JOHNSON SETS DEADLINE FOR FORD FIGURES

NRA Head Says Auto Mag- nate Must Report Before Nov. 7 or He'll Demand Action.

Washington, Oct. 27.—(AP)—Hugh S. Johnson said today that if Henry Ford fails to submit figures requested by the National Automobile Chamber of Commerce within the time to be set, "I'll turn the case over to the attorney general."

At a press conference, the NRA executive intimates that the deadline would be November 7; but cautioned he was not definitely certain that that date would be the one fixed.

However, he said, while a violation of that kind probably would be conclusive evidence of non-compliance with the automobile code on the part of Ford, he does not consider the manufacturer now eligible to bid on government contracts.

He asserted in response to questions: "No, I don't think he's eligible because Edsel Ford told me when I was in Detroit that they would never consent to any collective bargaining."

Johnson disclosed that Robert Fechner, director of the Civilian Conservation Corps, had informed him that a low bid by a Ford dealer for a large number of trucks for his organization would be rejected.

To Trade in Car
"Asked what about the Lincoln?" the quick-answering Johnson shot back.

"You mean the Lincoln I ride around in? Well, we are going to trade that in for a Cadillac."

He was particularly emphatic that he would not let any time elapse after definite evidence of code violation by Ford came to him, in taking action against the manufacturer.

In regard to collective bargaining by Ford, he said he was not familiar with circumstances at the Edgewater, New Jersey, assembly plant where strikers were received by Ford officials and their demands were forwarded to Dearborn for action by the company.

He indicated, however, that he regarded the statement which he said Edsel Ford had made to him as final.

In connection with the C. C. C. automobile contract, Johnson was asked whether the fact that the bid was submitted by a Ford dealer would not make a difference.

"I've taken a position that a great big billion dollar corporation can not hide behind a $10,000 company," Johnson replied, adding, however, that some legal technicality might conceivably alter the situation.

Commenting in an interview on the bids for trucks for the CCC, Director Fechner called attention to President Roosevelt's executive order of August 10 and said his position was that "Mr. Ford is not within the executive order requiring all manufacturers who supply ma-

PURCHASE OF MILK FOR NATION'S IDLE

Relief Officials Are Now Working on a Plan to Help the Unemployed.

Washington, Oct. 27.—(AP)—Harry L. Hopkins, relief administrator, in a statement today said Representative Crosby, (D., Pa.) "is not an agent of the Federal emergency relief administration and is not authorized by it to purchase or distribute milk to the needy unemployed."

The statement was brought about by one previously from Crosby that he was setting up a nationwide organization, with relief administration sanction, to purchase the milk. Crosby quoted a relief administrator official as saying $24,000,000 would be available.

"Congressman Crosby on invitation called at the Federal emergency relief administration offices on Wednesday," Hopkins said.

Discussed the Plan
"He discussed with Jacob Baker, assistant to the president of Federal Surplus Relief Corporation, his plan for milk purchasing and distribution for the benefit of farmers and milk producers, to the destitute unemployed."

"Mr. Baker told Representative Crosby that a plan can be worked out that will enable the Federal emergency relief administration to increase the consumption of milk by families now on relief, the administrator would be very happy to have him submit it for consideration."

"The purchase of milk to add to the relief of the destitute unemployed has been planned for some time and progress is being made in a number of cities."

Navy Day Celebrated All Over the Nation

Washington, Oct. 27.—(AP)—The Navy was "at home" today, celebrating its own 153rd anniversary and the birthday of a late President, Theodore Roosevelt. Personal contact with the citizen on land was the keynote of the observation. President Roosevelt noted the occasion in a message to Acting Secretary Henry L. Roosevelt of the Navy, saying: "It is highly desirable that these men who spend the greater part of their lives at sea and out of contact with the people they serve, should have a day set apart to make personal reports of their trust to the people and convey a better understanding of the Navy and its work. "The United States Navy has never failed to render the fullest measure of service to the Nation." Ships and shore stations throughout the country joined in special programs for the day, while the giant airship Macon made a special flight along the West coast.

SAYS THAT NUDISM INCREASES CANCER

New York Doctor Declares That Even Beach Bathing Causes Skin Cancer.

Madrid, Oct. 7.—(AP)—Dr. James Ewing, director of Memorial hospital, New York City, told delegates to the International Cancer Congress today that the idea of discovering a cure for cancer is "absurd."

The only hope of reducing cancer fatalities, he added, lies in prevention. In discussing prevention, Dr. Ewing charged nudism and other public movements toward exposure of the body with increasing cancer.

"Sunlight," he said, "is one of the greatest causes of cancer. Even trips to the beach often result in skin cancer."

Cancer exists in hundreds of forms, consisted Dr. Ewing, one of two United States delegates to the congress, and it is unwise and unreasonable to expect one cure.

He said that in his opinion only lip, skin, mouth, and breast cancer is curable. These, he went on, constitute 35 per cent of the cases, but the remaining 65 per cent are not curable.

He criticized physicians who hold forth a cure in the early stages of cancer, saying that early diagnosis seldom is possible, even when possible is useless if the cancer belongs in the incurable category. Stomach cancer is the most dead-

TAMMANY CHIEF APPEALS TO SMITH

McCooley Wants Al to Speak at Big Democratic Rally in Brooklyn.

New York, Oct. 27.—(AP)—Despite the expressed opinion of close friends of Alfred E. Smith that he will refuse to break his silence in the New York mayoral contest, John H. McCooley, Brooklyn leader and Tammany ally, sought a conference with him today to ask him to speak at the final Democratic rally in Brooklyn.

Smith's absence from the Tammany rally at which Mayor John P. O'Brien was notified of his resignation, caused wide comment among politicians. It was the first such meeting he had not attended in years.

21 Plank Platform
Joseph V. McKee, who seeks the mayor's chair on the recovery party ticket took his stand today on a 21 plank platform promising to "destroy the power of Tammany Hall's stupid and arrogant leadership."

From the camp from his fusion foe, Fiorella H. La Guardia, came a blast accusing McKee of having voted in favor of an attempted "bus franchise grab" which Samuel Seabury called "a big blot on our political history."

Mayor O'Brien went ahead with a quiet campaign, promising an improved school system, including building of schools with Federal funds.

Crosby quoted a relief administrator official as saying $24,000,000 would be available.

"Congressman Crosby on invitation called at the Federal emergency relief administration offices on Wednesday," Hopkins said.

PARLATO FACING SENTENCE TODAY

Derby Youth Found Guilty of Setting Fire to Fraternity House.

Washington, Oct. 27.—(AP)—Edward J. Parlato of Derby, Conn., and H. Albert Smith of Humphreys, Mo., faced possible sentences today for conviction of having set fire to the Sigma Chi fraternity house July 9.

They were found guilty of arson Wednesday, with the inauguration of this policy, a price of $31.36 was established, and yesterday it was $31.54.

These figures compared with the following world prices: $31.09, $31.06 and $31.10.

Administration officials would not reveal whether any particular formula had been prescribed for the determination of the daily figure.

As on yesterday and the day before, today's quotation was decided upon by Chairman Jesse Jones of the Reconstruction Corporation, and Henry Morgenthau, Jr., representing the President, meeting with acting Secretary Dean Acheson at the Treasury.

GOLD MINERS BUSY
Denver, Oct. 27.—(AP)—Gold miners in the Rocky mountain area shipped $416,888 worth of newly-minted gold to the Denver mint in the last two days, taking advantage of the government's new gold purchasing plan. Mark A. Skinner, mint superintendent said large shipments were coming in today.

"We received $,321 fine ounces of gold Wednesday, when the government purchase price was $31.36 an ounce, and 4,900 ounces yesterday, when the price was $31.54," Skinner said.

"Undoubtedly the government's plan has stirred up, an immense amount of mining activity in this region. I have received indicate the hills are swarming with miners."

LINDBERGH REACH PARIS FOR VISIT

Fly Secretly Through Storm from Scotland— Wish to Be Left Undisturbed.

Paris, Oct. 27.—(AP)—Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh, flying secretly through a storm, came back to Paris, where the world made him a hero six years ago, and today had his first normal glimpse of the city.

In contrast with his 1927 trip when he flew alone, he came out of the night shrouded foggy sky last night accompanied by Mrs. Lindbergh to alight at the Les Mureaux Naval Airport on the Seine, 25 miles north of Paris. The takeoff had been made at Inverness, Scotland. The Lindberghs then were brought to the Hotel Crillon in this city, recognized only by airport officers who had been ordered to maintain secrecy.

The colonel's first daylight view of Paris when it was not shrouding him was a fleeting glimpse as he returned to Les Mureaux in the automobile of Pierre Cot, air minister to look over his plane.

Ships Out of Hotel
He slipped almost unobserved and bareheaded out a side door of the hotel, strode quickly to the automobile, crossed the city, remained twenty minutes at the airport and then returned to Paris.

The Lindberghs had breakfast in their room, then received a visit from American Embassy officials and planned what Lindbergh was said to have described as a "few days' visit."

Mrs. Lindbergh remained in her room while the colonel went to view his plane, but left the hotel a few minutes after noon wearing a light brown checked suit and a black felt hat.

Both the colonel and Mrs. Lindbergh kept their silence past. Lindbergh, when approached at Les Mureaux and asked concerning his plans, replied only with a smile.

His wife, when leaving the hotel, also answered questions with a smile and a shake of her head.

Mrs. Lindbergh was accompanied by Mrs. Nelson Dean Jay, wife of a member of the Morgan banking firm here. The two often met during Mr. Jay's visits to America when Mrs. Lindbergh's father, Dwight W. Morrow, was alive.

Grand explained he had no many other problems he was unable to set a definite date.

PRICE OF GOLD SET AT $31.76; 22 CTS. HIGHER

Is 66 Cents Above the Lon- don Quotation — Third Increase Since Beginning of the Practice.

Washington, Oct. 27.—(AP)—A price of $31.76 an ounce for Reconstruction Corporation purchases, on newly mined gold was announced today at the Treasury, 22 cents higher than that of yesterday and 66 cents above the London quotation.

The price for the metal had been freshly advanced on the London market, to the equivalent of $31.10 an ounce on the basis of the $4.74 valuation of the pound at the opening there.

The Roosevelt administration, with each successive daily quotation, has set the domestic price higher.

The First Price
Wednesday, with the inauguration of this policy, a price of $31.36 was established, and yesterday it was $31.54.

These figures compared with the following world prices: $31.09, $31.06 and $31.10.

Administration officials would not reveal whether any particular formula had been prescribed for the determination of the daily figure.

LITVINOFF LEAVES RUSSIA SECRETLY

Soviet Envoy on Way to U. S. to Confer With Presi- dent Roosevelt.

Moscow, Oct. 27.—(AP)—Maxim Litvinoff whom all Russia looks for the attainment of American recognition, was on his way to the United States today in an atmosphere of mystery.

A peep beneath a scarcely raised blind from a window of his train was the only parting view of his associates the foreign minister was seen to permit himself.

Hours after he had slipped away, on the Berlin train, it was impossible even to learn whether his English born wife had accompanied him.

Associates Silent
Similarly tight lipped were his associates in high government circles. They would discuss neither his plans for the talks with President Roosevelt, nor his itinerary.

Accompanied him were C. Oumanski, chief of the foreign office press section, and Ivan A. Divilovskii, secretary of the foreign office collegium.

Officials have acted mysteriously since Litvinoff first was designated to represent the Soviet in the Washington conferences. Censors took the cue last night when they refused to pass a dispatch announcing the departure.

Town Turns Out En Masse For the Funeral of Laborer

Maryville, Mo., Oct. 27.—(AP)—"I think of nothing better than that Jeff was a loyal friend of the unfortunate. He short changed himself times without number to help those who needed help," said Mayor Roby.

Monroe spent most of his 41 years laboring in ditches and his last official act was to contribute his last day's pay to the Welfare Board. It was his Christmas night custom for two hours and who acted as a pall bearer.

The First Christian church was packed and the expensive casket in which Jeff the ditch-digger, was laid to rest was surrounded by a mound of flowers. Two pastors would lead the service.

Grand explained he had no many other problems he was unable to set a definite date.

TEAR GAS BOMBS SCATTER RIOTERS

Strikers in South Carolina Try to Prevent Workers from Entering Mills.

Bath, S. C., Oct. 27.—(AP)—State highway police clashed with a group of picketers at the Bath mill of the Loring chain of mills here today and hurled tear gas bombs to scatter crowds which were seeking to prevent workers from entering the mill.

Coming here in trucks and automobiles, a group of about 100 men, some from here and nearby Augusta, Ga., where several thousand workers at textile mills are on strike, the picketers appeared at the mill as the morning shift started to work.

Minor Disorders
South Carolina police urged them to keep away from the mill gates, and as the crowds edged closer, hurled the tear gas bombs. There were a few minor disorders, and a man listed as J. W. Sellers, a foreman in the spinning room of the mill, was struck by a brick thrown through a mill window. He was taken to an Augusta hospital, where his injuries were reported as serious. Two men, apparently members of the picketing group, suffered head injuries.

700 in the Crowd
The crowd at the mill was estimated at about 700 by newspaper men. The mill continued operations, although with a somewhat curtailed force. The crowd lingered near the mill, jeering at police and operatives who went in to go to work.

Bath is five miles from Augusta. Striking workers in the Augusta mills had announced they would picket the mills in this area, known as the Horse Creek valley, in an effort to close the mills.

AMERICAN IS HELD PRISONER IN CUBA

Manager of Sugar Planta- tion a Captive of Workers —Pleads for Protection.

Havana, Oct. 27.—(AP)—Two Americans were involved today in strikes and uprisings against the government marked widespread outbreaks of violence.

One C. M. Jervis was held prisoner by workers who took over the Alto Cedro sugar mill of which he was manager, in Oriente province.

The other, Florencio Gerena, appealed for protection from gangs at a Mercedes sugar mill.

Fears of an island-wide general strike moved the government to renewed vigilance in the midst of continued disorders such as those in which the Americans were endangered.

Plan General Strike
Plans for the general strike, it was reported, were being laid by Communists.

A bomb tossed from a speeding automobile damaged two buildings in mid-town Havana this morning.

Women representing the mothers of 54 students slain during the regime of the deposed president, Gerardo Machado, called at the palace during the night and demanded President Grau San Martin immediately start the trials of the assassins.

Grand explained he had no many other problems he was unable to set a definite date.

Washington, Oct. 27.—(AP)—Secretary Hull today cancelled his plans for sailing next Saturday on a good will trip down the west coast of South America, and will leave a week later with the American delegation to the Pan American Conference at Montevideo, Uruguay, sailing down the east coast.

The re-arranged plans will permit the secretary of state to meet and confer with Maxim Litvinoff, Soviet commissar for foreign affairs, who left Moscow last night on a recognition mission to the United States.

Hull said his desire to meet Litvinoff was only one of several reasons for reshaping his plans. What he termed a collection of problems remained to be cleared up before he could sail, he added.

ARABS STAGE RIOT; MANY ARE INJURED

Police Open Fire on Mobs Demonstrating Against Jewish Immigration.

Jaffa, Palestine, Oct. 27.—(AP)—Police today fired upon large unruly crowds of Arabs demonstrating against recent increase in Jewish immigration, killing an undetermined number and wounding others. A number of police also were injured.

The situation was tense all morning, but it increased after the mid-day prayers when large crowds packed from the mosques determined to form a procession which authorities had forbidden.

A crowd armed with firearms, sticks, stones and other missiles endeavored to break through a police cordon.

Police Open Fire.
After making several baton charges, the police opened fire. The situation at one time looked ugly, but it was believed in the early afternoon the situation had been brought in hand, although desultory firing continued.

There were some fatalities among the Arabs, but the number was not immediately determined.

All precautions have been taken against the feared attempts of the Arabs to defy an official prohibition to carry out the demonstration plans.

Steel-helmeted police patrolled the streets from an early hour. Military forces and members of the Royal Air Force were held in readiness. (Palestine is under a British mandate.)

Early in the forenoon the Arabs declared a general strike, closed their shops and went to the mosques.

WASHINGTON BALANCE
Washington, Oct. 27.—(AP)—The position of the Treasury on October 25 was: Receipts $104,859,739.61; expenditures, $112,354,127.76; net balance $951,870,977.36; customs receipts for the month $26,301,380.24.

Receipts for the fiscal year (since July 1) $894,595,402.78; expenditures $1,336,115,849.26 including $384,665,513.49 for emergency relief; excess of expenditures, $441,520,446.48.

NAME MRS. WELCH FOR FEDERAL POST

Columbia Woman to Become Collector of Customs at Bridgeport—Her Career.

Washington, Oct. 27.—(AP)—President Roosevelt today appointed Mrs. Fannie Dixon Welch, of Columbia, Connecticut, collector of customs at Bridgeport.

New Haven, Oct. 27.—(AP)—It had been a long and eventful month, in spite of uncertainties of Federal office appointments in Connecticut, arising out of Old Guard and New Guard enmities, that Mrs. Fannie Dixon Welch of Columbia, Connecticut, National committee-woman would be named collector of the port in succession to E. T. Clark of Haddam, a stalwart Republican.

The President appointment which has now come to her was forecast by President General James A. Farley on a recent visit to Bridgeport to be a speaker at a Democratic dinner.

Mrs. Welch received appointment to an office higher up in the list than any other which had been secured to a woman in the state. Her name was filed by Dr. Edward G. De-

Made That Profit in Dealing in Chase National Bank Stock, Pecora Tells Sena- tors—Made More Money Than Bank's Own Affiliate.

Washington, Oct. 27.—(AP)—Evidence that Albert H. Wiggin's personal companies had profits of more than $10,000,000 from transactions in Chase National bank stock was presented today to Senate investigators.

The figure was presented by Ferdinand Pecora, committee counsel, but Wiggin said he would have to verify it later. He is retired chairman of the bank.

Pecora said the profits covered the five year period 1928 to 1932 when the Chase Securities Corporation, an affiliate of the bank, was active in pools in the bank stock.

The corporation's total profits were given as only $156,614 from the pool operations.

Wiggin testified the Sherman Corporation, traded extensively in the open market in the stock.

His Other Concerns
He added that two of his other concerns, the Murllyn and Clington Company, Inc., also dealt materially in the bank stock during this period.

"Are any pools in the bank stock existing today?" Senator Couzens (R., Mich.) asked.

"Not that I know of," Wiggin replied.

Pecora said his records showed Wiggin made the following profits from Chase stock during the five-year period:

Sherman Corporation $5,594,533.
Murllyn Corporation $386,161.
Clington Company, Inc., $4,445,000.

Total—$10,425,694.
The Clington operations also covered the year 1927.

Pecora asked why Wiggin's companies showed so much more profit than the corporation's dealings.

Values Have Shrank
"My entire family holdings, including the corporation, treated altogether, if sold on the market would show a different result," Wiggin replied.

He added the family holdings of 194,000 shares at the end of 1932 had shrunk from a value of $280 to $40.

Wiggin said in response to questions that one of his personal companies was 60,000 shares short in the bank stock of the bank in 1929, though his family holdings were on the long side of the market.

W. W. Aldrich, president of the bank, voluntarily took the stand to say the present management is opposed to dealings in the bank stock through affiliates.

"As long as I have anything to do with the management," Aldrich said, "the market in Chase stock will not be an artificial one."

"As a matter of fact today the Metropart does not deal in Chase stock in any way whatever."

After the hearing was over, Aldrich said his statement had been a little too strong regarding artificial markets. He intended, he said, to state the market would not be influenced by the operation of trading accounts.

SHOE SHINE PARLOR OWNERS AGGRIEVED

Feel Something Should Be Done to Carb Boys Charging Nickel Shines.

Although complaints are said to have been aired by proprietors of shoe shine parlors in Manchester, over what they claim to be unfair treatment in being expected to comply with the provisions of the NRA code, no such complaints have officially been brought to the attention of the Manchester NRA Compliance Board.

Ray Watson Woodruff, chairman of the Compliance Board, said that no complaints of this nature had officially been filed with the board and, in consequence of this fact, the board could take no action on the reported grievances of the shoe shine parlor proprietors. It appears, therefore, that this particular matter will not be discussed by the Compliance board when it meets either Monday or Tuesday of next week in the Chamber of Commerce rooms.

Rev. Mr. Woodruff said today he will be in a position tomorrow to state whether the meeting will be held Tuesday or Monday.

The proprietors of shoe shining establishments base their complaints on the presence of several boys, in the downtown streets at night, who are equipped with shoe shining paraphernalia and voice a willingness to "shine 'em up nice for a nickel, mister." It is the contention of the proprietors that they are expected to join the NRA to create additional employment, that their overhead costs are high and that they cannot shine shoes at a "dime a throw."

Mrs. Carl Noren heads Emanuel Alumni Choir. Rehearsal Sunday After Which Mrs. Arthur Hultman Will Serve Refreshments; Choristers Sing Nov. 5.

The Alumni choir of the Emanuel Lutheran church has been organized with Mrs. Carl Noren as president, Mrs. Hilma Laver as secretary and Mrs. Thora Steyer as chairman of the publicity committee. At the last meeting it was voted that the choir, which is directed by Helge Pearson and consists of old time members of the regular choir, sing at the Command Reunion, to be held November 5.

All members are urged to be present for rehearsal next Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock, after which refreshments will be served, with Mrs. Arthur Hultman in charge. The choir will hold its monthly meetings the fourth Sunday of each month and will sing at the evening service on every fifth Sunday.

OBITUARY

DEATHS

Mrs. Mary C. Robertson. Mrs. Mary Charlotte Robertson of 219 Church street, Hartford, died at her home, Thursday after a long illness. She was born in 1854, daughter of the late Arba Harrison and Harriet Marilla (Dexter) Brown of Bolton and later Manchester, Conn. She was a member of the Windsor Avenue Congregational church of Hartford.

Besides her husband, Lafayette J. Robertson, she leaves three daughters, Florence R. Robertson and Evelyn E. R. Thompson of Hartford and Annie R. Dyer of New Britain, and three sons, J. Russell Robertson of Astoria, New York, Martin Brown Robertson of Willimantic, Conn., and Lafayette J. Robertson, Jr., of Hartford; her brother, Martin's widow and niece and nephew of Providence, R. I.

Mrs. Robertson was sister to former Governor D. Russell Brown and Colonel H. Martin Brown of Providence, Rhode Island. Mr. and Mrs. Robertson celebrated their golden wedding in April, 1931. The funeral will be held at the residence, 219 Church street, Hartford, on Saturday, October 28, at 2 p. m. Interment will be in the East cemetery, Manchester.

FUNERALS. Albert E. Wilkinson. The funeral of Albert E. Wilkinson, who died in Los Angeles, Calif., a week ago today, will be held at Watkins Brothers, 11 Oak street, Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Rev. J. S. Neill of St. Mary's Episcopal church will officiate and burial will be in the East cemetery.

ENCOUNTER BIG STORM ON WAY TO CHICAGO. Mr. and Mrs. Bellows Drive Through Water Up to Car Doors in Indiana.

Mr. and Mrs. George O. Bellows of 387 North Main street returned home last night after a vacation motor tour of ten days, with the World's Fair at Chicago as their objective. While driving through Indiana on Friday of last week they encountered a storm of cyclonic proportions beyond South Bend. Trees were uprooted in all directions and cars stalled all along the highway. They drove for four hours in water frequently up to the doors of their car.

Mr. and Mrs. Bellows are enthusiastic over sights at the fair. On Sunday 900,000 people paid admission to the fair grounds, probably because Al Smith was there on that day.

The return trip was made by way of Detroit, Canada and Niagara Falls. Yesterday while driving through Northern New York there was six inches of snow on the ground.

HARVEST SUPPER GUESTS HEAR "KITCHEN BAND". Emanuel Lutheran church women made a conspicuous success of their Harvest supper last night in the basement of the church, serving more than 300. During the meal the "Kitchen Band" under the direction of the wife of the pastor, Mrs. K. E. Erickson, made its first appearance and played the greater part of the time from 4 to 7 o'clock.

The organizations participating in the two-night Harvest festival are the Ladies Aid and Men's society, the Dorcas Society of young women and the Luther League, which is made up of young men and women of the church. Each department had its own booth and did a brisk business last night.

Tonight at 7:30 a pageant entitled, "Thanksgiving Gates," will be given by the children of the church school. The G. C. Club will also sing, and at the close of the entertainment the Dorcas society will serve refreshments in the basement. The participating societies hope the attendance will be such this evening that they may be able to dispose of the stock remaining in their booths.

Rogers' Charter Oak St. Plant Scene of Fire Early This Morning.

Fire which threatened the big Rogers Paper Manufacturing Company's Charter Oak street plant was put out after a stubborn hour's battle early this morning. Although the origin of the blaze that was discovered eating in under the roof of the engine room is unknown, officials of the South Manchester Fire department believe that sparks from the big chimney nearby may have started the fire.

At 2:45 this morning the alarm from Box 61 was sounded and Companies 3 and 4 responded. The firemen aided by mill employees quickly attached two lines of hose and started to drench the roof over the engine both from the inside and outside. Considerable smoke flooded the adjacent departments of the plant but not sufficient to force the employees out of the mill.

A sprinkler system in the plant spread water about the interior of the engine room and aided considerably in confining the blaze to one section of the plant. Plant employees under the direction of Thomas Johnston covered the generators with tarpaulin and within an hour and a half after the blaze the plant was running at normal again.

Damage Not Estimated. Chief Albert Foy who did fine work in battling the flames said today it was difficult to estimate the amount of damage done. He was unable to ascertain the cause of the blaze but thought sparks from the chimney might have been the origin.

In contrast to the usual fires in town there were few spectators. Although the Cheney mill whistle sounded the alarm six times a great many in town did not hear it. Scarcely more than a dozen were on hand to assist the firemen in what might easily have been a disastrous blaze.

RADIO POISON VICTIM DIES IN NEW JERSEY. East Orange, N. J., Oct. 27.—(AP)—Miss Grace Fyler, 35, of Orange, died today in Homeopathic hospital from the effects of radioactive poisoning which she received while working in the plant of the United States Radium Corporation several years ago.

Miss Fyler was one of five women who worked in that plant who were "officially" doomed to die in court action in 1923. The five were awarded $10,000 cash in settlement at that time and payment of all medical expenses.

Miss Fyler had undergone thirty operations on her jaw bone, seat of the infection, and at one time was believed to have been cured. The workers who were poisoned were engaged in painting watch dials with a luminous substance.

MAKES YOU LOSE UNHEALTHY FAT. Make No Mistake—Fat Is Dangerous—Ask Your Doctor. To take off fat—take one half teaspoonful of Kruschen Salts in a glass of hot water in the morning before breakfast—one bottle lasts 4 weeks—get it at J. W. Hale Co. Drug Dept.—or any drugstore in America. If this first bottle fails to convince you this is the SAFE and HARMLESS way to lose fat—your money returned.

Reduces From 154 to 128. "Less than 4 weeks ago I started taking Kruschen Salts and lost 26 pounds and felt like a new man. Now I weigh 128. I feel so full of energy I can't seem to work fast enough." Mrs. R. H. Hamilton, Carbondale, Pa.

While losing fat with Kruschen you gain in physical attractiveness—you look and feel younger—no more gas, acidity—no more constipation.

ANNOUNCE MARRIAGE. Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Baronovsky of 283 North Main street have announced the marriage of their daughter, Alice, to Rollins Blake, son of Philip Blake of Great Barrington, Mass. The ceremony was performed in the Methodist parsonage in Copak, N. Y., last Sunday.

TOWN CLERK GIVES AID IN MAKING RATE BOOK

Assists Collector Taylor in Listing Property Changes in the Ninth District.

Town Clerk Samuel Turkington stepped in and by extra overtime has made possible the completing of the grand list and rate book of the South Manchester Fire District so taxes may be collected on November 1, as set by the special district meeting in August.

The work of making out the rate book was assigned to William Crockett, of the fire commission. Mr. Crockett has done this work since elected to the board several years ago, but the tax rate was not in the past laid until the November meeting, at a time when the assessors were not using the books as they are this month.

Mr. Crockett is now in Chicago and William Taylor was asked to make the list and also prepare the rate book on which he could collect taxes. He could not get the use of the books during the day. It was necessary that the changes in ownership of property be secured from October 1, 1932 to August 13, 1933. The right to use the books at night was not possible as they are locked in the vault. The time was growing near when the list had to be completed.

The story was told to Town Clerk Turkington and he and his assistant, Miss Hattie Strickland, took up the work. They have gone through the books and by working overtime and checking each change have taken off the lists required. These are furnished to Mr. Taylor on a large card and from these he is able to go ahead with the work. It will mean that all of the changes will be completed by tonight or tomorrow and the rate book ready for the collection of taxes on Wednesday, as required.

ABOUT TOWN

Educational Square today was deserted as an ice skating rink in summer on account of the state teachers' conventions in Hartford and New Haven, which meant that the pupils had a holiday. All grade schools, the High school and the Trade schools were closed although the offices in the High school and Trade school remained open. The Manchester Library door also were locked this morning, but the reading room was open to persons who sought entrance by the rear door.

Postmaster Frank B. Crocker was engaged today making an inspection of routes in the north end. The semi-annual inspection of routes by Superintendent of Mails Ernest F. Brown also is in progress at present. The inspection, made every six months, covers the 14 foot routes and the rural and motor routes.

Mr. and Mrs. George Olds of 11 Church street announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Ruth Margaret Olds, to Miles Stevens, Superintendent of Mails Ernest F. Brown also is in progress at present. The inspection, made every six months, covers the 14 foot routes and the rural and motor routes.

The Young People's society of the Concordia Lutheran church, will conduct a special Reformation Day service Sunday evening at 7:30 in the church. It is the 450th anniversary of the birthday of Martin Luther. The meeting will be open to all.

On Thursday evening of next week at 8 o'clock a meeting will be held at the South Methodist church of all women who are members of the various groups of workers, including those sponsoring the series of parish suppers. A discussion of the project of federating or coordinating the women's organizations into one group of workers will be the object of the gathering. All women of the church are urged to attend. There will be music and light refreshments.

Superintendent Frederick H. Parker, of the Manchester Water Department, will move into a house he has rented at 18 Ridge street sometime next week. Mr. Parker has been living in Burnside.

Employees of the J. W. Hale Company will hold a Halloween party at the Manchester Country Club next Monday evening. A dinner consisting of chicken broth, broiled spring chicken, green peas, stuffed new potatoes, celery, pickles, old-fashioned squash pie and coffee will be served at 6:45 o'clock. During the evening dancing will be enjoyed to music provided by a five piece orchestra. An impromptu entertainment also will be staged by talent procured from the Hale store personnel.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Bendall have moved from 113 Chestnut street to their house at 271 Elm street, formerly occupied by the family of Rev. Ernest A. Legg.

Highway Department employees are setting a line of fence-posts from the entrance to the baseball lot on Charter Oak street to the roadway leading to the bank. The fence is to be of the type erected by the State Highway Department. There is a sharp drop from the street to the baseball field and the 84 fence-posts have been set. This has often been broken. This has all been cleared away and the new fence is to take its place.

A large crowd of High school boys and girls gathered at the Center for the entrance to the baseball field on Charter Oak street to pick up rides to the football game being played this afternoon in West Hartford.

A new setback series consisting of five sittings will be begun tomorrow night at the Masonic Social club. Turkey will be given as first prize tomorrow night and another "gobbler" will be set aside for the grand prize of the series. The committee is making plans for a large attendance of members at these interesting games. Refreshments will be served by the social committee. Play will start at 8 o'clock, and members are urged to be punctual.

The Rangers of Nutmeg Forest are asked to meet at the Masonic Temple Sunday morning at 10 o'clock.

LEGION TO INSTALL OFFICERS MONDAY

Ladies Also Will Take Part in Joint Ceremony Here.

A joint installation of officers of Dilworth-Cornell Post, American Legion and Auxiliary will be held Monday evening, October 30, in the South Methodist Church chapel. Supper will be served at 6:30 in the banquet hall of the church followed by the business meeting and installation.

EDITORS DISCUSS POLITICAL GOSSIP A. P. Publishers Told There Is Much Ballyhoo In It These Days.

French Lick, Ind., Oct. 7.—(AP)—Political gossip columns purporting to tell the story behind the news, and the dramatizing of news stories were topics under consideration by the managing editors of Associated Press newspapers, at their annual meeting here today.

Roy A. Roberts of the Kansas City Star and Times, a veteran Washington correspondent, declared that never before was it so difficult to determine which is news and which is ballyhoo, and said he believed the Associated Press should hold fast to its creed of accuracy and leave gossip columns to special writers.

Free from Libel. In discussing the value of the organization's record for unbiased handling of news, Mr. Elliott told the managing editors there never had been a libel suit verdict against the Associated Press during its more than 40 years of existence.

Marvin Cressler of the Milwaukee Journal made the observation that radio progress of news events had developed the public appetite for a dramatic presentation of stories which the newspapers might well consider in the development of writing.

The managing editors representing more than a hundred newspapers throughout the United States, went into numerous sessions today to work out various problems of news coverage and development. The election of a general chairman and heads of committees was scheduled for the final session this afternoon.

TOLLAND

Dr. Harris Price of West Newton, Mass., is a guest at the home of his father Lewis B. Price.

The annual school closed all day Friday for the teachers to attend the State Teachers' Convention held in Hartford on that day.

Helen Johnson, Margaret Carrigan, Josephine Roma and Alva Barrett of Bridgeport are spending a few days at the Steele House.

Alfred Clough who has been a guest of relatives for several weeks has returned to his home in Wrentham, Mass.

John Lee and Emory Clough attended the poultry meeting held in Willimantic last Wednesday evening, Oct. 18.

Mr. and Mrs. Rupert West in company with Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Wilcox left Friday morning for Cherry Valley, N. Y., where they will be guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Burton, former Tolland residents.

The first of a series of the Men's Community club of Tolland will meet Friday evening, Oct. 27 in the social rooms of the Federated church, when Rev. Leon A. Austin, pastor of the North Coventry church is to be the speaker.

John Lee and Emory Clough attended the poultry meeting held in Willimantic last Wednesday evening, Oct. 18.

A good number of Tolland residents went to Stafford Springs, Thursday evening to watch the NRA parade. The Tolland Fire truck company were invited to join in the parade.

Miss Thelma Price, one of the high school faculty at Kent, Conn., spent the week-end at the home of her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Horton Chapin, who have been guests at the Stanley Dohess Charles C. Talcott returned to their home in Oradell, New Jersey, Friday of this week.

WAPPING

East Central Pomona Grange No. 3, will hold its evening meeting with Wapping Grange No. 30, next Wednesday evening at 7:30. The speaker of the evening will be Gaylord W. Douglas, the "New England Secretary of the National Council for the Prevention of War."

Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Congdon of Laurel Hill have returned to their home recently from a trip to the Century of Progress exposition at Chicago.

There were about 25 who attended the Junior Christian Endeavor societies Halloween social Wednesday evening. Mrs. Walter N. Batey and Walter S. Billings acted as the judges and Miss Carolyn Burger received the prize for the prettiest costume and Miss Florence Dewey for the funniest costume.

There were other prizes given for the winners of stunts and games. Refreshments were served.

The Halloween social of the Federated Sunday school will be held this evening at the primary rooms of the church, all coming in costume. Doughnuts and apples will be served and prizes given.

Miss Emily Whitton of Somers, who has been spending about a week with her friend, Mrs. Josephine G. Foster, has returned to her home.

Pin worms have finally been abolished as a cause for appendicitis. We wouldn't care to swallow 'em, anyway.

ROCKVILLE

ROCKVILLE HOSPITAL GETS $1,000 DONATION

Gift Might Be Applied to Fund for Erection of Permanent Building; From Swindells Foundation.

Col. Francis T. Maxwell, president of the Rockville City hospital, announced yesterday the gift of $1,000 from the Swindells Charitable Foundation, which can be used at the hospital to advantage.

The announcement was received from the Hartford National Bank & Trust Company, who are the co-trustees of the Swindells Charitable Foundation.

This fund which amounted to approximately $500,000 was established for charitable purposes by Frederick Swindells. The income from this fund is to be used for charitable purposes.

The exact use to which the $1,000 donation will be put has not been made known by the trustees of the Rockville City Hospital. Funds are being accumulated for the erection of a permanent hospital on the hospital site donated by former Congressman E. Stevens Henry.

The Swindells Charitable Foundation was organized on May 1st, 1929 by Frederick Swindells, who transferred securities to the Hartford National Bank & Trust Company as trustees to provide an annual payment of $2,500 to Frederick W. Swindells, son of the donor. Frederick W. Swindells died September 15, 1931, and left a will in which the banks were named as trustees with specific instructions as to the distribution of the income. It mentioned "the ultimate beneficiaries of this charity shall be poor and suffering individuals."

Annual Banquet Held. Close to sixty members and guests attended the 32nd annual banquet of the Ladies Catholic Benevolent Association which was held at the Rockville House last evening at 6:15 o'clock.

A delicious turkey dinner was served by Chef Arthur Busch with Mrs. Ellen Chapdelaine, hostess of the Rockville House, in personal charge of the dining room.

Immediately following the dinner, post prandial exercises were held with Mrs. Margaret McCarlin as toastmistress. Short talks were given by Mrs. Selinda Cullen, of Hartford, who was president of the L. C. B. A. which organized 32 years ago. Mrs. Cullen recalled many of the old acquaintances relative to the organization of the association.

Another interesting speaker was Dr. Thomas F. O'Loughlin, of Rockville, who still holds the office as medical examiner of the organization to which he was appointed when it was first organized.

Many toasts were also given, including those by Mrs. Cecelia Grady and Miss Rose Cullen, of Hartford; Mrs. H. Pressler, of Rockville and Mrs. Joseph Willeke, of Vernon. Short talks were also delivered by Rev. George T. Sinnott, pastor of St. Bernard's Catholic church and Rev. Francis C. Hinchey, curate.

Much credit is due the committee in charge, which was headed by Mrs. Margaret Marley as chairman, and assisted by Mrs. Louise Johnson, Mrs. Annie Stepp and Mrs. Mary North.

Many Go To Stafford. The NRA parade committee of Rockville marched in a body in the NRA parade in Stafford Springs last evening. They were complimented for the successful parade which was held in Rockville last week. Patrick J. Johnston, as chairman of the Rockville Parade Committee, headed the group from this city.

The Rockville Bugle & Drum Corps of Stanley Dohess Post, No. 14, American Legion, met in the Memorial Building, at 6 o'clock last evening, preparatory to going to Stafford Springs to participate in the big parade at 7 o'clock. Major Thomas Ryan was in charge of the group from Rockville.

A large group of Stanley Dohess Post, and also the Tolland County Vulture, '40 & 8', attended the installation of the newly elected officers at the Springs House following the parade.

The installing officer was Grand Chief De Gary Harry C. Jackson of New Britain, who was accompanied by a large staff.

The Rockville delegations returned home at a late hour last evening and reported a very hospitable reception while in Stafford Springs.

Police Draw Attention. With the announcement from Farley B. Leonard on Tuesday that he would not accept renomination as treasurer of the city of Rockville the political pot in both the Republican and Democratic ranks began to boil.

The retirement of City Treasurer Leonard has brought about the announcement from other members of the city government of their retirement. This will mean the installation of new blood in the city government which has been anticipated several years.

Mayor Albert E. Waite announced yesterday he will not accept renomination and would not permit his name to be mentioned in the general caucus to be held soon by the Republican Party. Mayor Waite has held office for the past four years.

Previous to his selection as the chief executive, Mayor Waite was a member of the common council as a councilman and later as an alderman. He was head of the Public Works Committee when many of the streets and sidewalks were laid out in this city.

No public announcement has been made as yet regarding candidates who will accept the nomination for mayor, although it is authentically reported there are six candidates in the field.

Alderman Roger J. Murphy, who holds the office of president of the city council, which is next in line to mayor, also announced yesterday that he would not be a candidate to succeed himself in the first ward as an alderman. He is just completing six years in that office.

Mrs. Mary Ward Allen, 76, of North Park street, died at the Rockville City hospital yesterday. Death was caused by complications from old age, following a short illness which extended over a period of five days.

Mrs. Allen was born in Hartford on August 14, 1857, the daughter of Michael and Mary Gaior Ward. She resided in Rockville for many years where she had a host of friends.

The body of Mrs. Allen was taken to Hartford yesterday afternoon to the funeral home of Farley & Malloy, at 129 Capitol avenue, from where the funeral will be held at 8:30 o'clock Saturday morning and from St. Peter's Catholic church at 8 o'clock. A requiem mass will be celebrated at St. Peter's church by Rev. Raymond Kennedy. Burial will be in Mount St. Benedict's cemetery in Bloomfield.

Funeral of James A. Barracough, 50, former designer of the Hockanum Mills Company, who died at Fulton, N. Y., on Sunday, was held Wednesday from the home of his brother, Alfred Barracough, in Collinsville.

While in Rockville Mr. Barracough resided with Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Moss. He was a member of several Rockville lodges including General Kitchener Lodge, Sons of St. George and Fayette Lodge, A. F. & A. M., of Rockville.

HEBRON

Nearly thirty relatives and friends of Mr. and Mrs. Everett G. Lord surprised Mr. Lord at his home Wednesday evening, the occasion being his birthday anniversary. It was a complete surprise for Mr. Lord, the others of his family being in the secret. The company made their presence known by the ringing of bells, blowing of horns, cheers, etc., before being ushered into the house. Among those present from out of town were Mrs. Mary E. Lord, Mr. and Mrs. William Hamner, and daughter, Miss Gertrude, of Wetherfield, Mr. and Mrs. Willbur V. Payne and son Everett, of Eastford, Mrs. Edna Irma Lord and her nephews, Edmund and Withrop Viner of Willimantic, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hamilton of Hartford, the Rev. and Mrs. Howard C. Champs of Lebanon, Lachus W. Robinson of Columbia, Mr. and Mrs. Mahlon Chapman, and Mrs. Lulu Lord of Ellington, Mr. and Mrs. Grinton I. Will of Storrs, besides a number of local relatives. The time was spent in playing games and stunts, and a musical program was enjoyed. Grinton I. Will played for singing choruses, and Will Hamner delighted the company by singing several songs for which he used to be famous here and in Gilead a good many years ago. Refreshments furnished by the visitors were served and the company broke up about midnight. Halloween decorations made the spacious rooms look gay. These were also brought by the visitors and put in place on their arrival. A birthday cake with 62 candles, brought by Mr. Lord's sister, Mrs. Willbur V. Payne, was a feature.

The first hard frost of the season was felt here Thursday morning. Flowers were pretty well ruined. Miss Ruth Kinney has completed her course of training as nurse at the Lawrence and Memorial hospital, New London, and is making her present headquarters at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey B. Kinney, on the Brick Yard road.

Leslie F. Ward was in New Haven on business Wednesday. Mrs. Catherine Pickett entertained the Ladies' Afternoon Bridge club at her home Tuesday from 2:30 to 5 o'clock p. m. Two tables were in play. Mrs. Frederick Wyman, who belongs to three or four clubs and takes prizes in all, again captured first prize. Mrs. Mark Hill, second. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served. Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Sellers of Hebron and New London, were in New York City Thursday evening, to attend Mrs. Sellers' play, "The Picnic," at Earl Hall, Columbia University. The play, which has been revised to some extent, is having a run every evening this week. Mr. and Mrs. Sellers plan to visit Mr. Sellers' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Wells Sellers, in Ardmore, Penn., over the week-end, before returning to New London.

Mrs. Esther Jones, who lives with her son, Carlton B. Jones, suffered a slight paralytic shock last Sunday. She is said to be improving, and is regaining the use of her arm which was affected. She is not wholly confined to her bed, and is able to help herself.

Andrew Gordon of Manchester has bought a 16-acre tract of land from the estate of the late Emily Smith. The only building on the land is a barn, but Mr. Gordon plans to build a house as soon as there is a prospect of an improved road coming through from Manchester. He is a brother of John Gordon who recently purchased the Warren Buck farm in the same locality, also from the Smith estate.

Health Officer J. Banks Jones has received orders from state commissioner of domestic animals, Dr. E. R. Dimock, that the quarantine on dogs is lifted. This quarantine has been in force in this town and Columbia since July last. There were one or more actual cases of hydrophobia in Columbia, but only suspected cases here, so far as can be learned. Dogs have had a hard time of it here through the summer especially, either tied up or kept indoors all through the hot weather. They have already begun to roam the streets again.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Little of Willimantic were callers on friends here Monday of this week. Mrs. Little, who has been a semi-invalid for many years, is much improved in health, and is able to get about and do part of her own work. Mr. and Mrs. Little lived here on the green several years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Elton Post were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Warner in Surfside. Frank R. Post spent a day and night recently with his daughter, Mrs. Ernest Bazinet, in Hartford.

DISSENTION APPARENT AMONG FARM STRIKERS

By Associated Press. Dissention apparently has entered the ranks of some farmers in the strike called by the National Farmers Holiday Association to boost prices.

An anti-holiday association was the object of a group of southwestern Iowa farmers. They took preliminary steps yesterday to form an organization whose business would be to keep farm products going to market.

Meanwhile in Wisconsin, where the co-operative milk pool went ahead with preparations for a milk embargo, more dairies were closed. The milk pool embargo, scheduled to start Tuesday was opposed by the directors of the Milwaukee Co-operative Producers Association.

Other developments were: The executive committee of the Iowa Farm Bureau Federation approved the administration's corn-hog reduction program.

Opposition to picketing was declared by the executive board of the Nebraska Farmers Holiday Association.

National Guardsmen deputized by Sh. W. William Demos of Mills county to keep open a bridge over the Missouri river at Portsmouth, Neb., were withdrawn.

BALANCE OF TRADE IN FAVOR OF U. S.

Higher Domestic Prices and Better Exchange Rates Help the United States.

Washington, Oct. 27. — (AP) — Higher domestic prices and better international dollar exchange rates, plus normal seasonal changes, were credited today by officials with helping the United States to turn on a favorable $24,000,000 trade balance in August into a favorable balance of $13,000,000 last month.

An announcing today that September imports were $147,000,000 against exports of $160,000,000, E. A. Tupper, of the Commerce Department's division of economic research, said it was natural for last month's exports to rise about 14 per cent above August because of seasonal factors.

But the increase was 22 per cent, jumping from $131,000,000 in August.

More favorable dollar exchange was credited with at least a portion of this reversal. The exchange, officials said, also was reflected in imports which usually show an August-September drop of only 1 per cent but slumped last month from $155,000,000 to $147,000,000.

The dollar value of foreign trade during the last three months shows substantial gains from the corresponding period of last year. Exports in the third quarter were valued at 25 per cent more than in the same quarter in 1932 and imports at 85 per cent more.

Nevertheless, Tupper said, it should be borne in mind that while the quantities of goods moving in foreign trade had increased substantially, a considerable part of the advance in both export and import values is attributable to higher dollar prices.

Export prices, which have been aided by an increased demand both at home and abroad, have moved upwards. Between March and September the average unit value of meat products advanced 37 per cent, wheat 89 per cent, apples 33 per cent, and unmanufactured cotton 42 per cent.

Total Exports
Total exports so far this year were estimated at $1,104,000,000 against $1,187,000,000 last year; imports reached $1,037,000,000 this year against $1,015,000,000, to give the United States an excess of $67,870,000 of imports this year against $171,758,000 last year.

Total Exports of gold last month were $58,261,000 and imports $1,544,000. Silver exports last month were $3,321,000, imports $3,490,000. Larger shipments of cotton accounted for a substantial share of the $29,000,000 increase in the value of exports between August and September.

Exports commodities increasing in value during the month included unmanufactured cotton which gained $17,100,000, fruits $1,800,000, and unmanufactured tobacco $2,300,000. There were a few declines, including grains and preparations which showed a decline of $300,000 and cotton manufactures $400,000.

SENTENCE SUSPENDED ON SON OF CARUSO

Bologna, Italy, Oct. 27. — (AP) — Enrico Caruso, of Hollywood, California, son of the late tenor, today was given a suspended sentence of two and one-half years after being found guilty in the court of assizes of assaulting and seriously injuring a farmer.

The attack on the farmer, Battista Monari, was alleged to have occurred October 8, 1930. A brother, Rodolfo, was acquitted. Enrico was not present at the trial, but Rodolfo attended.

The two were accused of stopping their automobile beside Monari's oxcart, which had blocked the road, Enrico beating the farmer and throwing him into a ditch, fracturing his skull. Physicians testified Monari had remained unconscious a long time and still is an invalid.

TAX WARNING

Hartford, Oct. 27. — (AP) — Deputy State Commissioner Ernest S. Goodrich today announced that Monday, Oct. 30, would be the last day for filing returns for beverage taxes or beer taxes, due for the taxing period ended September 30. Forms for the filing of the tax report may be obtained at the Unincorporated Tax division of the state tax department. A penalty of ten per cent of the tax due is imposed for delinquency.

REVISE GERMAN LAWS

Berlin, Oct. 27. — (AP) — Details of a revolutionary reform of German jurisprudence were announced today by Hans Frank, commissioner of justice. He said sub-commissions are revising the penal and civil code with a view to adapting them to the German conception of law. The work to be completed in four to five months, provides for the "heaviest punishment of crimes committed against the state, the economic life, the legal security and the National defense."

FEDERAL RELIEF

Washington, Oct. 27. — (AP) — Federal Relief Administrator Hopkins today announced an unemployment relief grant of $2,015,110 for New Jersey and $702,511 for Connecticut. The Connecticut grant was on the basis of one Federal dollar for every three of public expenditure for relief within the state during the third-quarter of this year. The total grants to Connecticut to date are $2,614,821.

San Joaquin valley cotton half day after a stubborn strike which for weeks threatened the $20,000,000 crop.

A definite end to the prolonged walkout was seen by authorities last night as Miss Caroline Decker, 21-year old blonde strike leader, announced acceptance "under protest" of a compromise wage increase for pickers.

The compromise pay is 75 cents for each 100 pounds of cotton harvested, an increase of 25 cents over the former scale. Strikers' estimator by authorities to number 12,000 originally demanded $1 and later held out for 80 cents.

CURRENCY FALLACIES.

In a sense the operation set on foot by the federal government by fixing successive arbitrary prices for new gold and establishing a government market for it is experimental. That sense is the one which exists when we think of the technical details of the operation. When we view the proceeding in the broader sense of its fixing the value of the dollar as measured by commodities the thing becomes at once as old as the hills.

It is merely a way of putting into effect the establishment of the monetary unit by government fiat. And fiat money, all general impressions to the contrary notwithstanding, is nothing new in this world. The financial system set up nearly eight hundred years ago by the state of Venice, which resulted in making that community the commercial metropolis of the world and which was continued for more than six centuries, was based on sheer fiat. In principle there is no substantial difference between the Roosevelt plan and the Venetian plan though in details there is little resemblance.

The Constitution of the United States contemplated the employment of government fiat; otherwise there would never have been incorporated in it the provision that Congress should regulate the value of money. That certainly does not mean that our government must permit the value of our money to be regulated by foreign nations, by the state of international exchange or by the scarcity or plenty of a particular metal. As a matter of fact it is impossible for any nation to adopt and maintain a money system of its own without recourse to the fiat principle.

Therefore when people talk deprecatingly about "printing press" money when they refer to fiat money they demonstrate their unfamiliarity with the whole question of currencies.

It is very necessary for those who are trying to make head or tail out of this involved and controversial subject that they close their ears to the infantile superstition that fiat money—money created and evaluated by act of government—is necessarily bad money; and that such experiments as that involved in the gold purchase proceeding are new and unheard of.

Another flagrant silliness that must be cast on the rubbish heap lest it intrude itself successfully into discussions of these matters is the inference that uncertainty as to the future value of the dollar may retard the extension of credit because the lender fears that he may be repaid in money less valuable than that which he lent.

It is quite true that if he lends dollars today he may get back less potent or valuable dollars next year. But the point is that he cannot possibly protect those dollars by keeping them in his strong-box or in his bank. If the debts to be paid next year are to be paid in cheaper dollars that will be because all dollars, those hoarded as well as those lent, will be cheaper dollars. There will be no dear dollars anywhere. The dollar, under any degree of inflation, will shrink exactly as much in one man's possession as in another's. Every dollar in the United States today is exactly as good as every other dollar and will buy exactly as much and no more; and whether they go up or down, all will be of exactly similar value with each other next year.

This foolish argument about the withholding of credit for fear of payment in cheaper money, which is forever cropping up, is a hang-over from gold standard days. When an individual or a bank could hoard gold and watch it grow in value in comparison with all other forms of property or securities there was no percentage in lending it if there was any chance of being paid in greenbacks that had been mined by a trick-in-Congress. But no individual or institution except the government itself can longer hold hoarded gold; so that ancient reason in without present application. Next week or next year one man's dollar and every dollar will be as good as any other man's every dollar. The "real" reason for refusing credits is completely full of a vacuum.

It doesn't take a specially nimble mind to realize these two facts. And when one does thoroughly realize them it enables him to cast out a tremendous amount of sheer rubbish from the nation-wide debate on the currency question. Which is something, for a starter.

ONE TOOTHY LAW.

Those who may be laboring under the impression that, after all, the enforcement of law is a matter of such difficulty that in most cases it is impossible should contemplate the operation of the alimony laws. They have in the Fairfield county jail at Bridgeport right now McCalland Barclay, Westport artist and illustrator of sufficient standing to have earned, according to his own admission, $42,000 in 1932, even though he says he knows the public has become "tired of his stuff."

Mr. Barclay is in jail because he is in arrears $85,000 in his alimony payments. He declares he is persecuted. The former Mrs. Barclay's counsel says he is a "persistent and coolly deliberate artful dodger of the law."

Now if this latter description is at all just to the artist it merely places him in a very large category. There are any number of "persistent and coolly deliberate artful dodgers of the law," only an extremely small proportion of whom ever see the inside of a jail. But among them the alimony dodgers assuredly have a much harder time than all the rest put together. It would really seem as though failure to pay a hundred dollars of alimony were a much more certain road to the coop than to steal a million through the most barefaced and flagrant kind of fraud. And this, as often as not, whether the award of alimony was just or unjust or whether the victim is in any position to pay it.

There seems to be, for some reason, a stronger backing in public opinion for the collection of alimony awards than for the enforcement of any other law of the land, with the possible exception of the one against kidnaping. Otherwise it is difficult to see why the one sin more certain than any other to bring punishment on the offender is the one of reneging on mandatory payments to a divorced wife.

Which, it is submitted, indicates a curious state of the public's mind.

ABOUT A THEATER.

Because the movies have come to occupy so large a place in the lives of the people and because Manchester has only one full-time picture house, the State Theater really takes on something of the aspect of a community institution. The town doesn't own the theater, to be sure, but there are plenty of its people who are fifty times as familiar with it as they are with any property that the town does own, including the interior of the Municipal Building or any part of the public parks beyond the street entrances. So that if we editorialize about the State Theater it is because we recognize its importance as an integral part of the system of life in this community, and not because we are trying to give a business enterprise a puff.

The point of all this is that in the comparatively short time the present manager of the State, George C. Hoover, has been on the job that house of entertainment has seemingly taken a new lease of life. For a long time nothing ever changed at the State but the programs, except that the establishment grew steadily older and further away from the shine and glimmer of its youth.

Now the theater is bright with many more lights; it is better warmed and better ventilated; its lobby is a constantly changing picture; the place is alive, virile; it has a bounding pulse; it looks as though it had just hopped out of its bath. And the snappily uniformed attendants are a marvel of military discipline and courtesy. No one can go to a place like that without being yanked clean out of his own drab rut. And if picture houses are not for just that purpose what are they for?

All the State needs now is new seats without any ornate under the upholstery. And we are told that these, too, are on the way.

This newspaper feels that it doesn't need to apologize to anybody for congratulating Mr. Hoover on putting on this verve and snap into a private enterprise which, nevertheless, so public in its nature, is it about as much everybody's affair as the pavement of East-Center street or the heating of the Town-Hall.

"TIN" WARSHIPS

The West Coast collision in which one of the costly new cruisers of the United States navy was almost out in two what it was named by a cheap little weightier has created something like dismay in Navy circles and astonishment throughout the country.

Whatever ship builders and the Navy itself may have known about the comparative vulnerability of this type of vessel in case of contact with ramming ships, certainly the public had no idea that the much vaunted cruisers of the Chicago type were such relatively fragile things.

The Pacific collision can hardly fail to suggest that in the event of war the best thing to do with ships as tender as the Chicago would be to keep them securely in a well-protected port behind a screen of destroyers and torpedo nets, lest the enemy should mobilize a fleet of tugboats and power boats and mob the "tin-clad" cruisers. No doubt one or two of the charging craft out of the swarm would reach the mark—and apparently that would be enough. The loss of the rest would be, as a war equation, negligible.

BEHIND THE SCENES IN Washington

By WILLIS THORNTON
The Evening Herald Washington Correspondent

Washington, Oct. 27.—The Red Flame came to Washington again the other day, flickered softly, and added but little of either heat or light to the national scene.

The Red Flame, in case you don't know, is Ann Burlak, blond Communist organizer, who is being promoted as the Clara Zetkin of America. Ann has done yeoman service in the cause of the American Communist, and was one of the leaders of last year's "hunger march." This most recent visit was a different story.

In the beautiful sunshine of an autumn morning, a line of some 250 people, marching in twos, approached the Commerce Building. From time to time they burst into songs or cheers as directed by a cheer leader, who hopped nimbly about on the flank.

A police motorcycle escort preceded them. A small, unimpressive man led, carrying an American flag.

Behind him marched Ann Burlak. She is a short, stockily built young woman of about 35, her muddy-brown hair hanging about her neck, shoulder-length. She wears a neat blue knit dress and a blue coat-sweater about it.

Not Like Hoover Days
Courtly policemen meet the processions at the door, and the singing of "We were only playing LEAF-frog" stops. (Only it isn't leaf-frog—it used to be when you and I were kids—now it is "Solidarity for-EV-er!")

A policeman snaps to a stiff salute as the flag approaches the door. Another informs Miss Burlak that seats have been reserved for them at the hearing (they are here to protest proposed modifications of the textile code).

"It wasn't like this when Hoover was in," observed Miss Burlak dryly, in a deep-throated contralto. The flag is rolled up; the party files into the auditorium for the hearing.

They take a block of seats, and with considerable shuffling, get a "captain" in each aisle seat. A carton of cigarettes is broken out at the head and passed back to the "captains," so all will have plenty of smokes. Miss Burlak bustles, registers with the conductors of the hearing.

When General Johnson enters to conduct the hearing, they applaud, but this evidently is a mistake, for after he has spoken . . . "we wish to arrive at some sort of arrangement, just to all that will bring peace to industry" . . . there is silence in the Communist seats.

Even A. F. of L. Cheered
The Communist marchers cheer loudly, interrupting a speech by Donald Richberg, when a large A. F. of L. delegation enters. Communists hate the A. F. of L. like poison, but cheering when they are on a similar errand as they own creates an impression that you tolerantly approve their belated rightness. That's part of the new Communist technique. Probably it is in Communist ideology. SOL-Idarity for-EV-er.

Hunger March Forecast
Police here are expecting a new Communist-led hunger march, probably in January, to great Congress. Detectives went to Cleveland to attend a convention of unemployed councils. Police Superintendent Ernest Brown is making his preparations. Last year he stopped the march in the suburbs. . . . Miss Burlak was one of the "heroes" of that affair. . . . she'll be back. . . . The long-depressed textile industry is leading all other industries toward recovery, trade analysts report. . . . Funny, but you may remember that it was the first to sign a permanent code. . . . now Standard Statistics is predicting for it the best year since 1924. . . . One man is hoping the Department of Justice

HEALTH-DIET ADVICE

By DR. FRANK McCUYY

Questions of Health, Diet and Diet with answers by Dr. McCuYY are set out in a series of articles. The first number, sent addressed envelope, is free.

BRONCHITIS

In the days of our grandmothers, at the first sign of a "cold" or "flu," the remedy was, "rubbed with good grease and then a red flannel about the throat" was promptly applied.

If you imagine a capital "Y" turned upside down, you will have a good picture of the bronchial tubes. The top of the "Y" represents the windpipe and the two forks combing downward represent the two bronchial tubes, one of which leads to the right lung and one to the left. As each bronchus enters the lung it branches out into many small subdivisions. During an attack of bronchitis the mucous membrane which lines the two main tubes becomes congested and inflamed. A person is fairly sure to suffer much discomfort during an acute attack of bronchitis and after the acute infection is passed, his bronchial lining will show a remarkable capacity for quick repair. But in children and in old people, and in those who do not throw off acute infections readily, bronchitis may become a severe disorder, and may develop into bronchopneumonia. After several acute attacks of bronchitis a chronic condition may occur and when it does, the patient will say that he has "a cold on the chest that he can't get rid of."

Acute bronchitis usually begins as a cold which extends down from the nose and throat. The first symptoms are those of a cold with fever and aching of the muscles. Next occurs hoarseness, and the patient has a tight, constricted sensation through the chest under the breast bone. The air passages of the throat and chest become sore and raw. A short, rough cough is commonly seen which grows worse at night. In the first stages of bronchitis the cough is dry and may easily tire the patient. Children, especially, complain of a painful soreness and rawness which is made worse by the coughing spasms.

A few days later the cough becomes "looser," it then lacks its painful character and raises much greater quantities of mucus, which is usually accompanied by thick yellow or greenish pus. The symptoms vary considerably, depending upon how much of the lining of the bronchial tubes is affected. If the inflammation spreads and involves the smaller divisions of the bronchial tubes, a condition develops which is much more serious than the average case of bronchitis. An ordinary attack will clear up within a week or two.

Chronic bronchitis may follow several acute attacks, or may be seen in the aged, and also among men who work where there is a great deal of dust. The symptoms may be absent in summer and return each winter. The main symptoms is an annoying and persistent cough, generally worse in the early morning. The soreness and painful rawness of the acute attack are lacking and the patient may not raise much mucus, or a large amount. A chronic bronchitis should be considered about the same as a mild tuberculosis, except that the cure is much shorter.

The chief cause of chronic bronchitis is an irritation produced by toxic wastes which are elim-

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

(Boarding House Diets)

Question: Mrs. Donnell G. writes: "My son, 21, is suffering from colitis. The doctor says it will take a long time to cure him and that he must not eat meat. He is not living at home, but in a boarding house, so I cannot regulate his diet. How best could I help him?"

Answer: Tell your son to move from the boarding house, as it is the last place in the world where one can get a special diet such as he requires for the cure of colitis. The doctor was right when he said that meat produces colitis. "Colitis" simply means inflammation of the colon, which comes from dietetic errors of all kinds. I advise your sons to eat in a restaurant or cafeteria where he can select the proper foods and thus follow the menus which appear in this paper every Friday.

(Seaweed)

Question: J. F. R. writes: "I should be glad of your opinion in regard to the free use of seaweed as an adjunct to health."

Answer: The various seaweeds seem to be beneficial simply on account of the large amount of iodine which they contain. They may be purchased in ground dehydrated form under commercial trade names. The fresh kelp one finds scattered along the seashore is also edible. There are a number of foods which contain iodine and are listed in my special article on Food Minerals, which I will be glad to send to you if you will forward a large, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

IN NEW YORK

By JULIA BLANSHARD

New York, Nov. 27.—New York's social debut season doesn't open officially until the end of October. But a new Gotham phenomenon, in full swing, is already in full swing.

Manufacturers of new tongue-scrappers, new razors, perfume atomizers or other commercial gadgets must spend hundreds, if not more, to introduce their new articles to the press before they are put upon the market. Every day sees a luncheon, reception, tea or even dinner for a new sky-scraper hat, an unlit brassiere, a new permanent waving machine or modernized diapers.

One day crowds gathered for a smooty reception-tea in the luxurious suite of the Waldorf Astoria to "meet" a single yard of fabric that had been manufactured. Two famous orchestras played at opposite ends of the long suite; flowers bloomed everywhere; tables were weighted with drinks, trays of sandwiches and sweets.

On an easel, with the spotlight full upon it, was the yard of goods that was making its debut. By its side stood a pompous gentleman in correct morning clothes, with long coat and striped trousers, cordially introducing the novelty and highlights of this important "guest of honor" to anybody who wasted one look in its direction.

Almost the next day some $125 "wedding stockings" were presented at a tea, lovely lace ones, making their appearance on the finest pair of legs that could be secured from the Modal's Bureau. Probably the most ludicrous

A BOOK A DAY

IN MODERN DRESS.

McFee's New Book Brings Romance Up to Date.

BY BRUCE CATTON.

In "No Castle in Spain" William McFee has taken a melodrama of the good old romantic-adventure school, dotted it up in modern dress, and sent it forth to tell an old-fashioned story in the accents of up-to-date New York.

He presents us with a girl, Yvonne, who is as up-to-the-minute as the Blue Eagle. She's an advertising writer in New York, intelligent and sophisticated, and in the back of her mind she hopes to turn into a reality.

So when she bumps into a man from South America, one Don Fredric, who lives on a tremendous fortune and is a handsome and passionate lover, she is immediately smitten for him. He marries her and takes her home with him—and she discovers that she has stepped out of the Twentieth Century into the Middle Ages.

She is not a wife, but a bit of property. Yvonne's place is in the home, on those feudal estates, and she puts her in the windows and hire a string of hand-picked dukes to see that she stays there.

Naturally, a little of this goes a long way. A New York friend—a sort of roving salesman for one of those wicked Wall Street banks—goes to South America and undertakes to rescue her.

By dint of much involved conditions, she is rescued and she is the luckiest girl in the world. And all this, in a novel, in the good old George Barr McClellan style, with a touch of the modern, and a dash of the old-fashioned, and a little of the new.

The book is called by Donnelly, Doran and Co., for $2.50.

LAY DOWN STRICT REGULATIONS FOR RACING ON COAST

Want Sport to Be Tourist Attraction; Insist on Nothing But Best in Tracks; Want Honesty.

By PAUL ZIMMERMAN

Los Angeles, Oct. 27.—(AP)—Horse racing in California, if the state commission has its say, is going to be an institution designed to reflect favorably on the Sunshine state, like its weather and athletic teams.

And the commissioners make no bones about it as they take their time granting or refusing permits, amid the weeping and wailing of interested denied applications for tracks.

Said Chairman Carleton Burke, a breeder of fine polo stock and something of a power in western polo circles:

"We want horse racing in California to be a tourist attraction. We insist on nothing but the best in tracks, backed by representative citizens. We are not interested in the gamblers' angles, except in our efforts to make racing honest."

"California once was a great breeding state for thoroughbreds. It is our desire to bring it back to that and we will guard against any funny business on the tracks which might harm breeding."

Commissioner's Wealthy All of which is a sizable undertaking, by gentlemen who know the finer side of thoroughbred racing. All three commissioners are independently wealthy. Their business integrity admits no questioning.

J. J. McNaughton, before going into the stockyards business in Los Angeles, was a rancher and cow wrangler. William P. Roth of San Francisco is a director in one of the west's biggest steamship companies. His wife owns a breeding farm for galloping horses.

So while the politicians and would-be race track promoters mean

Southern Methodist Thrives On Its Marathon Schedule

Dallas, Tex., Oct. 27.—When the leaders, even though Arkansas holds a decision over Texas Christian.

Three of the reasons why S. M. U. will be underdog are little Bob Wilson, "Iron Man" Wetsel, and Charley Baker.

The former is a 160-pound half-back, one of the fastest and best ball carriers ever turned out by Morrison. His running attack contains more sidesteps and foot movements than the repertoire of a ballet dancer.

You probably can guess why Wetsel got that "Iron Man" moniker. That baby is a guard who thinks that unless he plays the whole schedule without a time out the season is a failure.

Charley Baker is a sophomore back who will go places with a year's experience. His play is flashy now, but steadied down under Morrison influence, he may break away to stardom before 1933 is over.

The Pacific coast will see these gents in action when the Mustangs pay a visit to the barn of the Gallop-Jacks of St. Mary's, Dec. 9. The game will be at San Francisco.

Will Demand Honesty Once racing is started, the commission proposes to demand honesty not only in the training quarters, stables, paddock and on the track, but also in the operation of the pari-mutuels. It has drawn up a strict set of rules.

As proof of the type of track the commission insists on, the first unlimited permit was granted the St. Francis Jockey Club of San Francisco, backed by persons whose names are outstanding in business and social circles. A million and a quarter will be spent on the plant.

"That's the only way racing can last," said Burke. "We want the people's confidence in horse racing. California lost it twenty-five years ago because of track irregularities. The right kind of horse racing will come back to California to stay."

Trojans Favored Over California ON PACIFIC COAST

Army Given Edge Over Yale, Pitt Over Notre Dame, Holy Cross Over Brown, Georgia Over N. Y. U.

New York, Oct. 27.—(AP)—It may be just another case of "fools rushing in" but the weekly guessing contest is an amusing pastime for football followers and, after all, its his own neck the would-be prognosticator risks.

With this in mind and granting in advance that the chance for accurate comparison is lacking in week-end's major engagements look:

Picks The Trojans California: Oregon demonstrated last week that the Trojans could be held to a scoreless draw but Southern California still looks like the class of the Pacific coast conference.

Army-Yale: With Jack Buckler to match against Yale's Bob Lester, the cadets rate a slight edge on the basis of what looks like a superior line.

Minnesota-Iowa: A match of Gopher power and Iowa speed personified mostly by Young Joe Laws. This timid ballot for Minnesota is explained by the Gophers fine showing against Pitt.

Georgia-Favored Georgia: Georgia is the logical favorite.

Michigan-Chicago: Apparently the spot for Michigan's second big test.

Fubars-Alabama: Two undefeated exponents of the Notre Dame system collide in this one with a break or two probably the decisive factor.

Nebraska-Oklahoma: Within the big six at least Nebraska's Cornhuskers seldom play a "prophet" false.

Penn-Navy: The Tars have shown nothing so far to warrant their selection over Penn.

Notre Dame-Pitt: Notre Dame's poor showing against Carnegie inspires a vote for the Panther.

Princeton-Washington & Lee: The Generals are tougher than they've been in years, but Princeton should win handily.

Holy Cross-Brown: Despite a tricky offense, Brown seems fated to be worn down by the sheer strength of the Burly Crusaders.

Harvard-Dartmouth: Dartmouth is the indicated favorite but heavy casualty list may impair the Indians effectiveness.

Colgate-LaFayette: Undefeated Colgate should win comfortably.

Tulane-Auburn: The Green wave may roll over the Plainsmen of Auburn.

Villanova-Manhattan: Villanova looks too powerful for the Jaspers.

Washington-Stanford: Somebody may beat Stanford soon, but until then a vote for the team "Pop" Warner left behind him.

Carnegie Tech-Washington & Jeff: Xavier University held Carnegie Tech to 3-0, W. & J. 8-0, but we still string along with the Tartans.

Here's the way Bill Braucher, sports editor of NEA, picks them this week:

REPORT LEFTY GROVE SOLD TO BOSTON CLUB

Washington, Oct. 27.—(AP)—The Washington Post said today Robert Moses (Lefty) Grove, star of the Philadelphia Athletic pitching staff, has been sold to the Boston Red Sox.

While details of the trade were lacking, it was said to be an outright purchase by the Boston club with reports that Max Bishop, veteran insider, and another pitcher will be included by Manager Connie Mack in shipment to Boston.

The cash return to the Athletics was estimated at $200,000.

The Post said details of the deal have been consummated though announcement was not expected for several weeks.

PAWNEES PRACTICE

The Pawnees A. C. will hold a practice tonight at 6:15 at the manager's house on Woodland street. Coach "Red" McCarty requests that all players be present because an important meeting will be held after the practice.

STUART WELLS TO PLAY FOR EAGLES ON SUNDAY

Local Grid Veteran Will Bolster Line Considerably in Game Against All-Burnsides; Seek Revenge for Previous 12-0 Defeat.

The Eagles are out for revenge Sunday against All-Burnsides, as the visitors come here with a victory already chalked up against the locals. But the Eagles are confident of winning with the addition of high calibre players who have signed up with the local team within the last two weeks.

Stuart Wells

Manager "Eddie" Dwyer has signed "Stewie" Wells to play with his team Sunday. Wells needs no introduction to the local football fans. He held down a guard position in high school and on the Cubs for three years, then was a regular tackle on the Red Men A. C. last year. "Stewie" will be a great help to the Eagles for they need strength in the line. The manager is trying to sign up two more star linemen for Sunday's attraction. The management promises that the Eagles will put the best team they have against the Burnsides squad. The Eagles are sure have a fine list of all experienced players such as: Moeke, Hansen, Wells, Rowe, Vince, Slags, Fiedler, (Krapatt No. 44), Hayes, Eagleson, Olcavage, and Bronkie.

There are many more on the squad who have had just as much experience but are not as popular to the fans as the above men. The Eagles are known for playing hard and clean football. Some of these boys have been playing together for four years. The Eagles are not an All-North End team. The team is pretty well divided with ten of the players living at the south end and twelve at the north end.

It looks as though it will be a real battle Sunday with the All-Burnsides here. They recently defeated the State Prison team 7-0. The Sons of Italy of Middletown was held scoreless by the prisoners. The visitors have the largest following in the state. It is expected that they will bring at least 500 people with them to their share of selling.

The Eagles will practice tonight at 7:00 o'clock sharp at Hickey's Grove. All players must be present.

THE BARGAIN HOUND

New fall evening gowns smarter than ever—you've been reading about them and now you can see them right at Fradin's. And wait 'til you see the little bunny coats with matching muffs that make your evening outfit complete—you'll have to have one.

Almost every wool suit, at least every other, is velvet trimmed. The softness of the fabric, so flattering and colorful, relieves the hard necklines of tweeds and wools and gives them the touch of elegance and femininity that is so becoming to both old and young.

For buffet suppers, bridges, and your Halloween celebration Hale's Self Serve has just about every item you'll need. You'll find many varieties of cheese and crackers as well as delicious doughnuts, cider, pumpkins, apples and nuts. And for Halloween sweets take one look at Hale's Candy department and you'll walk out with a box under your arm.

Last week a Meadowbrook polo match established the velvet beret, scarf and gloves for sports wear. They were worn in colors and with wools, tweeds and sports coats.

Milkowski's have an unusual selection of copper pieces. I saw one piece that was an exact replica of a Cape Cod ceremonial cup.

Soup to our foreign neighbors does not mean half a cupful of delicately seasoned, carefully strained and clarified broth as it does to us. Soup as they serve it forms the most substantial part of the family meal and is a healthy, nourishing dish. The dumplings or "quelles" the French and English put into their soups have great food value and are very different from our own kind of soup garnishings.

For those things that have to be washed carefully were Robertson Soap Chips put on the market. Try them.

Hat ornaments of jewels are seen more and more frequently. Mae West in "I'm No Angel", wears a classic black velvet hat with a large diamond brooch as its only decoration. This hat will have a definite influence in dramatizing a fashioner introduced at the races in Paris June 1932.

In their south window Rubnow's are featuring school girls' coats. There's a special assortment of values for tomorrow.

Let the children enjoy Halloween. A wholesome children's party on this evening does more to destroy an unnatural fear of spooks and darkness and strange sounds than anything else. Acting the spooks themselves gives them a feeling of the absurdity of such fears. Let the children have some place where they can bob for apples in watery comfort—both as to the room and their own clothes.

TORGLER REPEATS INNOCENCE PLEA

Says He Never Saw Co-Defendants Before Reichstag Fire.

Berlin, Oct. 27.—(AP)—Ernst Torgler, former Reichstag whip of the Communist Party, asserted his innocence today before the court which is trying him for his life.

They had testified to seeing him with Marinus Van der Lubbe, the Dutch bricklayer who has confessed the crime, on the afternoon before the fire.

Stefan Kroyer, leader of the Nazi Party at Linz, the third Nazi to indicate a link between Torgler and Van der Lubbe, told the court he saw the Dutchman walking behind Torgler in the Reichstag building last February 27, Torgler cried out against the testimony of three Nazis.

At the conclusion of his testimony, Torgler arose, asked, and was granted the court's permission to make a declaration. He declared with solemn earnestness:

"I never either saw or talked to Van der Lubbe. I never saw nor met with Popoff. (Blagoi Popoff, a Bulgarian codefendant.) That is the absolute, unmitigated truth."

There was a pause after his declaration, then Judge Wilhelm Buenger, chief justice of the court, turned solemnly to Kroyer and asked: "You have heard what Torgler said?"

Kroyer answered: "I stick to my testimony."

Kroyer was cross examined and was confronted with another Nazi's testimony which differs from his own, as well as testimony he had given in previous hearings. He faltered and explained he could not remember details of an incident which happened so long ago.

The Bulgarian defendant who twice has been barred from the court for upsetting its procedure, also attempted to cross-examine Kroyer and ran afoul of Judge Buenger again.

He asked the Nazi if Austrian Nazis, barred from their own country, are attempting to carry on their program from Germany.

Buenger dismissed the question and the brief continued.

"When I claimed I worked for Bulgaria while living as an exile in Germany, you doubted that statement, but many hundreds of Nazis are working illegally in Germany for the Austrian Nazis with forged passes and addresses."

Buenger roared, "Sit down!"

The Reichstag stenographer, Annelies Baumgart, testified that a man she had seen with Torgler on the night before the fire was not Popoff but a Communist member of the Reichstag, Theodor Neubauer.

Unusual activities are being planned for the winter at the Manchester Y. M. C. A. and in addition to the filling of the regular periods for gymnasium use, bowling will be given more attention while the women's division will have increased activities if plans now under way are carried through.

Among the classes to be formed, under the direction of Carl Benson is one in sign painting, not for professional work but for a hobby and personal use; camera and photography, under the direction of James Cervini and Mr. Benson; woodworking, with Ralph Rockwell as instructor and harmonica playing taught by Mrs. Willo Sargent.

Group activities will be held on Saturday nights when different organizations will have the full use of the building. In this respect it is being planned to have as many different organizations make application for dates or the use of the building as possible.

A regular program has been prepared and the different hours are now being filled. The activities for this afternoon and evening and for Saturday provides for the use of the gymnasium from 4 to 5 o'clock for grade school girls; 5 to 6 o'clock men's volleyball. At 6:30 twenty boys start for the State theater where they will be provided a free admission to the State theater. They will be under the supervision of Andrew Fidler. From 7 to 8 o'clock, older girls' gymnasium class will be held; 8 to 10, women's gymnasium; Saturday morning, 10 to 11, 9 to 12 year old boys in gymnasium; 11 to 12 o'clock, 12 to 16 year old boys; 6:30 in the evening, junior young men's classes.

THINKS NEA INVALID
Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 27.—(AP)—The overwhelming weight of decisions of the United States Supreme Court for the last three decades is against the validity of the National Recovery act, Dr. Ashley Sellers, Emory university law professor said in a speech prepared for delivery today at the Southern Political Science Association convention.

Professor Sellers said, however, there is a chance the high court will sustain the act, "prompted by a situation of fact and not of the law, which is the court's involvement such quaint authority as 'necessary knows no law,' or more legally, 'the safety of the people is the supreme law.'"

Stefan Kroyer, leader of the Nazi Party at Linz, the third Nazi to indicate a link between Torgler and Van der Lubbe, told the court he saw the Dutchman walking behind Torgler in the Reichstag building last February 27, Torgler cried out against the testimony of three Nazis.

At the conclusion of his testimony, Torgler arose, asked, and was granted the court's permission to make a declaration. He declared with solemn earnestness:

"I never either saw or talked to Van der Lubbe. I never saw nor met with Popoff. (Blagoi Popoff, a Bulgarian codefendant.) That is the absolute, unmitigated truth."

There was a pause after his declaration, then Judge Wilhelm Buenger, chief justice of the court, turned solemnly to Kroyer and asked: "You have heard what Torgler said?"

Kroyer answered: "I stick to my testimony."

Kroyer was cross examined and was confronted with another Nazi's testimony which differs from his own, as well as testimony he had given in previous hearings. He faltered and explained he could not remember details of an incident which happened so long ago.

The Bulgarian defendant who twice has been barred from the court for upsetting its procedure, also attempted to cross-examine Kroyer and ran afoul of Judge Buenger again.

He asked the Nazi if Austrian Nazis, barred from their own country, are attempting to carry on their program from Germany.

Buenger dismissed the question and the brief continued.

"When I claimed I worked for Bulgaria while living as an exile in Germany, you doubted that statement, but many hundreds of Nazis are working illegally in Germany for the Austrian Nazis with forged passes and addresses."

Buenger roared, "Sit down!"

The Reichstag stenographer, Annelies Baumgart, testified that a man she had seen with Torgler on the night before the fire was not Popoff but a Communist member of the Reichstag, Theodor Neubauer.

Unusual activities are being planned for the winter at the Manchester Y. M. C. A. and in addition to the filling of the regular periods for gymnasium use, bowling will be given more attention while the women's division will have increased activities if plans now under way are carried through.

Among the classes to be formed, under the direction of Carl Benson is one in sign painting, not for professional work but for a hobby and personal use; camera and photography, under the direction of James Cervini and Mr. Benson; woodworking, with Ralph Rockwell as instructor and harmonica playing taught by Mrs. Willo Sargent.

Group activities will be held on Saturday nights when different organizations will have the full use of the building. In this respect it is being planned to have as many different organizations make application for dates or the use of the building as possible.

A regular program has been prepared and the different hours are now being filled. The activities for this afternoon and evening and for Saturday provides for the use of the gymnasium from 4 to 5 o'clock for grade school girls; 5 to 6 o'clock men's volleyball. At 6:30 twenty boys start for the State theater where they will be provided a free admission to the State theater. They will be under the supervision of Andrew Fidler. From 7 to 8 o'clock, older girls' gymnasium class will be held; 8 to 10, women's gymnasium; Saturday morning, 10 to 11, 9 to 12 year old boys in gymnasium; 11 to 12 o'clock, 12 to 16 year old boys; 6:30 in the evening, junior young men's classes.

THINKS NEA INVALID
Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 27.—(AP)—The overwhelming weight of decisions of the United States Supreme Court for the last three decades is against the validity of the National Recovery act, Dr. Ashley Sellers, Emory university law professor said in a speech prepared for delivery today at the Southern Political Science Association convention.

Professor Sellers said, however, there is a chance the high court will sustain the act, "prompted by a situation of fact and not of the law, which is the court's involvement such quaint authority as 'necessary knows no law,' or more legally, 'the safety of the people is the supreme law.'"

PUBLISHER DENIES NAZI PROPAGANDA

Says His Papers Are Not Allied With Hitler Movement in the U. S.

New York, Oct. 27.—(AP)—Denials of Nazi alliances were made today by a Long Island German newspaper publisher and the manager of a Long Island radio station, identified by Chairman Samuel Dickstein of the House immigration committee as sources of Nazi propaganda.

Representative Dickstein was returning to New York from Washington where he sought the deportation of Heinz Spanknoebel, mysterious figure in a two-way Nazi propaganda investigation that developed as a result of Mayor John P. O'Brien's ban on German day celebration here Sunday.

Spanknoebel, accused of being a Hitler lieutenant and discredited by Berlin, continued to be misleading.

Frans Heins, of Jamaica, L. I., publisher of Die Deutsche Post and the American Observer, who has accepted an invitation to appear before a House immigration subcommittee studying Nazi propaganda, denied Dickstein's charge that his newspaper disseminated Nazi propaganda.

He identified station WWRU, near Jamaica, as doubtless the station referred to by Dickstein. Frank H. Clark, station manager, said about ninety per cent of the programs are sponsored by Jewish merchants.

U. S. THANKS JAPAN
Tokyo, Oct. 27.—(AP)—Acting on instructions from the State Department, the American Ambassador Joseph Grew visited Foreign Minister Koki Hirota today and expressed the United States government's thanks for the Japanese army's share in bringing about the liberation of Dr. Niels Nielsen, an American missionary, in Manchuria.

Dr. Nielsen, formerly of Minneapolis, was released and returned to the Lutheran staff at Haiyuen, 110 miles south of Mukden, Manchuria, after having been held captive by brigands since last April.

1,250 NEW EMPLOYEES

MERCHANTS ADOPT 63 HR. WORK WEEK

Only 5 Object to Schedule Recommended by Executive Committee.

By a vote of 16 to 5, the Merchants Division of the Chamber of Commerce this morning adopted a store schedule of sixty-three hours a week effective next Monday. This action was taken on the recommendation of the Executive Committee after a forty-five minute discussion of technicalities which will affect the individual merchant.

In making the recommendation the Executive Committee, Chairman Leroy Slocumb stressed the point that the 63-hour week was recommended to bring about a uniform store schedule and not because it was favored by the committee. He stated that it was his opinion that all the merchants present at the meeting favored shorter hours but that such a schedule would not be feasible at the present time and would not meet with general approval.

The meeting opened fifteen minutes late and after Chairman Slocumb had read the recommendation, Fred Blah, Sr., brought the matter before the merchants by making a motion to accept the recommendation. It was seconded by R. K. Anderson and was put to a rising vote forty-five minutes later, after a long discussion of questions which it was felt must be ironed out by the individual merchant.

The following voted in favor of the recommendation: C. Elmore Watkins and R. K. Anderson of Watkins Brothers; Herbert E. House, Elmer Weden and Thomas Brennan of C. E. House & Son and the J. W. Hale Company; Leon Holmes of Manchester Electric; Leonard Richman of Dewey and Richman; William Kronick of Wilcox; Fred T. Blah, Sr., Manchester Plumbing & Supply; Robert Seaman of F. T. Blah; David Werber of Brownhill Shoe store; Arthur L. Hultman of Hultman's; Charles Waldman of Diamond's shoe store; Warren Keith of Keith's; and L. L. Foster of Everybody's Market, who voted by letter.

The following voted against the recommendation but stated they would abide by the decision of the majority: William Rubnow of Rubnow's; Julius Fradin of Fradin's; William Lyons of Montgomery Ward's; Harry Laycock of Grant's; and Mr. Brophy of McCallister's.

On the motion of Mr. Watkins the secretary was authorized to obtain an interpretation of the clause limiting lunch time to one hour. Most local stores allow employees an hour and one-half and it was felt that special permission should be obtained from N. R. A. headquarters to allow continuation of this practice to eliminate unnecessary hardship for the employees.

The recommendation adopted is in accordance with Article 5, Section 1, Group C of the retail code, which states: Any establishment may elect to remain open for business 63 hours or more per week; no employee of such establishment shall work more than 48 hours per week, nor more than 10 hours per day, nor more than 8 days per week.

At present local stores are operating on a sixty-hour schedule. The change will necessitate opening at 8:30 o'clock in the morning and closing at 6 o'clock each night, except Thursday and Saturday, when stores will remain open until 9 o'clock. Local food, drug and hardware stores, it was said, have maintained their own schedules, at variance with other stores, and this new schedule will bring all business concerns under a uniform schedule.

Spilt Schedules of the question, Mr. Rubnow suggested a split schedule, one for the drug, food and hardware stores and another for the other merchants and

THE BARGAIN HOUND

New fall evening gowns smarter than ever—you've been reading about them and now you can see them right at Fradin's. And wait 'til you see the little bunny coats with matching muffs that make your evening outfit complete—you'll have to have one.

Almost every wool suit, at least every other, is velvet trimmed. The softness of the fabric, so flattering and colorful, relieves the hard necklines of tweeds and wools and gives them the touch of elegance and femininity that is so becoming to both old and young.

For buffet suppers, bridges, and your Halloween celebration Hale's Self Serve has just about every item you'll need. You'll find many varieties of cheese and crackers as well as delicious soups, omelets, pumpkins, apples and nuts. And for Halloween's sweets take one look at Hale's Candy department and you'll walk out with a box under your arm.

Last week a Meadowbrook polo match established the velvet beret, scarf and gloves for sports wear. They were worn in colors and with wools, tweeds and sports coats.

Milkowski's have an unusual selection of copper pieces. I saw one piece that was an exact replica of a Cape Cod ceremonial cup.

Soup to our foreign neighbors does not mean half a cupful of delicately seasoned, carefully strained and clarified broth as it used to be. Soup as they serve it forms the most substantial part of the family meal and is a hearty, nourishing dish. The dumplings or "quenelles" the French and English put into their soups have great food value and are very different from our own kind of soup garnishings.

For those things that have to be washed carefully were Robertson Soap Chips put on the market. Try them.

Hat ornaments of jewels are seen more and more frequently. Miss West in "The No Angel" wears a classic black velvet hat with a large diamond brooch as its only decoration. This hat will have a definite influence in dramatizing a fashion—introduced at the races in Paris—June 1932.

In their south window Rubimow's are featuring school girls' coats. There's a special assortment of values for tomorrow.

Let the children enjoy Halloween. A wholesome children's party on this evening does more to destroy an unnatural fear of spooks and darkness and strange sounds than anything else. Acting the spooks themselves gives them a feeling of the absurdity of such fears. Let the children have some place where they can both for apples in watery comfort—both as to the room and their own clothes.

TORGLER REPEATS INNOCENCE PLEA
Says He Never Saw Co-Defendants Before Reichstag Fire.

Berlin, Oct. 27.—(AP)—Ernst Torgler, former Reichstag member of the Communist Party, asserted his innocence today before the court which is trying him for his part in a courtroom packed with spectators observing the proceedings against five men charged with setting fire to the Reichstag building last February 27. Torgler cried out against the testimony of three Nazis.

They had testified to seeing him with Marinus Van der Lubbe, the Dutch bricklayer who has confessed the crime, on the afternoon before the fire.

"Before February 28, I never either saw or talked to Van der Lubbe. I never saw nor met with Popoff, (Bogol Popoff, a Bulgarian confederate). That is the absolute, unmitigated truth," Torgler said.

The date he mentioned was the day after the fire, when Torgler surrendered voluntarily at police headquarters and was confronted with the other defendants.

Sticks to Testimony
There was a pause after his declaration, then Judge Wilhelm Buenger, chief justice of the court, turned solemnly to Kroyer and asked, "You have heard what Torgler said?"

Kroyer answered: "I stick to my testimony."

Kroyer was cross examined and was confronted with another Nazi's testimony which differed from his own, as well as testimony he had given in previous hearings. He faltered and explained he could not remember details of an incident which happened so long ago.

Georgi Dimitroff, the Bulgarian defendant who twice has been barred from the court on the grounds of upsetting its procedure, also attempted to cross-examine Kroyer and ran afoul of Judge Buenger again.

He asked the Linz Nazi if Austrian Nazis, barred from their own country, are at liberty to carry on their program from Germany.

Buenger dismissed the question and Dimitroff countered:

"When I claimed worked for Bulgaria while living in Germany, you doubted that statement, but many hundreds of Nazis are working illegally in Germany for the Austrian Nazis with forged passes and addresses and unequalled Avocados."

Buenger roared, "Sit down!"

The Reichstag stenographer, Annelies Baumgart, testified that a man she had seen with Torgler on the afternoon before the fire was not Popoff but a Communist member of the Reichstag, Theodor Neubauer.

The recommendation adopted is in accordance with Article 5, Section 1, Group C, of the retail code, which states: Any establishment may elect to remain open for business hours of employment of women, shall work more than 48 hours per week, nor more than 10 hours per day, nor more than 6 days per week.

At present local stores are operating on a sixty-hour schedule. The change will necessitate opening at 8:30 o'clock in the morning and closing at 6 o'clock each night, except Thursday and Saturday, when stores will remain open until 9 o'clock. Lunch food, drug and hardware stores, it was said, have maintained their own schedules, at variance with other stores, and this new schedule will bring all business concerns under a uniform schedule.

During discussion of the question, Mr. Rubimow suggested a split schedule, one for the drug, food and hardware stores and another for the other merchants and also brought up the state law regarding the hours of employment of women, saying that it conflicted with the retail code. This it was claimed was a problem for the individual merchant.

Mr. Rubimow and Mr. Richman both spoke against an increase in working hours, pointing out that the 48-hour week will not meet with the satisfaction of employees, who under the President's Reemployment agreement work only forty hours a week and under the 60-hour schedule, 44 hours a week.

Mr. Hultman said that the longer schedule was recommended due to the coming Christmas season and that it would be possible to revert to the old schedule at the end of the year. Considerable discussion followed on this point.

Saturday Night Closing

Mr. Watkins said that the trouble lay in remaining open two nights a week. He said that Manchester, in so doing, is twenty years behind the times and probably is the only town in the state with two open nights a week. He advocated closing Saturday night and his suggestion was approved by Mr. Keith, who said that Saturday night's business could be handled during the day. Mr. Rubimow brought out that the local mills are closed on Saturday and that the townspeople had plenty of time to shop during the day. It was agreed by a number of the merchants present that Saturday night closing will come in the future but was not advisable at present.

The meeting was attended by twenty-four persons, practically the same number as was present last Friday, when an agreement could be reached on the store schedule.

HALLOWEEN PARTY HAS PARADE OF TOTS
Daughters of Liberty's Affair Is Attended by More Than 150 Persons.

Upwards of 150 persons attended the Halloween party given last night by the Daughters of Liberty for members and children. The grand march, with the children first, was a colorful procession. The judges agreed that the prettiest dressed child in the parade was Mildred Blah and the funniest, Edna Madden. Mrs. Lillian Nielson received the prize for the prettiest girl among the women and Mrs. Martha Lesman the most comely. The attendance prize was drawn by Mrs. Lily Corder.

The committee had arranged a variety of Halloween games and races for children and adults. Mrs. Emily Pratt was the best woman sprinter in races up and down the hall. When it came to planning the fall of the donkey Dorothy Johnson and Georgette Chastain. Refreshments were served at the banquet hall, which was prettily decorated in true Halloween style. There was a raffle apple at each place and sandwiches, currant bread, cake, Halloween candy and tea was served.

DR. HARRIS DIES
Tranton, Mass., Oct. 27.—(AP)—Dr. John A. Harris, 2nd, 35, who in addition to his work as dentist at the Taunton State hospital managed two baseball teams at that institution, died last night.

Dr. Harris was born in Newburgh, Conn.

PUBLISHER DENIES NAZI PROPAGANDA
Says His Papers Are Not Allied With Hitler Movement in the U. S.

New York, Oct. 27.—(AP)—Denials of Nazi alliances were made today by a Long Island German newspaper publisher and the manager of a Long Island radio station, identified by Chairman Samuel Dickstein of the House Immigration as sources of Nazi propaganda.

Representative Dickstein was returning to New York from Washington where he sought the deportation of Heinz S. Anknobel, mysterious figure in a two-way Nazi committee studying Nazi propaganda, as a result of Mayor John P. O'Brien's ban on a German day celebration here Sunday.

Spanknebel, accused of being a Hitler lieutenant but discredited by Berlin, continued to be missing.

Franz Heiss, of Jamaica, L. I., publisher of Die Deutsche Post and the American Observer, who has accepted an invitation to appear before a House Immigration subcommittee studying Nazi propaganda, denied Dickstein's charge that his newspaper disseminated Nazi propaganda.

He identified station WWRL, near Jamaica, as doubtless the station referred to by Dickstein. Frank H. Clark, station manager, said about ninety per cent of the programs are sponsored by Jewish merchants.

U. S. THANKS JAPAN

Tokyo, Oct. 27.—(AP)—Acting on instructions from Secretary of State Cordell Hull at Washington, American Ambassador Joseph Grew visited Foreign Minister Koki Hirota today and expressed the United States government's thanks for the Japanese army's share in bringing about the liberation of Dr. Niels Nielsen, an American missionary, in Manchuria.

Dr. Nielsen, formerly of Minneapolis, was released and returned to the Lutheran staff at Hsiuyen, 110 miles south of Mukden, Manchuria, after having been held captive by brigands since last April.

1,250 NEW EMPLOYEES

New York, Oct. 27.—(AP)—The Standard Oil Company of New Jersey today reported that since adoption of the oil code its domestic subsidiaries had added 1,250 employees, at an additional wage and salary cost of $1,333,000 annually.

HURT IN CRASH

Wakefield, R. I., Oct. 27.—(AP)—Card County, N. Y., last night suffered critical injuries last night when his car collided with a seven ton truck on the Post road. He went to the South county hospital.

Stanton Dellafora, driver of the truck, and his helper, Steve Maloni, both of New London, Conn., were unhurt.

Officials of the National Automobile Chamber of Commerce told reporters that although the Chamber is the constituted authority for collection of the business statistics required by the NRA, it is not their understanding that it is their responsibility to get a deadline for manufacturers to comply.

They said that if any deadline is fixed, it probably will be by recovery administration officials, but that thus far the only deadline has been a "reasonable time."

Detroit, Oct. 27.—(AP)—Officials of the Ford Motor Co., non-signer of the NRA auto code, today declined to comment on the statement of Hugh S. Johnson, recovery administrator, that he would "turn the case over to the attorney general" if Henry Ford fails to submit figures by the first of November.

From other sources, however, came strong indications that the Ford company will not refuse to deliver the figures if they are requested by the company. Johnson is represented as taking the position that it had been singled out unnecessarily by Johnson, inasmuch as no large automobile companies as yet have submitted their figures on wages, hours, and schedules.

Officials also declined to comment on the statement of Johnson that Edgel Ford, president of the Ford Motor Co., had told him his company "would never consent to any collective bargaining."

It was indicated that the Ford company intends to continue its policy of tactful observance of the auto code, without signing it or otherwise taking part in its enforcement. The Ford company is not a member of the N. A. C. C.

CROWS MAKE OCEAN TRIP

Quebec, Oct. 27.—(AP)—The liner Empress of Britain today laid an honor of a sort. Its "crows nest" has really been occupied by crows. The birds flew aboard the liner 750 miles out of Southampton, said ship's officers, and took up residence. After remaining aloof during the voyage except for odd peeks at raw meat placed on the bridge, Mr. and Mrs. Crow departed when the ship entered the Belle Isle Strait.

AUTO SUIT SETTLED

Bridgport, Oct. 27.—(AP)—A settlement of $9,000 was made today on the $25,000 damage action brought by Charles D. Lockwood of Norwalk against Nelson Springer of Stamford and the Prudential Insurance Company. The action arose out of an automobile accident on October 4, 1931, when Lockwood's car was struck in Norwalk by another owned by Springer, an agent for the insurance company. Two days were consumed in trial of the matter before the settlement was reached.

MEN'S FRIENDSHIP CLUB'S MEETING

It will be necessary to change the meeting night of the Men's Friendship club of the South M. E. church from Monday evening, Nov. 13 to Tuesday evening, Nov. 14. The speaker for this meeting, Rev. John M. Phillips of Center church, Hartford, will be unable to present on Monday night due to very urgent business but has consented to speak to the men on Tuesday night as above stated.

An invitation has been extended

AMERICANS ACQUITTED

Palma, Mallorea, Spain, Oct. 27.—(AP)—A single legal step stood to make a report of their activities at this meeting.

Refreshments will be served by the following committee: Ross Lewis, John Winterbottom, William Lewis, Robert Turkington, Samuel Burgess, Everett McKinney, Stanley Nichols and Harold Richmond.

Among the classes to be formed, under the direction of Carl Benson is one in sign painting, not for professional work but for a hobby and personal interest; camera and photography, under the direction of James Cervini and Mr. Benson; woodworking, with Ralph Rockwell as instructor and harmonica playing taught by Mrs. Willo Surprenant.

Group activities will be held on Saturday nights when different organizations will have the full use of the building. In this respect it is being planned to have as many different organizations make application for dates of the use of the building as possible.

A regular program has been prepared and the different hours are now being filled. The activities for each afternoon and evening and for Saturday provides for the use of the gymnasium from 4 to 5 o'clock for grade school girls; 5:15 to 6:30, men's volleyball. At 6:30 twenty boys start for the State theater where they will be provided a free admission to the State theater. They will be under the supervision of Andrew Fidler. From 7 to 8 o'clock, older girls' gymnasium class will be held; 8 to 10, women's gymnasium; Saturday morning, 10 to 11, 9 to 12 year old boys in gymnasium; 11 to 12 o'clock, 12 to 16 year old boys; 6:30 in the evening, junior young men's classes.

THINKS NRA INVALID

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 27.—(AP)—The overwhelming weight of decisions of the United States Supreme Court for the last three decades is against the validity of the National Recovery Act. Dr. Stanley Sellers, Emory university law professor said in a speech prepared for delivery today at the Southern Political Science Association convention.

Professor Sellers said, however, there is a chance the high court will sustain the act, "prompted by a situation of fact and not of the law, x x x unless the court invokes such quaint authority as 'necessary knows no law,' or more legally, 'the safety of the people is the supreme law.'"

Y. M. C. A. Notes

Unusual activities are being planned for the winter at the Manchester Y. M. C. A. and in addition to the filling of the regular periods in gymnasium use, bowling will be given more attention, while the women's division will have increased activities if plans now under way are carried through.

Among the classes to be formed, under the direction of Carl Benson is one in sign painting, not for professional work but for a hobby and personal interest; camera and photography, under the direction of James Cervini and Mr. Benson; woodworking, with Ralph Rockwell as instructor and harmonica playing taught by Mrs. Willo Surprenant.

DUCE CALLS FASCISM HOPE OF THE WORLD

Rome, Oct. 27.—(AP)—Fascism is "the hope of the world," Premier Mussolini said in a message to the black-shirts which is to be read in every town in Italy tomorrow on the eleventh anniversary of the Fascist march on Rome.

U. S. STAGE READS:

"The eleventh years of the regime closes with an imposing balance of works and events.

"You have seen them day by day. One of them is the decennial aerial cruise which has been the exaltation of the revolution in the skies and over twice across the ocean and demonstrated of what stuff is this new Fascist generation.

"The world of doctrines, against which even from March, 1919, Fascism rose, is retreating and capitulating everywhere: in Italy it now far away and squelched even in memory."

SCHOOL ROMANCE SMASHED

Bridgport, Oct. 27.—(AP)—A high school romance in which pretty 20-year-old Catharine Reichart of Norwalk engaged in with John Walton, also of Norwalk, was ended in the divorce court today when Judge John Rufus Booth granted her a decree of divorce.

Mrs. Walton told Judge Booth that on April 8, 1931, when she was 18 years of age and a senior in the Norwalk high school she eloped to New York City with Walton. Two months later, according to the young wife, her husband started to remain away from her during the week-ends and to stay out until the wee small hours of the night.

When she pressed him for a reason, he declared that he was working, and upon quiet investigation of her own

Complaints are not to be referred

For the present instructions sent out to regional compliance officers disclose Johnson's intention to maintain a big staff to give thorough care to each complaint received. Every complainant will receive a reply by mail.
The district managers have been

LINDBERGH REACH PARIS FOR VISIT

Hotel from Les Mureaux, arriving there about 1:30 p. m.
En route to the seaport, the pilot left by the side door at the moment three Embassy staff workers were leaving the front door and all attention of the bystanders was directed on them. Two officials from the air office accompanied the American flier.
Previously Lindbergh told friends that "I came to see Paris," adding that he did not know how long he would stay nor where he would go from here. He made plain that he did not wish any official functions nor any public attention.

Lindbergh himself arranged the secret flight to Paris to see the city where he became known as one of the world's outstanding fliers and where he was the hero of millions. Yesterday forenoon it was learned, he telephoned from Inverness to the air ministry here, saying that he wished to come to Paris but insisting that the visit must be secret. "He swore us to absolute silence," said an official. "He told us where he planned to land and it was arranged for some one to meet him with a car."
M. Cot was unable to go because of the Cabinet crisis, but sent one of his chief assistants, Louis E. Joxe, and another official, M. Corbin. Complying with Lindbergh's wishes, M. Cot has made no plans and intends to do exactly as the American flier wishes. He planned to see the visitor later today.

SAYS THAT NUDISM INCREASES CANCER

ly of all, he said, and only one in 1,000 cases survive. This cancer is impossible to diagnose in its early stages, he declared.

Europeans are less immune than Americans, Dr. Ewing said he believed, because they use more wine and beer and less water.
Alcohol Not a Cause.
"This is not due to the alcohol, because alcohol is not a definite cause of cancer," he explained, "but rather to lack of sufficient diet."
He advised moderation in smoking and drinking, avoidance of hot, irritating foods, exercise and hygiene and dissemination of all available information concerning the disease.

No matter which form of cancer is most prevalent in any country the mortality is about the same in all and that is puzzling to doctors, Dr. Ewing said.
Annual Mortality.
He added, however, that although they were unable to explain it, the fact remains that the annual mortality averages 100 to 100,000 people.
One of the greatest misfortunes is the public misconception that cancer is a single disease with a single cure, the doctor said, continuing:
"If there is to be any substantial reduction in the mortality from cancer, it must be either from prevention or from the discovery of a brand new agent which will control cancer altogether."
"This latter I consider completely impossible, although many younger doctors are more optimistic.

"There are no signs that any such agent is existent or indications that it will be existent."
No forms of human cancer, he said, is contagious; but cancer forms among animals occasionally are.

PARLATO FACING SENTENCE TODAY

by a jury which included four women in District Supreme Court last night. The jury deliberated nearly five hours. The youths who had been free on bond, were returned to jail to await the outcome of a motion for a new trial.
Bought Gasoline
Smith, 26, was former President of the George Washington University chapter of the fraternity, and Parlato was a pledge. The government introduced evidence to show Parlato purchased a can of gasoline, which was later found in the partly destroyed house and that the fraternity accounts, handled by Smith were short $109.
The defendants claimed they left the city several hours prior to the fire, and were north of Baltimore when it broke out. Witnesses substantiated their alibi.

STAGE SHOW STARTS AT THE STATE TODAY

Century of Progress Revue Has Just Completed Five Months at Chicago Fair.

The Century of Progress Revue opens today at the State theater for a two-day engagement, three shows daily. The revue is on tour after completing a five months run at the World's Fair in Chicago. The cast is a collection of leaders in every field of entertainment and includes: Sammi and Michi, Japan's foremost dancers; Billie Stone, formerly Earl Carroll's leading comedienne; Freddie Carlton, the world's champion "legmania" dancer; Alma Miller, one of the fastest acrobatic dancers on the stage; radio's famous Nick the Break; Ethel Jay, songstress, and the Diel Twins. The stage show runs fifty minutes without a dull second from beginning to end.
As an added attraction Freddie Werner, popular Manchester organist, will be heard in a brief organ program each show.
"We do not expect to penetrate Wall Street," says Senator Couzens. But it isn't the wall that shops him, it's the gall.

BOY SCOUTS TO ATTEND TRINITY FOOTBALL TILT

Admission Free to Connecticut State Game Saturday If Lads Come in Uniform.

All local Boy Scouts who plan to attend the Connecticut State-Trinity football game at Storrs tomorrow afternoon, are asked to get in touch with the Scoutmasters of their troops to arrange transportation. Scouts must be in uniform to gain admittance to the field and all who are unable to obtain transportation are asked to meet at the Center Congregational church at 12:30 o'clock.
The invitation to attend the game was received from Coach Sumner Dole, of Connecticut State, yesterday, and a meeting of the Scoutmasters' Association was held last night to make plans for a large attendance of local Scouts. The game is probably the outstanding contest on the State schedule and is expected to prove a thriller from start to finish.
Scouts are reminded that although admission will be free to all in uniform they must bring ten cents for the Federal tax.

"DON'T LIE TO ME, WOMAN! YOU DIDN'T MAKE THIS CAKE!"
"OH, YES I DID, MR. SMARTY— AND ANY TIME I WANT TO, I CAN MAKE ANOTHER JUST AS GOOD. AUNT HARRIET TIPPED ME OFF TO SOMETHING!"
Now Janet, do be sure to use Calumet Baking Powder—and you'll never have any more sad stories to tell me about your baking. Calumet makes all the difference in the world in texture! The layers rise more evenly, too—on account of that Double-Action—one action in the mixing bowl and another in the oven.
Don't go putting in more Calumet than the recipe calls for! That small proportion is right for Calumet—it goes further, you see, than other baking powders.
CREAM LOAF CAKE—(2 eggs)
2 cups sifted Swans 1/2 teaspoon salt
2 Down Cake Flour 1 cup sugar
2 teaspoons Calumet 2 eggs, well beaten
Baking Powder 1-1/4 cups heavy cream
1 teaspoon vanilla
Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder and salt, and sift together three times. Add sugar gradually to eggs, and beat well. Add flour, alternately with cream, a small amount at a time. Beat after each addition until smooth. Add vanilla. Bake in greased pan, 8 x 8 x 2 inches, in moderate oven (350° F.) 50 minutes. Spread chocolate butter frosting on top and sides of cake. (All measurements are level.)
I know you'll have marvelous luck with this cake—it's easy and it's delicious!

MENUS For Good Health

A Week's Supply Recommended By Dr. Frank McCoy

MENUS.
Dr. McCoy's menus suggested for the week beginning Sunday, Oct. 29, 1933:

SUNDAY
Breakfast—Eight-ounce glass of orange juice thirty minutes before a breakfast of two coddled eggs and Melba toast.
Dinner—Roast chicken with Melba toast dressing; string beans; coddled lettuce; sliced tomatoes; baked apple a la mode.
Supper—Rice en casserole; cooked spinach; ripe olives.

MONDAY
Breakfast—Crisp waffle with butter and small amount of maple syrup; applesauce.
Lunch—Pint of butter milk; 10 of 12 dates.
Dinner—Jellied chicken (left from Sunday) with vegetables; cooked greens; celery, dish of berries.

TUESDAY
Breakfast—Poached egg on Melba toast; stewed raisins.
Lunch—Combination salad of cooked and raw vegetables; glass of milk.
Dinner—Salisbury steak; string beans; carrots; salad of artichoke hearts (canned); pumpkin sweetmeat.

WEDNESDAY
Breakfast—Wholewheat muffins with peanut butter; stewed figs.
Lunch—Cooked oyster plant; mixed salad of vegetables.
Dinner—Vegetable soup; broiled steak with mushrooms; baked beets; salad of shredded lettuce; pineapple whip.

THURSDAY
Breakfast—French omelet; crisp bacon; Melba toast; pear sauce.
Lunch—Baked potato; string beans; celery.
Dinner—Baked ham with whole tomatoes; baked egg plant; spinach; salad of grated carrots; baked apple.

FRIDAY
Breakfast—Cottage cheese; Melba toast; dish of berries (canned).
Lunch—Corn bread; cooked kale; salad of endive and lettuce.
Dinner—Broiled fillet of sole; asparagus; small green peas (canned); sliced tomatoes; plain Jello or Jell-Well (no cream).

SATURDAY
Breakfast—Coddled eggs; whole-wheat-raisin muffins with sweet butter.
Lunch—Raw apples; glass of milk.
Dinner—Vegetable soup; boiled lean beef; steamed carrots; spinach; salad of diced celery and cucumber; peach whip.
*Pumpkin Sweetmeat: Scrape the seeds and pithy membrane from a pumpkin about five inches in diameter, after having sliced off the top in one piece to resemble a lid. Fill pumpkin with the following mixture: 1 part chopped nuts (walnuts, almonds or pecans); 2 parts seedless raisins; 2 parts sliced or chopped apples; 2 parts dates, seeded and chopped.
Return the lid to the pumpkin and place in moderate oven. Bake until apples are tender. Test them by mashing with a fork. Serve from the shell hot or cold. The portions should be small, topped with a dab of whipped cream if desired, and a little juice from stewed fruit.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS.
(Curing White Patches.)
Question: Dorothy writes: "I am a girl of 18 years of age. Have been doctoring for years without results, and I am hoping that you can help me. At the age of seven I began getting white spots on my neck and face and now they are located on many parts of my body. My skin is normal in appearance except for the white spots. I feel well, but it worries me so, as they seem to be spreading."
Answer: When white patches appear on the skin, it is usually a sign of vitiligo, which is a disease due to the destruction of the coloring pigment in the skin. This comes from a systemic acidosis and further trouble can be prevented through dietetic measures which would correct the lack of normal alkalinity of the blood. You should also have treatment to the affected area with ultra violet or actinic light. On the exposed parts you can cause the white spots to become darker by cutting a hole in a piece of paper the same size and shape as the spot and allowing the actinic light to be given through the hole. The paper will protect the surrounding skin from becoming darker.
(What About Chewing Gum?)
Question: F. E. asks: "Is chewing gum ever beneficial?"
Answer: Chewing gum is beneficial to the gums, increasing the circulation of blood through these parts. Those who are troubled with excessive gas will sometimes notice that they have more gas when chewing gum. This is due to the swallowing of the saliva which contains an alkaline called ptyalin. This makes carbon dioxide gas as it comes in contact with the stomach. This difficulty can be avoided if the saliva is not swallowed.
(Diversion for Students Child)
Question: Mrs. Mabel E. writes: "My little boy is thin and nervous. He is good in his studies but does not like to play very much. Do you think this is serious or will he out-grow it?"
Answer: Nervous children should be encouraged to develop the physical and the tendency to too much mental development must be discouraged by providing enough interesting exercises in the form of games and sports. An effort should be made to teach this type of child to divert his energy, part of the time, away from study and self-contemplation to constructive physical expression.

CHANGE SALES SYSTEM.
New York, Oct. 27. — (AP) — Daniel C. Roper, secretary of Commerce told a group of sales executives today that industry must change its sales and marketing approach and philosophy "to keep abreast of the organized and socialized improvements growing out of the National Recovery program."
Roper, speaking before the sales executives of New York, said it was evident "failure in managing plenty" rather than failure in mastering want, was the real cause of the depression.

HUGENBERG'S BACK IN HITLER'S GRACE

Former Reich Minister Patches Up Differences With the Nazi Leaders.

Berlin, Oct. 27.—(AP)—Chancellor Adolf Hitler and Dr. Alfred Hugenberg, former Reich minister of agriculture and economics, have patched up their differences, with the latter reappearing on the political scene as tenth on Hitler's list of Reichstag nominees.

soon hopes to see him back "in important work for the state."

The others on the chancellor's list, in order, are: Rudolf Hess, Nazi leader; Wilhelm Frick, minister of the interior; Hermann Goering, minister without portfolio; Dr. Joseph Goebbels, minister of public enlightenment and propaganda; Ernst Roehm, Storm Troop leader; Walter Darre, food minister; Franz Seldte, Steel Helmet leader and the minister of labor, and Vice Chancellor Franz von Papen.

President von Hindenburg last June 29 accepted the resignation of Dr. Hugenberg from the Cabinet, splitting his double post into two portfolios and naming Kurt Schmitt minister of economics and Walter Darre, head of the Nazi's agricultural department, as food minister. Dr. Hugenberg, leader of the Nationalist Party, which threw its forces with the Nazis some time after the rise to power of Chancellor Hitler, was at loggerheads with some of the Nazis a good while before he resigned.

One of the differences was over the appointment of the Prussian minister of agriculture, a post Dr. Hugenberg thought should be filled by his appointment, while the Nazis reputedly were equally as determined to put in their man.

East Prussian farmers openly appealed to the chancellor to appoint a Nazi in Dr. Hugenberg's place, claiming that his actions were adverse to their interests.

TO CLOSE UP PLANT

Bethel, Oct. 27.—(AP)—While a meeting of the NRA compliance board of this place and striking weavers of the Bethel Silk Corporation mill has been called for tonight, in an effort to bring about an adjustment of the difficulty, Daniel Raub, president of the silk concern, said today that his company was not interested in the meeting. The factory building has been offered for sale, he said, and it is the present plan to move the business to Pennsylvania.

SPEEDING STATE COPS

NOT AFTER KAMINSKI

Hurried Run Through Town Gave Local People Idea Escaped Murderer Had Been Cornered.

Five state policemen on motorcycles shot through Manchester at such a fast clip early last evening that many residents wondered if Alexander Kaminski, alleged jail guard murderer, had been cornered and was "shooting it out" somewhere in this vicinity. Inquiry at the state police barracks in Stafford Springs revealed, however, that the officers were on their way to participate in the NRA parade in Stafford Springs.

500 SEE ODD FELLOWS BAZAAR OPENED HERE

Entertainment at Carnival Running for Three Days Is of High Order.

Over five hundred attended the Booster Club Bazaar at Odd Fellows hall last evening and enjoyed two acts of vaudeville featuring the Burt Sisters of Hartford and an exhibition drill by the crack drill team of Sunset Rebekah Lodge. Music for dancing was furnished by Joan and her Melody Boys orchestra. The midway is one of the best ever offered in Manchester. Kismet, fortune teller, occupied a prominent position in the fair and he was busy all evening.

Tonight the Korom Patrol team of Hartford will put on an exhibition drill in Zouave fashion and is considered one of the best in the state. There will be two acts of vaudeville in addition to dancing. The doors will be open at 7:30 o'clock and all members of King David Lodge are asked to be ready for the weekly meeting at 7 o'clock sharp.

The astronomical day formerly started at noon, but now starts at midnight.

WEST SIDE ELEVEN TO HOLD PRACTICE

New Britain Triangles Will Furnish Opposition Here on Sunday.

The West Side football team will hold a practice session this evening at the West Side playgrounds rain or shine. Several new players will work out with the club for the first time and all members are requested to attend.

Sunday, if arrangements can be made, the locals will play at 10 o'clock at Mt. Nebo. The New Britain Triangles will furnish the opposition to the team and it will be remembered that the Eagles met this same team earlier in the season and won.

The management feel that if the morning game is played it will not interfere with any other attraction. Another move was announced last night. Johnny Kravunka, husky 190-pound guard, will be shifted to the backfield. Although a bit crude, this chap has picked up a lot of football during the past three weeks and his poundage ought to help the backfield.

Other changes contemplated will be the shifting of Tryon to guard, Joe Johnson to end and placing Joe Zalomis into Johnson's shoes at tackle. These moves have been made necessary owing to the showing of Dugan at tackle and Zalomis at guard. Teddy Fields may be back at his old position at end.

Last Sunday's miserable showing by the backs may be straightened out when Happeny will call signals, Witkowski and Eagles at fullback and either Lucas or Angelo at full. Brown and Harburta are coming along fast and may be given the call over the rest of the squad. George Brown is almost ready to relieve Anderson at center for at least part of the game and Leggett is also ready now for more time in the game.

The practice tonight will be at 6:30 o'clock sharp.

CONCERT TO BENEFIT EDUCATIONAL CLUB

Plans are being made and tickets will go on sale Monday for a concert to be given Monday evening, November 13, in the High school hall, for the benefit of the Educational club. The finance committee of the club is apportioning the performance, and the proceeds will be applied to the fund for welfare work among the school children in the various districts in town. This year, as before, the Educational club has assumed the financial responsibility for the Dental Hygiene work in the schools, as well as free milk for needy children, nutrition classes, which include regular dinners served in the district clinic, chest clinic with X-ray work, when necessary, and free glasses in cases of severe eye conditions and inability to pay. The work is entirely for the children of this town and the sponsors would greatly appreciate the patronage and co-operation of the townspeople. Tickets for this concert may be obtained from members of the Educational Club.

NEGRO CHOIR TO SING FOR TRI-COUNTY UNION

A chorus of Negro voices will sing a program of spirituals for the October program of the Tri-county Christian Union which is to be given in the Marlborough Congregational church Sunday evening at 7:30. The Rev. James Wright, pastor of the Talcott street church and his young people's choir will furnish the program. Mr. Wright will speak on "The Congregational Influence in the Life of the Negro." Miss Diella Parks will sing "Deep River," and Lester S. Wilson will sing "Nobody Knows." Albert Jones will read "Creation" by James Weldon Johnson and "Little Brown Baby" by Dunbar. The choir will render the following numbers: "Every Time I Feel the Spirit," "Were You There," "Study War No More," "Shine On Me," "Swing Low," and "Steal Away."

LaGUARDIA IS LEADING IN DIGEST BALLOTING

New York, Oct. 27.—The latest report by the Literary Digest on its poll in the New York City mayoral campaign showed Fiorello H. LaGuardia, fusion candidate, still maintaining his lead, with Joseph V. McKee, Recovery Party candidate, making sharp gains in the last week. Of the 452,738 votes counted, LaGuardia received 217,589 or 48.06 per cent; McKee, 168,745 votes, or 37.49 per cent, while John P. O'Brien, Tammany candidate, 51,562 or 11.39 per cent. Mayor O'Brien's percentage showed a steady decline while McKee gained appreciably since the last report. LaGuardia's percentage lead slipped fractionally. Charles Solomon, Socialist candidate, gained fractionally during the week, but the miscellaneous return and his vote showed the vote will be cast almost intact among the three major candidates.

TEACHERS OF STATE HOLD PARLEYS TODAY

(By Associated Press) The public schools in Connecticut were closed today as teachers met in New Haven and Hartford for their annual state convention.

Teachers in the southern half of the state held sessions simultaneously at Woolsey Hall and the Commercial high school auditorium in New Haven, while teachers from the northern section met in the Horace Bushnell Memorial hall at Hartford. In centering its convention in two cities, the Connecticut State Teachers Association inaugurated a new policy, the convention having been scattered in previous years in several other cities as well as New Haven and Hartford.

Prominent educators were speakers for the morning and afternoon sessions, while discussions of common problems of the teachers were scheduled for the luncheon meetings.

WOMAN KILLS SELF
New London, Oct. 27.—(AP)—Despondent because of ill health, Mrs. Isabelle Proctor, about 55, wife of James A. Proctor, a fireman in the employ of the New Haven railroad, committed suicide by asphyxiation in the kitchen of her home at 38 Waller Court this morning. Opening the gas supply on the kitchen range she seated herself before the stove and, after covering her head with a blanket, placed her head on the range. She was dead when a neighbor found her.

NOTED ARCHITECT DIES
Virginia Water, England, Oct. 27.—(AP)—Sir John Harvard Biles, 79, noted naval architect, died today.

Besides serving as assessor in the Titanic disaster inquiry in 1912, Sir John also testified in 1929 before the board of trade in the inquiry into the loss of the Vestris.

SENSE and NONSENSE

Keep pushing—'tis wiser than sitting aside. And sighing and watching and waiting the tide. In life's earnest battle they only prevail. Who always march onward and never say fall.

A colored country preacher who was strong on visiting the female members of his flock, was traveling along the road to the home of one of his congregation when he met Parson—Where's your mother? Small Negro—She's home. Parson—Where's your Paw? Small Negro—He's home. Parson—Tell 'em 'Howdy' fuh me.

A farmer was asked the other day how he found the weather out at his place. He replied, "Oh, I just looked outside the house and there it was."

The Sweet Young Thing entered the office of a fashionable dog kennel and tripped up to the handsome young man at the desk: Sweet Young Thing (cooing)—I want a pet. Handsome Young Man (sadly)—I'd love to, but the boss is very strict.

A man stepped up to a grocer's cigar counter and bought two ten-cent cigars. A Scotchman who was waiting to be served pushed forward: Scotchman—You sell those cigars three for a quarter, don't you? Grocer—Yes. Scotchman—Well, here's a nickel, I'll take the other one.

"Cities to Get a Break" says a newspaper headline. It's a well-known fact that a good many of them are almost or totally broke.

Old Ragson Tatters from Brushville says: "There are two kinds of people, good and bad. The classifying is usually done by the good."

The following "fish story" is told us by a local fisherman. He vows that not long ago while on a fishing expedition he reeled a snake which had just caught a frog. Desiring the frog for bait, he tried unsuccessfully by plodding and other means to make the snake release its prey; finally he pulled out a flask and poured a little liquor in the snake's mouth. The snake dropped the frog and sithered away.

Sometime later, the fisherman felt a tug at his trousers, and found the snake, looking up expectantly—another and larger frog in his mouth.

I wonder who invented work, anyway? Friend—You should worry, you'll never infringe on his patent.

CLEAN FOOTBALL by JOCK SUTHERLAND FAMOUS PITTS COACH

A COUPLE of years ago officials banned the flying tackle, thinking it would reduce the number of grid accidents. But it's still used on rare occasions.

A flying tackle is somewhat similar in effect to clipping; unlike clipping, it is more likely to result in injury to the tackler as well as the runner. As used today, it is brought into play when a runner is loose in an open field and likely to score.

The runner, if the tackle is successful, is thrown heavily to the ground due to the momentum of the tackler and himself. Broken bones are common in this type of tackle, and not only that, but the tackler is threatened with the flying cleats of the runner, and with having a knee planted in his face if the tackle is made from the front or side.

The sketch shows a flying tackle from the rear.
