

ASK TIME TO STUDY RATE SUGGESTIONS

Electric Company Officials Tell Commission They'll Study Them Carefully.

A conference regarding the electric rates charged in Manchester by the Manchester Electric Company was held in the rooms of the Public Utilities Commission at the State Capitol today between members of the Commission, the lighting company and officials of the town.

Ferguson's Statement Certain proposals, which were not divulged, were made and considered and the company asked for time in which to study the proposals.

"I wish to state on behalf of the company that every suggestion which may be made will be carefully considered, and that the fact that we may have hitherto refused to consider the same will have no weight in this discussion, which is to be based on the 'policies' rather than on the 'rights' of both parties.

Analysis Every suggestion will be analyzed from the following aspects, and the analyses submitted to the conference for discussion: (a) As to good will and public relationship; (b) as to the effect on the company's dividends; (c) as to a stimulant of business; (d) as to economic soundness.

"For purposes of discussion I suggest that figures submitted by the company be considered as correct, but agree that engineers and accountants of the Commission shall have free access to all books and dates of the company for purposes of verification when same may be desired."

Another Conference It was announced that another conference will be held in about ten days, at which time definite proposals covering the matter will be submitted by the company. The conference today was opened by Chairman Richard T. Higgins, with Commissioners Joseph W. Alsop and Edwy L. Taylor also sitting in. Messrs. Alsop and Taylor retired shortly after the opening, however. E. Irvine Rudd, chief engineer for the Public Utilities Commission, acted as chairman. Others who attended included Francis J. Duchselle, accountant and advisor for the Commission; General Manager Parker Soren, of the Manchester Electric Company; President Samuel Ferguson, of the Manchester Electric Company; Town Counsel William S. Hyde and Selectmen Aaron Cook, Sherwood Bowers and John Jenney.

concentrate men at points where they are needed but we will go slowly into the question of whether we should take men out of the wet states and put them into the dry states.

"The revenue law presents another question. There are moonshiners in dry states. If the Treasury takes over revenue cases we will leave our men chiefly in dry states. But the sources of supply in wet states may be such that we couldn't concentrate entirely in the dry states.

"We shall have to feel our way into the problem and follow the lead. States really wanting to be dry will have the cooperation we can give them and they must cooperate with us."

HARTFORD C. OF C. BACKS PLAN TO DEEPEN RIVER

Hartford, Dec. 7.—(AP)—Directors of the Hartford Chamber of Commerce, in a mail referendum voted to ask government officials in Washington approve an appropriation of approximately $660,000 to widen and deepen the Connecticut river below Hartford, it was announced today by Charles E. Whitely, executive vice president of the Chamber. The appropriation would come from the $14,000,000 made available for the improvement of waterways, it is understood, and project has already been recommended by the War Department.

SOAP AND WATER WOULD CUT LIGHTING COSTS

One-third of the total annual lighting bill of the American people might be saved by better maintenance, according to Samuel G. Hibben, of the Westinghouse Lamp Company, in a statement at a Conference on Economics of Applied Lighting.

"Based on the expenditure of one billion dollars which was spent last year in this country for artificial light, a saving of $300,000,000 might have been made," said Mr. Hibben. "The maintenance of lighting efficiency, which consists largely of keeping the globes clean is often neglected, except in some factories and large buildings where the size of the lighting installation is so expensive that every detail of efficient operation is taken into consideration.

"The general public does not know how to get the most light for the money expended for electricity. Water is much cheaper than water, but it is astonishing in industry and elsewhere how seldom, on the lamps, lamps and reflectors are properly washed.

"If the lighting fixtures are not cleaned frequently, the accumulation of dirt and dust will certainly cut down on the amount of light emanating from the lamp. In many instances it may appear that a larger and brighter lamp is needed. But the application of a little soap and water, or the mere dusting of the lamp with a damp cloth, may restore its original efficiency.

"If all our lighting installations and their immediate surroundings could be cleaned thoroughly and re-conditioned today," said Mr. Hibben, "then the illumination that this nation enjoyed yesterday and last night would be well-nigh doubled today."

PIONEER MERCHANT DIES

Middletown, Dec. 7.—(AP)—Jacob Pollner, 70, pioneer shoe merchant here, died at his home last night and was buried this afternoon. Judge Israel Polgar of this city court is a son, and there are two other sons, and a daughter, the latter of New Britain. Pollner had been in business here 48 years. He was well informed in Judaism and often had been a cantor to the local congregation. Members of the family said he knew the five books of the Talmud by heart.

REAL ESTATE MEN REVIEW SITUATION

Leaders See Increased Activity in the Immediate Future.

Albany, N. Y., Dec. 7.—(AP)—Declaring that high taxation and improper financing were the two major causes of present real estate troubles, Joseph W. Catherine of Brooklyn, new president of the Real Estate Association of New York, today said that the real estate outlook is "the brightest it has been for years."

Mr. Catherine, installed today as the 30th president of the organization to succeed U. G. Stockwell of Albany, addressed real estate men from all sections of the state. "Increased activity in the immediate future," he said. "Inflated values have vanished. The unsettled security market and threatened inflation bring real estate investments into unusual importance. It is commonly believed that the general shakedown in over-mortgaged properties has about reached its limit. The Home Owners Loan Corporation is rendering a distinct service in the mortgage field. For several years there has been very little new home construction, families have doubled up, marriages have been postponed.

More People Working "We are now facing a turn in the road. The NRA is sending people back to work and this will undoubtedly start a demand for better housing."

Mr. Catherine emphasized the necessity for tax revision to relieve real estate. He advocated speeding of the tax bases by the state so that relief could be granted the localities. He also recommended a coordination of state and Federal revenue systems and the levying of a Federal sales tax to be shared with the various states.

Other officers installed were Donald T. Pomeroy of Syracuse, vice president; J. Russell Thorne of Binghamton, secretary; and Charles T. Male of Schenectady, treasurer. Ray Hafford starts his fifth term as executive vice president.

FINLAND ONLY NATION TO PAY DEBT TO U. S.

To Hand Over Full Amount Due—Has Been Doing So Since Loan Was Made.

Washington, Dec. 7.—(AP)—Finland will keep up its record as a payer-in-full and turn over to the United States $229,623 on December 15, the full amount due on its war debt obligations.

After a visit to acting Secretary of State Phillips today the Finnish minister, L. Astrom, told newsmen that his government had decided to continue its full payment policy in accordance with the United States agreement with the United States.

Finland stands alone in this respect. It is the only country which has met all its obligations up to date. The Finnish minister said he had no instructions as to whether he should ask for a revision of the funding agreement.

Twelve countries would pay the United States a total of $158,024,327 on December 15 should all make full installment payments, but several already have given notice of making "token" payments.

Great Britain offered $7,500,000 of its total installment due of $17,870,765. This offer was accepted by President Roosevelt. Italy offered $1,000,000 on a total payment due of $2,133,905. Czechoslovakia made an offer of $100,000 as a token payment on $1,682,812.

France, Belgium and other countries which went into complete default of their payments due June 15 have not indicated any change in their war debt policy.

LIBRARIAN REVIEWS BOOKS BEFORE WOMEN

Tells Members of the Center Church Federation of New Volumes—Work on Hospital Dressings.

Miss Jeannette Smith, librarian of the South Manchester library, and Mrs. Snyder of Hartford were the guest speakers at the meeting of the Center Church Women's Federation yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Snyder gave a lecture-demonstration on how the church women might earn money by their arts. One of the mixers was offered as a prize to the one holding the lucky number yesterday, and Mrs. Katherine Finley of Park street drew it.

Miss Smith talked while the women worked on surgical dressings for the Memorial hospital. She reviewed several biographies, among them "Ann Sullivan Macy," "Who was Helen Keller's teacher," "My Father," a biography of Hitler, "Hitler's Reich," and "Germany Enters the Third Reich." On Russia, "First to Go Back," and "The Great Offensive."

Miss Smith commented on Alice Roosevelt Longworth's new book, "Crowded Hours," also on "The Short Bible," an adaptation of the American Bible. She suggested two books in which men would be interested, "Rabble in Arms," and "Jonathan Bishop." Other books of interest to both men and women were "The Old Man Dies," "Hostages of Fortune," "No Second Springs," "Flight From a City," and "Bonnie," a story of Vermont.

A social time with refreshments followed with Mrs. Leon Fogli, Mrs. Paul Agard and Mrs. Edward Monte as hostesses.

DON'T ROCK THE BOAT SAYS NRA OFFICIAL

Boston Merchant Tells Business Men—Says It Is Too Early to Complain Now.

Washington, Dec. 7.—(AP)—Advice which spelled "don't rock the boat" was passed out to American business men today by one of their own number who has been inside the works at NRA.

With labor pressing hard for representation on code authorities, and the administration squeezed between important pending demands, special significance attached to a public statement by Louis Kirstein, Boston merchant, just retired by rotation as chairman of NRA's industrial advisory board, which urged businessmen to dwell on long term objectives and view "promising prospects."

The statement announced as having the full support of the entire board of industrialists, said: "By its intelligent and reasonable conduct industry can through this temporary experience (the NRA's present two-year career) prove its sincerity and reasonableness and can lead the way to such a permanent basis of improved relations as will endure to the benefit of all concerned."

World production of boots and shoes during the first half of this year reached the grand total of 675,000,000 pairs.

NEW FOOD RULINGS FOR STATE'S TAVERNS

After Dec. 14 They May Sell Only Sandwiches, Cold Salads and Light Lunches.

Hartford, Dec. 7.—(AP)—Nothing but "sandwiches and light lunches consisting only of cold meats, cheeses, crackers, pretzels and cold salads," may be sold in the taverns of the state, after December 14, according to regulations promulgated by the state liquor control commission today.

The new regulations, substituted for Section 7, concerning tavern permits, amplify the former regulations on the subject of food in taverns by forbidding the sale of any other food than that specified. Before, the taverns were limited only to a 25 cent maximum charge for food, and some sold hot sandwiches and other dishes, offering competition to restaurants.

The new regulations also require applicants for tavern permits to indicate strict compliance with the control law, that premises are separate from those of any other form of business, and that the owner is equipped to start business immediately on receiving the permit. Motions or petitions for re-opening of denials or revocations of permits are also required to be filed within seven days of the denials or revocations, a new regulation, which becomes effective immediately.

JEWEL THIEF ARRESTED AFTER SMASHING WINDOW

TROLLEY CO. ASKS HELP OF SHOPPER

Cooperation During the Christmas Rush Sought—Suggest Hours.

To housewives particularly, but generally to all whose business or lack of business will enable compliance, the Connecticut Company today issued what for many years has been an annual request to conduct their Christmas shopping tours of central districts during the hours between 10:00 a. m. and 4:00 p. m., and to avoid in this manner the inconvenience to themselves and others which will result if they permit themselves to become entangled with the traffic rush hour crowds.

Although the depression has reduced to a substantial extent the number of people involved in the rush hours, riding to and returning from their places of employment, these nevertheless are still the peak periods of traffic and the general bustle which must result when thousands of people are seeking transportation at the same time will continue to take place.

If the shoppers, always a large group at the Christmas season approaches, are added to the rush hour crowd, there must result a condition in which both groups cannot fail to be annoyed by traffic jams and delays. Naturally, the people who have to go to and return from work at specified hours have no control over this situation. They must ride the street cars at regular hours each morning and afternoon. Avoiding of such tangles thus rests entirely with the shoppers.

By making Christmas purchases between the hours of 10:00 a. m. and 4:00 p. m., the shoppers can not only assist in alleviating traffic conditions and saving the working members of their families from delays, but they can help themselves considerably since they will have the stores and clerks to themselves.

Christmas Candy

Mrs. Robert Hawley who is taking charge of the sale of Christmas candy for the Manchester Girl Scouts, is setting the goal at 1000 pounds. If every member of the Girl Scout organization does their best they ought to realize her wishes. The candy is being obtained from Burnham and Brady of Hartford, makers of high grade candy and 100 per cent pure. This ribbon candy is made extra thin, in eight different flavors, and packed in attractive red boxes, especially for Manchester Girl Scouts, who have the exclusive sale in the town. As the organization is in need of the financial aid they are asking the support of everyone who wants a box of delicious candy for themselves or a gift, for no Christmas is complete without ribbon candy. Almost everyone who purchased last year is reordering this year, and the committee feel that they have a better product than last year. Watch for the display in the Center Pharmacy this week, which E. J. Murphy is kindly making for the scouts, also the opinion of Marianne in the Herald "Bargain Hound", when she discovers these bright red boxes of delicious candies. The scout captains are requested to get their orders to Mrs. Hawley, Tel. 5588 by Wednesday, December 13, and she will have the candy at the following places Friday evening, so that it may be delivered Saturday, December 16.

Troop 10, Mrs. N. A. Burr, 14 Park street; Troop 2, Mrs. L. T. Wood, 20 Spruce street; Troop 3, Captain Wilkie will tell the girls Monday; Troop 4, Mrs. Louis Marie, 22 Benton street; Troop 5, Mrs. Fred Harvey, 86 Cambridge street; Troop 6, Mrs. Robert Hawley, 20 Coburn Road; Troop 7, Mrs. David Armstrong, 1023 Tolland Turnpike; Troop 8, Mrs. Sidney Wheaton, 23 Autumn street; Troop 9, Miss Eather Sutherland, 163 Eldridge street; Troop 11, Mrs. Edward Brozman, 85 Hudson street.

Troop 2 held its meeting Monday at the Nathan Hale school and called it Our Play Meeting. We sang Christmas carols and are learning "The Girl Scout Hymn." Mrs. Hawley was a visitor and told us about the Christmas party. Captain Durkee announced that we would have our Christmas party, December 18. The girls are undecided whether to give a play or have speeches. Margaret Rufin was given a party at Mrs. Wood's home. After that the seven girls present worked on pins for Christmas presents. Seven more girls are going up to Mrs. Wood's to work on pins. Scribe—Margaret Johnson.

Troop 3 We held our weekly meeting Monday at the Nathan Hale school. After dues were taken, we worked on Christmas presents. Some of the girls worked on pictures and others on holders. Shirley Horn and Barbara Ubert passed some of their tenderfoot work. Gloria Dellefara and Hedwig Ruther passed some of their second class work. We decided to have our Christmas party at a troop meeting instead of at night. The girls will draw names and bring

GOVERNMENT PORK FOR CHARITY ONLY

Those Families on Relief Lists Will Alone Get Consignment of Meat.

Orders have been received by Assistant Charity Superintendent Albert E. Behrend from Town Treasurer George H. Waddell to distribute free salt pork only to families on the town's charity list.

1,900 Pounds Available. Heretofore Mr. Behrend has given some of the government pork to families known to be destitute but not on the charity list. However, under the new ruling, only recipients of charity from the town will benefit by the distribution of the pork. At present there are 1,900 pounds of pork available, according to Mr. Behrend. Fifty-one pounds were given away over the past weekend. The pork is kept in refrigerators at the plant of L. T. Wood on Bissell street.

Application slips sent to the charity department by the government list butter, flour, corned beef, roast beef and cereal wheat as commodities for the poor and needy, but so far only salt pork has been received.

Men employed on CWA projects, of course, are not entitled to the government rations. Women Workers. Contact between women seeking housework by the day and women wanting such work, has been established by the town, Mr. Waddell said today. Widows and girls in a position to do housework by the day may determine where work of this type is available by applying either to Miss Gladys L. Keith or to Mrs. Alice D. Johnston, both of whom may be found at the Town Hall.

Although 200 women registered for jobs with the Manchester Emergency Employment Association, and 25 appeared to file applications this year before the CWA took over the task of registering the names, nothing has yet been done by the government to enroll these women under the CWA. It has been found, however, that there are numerous women and girls sorely in need of employment. Those willing to do housework by the day may locate jobs, if any happen to be available, by communicating with Miss Keith or Mrs. Johnston, according to Mr. Waddell.

C. C. C. Applications. At least 25 young men have applied during the past month to Mr. Behrend for enlistment in the Civilian Conservation Corps, but as there are no openings at the present time nothing much to aid them can be done except to take their names for reference in the event additional jobs are created by the government or the local quota increased.

The 26 Manchester men given work under the State Forestry Department are engaged clearing fire breaks in the Black Forest at the end of Line street on the Manchester-Glastonbury line, Hayden Griswold, contact man for the local CWA, said today.

HAZARDOUS TREE LIMBS TO BE CUT

Harry F. Sweet Put On Park Department Payroll to Do the Work.

Work removing dangerous limbs on trees in the streets of the town, and trimming the trees, will be started by the park department next week. Superintendent of Parks Horace F. Murphy announced today, Mr. Murphy said the work will keep the two regular outside park department employees busy all winter.

Harry F. Sweet, of Franklin street, a tree expert, will be placed on the regular park department payroll to do the dangerous work and the tree climbing. The appropriation to pay for Mr. Sweet's services is approximately $500, Mr. Murphy said. It was deemed best to place Mr. Sweet on the department payroll instead of giving him a contract to do the work. Expenses for tree work are charged to the item for parks, tree work and spraying.

Andrew Sroka and G. P. Skewes are the only outside men regularly on the park department payroll. They have been engaged in recent weeks raking leaves and doing other odd jobs about the parks, according to Mr. Murphy. Handicapped by a greatly reduced appropriation, Mr. Murphy has been forced to curtail on needed improvements in the parks. Sroka and Skewes will assist Sweet in trimming the trees and removing dangerous limbs. They will do the ground work, however.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE—WITHOUT CALOMEL

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

If you feel sour and snaky and the world looks pink, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral water, oil, laxatives, candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine.

For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily.

If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas builds up your stomach. You have a flat "no" and up. They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely. But don't take liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. The Original Challengers held their regular meeting Tuesday night at the home of Mrs. Lusier. Three girls joined the Club, Ethel Wagner, Ethel Little and Evelyn Bach. The girls planned a Christmas party to be held at their next meeting, December 19, at which time a Christmas basket will be filled and sent to some needy family in town. All girls worked on articles for the Country Fair.

Bernice Lipp, a member of the Original Challengers and 4-H reporter, has gone to Syracuse, New York, for a visit. Irene Kissman, president of the Original Challengers, has moved to Coventry but attended the club meeting.

The Fairy Needle Club held its meeting Tuesday at the home of Avis Palmer. The newly elected officers took charge of the meeting. They are as follows: President, Lois Kelsch; vice-president, Loretta Champagne; secretary, Emma Dietz and treasurer, Elena Keeney. The girls voted to make articles to be given as Christmas gifts to orphaned children. They also planned to exchange gifts at their next meeting which will be in the form of a Christmas party. On December 19 Mrs. Keeney will entertain the girls at her home.

The first meeting of the new board of directors will be held at the County building, Friday, December 8. The local directors are Mrs. Harry Lusier and Franklin Lipp. The group will discuss their particular problems and plan work for the coming year. They will then be addressed by a speaker from the State Agricultural College.

A meeting of the boys 4-H club will be held Friday, December 8 at the home of Wilber Little of Spencer street. Mr. Anderson, County Club Agent, will attend and assist the boys in some of their dairy problems. Every member is urged to be present.

More 4-H news soon.

ZANZIBAR TWINS LEAVE HERE SATURDAY NIGHT

The Zanzibar Twins, the strangest people ever created are now on exhibit at 807 Main street former location of the Home Bank. Members of a tribe that are the lowest form of human life they are man's nearest living link to Darwin's theory of descent through evolution from the ape. Not idiots but human beings they have their own guttural language, customs and habits. Over 100 compose this tribe yet Zip, formerly a feature with Barnum, and the twins now on exhibit here are the only specimens of the tribe ever brought off the island for appearances before the people of this country or any other.

John, the Australian bushman, appears daily in the store window as a free attraction. An artist of considerable ability he has entertained hundreds of shoppers this week. Miss Watkins, the turtle girl, another special attraction, is undoubtedly one of the strangest freaks of nature on exhibition in America today. She is exactly what she is represented to be.

This exhibit will positively close Saturday night and those interested in seeing this truly worth while exhibit are urged to make their plans to do so before that time.

WARNS MERCHANTS TO OBSERVE LAW

Commissioner of Agriculture Says Farm Products Must Be Protected.

Hartford, Dec. 7.—Three merchants were warned in the Hartford police court this week that any future violations of "An Act Concerning the Protection of Grades For Farm Products" would carry the maximum penalty. The charges preferred by Commissioner of Agriculture Olcott F. King dealt specifically with the use of the word "fancy" on turkeys that did not conform to the standards of the Connecticut Fancy Grade.

Although the law becomes effective on July 1, this marked the first time that the Commissioner has had to resort to court proceedings in order to enforce the provisions of the act. Commissioner King in commenting upon the case said:

"Merchants throughout the state have been notified by personal letters through the provisions of the act. I would prefer to have the law enforced without the use of the courts but there was such a wholesale disregard for the act and specific warnings from my office that something had to be done. While these cases deal with turkeys, the law applies to all farm products for which Connecticut grades have been established. We have allowed ample time for merchants to become informed and it is now our intention to enforce the law even though it may cause the arrest of prominent merchants."

The law entitled "An Act Concerning the Protection of Grades For Farm Products" is as follows: "No person shall use words, titles or names designated by the commissioner of agriculture, under the provisions of chapter 107 of the general statutes, for use in grading or marketing of farm products, unless the products which he is identifying, advertising, designating or describing thereby shall fully meet the requirements of the official grade indicated by such words, titles or names. If, in the opinion of the commissioner or his representative, such any lot or lots of such products so identified, advertised, designated or described are not of the grade indicated, said commissioner shall cause inspections thereof to be made by regularly appointed inspectors for the purpose of determining the actual grade of such products."

"Any person, firm or corporation which shall violate any provision of this act shall be fined not more than fifty dollars for the first offense and not more than two hundred dollars for each subsequent offense."

EXPERIMENT PRODUCES 68,500 CALICO BASS

Rearing Ponds Through State Planned as Result of Success in New London.

Hartford, Dec. 7.—A state-wide system of bass rearing ponds for the natural propagation of calico bass with which to restock failing waters of the state, is planned by the State Board of Fisheries and Game as the result of an unusually successful experiment just completed at a New London pond under which 68,500 of the fish were increased without artificial feeding to 68,500 in less than two years, a bulletin of the Board announces today. The only expense to the Board was the labor of netting and transporting the fish.

"With the cooperation of the New London Chapter of the Izak Walton League, which also furnished the pond employed in the experiment, snapping turtles which prey upon fish were trapped out, the pond drained and surveyed to determine its natural food content," Eben W. Cobb, Chief of the Division of Fish Restoration, states in his report on the experiment. "Investigations revealed an adequate supply of crustaceans and aquatic insects which comprise important natural foods of these fish."

"In the spring of 1932 the pond was reflooded and a brood stock of 68 mature bass introduced. Multiplying and thriving on their natural foods, the stock was found to have increased a thousand-fold when the pond was recently drained again. A total of 68,500 calico bass, measuring up to seven inches in length, were removed. The fish were placed in tank trucks and planted in the following places: Horse Pond, Salem; Gardiner's Lake, Bozrah; Oxbow Lake, Montville; and Patagansett Lake, East Lyme."

"Establishment of similar rearing ponds in all counties, coupled with netting of waters where the species has been introduced, will permit stocking of all suitable ponds and lakes with these fish. Originally they were native to but a few ponds and lakes in the southern part of the State. They are particularly valuable as a food supply for larger game fishes, bass and pickerel can cause no interference with them."

FEW SALES OF LIQUOR REPORTED IN ROCKVILLE

Stronger Beer Only Redeeming Feature of Repeal; Residents Dislike Having to Buy Quarts.

The repeal of the 18th Amendment and the restoration of hard liquor in Rockville proved a big disappointment. The few package stores which opened in Rockville, or which have been in existence in this community, put liquor on sale yesterday and were seriously disappointed as to the turnover. Few sales were recorded.

The fact that it was impossible to purchase it in any form except in quart bottles proved the biggest disappointment, as many people hoped to spend a quarter or a half dollar for a highball to try out the liquor.

Another disappointment was the fact that there was no place to purchase liquor after 6 o'clock when the package stores were compelled to close for the day, meaning that the night parties found it difficult to secure liquor.

One point of interest was the fact that many of the taverns and restaurants dispensing beer and wine had the new grade of beer and wine which proved quite "appetizing."

The package stores are handicapped by the following notice received from the Connecticut Liquor Control Board:

"A wholesale or a package store permit will be revoked if the permittee or backer shall by sample, by soliciting or procuring orders, or otherwise, sell any alcoholic liquor except such as may be owned, possessed and kept by the permittee or the backer on the premises designated in the permit as the place of sale of said permittee or in the place of storage approved by the commission."

This kept the package stores from taking orders yesterday.

Health Commission Speaks
Dr. Stanley H. Osborne, Connecticut State Commissioner of Health, addressed the Rockville Lions Club at their semi-monthly luncheon at the Rockville House last evening at 6:15 o'clock. A turkey dinner was served to twenty-seven of the members of the Club under the personal supervision of Mrs. Ellen Chapdelaine, hostess of the Rockville House.

Following a short business session, Dr. Osborne, who is widely known for his health work, delivered a very interesting talk on the work now being undertaken in Connecticut by the State Health Department. He also pointed out to the light which is being made in Connecticut for the elimination of tuberculosis.

Lights Restored
With the voting of the sum of $12,000 for the municipal appropriation for street lights, the Rockville-Williamantic Lighting Company lost no time in starting work of restoring the lights which had been eliminated a year ago when the street light appropriation was cut from $12,000 to $10,000.

Close to 20 per cent of the street lights had been eliminated by the lighting company when the appropriation was cut $2,000 by the annual city meeting a year ago.

The immediate restoration of the lights was appreciated by many of the prominent taxpayers who brought up the matter at the annual city meeting Tuesday evening as to how long it would be before the lights would be restored.

Mayor-elect George Scheets, who as an Alderman was chairman of the lighting committee, stated that the lights would be restored immediately, not later than Thursday.

Rockville Defeats Manchester
In what was considered a practice game for the big game between the Rockville High School and the Manchester High School at the Sykes School Gym in Rockville on Friday evening, the Rockville High School basketball squad defeated the Manchester Trade School yesterday afternoon by a score of 7 to 1. This was a fast and exciting game although Coach Arthur E. Chatterton of the Rockville High School used mostly his second team, as two of his star players were laid up with a cold, including the captain.

Mrs. Louise (Niece) Mehl
Mrs. Louise Mehl, 71, of this town died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Joseph Lutz, 88 Francis street, Burnside yesterday noon of pneumonia. Mrs. Mehl was born in Germany and came to Rockville when a child. Mr. and Mrs. Mehl celebrated their golden wedding anniversary three years ago.

She is survived by her husband, Herman Mehl, one daughter, Mrs. Joseph Lutz of Burnside; one sister, Mrs. Clayton E. Holmes of Manchester and several nieces and nephews. Mrs. Mehl was a member of the First Lutheran church of this town, also of the Ladies Aid society and the Ladies Circle and the Ladies Benefit Association of the church and the Ladies' Singer Women.

The funeral will be held Saturday at 1:15 p. m. at the home of her daughter in Burnside, and at 2:30 p. m. from the First Lutheran church. Rev. Klette, pastor of the church will officiate and burial will be in Grove Hill cemetery.

Rockville High School Schedule
Coach Arthur E. Chatterton of the Rockville High School today announced the schedule of the basketball games as far as completed, showing an active season. Three games have been played so far: the third yesterday afternoon when the Rockville team defeated the Manchester Trade School at Rockville.

It is to be played Friday evening in the Sykes School Gymnasium when the Rockville High School squad meet the star team from the Manchester High School. Games will

ROCKVILLE BANK TO BE ABSORBED

Will Become Branch of the Hartford-Connecticut Trust Company Soon.

Rockville, Dec. 7.—The Rockville National Bank is soon to pass into history after nearly 70 years as a national bank and after nearly 80 years as a state bank. Shortly before New Year's Rockville's new bank will be known as "The Rockville Branch of the Hartford-Connecticut Trust Company," with a capitalization of $4,000,000. Under its present status the capitalization is limited to $100,000 as provided in its charter.

To Absorb Other Banks
Rockville is not alone in losing its distinction of having a national bank for four other banks, namely the First National Bank of Meriden, the First National Bank of Middletown, and the First National Bank of Stafford Springs as well as the Wethersfield Bank and Trust Company are to be absorbed by the Hartford-Connecticut Trust Company.

The Hartford-Connecticut Trust Company has owned substantially all of the capital stock of the above banks, consisting of 12,000 shares. By reason of the adoption by the Federal Government of the "Banking Act of 1933" certain definite restrictions and limitations have been imposed upon affiliates of banks which are members of the Federal Reserve system and holding company affiliates which own or control the stock of banks which are members of this system, necessitating a decision as to the future of these banks.

Transfer of Assets
Branch banking is now authorized by the laws of Connecticut and the directors of the Hartford-Connecticut Trust Company recommend that the company carry out the purpose for which it was organized and transfer its assets to the Hartford-Connecticut Trust Company in exchange for shares of stock in the trust company which would thereafter operate as branches of the banks in which the company has a controlling stock interest.

In addition to the shares of stock which the company owns in the banks and after allowing for the anticipated cost of acquisition of directors qualifying and other minority shares in these banks, the company has cash and securities, at market value as of November 14, 1933, amounting to $689,590.10 which would be transferred to the trust company if the company and the trust company comes to an agreement, which is most certain.

The ratio or basis of exchange of shares of the company's stock for trust company stock will correspond as nearly as may be proportionately to the value of the assets of the two companies at the time the assets are acquired by the trust company.

Stockholders Meet
A meeting of the stockholders of the Hartford-Connecticut Trust Company was held on November 29 at which time action was taken approving the plan and a committee appointed to represent their interest in any negotiations to be held. They also voted on the purchasing of the 12,000 shares of stock of the company and retiring all the present voting stock, which is now owned by the trust company, at a price equivalent to its proportionate share of the value of the company's assets.

The stock transfer books of the company, by vote of the directors, were closed at the close of business November 22 and will remain closed until December 11.

Rockville Vitrally Interested
Rockville financiers are vitally interested in the transfer of the Hartford-Connecticut Trust Company to the Hartford-Connecticut Trust Company and have considerable money invested in the latter concern.

William Maxwell, treasurer of the Rockanum Mills Company, is a trustee of the Hartford-Connecticut Trust Company. Frederick N. Belding of Rockville is a member of the committee of nine of the Hartford-Connecticut Trust Company, which acted for this company at the meeting on November 29 and which committee held the proxies of the shareholders in voting the transfer of the stock.

The Board of Directors of the Rockville National Bank are as follows: Francis T. Maxwell, William Maxwell, Charles Phelps, David A. Sykes, Charles A. Thompson, George B. Hammond, Sherwood C. Cummings, Frederick N. Belding, Marshall E. Charter, Frederick H. Holt, Edward L. Newmark, John G. Talcott, A. Leroy Martin, John E. Flak, Lebbett F. Bissell, George Arnold, Jr., Arthur T. Bissell, Charles M. Squires, Lester E. Shippee.

The officers of the Rockville National Bank are as follows: President, Col. Francis T. Maxwell; vice-presidents, John G. Talcott, Charles Phelps; cashier and trust officer, Frederick H. Holt; assistant cashier and assistant trust officer, William F. Partridge; assistant trust officer, Marguerite E. Moxon.

Employees' Status
The point of supreme interest in Rockville today is the status of the officers, directors and staff of the Rockville National Bank under the re-organization when it will become the "Rockville Branch" of the Hartford-Connecticut Trust Company.

This question was partly settled yesterday by an interview with Lester E. Shippee, president of the Hartford-Connecticut Trust Company and vice-president of the Hartford-Connecticut Trust Company, who is in charge of much of the transfer work.

It was learned that a new Board of Directors of the trust company will include several, possibly three, members of the directorates of the banks which are absorbed by the trust company.

It was also learned that the "Parent Concern" will not absorb all the memberships of the individual directorate boards as this would be contrary to law.

The present boards of directors will continue to function as "Boards of Management" in their individual communities, according to information received.

Another point of interest is that

20,000 NAZIS GATHER AT NEW YORK MEETING

New York, Dec. 7.—(AP)—Madison Square Garden thundered with Nazi cheers last night as 20,000 gathered for the long delayed German Day celebration of the Steuben Society of America.

Fifteen persons—eleven men and four women—were hustled from the hall by police when they attempted to demonstrate. All were released after the meeting. The crowd cheered good-naturedly as the officers quickly pounced on disturbers and there was a minimum of trouble.

Manhood and true religion therefore have much in common. Reviewing the history of the church and the influence of materialism on the Protestant faith, he said that to enter the kingdom of heaven brought to earth and expressed in terms of rich material life it will be necessary to have a reformation even greater than that of Luther and Calvin.

Old Christianity "I am wondering if the religion we shall need during the next hundred years will not have much more in common with the Christianity of the second and third centuries or possibly even with that of the Middle Ages than with the Protestantism of the past one hundred years," he added.

URGES SANITARY WORK UNDER CWA

Communities Can Accomplish Many Jobs - Types Are Described.
Use of Civil Works Administration funds by Connecticut cities and towns not only to relieve the unemployed but also to carry on needed sanitary improvements which have been held in abeyance by lack of funds was urged today by the State Department of Health in its weekly bulletin.

While some types of sanitary improvements cannot be made with CWA funds because they may be used only for payment of labor and not for materials, there are nevertheless many opportunities for their use in the protection of the public health, the bulletin explains. Some of these uses are described in the bulletin as follows:
"Mosquito control work has already been given considerable priority in any necessary. In the case of municipalities owned waterworks, cutting of brush around reservoirs, with due regard to the necessity of proper sanitary precautions by workmen, will improve appearances and lessen the quantities of leaves and vegetation imparting objectionable odor to the water. Removal of leaves and other organic material from stream beds would be helpful in improving the physical condition of some streams. Water pipe extensions in territories without water or where strengthening of water distribution systems are needed are worth-while investments.

HEBRON

Hebron relatives of the late Mrs. Jane M. Hills of New Haven, who attended the burial service at Lakeview cemetery, East Hampton, on Monday last, were Mrs. Olive Clark, her daughter; Miss Anna and her son Philip, Mr. and Mrs. J. Banks Jones, and Miss Daisy White. Mrs. Helen White, step-daughter of the late Mrs. Hills who is in her 91st year, was unable to attend as she is not entirely recovered from a severe grip cold from which she has been suffering.
Albert Rathbone is suffering a severe attack of grip. His nephew, Robert Rathbone, is just getting about the house after having been ill with the same disease.
Miss Anna Sklarzky, the sixteen year old daughter of Mrs. Nicholas Sklarzky, was taken to the Windham Memorial hospital a few days ago, with acute appendicitis, for which she has been operated on.
Claude W. Jones attended a meeting of first selectmen held in Colchester Tuesday, from 10 a. m. to 4 p. m. Several adjoining towns were represented. Unemployed men who failed to register as such at the opportunity given them some weeks ago were given another chance to put in their names. About 20 additional names were added to the list of Hebron unemployed and they will be on file for available work. Twelve men can be put to work on reforestation in Portland near Middletown. This will make it possible for them to board at home, driving or being carried to their work. Hebron's quota of men to be employed under the Civil Works act is now given at 30 instead of 15 as at first reported.
Work has already begun on the Hope Valley road and more men will be put to work there a little later.
Owing to the icy condition of the roads Tuesday morning, the bus which takes Windham high school students from Gilead and way houses, failed to make the usual trip to Willimantic. Floyd Fogli, the driver, said he had too many dangerous hills on the way to make the trip safely. Norman Rathbone, who transports the students from the green and Amston, made his usual trip. He had fewer hills to encounter. A truck ran into the ditch that morning and cut up the road rather badly on Post Hill, and a Chevrolet roadster was reported overturned further along on the Columbia road.
LeRoy Benzinger, jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Benzinger of Hopeville, is reported seriously ill with threatened pneumonia at his home. A daughter, Shirley, was taken to the Windham Memorial hospital, Willimantic, a few days ago, for mastoid treatment.
Carlton H. Jones has purchased the old barn on the H. F. Porter place, owned by Mrs. Gertrude Hough, and is using the framework for his temporary garage.
The Ladies' Afternoon Bridge club met at the home of Mrs. Edmund H. Horton Tuesday from 3 to 5 o'clock. Three tables were in play. Mrs. Mark Hills won first prize, Miss May Sparks second. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake, coffee and candies were served.

CONNECTICUT BOY SHOT IN FIGHT WITH POLICE

Philadelphia, Dec. 7.—(AP)—Unfamiliarly with Philadelphia and an alleged stolen car—caused a lot of trouble for two Connecticut youths, one of whom landed in a hospital with a bullet wound in the shoulder.
He gave his name as Edward Root, 15, of 24 Grant street, Watertury, and said his companion, a fugitive, was George Schuster, 17, of (R. F. D. No. 3) Middlebury.
Apparently unaware the Delaware river bridge is a toll bridge, the lads started across it toward Camden last night in an automobile which police said had been stolen in Perth Amboy, N. J. Sighting the uniformed officers at the toll booths, they turned around (a violation of bridge regulations) and started back.
Two bridge policemen followed them and a wild chase ensued, the fugitives bucking traffic on one-way streets in some cases. Reaching a comparatively clear thoroughfare, the police opened fire and Root, who was driving, was hit. The car crashed into an overhead railroad bridge support.
Police said the second youth climbed an embankment and opened fire on them. The boy escaped and the officers said they later found two pistols and a pair of handcuffs in the wrecked car.

MAIL POUCHES STOLEN FROM RAILROAD DEPOT

Ridgefield, Conn., Dec. 7.—(AP)—Two pouches of first class mail containing approximately two thousand letters in some of which were enclosed dividend checks intended for Ridgefield railroad station Saturday police have revealed.
Postal authorities and state police have been conducting an intensive investigation, but without success, they admitted.
The value of the loot was estimated by police at less than $5,000.
The theft was accomplished by someone evidently familiar with the mail sorting system. Post Office Inspector Ralph Edmunds of Bridgeport said.
The investigation had been kept secret and was disclosed last night by police after their confessed failure in uncovering it.

Deaths Last Night

St. Louis—James G. Castil, 74, investment securities broker in St. Louis for more than 60 years, and an organizer of the St. Louis Stock Exchange.
Mouri Carroll, III—Mrs. Thomas White, sister of Major John L. Griffith, athletic commissioner of the Big Ten conference.
Helena, Mont.—Samuel McKenna, 63, Helen bank president and director of the R. F. C. in Montana.
Chicago—John Leonard Murphy, 40, assistant state attorney of Cook county for four years.
Palm Beach, Fla.—Edward V. Faunce, 64, president of the Faunce Motor Companies of Pittsburgh and Philadelphia.

WATER PIPE EXTENSIONS

"Much work can be accomplished at existing municipal sewage treatment plants. Some of our older plants with large sand filter areas are in need of removal of top filter sand and replacement with new clean sand of proper size and uniformity. Some sewage sand filter plants could be enlarged to increase their capacity by constructing new filter units. Covering over of material dumped around sewage plants and grading around them will greatly improve plant appearances and may eliminate nuisance conditions and facilitate plant operating procedures. There are few sewage plant operators who cannot suggest worth-while improvements needed at their plants.
"Sewer extensions in unsewered localities represent work that will utilize a large amount of hand labor. In many instances, such extensions would greatly improve living conditions and enhance the value of property. Some health nuisances exist that cannot be completely remedied until public sewers are provided.
"Another aid to sanitation exists in the possibility of covering over, and in some cases eliminating, community refuse dumps that constitute eye-sores as well as breeding places for flies and rats."

Columbia Strong, But Lacks Reserves

Easterners Should Give Stanford A Close Battle

Lions Boast Speedy, Versatile Attack, Directed by One of the Smartest Field Generals in the Land, But Are Weak on Substitutes.

By GAYLE TALBOT (Associated Press Sports Writer)

New York, Dec. 7.—(AP)—A speedy, versatile attack, directed by one of the smartest field generals in the land, and a sturdy defense are the hallmarks of Lou Little's Columbia University Lions, chosen to represent the East against Stanford in the Rose Bowl on New Year's Day.

Not a great eleven in the strictest sense of the word, the scholarly Lions, nevertheless, have stamped themselves through a trying schedule as a fighting, cohesive unit that can be counted upon to give any opponent a battle as long as its reserves hold out.

First Team A Dab

Their one real weakness, eastern critics believe, lies in the shortage of high quality substitutes. Little's line-up consists of eleven real football players. They make up a smooth, stylish team that is a treat to watch. But when one of them goes out—any one—the Lions are just a mile less effective.

If they were certain of the Morningside Heights crew could face Stanford for four full quarters with only about two substitutions, eastern fans would be willing to back them with at least a few of the family jewels.

But the possibility it will be warm at Pasadena on New Year's afternoon, that the battering of Stanford's big team and a searing sun might combine to send the Lions regular on frequent trips to the bench to rest and refresh, make the homebodies none too sanguine.

The dearth of capable reserves at a school with such a vast enrollment as Columbia is not too strange. The explanation lies in the fact that the football squad is drawn from the comparatively small enrollment of undergraduates in Columbia College.

Little To Work With

Some idea of the difficulties surmounted by Coach Little in building teams that year after year rank with the strongest in the east may be gathered from the fact that Columbia's freshmen eleven have won only one game in the last three seasons. It has consisted of one steady strong team out of that sort of material he's doing all right for himself. If he has good reserve strength it's pure velvet.

In the four years Little has been coaching at the school, the Lions show a record of victories against seven defenses and two ties. They have lost only one game in each of the last three seasons. Princeton's powerful young team spoiled an otherwise perfect record for this season with a 20 to 0 defeat back in October. The Lions have claimed ever since that it was their "off-day," that the Tigers couldn't do it again to save their lives, and a majority of the section's experts have been inclined to agree.

Have Own "System"

The Lions are partial to none of the so-called "football" systems. Little, former University of Pennsylvania star, has one of his very own, a sort of football melange. His teams take turns using the single wingback, punt and any other formation that comes along Lou's fertile mind. They employ both a balanced and unbalanced line, and they have probably the widest repertoire of plays in the east. Their defense always is sound.

One distinguishing feature of the Lions is their "middle-huddle," or square-edge method of calling signals. They come out of the huddle milling in every direction, with no apparent rhyme or reason, suddenly jumping into their places just before the ball is snapped. It is supposed to confuse the opposition, and chances are it does.

Two Outstanding Men

Cliff Montgomery, great triple-threat quarterback, and "Red" Matal, a brilliant end, possibly are the outstanding members of the 1933 Lion machine. Little recently declared the dazzling Montgomery compared with any back he had ever seen, and he credits Matal largely for the powerful surge of Columbia after its loss to Princeton.

At Barabara, a 190-pound sophomore, and Ed Brominski are the team's starting fullbacks, with Bill Nevel at fullback. Barabara, declared by a coach in the National Professional League to be the finest looking back in the east, divides the ball-carrying and passing with Montgomery.

Owen McDowell holds down the opposite wing from Matal, with Joe Ferrara and Paul Jozak at tackles, Jack Migliore and Steve Deambrosio at guards and Newt Wilder, a field goal specialist, at center.

GLASTONBURY LOSES TO WEST SIDE RECS

Locals Nose Out Town Team in Exciting Contest in Stony City, 23-21.

The West Side Rec Basketball team managed to squeeze out a two point victory over the Glastonbury Town team, down in the Stony City last night after a grueling forty minutes of fast exciting basketball. Score 23-21. In a game marked by fast passing and splendid defensive work both teams did very little scoring with the first quarter ending 4-4 in Glastonbury's favor.

The locals found Glastonbury's first defense about impracticable and had to scramble on shots from mid-floor, with very little success. Occasionally "Mitt" Nelson would slip through for a "sucker" shot and that with the foul shooting of Fred Bissell and "Red" Madden kept the West Siders on the running. While Glastonbury's defense was a puzzle to the local boys, the West Siders managed to put up a barricade around their own basket that Glastonbury found very hard to get through. In the third quarter, Glastonbury found it hard to fight hard to get adequate advantage, the score at the half was 13-11 Glastonbury.

The second half proved to be a repetition of the first. Taber was sent in for Collins and at the end of a couple of double deakers which threw a scare into the West Siders, but Eddie Jolley came through with two beautiful shots to tie the score.

The Glastonbury defense let up for a minute and Madden and Fred Bissell slipped through for baskets. With four minutes to go in the final period the score was 20-16, West Siders favor. Glastonbury discarded their best defense and they made their first bid for victory and a foul shot by Nelson and a basket by Madden put the locals out in front.

Tobber tossed in one and Tuffy Viol tossed in another and the Glastonbury fans went wild as a foul through by Nelson and Klasiak made his third shot. The West Siders were two points up and two minutes to go and it was only the clever dribble of "Bingo" Sturgeon that saved the game for the locals.

LEAD BIKER RIDERS

Cleveland, Dec. 7.—(AP)—Fred Ottaviano and Frank Bertall paced the field today in Cleveland's second six-day bicycle race after a series of spills had taken out the veteran Reggie McNamara and resulted in injuries to Jules Audy and Freddie Zachu.

Columbia's greatest triple-threat quarterback, Cliff Montgomery, is one of the outstanding members of the 1933 Lion machine. He was recently declared the team's greatest player compared with any back he had ever seen, and he credits Matal largely for the powerful surge of Columbia after its loss to Princeton.

Believe Wennergrens Set Record For Two-Man Team

When John and Charles Wennergren hit a two-man team total of 510 in three games the other night, Manager Joe Farr of the Charter Oak alleys is of the opinion that the score set a new Manchester record and it will be accepted as such until evidence to the contrary is presented.

Both bowlers, incidentally they're father and son, were in remarkably fine form and John hit the wood for 130, 131 and 156 for a three string of 417, while his son, Charles, hit 118, 135 and 140 for a three string total of 393. Their combined score for three games was 248, 266 and 286.

Last night Fortin and Davies rolled a social match with one eye on the possibility of breaking the mark compiled by the Wennergrens but they fell 56 pins short of the mark. Their scores were as follows: Fortin .....140 145 116—401 Davies .....114 108 134—353

Mortality Rate As High As Ever Among Coaches

BOWLING More Than Dozen Grid Pilots Already Involved in Shakeups; List May Be Doubled Before Hunting Season Ends at Colleges.

Y LEAGUE RESULTS

Mers Filiers went all four points from Reid's Ault's in the Y bowling league last night, Saideila hitting high single of 132 and high three-string of 368. In the other match, the Bon Ami, league leaders, took all four points from Wapping, Canada rolling high single with 138 and Coleman high three-string with 368.

By ALAN GOULD
New York, Dec. 7.—(AP)—Coaching heads have already begun to drop into the basket in keeping with the traditional custom of denouncing a rethinking at the close of a disastrous campaign or a periodic house-cleaning of general principles.

The mortality rate for 1933 apparently will be as high as ever, even though the demands for high pressure production are less conspicuous than they were when put under the Carnegie Foundation's microscope a few years ago. Upward of a dozen head coaches so far have become involved in shakeups or prospective changes at large colleges or universities. The list may be doubled before the hunting season ends at colleges.

Head coaches at Texas A. and M. and Lehigh already have been replaced. Others have resigned at Dartmouth, Texas, Kentucky, Boston University and South Dakota. State, none of less under "W. E. R. Speculation meanwhile has been made over possible changes at North Carolina, Auburn and Rice in the east, N. Y. State, Indiana, Purdue, Missouri and Wisconsin in the midwest.

Chief interest centered nearly all season in the possible shakeup at Notre Dame. Support for Hank Anderson, who succeeded Knute Rockne, has been riddled since Notre Dame's exciting last game victory over the Army but the investigation persists that a change is likely. The name of Noble Kizer, of Purdue, has been most often linked with the job despite denials.

It also shifted coaches a year ago, when Yale was replaced by Yale's Marvin Stevens and head coach Ed E. Auman had been disappointed by the results, having at Princeton. Agitation has developed from a shakeup along the lines of Princeton's policy, in going outside its graduate body to engage Fritz Crisler as head coach.

The effect of late season victories has served to fortify some coaches who were distinctly under the guns. Thus, Harvard's triumph over Yale helped soothe the criticism of Eddie Casey while Cornell's successive victories over Dartmouth and Pennsylvania seem to have quieted alumni seeking the scalp of Gil Dobie.

In brief here are some of the other coaching situations:

Kentucky—Harry Gamage resigned. Later indicated candidates include John J. McEwan, former Army star who resigned last year as Holy Cross coach; Chet Wayne of Auburn; and Elmer Layden of Duke.

Dartmouth—Jackson Cannell resigned after outbreak of undergraduate criticism, although contract has on one year; to run. No action on possible successor.

Indiana—E. C. (Billy) Hayes may take over athletic direction and seek own successor as head football coach.

North Carolina—Charles (Chuck) Collins reported on way out but no definite developments.

University of California at Los Angeles—Criticized Bill Spaulding may be replaced, so far denied.

Wisconsin—Dr. C. W. Spears apparently slated to retain job despite earlier reports of dissatisfaction.

Missouri—Frank Cardozo, former All-American quarterback at Notre Dame, under fire after disastrous season but apparently has faculty support.

New York University—Undergraduate discussion and criticism of "De-Emphasis" under present regime, with Howard Cann as head coach, but no indication of any change in policy or coaching staff.

Boston University—John M. Harmon, manager of disputes with team over "player control" system and over using a player said to be injured, relieved as head coach. Remains as athletic director and will help pick own successor.

Number even Carnera's difficulties. They involve breach of promise and rival managerial claims but do not touch upon bankruptcy. Although holding role of outstanding challenger, Bear's motion picture activities and his alliance with Dempsey rather than the Garden, have so far limited efforts to sign him for a title match.

Bear, when he comes here in January, is expected to appear for a month in a night club show, but recent advice are he will also be receptive to a Garden offer to fight Carnera in June. Another stumbling block, however is the Garden's insistence that Bear must also sign to defend the title for the Garden if he wins it from Carnera, thus including any chance of Dempsey cornering the heavyweight championship title.

The situation surrounding Bear is quite different, though he too is immersed in civil law actions that out-

SEASON OF UPSETS LEAVES OLD SOUTH WITHOUT CHAMPION

All-Dixie Honors Go A-Begging as Records are Marred by Defeats, Ties; Alabama Looks the Best.

Atlanta, Dec. 7.—(AP)—Southern gridiron was having become history, save for the Tennessee-Louisiana State university game, and there's not a team left to wear Dixie's crown of championship exclusively.

It looked like things were shaping up for the coronation of Duke University, but Georgia Tech snatched away the throne and left the Blue Devils to find a seat among the crowd of other defeated teams.

Alabama could lay sole claim to the laurel but for a bit of lethargy that permitted Mississippi to tie the Crimson Tide in early season.

Bama Wins Southeastern

Murray Teachers College of Kentucky emerged with the record of having won every game on its schedule, including seven within the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association. However, it did not play the major teams in the south, and therefore Dixie is not likely to crown that squad king.

Aside from the mythical All-Dixie title, Alabama is at the head of the class undisputedly in the Southeastern conference. That team closed the season Thanksgiving day by defeating Vanderbilt and writing on the score chart five victories, no defeats and one tie.

Louisiana State was eliminated as a title contender by virtue of its 7-7 tie with Tulane. That made two deadlocked games for L. S. U.

Duke and South Carolina won all their games within the Southeastern conference. Duke was awarded the conference championship, however, because its victories numbered one more than South Carolina's.

Georgia Tech's victory by the slight margin of 6-0 was a two-fold disaster for Duke. It crowded the Blue Devils off the highway just when they were reaching out eager hands to help on the all-Dixie title, and it slammed the door against the possible invitation from Stanford to play in the Rose Bowl New Year's Day.

With Army bowing to Notre Dame and Princeton barred from participation by its own choosing, Stanford hardly could have failed to invite Duke had the Blue Devils kept clear of defeat or tie by winning over Tech.

TEAM NO. 1 LEADING KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS

Evald Erickson Has Best Average; August Carlson Has High Single, Triple.

Team No. 1, captained by Charlie Wennergren, is leading the Knights of Pythias bowling league with twelve victories and six defeats for a total of 18 points, five more than Team No. 3, captained by Evald Erickson, who holds the honor of having the highest average to date, 107.8 for eighteen games.

Charlie Wennergren is second with 102.3 in eight games, while his father, John, is third with 102.9 for seven games. August Carlson holds both the high single and high three string marks to date, with 129 and 380 respectively.

The team standing is as follows:

ST. JOHN'S BEATEN BY RANGERS 33-16

Local Five Scores Decisive Victory With Short, Snappy Passing Attack.

Outcome Decided by Three Free Throws, as Each Team Scores 15 Field Goals; Final Quarter Thrills as Rivals Battle for Victory.

The Rangers basketball team won its second game of the season by taking the St. John team of East Hartford into camp by a decisive score of 33-16, in the prelude at the Army last night. The Rangers' short, snappy passing attack worked smoothly and they went into the lead right from the start and were never headed. The scoring was divided evenly amongst the Rangers. Marvis played best for the St. John's. Score:

CHARTER OAKS TAKE A SOUND TROUNCING

Bowling their poorest form this season, the Charter Oak Girls were soundly trounced by New Britain Tuesday night and only salvaged one point by taking the second game by the slender margin of two pins, the Rogers Girls taking the first and third games and total points.

Not one member of the local team was able to hit the 300 mark and only four of the fifteen games produced scores better than 100. Their opponents on the other hand, were in fine form and G. Riedel captured high single with 156 and high three string with 332.

Twenty-Six Were Killed During Football Season

New York, Dec. 7.—(AP)—A record of progress was marked up today in the efforts to check the deaths caused by football as a sure-vey made by the Associated Press revealed only 26 deaths, directly attributable to the game during the 1933 season. Last year a similar survey showed 38 football deaths and in 1934 there were fifty.

Ten more deaths may be partly charged against the game but are considered doubtful. In these cases doctors said football injuries may have been contributing factors.

High schools again showed the greatest number of fatalities, 16 and 16 "games" were next with 13 deaths. Not one college varsity player died as the result of football injuries and only two college freshmen are listed as having died of injuries that could be traced to supervised games or practices.

The 36 deaths, including the ten "doubtful" fatalities, are classified as follows: college, five; high school 16; amateur 15; semi-professional and athletic club, two.

WATKINS EMPLOYEES IN CHRISTMAS PARTY

Duncan Phye Club Has Enjoyable Gathering at Castle Farm Inn. Thirty-five members of Watkins Brothers Duncan Phye Club held an enjoyable Christmas party last evening at the Castle Farm Inn, on Tolland Turnpike, with a roast turkey dinner, a Christmas tree, Santa Claus and all.

After everyone had had a good laugh over the presents four teams were organized and games enjoyed. The team representing Tufts college winning high honors by carrying off first place in most of the contests. Dancing followed the games. Herbert Swanson was chairman of the dinner committee and Eskil Backlund acted as chairman of the place committee.

WAPPING

The Hamrahah Post of American Legion Auxiliary of Unionville, met with Mrs. Alice Scagel, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter S. Neviers for their December meeting with fourteen members present last Monday evening. Refreshments were served and a pleasant time enjoyed. The Wagwain Girls' Club held their regular meeting last Monday evening at the home of Miss Logan Burbanck of Pleasant Valley. There was a business meeting after which two new members were initiated, Miss Mary Currie and Miss Anna Chaponis. Sixteen young ladies were present.

The Uncas Boys played the Modern Bakery Boys last Saturday evening at the new Community Church House, the score being 34 to 22 in favor of the latter team.

Charles Strickland of Addison, was the Thanksgiving guest at the home of his brother and family, and also called at the home of his friends, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Birchard, Thursday evening. Mr. and Mrs. William Barnes of Colrain, Mass., were guests of their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ashur A. Collins, last week. The Pleasant Valley Club will hold their next regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Jessie Elmore Thursday afternoon, December 7, and Mrs. Lena Elmore will be the assisting hostess.

The Federated Workers will serve a turkey dinner at the Community church House Thursday evening from 6 to 8 o'clock. The committee are Mrs. Frank E. House, Mrs. George A. Collins, Mrs. Raymond W. Belcher, Mrs. Walter S. Neviers, Mrs. Homer B. Lane, Mrs. Elizabeth Sibley, and Mrs. C. Vinton Benjamin. The Wagwain Girls are to help serve.

The annual meeting of the Congregational branch of the Federated church, will be held at the primary room of the church at 8 o'clock of choice a member of the committee of six.

The monthly meeting of the Sunday School Board will be held with Rev. and Mrs. David Carter, at the parsonage, at 8:15. Thursday evening. This is an important meeting, as it is time to make arrangements for the Christmas festivities. The next meeting of the Wagwain Girls' club, will be held at the home of the Misses Dorothea and Elsie.

Queer Twists In Day's News

Fairmont, W. Va. — A hunting Frank Costello would go and so off he went in his best hunting togs and with his hunting dogs. Five miles out on the Gratton highway, a filling station man waved him down, and told him he was wanted on the phone. It was Mrs. Costello, saying: "If you want to shoot anything you'd better come home and get your gun. You left it in the hallway." (P. S. He didn't get a deer.) Chicago—Police Sergeant Joseph Starshak is at his wits end. It's the penchant a certain mouse has for yellow paper that got him into a jam. Already, he said, the mouse had eaten paper containing the first names of persons listed as missing in the records of the Missing Persons Bureau, carrying its appetite all the way from the "Smiths" to the "Zs."

OPEN FORUM

THE SABBATH Editor, The Herald: In the Open Forum of a recent issue of the Herald appeared an article "Jewish Sabbath," signed "Citizen." The writer of this article pointed to the primitive Christians and to Moses who received the "direct command of Jehovah" as the original source of the Sabbath. A thousand years before Pharaoh's daughter found the child Moses in the bull rushes, the Babylonian Sabbath was kept holy by the Pagans, not only in Babylonia but throughout Palestine. In the Louvre Museum is King Hammurabi's stone column which depicts in bas relief the god Shamash giving the king a law code of eye-for-eye and tooth-for-tooth similar to the Mosaic. The Babylonian Sabbath was a day of rest for man and beast and so is the Mosaic as well as the Christian Sabbath. Every up-to-date scholar knows that the Mosaic law is far superior to the Babylonian code and that Hammurabi's commandments were based on a still cruder set of laws that came down the pike of time through many centuries. There are Babylonian finger prints in the Mosaic law and fingerprints of savagery in Hammurabi's code. If we were to continue in our research regarding the original source of the Sabbath law we would find the most ancient one nothing more than the echo of the caveman's voice, as he struggled to lift mankind to higher ideals of a social order.

A simple comparison between the ancient Babylonian and the later Mosaic law reveals the fact that both are related to each other. In the Hammurabi code, 196-200, we read: "If a man hath caused the death of another's eye, then some one shall cause his eye to be lost. If he hath broken another's limb or tooth, or some one shall break his limb or tooth." In the Book of the Covenant, Ex. 21:23-25, Moses wrote: "If thy mischief follow, then thou shalt give life for life, eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot."

Although Jesus said: "I came not to destroy the law but to fulfill it," he flung this savage injunction to the winds for he also did with the Sabbath. Yours truly, —Mathias Spiess, Manchester, Conn. December 6, 1933.

TOWN CARS

Editor, The Herald: The Town Car of the title "At least the Town Car driver isn't too blind" might it not be read, "Perhaps the Town Should Know About the Use of Its Cars." Looking over this article in Tuesday evening's Herald it gives us great pleasure to know that all of the Section men this year are taking enough interest in the taxpayers' money to put a sign on every town car. We all know that when the cost of running a car is nothing riding is indeed an inexpensive luxury.

No reflections are cast upon Mr. Smith in this article as in the first place, the car does plenty of actual work and anyone wanting to joyride in that open air buggy ought to have his head examined. We also are wondering if this is the best way of asking for a new car. If it is, the town should balance the budget on cars by giving them one out of another department and let some of them double up, one use it while the other is resting.

ROCKVILLE MAN NAMED AUTO INSPECTOR HERE

John Ash, Democrat, Succeeds Everett Beem, Republican, as Examiner of Candidates for Licenses. Everett Beem, who was one of the automobile inspectors in the examination of applications for drivers' licenses and who came to Manchester each Thursday to conduct these examinations, is no longer doing this kind of work. He was a Republican and with the change in politics there were several removals made to give positions to Democrats. This morning John Ash of Rockville, a Democrat, was assigned to work at the Manchester police station for examination of candidates for drivers' licenses. There was not any great rush in the work today.

QUARTERLY CONFERENCE AT SOUTH M. E. CHURCH

District Superintendent Scrivener Presides Over Meeting Last Night—40 Attend. The first quarterly conference of the present church year was held at the South church last evening with forty members of the official board in attendance. Rev. G. G. Scrivener, superintendent of the Norwich District, presided and brought an inspirational message on the theme, "Come, Ye Apart and Rest A While." In his remarks, Dr. Scrivener emphasized the restlessly active, and wearying state of modern day life; movement without meaning, action without actuality. He contended that what we needed most was to break away from the turbulence of life's chaotic stream and cultivate the restfulness and peace of the "Divine Quietness." Reports from the respective officers of the church were gratifying and encouraging. Dr. Scrivener commended the church for maintenance of its obligations to the great connecticut interests of the church at large.

LAGUARDIA AT CITY HALL FAILS TO FIND O'BRIEN

New York, Dec. 7.—(AP)—Florence F. Laguardia, who on January 1 will become head man at City Hall, set aside an hour of his schedule today to pay courtesy calls on Mayor John P. O'Brien and Police Commissioner James S. Bolan. He drew two blanks. The present mayor had not arrived when the mayor-elect's limousine drew up at City Hall at 9:45 a. m., and the police commissioner was attending a funeral. Police Commissioner James Guerin greeted La Guardia as he approached the desk in the mayor's outer office. "Is the mayor in?" the mayor-elect asked. "Not yet, sir." "Is Judge McAndrews (Thomas F. McAndrews, the mayor's secretary)?" "No, he's not either. Jay Fox is though." Jay T. Fox is an assistant secretary. "Well, never mind," said the mayor-elect. "I don't want to see him. I'll call up later on." The mayor-elect stopped to chat with City Hall reporters before getting back into his car. He explained the purpose of his call and as he lighted a cigar he said he would "keep them around except that they're here for a nickel and I don't think you'd want to try them." La Guardia said he would go to Washington tomorrow.

Y. M. C. A. Notes

The intermediate basketball season opened at the Y.M.C.A., last evening. The Oxforas won from the Falcons 29 to 13. The North Ends found the Mercury team offering little resistance and won 32 to 7. The game between the Cubs and Buckland was the hottest of the evening, Buckland winning 28 to 25. Jimmie Spillane and Frank Novack were the officials. The gymnasium tonight will be used by the Oxforas from 6 to 7 and from 7 to 8 by the Mercury club. Dr. Hauch's class will meet from 8 to 9 and Joe's club will have the next hour. The woodworking class will meet at 6:30.

LABOR UNIONS TAKE UP COMPLAINTS OVER NRA

Norwalk, Dec. 7.—(AP)—Officials of the Norwalk Central Labor Union announced today that a special meeting last night a committee had been appointed to receive NRA complaints and to investigate charges that complainants have not been given attention locally and that complainants have not only been discharged, but had been blacklisted so that other employers refuse to hire them. In a statement, which was issued today, the union alleged that "numerous and just complaints relative to NRA code violations had been made to the compliance board at Chamber of Commerce headquarters and that no action had been taken x x x. It is known that some employers are violating the code rules. The employers know it—he workers know it—the Chamber of Commerce knows it and Federal Government is going to know it. The Central Labor Union has appointed a committee to investigate and get direct action from the Federal government." The statement is signed by seven local labor leaders, complaining the committee to whom workers are asked to make their complaints.

KIDNAP PLOT FOILED

Mt. Holly, N. J., Dec. 7.—(AP)—A suspected attempt to kidnap Miss Doris Mason, 17-year-old Mt. Holly High school senior, was disclosed today. The plot apparently was frustrated by Walter Kindig, principal of the school, who refused to release Miss Mason from class on a telephone call from someone who pretended to be her mother. Although the call was received late in the evening, she was kept secret while detectives sought two men who had been seen loitering near the school. Police learned that one of them walked up and down outside the building while his companion remained at the wheel of an automobile. Kindig was told by the caller that the girl's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Mason, wanted her to go on a trip. The girl said she knew nothing about it, so the principal telephoned Mrs. Mason and learned it was not she who called.

Wins Literary Prize

Paris, Dec. 7.—(AP)—Andre Malraux, young French author, today was awarded the Prix Goncourt for the book called "Human Conditions." The book sets forth present day conditions in China in fiction form. It probably will be presented to the American public in the spring of 1934. The Goncourt prize is awarded annually by the Goncourt Academy to the author of some work of fiction. Edmond de Goncourt who died in 1896 left his estate for the endowment of the academy, which was to consist of ten members, each of whom was to receive an annuity of six thousand francs.

REINARTZ TO SPEAK FOR NUTMEG TRAIL

Will Be Guest at Meeting of Epworth Leagues in Rockville Tomorrow Night. At the regular meeting of the Nutmeg Trail Epworth League, to be held in the Rockville Methodist church tomorrow night, John L. Reinartz, well known local radio man, will be the speaker. Mr. Reinartz accompanied MacMillan on a trip to the Arctic some years ago and his talk will be illustrated with pictures taken at that time. The business session of the meeting will be presided over by Thomas Cordner of this town. The Trail consists of Leagues from Rockville, Manchester, Hooksum, East Hartford, Burnside and Warehouse Point. It is expected that a record attendance will be present as a prize in the form of a silver loving cup will be awarded to the league having the largest percentage of its members present. Members of the South Methodist church League will meet at the trolley terminus at 7:30 o'clock tomorrow evening.

COUNTERFEITING PLANT IS FOUND IN CHICAGO

Chicago, Dec. 7.—(AP)—A half million dollars in counterfeit money and a complete counterfeiting plant were seized last night in a raid by United States Secret Service men on a cottage on Chicago's northwest side. The raid resulted from the arrest two weeks ago of two men on the south side. One of them had $30,000 in counterfeit bills in his possession. The arrests had been kept secret. The men in custody were: William E. Davis, 53, a reputed Capone henchman, in whose automobile the $30,000 in bogus money was found, and Henry Harris. Neither Davis nor Harris was believed by government agents to be a ringleader in the counterfeiting gang. The money found in Davis' car was all in bogus $5 bills. Details of the raid, which was conducted by agents under the direction of Capt. Thomas J. Callaghan, chief of the Secret Service Bureau, were closely guarded by government agents.

THE TINYMITES

"Well, are your hands and faces old gent," exclaimed the friendly clean? "Are you presentable, I toy man. "Santa, meet the Tinymites." "They're ready, now, to go to work. I'll promise you, they will not shrink. "That's fine," exclaimed old Santa. "You will see a lot of sights." Then he shook hands with everyone and said, "We'll have a lot of fun. My elves are all around the place and working day and night. "We've have to make a lot of toys for little girls and little boys, and I am quite particular that they are all made right." "Well, we will gladly do our best to join right in with all the rest, and work till Christmas Eve," said little Dotty, with a grin. "You bet," cried Scouty. "We feel grand, and anxious, now, to lend a hand. Just lead us to some work and you will see us tear right in." Into a monstrous room they went. "Well, youngsters, here's the fine

The Other—My dear friend! How I pity you—a widow at 25!
The Widow—Pardon me, 24!

Children Want Much the Same Things As Do Their Elders. Grow-ups May Think They Put Away Toys, But They Don't Put Away Make-Believe.

A girl in North Carolina is suing a man for ten thousand dollars for the loss of a finger! It must have been the one she twists all her boy friends around.

Man—Too bad you lost your check book.
His Wife—It's all right, dear. I signed all the checks in advance. Nobody else can use them.

The good the luncheon clubs are accomplishing in their communities, goes to prove that a man can't do much on an empty stomach.

It was the first real snowstorm of the year and the teacher felt it her duty to warn her pupils before she dismissed them:

Teacher—Boys and girls should be very careful to avoid colds at this time of the year. I had a darling little brother only seven years old. One day he went out in the snow with his new sled and caught pneumonia and in three days he was dead.

The schoolroom was so quiet you could hear a pin drop. Then a youngster in the back row asked:
Youngster—Where's his sled?

A Kitten Gets Its Eyes Open a Week After Its Birth. But Some Folks Seem To Go Through Their Whole Life Without Getting Theirs Open.

The Governor of West Virginia, while traveling through Arizona, noticed the dry, dusty appearance of the country.
Governor—Doesn't it ever rain here?
Native—Rain? Rain? Why, say pardner, there's bullfrogs in this town over two years old that haven't learned to swim yet.

Wife—When I die I want to be cremated.
Her Husband—It's remarks of that type that burn me up!

The girl with beauty, charm, brains and character seems to have everything except good judgment in picking a husband.

There is absolutely nothing to the report that a woman who has a black and blue mark on one jaw got that way when her husband socked her—in the first place, she hasn't any husband; in the second place, she never has had any husband; in the third place, she wouldn't have a husband, and in the fourth place, no man would ever swat her in the jaw, even if he were a husband.

At that, we don't believe the men who now have to kiss a face full of paint have as big a kick as the women used to when they had to kiss one full of whiskers.
