robert K. Thompkins, Rhinebeck, N. Y., also steers from various parts of Massachusetts and Connecticut. The beef from the 4-H animals will be placed on sale in First National markets the week of October 9th.

James Kelly representing the First National organization at the auction said that for three years the company has tried to encourage boys and girls of the 4-H beef club and pointed out the evidence of growing interest that fact that this year there were 110 animals compared with 77 last year.

BUILDING NOTES

Carpenters are at work in the Johnson block rearranging the interior of the large store on the south end so that it provides two stores instead of one. The dividing partition has already been erected. The change is being made with the expectation that it will be possible to rent two smaller stores more easily than one large store.

Plans are being made to divide the south store in the Odd Fellows building into two stores instead of one. It has been vacant for some time. It is a large store and because of this has been difficult to rent. The dividing partitions for the rooms in the basement of the Hotel Sheridan are so far along that the plasterers are now at work there. The new entrance that will lead to the upper part of the hotel has been cut through. Good progress is being made on the job.

This simple little gas flame replaces all machinery, and that is why the air-cooled gas refrigerator is permanently silent." "WHY, DOCTOR, WHAT DO YOU MEAN?" "I mean that this little sharp blue flame does all the freezing in the air-cooled gas refrigerator." "AND WHAT'S ALL THAT MACHINERY IN BACK OF YOU, DOCTOR?" "Oh, these are the mechanical contraptions used in operating the average automatic refrigerator." "IS THERE NO MACHINERY IN THE GAS REFRIGERATOR?" "None whatever, Madam. This simple little gas flame replaces all machinery, and that is why the air-cooled gas refrigerator is permanently silent." "BUT DOCTOR, THIS WONDERFUL AIR-COOLED GAS REFRIGERATOR MUST BE AWFULLY EXPENSIVE!" "Not at all, Madam, while an air-cooled Electrolux—the gas refrigerator—is the finest automatic refrigerator that money can buy, it costs little more, if any, than any other first-class refrigerator, and it is sold on the most liberal terms offered in Hartford." "As you know, gas is very low in cost, so that the operation of a gas refrigerator is a matter of but a few pennies a day, actually lower than any other." WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 20.

OTHER FOLKS' CHESTNUTS

It is not the easiest thing in the world to understand why the Connecticut Manufacturers Association should be particularly interested at this time in a movement to bring about the formation of a "Corporation of Foreign Security Holders," as provided for in the Federal Securities Act passed at the last session of Congress. Yet the association today issued a long statement in which the administration is urged to hasten the organization of the proposed corporation in the interest of the holders of some billion and a half of foreign bonds now in some form of default.

If this statement were issuing from an association of bankers it would present no puzzle. Coming from a manufacturers association its only logical motive appears to be represented by the declaration that the settlement of bond-holders' difficulties with defaulting countries would help our foreign trade by clearing away large "blocked balances." While, of course, improved foreign trade is eminently desirable from the manufacturers' point of view, this motive will strike many as being rather strained. It is, at all events, a rather curious time for our manufacturers, so profoundly engaged in making their adjustments to new domestic conditions, to become actively concerned with international finance.

There is one sentence in the rather long statement which possibly may illuminate the rather inexplicable course of the Manufacturers Association with relation to foreign bonds. It is this one: "Permanent co-operation should be assured to the protection of our bondholders by co-operation of practical foreign traders as well as bankers and government departments, and this co-operation is essential to the resumption of a sound basis of American investment in foreign securities."

It is very difficult to conceive of that thought originating with any Connecticut manufacturer. It is not so difficult to imagine its origin as being in the brain of some international banker who would like to see the way cleared for a resumption, one of these fine days, of the profitably business of selling foreign bonds to American suckers.

There is nothing reprehensible, of course, in a manufacturers association interesting itself in the huge and necessarily slow task of salvaging something out of the wreckage of the foreign bond debacle. But we should think that the Connecticut Association has plenty of problems on its hands, not only of much greater importance to itself and its members but of far greater urgency. Why should industry, which above all things needs customers for its product, be interesting itself in promoting the safety of American money shipped to Europe or South America instead of being spent in the United States?

HARTFORD'S BIG SHOW.

The very splendid NRA demonstration in Hartford last night, providing convincing proof of the realization by the people of this area that the depression can be conquered only by solidarity of purpose and by national consecration to its achievement, was undoubtedly the most significant manifestation of economic understanding ever witnessed in this state.

Only a sour and bilious temperament could fail to correctly read the signs. Only an incurable and prejudiced pessimism would see the necessity of seeking to dampen the ardor of the occasion by croaking warnings that the people must not delude themselves that the depression is over.

It is very much to be doubted whether a single one of the many thousands of marchers in the Hartford parade labors under any such delusion. Nobody has ever told them that the battle is won. Their only daily experience prove that they are still in the midst of immense difficulties. They were not celebrating a victory—they were giving expression to their determination to win one.

Regarded in this light—and it is the only reasonable light in which to view it—last night's magnificent demonstration in the Capitol City was one of the most heartening things that have transpired in this state in years.

It is of immense usefulness to instill into the heart of men and women whose greatest need is the buttressing of their fortitude the conviction that they are marching on, not alone but in serried comradeship with the great mass of their fellows, toward a better time. There are thousands of hearts in Hartford and Hartford County which today are beating more hopefully and more valourously because of that outpouring of mass enthusiasm last night.

If there is anything to croak about in that, let the ravens croak away—there will not be many listeners—nor any higher opinion of the birds of ill omen.

DICTATORSHIP.

A great deal of nonsense is being indulged in, these days, by people who pretend to see in this country an impending dictatorship. The daily vapors of that extreme eccentric Senator Schall—who once saw national disaster in the unseating of Vare in the Senate—warning the nation of an administration purpose to censor the press seem to us only in degree less ludicrous than the pretense of Dean Ackerman of the Columbia School of Journalism that the power of the press alone has stood between the people and completely autocratic government.

There hasn't been a moment since the first inauguration of George Washington when the American people, when they elected a President, didn't put in power a potential dictator. The Constitution itself does that. It makes the President commander-in-chief of the military forces of the nation—and absolutely nothing beyond the control of the armed forces of the country is needed at any time for the establishment of a dictatorship.

Our protection against personal autocracy in this country does not lie in the form of our government; it does not lie in the Constitution; it does not, much as we would like to believe so, lie in the power of the press. It exists solely through the fact that we do not elect madmen as Presidents.

While there has never been a moment when there was not constructive possibility of a President becoming a dictator there has, on the other hand, never been a moment when there was the slightest danger of any such thing. There is no more now than there ever was. Foolish people raved about the perils of dictatorship under Washington, under Jackson, loudly and frequently under Lincoln.

All sound and fury—and arrant nonsense.

SNAPPER AT THE END.

In the song of the Torpedo and the Whale it was related that Bumble bees are like big whales. For their sting lies in their tails. The soft coal code, as it finally came from the hands of the President after many weeks of stress and turmoil, strongly resembles whales and bumble bees in that the snapper is at the very end of the lash, being incorporated in the executive order which accompanied the just-approved code.

The coal operators had been fighting for weeks to get into their code a section qualifying the labor clause. And then the President, in his executive order, coolly removed the paragraph at the very moment when he promulgated the code. But that wasn't all by any manner of means. The real sting in the tail is the further provision, created by the proclamation, that: "All coal producers subject to the code shall furnish to any government agency or agencies designated by the Administrator such statistical information as the Administrator may from time to time deem necessary for the purposes recited in Section 3 (a) of the National Recovery Act and any reports and other information collected and compiled by a code authority as heretofore provided shall be transmitted to such governmental agencies as the administrator may direct."

With this, away goes all probability that the coal operators can get away with any unjust increase in the price of their product. A code authority might very well be interested in preventing unfair competition within an industry without being at all concerned about protecting the public from extortion. But with the books of the industry open upon demand to the scrutiny of a Consumers Advisory Board or any other protective agency that the government might set up, the horse takes on another color altogether.

Many persons have felt, not altogether without reason, that the government was permitting an unconscionable amount of time to be thrown away in the making of the bituminous coal code. But Mr. Roosevelt's handling of the problem at the very end is deserving of more than a little admiration.

THIS QUEER NATION.

One remembers the days of the American people's solemn dedication to the winning of the war; one witnesses their amazing patience and good sense during the depression and the resiliency with which they respond to the first signs of recovery—and one says to himself, "After all we are a pretty solid gang!" And then one reads that Aimee Semple McPherson is to show in one Broadway vaudeville theater and her presumably estranged husband in another theater across the street, at astonishing salaries made possible by the willingness of thousands of gawks to pay their good money to stare at and listen to the chatter of these mountebanks—and one wonders whereabouts is the solidity—unless it be a solidity of ivory in the pate.

Likely enough—it will be due as soon as the box office drawing power of the Huttons begins to die down—there will be a reconciliation and a public celebration; probably in Madison Square Garden with fifteen thousands saps paying a couple of dollars apiece to howl for Aimee and Dave.

Who can know what to expect of a nation like we are?

EVEN IDAHO.

And even Idaho! That New Mexico would join the ranks of the states favoring repeal was to be expected; but if there was a spot in the Union where the drys had a chance of blocking the unanimity of the referendum on national prohibition it was believed to be the state where the whole population sits at the feet of Senator Borah and takes its opinions from him almost as one man.

Yet even Idaho falls in line. Not by any such overwhelming majority as has been common to every other state that has voted, but by a plurality of about twenty per cent—quite sufficient for all purposes.

That makes 31 states which have endorsed the repeal of the Eighteenth amendment. Only five more are needed. Virginia will vote on October 3 and Florida on October 10. Both of these are sure for repeal. On November 7 six states will vote, South Carolina, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Utah, North Carolina and Kentucky. Any three of them will put repeal over the top.

It is pretty safe to assume that on that date the fate of federal prohibition will be settled—forever and a day.

GIRLS' FRIENDLY OPENS SEASON THURSDAY

To Serve Peach Shortcake Supper As First of Their Fall Activities.

St. Mary's Girls' Friendly society will begin the season's activities with a peach shortcake supper, to be served tomorrow evening, when the stores are open for business. The hours will be from 4 to 7 o'clock to accommodate clerks who desire an early meal and who have to return to work. The menu includes vegetable soup, bread and butter, potato salad, peach shortcake with whipped cream and coffee, all at a nominal price, as their advertisement elsewhere indicates.

Mrs. Dorothy Turner, the supper chairman, will be assisted by Mrs. Viola Trotter, Miss Florence Cockerham, Miss Ethel Madden and Miss Dorothy Chapin. Miss Margaret Stratton, past branch president, will be in charge of the dining room and waitresses. Mrs. Howard Briggs, in charge of ticket distribution, desires returns to be made at a special meeting at the church this evening. Those who cannot report at the meeting should dial 3471.

The regular meeting on Monday featured reports of the different conferences. The opening was in charge of three younger members who attended the conference at Canaan the past summer. Valette Turner, Mary McCaughey and Therese Britton. Miss Evelyn Carlson, delegate to the Younger Members' conference gave an interesting report, and Miss Ethel Madden reported for the associates conference also held at Holiday House, Canaan. Rev. J. Stuart Neill gave an account of the conference which he attended in Concord, N. H.

ADMITTED TO BAR.

New Haven, Sept. 3.—(AP)—Atwood H. Miller of Meriden, who told Judge Allyn L. Brown he was unable to take the oath of a lawyer last June because he was on his honeymoon, was admitted to the bar today in Superior Court.

The young lawyer was married to the former Miss Barbara Hill of Hartford soon after his graduation from the Yale law school last June. He told the court he plans to enter a New York law firm.

OPEN ODD FELLOWS ACTIVITIES FRIDAY

Dates Set for Booster Club's Old-Fashioned Fair and Carnival.

October 26, 27 and 28 are the dates set for the old-fashioned bazaar and carnival to be held by the Booster Club of King David Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Manchester at Odd Fellows Temple, Main and Center streets. Stanley Nichols, chairman of the committee, said today that most of the important details had been arranged and plans were underway to make this affair one of the best indoor events of the fall season.

On Friday evening of this week, Willard B. Rogers, advertising director of the Hotel Bond, Hartford, will be the first speaker on the program for the early fall activities.

DEALER IS PAID $200 IN COUNTERFEIT BILLS

Ansonia, Sept. 30.—(AP)—Harry Litaky, a wholesale food dealer on Central street found this morning that $200 five Lim last night by an unknown truckman who called for a supply of sugar ordered earlier in the day was in counterfeit $10 bills. Litaky did not examine the money last night, and this morning sent a girl to the bank to deposit the money. It was found that all of the twenty $10 notes were counterfeit.

A man who Litaky said he did not know called on him yesterday and ordered the sugar, which he said he called for and took for later in the day. Early last evening another man, also a stranger to Litaky, appeared with a truck and carried off the sugar which was in bags and handed over the money. Litaky found when he sent the money to the bank today that the bills were all fake ones.

On Friday evening the first definite plans for the proposed Junior Lodge of Odd Fellows will be outlined. This will be the first time in Connecticut that a Junior Lodge has been undertaken and the outcome, in this district, comprising four lodges, King David of Manchester, Crescent of East Hartford, Rising Star of Rockville, and Wauson Lodge of Stafford Springs all are behind the movement.

The Booster Club has invited all the members of King David Lodge to be present Friday evening and the largest turnout in many years is expected to attend.

CHANGING LAWS TO AID THE NRA

Anti-Trust Regulations Being Suspended in Many States Now.

Washington.—Suspension of anti-trust laws during the operation of the National Recovery Act, the grant of unusually wide regulatory powers to governors, and fixing of penalties for violators of codes have already been acted upon by several of the states, and others have such measures under consideration. A bill by the Virginia Senate and now pending before the House is typical. It provides: "If, when a code has been approved or prescribed by the President under the National Recovery Act, any person shall violate any provision thereof in any transaction within the state not in or affecting interstate or foreign commerce, such person shall be guilty of a misdemeanor," and the penalty is fixed at $500 for each violation.

Governor Moore of New Jersey has just signed the Wolber Act which extends the provisions of NRA to make certain its application to "all trades and business within the state, whether or not engaged in interstate or foreign commerce," and making the governor the enforcing agent. Under the terms of the Carney bill Governor White of Ohio was granted sweeping powers by his State Legislature in dealing with industry under the Blue Eagle. It follows almost exactly the Federal statute.

The Wisconsin Legislature delegated to Governor Schmedeman power to suspend the state's anti-trust laws during the life of NRA and put into effect trade agreements which are in keeping with its spirit so long as they are not designed to, promote monopolies or oppress small enterprises, in accordance with NRA's provisions. Last spring, before NRA was signed by President Roosevelt, the Texas Legislature turned down a proposal to suspend that state's rather severe anti-trust laws, but it is expected that a special session which has just convened will pass the measure, according to a poll of the Legislature taken by a Texas newspaper.

R. H. Hutson of Florida, bus driver, has driven buses for 13 years, during which time he has traveled 1,002,040 miles, an average of 6,262 miles per month. And he never had an accident which injured one of his 144,000 passengers.

At The State Theater On Saturday

Here they are, The Crockerville Mountaineers, radio stars of Station WNAC and the Yankee Network. The Mountaineers are scheduled to appear in person at the State Theater on Saturday, September 23. This is a vaudeville act that will please the entire family. Hillbilly music, dancing and radio novelties are on the bill.

DRESS TRIMMING CODE BOON TO ALL WOMEN

Prevents Design Copying When They Have Been Registered—Fixes Definite Seasons.

Washington.—A feature of the code covering the millinery and dress-trimming industry, upon which hearings are now in progress, is its provision against the copying and offering for sale of "any style pattern or any single designs originated by another manufacturer within 6 months of the date when the designs are registered by the originator with the association." This innovation is comparable with another which fixes definite seasons for the sale of ladies' hats for spring, summer, fall, and winter styles. The code bars child labor, establishes maximum week of 40 hours, and minimum wages of 35 cents per hour in New York, 32 cents in Chicago, and 30 cents elsewhere in the United States.

DO YOU KNOW THAT—

Sixteen accidents, on American air passenger lines occurred at night, while 32 occurred in the daytime. The greatest danger to airships is the uncharted electric storm which is known as a line squall. Only 48 accidents have happened on American operated air passenger lines during the first half of 1933.

NEWSPAPER LINAGE GAINS IN AUGUST

Usually Considered Good Business Barometer — NRA Officials Hopeful.

Washington. — Statistical information from 25 large American cities in every part of the country shows that newspaper display advertising, which is universally regarded as one of the most accurate business barometers, has taken a definite and appreciable upturn. A gain of 16 percent in August of this year over August 1932 is shown. There had been a steady decline in newspaper display advertising linage through the month of July of this year. NRA officials believe the upturn is a definite reflection of renewed confidence on the part of the Nation's business, resulting in larger advertising budgets. In the 25 principal cities total for August 1933 was 41,925,028 lines against 36,608,728 in August 1932. The greatest gain during the month was in Chicago, 658,623 lines or from 2,276,826 to 2,935,449; and the gains for the month in next 10 of the 25 cities rated as follows: Philadelphia, gain of 453,997 lines; Cleveland, 392,157; Indianapolis, 367,398; Pittsburgh, 345,476; St. Louis, 300,070; Baltimore, 299,438; Milwaukee, 296,889; New York, 274,158; Dallas, 254,960; and Louisville, 242,191.

PROSPERITY AHEAD
SAYS C. OF C. HEAD

President Harriman Believes
Good Times Are Certain;
Makes Trip West.

Washington.—Significant of the progress of the President's program of national recovery was a message of distinct good cheer sent to the member chambers all over the country by Henry I. Harriman, president of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, upon his return from an extensive trip as far as the Pacific coast. "America can expect fair prosperity on a sound basis within a short time," was the opening of the first optimistic message that has gone out from Washington in many months.

"Hope has replaced fear and discouragement," he continued in his careful appraisal of progress under the industrial and agricultural acts. He told of widespread re-employment, of the evident determination of the people everywhere to support the President, of increasing credits and added.

Serious Problems
"The efforts being made to bring about economic recovery must of necessity bring serious problems. Child labor is a thing of the past, the sweat shops will not again appear and the exploitation of labor as a result of cutthroat competition will not again bring misery to untold thousands. The 40-hour week or a week of even fewer hours has become definitely a part of the national program. We may well characterize the operation of these two great acts, NRA and AAA, as sincere and probably effective efforts to co-ordinate and rationalize American industry along democratic lines and to assure economic security and industrial liberty to employers, employees, and those who work on the farm."

Simultaneously, National Recovery Administrator Hugh S. Johnson expressed appreciation through the chamber to business men for their co-operation in the recovery plan.

On the day the oil code became effective, reports from Tulsa showed that five companies there added 6,000 employees after reducing the work week to 35 hours. Payrolls of all oil companies were increased 20 per cent and many single major companies reported they were taking on from two to six thousand men immediately. It is estimated that more than 250,000 jobs will be available before October 1 in the vast operating fields of Texas, Oklahoma, and California and in the industry's 181 departments throughout the country.

Plans of an elaborate nature are being made by writers, many of them connected with the motion picture industry, as a nucleus for writers from every section, to work in behalf of the National Recovery Drive. More than 100 of the best known authors signed the original pledge, including Rupert Hughes, Upton Sinclair, Harold Bell Wright, Kathleen Norris, Peter B. Kyne, Zane Grey, Lawrence Sanders, Zoe Akins, Edna Wilcox Putnam, Gouverneur Morris, and Donald Ogden Stewart as the committee in charge. They will write articles for free release to newspapers, magazines, and news syndicates, in support of NRA and extend their efforts in whatever other way to "ensure the success of the recovery program."

Six hundred codes are in process of consideration. Hearings on two dozen are fixed for the coming week and an increasing number for each successive week, with a growing tendency wherever possible to include all ramifications of industries under single codes.

FOR HOLLYWOOD EXTRAS

Over 600 Witnesses Appear at Hearings — 12,000 Extras Get Special Attention.

Washington.—Better breaks and more of them than ever are promised in a code of fair competition submitted by the Motion-Picture Industry, hearings on which have started, with more than 600 witnesses scheduled to appear. Two codes were originally filed, one for producers and distributors, the other for exhibitors; but they have been combined and they represent practically the entire industry. Even with hours cut to a maximum of only 36 per week for skilled labor and 40 for unskilled, it is estimated the wage level proposed will be from 12 to 15 per cent higher than in 1929. In pictures, on the lot, and in all advertising, "right moral standards and good taste" are required. The 12,000 "Hollywood extras," severely hit by the long depression, have been given special consideration in the code. Statistics show only 631 jobs per day were available for them during the 6-month period ending last June. To afford employment to a greater number, producers agree not to employ as an extra any member of the family of any motion-picture executive or employee or any person not dependent upon this work for a livelihood. "Permanent elimination of favoritism" and a definite scale of wages are provided for.

CODE FIXES TERRITORY FOR BLIND NEWSDEALERS

Washington.—A code submitted to NRA jointly by the Blind Newsdealers' Association and the Metropolitan Newsdealers' Association provides for elimination of newboys under 14 and price control. Boys between 14 and 16 would be limited to 24 hours a week with minimum pay of 25 cents per hour, all above 16 to 48 hours. The code proposes that sale of newspapers shall yield 33 1-3 percent profit; that no special privileges shall be granted to other newsdealers; and that "it would be unfair for publishers, distributors, or dealers to invade areas already being served by an established newsdealer." Hearings have not yet been held.

NEWSPAPER CODE HEARING SEPT. 22

Washington.—Official announcement has been made that public hearings on the code of fair competition submitted by the American Newspaper Publishers Association, said to represent more than 50 percent of American daily newspapers, will begin in the main auditorium of the Department of Commerce Building in Washington at 10 a. m. on September 22.

N. R. A. Bulletins

ANSWERS TO INQUIRIES

Q. Reports from various NRA boards report that barbers say they "are being forced to raise prices" by their local association. "In order to remain in business."
A. There is nothing in the President's Re-employment Agreement requiring employers to subscribe to local agreements regarding price fixing. Until barbers come under the general barbers' code they may continue with old prices, provided there is no violation of paragraph 9 of NRA "to refrain from taking profiteering advantage of the public" and "in setting price increases to give full weight to probable increases in sales volume."
Q. I am a laundryman. We were closed down on Labor Day and now are working employees 9 hours per day to make up lost time, but shall not work 42 am more than 45 hours per week. Does this violate the approved laundry substitution?
A. Yes. Employees are not to be worked on legal holidays.
Q. Can a chamber of commerce approve a petition for a stay when a permanent code has been approved?
A. No.
Q. A person wishes to become a court reporter, but, as there is no advanced course open in local business school, he agrees to serve in a lawyer's office. Is he a student or an employee?
A. Employee. If employer can not observe hour and wage provisions, he should petition for exceptions.

Q. How many hours may I work carpenters per day in my shop?
A. Maximum of eight per day. The President's Agreement reads: "The undersigned agrees with the President (par. 3) not to employ any factory or mechanical worker or artisan more than a maximum week of 35 hours until December 31, 1935, but with the right to work a maximum week of 40 hours for any six weeks within this period and not to employ any worker more than eight hours in any one day."
Q. What are maximum hours for truck drivers for a market?
A. The temporary code for grocery and food distributors does not fix maximum hours for outside delivery men.

Q. In an industry having two groups of manufacturers, one selling direct, the other to retailers, may each group formulate codes?
A. Yes, but NRA will co-ordinate them under a single code, if possible.
Q. I am employed in a cigar store. How many hours must I work a week, and what is the minimum pay?
A. Under the temporary retailers' code, maximum hours per week 40, minimum pay $13.50 in the North and $12.50 in the South.
Q. Are hours restricted when it is necessary to take inventory?
A. Under the temporary retail-agreement employees restricted to 40 hours a week may work 48 hours at Christmas, inventory, and other peak periods. Owners are not restricted.

Q. Can a storekeeper not a member of the NRA display a consumer's Blue Eagle in his store?
A. No; but in his home, where it will not be misleading.
Q. Is there a code for maids doing general housework?
A. Domestic help is not intended to be covered.
Q. How many hours per week can my clerical help be employed?
A. If you have signed for the Blue Eagle, maximum hours for any accounting, clerical, office, service, or sales employees, except outside salaried men, 40 per week.

Q. Must students working in a barber college and serving the public as part of their training be paid the minimum wage?

A. Yes; if that custom was followed prior to June 16, date of approval of NRA, on commission basis but not otherwise.

We have prospered in Manchester for 11 years and our success was made possible by a faithful and loyal patronage. "We do our part" to save you money while it is within our power. GREAT IMPETUS GIVEN RECOVERY

New Jobs Created in Towns and Cities Throughout the Nation.

Washington.—Tremendous impetus has been given the National Recovery Program during the past few days. Thousands of employers who explained a volunteer workers their inability to sign the President's Re-employment Agreement have been sending in their pledges through regional boards of NRA in states "nd district and in many cases, to headquarters direct. They write that they had given the subject mature thought and had decided that apparent increases in sales justified their expenditures for more help in their establishments. Several quoted the admonition in paragraph 9 of the Agreement to "give full weight to probable increases in sales volume."

Thousands Get Work
Reports are not yet complete from the more than a million workers, but they continue to show cities and towns which signed up 100 per cent in all parts of the country and give details of hundreds of thousands of new jobs created. One hundred and twenty-nine thousand persons were taken from the ranks of the unemployed in New York City, and plans call for about 46,000 more by October 15. In Shreveport, La., 307 were put back to work by 303 employers during the first 7 days. Nashville firms added 2,907 with weekly payroll increase of $48,000 during the same period. In Ocala, Fla., 130 were re-employed at $3,000 per week. The population of Ocala is 7,500. Four counties in San Joaquin Valley, Calif., re-employed 5,208 the first week. The town of Cashmere, Wash., has 54 firms. All of them signed for the Blue Eagle, and the first day supplied 26 new jobs.

In Kansas City, Mo., 10,870 firms hired 10,387 men and women and agreed to take on 6,960 more by October 1, with monthly pay-roll increase of $1,014,323. In the midst of the hurricane Corpus Christi, Tex., reported re-employment of 1,094, with weekly increase in wages of $18,000; 849 firms and 5,885 consumers signed up under the Blue Eagle. More than one fourth of the entire population of Springfield, Mo., marched in the NRA parade there. In his report the chairman said, "The total absence of advertising matter of any sort in the parade indicated our absolute sincerity of purpose." The large city of Dayton, Ohio, was reported as having signed under the Blue Eagle 100 per cent.

Indianapolis Reports
Eight companies in Indianapolis gave jobs to 5,884, with increase of $113,391 in payrolls. Total of 21,542 were re-employed in that city. Fort Dodge, Iowa, put on 456. The payroll of Butler, Pa., was increased $259,000 per month. A Bartlesville (Okla.) oil company added 100 men to their force in each of 30 states.

Total allotments for public works have passed $1,500,000,000 with allocation of $2,270,871 for the construction of government buildings in 15 states, mostly for stations along the Canadian and Mexican borders. During the past week there has been an increasing number of non-Federal projects filed with Public Works Administrator takes. Many approvals have been given to allotments to city or sanitary districts, county and state bodies, and to public controlled low-cost housing corporations, and many other such projects have been sent here for study. At last the states are taking the necessary steps to procure immediate expenditure by the Federal government of 30 per cent of the costs of material and labor on projects for which there has been insistent demand.

NRA SERVICE TO WOMEN WORKERS GAINS PRAISE

W. C. T. U. and D. A. R. Leaders Keep Close Tabs on Results of Several Hearings.

Washington.—Heads of women's organizations who have devoted their lives to bettering conditions of women workers have expressed their hearty approval of the treatment of their sex in the codes of fair competition that have been approved by the President and the provisions contained in the many modified codes now in operation. The highest officials of such organizations as the W. C. T. U., the Federation of Women's Clubs, the I. A. R., and many others have kept close tabs on the code hearings, as a result of which these leaders of their sex have offered their services to NRA to speak and work in behalf of the recovery program. These eminent women include the venerable Jan. Addams, who is scheduled to make several nationwide radio broadcasts. Miss Mary Anderson, long Chief of the Women's Bureau of the Department of Labor, has been delivering a series of speeches in which she declared that through exploitation of female labor by certain employers working conditions for women had been gradually growing worse. Every previous movement to reduce their working hours had been blocked by a minority of unscrupulous managements. She is advocating educational, library and recreational facilities to provide NRA workers with means of spending their leisure time.

REQUIRE STATISTICAL REPORTS OF COMPANIES

Customary Requirements Not Effected by Special Requests from NRA.

Washington.—The fact that NRA requires certain statistical information from industries and their compliance with the request does not relieve industries from the obligation imposed by law to make regular reports to other departments of the government. Manufacturers and others have misunderstood the continued requirements upon them to report to the Departments of Labor and Commerce, the Federal Trade Commission, and other government agencies. In order to clear up the matter, NRA has issued the following statement: "No provision of any code relieves any industry from the obligation of continuing to make customary statistical reports to government departments."

Industrial codes are being submitted at NRA headquarters in Washington at the rate of 34 every 12 hours, including Sundays.

BLUE EAGLE DRIVE APPEAL WIDENING

General Johnson Gets Assurances from Leaders in Every Walk of Life.

The ever-widening appeal of the Blue Eagle Drive, continues to bring assurances of complete co-operation from every walk of life and branch of industry in the country. A telegram was received by General Hugh S. Johnson, Administrator of the National Recovery Act and leader of the Blue Eagle Drive, from the Authors Legion of the NRA, comprising most of the well known writers now in Hollywood, pledging enthusiastic support to the movement.

The telegram was signed by Rupert Hughes as chairman and Upton Sinclair, Nina Wilcox Putnam, John Russell, Vina Delmar, Mark Lee

Luther, Horatio Winslow, Nunnally Johnson, Lewis Browne, Rob Wagner, Edgar Rice Burroughs, W. R. Burnett, Frank Craven, Zoe Akins, Anita Loos, Robert Benchley, Zane Grey, Donald Ogden Stewart, Jim Tully and Bayard Veiler. It read as follows: "The undersigned writers, members of the Author's Legion of the NRA, gathered with Jack L. Warner, California State Chairman, to discuss support for NRA. Express to you our sincere appreciation of your labors and pledge our aid to assist the program of wage increase and reduction of hours and call upon the citizens of this country to overcome the leaning towards sabotage of the Government Recovery Program."

Another manifestation of the hold which the drive has given the NRA on people, was indicated in a letter received from the Philadelphia Meat Cutters Association. At a meeting attended by several hundred members of the Association, formal pledge was adopted with all present standing with their right hands raised. The pledge read as follows: "I pledge myself to do all within my power to co-operate with the NRA and administration. I will purchase commodities only in NRA stores. I will spread the doctrine of NRA to the people with whom I come into contact and shall request all customers whom I serve to purchase their other commodities only in NRA stores. I shall do everything within my power to induce my employer to sign up under NRA and shall report all violations of the NRA to the office of this organization."

NRA will have its own aviation service, an organization composed entirely of volunteers, whose chief province will be to transport speakers in the shortest possible time to points where they are needed to address rallies and mass meetings. Dr. John D. Brock of Kansas City, a business man who is internationally known in aviation circles because of his record of consecutive daily airplane flights now totaling more than 1,850, today was appointed commander-in-chief of the NRA Volunteer Flying Corps, with authority to organize a national association of private airplane pilots placing themselves under orders to carry NRA speakers or officials on calls wherever needed.

A BOOK A DAY

BY BRUCE CATTON
STORY OF FAMILY'S VACATION IN AUTO

Trip Across Continent Found Pleasant, Inexpensive

By BRUCE CATTON

"Double-Crossing America by motor," by Edward D. Dunn, is an informative and pleasant little travel guide telling how a family of six drove across the continent from New York to California and back again, spending a remarkably small amount of money and having, apparently, a very swell time of it.

Now there are travel guides and travel guides. There is, for instance, the kind Charles J. Finger writes, which are an interesting and valuable kind of literature on their own account, even if you don't care to do any traveling yourself; and this book, I must warn you, does not come in that fine writing. It is strictly utilitarian, with no frills, no philosophizing, no fine writing. But it does contain a number of valuable tips for anyone who is contemplating an extended auto tour.

Mr. Dunn's route led him from New York down on a long slant to the far southwest, and the return was made through the northern states. All in all, he put in 35 days and traveled just under 8000 miles; and the whole affair, he says, cost substantially less than steamer fares to Europe and return for the family would have cost. Some of his discoveries were rather interesting. Old-fashioned hotels, he learned, are often extremely comfortable. Private homes which rent rooms to tourists are frequently amazingly fine places to stop. On a long trip it is wise to rest on Sundays, and to be leisurely about getting started in the morning. You needn't be wealthy to enjoy a southern California holiday. Published by Putnam's, this little book retails for $2.

The traffic death rate of the large cities of South Africa is greater than that of the large cities of the United States. Last year the large cities of South Africa averaged 24.8 deaths per 100,000 population while the United States averaged 15.2.

Quotations--

Air supremacy is somehow inseparably linked with air speed. Since the dawn of history those people who possessed the best and fastest transportation have led the world.

—Maj. Gen. James E. Fechet, U. S. Army (Ret.).

Our slogan is still "No retreat, no compromise, no surrender."
—Dr. F. Scott McBride, national dry leader.

I think I have many years of competitive tennis ahead of me.
—Mrs. Helen Wills Moody.

I would like to be governor of Oklahoma. I will not be coy or indefinite about it.
—Congressman E. W. Marland, ex-ec. ling.

The NRA is designed on the simple principle that 100 men earning $10 will spend more money than one man earning $1000 and 99 earning nothing.
—General Hugh S. Johnson.

A new brake for automobiles, recently developed, operates by the vacuum from the intake manifold.

Under the new Canadian customs regulations, it is no longer necessary for tourists to make a deposit for duty purposes, on previously used sports equipment.

From 25 to 35 per cent of the power of an airplane's engine is dissipated to the air through the radiator.

Reading from official reports, Hull said extreme disorders were anticipated at Vanez where United Fruit Company property is located. Serious strikes continued, he said, at the United Fruit property near Preston.

Hull said that there was a marked change for the worse.

AT MINES NEAR BELLEN, SOME OF WHICH WERE BELIEVED TO BE AMERICAN OWNED

Hull said labor agitators virtually imprisoned a group inside the mine properties, and their food and ice had given out. No one was allowed to leave or enter the property, he said.

AT RENTE, ACROSS THE BAY FROM SANTIAGO, 50 AMERICANS HAD TAKEN REFUGE WITHIN RANGE OF AN AMERICAN DESTROYER LYING OFFSHORE

In Oriente province, he said, 15 sugar plants had been taken over by strikers, while a mob had taken control of various properties at Soledad.

RETAILERS AGREE ON A TRADE CODE

goods in the hope they will buy items carrying a much higher profit.

The clause in the retail code carrying this provision now reads: "In order to check predatory price cutting and minimize operating losses resulting therefrom and in order to assure that the retailer shall be at least partially compensated for the service he renders the consumer, on and after the effective date of this code no retailer shall offer for sale, sell, exchange or give away any merchandise, except as provided in Section 2 of this article and in Schedule A hereafter below a minimum price which shall be the wholesale delivered price as herein after defined with the addition of a charge of ten per cent.

"Wholesale delivered price" as used herein means the lowest gross billing price, as of any date within 30 days prior to the date of resale, made to any retailer in the given market area less only such discounts as are extended to all retailers plus delivery costs paid by the retailer."

The Section 2 following this article specified lower prices could be charged at bona-fide clearance sales, on lightly perishable merchandise, imperfect or damaged goods clearly marked, discontinued lines and final liquidation.

The general or master code was submitted for ten classes of retail trade: Department stores, furniture stores, general merchandise stores, hardware stores, limited price variety stores, mail order houses, men's clothing, music stores, shoe stores and women's specialty shops.

It would become effective on the second Monday following approval by the President.

Administration of the code would be in a retail trade authority consisting of the NRA administrator or his deputy, three members appointed by President Roosevelt, all

DR. ANNIE BESANT, THEOSOPHIST, DEAD

Madras, India, Sept. 20.—(AP)—Dr. Annie Besant, who was known throughout the world for her leadership in theosophical activities, died here today. On Oct. 1 she would have been 83 years old.

The peacefulness of her last few days was in vivid contrast to the storm of her life. She was in a state of half-consciousness for some time, never speaking at length even to her most intimate friends.

Dr. Besant had no malady except old age. She was mentally and physically worn out.

HARTFORD STAGES MONSTER PAGEANT

Dolan, head of the state recovery board, was one of the marchers.

Four local bands took part, the Salvation Army Band, the American Legion Fire, Drum and Bugle Corps, the Manchester Pipe Band and the Center Flute Band. Also in line was Manchester's well known band, the Spirit of '76, consisting of Joseph Ferguson, Michael J. Barry and Julian P. Palmes.

Other local persons among the marchers included all the employees of the local Atlantic and Pacific and the First National chain stores, besides local employees of Hartford business concerns that were represented. Added to these were hundreds of townspeople who traveled to Hartford to witness the parade.

The parade started shortly before 9 o'clock from Lafayette Square near the Bushnell Memorial, headed by Governor Wilbur L. Cross, riding in an open tonneau car. The parade proceeded along Washington street and down Park street to Main street, up Main street, passed the reviewing stand near the Henry Barnard school and then proceeding down High street, after which the various units disbanded.

WASHINGTON WAITS

JAP ENVOY'S VISIT

Former Head of Intelligence Unit to Visit U. S. on Way to Sweden.

Washington, Sept. 20.—(AP)—American diplomatic chiefs are expecting a call next month from one of Japan's statesmen, Toshio Shiratori, former chief of the intelligence unit in Tokyo, now on the Pacific en route to his new post as minister to Norway and Sweden. Whether Shiratori will seek to talk formally of existing Far Eastern problems during his trip across this country toward Scandinavia could not be ascertained here today. Officials said they had been informed of the Japanese minister's impending arrival only through press reports. Secretary Hull has told newspapermen, however, that he would be glad to meet Shiratori should he pay a call. Little has been said publicly of the Japanese-American affairs during the six months of the Roosevelt administration. The President and his aides have been engrossed almost completely in domestic affairs and a few international problems such as the world economic conference.

International Aims

Among the international aims known to be held desirably by Japan at present are recognition of Manchukuo and a rearrangement of the 5-5-3 naval ratio set at the London naval conference. Officials here, however, have been generally silent upon both questions. Present administration leaders have given no indication of immediate consideration to the question of recognizing Manchukuo. So far as observers here have been able to ascertain, the matter has not even been discussed recently. Open opposition to such a move was apparent during the Hoover administration. Holding that no action could be taken until the 1935 naval conference, in any event, officials also have been reluctant to discuss any possibility of increasing the Japanese naval ratio more nearly to a par with the treaty limits of Great Britain and the United States. Shiratori, while chief of the intelligence bureau of the Japanese foreign office, was quoted widely for his criticism of the Far Eastern policy enunciated by Henry L. Stimson, then secretary of state.

BRIDE OF TWO WEEKS

BADLY HURT IN CRASH

Mrs. George Metaxa, Wife of Actor, Suffers Fractured Jaw in Accident.

Greenwich, Conn., Sept. 20.—(AP)—Mrs. George Metaxa, the former Margaret M. Stafford of New York, was severely injured early today in an automobile accident in Greenwich where two weeks ago she became the bride of the London and Broadway actor. The 18-year-old Mrs. Metaxa suffered a fracture of the jaw when the automobile she was driving swerved off the highway and struck a pile. She was admitted to Greenwich hospital. Her 35-year-old husband and another couple, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Sherwood of Greenwich, escaped with minor injuries. Mrs. Sherwood was treated at the hospital for bruises. The accident occurred at 1 a. m., on the Field Point road. Mrs. Metaxa, who made her debut in society a year ago, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert K. Stafford. She married the actor in the Greenwich Town Hall September 5 after a romance that began last February in a New York night club.

FORESTERS GATHER

New Haven, Sept. 20.—(AP)—New Connecticut and New York foresters met today in the Connecticut Agricultural Experimental Station to consider measures for control of the European pine shoot moth. Some 25 forest experts were present. Roger B. Friend, assistant entomologist of the experiment station, and H. W. Hooch, assistant forester, explained methods of dealing with the moth invasion in Connecticut. After the meeting the group made a tour of infested plantations, visiting Middletown and North Branford.

Queer Twists

In Day's News

San Francisco, Sept. 20.—(AP)—Self-portraits by leading California artists have been on display at the palace of the Legion of Honor and one that attracted attention was painted by Ralph Stackpole. He pictured himself armed with a razor, halfway in the act of shaving.

Allerton, Ill.—They greeted the Rev. J. T. Hendrix with a shotgun when he came home from the Methodist conference.

It wasn't that the pastor isn't liked. In fact he was so greeted because the parishioners think highly of him. The gun is to hunt game with, and thereby out down the cost of living, for the pastor's pay isn't very large.

Kenosha, Wis.—Dry for a hundred years, the village of Bristol, is to retain so despite a two to one vote against prohibition, if the village board has its way. The board refused to issue permits for beer. The attorney general held the board has arbitrary power under the Wisconsin law.

Chicago—Traction officials at a convention were told that the government had given permission to distribute wind-shield stickers to auto drivers on which N. R. A. would mean "no riders allowed." Hitchhikers have become a major problem to transportation companies since a serious "leisure" problem through the shortening of working hours. As it is, most of us depend upon others to provide us with amusement; in this country we have relatively less power of creating our own pleasures and relaxations than do people abroad.

Keeps the Spirit

Although there is no official code for colleges, President McCaughy pointed out that the Wesleyan policy has been in keeping with the spirit of the N. R. A. movement in that there has been no reduction in the salary of personnel of the Wesleyan staff at any time during the depression period.

William G. Chantler announced the award of honors in scholarship for last year. The Jackson Cup which is awarded annually to the fraternity maintaining the highest scholastic standing went to Phi Nu

SUGGESTS RECOVERY

CODE FOR COLLEGES

Would Emphasize Needs of Groups Rather Than of Individual Students.

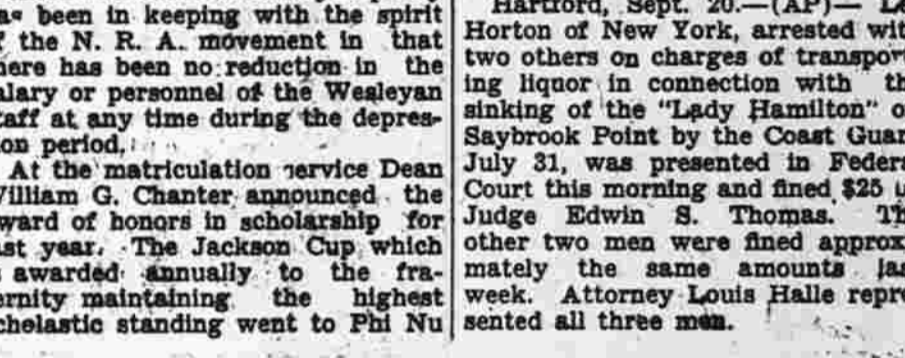

Middletown, Sept. 20.—A "recovery code" for colleges and college students was suggested by President James L. McCaughy of Wesleyan University in his address delivered at the matriculation service marking the opening of the college's 103rd year today. Such a code should emphasize upon the needs of the group as opposed to those of the individual student; it would concern itself with the welfare of higher education as a whole rather than the needs of individual institutions.

BYRD'S PLANE ARRIVES

Boston, Sept. 20.—(AP)—The twin-engine plane "Condor" in which Rear Admiral Richard E. Byrd expects to fly over the South Pole in his forthcoming Antarctic expedition was received by him today at the East Boston Airport. The huge craft was brought here from Glen Curtis Field, Long Island, by Harold June of Stamford, Conn., chief pilot of the expedition. After being tested, the plane will be partly dismantled and placed on board the ship Pacific Fir, flagship of the expedition. Admiral Byrd's other ship, the Bear, will leave Boston, Sept. 25, he said, with the Pacific Fir departing several days later.

BUM RUNNER FINED

Hartford, Sept. 20.—(AP)—Lee Horton of New York, arrested with two others on charges of transporting liquor in connection with the sinking of the "Lady Hamilton" off Saybrook Point by the Coast Guard July 31, was presented in Federal Court this morning and fined $25 by Judge Edwin J. Thomas. The other two men were fined approximately the same amounts last week. Attorney Louis Halle represented all three men.

The funny duck seemed to enjoy the swinging. Scouty cried, "Oh, boy! I'd hate to have to try that trick! I know I'd take a flop."

"The duck swings back and forth with ease. I couldn't hang on, by my knees. I'll bet the duck will soon get tired. Perhaps we'd better stop."

The parrot said, "Oh, my, you're wrong. That clever duck is very strong. Why, she'd sit on that rope all night, if you'd keep swinging it."

"I'll bet, right now, that your arms ache. A little rest you'd better take." "That suits me fine," said Scouty. "I am fagged, I will admit."

So, he and Cappy let the rope drop down and Goldy cried, "I hope you've had real fun, old ducky. You are clever as can be."

The duck then flapped her wings around and started waddling over the ground. Her tail bobbed back and forth, and 'twas a funny sight to see.

Just then the Timmy heard a sound and, as the whole bunch looked around, we Doty shouted, "Oh, let's run. I see a little bear."

"Just look! It's heading right y here. I don't want it to come too near." "The bear is tame, the parrot cried. "It won't give you a scare!"

Then to the cub bear he cried out, "You've come to show us tricks, no doubt. Well, we will fix the rope again. Then, see what you can do."

The rope was tied between two trees. The bear hopped up on it with ease. "Just watch him," said the parrot. "He will show you something new."

"Now, first he'll try to snare trick. Unless he fails, it will be slick. Get him a long stick, Duncy. Don't be trail of him at all."

The cub soon held the stick real tight, and walked the rope. My, what a sight. The Timmyites all held their breath. They thought the bear would fall.

SENSE and NONSENSE

THE trouble with the AVERAGE man is THAT he seldom INCREASES his average.

Life is like a game of cards, you must play it with the hand that is dealt you—the greatest disgrace is losing with a good hand and the greatest honor is winning with a poor one.

Teacher—Can you name a collective noun?
William—Yes, ma'am. Ash can.

Some women remind one of the Northwestern Police. . . They always get their man.

Ellen—So Hilda's broken it off with Randolph? I wonder if she still keeps his love letters?
Thad—No. As a matter of fact, they're keeping her now.

He—How can I live without you, dear?
She—A good deal less expensively.

Salesmanship Counts . . . The Waitress Who Suggests a Second Cup of Coffee Never Should be Out of a Job.

Gentleman Golfer—You want to stop now? Why, we've only played five holes.

Lady Golfer (first time at golf)—Well, the pro told me the par for the round was 76 and I've played that number already.

"One Nice Thing About Telling the Truth" Thinks a Local Man, "Is That You Don't Have to Remember What You Say."

First Girl—If you loved a rich man and a poor man, which one would you marry?
Second Girl—Id marry the rich one and be good to the poor.

When you've set your mind to do it, When your judgment says you're right, When your conscience gives its sanction, Then pitch in with all your might. Don't let anything prevent you Though the odds seem big and strong. Every obstacle must vanish As the swift days roll along— If you set your jaw and say— "Well, I'll do it anyway!"

Patent—My wife tells me I talk in my sleep, doctor. What should I do?
Doctor—Nothing that you shouldn't.

Grandma Popinpop says when Grandpap Popinpop called on her during their courtin' days, he brought her a bag of wintergreen drops instead of a pint of gin.

ONE MAY BE WISE IN MONEY MAKING AND IN NOTHING ELSE. ANOTHER MAY BE WISE IN EVERYTHING ELSE AND A FOOL WHEN IT COMES TO MONEY.

Prosecutor—Well, since you demur at telling me how old you are, we will let it pass. I suppose you don't mind telling the court at what age you were married.
Woman—At the parsonage.

It takes both your enemies and your friends to sink you in the slough of despondency; the enemy to slander you and the friend to carry the news to you.

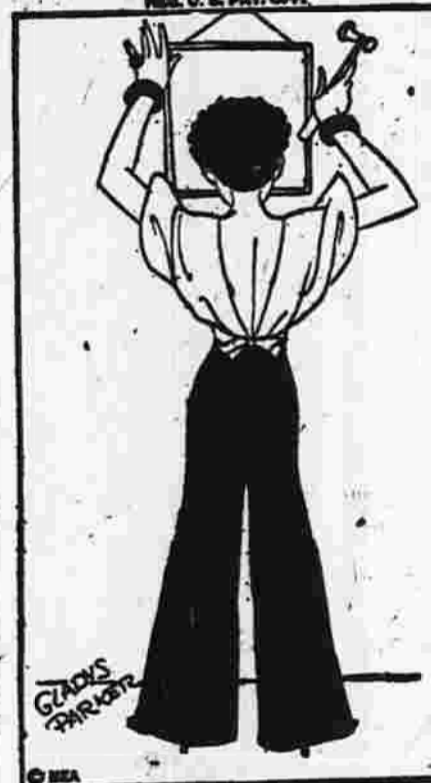

Aristocrat (at party)—Speaking of old families, one of my ancestors was present at the signing of the Magna Charta.
Ladies Cohen—And one of mine was present at the signing of the Ten Commandments.

Patient—What do you do for seasickness?
Doctor—Just what everyone else does.

Planes flying the routes of air line operators in the United States during 1932 covered more than 80,000,000 miles.

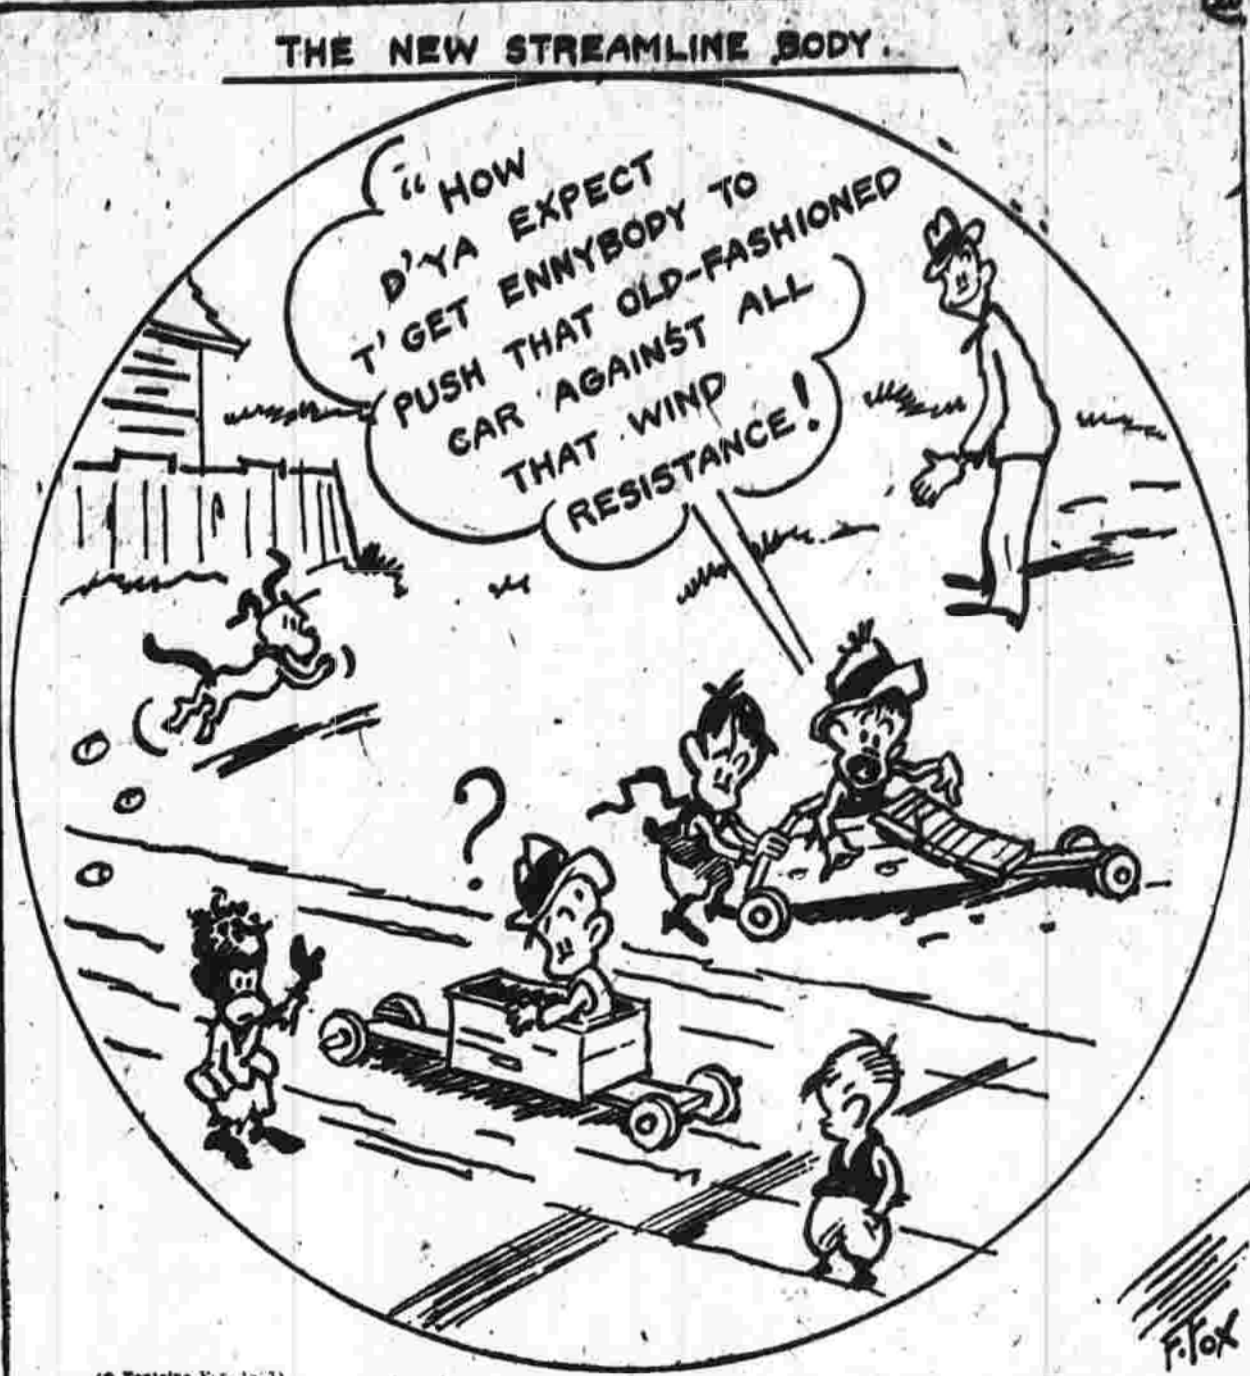

The fifth anniversary of the inauguration of air mail in Houston, Texas, was observed, Feb. 6 of this year.
