DEFENDS JAPANESE AGGRESSIVE POLICY

Dr. C. Y. Hauch Tells Kiwanians People Are Kindly Disposed.

Japan is one of the most progressive nations in the world today, its people are kindly disposed and possess wonderful self-control, and it is the only country which has been ruled by the same dynasty successively for 2,500 years, Dr. Cuyler Y. Hauch, resident physician at the Manchester Memorial hospital, told members of the local Kiwanis Club at the weekly luncheon this noon in the Hotel Sheridan.

Living in Tokyo during his boyhood days, Dr. Hauch is eminently qualified to speak authoritatively on the people and customs of Japan. He sketched the origin of the Japanese, their characteristics and customs, and said 97 per cent of the people are able to read and write, a record exceeded only by Germany. Failure to pass examinations at school is regarded as a failure in life, and many of those who have flunked have been known to commit suicide by throwing themselves into a volcano. This stigma attached to failure in studies serves to inspire students to be diligent and conscientious while at school.

Dr. Hauch said the Japanese excel in industry and also are progressive farmers, a fact which inspired the setup of immigration studies to keep them out of California. With a total area of only 261,000 square miles, including its possessions, Japan seeks additional land to handle the overflow of her 87 million population.

Physicians Attend Practically all of the physicians in Manchester attended the meeting today. G. E. Willis won the attendance prize, which was donated by Clifford B. Burr. The report of Treasurer Burr, read at the meeting, showed a balance on hand of $85.04 after all expenses had been paid. There was $7.91 left in the Kiddie's Camp Fund. Secretary G. H. Wilcox reported a membership of 41, and then presented an outline of the highlights of the year's activities.

GETS BUT $3 IN CASH FROM THREE BURGLARIES

New Haven, Jan. 2.—(AP)—Stanley Koblick, 19, of Thomaston, was held under $1,000 bond today in connection with an investigation of three robberies, one of them in the Yale University Press.

The youth was confronted with copies of his finger print, showed a piece of glass removed by the thieves from the rear door of the Yale Press, and police said he admitted participating in the three burglaries.

The total cash stolen was only $8, but police said in two cases—at the Yale Press, and in two New Haven beauty parlors—offices were ransacked.

Koblick was arraigned on a technical charge of idleness and was bound over for a hearing Thursday.

OFFICIAL RETURNS CHRISTMAS GIFTS

Instructs All Bureau Chiefs to Do Likewise; Senders Are Surprised at Order.

Washington, Jan. 2.—(AP)—A box of expensive cigars given to the Assistant Secretary of Commerce, Ewing Y. Mitchell, by the Black Diamond Steamship Corporation of New York caused his order to bureau chiefs under his direction to refuse all gratuities and to return any now possessed.

Mitchell made public correspondence with the steamship company and with H. B. Arledge, who appeared in the recent Senate cost small investigation, in which he informed the company and Arledge that their gifts were being returned.

A similar letter was sent to Arledge in Washington, repeating the first paragraph of the other letter and then stating:

"I have requested Miss Bert Lee Dolan, my secretary, to return to you the package which you sent her a few days ago."

Later, Arledge, in response to questions, said that his gift to Miss Dolan was "simply a little inexpensive compact, probably costing about $1.50. It seems to me that Mr. Mitchell is going a long ways out of his way to cause trouble."

"Miss Dolan has been courteous to me and I wish only to show that I appreciate her courtesy. She certainly is not in a position of authority sufficient to intimate that she might exert influence."

Everyone knows that it is customary to give a gift to government officials and others for small favors. It is extremely unlikely that the present of so small a character can mean anything except in a friendly and social way. Certainly the White House does not feel called upon to return the multitude of gifts it receives at Christmas time."

Arledge represents the Southern Steamship Company.

LEGION RIFLE CLUB OPENS SEASON SOON

Range in Selwitz Block to Be Put Into Shape—Club Has 20 Members Now.

On January 10 the Legion Rifle Club will open its winter schedule in the Charter Oak Rifle Club League with a match with the Chance Vought team. The match will be held on the Legion team's new range in the basement of the Selwitz block, formerly the Selwitz bowling alley.

Other home matches will be as follows: Jan. 22, Wethersfield; Jan. 29, Middletown; Feb. 5, Middletown; Feb. 19, Bristol; March 7, Middletown.

The new indoor range will be put in shape by club members this week for the start of the league matches next week. The club membership at present is twenty, with several new members in prospect.

The former bowling alleys are ideal for the establishment of a 50-foot range. There are four targets and the backdrop of the range has been so constructed that there is absolutely no danger to participants.

Interest in forming a rifle team from the ranks of the upper classroom of the High school is in prospect, also a woman's team, wives of several of the members of the club.

The club officers are: President, Harold Cude, Sr.; vice-president, Philip Newcomb; secretary and treasurer, Conrad Dwire; executive officer, Louis Milligan.

DISEASE FROM SHOCK

Boston, Jan. 2.—(AP)—Mrs. Lorette Lind, 64, sobbed heartbrokenly today as police went to her home to question her son about a South Boston beer parlor shooting. Then, as the officers led John Lind, 30, from the house, she dropped dead. Lind was wanted for questioning in connection with the shooting of Matthew F. Gorham, 35, in his beer parlor last night. Gorham may die. Police said they learned Gorham and Lind had a fist-fight earlier in the night.

Thomas Forbes, 64, of 12 Orchard street died at the hospital this morning at 7:30 o'clock.

HARTFORD WOMAN REPORTED MISSING

Starts for Bank to Deposit $800 and Has Not Been Seen Since.

Hartford, Jan. 2.—(AP)—The disappearance of Mrs. Elizabeth L. Bennett, aged about 45, assistant manager of the Waldorf Lunch at 711 Main street, has baffled the police and her relatives today and a search is being made for her.

Mrs. Bennett left the lunch room shortly before ten a. m., with $800 to deposit at the Hartford National Bank and Trust Company and her employers have not seen her since. She was seen on the Gustave Fischer Company store on Asylum street to get a new rubber stamp for 1934 to use on the deposit slips, and it could not be ascertained that she had been seen at the Fischer store today.

She was seen on Asylum street, where she went to see her son who works at the Plymouth Lunch. Her husband after learning that she had been missed from the lunch-room did what he could to assist in the search for the missing woman.

She did not make the deposit in the bank, but the management of the Waldorf deferred making a complaint to the police because they had the utmost confidence in Mrs. Bennett and said that she bore an excellent reputation.

Back for Good

Film directors turned her down, years ago, when she tried to break into the movies. So Harriette Lake made good on Broadway, and the Hollywood high-hats ate humble crow. They handed her a contract before she would leave New York. Since however, there are plenty of Lakes in the movies already. Harriette has changed her name to Ann Southern.

ORDER RESTRAINS CODE AUTHORITIES

Judge Thomas Grants Temporary Injunction to State Suit Manufacturers.

Hartford, Jan. 2.—(AP)—A temporary injunction restraining General Hugh S. Johnson, code authorities, and United States officials from enforcing provisions of the coat and suit industry in the cases of five Connecticut manufacturers has been granted by Judge Edwin S. Thomas in U. S. Court, pending a hearing on the matter January 16, it was learned today, when the restraining order was served on U. S. District Attorney Frank S. Bergin, one of the defendants this morning.

Action for a permanent injunction was brought last Friday by Philip Scappellato, the Independent Clock Company, Inc., and Sokol Brothers, Inc., all of New Britain, and the Parlian Garment Company and The Blitright Garment Manufacturing Company, both of Bridgeport.

Not only does the injunction allow the five firms to pay less than the minimum wages prescribed in the coat and suit code of fair competition, but it enjoins authorities from refusing to issue NRA labels to the concerns or from complying to the National Recovery Administration.

A Temporary Order Judge Thomas issued the temporary restraining order on the basis of prima facie evidence contained in affidavits submitted by the complaining companies, which claimed that great personal hardships had resulted from alleged discrimination by the code authority against the Connecticut manufacturers, particularly in regard to minimum wages paid to employees.

The manufacturers claimed that the code authority for their industry divided the country into western and eastern sections, with 81 cents the minimum wage for the eastern section and 40 cents the minimum wage for the western section, this being for "learners," or unskilled labor, while no such division of labor was provided for the eastern section.

Unfair Advantage Baltimore was placed in the western area, they claimed, thereby giving manufacturers in the city an unfair advantage over the Connecticut firms, in as much as the market of both Connecticut and Baltimore companies is New York.

David P. Siegel of New York City and A. S. Albrecht of Hartford will represent the companies at the hearing January 15 before Judge Thomas, Although Assistant U. S. Attorney George H. Cohen has notified Washington of the temporary injunction, and has asked for orders, no word has been received as to whether the legal department of the NRA or the district attorney's office here will defend the government officials.

FIRST LICENSES New York, Jan. 2.—(AP)—The first marriage license of the New Year was issued today to Ludwig Klatzer, 24, an automobile painter, of 187 Babcock street, Brookline, Mass., and Irene Solar, 22, secretary of New York. They plan to be married January 21.

A license also was issued to Charles W. James, 21, of Wethersfield, Conn., and Catherine E. Jones, 20, of 74 Broad street, Wethersfield.

Bridgeport, Jan. 2.—(AP)—Miss Marjorie Arms, 19-year-old debutante, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Taylor Arms of Greenfield Hill, was injured when an automobile she was driving crashed into a tree on Hillside road, Fairfield, this afternoon. Miss Arms suffered lacerations about the head and body, bruises and shock. It was announced at Bridgeport hospital.

CHURCH RECEPTION IN LIEU OF VISITS

Pastor and Wife Meet Parishioners at Center Church Last Evening.

Center church parishioners in large numbers made their New Year's calls on their pastor and his wife, Rev. and Mrs. Watson Woodruff, and on each other at the annual "open house" and informal reception held yesterday at the church between the hours of 5 and 8 o'clock. Many believed the attendance greater than at any similar New Year function.

The parlors of the church were made more beautiful by the addition of Christmas wreaths and evergreens and a handsome basket of evergreens, bayberries and red berries. In the Robbins room where coffee and tea were served the able was gleaming with silver paraphernalia and silver tea services at each end. Evergreen sprays on the white cloth were overlaid with silver leaves. Between 5 and 6 o'clock Mrs. C. W. Holman and Mrs. H. B. House poured and young girls of the church served the guests during the reception hours. Mrs. Theodore Bidwell and Mrs. Katherine Finley presided at the refreshment table between 5 and 7 o'clock and from 7 to 8 Mrs. Bert Knight and Miss Helen Chapman poured. Mrs. John Pickles, president of the Women's Federation served as general chairman of arrangements for the reception.

The program which was entirely musical was given between the period from 7 to 8 p. m., and consisted of favorite songs and carols by the choir. Miss Betty Woodruff played a cello solo accompanied by Miss Louise Burr; Miss Helen Viertel played a violin selection, with piano accompaniment by Mrs. Paul Hagan; Mrs. William M. Arms, soprano, sang accompanied by her aunt, Mrs. William Rush. Mrs. Sidney French and her daughter Jean played piano duets. Mrs. French also accompanied her husband in a tenor solo. Each of the artists was encored and generously responded with additional numbers.

HIGHLAND PARK BOYS' PROGRAM TOMORROW

Colored Group to Be Feature of Entertainment—Miss Piescik Paints Scenery.

Henry Sinnamon and Alfred Gunther, seniors of the Highland Park Boys' club, are in charge of arrangements for the entertainment and dance the club is giving tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock at the Highland Park Community clubhouse. Those who attended the "International" night program of the Y.M.C.A. last month will recall that the program in charge of Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Robinson of Woodbridge street was acknowledged to be outstanding by all who enjoyed it. The entertainment at Highland Park tomorrow night will provide an hour of just such ducky tunes and dances as was presented at the Y, and by the same artists. A group of fully 15 colored entertainers, from this town, Hartford and Rockville will have a part in the song and dance specialties.

Miss Josephine Piescik of School street has painted a scenic background for the program, similar to that used at the White Memorial hall. William Hanja and his Trade School orchestra will provide music for the modern and old-fashioned dances. Free refreshments will be served and a thoroughly good time is assured all who attend.

INSPECT LOCAL WORK PROJECTS

Officials Will Use Them to Supplant Jobs Nearing Completion.

An inspection of proposed work projects was made this morning by Hayden L. Griswold, supervising engineer of the local CWA board.

The purchase of the water and sewer companies has provided work for over 100 men who would not otherwise have obtained jobs.

The original estimate for the Glastonbury forestry and watershed project called for 80 men, but on the request of the local CWA committee this number was considerably increased.

As the local highway, sewer and storm drain jobs are opened up, men from the Glastonbury watershed will be assigned to them, together with those absorbed from Summit street extension, Broad and Brookfield streets, where these have been completed.

It is expected that a decision will be given by Judge W. S. Hyde, town counsel, concerning certain legal aspects of the assessments on the Manchester Green sewer designed to relieve the Manchester Green school, at the regular weekly meeting of the CWA board tomorrow noon.

Several men who suffered frost-bitten fingers and feet applied this morning at the CWA office for a return to work.

VALUABLES STOLEN FROM H. S. PLAYERS

Two of Basketball Squad Victims of Theft in Bristol Last Night.

Two Manchester High School basketball players were victims of theft last night when the local team played Bristol High at the State Armory in Bristol.

The theft took place during the second of the game, the players having left their clothes in a room in the basement of the Armory. The doors were unlocked but a man patrolled the corridor. It is believed that the thief or thieves came down the rear stairway, entered the room and ransacked the clothes, then left by the same way.

The theft was reported to Bristol police, who are investigating. However, there were no clues whatsoever and it seems doubtful that the missing watch and money will be restored to their owners.

BLINDED BY SNOWBALL YOUTH HURT COASTING

Alfred Brousseau Injured About Face When He Runs Into Other's Sled.

Because of the thoughtless action of a neighborhood boy in throwing a snowball which struck him squarely between the eyes and which temporarily blinded him, Alfred Brousseau, 11, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Brousseau of 112 Florence street, ran his sled into the sled of another boy, and sustained a deep laceration of the nose and bruises about the face as a result of the collision.

Alfred and a group of playmates were coasting on Florence street Saturday afternoon. One of the boys threw a snowball which struck the lad between the eyes. As his sled was in motion, and the snowball had obscured his vision, the boy was unable to avoid hitting the sled of one of his companions.

Dr. Mortimer E. Moriarty was called and he dressed the laceration and anointed the bruises. Alfred is a pupil in the fifth grade at the Barnard school. His vision has been poor since two years ago when a playmate accidentally stuck one of the prongs of a pitchfork into one of his eyes.

COMPLIANCE BOARD HERE TO CONTINUE

Rev. Woodruff, Chairman, Gets Letter of Thanks from Pres. Roosevelt.

Rev. Watson Woodruff, chairman of the local compliance board which functioned actively under the blanket code of the President's Re-employment Act, has received a letter personally signed by President Roosevelt, thanking him for his work as chairman of the board.

All business establishments in Manchester, according to Rev. Mr. Woodruff, are now under separate codes, taking away practically all of the work of the compliance board, which was appointed for a period of 45 days under the blanket code.

John, arrested in Manchester last October after a private home and the railroad station at Coventry were broken into, pleaded no contest and was held on a charge of theft. He had been held at the county jail since his arrest.

John told Judge McEvoy that a gun and other goods found in his possession were stolen by Alexander and hidden near a schoolhouse in Mansfield. The burglaries occurred while police were seeking Alexander as one of two slayers of a jail guard in Springfield, Mass. He was arrested recently in Virginia.

WATCH NIGHT SERVICE AT SOUTH M. E. CHURCH

Music and Drama Compose Program—Chimes Toll Out the Old Year.

In spite of the inclement weather conditions, a crowd of the parishioners of South Methodist Episcopal church filled the church parlors to overflowing Sunday evening in observance of a Watch-night Service and program. At 9 o'clock in the Parish hall a service of music and drama was presented.

Following this program, Mr. Neill showed some still pictures of Palestine and some movies of Hawaii. The children of the Sunday School received Christmas presents and everyone went downstairs where they had refreshments.

When arrested, John said, he was returning from Mansfield where he had gone to retrieve his brother's loot.

WEATHER'S RANGE GREAT IN FEW DAYS

Heavy Snow, Bitter Cold Followed by Rain and Then Normal Conditions.

Having experienced the heaviest snowfall of the season, a day of pelting rain, temperatures that ranged from 18 below zero to fifty-four degrees above, all within the space of one week, Manchester today enjoyed normal weather for this season of the year.

Regular town employees today were engaged removing the snow banks from both sides of Main street. The warm weather during the past two days had melted the snow considerably, but good sized ridges still remained. It is expected that Main street will be cleared by today.

Frozen pipes that have been bursting since Saturday have kept local plumbers on the jump, it was learned today. Johnson & Little, plumbers and steamfitters, reported today that they have had more than fifteen calls to repair broken pipes since Saturday.

Rivulets of water from melting snow coursed down sidewalks on the hilly streets and froze during the night, making the surfaces hazardous to pedestrians. It was particularly bad walking on hillside streets this morning, but the middle of the street was well sanded in most cases. Many preferred walking in the middle of the street rather than risk a fall on the icy sidewalks.

Columbia Wins In Greatest Rose Bowl Upset, 7-0

LIONS TURN BACK STANFORD BY SCORING ON TRICK PLAY

SEVEN FUMBLES BY INDIANS BIG HELP TO EAST'S ELEVEN
Two Fine Plays Plus Heads Up Defensive Football Gives New Yorkers a Most Amazing Victory.

By Paul Zimmerman. Pasadena, Cal., Jan. 2.—(AP)—Columbia today still was the gem of the ocean—the Pacific or any old ocean for that matter—so far as football fans of the western seaboard were concerned. For yesterday before approximately 85,000 persons the Lions wrote the most amazing chapter in Rose Bowl history by defeating Stanford 7 to 0.

Two great plays plus head-up defensive football gave Coach Lou Little's New Yorkers a victory which made storm ridden Southern California forget its wet, mad, so by torrential rains before the contest and spasmic showers during the game.

Pace Paves Way
The touchdown came midway in the second period. Cliff Montgomery, 155-pound quarterback, faked an end run, a play which had been considerably successful up to this point of the contest. But as he raced toward the sidelines he turned and unleashed a sharp forward pass.

In spite of the insecure footing, and the soggy ball, mad Anthony Mata, Columbia end, leaped high over the head of Bobby Grayson, Stanford back, and brought the slippery pigskin down huggid tightly by his bosom, 17 yards from the goal line.

Alfred Barabas took the ball on the next play and attempted to hand it to Montgomery on a reverse but fumbled and recovered for no gain. He took it again, faking first to Ed Brominski and then to Montgomery. Another end run for Montgomery thought Stanford, the rain-soaked, farm agreed.

Barabas Scores
But not Barabas. He started to the right as the red skins sought Montgomery's scalp to the left. And with the ball tucked half-hidden on the right side of his hip, Barabas headed for the goal line.

To take the Indians saw they had been duped. Barabas was far out of reach and scored standing up. Nevell Wilder, center, kicked the extra point from placement. It wasn't necessary.

Stanford partially attended, to that with its fumbles and Columbia contributed with its tight goal line defense and its alert recovery of the Indian backs' bobbles.

Nation's Bowlers Crown New Champion In April

Ten million subjects of the principality of Bowlingania will bow to a new monarch this year. On a date in April, specified by the American Bowling Congress, the winner of a country-wide tournament will bow to the king of the Keglers.

Whether or not the boys considered Smith too tough remains to be known. Nevertheless, they ignored him in challenging for the title, and whether he was swamped with threats.

He finally dropped his synthetic crown to Charley Daw of Milwaukee, Wis., in turn, lost to Adolph Carlson of Chicago, and Joe Scribner of Detroit, took the title to Auto Row.

Then came challenges from Mort Lindsay, of New York, and Otto Stein of St. Louis. Scribner successfully defended his bonnet against these two, but finally had it knocked off by Joe Falcaro of New York.

Falcaro, borrowing a few ideas from first managers, demanded such high guarantees to defend his title that there was agitation for Congress to pass a law. Finally, with the formation of the Bowling Proprietors' Association in Detroit, three years ago, it was decided to choose a king by elimination.

New York state and Chicago held elimination tournaments. Don Stewart Wilson won out in Chicago, and Joe Miller copped the New York state crown. Miller, to remove any doubt of his eastern supremacy, refused to meet Falcaro for undepicted Atlantic seaboard honors.

The match was all arranged—but the day before it was to be held, Falcaro was shot and temporarily incapacitated.

Miller then went on to defeat Wilson in the playoff and was declared champion. But even his claim was not recognized. There arose a chorus of howls from all over the country that Joe wasn't a good king and something had to be done about it.

First Time Since 1920 That East Won Contest

Pasadena, Calif., Jan. 2.—(AP)—When Columbia defeated Stanford to win the wreath of roses in the annual New Year's Day intercollegiate game it was the first time since 1920 an eastern aggregation came out victor.

Harvard won that game 7 to 6. In the 19 years of the classic, not including the two service games, the east has won two, tied two and lost six. The south won three, lost one and tied one, while the middle-west won one and lost one.

Herb Kopf, Columbia backfield coach and star for Washington and Jefferson in the 0 to 0 tie game with California in 1922, called the triumph yesterday's 7 to 0 victory.

"The setup this year," said Kopf at Tucson before the team left for Pasadena, "is the same as that 12 years ago when we came west. California was a big favorite. We were outwitted. The weather was too heavy for us to get in the same attitude we had. Let them be big. Let them come in large numbers. I still think we'll win."

Coach Lou Little substituted only four men; Washington and Jefferson used the same eleven throughout. Both games were played on a water-logged gridiron.

Coach Tiny Thornhill said after the game: "Columbia played the great game I expected it would. We have no alibis."

Said the Columbia mentor: "Our team won because it wouldn't be beaten. Stanford was the best team we played all year. It was clean, hard game from start to finish."

Al Masters, Stanford graduate manager, said approximately 36,000 persons paid to see the game, the smallest crowd in the eleven years the game has been played in its present stadium. Many did not arrive until the second half, after the touchdown of the day had been scored.

HEYDLER SAYS BASEBALL HAS WEATHERED STORM

Head of National League Says Hard Days Have Been Left Behind—Talks of Future.

Editor's Note: This is another of a series of sports prospects for 1934 written especially for the Associated Press by prominent leaders.

By JOHN A. HEYDLER (President of the N. B. L.)
New York, Jan. 2.—(AP)—Our National game, I believe, has weathered the most critical year in its history.

We, in the profession end of the game, however, are proud to record that all organized leagues starting in 1928—two majors and 14 minors—battled through the finish, and that without asking or receiving government subsidy or aid.

With the hard days back of us, 1934 should promise better times for baseball and give encouragement to those who have given their all to save clubs and leagues.

I am sure that the year 1934 will make for new interest this season through seven coming years.

The newspaper sports observers of the country, whose opinions were expressed in the annual poll conducted by the A. P., I feel grateful for the evidence that, against all amateur or professional rivalry, the individual and team honor of 1933 went to baseball.

In a basketball game which furnished as many thrills and as much excitement as the annual gridiron classic between Yale and Harvard, a much weakened West Side Rec basketball quintet was finally battered into submission in the last quarter by the Polish National Association of Rockville in Pundick's outfit of afternoon. Score, 41-31.

BRILLIANT PLAY OF LOCALS THROWS SCARE INTO CHAMPS

Red and White Displays Amazing Reversal of Form, Forces Issue from Start to Shatter Zone Defense and Cause Shift to Man to Man; Trail by Single Point at Half But Falter in Last Period as Fouls Take Toll.

A long slumbering Manchester High School basketball quintet awakened last night and handed Bristol High's state and New England court champs their worst scare of the season before bowing to a frantic rally in the last quarter that gave the Bell City five victory by the close margin of 27 to 19.

Manchester's reversal of form was little short of astonishing. The Clarkmans refused to be cowed by Bristol's impressive record and went out at the starting whistle to play the Maroon and White off their feet through the first and second quarters, Bristol leaving the court with a man to man defense that finally broke the Monahanmen their fifth straight victory over Manchester and their sixth straight of the present season.

SAUER LEADS WEST TO WIN OVER EAST

Twice to Give Team Decisive Victory, 12-0.

San Francisco, Jan. 2.—(AP)—To the thirty thousand fans who saw the West humble the east, 12-0 in the New Year's day charity football game, the brilliant performance of a blonde terror from Nebraska wins, not soon be forgotten.

Sauer, Nebraska, turned halfway for a day to lead his western team mates to victory over gridiron stars from the eastern half of the country and at the same time inscribe his name in the honor role that lists many famed predecessors. Twice in the opening period his cleats carved a touchdown message behind the eastern goal line. He gained 99 yards of the west's total 140 yards from scrimmage and definitively left nothing to be decided.

Big Ed Danowski of Fordham played a powerful game at fullback for the east. Statistically the east ermer snatched at a 10-0 lead at the first touchdown, after an east fumble. Not long after in the same quarter Sauer broke through right tackle to run 28 yards for the second touchdown. Three times during the second half, east battered at the western goal line to no avail.

The game was played on a wet, soggy field with rain falling during the first period.

PARKER EASILY WINS JUNIOR NET HONORS
New York, Jan. 2.—(AP)—Frankie Parker has started the New Year off on the right foot. The 17-year-old Milwaukee tennis sensation, now a student at Lawrenceville, N. J., school, swept through to a straight set victory over Gilbert A. Hunt of Washington, D. C., and Mass. Tech., yesterday to win the National junior indoor tennis championship, 6-4, 6-3, 7-5.

Hunt got some consolation out of a victory in the doubles where he and Sumner Redman of Harvard defeated Frank Rorcha and Joseph Abrams of New York 6-0, 6-3, 6-3.

Robert A. Low of New York and Choate School defeated Melvin Lappman, New York in the boys singles final, 8-11, 6-4, 6-0 and paired with Henry Daniels, New York, to win the doubles from Rolfe Kingley of Hills school and Warren Carney of Long Island 9-7, 4-6, 6-4.

TOTAL RECEIPTS LESS
Chicago, Jan. 2.—(AP)—Professional and amateur boxing and wrestling shows in Chicago totaling 742 in 1933 attracted $503,156.13 worth of customers, Joseph Triner, president of the Illinois State Athletic Commission said today. The total paid attendance was 571,280, a better record than in 1932. However, the total receipts were considerably less than in the previous year, due to reduced prices.

SENSE and NONSENSE

1934 HAS ARRIVED
Another year has just begun. It brings new hopes, new work, new fun. Whether its wishes all come true is largely a matter that's up to you.

Every year is a milestone... A stepping stone or a stumbling block. Your life is a part of many lives and these many lives are a part of yours... Character is the estimation of your conduct in life by those who dwell about you.

Hopeful—Time me around the track, coach?
Coach—Sure. Just wait till I get my calendar.

January Shorts... It's all right to be thrifty but you can keep America flat on her ears by overdoing it... The boy who is around a lot of kissable girls, is like the candy store clerk, he soon gets him full... When temptation knocks at the door, it gets quicker response than opportunity... You hear a lot about men running for office but little about men running from them... A man isn't really great until he is quoted as the author of any wisecrack he quotes... If a man ain't more than half an hour late for dinner he thinks he is living up to his marriage vows... Even the commonplace becomes important Mussolini says it... The boy that makes eyes at a girl, who is crazy to get married, is flirting with fate...

Jerry—What color bathing suit was Elaine wearing?
Harry—I couldn't tell. She had her back turned.

Harold—Let's go inside and dance the next number.
Frances—Let's go into a huddle and pet it out.

Joe—Your dad's lucky to have a seat in Congress.
Sam—and your dad's lucky to have a seat anywhere!

First Spectator—Say, who you shovin'?
Second Ditto—Dunno, what's your name?

It will not be a complete Recovery Act until that certain party returns the book that was borrowed before the depression.

Dentist—Ah, I see a large cavity.
Patient—Yes, I haven't had much yet.

Helen—I hear Dick has been taking you out to eat.
Elizabeth—Yes, I'm all fed up with him.

Clarence—I love you more than I can tell you, Dorothy.
Dorothy—How about letting a diamond ring do the talking?

Jean—But surely you didn't tell him straight out that you loved him?
Mildred—Goodness, no. He had to squeeze it out of me.

Someone has suggested a good slogan would be: "Play as you go, but don't go so much!"

Harry—What does the word 'davenport' suggest to you?
Dorothy—Oh, I know! A city in Iowa.

Forgotten Man: Scientists who were going to run down and control the sleeping sickness.
First Gossip—Why did they separate?
Second Gossip—Nobody knows!
First Gossip—Oh, how terrible!

After you've paid other people good money for their judgment, you have more respect for your own.

Any time you run across a bruised and lacerated theory, set it down that it has been in collision with a fact.

Man—They say that he puts everything he earns on his wife's back.
Neighbor—Business certainly must be rotten.

TRINKETS... don't worry, but if you do, don't worry others with your worries... Every man approves the strict enforcement of all laws that don't affect him... It does not grieve a skinny girl to dress modestly... It's the good tire that always finds the nail... If you don't pay as you go, you're gone... Contentment is the heritage of the man who gets used to just any old thing... Some people aim at nothing and hit the mark every time... Many a man pretends to have a coal head when all he has is cold feet... Cosmetics are peach preservers... The early bird may get the worm, but who likes worms anyway?... What the under dog wants is assistance not sympathy... Most any girl will flirt when the train is going out... Nobody seems to worry about the perambulator any more... Be on the level and you are not likely to go down hill...

A young preacher had had several funerals, but no weddings. Finally just before the Christmas holidays he was called on to marry a couple in church. He was confused and very nervous, and instead of saying: "I now pronounce you man and wife," he said: "The friends will come forward and take charge of the remains."
