M'CRACKEN APPEALS SENATE'S SENTENCE

But L. H. Brittin, Airway Head to Serve Ten Days on Contempt Charge, His Attorney Declares.

Washington, Feb. 15.—(AP)—William P. MacCracken planned today to appeal to the courts from the ten-day jail sentence for contempt imposed by the Senate, but his companion, L. H. Brittin, chose to serve the term rather than fight further.

MacCracken, former assistant secretary of commerce for air, and Brittin, vice-president of Northwest Airways, were given jail sentences by the Senate last night for disregarding subpoenas for air mail records.

Bond for MacCracken was fixed at $5,000 and he was freed pending his appeal.

Brittin announced through his attorneys he would not appeal, but would ask to be taken to the District of Columbia jail at once to begin his ten-day sentence.

Statement issued by Seth W. Richardson, counsel for Brittin, issued this statement on his client's behalf: "I regret that Colonel Brittin has definitely concluded to serve the sentence imposed by the Senate and not to avail himself of any further steps in connection with his legal rights."

"I have advised him, as I informed the Senate, that I think the Senate was without jurisdiction and that courts would ultimately free him from the sentence imposed. "Colonel Brittin feels that the necessary effects of the disapproval and condemnation expressed in the decision of the Senate so completely destroys both him and his future, that it is idle to attempt to save anything from the wreck through legal proceedings."

TRAPPED IN PLANE, PILOT IS KILLED

Stunt Flier Was Using Flaming Rocket When Machine Catches Fire.

New Orleans, Feb. 15.—(AP)—Captain W. Merle Nelson, 38, Los Angeles stunt flier, who a week ago asked Shushan airport officials in the event of a fatal accident to have his body cremated and the ashes strewn over the airfield by fellow aviators is dead.

Trapped in his plane which crashed and caught fire after falling to become righted from a loop at 600 feet, the flier was burned to death last night. He had been engaged in a "somerset display" spectacular flight during which the aircraft was darkened, the only light coming from a giant rocket flare streaking from his plane.

Cause of Accident. Aviators who saw the crash believed Captain Nelson was either blinded by the flare and misjudged his distance or that a rudder on one of the wings caught fire, causing him to lose control. Leo Rice, airport transportation head, said he heard Nelson scream once before the flier's safety belt burned and dropped the body to the ground.

Officials had not decided yet whether to permit cremation of the body and scattering of the ashes. A note containing the request asked that Captain Nelson's cousin, Chester Howell, of West Los Angeles be notified who, it said "will notify my mother."

The accident followed a series of events in which a new world's record of 137,513 miles per hour for light planes was set by S. J. Wittman of Oshkosh, Wis.

FUNERAL RITES FOR FR. McCANN SATURDAY AT 10

Sudden Death of St. Bridget's Parish Priest Is Shock to Town — Bishop Nilan to Celebrate Mass.

Final arrangements were made today for the funeral of Rev. Christopher T. McCann, which will be held at 10 a. m. Saturday in St. Bridget's church, of which church he had been pastor for nearly twenty-one years.

Rev. Kenny in Charge On last night of the sudden death of Father McCann yesterday afternoon, Bishop John J. Nilan at once sent Rev. John Kenny of St. Thomas' Seminary to Manchester to take charge of the services of Lent held in the church last night and he will remain in charge of the church until a pastor is appointed, which will not be for a month at least, or until a month's mind mass has been celebrated.

Father Kenny, assisted by priests connected with the Hartford diocese, immediately started the funeral plans. Following the sudden death of Father McCann yesterday afternoon the body was removed to

DEATH PUTS END TO FEDERAL SUIT

William E. Humphrey Passes Away Suddenly; Opposed His Removal from Office.

Washington, Feb. 15.—(AP)—A court challenge to the right of President Roosevelt to remove a member of the Federal Trade Commission was ended today by the sudden death of William E. Humphrey, 71 years old, died as the result of a stroke at his home here. He had been in frail health for some time.

Humphrey had pending in Federal court here a suit contesting his removal from the commission, charging that the President had acted contrary to law in talking away his post without charges of wrong doing or malfeasance.

President's Reason. Mr. Roosevelt is asking that he resign last summer, stated in letters brought out in court that he desired to name in Humphrey's place a man whose ideas were more closely in line with his own.

Humphrey declined three such requests, and finally was removed without a resignation. He went to court for salary he maintained was due him.

His Career. For years Humphrey was a Republican representative of Washington in the House, serving from 1902 to 1917. Later he sought the Republican nomination for Senator from Washington, but was defeated.

Humphrey was born near Alamo, Indiana. Graduating in law from Washburn college he practiced for a while in Indiana before moving to Seattle.

He was named to the Federal Trade Commission by President Coolidge while practicing law in Washington. He was reappointed for another six year term during the Hoover administration.

His widow and a sister, Miss Edna Humphrey, of Crawfordsville, Indiana, survive him.

As Austrian Troops Rushed Into Action

Vienna's gay streets resounded with the grim rumblings of army trucks when, as shown in this radio-photo, heavily armed Heilmwehr troops rushed to suppress the Socialist uprising. This picture, taken as civil war gripped the Austrian capital, was down to London and then transmitted by radio to NEA Service and The Herald.

NEW FRENCH PREMIER DEMANDS PARTY TRUCE

Doumergue Tells Parliament He Refuses to Be Bothered by Political Squabbles; No Trouble Is Expected.

Paris, Feb. 15.—(AP)—A Parliament which upset five previous governments was told by the newest French premier Gaston Doumergue today exactly what it could and could not do.

The 71-year-old former President went before the Legislators and announced a "truce of parties" which meant that he refused to be bothered by political squabbles.

Even as he spoke, a thin line of police, ready for trouble, encircled the Chamber of Deputies. Heavy police reserves were massed in side streets and mounted guards, who bore the brunt of last week's bloody rioting, were hidden in the courtyard of the chamber.

Doumergue, in his speech, failed to mention a fact that all his hearers were thinking of—that he had the authority to dissolve Parliament if he felt like it.

Asks House Cleaning. "A moral house cleaning is urgent," Doumergue said, "and requires voluntary discipline. It requires competence and a sense of authority in those who govern. It requires observance of duty by those who are governed."

The premier said the cabinet was formed to achieve a "truce of parties" after "the tragic and dolorous events of recent days."

This truce, he continued, was necessary for the main objects of the Cabinet—swift justice to those guilty in the Bayonne bank scandal, passage of a budget, revival of business and a firm stand in foreign affairs.

Is Interrupted. Five Communist deputies frequently interrupted with the shout "Assassins, Assassins!" and "Down with National Union!" but the elderly Doumergue, smiling, yet a little grim, resumed reading the message as quiet was restored each time.

The budget, he said, must be passed with "brief delay" in order "to safeguard the soundness of money." With confidence reestablished, he continued, business would improve.

Doumergue emphasized the political truce must be observed because "peace among the French" is necessary.

ONLY RED TAPE NOW HOLDS UP BANK DIVIDEND

Federal Board Demands Court Order and Payment of Taxes — Settlement Before Long Is Expected.

Red tape in the administration of the affairs of the RFC and its subsidiary Deposits Liquidation Bureau are responsible for the delay in the distribution by Liquidator John A. DiNoro of the 20 per cent premium to depositors.

At the time of the last depositors' meeting, which voted to approve the negotiation of a loan of $385,000 from the Deposits Liquidation Board, neither Mr. DiNoro, the State Banking Department, the Manchester depositors or anybody else had any knowledge that the federal board had not informed the liquidating authorities of all the conditions it might impose when making the proposed loan.

Then a new and formal notification of the granting of the loan was received. It contained several new conditions. One of these was that all

SPURNS ALL FOOD AS BROTHER DIES

And Now New Haven Man Also Dead — Doctor Says Starvation the Cause.

New Haven, Feb. 15.—(AP)—His refusal to take food because of grief over the death of his brother more than three weeks ago was blamed today for the death of Patrick Toole, 68.

Miss Mary Toole, a sister, told Dr. Marvin M. Scarborough, medical examiner, that Toole spurned all food after their brother Francis died, January 21. The brothers had been inseparable.

Patrick Toole collapsed yesterday at his home and died soon after. A death was attributed by Dr. Scarborough to exhaustion from undernourishment.

Miss Toole told officials her brother became so weak that he was forced to give up work on a CWA project. He spent most of the time, she said, on a couch in the kitchen of their home.

REVOLT OF SOCIALISTS IN VIENNA NEAR END; FIGHTING ELSEWHERE

Big Confidence Vote For Doumergue Rule

Paris, Feb. 15.—(AP)—Gaston Doumergue and his Cabinet were made the real rulers of France today by an overwhelming vote of confidence in the Chamber of Deputies which backed up the government with 402 ballots to 125.

The vote came in a stormy session while Communist deputies sang the Internationale and the representatives of the center and right sang the Marseillaise even louder.

Of the deputies, 68 abstained from voting. The vote of confidence came on the question of shutting off parliamentary debate until Doumergue's budget could be voted to "safeguard money" and restore calm for "the nation's safety."

Die-hards of the Socialist and Communist parties fought hopelessly against "the arbitrary spirit of Doumergue's determination to master Parliament with an iron hand and a velvet glove."

They demanded the dissolution of Parliament and new elections because of "a political truce" which the Cabinet had formed with "the helping hand of the Fascists."

Their protests were buried in an avalanche of ballots.

Plan No Invasion But Fear That Germany Will Unite With Its Neighbor — See Danger Then.

Although Italian officials refused to commit themselves on the government's intentions in the event of further trouble, it was said today that Italy has no intention of invading Austria — even should the Socialists gain the upper hand over Chancellor Engelbert Dollfuss.

The troops are concentrating principally at Bolzano, Udine and Trieste.

Bolzano recently was made an army corps headquarters. Although this center is only 35 miles from the Austrian border, 25,000 men are stationed there.

From Bolzano, observers pointed out, troops could penetrate into Austria from the Brenner and San Candido passes through which there are excellent train connections.

Well-informed persons maintain that Italy's interest in Austria as regards the present disorders is to prevent her from uniting with Germany.

(Semi-official newspapers have pointed out frequently that in this event of such a union, Italy would be faced with a new strong power where "Little Austria" is now.)

The Social Democrats (Austrian Socialists) would prevent such a union if they came into power even as Chancellor Dollfuss is attempting to do, it is said here.

2,000 Rebels Surrender on Outskirts of Capital — Chancellor Issues Mercy Offer to Socialists If They Surrendered — Many Accept It — Italian and Budapest Papers Charge Czechoslovakia Supported the Revoltors.

By ASSOCIATED PRESS After three days of grim warfare, Socialists in Vienna today capitulated to forces of the government.

Fighting continued, however, in some provinces, a small army of 2,000 Socialists surrendered on the outskirts of Vienna.

Government troops were sent to the Prince Eragot Von Starhemberg, leader of the Fascist Heilmwehr, reported surrounded in Steyr. But the newspaper Tagblatt said fighting in that area had ceased and that Starhemberg would return to the capital today.

Chancellor Dollfuss issued a "mercy offer" to Socialists if they would surrender their arms. Many accepted it.

The newspapers Giornale D'Italia in Rome and the Magyarad in Budapest charged the government of Czechoslovakia had supported the Socialists in the rebellion against the Austrian government.

German Newspapers bitterly attacked Dollfuss' radio appeal for support, charging he was responsible for morgues "filled with dead workmen."

Italy had 75,000 troops concentrated on the border of her little neighbor, prepared for possible action. The government said they were not there because of the Austrian situation.

Sir John Simon, British foreign secretary, indicated to the House of Commons that his government would not interfere in the present situation.

REBELLION COLLAPSING Vienna, Feb. 15.(AP)—The Socialist rebellion against the government of Chancellor Engelbert Dollfuss collapsed in the capital today but the Socialists continued to fight in the provinces where, in some localities, they appeared to be worsting the government troops.

Two thousand Socialists surrendered in a group at Laaberg on the southern outskirts of Vienna but Prince Ernst von Starhemberg, second vice chancellor of Austria and leader of the Fascist Heilmwehr, was reported surrounded with his men in Steyr.

Government troops were dispatched from Vienna in an attempt to cut through machine gun nests which ringed him.

The Viennese sector of the civil war was definitely in the hands of the government after the Goethe Hof, a giant Socialist apartment building, surrendered to superior forces.

Government troops, which had shelled the building with artillery when a wicked machine gun fire drove off their repeated attacks, marched in to find the Goethe Hof garrison was only women and children.

Mopping Up Now All through the Socialist section marched the "mopping up" squads of the Goethe Hof, retreated across the ice of surrounding canals and fled to the countryside where, it was assumed, they sought to join their more successful brothers-in-arms.

It was indicated that the government will try to move through the villages where Socialists are still fighting in the same mopping up process that is being carried on in Vienna—then concentrate its armed forces for a campaign against Linz where Socialists apparently are in control.

The drive against Steyr probably will be preliminary to the campaign in Linz.

The surrender of the Socialists at Laaberg was the first response to Chancellor Dollfuss' offer of amnesty. (Continued on Page 12)

What the Italian attitude would be if the Austrian Nazis should attack the Dollfuss government, however, is quite another question.

Chicago, Feb. 15.—(AP)—Death has closed the career of Melvin A. Traylor, the banker who rose from a humble beginning in a Kentucky log cabin to become an international figure in banking and a National power in politics.

His heart weakened by 35 days' stage of pneumonia, the 55-year-old president of the First National bank—a $900,000,000 institution—died at 11:08 o'clock last night at his home.

Party of 100 Is Stranded On Ice in the Far North

Moscow, Feb. 15.—(AP)—A radio message today from Professor Otto Schmidt, leader of an Arctic expedition stranded when his vessel the Chelustkin, was crushed by ice, said "for the second day we live on the ice."

"The sky cleared last night and we took bearings from the stars," the message said. "Our position is 67.17 degrees north latitude, 172.51 degrees west longitude (in Bering Strait.)" He sent word through an emergency radio station the group fagged up.

An earlier message indicated the party of nearly 100, including an infant born only a few weeks ago, was comfortably awaiting the arrival of airplanes scheduled to take off yesterday from Providence Bay to remove them.

"We are 130 kilometers (approximately 81 miles) from land," Prof. Schmidt advised. "All are healthy and full of energy."

"Before the Chelustkin sank," he continued, "we cut away ropes securing the deck cargo of building materials, barrels, etc. We were right. A considerable part of the cargo floated and we are now fishing it out. We are finishing a bar-racks for 50 persons with two stoves and are starting the building of a kitchen and a signal tower to mark the spot for a rescue operation. We hope to build a second bar-rack."

REVOLT OF SOCIALISTS IN VIENNA NEAR END

RIOTS IN NEW YORK

New York, Feb. 15.—(AP)—Rioting in which dozens were bruised and at least a score of men and women knocked down followed the first demonstration here in sympathy with Austrian revolutionists.

Marching around the block in which the Austrian consulate is located at Fifth avenue and 42nd street, the demonstrators numbered about 3,000 when the heavy after business rush of traffic on the avenue started late yesterday.

Robert Minor, Communist leader, who had been received by Dr. Friedrich Fischerauer, Austrian consul general, was telling the demonstrators that the consul had answered every demand with the word "no."

Although the rioters were subdued within five minutes it was more than twice that long before the stream of buses, taxicabs and private cars resumed movement.

CIVIL SERVICE HEAD QUILTS NEW YORK JOB

New York, Feb. 15.—(AP)—Abraham Kaplan, president of the municipal civil service commission, today sent his resignation to Mayor F. H. LaGuardia.

In his letter Kaplan said that although his term does not expire until June, 1936, he does not desire to continue in office without the mayor's fullest support and cooperation.

The letter was made public by the mayor, and in it Kaplan said he had tried, ever since the new administration came in, to have the mayor fix a time for a conference on civil service administrative problems...

Kaplan was appointed to the commission April 22, 1921. The normal salary for the position is $10,000 but under salary reductions Kaplan was receiving $9,140 a year.

Kaplan is president of the Terence F. McKeever Association, Tammany organization in the Ninth Assembly District.

WHY THIS CONCERN?

"Enough of blood!" cries Chancellor Dollfus in a personal broadcast as, from somewhere or another and in some unexplained way, revolutionary forces appear on the outskirts of Vienna and undertake an investiture of the city.

Did he expect that the people who used to live in the Earl Marx apartment house would hear him over their radios? Even those of them who are left alive? Did he expect his voice to reach to the barricades where gaunt men and women crouch with rifles in their hands?

It is almost universally, outside of Austria, taken for granted that there is only one possible outcome to this ghastly civil war—the triumph of Dollfus, the Heimwehr and Fascism.

Who, after all, is this Lindbergh who arrogated to himself the job of instructing the President of the United States in the business of safeguarding the interests of the United States? He is a young man whose sole claim to recognition lies in the fact that he understands airplanes and can fly one with unusual skill.

Who are these men who, at the side of the Heimwehr and the police, have been slaughtering the workers in their homes? Are they not the brothers and sons of the rebels? How long are they likely to continue to obey orders? How long before we shall hear of desertions of companies or battalions?

When a dictator who has shown complete indifference to the shedding of the blood of his own people begins to shudder at the sanguinary tide, it is to be suspected that he is becoming a little less sure than he might be of the safety of his own head.

PONZI

America has had a lot of meaner and more dangerous criminals than Charles Ponzi, but seldom has she had one to whom was extended less of the quality of mercy. He became involved in transactions which, though they were probably only "smart" to begin with, became fraudulent in law and in fact.

Lindbergh might be able to show the President how to fly a plane, but not how to handle mail-contract chiselers.

JEROME

New York county has never had another district attorney like William Travers Jerome, who came to the end of a most interesting life's journey on Tuesday. It is said that in his early youth it was difficult for Jerome to make up his mind whether to become a lawyer or a scientist.

There ever was a consummate showman—personal showman—it was "Billy" Jerome. He never in all his public life made a move that was not flashy, exhibitionist—and surpassingly clever.

He made some money. There didn't seem to be any limit to the amount he could make if he had enough capital; so he started a company.

His prospectus was glowing. The money poured in—there are always plenty of suckers. Ponzi did really make a lot of money for his early stock purchasers. In no time at all his office was flooded with orders for shares in his company.

But he did one showy stunt that was not so good. During the second trial of Harry Thaw for the murder of Stanford White, Jerome had Thaw as good as convicted when, out of a clear sky, he suddenly asked the court for the appointment of a commission in lunacy to examine the play-boy killer—throwing his own case overboard.

It was not so very long after that that Jerome retired and became a sort of an American duke of the town of Lakeville, this state.

But what newspaper copy he made for a few years!

FATHER McCANN

The shock to his parishioners from the untimely death of Rev. Christopher T. McCann is very far indeed from being confined to his parish or to his faith. Not by Catholics alone was this good priest, good citizen and good friend understood and valued.

Behind the brusque severity with which he often tried—not too successfully—to armor a singular gentleness, hundreds of Manchester people of all religions or no religion at all knew all about the warm and kindly heart abiding there.

He had been annoyed or embarrassed by other changes in his rulings. But a climax came when General Johnson fired Deputy Cary N. Weisger for approving new service charges in the banking code.

White's aide had approved the schedule. Johnson himself approved a press release on it, apparently not realizing what he was signing.

White's aide still is sore. He and many other NRA officials share a dissatisfaction with Executive Officer Alvin Brown, who is accused of disrupting the former seager NRA spirit by autocratic, bureaucratic tactics.

Washington, Feb. 15.—The next NRA big shot to leave will quit as an aftermath of the mixup whose first outcome was the assurance that you wouldn't have to pay the bank new fees for handling your money.

BROADWAY'S NEW SHOWS ARE DISTINCTLY NATIVE

The Coming Crop of Plays Will Depict American Scenes and Problems Almost Exclusively.

By PAUL HARRISON. NEA Service Staff Correspondent. New York, Feb. 15.—Semi-weekly of waving the Union Jack, and the French tri-color, and whatever it is they wear in Vienna, the New York theater finally seems to be turning for inspiration to the American scene.

Some weeks ago, when "Tobacco Road" and its attendant unpleasant-tries concerning life in the back-country of Georgia came along, there was evidence that the theater might find fresh nourishment in native soil.

Castling about for more American scenes, various producers since have offered a New England comedy concerned with the antique business, a Pennsylvania drama about hexes and witch-doctors, a play which alternately snickers and snorts about American divorce and alimony, and the malicious, delicious vignettes of Miss Dorothy Parker.

For awhile, too, the town has been rejoicing in the simultaneous appearances of the sisters Glah, although deploring the vehicle of one of them. This time it is Dorothy who has all the luck, for she is nicely ensnared in a heart-stirring comedy called "By Your Leave" Lillian, on the other hand, finds herself playing second fiddle to a ghost.

Not quite a ghost, really, but the fact remains that Lillian's play was written expressly for Maude Adams. And Maude Adams wouldn't appear in it. If she had, the admirers of Maude Adams doubtless would have flocked by the thousands to "The Joyous Season" to cheer their idol and ignore the lack of substance in Philip Barry's composition. As it happened, though, the role fell to Lillian Glah, and although she probably played it quite as ably as Maude Adams could have done, the audience soon became aware that only the presence of the elderly idol would have been sufficient justification for production of the play.

As for some of the aforementioned bits of Americana: "Broomsticks, Amen!" the play about hex doctors, reveals many of the simple faiths and amazing superstitions of the backward counties of the Pinchot state.

The daughter of a hex doctor marries a real doctor. Has to, in fact. Their baby gets diphtheria and the hexing papa-in-law shoots the baby's father so he can get a chance to practice his witchcraft on the child. The charm doesn't work and the baby dies. And so on and so on, until the audience reaches the conclusion that somebody must have put a hex on the author.

As a play, "Hotel Alimony" isn't much better, but it is more understandable because it deals with that justly notorious institution, the Alimony Jail. The trouble with "Hotel Alimony" is that it can't make up its mind whether to be a comedy concerning the ridiculous aspects of the alimony racket or a bitter preachment against the injustices of the pay-up-or-get-outed statutes that is on the books of New York State.

One of those quiet, well-mannered and thoroughly pleasant little comedies which defy prognostication has come to town. It is "The Wind and the Rain" and it concerns the every-day lives of a group of medical students. Without getting much of anywhere, it has such grace and felicity that nobody seems to notice the lack of substance.

Its tone is amatory rather than medical, and it tells the simple story of a student's love for a local sculptress who is attracted to him at first because he is lonely. Several years

A RECONCILIATION

London Report States Fairbanks Meant to Make Up With His Wife.

By ALBERT W. WILSON

(Copyright, 1934 by Associated Press) London, Feb. 15.—(AP)—Douglas Fairbanks, Sr., American actor, and his wife, Mary Pickford, also of the film, were "on the verge of a reconciliation" when Lord Ashley's recent divorce action naming Fairbanks as co-respondent, fell like a bombshell in the midst of their marital mending, the Associated Press learned from an unimpeachable source today.

The same ridiculous rumors that Fairbanks will marry the doll-like Lady Ashley, the former Sylvia Hawkes, an actress.

At the same time, it was learned on reliable authority that Fairbanks has been advised not to contest the suit with a view to allowing it to simmer out quietly that he may be saved any further unwelcome publicity.

Lord Ashley, 33-year-old son and heir of the 9th Earl of Shaftesbury, filed the suit February 5 and notice was served on Fairbanks and Lady Ashley the following day.

Fairbanks now is at Monte Carlo but his attorney, F. M. Guedalla, filed an appearance for him in the case Tuesday, thus enabling the screen star to move to contest the case within the next two weeks.

An appearance was filed for Lady Ashley yesterday.

The divorce action came as a complete surprise to Fairbanks, his son, Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., and their friends here, the Associated Press was informed.

Long Estranged Lady Ashley had been estranged from her husband five years.

A year ago last December, the former actress and musical comedy star arrived at Biarritz shortly after the elder Fairbanks went there for a holiday, but it is only within the last six months that they have been seen frequently together.

Usually, on such occasions, they have been on the same parties with Douglas, Jr., and Gertrude Lawrence, the pretty English actress with whom his name has been frequently linked.

The Senior Fairbanks has steadfastly declined to utter a word in his defense since the suit was filed.

Remains Silent

Friends have urged him to make a statement and it was learned that Young Fairbanks has offered repeatedly to make a statement, himself on behalf of his father, but the latter has declined with thanks.

Douglas, Sr., is expected to make an extended stay in Monte Carlo.

Contrary to reports, that he went to Spain, or was going there to make pictures, it was learned that the scenes needed already have been shot for his next movie and that it is being completed in London.

Fairbanks has been in London off and on ever since Miss Pickford started her divorce suit against him in December.

During the early winter he toured southern Europe, but returned to London six weeks ago and completed arrangements for taking a leading role in two British-made films.

Everyone visiting the Auto and Home Appliance show will be as interested in the new engineering and styling of home appliances as they are in the same features in automobiles, for probably no year has so much electricity and gas were introduced into the home have such strides been made.

Featured in Watkins Brothers attractive display at the Auto Show is the Norge electric refrigerator. Norge on two outstanding features: first, the exclusive Norge Rollator, and second, the beauty of Norge cabinets. The Norge Rollator, the most simple of all electric refrigerator pumps, has only three moving parts and a continual factory test extending over the past eight years, with stops made only once a year for examination and measuring. The Rollator mechanism shows no measurable wear. So simple and efficient is the Norge pump that Norge refrigerators naturally cost considerably less to operate.

No High Incomes In general debate, Representative Gifford (R., Mass.), berated income levies as costing the people $400,000,000 a year to make out the returns. Higher incomes are no more, he said, the tax having "killed the goose that laid the golden egg."

DANIELL IS FINED FOR GAS BOMBING Boston Lawyer Caused Trading to Be Suspended on N. Y. Stock Exchange.

New York, Feb. 15.—(AP)—Eugene S. Daniell, Jr., Boston lawyer and Harvard graduate, was fined $500 today with the alternative of thirty days in Tombs prison, for the tear gas bombing of the New York Stock Exchange last summer. The principal witness against Daniell at his trial was Edward Mitchell, manager of the Stock Exchange building, who told how 3,000 members and employees of the exchange had been forced from the trading floor by the fumes from a gas bomb placed in the ventilating system. Daniell's motive was to attract attention to his National Independence Party. He was the presidential candidate of that party in 1932, receiving less than 300 votes. Judge Joseph E. Corrigan, who heard the case, remarked that he would have had more respect for Daniell's defendant had owned up to his guilt.

Girl Scout News Today, February 15, celebrates the 75th birthday of Miss Sarah Louise Arnold, or Dean Arnold, as she is known to so many. She was one of Simmons College's first local commissioners. Mrs. Charles Oliver, was a student there. Later, in her fifties, she entered Girl Scouting and was elected to the presidency of the national organization in 1925. On her 75th birthday, she is giving to Girl Scouting "The Way of Understanding," a book not only for Scout leaders, but for those dealing with adolescent boys and girls. In Miss Arnold's own words this book "has a voice for all who watch the eagerness of Youth asking to be led." In the foreword, Mrs. Herbert Hoover tells briefly of Miss Arnold's happy growth on a New England farm, and of her entrance into Girl Scouting. She speaks of her spontaneous humor, her rare wisdom, her spirit of idealism, and her ability to express herself.

POLICE GUARDING HOME OF BOSTON FINANCIER Brookline, Mass., Feb. 15.—(AP)—A police guard stood watch at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond W. Lapham today after "a mysterious telephone call" had been received. Chief of Police H. Allen Rutherford said Mrs. Lapham received a mysterious telephone call Tuesday night telling her to go to an address in South Boston because her husband was there. Chief Rutherford said the plan may be arranged whereby the obstacle of the tax payments may be surmounted, but how long it may take to convince the Liquidation Board's lawyers that the Connecticut Banking Department office to the counsel for the Deposits Liquidation Board at Washington and the discussion is still going on. It is now believed by Mr. DiNona and the Depositors' Committee that an attempt will be made to borrow the money from the state treasury, under the Legislative act is a matter of uncertainty. The government has the money and is willing to lend it. The Banking Department is willing that the money be borrowed from the state treasury, but red tape stands in the way of the depositors getting their 20 per cent dividend. Some day the red tape will be unraveled or cut. Probably it will not be long now.

TEN NATIONS TO CLASH IN CALIFORNIA SOCCER

By ERSKINE JOHNSON NEA Service Writer Los Angeles, Feb. 15.—It's almost a miniature Olympic games, this Southern California Sunday Soccer Football League. No less than 10 nationalities are represented, and they get along with one another like one big happy family. In no other city, perhaps, is the cosmopolitan sports feature so brought out as it is in Los Angeles soccer.

Nine teams compose the league. There are the Scots, all old country players from Scotland; Sons of St. George, a British group; Victoria Club, composed of Germans, most of whom don't speak English; the Magyar Athletic Club, which is Hungarian; the Juventus Club, Latin race, Italians and Spaniards; the Viking Club, Norics; the Los Angeles Athletic Club team, composed of Englishmen, Canadians, Welshmen and Scotsmen, and two Hollywood clubs of about the same extraction.

Each club has its own racial following. The Germans turn out and root for the Victoria. The Hungarians scream their heads off for the Magyars, and the Englishmen stick together for the Sons of St. George. In fact, there are but one for two American-born players in the entire roster of 162 registered soccer players in the Los Angeles territory. More international flavor will be lent the sport here late this month with the famous Aurora Club of Lima, Peru, playing Los Angeles All-Stars. The Lima team, reputed to be as strong as the great Uruguay team that won the 1928 Olympic title, is on a world-wide barnstorming tour which will take it to numerous cities throughout the nation following its appearance here.

Soccer has made much progress in the last few years. There are more than 2,000 registered players with the state association, almost as many as there are American football players in the state. All these men compete on teams entered in the annual state-wide tournament that decides the California championship by knockout competition.

Local games and league games, with altar and exhibition contests, are thrown in, make up the soccer season, which runs from October to April. The state title is now held by the Olympic Club of San Francisco.

Second Ditton—I married her and now she's my treasurer.

Life is like a game of cards, says a local man. Adding: "You must play the game with the hand that is dealt you. The greatest glory, after all, is winning with a poor hand, and the greatest disgrace is losing with a good one."

Consider the Hammer—It keeps its head. It keeps pounding away. It doesn't fly off the handle. It finds the point, then drives it home. It is the only knocker in the world that does any good. It makes mistakes, but when it does, it starts all over. It looks at its side too; and thus often clinches the matter. If you are inclined to lose your head and fly off the handle, "Consider the Hammer."

She (silly)—Evidently you regret having married me. The step is not irrevocable, however. If you care to be released from your bonds

He (interrupting, impatiently)—No, I'm no 90-day recruit. I enlisted for the term of the war. She couldn't think of any retort, so she maintained a scornful silence.

If you are poor, work... If you are burdened with seemingly unfair responsibilities, work... If you are happy, work... Idleness gives room for doubts and fears... If disappointments come, keep right on working. If sorrow overwhelms you and loved ones seem not true, work. If health is threatened, work. When faith falters and reason fails, just work. When dreams are shattered and hope seems dead, work. Work as if your life were in peril. It really is. No matter what ails you, work. Work faithfully—work with faith. Work is the greatest remedy for both mental and physical afflictions.
