

AVERAGE DAILY CIRCULATION for the Month of February, 1934
5,402
Member of the Audit Bureau of Circulations

Manchester Evening Herald

THE WEATHER
Forecast of U. S. Weather Bureau, New Haven
Snow, colder late tonight; Sunday fair and occasional cold.

VOL. LIII, NO. 136

(Classified Advertising on Page 14)

MANCHESTER, CONN., SATURDAY, MARCH 10, 1934.

(TWELVE PAGES)

PRICE THREE CENTS

NO ADMISSION FEE CHARGED AT BIG SCHOOL

Herald's Cooking Sessions Free to All Women — Opens Tuesday Morning at 10 in State Theater.

Because Mrs. Edna R. Crabtree is a lecturer and demonstrator of national reputation, and because the Cooking School activities are taking on such important proportions, many women of Manchester and vicinity believe that there is to be a fee for the daily sessions. There is no charge whatever for any of the Cooking School activities. No tickets are required. No admission slip of any kind need be presented. All that is necessary is to come early, find a good seat, and be ready when Mrs. Crabtree walks out into her kitchen and begins her fascinating program.

Mrs. Edna R. Crabtree

Fascinating and fascinating it will be, according to the women who have heard her talk on other occasions. Mrs. Crabtree has spoken before many thousands of women in all parts of the country. She has an excellent voice which can be heard all over the State theater. She is good to look at as she goes smoothly and quickly about her cooking in the kitchen. She has had a wealth of experience in home-making, in special training for her Cooking School lecturing, in studying foods, cookery and home appliances in all parts of the country.

She brings this experience with her charm and good stage personality to Manchester next week, in the great Manchester Herald Cooking School. Comfortable seats in the State theater, a fine kitchen equipped with new devices and utensils help make this event one of the outstanding occasions of its kind in the community.

Planned Carefully This School is planned in every detail for the housekeeper. The interest and co-operation of their shops, grocery stores, markets and other merchants have been enlisted. For Mrs. Crabtree knows that it is important to work with and describe only such supplies as her listeners can get at their own merchants.

Some of these shops are co-operating.

JAPS FEAR PLOTS ON EMPEROR'S LIFE

Even Movie Men Are Carefully Searched Before They Can Take Picture.

Heinking (Chang Chun), Manchuria, March 10.—(AP)—The enthronement of Emperor Kang Teh has not lessened the fears of the Japanese military that plots are being laid against his life.

The Japanese army is taking amazing precautions to protect him. Visiting American newspapermen and motion picture photographers are among those who are being handled with a gloved but steel hand.

A few days ago, an American movie man, seeking to film the 28 year old Emperor, was subjected to a rigid search for arms. Before they were permitted to enter the palace grounds their equipment was searched for possible bombs.

At the enthronement, newspapermen escaped these ordeals but other American spectators were searched. Americans staying at local hotels accuse Japanese soldiers of repeatedly searching visitors rooms and baggage.

Hotel guests from Moscow, it is said, receive special attention from the soldiers.

FRANCE WOULD MAKE BIG BOND ISSUE FOR ARMS

Plans to Raise $197,000,000 for Bigger Air Fleet, Army, Navy and Coast Defenses.

Paris, March 10.—A bond issue of 3,000,000,000 francs (currently $197,400,000) is sought by the French government today to make France invincible in the air, on land and by sea.

Special emphasis is placed on the "necessity" of a strong air fleet in a bill introduced in Parliament yesterday seeking expenditures in addition to the regular budget.

A flat refusal to disarm "while Germany is rearming" was contained in the measure. This declaration was published by the Foreign Office and sent to Geneva, Berlin and London.

"An air fleet of the first magnitude and capable of getting into action instantaneously was called for in the rigid French defense program, the cost of which the government proposed be borne by a bond issue. Authorization was asked by the government to reorganize the air force, to strengthen the coastal defenses and to speed up the appropriation asked on the army."

Britain Also Rearing (In London yesterday the British Under Secretary for Air, Sir Philip Sassoon, told Parliament that Great Britain had concluded she must "have parity in the air"; the British defense forces have asked appropriations totaling $577,651,850 for next year—about $24,206,250 more than last year.)

The bill here said France was using 1923 materials which were "now obsolete."

The navy asks 595,000,000 francs ($39,151,000) for various purposes, including 80,000,000 francs ($5,264,000) for the construction of 150,000-ton bases ($9,870,000) for hydroplane bases.

For airplanes of "quality instead of quantity" the Air Minister seeks $89,000,000 francs ($64,484,000).

NEW TAX SOURCES IN STATE SOUGHT

Public Hearing Called by Special Commission for March 20 at the Capitol.

A public hearing on possible new sources of revenue was announced today by the Connecticut Special Tax Commission, to be held on Tuesday, March 20, at 2 p. m. in the State Chamber of the State Capitol.

Study Other States The Commission announced that an extensive survey of the revenue systems of the forty-eight states and of more than 25 states which have disclosed that the only substantial sources of tax revenue which the state has not already tapped are limited rather strictly to the various forms of selective and general sales and personal income taxes. Both the experience of these other governments and current discussions of tax problems lead the Commission to expect that income and sales taxes will provide the principal topics for consideration at this hearing.

Both of these taxes have been widely adopted in the United States. There are now 25 states which have comprehensive personal income taxes and 19 states having general sales taxes. In addition, there are 4 states imposing income taxes in lieu of property taxes upon certain intangible property, and many states which have adopted selective sales taxes on such articles as tobacco and soft drinks which are now taxed by this state. Such taxes have yielded substantial revenues. Of course their productivity has been seriously undermined by the depression, and this is particularly true of net income taxes. This trend is well illustrated by the individual income tax imposed by the federal government, the revenues from which declined in the fiscal year ending last June to less than one-third of their former level.

Objections In the opinion of the Commission, neither of these two forms of taxation is without defects. Net income taxes have been criticized because of the variability of their yield and because of the extensive use of this form of taxation by the federal government. On the other hand, general sales taxes are objectionable because of the burden which they impose upon those with small incomes and because of their possible disturbance to business conditions in the state. It is also contended that these taxes, and especially the net income tax, give rise to serious administrative complications and necessitate expensive administrative machinery.

In holding this hearing the Commission does not intend at this time to commit itself to the finding of any new source of revenue. It feels

(Continued on Page Two.)

Army Airmail Flyer, Lost In Blizzard, Plunges To His Death In Ohio Cornfield

Lost in a blinding snowstorm, Lieut. Otto Weinecke, Army airmail flyer, crashed to his death in a cornfield near Burton, O., when he attempted to make an emergency landing, after his gas supply ran low. Wreckage of his plane is shown in this striking photo. Weinecke, flying one mail from Newark to Cleveland, was the third mail aviator to die in Ohio since the Army took over the service.

NOTED JOURNALIST DIES IN NEW YORK

Prof. Allen Sinclair Will Passes Away After Brief Illness—Was 65.

New York, March 10.—(AP)—Prof. Allen Sinclair Will, director of the Department of Journalism of Rutgers University and associate professor of journalism of the Columbia University School of Journalism, died today at Wickersham hospital.

Cerebral embolism and pneumonia were given as the cause of death. He was 65 years old.

Prof. Will collapsed Sunday and was taken to the hospital. Yesterday his daughter, Mrs. Harry S. Willis, announced that her father's condition was critical and that he was not expected to survive the day. The end came at 5:15 a. m.

Born in Antioch, Va., Prof. Will received his master of arts degree from St. John's college, Annapolis, Md.; his degree of Doctor of Literature from St. Mary's college, and degrees of Doctor of Laws from St. John's college and Loyola college, Baltimore.

After leaving college he was for a time principal of a public school in Virginia, and later was a teacher in a private classical school in Baltimore.

Began as Reporter He began his newspaper career as a reporter on the Baltimore Morning Herald and then went to the Baltimore Sun, of which he became assistant city editor. He served as telegraph editor, city editor, associate editor and editorial writer on the Baltimore News, and served as news editor of the Philadelphia Public Ledger from 1914 to 1916.

He served as assistant editor and special writer on the New York Times from 1917 to 1924 and had been a book reviewer on the same paper since 1924. Also he had served as associate professor of journalism at Columbia University since 1924, and had been professor of journalism at Rutgers since 1926.

Among his books were "World Crisis in China," published in 1900, and a two-volume "Life of Cardinal Gibbons," in 1922. This latter work was translated into French in 1925.

(Continued on Page Two.)

CRUCIBLE TRADES FIRST TO LIFT PAY

Refractories Industries Put Up Wages, Cut Hours in Answer to NRA Plea.

Washington, March 10.—The refractories industries, employees of 20,000 workers in the mining of clay and the manufacturing of crucibles, fire brick and various materials used in steel, iron and glass, informed General Hugh S. Johnson, National Recovery Administrator, today that it would reduce working hours 10 per cent and raise wages.

By this action, taken at a meeting of its code authority, the refractories industry became the first in the country to follow the general principles proposed by President Roosevelt and to accept the specific suggestions advanced by General Johnson.

The N. R. A. was informed that several other industries were prepared to take similar voluntary action.

2,000 Extra Jobs Created The forty-hour maximum work week in the refractories industry will be changed to a thirty-six hour week and the minimum pay for common labor will be advanced 10 per cent, with the maintenance of existing differentials for other classes of labor. Immediate extra employment of 2,000 workers is projected.

(Continued on Page Two.)

HOUSE COMMITTEE VOTES AGAINST FOX'S CLAIMS

Recommends That Rep. Higgins, Republican, Be Seated—Second District Election Was Under Dispute.

Washington, March 10.—(AP)—House Elections Committee No. 3 recommended today that the contest brought by William C. Fox, Democratic nominee in the Second Connecticut Congressional district, be thrown out and that Representative William L. Higgins, Republican, be seated.

The committee found, the report said, that the contestant had failed to substantiate claims that a majority of the voters wished to cast their ballots for him but were confused by the presence on the ballot of the "Wet Party" ticket. Fox claimed the candidacy for Congress of Michael H. Rollo of New London on a ticket designated by that name had caused voters to mark his party ticket as well as the ticket of one of the major parties in the belief they were voting on a referendum to the Congress for repeal of the 18th Amendment.

Committee's Report The committee is expected to call the case up for action by the House early next week.

"The committee finds," the report said, "that there is no evidence in the record supporting the contention that the contestant caused Rollo to become a candidate by that name, the designation of the 'Wet Party' and that there is no evidence supporting the contention that the filing of Rollo's party platform and party designation was by the procurement or even with the knowledge of the contestant."

Fox originally contended Higgins had solicited the candidacy of Rollo for the purpose of confusing Democratic voters, but his attorneys said at the recent arguments before the committee that they had dropped that claim because of lack of evidence to substantiate it.

Some Confusion "While it is probable that some confusion arose through Rollo's candidacy on the 'Wet Party' ticket," the report continued, "the committee has not been offered any evidence that the contestant, as secretary of state, designedly caused the ballots to be printed in order to create confusion or for the purpose of obtaining an advantage as a candidate."

In the last contention of the contestant it is the duty of the committee to conclude from the evidence in the record that by reason of the confusion in the minds of some of the voters, 624 ballots were rejected, and that of the rejected ballots, the committee should credit to the contestant 447 rejected ballots, and to the contestant, 147, which would result in a net credit to contestant of 300 votes and give him a plurality of 71 votes.

"The contestant admits that these

(Continued on Page Two.)

Modernistic Art Banned By Westport Architect

Westport, Conn., March 10.—(AP)—Whether the critics like it or not, Sanford Evans, noted architect, intends to stick by his ban against modernism on CWA, art projects in Westport.

The chairman of the CWA art committee caused something of a fuss in this town, home of many artists, and writers, by warning in a recent speech that "there will be no radical art in Westport, no cubism."

"The public of Westport," he asserted, "won't have to have some one decipher the paintings on the walls of their buildings."

His edict brought from John Sloan, president of the Association of Independent Artists, the comment that it was "sheer conservative stupidity." Walter Patch, writer and artist, questioned the competency of Evans to rule on such matters.

But said Evans: "I'll stand back of anything I said regardless of what Sloan or Patch say. The public is going to be safeguarded against public buildings being disfigured by poor work-

(Continued on Page Two.)

WIDE ICC CONTROL OR TRANSIT CHAOS, EASTMAN WARNING

Congress Hears Indian Romance Representative Blackwell Surprises Colleagues as He Recites All the Details.

Washington, March 10.—(AP)—A Congressional echo of a 150-year-old romance between a French nobleman and an Indian girl brought Representative Blackwell, Connecticut's former Yale professor Congressman, to his feet in protest.

"It appears," he said, in opening debate on a bill favorably reported by the committee on Indian affairs, "that some time before the French revolution a French count, a roistering blade, saw a dusky Indian maiden by the name of 'Laughing Buffalo' on the streets of Paris, became forthwith enamored of her, and sought a meeting with the fair charmer, but without success. She had left for home in the New World before he had the opportunity of making her acquaintance."

"He immediately followed, but unfortunately 'Laughing Buffalo' had set sail for New Orleans and the count found himself on a boat bound for Montreal. Nevertheless the ardor of his passion unabated, he still determined to find the maiden. Now such was the affinity of these two souls that the count, setting out from Montreal, and 'Laughing Buffalo' from New Orleans, they were drawn together some-where on the prairie of Nebraska. They were married and in the due course of time three children resulted from the union."

The bill would register 57 of their descendants as members of the Omaha tribe, with the rights to receive certain payments. It was passed over without action.

Representative Goss's committee duties may keep him in Washington late into the summer, long after the session has adjourned.

He is a member of two sub-committees investigating activities of the War Department. In addition he is a member of a sub-committee of the appropriations committee examining permanent appropriations. Goss has expressed himself as opposed to the mounting list of permanent appropriations, appropriations provided for by past Congresses, which remain on the statute books demanding allotments from current funds.

However, the hearings on the Army air corps are expected to require the most prolonged attention. The sub-committee, headed by Representative Rogers (D., N. H.), has duties ahead of it which will probably require several months.

Goss was attending a meeting of the sub-committee which lasted later than the regular House session. The report was accompanied by bills recommending that Goss be seated and the contest of Martin L. Gormley be dismissed. Goss went directly from the committee room to his home and did not learn of the report until several hours later.

KAMINSKI'S MOTHER ASKS TO SEE HIM

Writes Letter to Sheriff Requesting Permission to Visit Son for Last Time.

New Britain, March 10.—(AP)—Apparently misled by the announcement that no visitors will be permitted to visit Alexander Kaminski, convicted of murder in Springfield, Mass., yesterday into believing that she never will see her son again, Mrs. John Kaminski, his mother, of this city has addressed the following letter to Sheriff David J. Manning of Hamden county in whose custody the convicted man now is:

"From information I have received, it will be impossible for me to see my son Alexander before he is last time before his death without your permission.

Desires To See Him "It is my desire to see him at least once more before he is taken away from me. I will not rest until this is granted, regardless of the announcement that no persons will be allowed to visit him.

"Being his mother, it is my duty to see him once again and leave him my blessings for his consolation. Please reply as soon as you can."

Local police were informed yesterday that no one will be permitted to visit Kaminski in the jail as Sheriff Manning is taking precautions against any overt act. John Kaminski, brother of Alexander, has been indicted for attempting to blow up the Springfield Court House and for shooting Sheriff Manning during Alexander's trial.

Alexander was found guilty by a jury of slaying Merritt W. Hayden, a jail guard, while he and Paul Wargo of Wallingford were escaping from the jail. Wargo has been taken to Charlestown prison to serve a life term. In the ordinary course of events, Alexander will be sentenced to die in the electric chair.

TREASURY BALANCE. Washington, March 10.—(AP)—The position of the Treasury March 8 was:

Receipts $11,823,877.68; expenditures $23,624,541.72; balance $4,842,564,663.86; customs receipts for the month $6,149,398.97.

Receipts for the fiscal year (since July 1) $1,981,931,849.98; expenditures $4,398,413,340.91 (including $2,518,254,658.03 of emergency expenditures); excess of expenditures $2,416,481,490.93; gold assets $7,568,783,161.54.

(Continued on Page Two.)

Coordinator Urges Placing Water and Motor Transport in Hands of Interstate Commerce Commission—Sees Ruminous Conflict Between Groups and Within Them — Bitter Struggle Has Followed Pouring of Capital Into Transportation Facilities.

Washington, March 10.—(AP)—Coordinator Joseph B. Eastman today warned Congress of a "threatening chaos" in the Nation's transportation system.

Choosing words carefully, he urged it be averted by placing complete control of water, motor truck and bus transportation under the Interstate Commerce Commission.

The report of the Federal coordinator of transportation was the second in a series he will make to President Roosevelt and Congress. In it he answered an emphatic "yes" to these two questions:

"Is there need for Federal legislation to regulate other (than rail) transportation agencies and to promote proper coordination of all means of transport?"

"Is there need for amendments to the Federal statutes to improve details of the present system of regulating the railroads?"

Eastman's first report outlined a tentative plan for government operation of the railroads and another for enforced consolidation, but said the time was not yet ripe for either.

Air Transportation. Reports on air transportation and labor situations are in progress and will be delivered shortly.

Today he recommended, in addition to an expanded ICC control:

Minimum as well as maximum joint rail-water rates; relaxing the long and short haul clause of the Interstate Commerce Act; and shortening periods of limitation with respect to claims against carriers.

Eastman pointed out the vast pouring of capital into transportation facilities other than rail since 1920. He said:

"The natural result has been a bitter struggle for traffic, not only between the various forms of transportation, but within each subdivision, and this struggle has been intensified by the depression.

"This situation, which has been continually growing more acute, not only imperils the financial stability of the National transportation system, but it threatens the wages and working conditions of labor, and it creates a demoralization in rates and charges which in the long run is a menace to commerce and industry."

The object of handing such sweeping control to the ICC, he said, was not only the protection of the railroads, but also "the proper protection of every form of transportation."

Each can do certain things better than the other, he said, and added bluntly:

"It is too much to expect that all of the present facilities of transportation in each group can survive, for there are many which are now without economic justification, but out of the present confusion and waste a sound and well coordinated national system of transportation can be built."

"The agency to achieve this result is believed to be the Interstate Commerce Commission."

The ICC, which withheld all comment upon Eastman's first report, today nodded agreement to the present recommendations. There was only one rift.

Chairman Lee and Commissioner McManamy objected to any changes in the long and short haul clause. The report was accompanied by bills for regulation of motor and water carriers and one making the other suggested amendments in the Interstate Commerce Act.

"In our judgment, said the commission, "the enactment of the two bills is imperatively necessary under present conditions."

"If on account of pressure of time, the Congress should find it impossible or impracticable to undertake to enact into law all three classes of proposed legislation, we recommend that precedence be given to the first two. These we recommend unanimously."

SOME HIGHLIGHTS. Washington, March 10.—(AP)—Here, in a nutshell, are the recommendations made to Congress today by Joseph B. Eastman, Federal coordinator of transportation. He suggested the interstate commerce commission be given power to:

Regulate motor truck and water transportation.

Fix minimum as well as maximum

(Continued on Page Two.)

APPETIZING MENU FOR MASONIC BALL

Chicken Salad, French Ice Cream and Fruit Punch Among Items.

The Green and Gold Pastry Shop will cater at the 23rd annual Masonic Ball...

The committee in charge has notified Mr. Waddell that there will be a larger crowd than ever before...

Holger Bach, Ernest T. Bentley, Harry B. Bissell, William M. Brown, Aaron C. Albert T. Dewey...

WALCOTT PLEASSED WITH GAME BILLS

Washington, March 10.—(AP)—"Fish and game have had their day in Congress and the conservation of our wild life met with a signal victory..."

The duck stamp bill will produce in the neighborhood of a million dollars a year for the acquisition and maintenance of waterfowl refuges...

HOUSE COMMITTEE VOTES AGAINST FOX'S CLAIMS

Ballots were properly rejected under the law of the State of Connecticut. But the contestant claims it is perfectly clear that it was the contention of the 224 voters of the rejection of ballots not to vote for Rollo but to vote either straight Republican or straight Democratic and for repeal.

The law is perfectly explicit that the ballots which were rejected should have been rejected. In fact, this is admitted by the contestant and the committee so finds.

There is practically no evidence before the committee as to what the intention of these voters was. Only five witnesses were called, who testified that they intended to vote their old party affiliation and for repeal.

The ballots were marked for Rollo as well as for other candidates and the committee has no means of ascertaining whether it was the intention of the voter to vote for Rollo and otherwise the straight Republican and Democratic ballot or whether it was the intention of the voter to vote the straight old party ticket and for repeal.

The only evidence before the committee of the intention of the voter is from the mouths of two witnesses—three women and two men—who testified that in voting in the "wet party" circle they intended to vote for repeal.

WEATHER PROPHET SAYS SNOWSTORM IS ON WAY

Wapping Forecaster Claims Blizzard of 1888 May Be Repeated Tonight or Sunday.

History is to repeat itself tomorrow, according to Charles Maag, South Windsor weather prophet, who said this morning that there was snow in the air, that it was due tonight or early tomorrow and was to be, according to schedule, the hardest storm of the winter.

PLANS TO DISCONTINUE HIS HARDWARE BUSINESS

E. A. Lettney, Who Conducted Store at 38 Main Street, Will Auction Stock Thursday.

E. A. Lettney, who conducts a hardware and tinning shop at 38 Main street, the oldest continued establishment of this kind in Manchester, is to retire from business.

SMALL INDUSTRIES TO REPORT ON NRA

First Meeting of Its Kind in New England Held Next Week.

Hartford, March 10.—(AP)—The factual research report on the NRA's effect on smaller industries of New England will be presented to the quarterly meeting of the New England Council at Hotel Bond next Friday afternoon.

The council session will be in two parts with morning and afternoon sessions for both with state group meetings over which State vice presidents will preside.

IRISH FREE STATE BUSINESS BETTER

steadier stock market and small fluctuation in yen exchange are more favorable factors. Commodity prices are in a downward trend and raw silk prices particularly are lower.

China—Imports into China in January, 1934, totaled 56,000,000 gold units in value, compared with 51,000,000 in the same period of last year.

DEMOCRATS SEEK ECONOMY ACCORD worried over the result of the caucus last night when the veto-bloc voted in effect to restore Spanish-American and World War veteran "presumptive" cases to 75 per cent of their original benefits.

NOTED JOURNALIST DIES IN NEW YORK

Prof. Will's home was at 309 West 86th street, New York City. In 1891 he married Allie Stuart Walter of Linden, Va. Surviving him are two daughters, Mrs. Willis and Mrs. L. T. Harris.

Five Generations are Represented in This Manchester Family

Five generations in the family of Alexander Hall, of 59 Apel Place, this town, are pictured in the above photograph. Reading from the right, in proper age sequence, they are: Mr. Hall; his daughter, Mrs. Sarah McGonigal, of 175 Woodbridge St., this town; his granddaughter, Mrs. Horace S. Riverburg, of Park Avenue, Windsor; his great grandson, Irving E. Riverburg, of Park Avenue, Windsor; and his great great granddaughter, little Sue Ann Riverburg, of Park Avenue, Windsor.

METHODIST CHURCH FINANCES IMPROVE

Annual Meeting Preceded by Supper Held at the North Methodist Church.

Members of the North Methodist church family gathered in the vestry last night for their annual business meeting and supper.

NEW TAX SOURCES IN STATE SOUGHT

that it has before it problems of greater immediate importance. It does, however, believe it advisable to secure an expression of public opinion both as to the necessity of new taxes and as to the kind of tax most likely to secure public approval.

OBITUARY

FUNERALS

Mrs. Gertrude M. Beebe The funeral of Mrs. Gertrude M. Beebe, wife of Stephen R. Beebe of Woodland street, will be held this afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of the family.

WIDE CCI CONTROL OR TRANSIT CHAOS, EASTMAN WARNING

Establish through railroad routes where deemed necessary, regardless of whether any line would be "short-nailed."

ABOUT TOWN

John Dillworth, proprietor of the Depot Square barber shop, which has been closed for two weeks, is a patient at the Manchester Memorial hospital with pneumonia, but is showing improvement.

The CWA painters and plasterers are to start work this afternoon in the office of Town Treasurer G. H. Waddell, replacing the plaster and paint.

The Sons of Italy will hold their regular meeting at Finkler Hall tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock.

HOME LOANS INSPIRE BACK TAX PAYMENTS

Collector Howe Receives $609 During Past Week in Interest on Liens and Fines.

During the present week there has been turned over to Tax Collector G. H. Howe a total of $609, representing interest on liens, back taxes and lien fines that were released through the securing of four home loans given on property in Manchester.

POLICE COURT

John Crockett of 29 Edgerton street was fined $10 and costs on Town Court by Judge Raymond A. Johnson this morning for intoxication.

NO ADMISSION FEE CHARGED AT BIG SCHOOL

(Continued from Page One)

ing to make the sessions at the State theater next week, the best and most interesting ever given a Cooking School audience.

New recipes, new suggestions for planning daily meals, ideas about preparation and serving of food, new tricks, new methods, new ways of beating, combining, cooking will be an important part of the morning's demonstration.

At the same time Mrs. Crabtree will talk to the women of Manchester about new discoveries in foods, new ideas in health and diet, new theories of menu making.

The four loans secured through this medium has resulted in the tax collector receiving checks of $234.21, $349.59, $216.68 and $109.52.

State Program WEEK OF MARCH 11

SUN. - MON. - TUES. Gable & Colbert "IT HAPPENED ONE NIGHT"

WED. AND THURS. JEANETTE MACDONALD NOVARRO

in "Cat and the Fiddle" "Six of a Kind" With Charlie Ruggles Mary Boland W. C. Fields Burns & Allen

FRI. AND SAT. JAMES CAGNEY "JIMMY THE GENT"

And SUMMERVILLE & PITTS in "LOVE BIRDS"

COMING NEXT SUNDAY EDDIE CANTOR in "ROMAN SCANDALS"

in the annals of Manchester home-keeping. Be on hand to share in the big event — she gives out new recipes daily and also gives away the dishes cooked at the School.

JAP PUBLISHER SLAIN Tokyo, March 10.—(AP)—Sanji Muto, 68, president of the newspaper Jiji Shimpo, died at 9:30 p. m. today of the wounds he suffered when an unemployed salesman shot him three times yesterday.

Advertisement for the movie 'Straightaway' featuring Sue Carol and Tim McCoy. Includes the text 'He raced against death for love!' and 'The Most Puzzling, Bewildering Crime Thriller of Them All'.

Advertisement for the movie 'FOG' featuring Mary Brian, Donald Cook, and Reginald Denny. Includes the text 'The Most Puzzling, Bewildering Crime Thriller of Them All' and 'SERIAL: "THREE MUSKETEERS" CIRCLE SUNDAY'.

Large advertisement for the play 'Hamlet Yet!' by The Community Players. Features the text 'The D. A. R. Presents The Community Players in "ERSTWHILE SUSAN" She acted once even! Whiton Memorial Hall Tuesday, Mar. 13, 8:30 p. m. All Seats 40c. Reserved Seats Sold or Exchanged Keller's Y. M. C. A. Kemp's Potterton & Kran'.

Large advertisement for the movie 'It Happened One Night' featuring Clark Gable and Claudette Colbert. Includes the text 'CLARK GABLE CLAUDETTE COLBERT in "It Happened One Night" ADDED FEATURES "DAVY JONES LOCKER" COLOR CARTOON STATE NEWS EVENTS 3-DeLuxe Shows-3 5-7-9 Box Office Opens 4:45 Sun.-Mon.-Tues. Last Day—"Search For Beauty" and "Fighting Code"'

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

Parables of the Kingdom

Text: Matt. 13:1-52

The International Uniform Sunday School Lesson for March 11.

By WM. E. GILROY, D.D., Editor of The Congregationalist

The teaching of Jesus was largely in terms of illustration. Much of what He had to proclaim was too high and deep for people to understand...

It is true that, even with the simplification of His teaching, those who heard Him did not always understand, and they came asking to have the meaning of the parables explained to them.

We study a parable or a story, told to express or illustrate truth, to discover some meaning that had not grasped at first...

We had seen made that the parables of Jesus were understood by everybody. That is not true. Jesus Himself complained that His hearers did not grasp His meaning...

Here, in our lesson, we have six parables, all intended to illustrate the nature of the Kingdom of God, its growth among men and its issues.

The parable of the treasure hidden in the field represents, rather, the attitude of the individual toward the Kingdom and the means of its entrance into it...

Here, in twelve verses, we have a marvellously rich and suggestive portrayal of the Kingdom. Nothing less than a lifetime suffices to consider such teaching and to express it in actual living.

Monday at 8—Everyman's Class is invited to attend Sunday at Methodist Brotherhood meeting at which Professor Hedley of Hartford Seminary will speak on "For Such An Age As This."

SWEDISH CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

Swedish Morning Worship, 10:30. English Morning Worship, 11:10. Sunday school, 12:00. Young People's Service, 7:30. Communion service after this meeting.

WAPPING

Alfred Stone, who has been at the Manchester Memorial hospital for the past few days, returned to his home on Laurel Hill last Wednesday afternoon.

THE LORD'S GOVERNMENT

By GEORGE HENRY DOLE

International Sunday-School Lesson Text, Matt. 11:1-12

"Of the increase of His government and peace there shall be no end."—Isaiah 9:7.

The government of the Lord is His kingdom, the kingdom of heaven. In essence it surpasses all national and political descriptions, and yet the Lord tries to tell by comparisons what it is like.

Again, the kingdom of heaven is the Kingdom of God. The ground that brings forth manifold is the truth which, understood and done, what they teach.

CHURCHES

SECOND CONGREGATIONAL

Morning worship at 10:45. Sermon by the pastor, "Shall We Worship Jesus?" The music: Prelude—Allegretto—Rubinstein. Anthem—The Loving Father.

Monday at 7:30—Boys Scouts. Monday at 7:30—King's Daughters meeting with the Forget-Me-Not Circle as guests, and a program for the juniors.

Monday at 8—Everyman's Class is invited to attend Sunday at Methodist Brotherhood meeting at which Professor Hedley of Hartford Seminary will speak on "For Such An Age As This."

Monday at 8—Everyman's Class is invited to attend Sunday at Methodist Brotherhood meeting at which Professor Hedley of Hartford Seminary will speak on "For Such An Age As This."

THE SALVATION ARMY

Company meeting at 9:30 a. m. Holiness meeting at 11 a. m. The quartet will sing. Adjutant Martin will speak. International praise service at 8 p. m.

ST. MARY'S CHURCH

Sunday, March 11—Fourth Sunday in Lent. Services as follows: 9:30 a. m.—Church school. Men's Bible class.

MANCHESTER-VERNON PARISH

Methodist Episcopal Church. Marvln S. Stocking, Minister. Sunday, 9:45. Church School. 10:45. Worship including Sacrament of the Lord's Supper.

Ten-Shan Buddies

The Bulletin Board of Ex-Service Organizations.

British War Veterans. The regular monthly meeting of the Mons-Ypres Post will be held in the Army and Navy Club Wednesday evening March 14 at 8 o'clock.

The Mons-Ypres Post get-together which was held at the home of Comrade James Hamilton last Saturday night was a complete success.

Comrade Albert Lindsay representing the Mons-Ypres Post attended the Legion get-together which was held in Orange Hall last Wednesday evening.

Comrade Sandy and Sam Pratt of the Mons-Ypres Post have just received word of the death of their uncle, Mr. William John Henning of Horseshoe road, Belfast.

The Sewing circle of the Auxiliary held their weekly session at the home of Mrs. Louis Milligan last Tuesday evening.

The Auxiliary held another of their popular card parties at the home of Mrs. S. J. Haugh last Friday night.

Mrs. Norman Jones who has been confined at the Memorial hospital the past two weeks and who had to undergo an operation early this week, is now very much improved.

Norman McKee, son of Mrs. James McKee of the Auxiliary, was taken to the Memorial hospital Thursday morning to have his tonsils removed.

State V. W. Councilman Holzheimer has been making a survey of several Allied Veterans Councils that have been organized in Connecticut.

The time and place of the Annual Party has been decided upon, and members of the Post and Auxiliary will soon receive calls from committee members.

There are two forces that can keep America from becoming involved in another World War. A sane public mind, firmly adamant to the national interests of those who would enjoy immediate profits, is primarily essential.

A motorcycle rider questioned after a collision on a downtown Kansas City street told police there were so many bright advertising signs at the intersection he could not distinguish the traffic light.

Anderson-Shea Post, V. F. W.

The committees from the Post and Auxiliary met at the Armory last Monday to discuss plans for the joint anniversary banquet.

The members are urged to decide whether they wish to attend the banquet. The committee will contact each member very soon.

A short entertainment is planned, after which old-fashioned and modern dancing will follow. Those members who do not wish to dance, card games will be provided for their pleasure.

The members will be interested to know that the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Mahoney is greatly improved and out of danger.

Mrs. Louise Stadler, a forty-year-old German nursemaid, of 330 West 108th Street, was held yesterday in $20,000 bail by Magistrate Thomas Hughes in Flatbush Avenue Court, Brooklyn.

Specifically she was accused of the theft of jewelry valued at more than $5,000 from Mrs. Ida Jantzer, of 32 Midwood Street, Brooklyn, whom she worked only three hours on February 10 before she disappeared.

Mrs. Stadler was arrested in her well-furnished apartment in West 108th Street, where she sometimes gave piano lessons under the name of Madame Conde.

Mrs. Stadler was arrested in her well-furnished apartment in West 108th Street, where she sometimes gave piano lessons under the name of Madame Conde.

Mrs. Stadler was arrested in her well-furnished apartment in West 108th Street, where she sometimes gave piano lessons under the name of Madame Conde.

Mrs. Stadler was arrested in her well-furnished apartment in West 108th Street, where she sometimes gave piano lessons under the name of Madame Conde.

Mrs. Stadler was arrested in her well-furnished apartment in West 108th Street, where she sometimes gave piano lessons under the name of Madame Conde.

Mrs. Stadler was arrested in her well-furnished apartment in West 108th Street, where she sometimes gave piano lessons under the name of Madame Conde.

Mrs. Stadler was arrested in her well-furnished apartment in West 108th Street, where she sometimes gave piano lessons under the name of Madame Conde.

Mrs. Stadler was arrested in her well-furnished apartment in West 108th Street, where she sometimes gave piano lessons under the name of Madame Conde.

Mrs. Stadler was arrested in her well-furnished apartment in West 108th Street, where she sometimes gave piano lessons under the name of Madame Conde.

Mrs. Stadler was arrested in her well-furnished apartment in West 108th Street, where she sometimes gave piano lessons under the name of Madame Conde.

Mrs. Stadler was arrested in her well-furnished apartment in West 108th Street, where she sometimes gave piano lessons under the name of Madame Conde.

Mrs. Stadler was arrested in her well-furnished apartment in West 108th Street, where she sometimes gave piano lessons under the name of Madame Conde.

Mrs. Stadler was arrested in her well-furnished apartment in West 108th Street, where she sometimes gave piano lessons under the name of Madame Conde.

Mrs. Stadler was arrested in her well-furnished apartment in West 108th Street, where she sometimes gave piano lessons under the name of Madame Conde.

Mrs. Stadler was arrested in her well-furnished apartment in West 108th Street, where she sometimes gave piano lessons under the name of Madame Conde.

Mrs. Stadler was arrested in her well-furnished apartment in West 108th Street, where she sometimes gave piano lessons under the name of Madame Conde.

Mrs. Stadler was arrested in her well-furnished apartment in West 108th Street, where she sometimes gave piano lessons under the name of Madame Conde.

Mrs. Stadler was arrested in her well-furnished apartment in West 108th Street, where she sometimes gave piano lessons under the name of Madame Conde.

Mrs. Stadler was arrested in her well-furnished apartment in West 108th Street, where she sometimes gave piano lessons under the name of Madame Conde.

Mrs. Stadler was arrested in her well-furnished apartment in West 108th Street, where she sometimes gave piano lessons under the name of Madame Conde.

Mrs. Stadler was arrested in her well-furnished apartment in West 108th Street, where she sometimes gave piano lessons under the name of Madame Conde.

Mrs. Stadler was arrested in her well-furnished apartment in West 108th Street, where she sometimes gave piano lessons under the name of Madame Conde.

Mrs. Stadler was arrested in her well-furnished apartment in West 108th Street, where she sometimes gave piano lessons under the name of Madame Conde.

Mrs. Stadler was arrested in her well-furnished apartment in West 108th Street, where she sometimes gave piano lessons under the name of Madame Conde.

Mrs. Stadler was arrested in her well-furnished apartment in West 108th Street, where she sometimes gave piano lessons under the name of Madame Conde.

Mrs. Stadler was arrested in her well-furnished apartment in West 108th Street, where she sometimes gave piano lessons under the name of Madame Conde.

Mrs. Stadler was arrested in her well-furnished apartment in West 108th Street, where she sometimes gave piano lessons under the name of Madame Conde.

Mrs. Stadler was arrested in her well-furnished apartment in West 108th Street, where she sometimes gave piano lessons under the name of Madame Conde.

Overnight A. P. News

Washington.—National Labor Board announces hearing in the case of the Corcoran Shoe Company of Stoughton, Mass., scheduled for today.

Meriden, Conn.—Clarence P. Bradley, 71, president of the Bradley and Hubbard Manufacturing Company and noted philanthropist, died.

New Britain, Conn.—John McKenna, 16, ordered to spend every night in his home for a whole year after arrest on petty theft charge; the alternative is 60 days in jail.

A very interesting canning demonstration was given at the Town Hall Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. Marion E. Dakin, Extension nutritionist from Connecticut State College.

Twenty women enjoyed this meeting when Mrs. Dakin canned a sack and a piece of native beef. She told about canning in general and had a beautiful display of fruits and vegetables already canned.

Many questions were answered and a great deal of help was received by the women for the canning season which is not so far off.

Anderson Grange had the largest representation of members of any Grange at the school of instruction at Ellington Wednesday evening.

The following officers attended: Wallace Hilliard, Edwin Lindholm, Elmore Tuttle, Amy Randall, Howard Stanley, Mary Lindholm, Whitney Merritt, John Hutchinson, Mary Merritt, Evelyn Samuels and Frank Hamilton.

Other members who attended were: Elsworth Covell, Christine Covell, Doris Hutchinson, Bessie Hilliard and Rachel Stanley. Several state officers were present. Among them was Worthy State Master Frank Peet.

The meeting was very ably carried on by our Worthy Deputy Ira Wilcox with the assistance of State Master Peet. A great deal of help was derived from this school of instruction to be used in our own Grange.

Mrs. Ward Talbot was a caller in Manchester Wednesday afternoon. While there she visited Mrs. A. E. Frink who is at the Manchester Memorial hospital for treatment.

There will be a service at the Congregational church Sunday morning, the Rev. Wallace L. Wood-ward having recovered sufficiently from his recent illness to be able to preach. His topic will be "The High Adventure."

Mrs. Eugene Platt and children are spending the week-end with the former's father, Addison E. Frink.

A Thought

Therefore shall a man leave his father and his mother, and shall cleave unto his wife; and they shall be one flesh.—Genesis, 2:24.

Nothing is more noble, nothing more venerable than fidelity.—Cicero.

A message to my good neighbors

"As most of you know, I am manufactured right here in Manchester. You and I have been good neighbors for years. But may-Mar. 13, Mar. 14, Mar. 15, Mar. 16, you're too close to know all about me. Of course, I clean windows and mirrors. But I'm also mighty good on bathtubs, sinks, tile, white woodwork, kitchen utensils and even on automobiles. I haven't scratched yet... and I won't redder or roughen your hands, either."

Bon Ami

The Musical Event of The Year 6th ANNUAL G Clef Club CONCERT

At Emanuel Lutheran Church Tuesday, March 20, 8 P. M.

Assisting Artists: Miss Senta Hoffman, Harpist. Mr. Ivar Nelson, Violinist.

Admission 75c.

BAIL OF $20,000 FIXED FOR MAID

Police Lay 20 Jewel and Fur Robberies to Widow With Sick Son.

New York, March 10.—Mrs. Louise Stadler, a forty-year-old German nursemaid, of 330 West 108th Street, was held yesterday in $20,000 bail by Magistrate Thomas Hughes in Flatbush Avenue Court, Brooklyn.

Specifically she was accused of the theft of jewelry valued at more than $5,000 from Mrs. Ida Jantzer, of 32 Midwood Street, Brooklyn, whom she worked only three hours on February 10 before she disappeared.

Mrs. Stadler was arrested in her well-furnished apartment in West 108th Street, where she sometimes gave piano lessons under the name of Madame Conde.

Mrs. Stadler was arrested in her well-furnished apartment in West 108th Street, where she sometimes gave piano lessons under the name of Madame Conde.

Mrs. Stadler was arrested in her well-furnished apartment in West 108th Street, where she sometimes gave piano lessons under the name of Madame Conde.

Mrs. Stadler was arrested in her well-furnished apartment in West 108th Street, where she sometimes gave piano lessons under the name of Madame Conde.

Mrs. Stadler was arrested in her well-furnished apartment in West 108th Street, where she sometimes gave piano lessons under the name of Madame Conde.

Mrs. Stadler was arrested in her well-furnished apartment in West 108th Street, where she sometimes gave piano lessons under the name of Madame Conde.

Mrs. Stadler was arrested in her well-furnished apartment in West 108th Street, where she sometimes gave piano lessons under the name of Madame Conde.

Mrs. Stadler was arrested in her well-furnished apartment in West 108th Street, where she sometimes gave piano lessons under the name of Madame Conde.

Mrs. Stadler was arrested in her well-furnished apartment in West 108th Street, where she sometimes gave piano lessons under the name of Madame Conde.

Mrs. Stadler was arrested in her well-furnished apartment in West 108th Street, where she sometimes gave piano lessons under the name of Madame Conde.

Mrs. Stadler was arrested in her well-furnished apartment in West 108th Street, where she sometimes gave piano lessons under the name of Madame Conde.

Mrs. Stadler was arrested in her well-furnished apartment in West 108th Street, where she sometimes gave piano lessons under the name of Madame Conde.

Mrs. Stadler was arrested in her well-furnished apartment in West 108th Street, where she sometimes gave piano lessons under the name of Madame Conde.

Mrs. Stadler was arrested in her well-furnished apartment in West 108th Street, where she sometimes gave piano lessons under the name of Madame Conde.

Mrs. Stadler was arrested in her well-furnished apartment in West 108th Street, where she sometimes gave piano lessons under the name of Madame Conde.

Mrs. Stadler was arrested in her well-furnished apartment in West 108th Street, where she sometimes gave piano lessons under the name of Madame Conde.

Mrs. Stadler was arrested in her well-furnished apartment in West 108th Street, where she sometimes gave piano lessons under the name of Madame Conde.

Mrs. Stadler was arrested in her well-furnished apartment in West 108th Street, where she sometimes gave piano lessons under the name of Madame Conde.

Mrs. Stadler was arrested in her well-furnished apartment in West 108th Street, where she sometimes gave piano lessons under the name of Madame Conde.

Mrs. Stadler was arrested in her well-furnished apartment in West 108th Street, where she sometimes gave piano lessons under the name of Madame Conde.

Mrs. Stadler was arrested in her well-furnished apartment in West 108th Street, where she sometimes gave piano lessons under the name of Madame Conde.

Mrs. Stadler was arrested in her well-furnished apartment in West 108th Street, where she sometimes gave piano lessons under the name of Madame Conde.

Mrs. Stadler was arrested in her well-furnished apartment in West 108th Street, where she sometimes gave piano lessons under the name of Madame Conde.

Mrs. Stadler was arrested in her well-furnished apartment in West 108th Street, where she sometimes gave piano lessons under the name of Madame Conde.

Mrs. Stadler was arrested in her well-furnished apartment in West 108th Street, where she sometimes gave piano lessons under the name of Madame Conde.

Mrs. Stadler was arrested in her well-furnished apartment in West 108th Street, where she sometimes gave piano lessons under the name of Madame Conde.

Mrs. Stadler was arrested in her well-furnished apartment in West 108th Street, where she sometimes gave piano lessons under the name of Madame Conde.

Mrs. Stadler was arrested in her well-furnished apartment in West 108th Street, where she sometimes gave piano lessons under the name of Madame Conde.

Mrs. Stadler was arrested in her well-furnished apartment in West 108th Street, where she sometimes gave piano lessons under the name of Madame Conde.

Mrs. Stadler was arrested in her well-furnished apartment in West 108th Street, where she sometimes gave piano lessons under the name of Madame Conde.

Mrs. Stadler was arrested in her well-furnished apartment in West 108th Street, where she sometimes gave piano lessons under the name of Madame Conde.

Manchester Evening Herald

PUBLISHED BY THE HERALD PRINTING COMPANY, INC. 15 Bissell Street, Manchester, Conn. THOMAS FERGUSON, General Manager

Founded October 1, 1881. Published Every Evening Except Sundays and Holidays. Entered at the Post Office at Manchester, Conn., as Second Class Mail Matter.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES
 One Year, by mail ..... $3.00
 Per Month, by mail ..... $3.00
 Single copies ..... 10c
 Delivered, one year ..... $3.00

MEMBER OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for republication of all news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited in this paper and also the local news published herein.

All rights of republication of special dispatches herein are also reserved.

Full service client of N E A Service, Inc.

Publisher's Representative: The Julius Mathews Special Agency—New York, Chicago, Detroit and Boston.

MEMBER AUDIT BUREAU OF CIRCULATIONS

The Herald Printing Company, Inc. assumes no financial responsibility for typographical errors appearing in advertisements in the Manchester Evening Herald.

SATURDAY, MARCH 10

NAVY'S TWO MOODS

You probably could not find an officer of the United States Navy, from admiral to ensign, this year, last year, next year, or any other year, who would admit that any other football team in the world could beat Annapolis; but you can find them so thick they fall over each other who insist that there's hardly a navy anywhere that couldn't lick ours. It's funny about that. The only place where there doesn't seem to be the least bit of esprit de corps, the smallest particle of faith, the tiniest element of courage, throughout the Navy, is in the Navy's opinion of the fleet.

The fleet is terrible. It's all wrong and infinitely too small and it hasn't guns enough and if we should get into a war it would be just too bad because a navy of Eskimo kayaks could sink it—and would.

Of course this is always peacetime hokey. You never hear the Navy talk that way when war actually comes or really impends. Then the Navy always declares itself "Ready!" and goes to work and knocks the spots out of whatever enemy shows up. It has courage and confidence to give away. It never crabs nor complains. The American Navy, in war, has always been—and would be tomorrow—an inspiration of confidence and performance. But in peace time it sea-lawyers and whines all over the place, distributing forebodings and gloom and prognostications of disaster that, if uttered in the football squad room, would earn it a swift kick in the pants.

Some American statesman made the statement not long ago that the officers of the United States Navy, by their everlasting agitation for more and bigger ships, have done more to interfere with arrival at an international disarmament agreement than all the other military groups in the world put together. That sounds like exaggeration and probably is. But the Navy has very little right to resent such a charge.

The senator wasn't, of course, referring to the junior officers, but to the far too numerous admirals who spend so much of their time propagandizing for a bigger navy, and who, naturally set the fashion for Navy talk and the exertion of Navy influence.

It's all rather sad and—when you think of the way those chaps would rally forth if need be in a wash tub to fight an enemy battleship, and like enough beat it, without turning a hair or batting an eyelash—just a little bit humorous too.

LEIPZIG AND GOLD

During the more acute years of the depression there was constant complaint—the justice of which had visible proof in every hardware, department and special price store—that while American factories were idle millions of dollars worth of German made goods in endless variety were finding their way into American counters; goods bought by this country's merchants at prices with which no American manufacturer could compete.

For many hundreds of years the three great fairs held annually at Leipzig have drawn great hordes of buyers from all over Europe and Asia and, in later times, from America. By no means all the purchasing of German goods by Americans was done at these fairs, but a very great proportion of it was.

The great Easter fair is now on a correspondent of the New York Times on the ground reports that here are just two American buyers in Leipzig. That means that the flood of low priced German goods into this country has been suddenly stopped. It does not, however, prove or even indicate in any degree whatever that American merchants have all at once become so nationalistic that they refuse longer to buy in the cheapest market. The real meaning is that Germany has lost the paralyzing advantage over American manufacturers that for years she enjoyed through our remaining stubbornly on the gold standard and trying to do business in competition with the depreciated currencies of Europe.

The purchasing power of the American dollar is no longer, in Germany, what it was. So millions of dollars worth of goods for this year's trade are now being manufactured in American factories which would have been ordered at the Leipzig fair or elsewhere in Germany if we had not gotten away from that obsession of gold. It was hard to make Americans understand, in advance, this effect of abandoning the gold standard and devaluing the dollar. It is easy now.

MR. CHILD'S JOB

Perhaps the most extraordinary appointment made by the Roosevelt administration is that of Richard Washburn Child as "economic adviser" to the State Department. It is understood that Mr. Child is to go to Europe as a dickener in tariffs when—and if—Congress gives President Roosevelt the power to reduce duties in agreement with other trading nations.

The spectacle of this particular personage representing the United States in a matter of such gravity is enough to give any serious minded member of Congress the jitters, and if the administration does not provide some assurance that the guessing about Child's job is all wrong it ought to make the passage of the tariff-trading measure a matter of even greater difficulty than it is likely to be in any event.

Richard Washburn Child is quite possibly the most completely superficial person who ever had the amazing luck to get himself taken seriously either as a diplomat or as a commentator on statesmanship—and this latest attribute now ascribed to him, that of being an "economist," is so new that the varnish fairly reeks.

In the fields of discussion of international affairs Mr. Child carried a fluent vocabulary, an easy literary style and the untrammelled imagination of the realms of fiction in which he had made a moderate success. As a publicist his merit lay in dressing up all the moldy beliefs of extreme reaction in words and phrases less stodgy and repellent than those of their traditional advocates.

For years he flattered around the edges of big politics and big business, on tap at any moment in the service of any paymaster who wanted the old wines decanted into less dusty bottles.

But never in the world did anybody ever suggest that Richard Washburn Child was an economist of any sort—much less an economist of the New Deal variety—until this announcement of his retention by the administration to conduct the contemplated swapping of tariff schedules between this country and Europe.

The appointment is not only more than difficult to understand—it is almost certain to be keenly resented in Congress. The situation could hardly be more bizarre if the President were to ask Congress for authority to take over the automobile business of the country and select as its manager, in advance, somebody like Colonel Stoopnagle.

If for some obscure reason Mr. Child must be provided with a job has the government no envelopes to be addressed?

BELITTLEMENT

A Brooklyn girl of 11 ran away from home and tried to buy a bus ticket to Boston with her only dollar. It didn't work and nothing much happened except that the Manhattan police sent for the girl's mother and the runaway was returned home. The New York Times played up the story a little, however, for no better reason than that a rewrite man had the ingenuity to think of three reasons why a Brooklyn girl might want to go to Boston: First, it was necessary, in going away, to have an objective; second, the girl in the case had an aunt in Boston; third, she liked Boston baked beans.

Now, underneath, that's a lot of dirt—just another way of intimating that there couldn't possibly be any real, worthwhile reason why Stella Abramowitz or anybody else should want to go to Boston even from Brooklyn, let alone Manhattan; and written—and printed for that matter—with sly chuckles for the sole purpose of bringing some

Boston goat into the open with loud and angry "ba-a-h's." They do it differently in Boston. If Stella had lived in Roxbury and had been turned back in an attempt to chisel a bus ride to New York and if a Boston newspaper had bothered with the incident at all it wouldn't have strained its intellect to invent left handed reasons for a girl wanting to go to New York. It would have merely said: "Stella was found by the police trying to buy a ticket to Bangor, Me."

Boston's way of overwhelming the pretensions of New York is to say to itself over and over again, a la Coule, "There's no such place; there's no such place"—until presently, well, there just isn't any such place as New York. Before such a system the Times' feeble effort at belittling falls into insignificance.

MONKEY BUSINESS

There is a small stir down in Norwalk over the fact that several students of the Junior High School were required, as a punishment for some infraction of school regulations, to walk around the gym ten times on their hands and feet. Considerable indignation has been expressed over this unusual disciplinary measure and the School Board has ordered an investigation to ascertain who was really responsible for its infliction.

It is so long ago since this particular form of athletic stunt became a matter of sheer impossibility to us that we will have to leave it entirely to others whether such a penalty is actually cruel as well as unusual—though we seem to have some vague impression that once upon a time we belonged to a tribe that would have scorned any boy who could not, on occasion, travel about quite extensively in the manner and gait of the anubis baboon.

The question of whether such a penalty is proper or improper would seem to be one to be answered by a disinterested medical board, because the doubts must center on its possible physical effects, not at all on its appropriateness. For some of the monkeyshines that school children of the junior high age occasionally perform this high imitation would seem to be a marvelously conceived reward.

IN NEW YORK

By PAUL HARRISON.

New York, March 10. — "Red Emma" Goldman, who shelved her militant anarchism to the extent of saying a good word for President Roosevelt and living in non-proletarian style at the Astor after she was admitted to this country, is being welcomed wherever she goes by scores of people who "knew her when." Out of the friendly reminiscences at a dinner the other evening came some anecdotes concerning an Emma Goldman whom Red-shy America never knew. . . . One woman told of the time she went to visit the anarchist, who had been ill for several days, but now was convalescent. Found her still abed and inquired anxiously if there had been a relapse. Miss Goldman said no, she felt fairly well but wasn't able to be up and around yet because she didn't have any clothes. Seems that during her illness she had given away every stitch of her wardrobe to unfortunate friends who had come to see her.

Another friend once called on Miss Goldman and found her weeping bitterly. All her militant and courage and habitually cold demeanor seemed to be dissolved in some deep personal sorrow. The friend made sympathetic inquiry, "I guess anybody'd cry," sobbed the woman whose name in those days was supposed to be synonymous with blood and violence. "Do you realize that at this very minute four anarchists are being murdered in Japan?" One other slant on the real Emma Goldman: Her close friends agree that if she hadn't made headlines with her inflammatory political activities she would have become famous anyway with her coffee and cooking.

Just Drew Their Breaths

Eight of the most famous caricaturists in New York attended a luncheon at the Waldorf recently, and it was a pretty peculiar party. Two other caricaturists sent regrets. One was Will Cotton, who draws men with big red noses; he said he had a bad cold and such a red nose that he didn't like to appear in public. The other was Abe Birnbaum, who refused to attend because he was in sympathy with the hotel's striking waiters.

Al Hirschfeld showed up, but wouldn't drink the wine because it came from Germany. Gard, who was supposed to caricature some of the other caricaturists, forgot his drawing materials. Alajalou wouldn't pose, wouldn't make a speech, wouldn't even eat; just sat there. Irving Hoffman and Massaguer both declined the honor of caricaturing their fellow artists, and tried to pass the job on to Xavier Cugat. He, in turn, said he had another date and would have to go. Al Frush was called on for a speech on the art of caricature. He talked for half an hour on the advantages of living in Connecticut and the culture of various kinds of nut trees.

"You're Not Going To Let Him Boss You Like That, Are You?"

Business Off Stage
 A couple of young actors, William Ober and Wendell Whitten, went dashing into the station at Syracuse the other night to catch a train for New York, and were collared by several policemen. The pair had been playing in a presentation of "Rip Van Winkle," and had no idea, of course, that two other young men had staged a bank robbery in Rochester. Authorities in the latter city had tipped off Syracuse police to be on the lookout, and they were . . . Suspicion was aroused by the great haste of Messrs. Ober and Whitten, and the arresting cops were jubilant when they opened the actors' luggage and found several wigs and sets of false whiskers. Things were set right, finally, when the searchers got down to the Rip Van Winkle costumes.

do so. They should also try to strengthen their abdominal muscles so that the internal organs will be lifted.

The stout person must learn to control his appetite, and should walk and exercise whenever possible.

Each type has its benefits and its dangers, but do not be dissatisfied because you have a certain build, but try to make your body function most efficiently.

Scatica is usually more readily cured than arthritis; however, either disorder will, as a general rule, yield to the correct treatment. If you suffer any great amount of pain through the lower back region, I suggest that you apply heat in some form as this gives you a certain amount of temporary relief. You should use either the hot Sitz bath, the electric pad, the hot water bottle, the deep therapy lamp or any form of treatment which is soothing. In the meantime, I suggest that you write me again.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

(Arthritis and Scatica)
 Question From Wichita, Kans.: "What is the difference between arthritis and scatica?"
 Answer: Scatica refers to an inflammation of the sciatic nerve and may cause a pain through the lower part of the back and the legs. Arthritis is more likely to attack a joint. In some cases where the arthritis has settled in the lower part of the back it is necessary to make a complete examination in order to differentiate between scatica and arthritis and to make a correct diagnosis.

Behind the Scenes in WASHINGTON

Canners Discover They're in For a Real Battle . . . Two Officials Found Who Want Less Power . . . Hopkins Gets in Hot Water and Hushes Up.

By RODNEY DUTCHER, Herald Washington Correspondent
 Washington, March 10.—The administration's "consumers group" is making its supreme battle in the effort to get a grades-and-standards provision into the canners' code. Much of the maneuvering is going on backstage, including an attempt to convert the White House. The aim is to get cans of food grades A, B, and C, in accordance with grading standards already promulgated by the Department of Agriculture and used in the trade. Housewives are being deceived by label consumers, representatives charge and should be told whether a can's contents are superior, medium, or inferior. Price and quality have little relationship now, it's contended.

Some canners now use the grading system, but a majority oppose this "government interference with business" and argues that it would cause well-known trade-marks to lose value, that grading is an impossible science and can't be enforced or maintained.

The fight started in the AAA Consumers' Council Office, whose Mrs. Margaret Thompson took home a basket of canned stuff every night and studied the contents. The code was transferred to NRA after the Wallace-Tugwell-Peek fracas, whereupon the CCO and certain Department of Agriculture bureaus banded with NRA's Consumers' Advisory Board for the big push.

Canners were flabbergasted when a score of standards advocates paraded before the code hearing and, one by one, demanded reform. In the names of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, National Council of Women, A. F. of L., Women, National League of Women Voters, CCO, CAB, the federal Bureau of Home Economics, Agricultural Economics and Foods and Drug Administration, Washington

He said he'd be glad if anyone had any advice. Yes, the correspondents might use part of what he had said "for background."

Nearly always, such an official is safe. But there must have been some misunderstanding. A broad-casting chain and a single news-paper spilled the whole thing, alleging Hopkins' admission that the entire program was a flop. Now, at his press conference, Hopkins is brief and to the point, relatively uncommunicative. Roosevelt continues to talk, "off the record" and otherwise, twice a week. The White House has had little, if any, trouble with the practice.

Prepared to fulfill all requirements

ROBERT K. ANDERSON
 Funeral Director For
WATKINS BROTHERS, Inc.
 TEL. Office 8171. House 7494.

Health and Diet Advice

By Dr. Frank McCoy

THE RACE HORSE AND THE WORK HORSE

I probably receive as many letters from thin folks who wish to be fat as from fat folks who wish to become thin. It is often possible, to accomplish these desired results to a certain extent, but the tendency to either a thin or solid build is usually a characteristic which is inherent in the body's structure and can only be modified within limited degrees without injuring the health. This becomes very apparent in examining thin folks and fat folks under the X-ray.

In the heavy type we find a stocky individual; his chest is wide, but the lungs are small, being largely in the upper portion. His stomach is high up in the abdomen above the umbilicus and it hangs with the outlet of the stomach at the lower portion. Because of the small lungs the heavy person does not burn much oxygen and consequently the food he eats tends to accumulate as fat. He is especially likely to have diseases of the blood vessels and arterial hardening or kidney trouble. He very rarely has any stomach digestion and consequently usually eats too much. He seldom is troubled with constipation, although he is in danger of developing diabetes.

The thin person, on the other hand has long lungs and a narrow chest. His stomach sags down in the abdomen with the outlet high up so that it is difficult for food to empty out of the stomach. Because of the long lungs he usually does not breathe deep enough to entirely aerate the lungs so that he has a tendency toward tuberculosis. The stomach hangs down so low relative to the body that it is filled with the stocky person, and for this reason the thin one is usually very careful about his food. Furthermore the thin one is troubled with constipation and flatulence, but he very rarely is troubled with diseases of the arteries.

We may compare the thin person to the race horse, and the fat, solidly built person to the work horse. It would be impossible to make a work horse out of a race horse type through any kind of feeding. By restricting the diet and reducing a work horse until he is thin would not make him into a race horse. Two types are distinctive. Each type can be fed so that it will be healthy and well built for its type, but it is impossible to change one type into the other. Much the same condition is present in human beings. We find many different types, with these two as the most numerous.

The stocky individual gets along very well on a vegetarian diet, but the thin, wiry, nervous type always gets along better when meat, eggs, and the concentrated proteins are used. Thin people do not have much endurance and require plenty of sleep and it is often a good plan for them to lie down for a few minutes after lunch if they can arrange to

AROUND THE OLD FIRESIDE

DO YOU live in a fine old mansion, a house in a row, or just a few rooms in an apartment house? No matter! Wherever it is, that place is home . . . and it is still the best institution civilization has created. It is your own world!

You can make home what you please. With all the benefits of the modern world at your command in some form or another, you are in a position there to enjoy the best the world has to offer.

How can you make that home the most delightful place in the world?

This newspaper is a sort of courier bringing you the offerings of the great world outside. Don't neglect to read the advertisements. They tell what the great world has to offer you at fair prices and in most convenient form. Read them as you read the news, and you will have always before you a clear statement of the costs and value of all those material things that make life richer and home a place of happiness.

Manchester Evening Herald

Starting Tuesday March 13

And Continuing Through Friday, March 16

THE FIFTH ANNUAL

Herald

FREE COOKING SCHOOL

To Be Held In The

STATE THEATER

Offering You The Finest In Comfort And Convenience That You May Fully Enjoy
These Four Sessions

Starting at 10 A. M. Each Day

MRS. EDNA R. CRABTREE, Lecturer

25 Baskets Of Food Samples Given Away Each Day

1500 Fine, Comfortable Seats Available.
ROOM FOR EVERYONE

REMEMBER!

The Dates, The Time, and The Place---
In Manchester's Finest Place Of Entertainment---

The STATE
THEATER

Devout Hermit Poet Views '88 Blizzard

Bill Bradley, the "Hillstown Bard," Hated Selectmen But Fought for and Got Needed Sanitary Improvements at Almshouse Here.

A little paper called Bill Bradley's Occasional Paper, dated January 8, 1889 has just come to light. Bill Bradley, known to all at that time as the "Hillstown Bard" or the "Hillstown Poet," made no pretensions of being scholarly and as he states in his little occasional paper, which contains his most celebrated poem, "The Manchester Shovel Brigade" had never "been inside a college."

The Manchester Shovel Brigade

On the twelfth day of March, Eighteen-eighty-eight, It snowed in this shack at a terrific rate, It snowed and it snowed, it blowed and it blowed, And rendered impassable by path and road; And on the thirteenth, through the whole gloomy day, Without intermission kept snowing away;

Oh dear! and oh dear! such high mountains of snow! Not a den to a neighbor could anyone go; And people that were any distance away From lodgings or homes were compelled for to stay. God pity the wretches that hadn't laid in A store of provisions and plenty of grain! No one ever saw such a snowy blockade, Nor saw greater need of a shovel brigade.

'Tis but now and then, when there's danger to face, Or something or other disastrous takes place, And courage is wanted, we're able to ken The difference there is betwix bipeds and men. As long as there's nothing but talking to do The difference is almost concealed from our view, But when brunt's to be borne, then clearly I ween, The odds between bipeds and men can be seen. And this observation that just has been made Applies to the Manchester Shovel Brigade.

Worked Small Garden Bill worked the small garden near his home when the spirit so moved him, but neighbors often supplied milk and butter and Bradley throughout the latter part of his life was indebted to a Mr. Clark, chief owner of the Glastonbury Knitting company of Manchester Green and Addison, for providing the means for his livelihood.

Excuse this parenthesis, reader, I pray, And if you're a Selectman, mind what I say: The Selectman here are a niggardly pack, And if I had the power I would give them the sack. Not one single cent, for their shame be it said, Did they give to the Manchester Shovel Brigade.

The kindness of one, 'til the last suns have set, Wherever we travel, we ne'er will forget, And if any wish to know who that one is, Mr. Bunce is the man—God bless him and his! When Manchester wretched had worked to the line, And were, and no wonder, all exuding brine, King Bunce took the men, who'd been working like Turks, And bid their dry whistles to Mr. N. Burke's. And if Prohibitionists say he did wrong, May the idiots be buried in snow before long! All men will commend him though axes upbraid And now we have done with the Shovel Brigade.

CAPTAIN IN JAVANESE NAVAL MUTINY JAILED

Commander of Dutch Warship in East Indian Waters Is Given Four Months. The Hague, March 10.—A high military court here today sentenced Captain Eikenboom, former commander of the warship De Zeven Provincien, to four months' imprisonment and to discharge from the military service without prejudice against his serving in an administrative capacity with the armed forces. The prosecution asked for a sentence of one year.

Captain Eikenboom, it was testified, had been repeatedly warned a rebellion was brewing aboard his ship, but he failed to take the necessary steps to avert it or to punish infringements of discipline brought to his notice. His entire behavior in the court's opinion, bore evidence of gross carelessness. Dispatches from Surabaya, Java, announced that a court-martial there sentenced a fifth group of mutineers from the De Zeven Provincien to prison terms ranging from three months to six years. The

TRADE AND JOBS SHOW WIDE GAINS

Nationwide Survey Discloses Continued Improvement in Business Conditions. Washington, March 13.—Continued moderate improvement in business activity in January and the first half of February, together with an increase in private employment and a rise in commodity prices to the highest point in three years, was reported by the Commerce Department today in a monthly survey of current business. Expanding consistently throughout February, scheduled steel mill operations reached 46 per cent of capacity during the week ended March 3, the highest operating rate since last August.

January retail sales figures in most instances showed a recession from December approximating the usual seasonal movement for the month. Preliminary data on February department store sales show a little change from the January level, although the indicated gain over the corresponding month last year was 16 per cent on a daily average basis, or a slightly higher relative gain than was recorded in the preceding year.

Work Afloat for Poles Three poles, carrying overhead wire and a 100-pair cable, were down on the Canterbury turnpike in a little more than one hour two construction crews were on their way to clear the trouble. In twelve hours of actual work they stripped the line of the old poles, dug holes and set new line. This is considered an unusually quick performance inasmuch as the men worked in deep drifts and in digging holes the frost lay far below the normal winter level.

END OF BLIZZARD SEASON WELCOMED

Telephone Forces Who Did Heroic Work Hope for No More Storms. Although the "blizzard season" as established by the March 12 date of the blizzard of 1888 has not yet passed, officials at employees of the Southern New England Telephone Company will be very thankful if they never witness another storm like that of February 20, 1934 which left many homes without telephone service. Most repairs were completed by Thursday night.

TWO LOCAL STORES RECEIVE PERMITS

Edward J. Murphy and Dante Pagani May Now Sell Liquor. The first liquor permit to be granted to a drug store follows the ruling of the Supreme Court yesterday issued to Edward J. Murphy for his Center street store. The Liquor Control Board lost no time in getting to work on permits when it had an opportunity to render the ruling of the court and where it was found that the necessary details had been complied with.

BISHOP NILAN'S CONDITION

Hartford, March 10.—(AP)—Officials of St. Francis hospital reported today that there was no change in the condition of the Most Rev. Dr. John J. Nilan, Bishop of the Diocese of Hartford, who had been in the hospital since Feb. 22 in the hospital since February 22 in the hospital since February 22 in the hospital since February 22.

DIES FROM BURNS

New Britain, March 10.—(AP)—John H. Shaw, 62 of 812 Campbell Avenue, West Haven, an employee of the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad Company died today at New Britain General hospital of burns received in a fire in the local roundhouse on Feb. 9. When firemen responded to an alarm they found Shaw running from the building with his clothes ablaze. It was said that he had been working on a locomotive when a torch he had in

WTIC

Hartford, Conn. 50,000 W., 1060 K. C., 382-S M. Travelers Broadcasting Service. Saturday, March 10, 1934. 1:00 P. M.—Bulletins; Weather; Market Reports. 1:10—Rhythm Masters—Sid Pearl, director. 1:30—Blue Room Echoes—Joseph Blume, director. 1:45—Broadcast from Metropolitan Opera House. 5:00—Silent.

WDRG

Hartford, Conn. 1330 Program for Saturday, March 10. 9:00 P. M.—Savitt String Quartet. 9:30—Harold Knight's Orchestra. 10:00—Dancing Echoes. 10:30—Round Towners. 11:00—Ann Leaf at the Organ. 11:30—Hamilton College Choir, with Alexander Woolcott.

DAILY RADIO PROGRAM

SATURDAY, MARCH 10 (Central and Eastern Standard Time) Note: All programs to key and basic chains or groups thereof unless specified; coast to coast (if so designated) included in all available stations. Programs subject to change. P. M. Cent. East. 8:15—8:15—The Voice of Romance—Basic: Gramercy Band—West. 8:30—8:30—Orville W. Williams—Jack Armstrong—Midwest repeat. 8:45—8:45—Happy Minstrel—east. Mitchell Shuster—midwest. 9:00—9:00—Elder Melbaux—also east. 9:15—9:15—The Opera House—east. 9:30—9:30—Lamaux—also east. 9:45—9:45—Lamaux—also east. 10:00—10:00—Basic: Horace Gersbach Orch.—Dixie. 10:15—10:15—Basic: Horace Gersbach Orch.—Dixie. 10:30—10:30—Basic: Horace Gersbach Orch.—Dixie. 10:45—10:45—Basic: Horace Gersbach Orch.—Dixie. 11:00—11:00—Basic: Horace Gersbach Orch.—Dixie. 11:15—11:15—Basic: Horace Gersbach Orch.—Dixie. 11:30—11:30—Basic: Horace Gersbach Orch.—Dixie.

WBZ-WBZA

Springfield—Boston Saturday, March 10, 1934. 1:30 P. M.—Vic and Sade. 1:45—Metropolitan Opera. 5:00—Platt and Niernman, pianists. 5:30—Johnnie Heller, tenor. 5:45—Little Orphan Annie. 6:00—Program Calendar. 6:01—Duke Dewey and his Hickory Buds. 6:15—O'Leary's Irish Minstrels. 6:30—Time Parade. 6:32—Old Farmer's Almanac. 6:34—Temperature. 6:36—Sports Review—Bill Williams. 6:41—Famous Sayings. 6:43—Weather. 6:45—Concert—Edward MacHugh, bartitone; James J. O'Hara. 7:00—World in Review—Harold F. Manchester. 7:15—Der Quisote (drama). 7:30—F.O.B. Detroit—Benny Kyste and his Orchestra. 8:00—Art in America—"Our First Eminent Painter," John Singleton Copley. 8:20—"The Essence of Recovery." 8:30—New England Community Singing Clubs.

TAXIDERMIST NOW CALLED AN ART

400 Paintings and Pieces of Sculpture in New York Exhibition. New York, March 10.—(AP)—In case anybody doesn't know that taxidermy is art under the skin the American Museum of Natural History is opening today, to carry on until April 8, an exhibit of the work of its staff artists. Some 400 or more paintings and pieces of sculpture by nearly a hundred artists put across the idea that the operation of a museum isn't just a matter of fossils.

THE MANCHESTER SHOVEL BRIGADE

The Manchester Shovel Brigade. On the twelfth day of March, Eighteen-eighty-eight, It snowed in this shack at a terrific rate, It snowed and it snowed, it blowed and it blowed, And rendered impassable by path and road; And on the thirteenth, through the whole gloomy day, Without intermission kept snowing away;

Oh dear! and oh dear! such high mountains of snow! Not a den to a neighbor could anyone go; And people that were any distance away From lodgings or homes were compelled for to stay. God pity the wretches that hadn't laid in A store of provisions and plenty of grain! No one ever saw such a snowy blockade, Nor saw greater need of a shovel brigade.

'Tis but now and then, when there's danger to face, Or something or other disastrous takes place, And courage is wanted, we're able to ken The difference there is betwix bipeds and men. As long as there's nothing but talking to do The difference is almost concealed from our view, But when brunt's to be borne, then clearly I ween, The odds between bipeds and men can be seen. And this observation that just has been made Applies to the Manchester Shovel Brigade.

Worked Small Garden Bill worked the small garden near his home when the spirit so moved him, but neighbors often supplied milk and butter and Bradley throughout the latter part of his life was indebted to a Mr. Clark, chief owner of the Glastonbury Knitting company of Manchester Green and Addison, for providing the means for his livelihood.

Excuse this parenthesis, reader, I pray, And if you're a Selectman, mind what I say: The Selectman here are a niggardly pack, And if I had the power I would give them the sack. Not one single cent, for their shame be it said, Did they give to the Manchester Shovel Brigade.

The kindness of one, 'til the last suns have set, Wherever we travel, we ne'er will forget, And if any wish to know who that one is, Mr. Bunce is the man—God bless him and his! When Manchester wretched had worked to the line, And were, and no wonder, all exuding brine, King Bunce took the men, who'd been working like Turks, And bid their dry whistles to Mr. N. Burke's. And if Prohibitionists say he did wrong, May the idiots be buried in snow before long! All men will commend him though axes upbraid And now we have done with the Shovel Brigade.

THE MANCHESTER SHOVEL BRIGADE

The Manchester Shovel Brigade. On the twelfth day of March, Eighteen-eighty-eight, It snowed in this shack at a terrific rate, It snowed and it snowed, it blowed and it blowed, And rendered impassable by path and road; And on the thirteenth, through the whole gloomy day, Without intermission kept snowing away;

Oh dear! and oh dear! such high mountains of snow! Not a den to a neighbor could anyone go; And people that were any distance away From lodgings or homes were compelled for to stay. God pity the wretches that hadn't laid in A store of provisions and plenty of grain! No one ever saw such a snowy blockade, Nor saw greater need of a shovel brigade.

'Tis but now and then, when there's danger to face, Or something or other disastrous takes place, And courage is wanted, we're able to ken The difference there is betwix bipeds and men. As long as there's nothing but talking to do The difference is almost concealed from our view, But when brunt's to be borne, then clearly I ween, The odds between bipeds and men can be seen. And this observation that just has been made Applies to the Manchester Shovel Brigade.

Worked Small Garden Bill worked the small garden near his home when the spirit so moved him, but neighbors often supplied milk and butter and Bradley throughout the latter part of his life was indebted to a Mr. Clark, chief owner of the Glastonbury Knitting company of Manchester Green and Addison, for providing the means for his livelihood.

Excuse this parenthesis, reader, I pray, And if you're a Selectman, mind what I say: The Selectman here are a niggardly pack, And if I had the power I would give them the sack. Not one single cent, for their shame be it said, Did they give to the Manchester Shovel Brigade.

The kindness of one, 'til the last suns have set, Wherever we travel, we ne'er will forget, And if any wish to know who that one is, Mr. Bunce is the man—God bless him and his! When Manchester wretched had worked to the line, And were, and no wonder, all exuding brine, King Bunce took the men, who'd been working like Turks, And bid their dry whistles to Mr. N. Burke's. And if Prohibitionists say he did wrong, May the idiots be buried in snow before long! All men will commend him though axes upbraid And now we have done with the Shovel Brigade.

The Manchester Shovel Brigade. On the twelfth day of March, Eighteen-eighty-eight, It snowed in this shack at a terrific rate, It snowed and it snowed, it blowed and it blowed, And rendered impassable by path and road; And on the thirteenth, through the whole gloomy day, Without intermission kept snowing away;

Oh dear! and oh dear! such high mountains of snow! Not a den to a neighbor could anyone go; And people that were any distance away From lodgings or homes were compelled for to stay. God pity the wretches that hadn't laid in A store of provisions and plenty of grain! No one ever saw such a snowy blockade, Nor saw greater need of a shovel brigade.

'Tis but now and then, when there's danger to face, Or something or other disastrous takes place, And courage is wanted, we're able to ken The difference there is betwix bipeds and men. As long as there's nothing but talking to do The difference is almost concealed from our view, But when brunt's to be borne, then clearly I ween, The odds between bipeds and men can be seen. And this observation that just has been made Applies to the Manchester Shovel Brigade.

Worked Small Garden Bill worked the small garden near his home when the spirit so moved him, but neighbors often supplied milk and butter and Bradley throughout the latter part of his life was indebted to a Mr. Clark, chief owner of the Glastonbury Knitting company of Manchester Green and Addison, for providing the means for his livelihood.

THE HIGH SCHOOL WORLD

Vol. I, No. 47.

Saturday, March 10, 1934.

Compiled by Students of Manchester High School

Miss Helen Estes, Faculty Adviser

YEAR BOOK STAFF ELECTION COMING

"Somanhis" Organization Not to Be Connected With High School World.

A staff for the Year Book was proposed at a meeting of the Year Book nominating committee...

The committee decided to follow the usual editorial staff plan of "Somanhis" but the business organization is to be somewhat modified...

The Year Book will continue under the name of "Somanhis". The organization will not be connected in any way with the "High School World"...

INDOOR TRACK SEASON BEGINS ON MARCH 24

20 Men Report as Practices Under Coach Wigren Start in Earnest Here.

Indoor track practice has begun in earnest now with about twenty men reporting to Coach Wigren regularly...

March 24 opens the season for M. H. when Coach Wigren takes the boys to Middletown to compete in the state meet at Wesleyan.

It is still pretty early to do much predicting but from the practices Manchester ought to make a good showing in the state meet.

The Hartford Army meet, which was held for the first time last year, has been postponed and will be held sometime in April.

From all indications, Coach Wigren is going to have a crack relay team this year, consisting of "Tony" Cade, "Barrel" Head, Carpenter, "Iron Man" McNeill, and Barney Shedd.

GIRL RESERVE NOTES

Cutler Haugh, an interne at the Manchester Memorial hospital, will be the speaker at a meeting of the Girl Reserves which is to be held in the Center church, March 27.

A regular meeting of the Girl Reserves scheduled for March 13 will be omitted because of term exams.

A letter was received from the Newton Home for Crippled Children thanking the girls for the Valentine favors sent on Valentine's day.

A Girl Reserve cabinet meeting will be held at Miss Casey's apartment Monday night, March 19.

Betty Cooke is chairman of the refreshment committee in charge of the next meeting to be held in the Center church, March 27.

Handkerchiefs made by men, Scottish kilts and a Scottish sporran, all are making the Highland atmosphere of the "Lady of the Lake" more real to Division II of Miss Burke's English class.

CARNEY ESTABLISHES FREE STYLE RECORD

Clips Two Seconds' from Previous Mark as Manchester Mermen Beat Bristol.

Taking six out of eight first places, the M. H. S. tanksters beat Bristol Wednesday afternoon by the overwhelming margin of 48 to 27.

The most exciting race was the 100 yard breast stroke. The other first places were cornered by Captain Carney, Mozzer, Leary, and Kennedy.

Carney splashed his way to a new record in the 200 yard free style, clipping two seconds from his previous record of 2:32.

The most exciting race was the 100 yard free style. Brennan, Manchester, being nosed out by Werner, Bristol, by a touch.

In the 40 yard dash Mozzer and McCord took first and second respectively. Coburn also captured second in the 100 yard breast stroke.

Shedd, Frost, and Hagenow captured third in their respective events. All in all Manchester won six firsts, four seconds and three thirds.

—Ernest Berggren, Mgr.

EDITORIAL

FAIR PLAY

Theodore Roosevelt once said that he greatly respected a good sport. He set a good example of this, because when failure came his way he always tried again.

No one can always win and, if you could, there would be no fun playing. Our actions when we fail are one of the true tests of character.

It is pleasant to be successful and outstanding, however, but it is better to know that we have played the game fairly, shown no meanness and done no wrong.

"Complain" comes from Latin, meaning "cry." When a grown person complains, he is really being a grown-up cry-baby.

Anyone who wants to grow up and be happy and respected should always play fair and should accept defeat with good nature.

Herbert Seymour, '37.

DIVIDES EXAM

Two separate examinations will be given to Miss Burke's English classes this morning. Literature examinations will be given this week and the grammar tests will follow next week.

F. De Vito, '34.

Honos Carior Vitae

A Continued Story About the Consequences That Came To a Young Man Who Lived Up To the Motto.

With these words, Karl turned still debating something in his mind, but then continued on his way.

"Why not run down soon and visit around? You might find some other way out. At any rate, don't lose courage. They say right always triumph."

—(To Be Continued)

LITERARY COLUMNS

ON LIKING CATS

I like cats. I don't know why; it isn't because of their devotion, intelligence, or nobility of character.

It's an instinctive feeling. Most people who like cats are born that way and always remain so.

But every cat has a complex and distinctive personality of its own. You never feel quite sure of understanding it, and never understand it as well as you think you do.

He never takes you into his confidence and never lets you know what he thinks of you. You will never know what a cat thinks of you by watching his expression. It is absolutely inscrutable.

—Phyllis Moroney, '34.

"THE PITCHERS"

In the dim days of my hectic past, before the advent of the talking pictures, Saturdays meant two things to me.

First: It was customary for the public schools of which I was a student, (or shall I say inmate?) not to hold sessions on that day.

Second: On this day I had the option of helping around the house or "going" to the "pitchers."

This last explains the title of this piece as in those days the cinema was invariably referred to as the "pitchers."

Indeed, one who said "pitchers" was promptly labeled a sissy of highest order, was addressed by his last name.

The price of the entertainment was ten cents per ticket, thus bringing the luxury to the reach of one and all between the tender ages of five and 15.

If one has viewed 500 healthy children packed in a movie house during that era, he will readily understand why managers of such establishments shouldered prematurely.

The stands were packed at least 30 minutes before game time and this period was spent by the exuberant youth in (1) changing seats.

(2) casting paper airplanes, (3) wrestling matches, and (4) sticking Wrigley's Best into the flaxen tresses of the unfortunate females.

The snipers congregated in the balcony. This afforded excellent opportunity for the workmen to vie with one another in shooting matches, candy and peppermints at the numerous targets visible from that vantage point.

Grown-ups were frequently disconcerted by the unbecoming companionship of the future Capones and Dickeys.

Suddenly bedlam would break loose. "Here she comes—she!" in this case, referring to the piano player.

Tapping down the aisle side was given a tremendous ovation that would have made King twice as big to her chances of being the "most popular girl" had she not heard, for her appearance signified that the program was about to commence.

When the lights were extinguished, a row was set up that had bedlam run into its maddest. It was generally at this point that the manager was seen nervously waiting his lips.

The news reel was first flashed on silver screen. This drew but faint approval from the impatient gallery, who were waiting their enthusiasm for the "big pitcher."

Then came various slides advertising meat markets, shoe repairing joints and where to buy your wife's shoes. Not infrequently these advertisements were interrupted by the audience in allusion to the efficiency and character of the projection-room man.

TEACHER ATTENDS AQUATIC EXHIBIT

Miss Isabelle Worth Impressed by Immense Natatorium at Yale University.

Miss Isabelle Worth, English teacher, attended a swimming meet and exhibition at Yale University in New Haven last week.

The program consisted of fancy diving; races, in which two world records were broken; high diving and fancy swimming.

Twenty-four girls from Smith College presented a beautiful floating exhibit and finished their program by forming a large "X" in the water.

Miss Worth was much impressed by the immense swimming pool, one of the largest in this section of the country.

The aquamarine-colored water is illuminated from underneath. The seats, arranged somewhat like bleachers, are called "por-tals."

—Olga Kwah, '34.

SPORT SLANTS

Manchester's swimming team decisively defeated the Bristol swimming team Wednesday at Bristol by the score of 48 to 27.

The event was noteworthy in that Bristol was reached for the first time by a team over Bristol, whether it be any sport from ping-pong to basketball, is a momentous occasion.

Robert Carney, captain of the team, smashed the 200 yard free style record. His time was two minutes and thirty seconds, breaking the former record, which he held, by two seconds.

George Leary has all the luck. At the Bristol swimming meet he was swimming against Werner, one of Bristol's best in the 100 yard back stroke.

The length of the swimming pool must be seven times down and two back to complete the race.

Leary was half a length behind Werner at the finish of the fourth lap. His opponent, Werner of Bristol, thinking the race was over when the fourth lap was completed, stopped and held to the side of the tank, probably preparing to shake hands with his defeated rival.

Puzzled to see Leary making for the other end of the pool, he suddenly realized that his mates were yelling at him, telling him the race wasn't over. He struck out after Leary, but it was in vain, as Leary won easily.

The Manchester High baseball team expects a good season and is after another pitcher and first baseman. Both boys and girls of the Manchester High school have enjoyed it immensely.

—Jerry Badmington, '38.

VALUE OF EDUCATION

There comes a time in every student's life when he begins to think of his future. He is doing his best work now or is he capable of doing better?

It is one question that the High School education isn't always easy to estimate, but if the pupils go to college we can sometimes see just what is the result of good work in High School.

Muriel Tompkins, '30, while a student at Manchester, took an average of 4.8. Eric Rautenberg, who had a fielding average of 1.000 in the center garden, and Chuck Smith, the energetic little captain and second baseman, who was the backbone of the infield and packed a hefty batting average of .300.

The remainder of the team will probably line up as follows: Eckbert Cobb on third and Earl Judd at short. All of these boys had considerable experience playing independent ball last summer, and do not expect to be bothered greatly by the class of High School ball.

TEACHER ATTENDS AQUATIC EXHIBIT

Miss Isabelle Worth Impressed by Immense Natatorium at Yale University.

Miss Isabelle Worth, English teacher, attended a swimming meet and exhibition at Yale University in New Haven last week.

The program consisted of fancy diving; races, in which two world records were broken; high diving and fancy swimming.

Twenty-four girls from Smith College presented a beautiful floating exhibit and finished their program by forming a large "X" in the water.

Miss Worth was much impressed by the immense swimming pool, one of the largest in this section of the country.

The aquamarine-colored water is illuminated from underneath. The seats, arranged somewhat like bleachers, are called "por-tals."

—Olga Kwah, '34.

SPORT SLANTS

Manchester's swimming team decisively defeated the Bristol swimming team Wednesday at Bristol by the score of 48 to 27.

The event was noteworthy in that Bristol was reached for the first time by a team over Bristol, whether it be any sport from ping-pong to basketball, is a momentous occasion.

Robert Carney, captain of the team, smashed the 200 yard free style record. His time was two minutes and thirty seconds, breaking the former record, which he held, by two seconds.

George Leary has all the luck. At the Bristol swimming meet he was swimming against Werner, one of Bristol's best in the 100 yard back stroke.

The length of the swimming pool must be seven times down and two back to complete the race.

Leary was half a length behind Werner at the finish of the fourth lap. His opponent, Werner of Bristol, thinking the race was over when the fourth lap was completed, stopped and held to the side of the tank, probably preparing to shake hands with his defeated rival.

Puzzled to see Leary making for the other end of the pool, he suddenly realized that his mates were yelling at him, telling him the race wasn't over. He struck out after Leary, but it was in vain, as Leary won easily.

The Manchester High baseball team expects a good season and is after another pitcher and first baseman. Both boys and girls of the Manchester High school have enjoyed it immensely.

—Jerry Badmington, '38.

TRADE SCHOOL PROGRAM OUTLINED AT ASSEMBLY

Director Echmalian Tells of Various State Labor Laws—Entertainment Also Is Given.

An assembly program, arranged entirely by the Manchester School of Trade and Domestic Activities Association, was presented at the school on Thursday afternoon.

Adolph Storm, president of the association, spoke for a few minutes in regard to the progress made by the organization since its formation in November, 1933.

The student body was informed of the financial standing of the school by the treasurer, Frank Gado.

ROCKVILLE

P. O. CUTS IN SALARIES NOW FIGURED AS 22 P. C.

Orders Received for Payless Days Off and Restrictions in Substitutes' Wages.

The clerks and carriers at the Rockville post office have received orders which mean another deduction in salary.

The new orders also apply to Postmaster George E. Dickinson and Assistant Postmaster Michael J. Congrove.

All employees must take four days off during the remainder of the fiscal year, which ends on June 30.

Plans are under consideration for the curtailment of the service Wednesday afternoons to care for this new off-time order.

Another curtailment has been ordered which is the actual leave with pay formerly accorded all employees.

Allowances for the employment of substitutes and auxiliary service will be restricted to emergencies.

The original cut in pay amounted to approximately 15 per cent and with the time off discontinued and the other restrictions will now approximate 22 per cent.

To Hear Dr. Butterfield, State Commissioner of Education, will address the March meeting of the Vernon Parent-Teachers Association which will be held next Wednesday evening at the Dobsouville Methodist church.

Dr. Butterfield will speak on "Education in Connecticut" on which he has spoken on several previous occasions throughout eastern Connecticut.

A social hour will follow at which time refreshments will be served.

Short Calendar The final shot calendar sitting of the winter term of the Tolland County Superior Court is to be held on Monday morning, opening at 10 o'clock in Rockville.

Judge Frank P. McElroy will preside. Six cases are listed for hearing at this time but it is expected that they will be very short.

The April term of the Tolland County Court will convene the first Tuesday of April at which the criminal cases will be presented by State's Attorney Michael D. O'Connell.

Package Store To Suffer Many residents of Rockville expressed satisfaction yesterday when word was received that the drug store would sell liquor under the de-licence handed down by the State.

This pleasure some on account of the selling hours, from 8 a. m. to 11 p. m., whereas at the package stores it is impossible to buy liquor after 6 p. m.

The fact that it can be bought in smaller containers than offered by the owners of package stores appears to please a good many.

An ample supply of liquor is expected in the local drug stores within a few days according to local managers. Because of objections to taking out the restricted permit for "liquor with prescriptions only" they did not have large supplies on hand.

Details of how the local druggists will handle the sale of liquor will be reached over the week-end so that the actual sale under the new permits can start next week at which time they hope to have their licenses.

Epworthers At Willimantic The Epworth League of the Rockville Methodist church is being represented at the mid-winter rally and fellowship conference of the Norwich District of the Epworth League which is being held this evening at Willimantic.

The affair is to be open at the Willimantic Methodist church at 8:30 o'clock.

The Rockville Epworth League is a member of the Nutmeg Trail and the latter, with the Mohagan and the Quinebaug Trails, have been invited to attend.

ATLANTIC CITY HOTEL

CHEF AT CAVEY'S GRILL

Sea Food and Italian Dishes Specialties With Fine Wines and Beers Also Featured.

Cavey's Grill located on East Center street next to the Masonic Temple has established itself as Manchester's finest place to dine and dance.

As a matter of fact, already the reputation for fine food and congenial surroundings has spread over the state so that parties from out-of-town are to be found at the grill nearly every evening.

Carlo Martini, rated as one of the cleverest chefs at the Hotel "St. Dennis" in Atlantic City, has been obtained by Cavey's Grill.

Martini, with his experience in the larger hotels, assures patrons of the fine menus to be obtained anywhere. He will particularly feature sea food dishes, Italian-American cooking which really makes a specialty.

Piel's and Croft's beers are on draught at all times and Gold Seal wines are featured. The management extends an invitation to all to visit Cavey's Grill and solicits the patronage of clubs, organizations and societies for banquets, meetings etc.

Queer Twists In Day's News

Springfield, Mo.—The pretty brunette whose daily visits cheered city jail inmates as carrying her "personality" in a bottle, Police Chief Paul Frey has discovered.

Sweetheart of a long-term prisoner, the girl was considered a good influence until a jailer found, the chief reports, that she was smuggling liquor to the men.

Chicago—Everybody remained happy after two robbers finished holding up Mrs. Elmer Ostrom, with the possible exception of the officials of an insurance company.

"Give us," said the pair, "your purse." "Indeed, I won't be repelled. "Well then, let us have your car." "All right," she answered, "it's insured."

Mrs. Ostrom reported her experience to the police after the robber had driven away. One of the men carried a gun to the man.

New York—The brag of Robert Wagner, 43, that it is not bad luck to break a mirror, held in night court when a magistrate suspended sentence on charges preferred by Mrs. Wagner. She claimed her husband killed a man.

She claimed an orgy of mirror-breaking by smashing her favorite and the last of five looking-glasses in their home. He agreed to replace the last one broken.

Bend, Ore.—A white leghorn pullet which lays only double yolk eggs, apparently unconcerned about limited production theories is owned by Mrs. L. E. Breeden of Airlife, near Bend.

The 10 months old fowl lays the twin hearted eggs for two consecutive days, then takes a day off and comes back with double yolk eggs again for two more days, Mrs. Breeden said.

Spokane, Wash.—Mayor Leonard Funk scanned a report of introduction handed him by "Els Worthip, Mayor Knott" of Edmonton, Alta.

"In Spokane," said Mayor Funk, "the name applied to its mayor is not so courteous but often much more respectful."

Salt Lake City—After waiting for 17 years Walter F. Wood, Salt Lake City, has been officially designated as a recipient of the French Croix de Guerre for conspicuous bravery under shell fire during the World War.

A member of the 78th Company, Sixth Regiment of Marines, he was in a hospital when the medals were awarded, and the medal was given to someone else by mistake.

A War Department investigation resulted in the correction.

THREATS OF LYNCHING AGAINST TWO SUSPECTS

Juneau, Wis., March 10.—(AP)—Two men were taken into custody by police to rush three youths held in a double killing, to the security of the state prison at Waupun early today. The district attorney received reports a mob was forming in Beaver Dam.

The three, Charles Krans, 23, Jack Ter Lane, 19, was found shot to death, and Charles Becker, 52, fatally injured in a ditch near Beaver Dam Sunday. Police said they found Guse's purse in Krans' room at Beaver Dam.

Krans's two fellow-prisoners acknowledged, Sheriff Henry Lehman said, that they witnessed the slaying and named Krans as the killer.

Deaths Last Night

Indianapolis—Leslie A. Payne, 74, of Linton, Ind., father of Nina Payne, actress.

New Orleans—Mrs. Mathilde Moleaux, 84, widow of the late Justice Edward Seymour of the Louisiana Supreme Court, who was credited with having supplied Longfellow with the information from which he wrote the poem, "Madeline."—"Pony" News.

Brooklyn, N. Y.—Capt. Ward Kenneth Wortman, 54, U. S. N., was awarded the Naval Cross for heroic duty in the World War.

Indianapolis—"Pony" News. Former advance agent for musical theatrical stars.

BRISTOL, CENTRAL ENTER YALE TOURNEY FINALS

M. H. S. Track and Baseball Schedules Announced

Billy Murch Ineligible To Compete This Year; Prospects Seen As Fair

Loss of Ace Miller Through Deficiency in Studies a Severe Blow to Coach Wigren; Has Lost Other Stars by Graduation; the Slate.

Billy Murch

Coincident with the release of Manchester High's indoor and outdoor track schedule for 1934, it was announced today that Billy Murch, whose scholastic athletic career to date has rivaled that of famous Joe McCuskey, will be ineligible to compete this year, due to deficiency in studies. Murch will still have another season in which to compete, however, if he regains good standing by next year.

The loss of Murch is a severe blow to Coach Charles "Pete" Wigren, the Red and White's brilliant but modest mentor, who has turned out successful track and field teams during his entire regime of nine years. His teams have captured six Central Connecticut interscholastic league championships in that period. Last season, Manchester lost the league meet to Bristol after winning the title four years straight. Last year also, he lost to their first dual meet, at Hartford High, in three years of competition.

Coach Wigren has been developing Murch slowly and carefully ever since he discovered that the slender, curly haired youth had natural ability as a runner. It has been Wigren's dream to develop Murch into a star of the magnitude of Joe McCuskey, whom he also started on a career that led to international prominence.

Murch, like McCuskey, has specialized in the mile and cross country events and during the two years has been in competition has been a most consistent winner, showing more and more promise with every appearance. Last year he eclipsed McCuskey's state scholastic record for the mile in the dual meet against Hartford, an indication of his exceptional ability. He holds the state indoor record for one kilometer, about 1,000 yards, traveling the distance in 2:50 and last fall he established a new record for the scholastic course in the annual Thanksgiving Day run, racing the two and one-half miles in two minutes, 5:5 seconds.

Coach Wigren has also lost most of his outstanding stars through graduation, including Bob McCormick, state and league pole vaulting champion, who also excelled at the javelin throw; J. A. Tatten, league high jumper champion; Lane, his teammate; Hillman, broad jumper; Stoutzner; relay ace, who was killed in an accident; and a number of others of lesser prominence.

The lack of outstanding stars is expected to weaken the Red and White team in its attempt to retain the Rhode Island scholastic outdoor state title which it captured last year; to gain its C. C. I. L. monopoly and to place among the leaders in the State title meets.

Coach Wigren, however, anticipates a fair season. He states that a number of freshmen candidates for the team have shown some promise and he has a goodly number of reliable veterans to depend upon in dual meets. He isn't making any rash predictions for Coach Wigren is a firm believer in allowing results to speak for themselves. And the results he has shown in the past stamp him as a coach able to bring out the best in his athletes. He has there's any ability lying around, Coach Wigren can be depended upon to develop it to the limit.

The 1934 Schedules. Manchester has two indoor meets scheduled, the state meet at Wesleyan on March 24, in which the locals placed second last year, third in 1932 and second in 1931; and the indoor meet at the Hartford Army on April 14, in which the locals placed second to Hartford High last year. Tryouts will be held next week Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

The outdoor schedule opens on April 20 with a dual meet against Hartford High here. Five dual meets are on the slate, besides the Rhode Island meet on May 12, the state meet at Yale on May 26 and the league meet on June 9.

The schedule is as follows: April 20—Hartford, here. April 27 or 28—Middletown, away. May 12—Rhode Island meet. May 15—Meriden, here. May 18—West Hartford, here. May 26—State meet at Yale. June 1 or 2—Bristol, there. June 9—C. C. I. L. meet.

TILDEN, VINES WIN St. Louis, March 10.—(AP)—Big Bill Tilden and Ellsworth Vines today had added three more victories to their growing cluster over their French professional tennis rivals, Henri Cochet and Martin Giamberini. Tonight Tilden meets Cochet and Vines opposes Pila. Last night's attendance was 1,940 and receipts $2,684.

REC OFFERS SLATE OF FIVE CONTESTS

Extensive Program on Tap at School Street Rec Tonight; Start at 6 p. m.

TONIGHT'S SLATE
6:00—Burnside Guards vs. Sons of Italy.
7:00—West Side Buddies vs. Heights, Jr.
7:45—North Ends vs. Collegians.
8:45—Rockville Crescents vs. East Sides.
9:45—St. Cecilia's "5." Waterbury, vs. Herald.

At the East Side Rec tonight five games are scheduled. Four of the games are of junior class and the final and feature game brings two senior teams together in the St. Cecilia's "5." of Waterbury and the Herald Newboys.

The games as listed above are expected to furnish the usual large turnout of fans. What these teams lack in the finer points of the game, they make up in untiring and aggressive type of play, which of course delights the average basketball fan.

It is hoped by Promoter Ben Clune that the visiting teams will appear on time in order that the games may be started as scheduled. Mr. Clune wishes to also announce at this time that various players will not be allowed to play with two teams in one night. This ruling applies to all players, and no exceptions will be made. This ruling is put in force to afford as many players as possible the opportunity of playing. As usual there will be no admission fee to these games.

Wrestling

(By The Associated Press.)
Philadelphia—Jim Browning, Verona, Mo., threw Sammy Stein, Newark, N. J.
Boston—Ernie Dusek, Omaha, threw Joe Malcewicz, Utica, N. Y.
Frederic, Me.—Yvon Robert, France, defeated Boris, Bulgaria, two straight falls.
Des Moines, Ia.—Bronko Nagurski, International Falls, Minn., and Pat O'Shocker, Salt Lake City, drew, one fall each.
Cincinnati—Earl (Wild Cat) McCluskey, Portland, Ore., threw Joe Dumar, Texas.

McCluskey Runs Tonight, At Elm City on Tuesday; Crowe, Murch to Compete

Joe McCluskey returns to action tonight in the 5,000 meter event of the Metropolitan Championships of the Norwegian Turn-Society at Brooklyn, N. Y., and next Tuesday night he returns to his native state to compete in the two-mile event of the A. A. U. games at New Haven. It is possible that the former "Iron Duke" may also enter the mile event.

McCluskey will not be the only local athlete taking part in the state title meet at the Elm City. James Crowe of Buckland, veteran marathoner who has been in more than 150 long distance races, has entered the mile walk and Billy Murch, Manchester High miler, who has been declared ineligible to compete this season because of difficulty

LEVINSKY'S HOPES OF TITLE FIGHT FADE AS NEUSEL WINS

KING BOWS BEFORE STRONG ATTACK OF YOUNG GERMAN FOE

Holds Upper Hand in Early Rounds But Teuton Comes Back After Knockdown to Gain Decision.

By HERBERT W. BARKER Associated Press Sports Writer

New York, March 10.—(AP)—It seems Madison Square Garden will need to look elsewhere than at King Levinsky for a suitable opponent to meet Heavyweight Champion Primo Camera in the summer.

The Kingfish from Chicago, picked for a buildup campaign by the Garden after efforts to line up Max Baer failed, dropped a decision to blonde Walter Neusel of Germany in ten rounds last night and talk of matching him with big Primo died down to a virtual whisper.

The king had lost plenty of prestige in his last previous start here although he won a disputed decision over Charley Massera of Pittsburgh.

Through the first six rounds Levinsky held the upper hand, flooring the German for a count of three with an overhead right to the chin in the second stanza and staggering him several times later. But from then on Levinsky faded in the face of Neusel's two-fisted body attack and at the finish the young Teuton, undefeated in this country, was driving his foe before him steadily.

One of the largest boxing crowds here in many months, 10,000, paid about $21,000 to see the exciting bout.

Levinsky weighed 203½ pounds, Neusel 196½.

Hockey

(By The Associated Press.)
TONIGHT
National League
New York Americans at Toronto; Ottawa at Montreal Canadiens.
SUNDAY
National League
Montreal Maroons at New York Rangers; Chicago at Detroit.
Boston at Providence; Quebec at New Haven.

This afternoon at 3 o'clock the Recreation Centers volleyball ball team will play the Winsted V. M. C. A. representatives at the school street Recreation building. The match has been arranged to prepare the local team for the Four-State Volleyball Tournament to be held here next Saturday, March 17. The public is invited to attend this afternoon's match for which no admission charge is made.

Dr. Eduard Jenny, of Switzerland, has ventured the conclusion that babies are more likely to be born between 2 a. m. and 3 a. m. than any other time of the day or night.

BASEBALL BRIEFS

Red Sox
Sarasota, Fla., March 10.—(AP)—Here's enthusiasm for the Red Sox. Lefty Grove will pitch batting practice today for the Red Sox. He told Manager Bucky Harris he would open up the practice session and work for about 10 minutes.

Phillies
Winter Haven, Fla.—Arrival of four more players has given Manager Jimmy Wilson of the Phillies a complete baseball team. Until they arrived he had sixteen battery men and not much else.

White Sox
Pasadena, Cal.—Recruits in the Chicago White Sox camp, and even a few veterans, are wondering if the Sox is about to fall.

Yankees
St. Petersburg, Fla.—The sum of $1,500 is keeping Bill Dickey from signing a New York Yankee contract for 1934.

Dodgers
Orlando, Fla.—Casey Stengel of the Brooklyn Dodgers insists his present infield is the fastest, smoothest outfit he's ever seen.

Browns
West Palm Beach, Fla.—Two young infielders, Alan Strange and Harland Clift, are very much in the spotlight in the training camp of the St. Louis Browns.

Giants
Miami Beach, Fla.—The pitching routine that has caught Manager Bill Terry's attention in the New York Giants' training camp so far is Clyde Claxton, a young right hander, six feet one inch tall and weighing 183 pounds.

LOCAL TRADERS BEATEN BY NEW BRITAIN, 42-20

Manchester Trade's four-game winning streak was broken yesterday afternoon when New Britain Trade handed the local Mechanics a decisive trouncing at the Hardware City. 42-20. It was Manchester's 13th defeat in sixteen starts to date. New Britain displayed a smoothly-clicking passing attack that baffled the locals and the home team had little trouble in staying out in front from start to finish.

New Britain gained an 8-2 margin by the end of the first quarter and increased it to 16-5 by halftime. The third quarter was fought on fairly even terms but New Britain held a 28-14 margin at the close of the period and then went on a shooting spree in the final quarter to win just about as they pleased. Majeski and Falk featured for the winners and Kalk stood out for the losers.

1ST PRACTICE SET FOR APRIL 16; TO PLAY 14 CONTESTS

Only Three Veterans to Return; See Need of Pitcher and First Sacker; In Third Place Last Year.

Manchester High today announced its 1934 baseball schedule, consisting of fourteen games, two more than last year. The slate includes ten Central Connecticut Interscholastic League games and two games each with Rockville High and Manchester Trade.

One Twilight Game
Manchester had only a fair season last year, winning six and losing six to finish in third place in the League standing. This year's slate is exactly the same as last year with the addition of the two games with Rockville High which were stricken off last year when Rockville failed to place a team on the diamond.

Three Veterans Back
Another pitcher and first baseman will probably be the greatest necessities this season and Coach Kelley has hopes of finding them among the new material. Only three veterans are returning.

Giants
Miami Beach, Fla.—Optimism has reached the bubbling-over point among the Philadelphia Athletics.

Philadelphia—Frankie Petrolle, Schenectady, N. Y., stopped Bucky Jones, Elizabeth, N. J., (2).
Louisville, Ky.—Dominic Pascual, Pittsburgh, topped Danny Delmont, Chicago, (1).
Minneapolis—Babe Daniels, Minneapolis, outpointed Frankie Knauer, Eagle River, Wis., (6).
Topeka, Kas.—Bus Brown, Manhattan, Kas., outpointed Henry Falgout, Omaha, (8). Newspaper decision.

Last Night's Fights

(By The Associated Press.)
New York—Walter Neusel, German, outpointed King Levinsky, Chicago, (10).
Quincy, Mass.—Tony Shucro, Boston, and Al Rodriguez, Quinon, draw, (12).
Philadelphia—Frankie Petrolle, Schenectady, N. Y., stopped Bucky Jones, Elizabeth, N. J., (2).
Louisville, Ky.—Dominic Pascual, Pittsburgh, topped Danny Delmont, Chicago, (1).
Minneapolis—Babe Daniels, Minneapolis, outpointed Frankie Knauer, Eagle River, Wis., (6).
Topeka, Kas.—Bus Brown, Manhattan, Kas., outpointed Henry Falgout, Omaha, (8). Newspaper decision.

West Side Recs Vote To Withdraw From Tourney; Challenge Court Champs

The West Side Recs today announced their withdrawal from the proposed elimination tourney for the right to meet the National Guards in a town title series, and also divulged their intention of issuing a challenge to the town champions to a three-game series for the title.

A meeting of the representatives of the Phantom's, Y. M. C. A., Rangers, Masons, Jews and Guards will be held at the State Armory tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock to settle details of the proposed elimination tourney.

MERIDEN, NEW BRITAIN LOSE BY CLOSE SCORES IN SEMI-FINAL BATTLES

BOX SCORE

Bristol (28)
	E.	F.	T.
Utke, lf	1	1	3
Maro, rf	4	1	9
Sonstrom, cf	1	2	4
Zebrowski, c	1	3	7
Kolbyszynski, lg	0	1	1
DiGiovanna, rg	1	0	2
Nikols, rf	0	0	0
Meriden (35)
	E.	F.	T.
Schee, lf	1	0	2
Hobson, lf	0	0	0
Oliver, rf	2	6	10
Slavin, c	0	0	0
Gormley, c	4	2	10
H. Zajac, lg	0	1	1
B. Zajac, rg	1	0	2
Halftime score: Bristol 19, Meriden 17.
Referee: Jackson.
Umpire: Winters.

Bridgeport Central (27)

	E.	F.	T.
Ritchel, lf	3	4	10
Calhoun, rf	0	0	0
Vitale, rf	0	0	0
Schick, c	5	2	12
Snider, c	2	0	4
Wilson, lg	0	0	0
Belzer, rg	0	1	1
New Britain (21)
	E.	F.	T.
Ferroy, lf	0	1	1
Francia, lf	0	0	0
Anderson, rf	3	1	7
Jacurak, c	1	3	5
Meotti, lg	1	0	2
Paretta, lg	0	1	1
Melgonis, rg	2	1	5
Carlson, rg	0	0	0
Halftime score: New Britain 13, Bridgeport 9.
Referee: Winters.
Umpire: Fahey.

Meriden was only one step away today from its fifth Connecticut interscholastic basketball championship. With a great comeback that pushed them into a shaky lead during the final quarter, the Bell towners defeated the dangerous Meriden quintet by a single point last night to win the right to defend their A-B class title against Bridgeport Central.

The championship class at New Haven between Bristol, New England as well as Connecticut titleholder Central, was scheduled for 3:30 p. m. today, in Hartford.

Both Games Close
Bristol, winner of the Connecticut crown in 1927, '28, '29 and '33 eliminated Meriden 26 to 25 and Bridgeport Central fought its way into the finals with a 27 to 21 victory over New Britain. Both teams had to come from behind to win before a capacity crowd of four thousand.

New Britain lost two of its regulars during its game with Bridgeport Central. Louis Meotti, a guard, was stricken with acute appendicitis and an immediate operation was ordered at New Britain hospital. Badly torn ligaments in his shoulders also forced Henry Ferroy, a forward out of the game and he too was admitted to the hospital.

WINDSOR IS BEATEN BY WEST SIDE RECS

Locals Gain 26-8 Margin by Halftime, Stave Off Closing Rally to Win.

The West Side Rec basketball team boosted their coverage up another notch last night at the gym when they defeated the Windsor team, 35 to 25. The Rec started out at a fast pace and had the visitors on the short end of the score through the good work of Freddy Bissell and Alie Brown. During the first period the Windsor aggregation failed to find their stride and put up a meagre showing, but in the second half the visitors came back to outscore the locals team, 17 to 9, with Waterhouse doing the bulk of the offensive work. Larry Maloney came through with a couple of doubleheaders to keep the Rec a safe distance in front. The summary:

West Side Rec (35)
	E.	F.	T.
Maloney, rf	4	8	16
Maloney, lf	1	0	2
Brown, c	6	0	12
F. Bissell, rf	6	1	13
B. Bissell, lg	0	0	0
Windsor (25)
	E.	F.	T.
Coe, rf	2	1	5
Fisher, lf	0	0	0
Seider, lf	1	1	3
Waterhouse, c	5	12	17
Smyour, rg	0	1	1
Williams, lg	2	0	4
Score at halftime: 26-8, West Side Rec.
Referee: McCanney.
Umpire: McCanney.

Defending Champs Oust Silver City Five, 26 to 25 While Bridgeport Eliminates Hardware City Quintet, 27-21; Play Finals at 3.30 p. m. Today.

The championship class at New Haven between Bristol, New England as well as Connecticut titleholder Central, was scheduled for 3:30 p. m. today, in Hartford.

Both Games Close
Bristol, winner of the Connecticut crown in 1927, '28, '29 and '33 eliminated Meriden 26 to 25 and Bridgeport Central fought its way into the finals with a 27 to 21 victory over New Britain. Both teams had to come from behind to win before a capacity crowd of four thousand.

New Britain lost two of its regulars during its game with Bridgeport Central. Louis Meotti, a guard, was stricken with acute appendicitis and an immediate operation was ordered at New Britain hospital.

Badly torn ligaments in his shoulders also forced Henry Ferroy, a forward out of the game and he too was admitted to the hospital.

REC GIRLS DEFEAT PLAINVILLE 41-39

Von Deck and Emonds Feature as Locals Win Nip and Tuck Cage Contest.

The Rec Girls' Basketball team traveled to Plainville yesterday afternoon and were rewarded with a victory over the Plainville Girls by the score of 41-39 in a close and interesting game.

Play through the first two periods was close with the Rec Girls holding the slight margin of 14-13 at half time. The final half was more loosely played and both teams scored frequently from the floor. The lead changed hands several times and had the crowd on edge in the final minutes of play. However the Rec ladies fought off repeated efforts to tie the score as the final whistle blew with the Rec team on the long end of the score. The Misses Von Deck and Emonds were best for the winners while Miss Chotkowski played well for the losers.

Rec Girls (41)
	E.	F.	T.
Von Deck, rf	6	3-10	21
Emonds, lf	8	4-7	18
Webb, c	2	0-0	4
Colas, c	0	0-0	0
Tomms, c	0	0-0	0
Tomms, rg	0	0-0	0
Colas, lf	0	0-0	0
Wilson, lg	0	0-0	0
Plainville Girls (39)
	E.	F.	T.
Bergan, rf	2	0-0	4
Chotk, lf	1	0-1	2
Loftin, lf	1	0-1	2
Chotkowski, c	4	3-8	15
Rappoky, c	0	0-0	0
Coniff, rf	3	0-0	6
Hessingway, rg	0	0-0	0
De Yesso, lg	0	0-0	0
Halftime score: 18-13, Rec Girls.
Referee: Miss Weatherly.
Umpire: Miss Weatherly.

SHOP and ADVERTISE the CLASSIFIED WAY

LOST AND FOUND

LOST-BILLFOLD between Benton and Branford streets, Friday evening, containing $10. Finder please return to 35 Branford street. Reward.

LOST-A SMALL white poodle, with brown ears and nose. Answers to name of Rags. Finder please return to 103 Hamlin street. Telephone 8053.

PAY CHECK LOST-Notice is hereby given that Pay Check No. R2B 348 payable to Helen Baronsky, for week ending March 3, 1934 has been lost. Anyone attempting to cash this check will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law. Finder please return to the Corporate Accounting Dept., Main Office, Cheney Brothers.

Want Ad Information

Manchester Evening Herald

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISEMENTS

Count six average words to a line. Initials, numbers and abbreviations count each as a word and compound words two words. Minimum cost is price of three lines.

Line rates per day for transient ads.

Effective March 17, 1934

Consecutive Days	Rate per Day
1	15¢
2	14¢
3	13¢
4	12¢
5	11¢
6	10¢
7	9¢
8	8¢
9	7¢
10	6¢
11	5¢
12	4¢
13	3¢
14	2¢
15	1¢

Special rates for long term every day advertising given upon request.

Ads ordered for three or six days and stopped before the third or fifth day will be charged only for the actual number of times the ad appeared, charging at the regular rate, but no allowance or refund can be made on six time ads stopped after the fifth day.

No "fill forbids" display lines not sold.

The Herald will not be responsible for more than one incorrect insertion of any advertisement ordered for more than one insertion.

The inadvertent omission of incorrect publication of advertising will be corrected only by reinsertion of the charge made for the service ordered.

All advertisements must comply with regulations enforced by the publisher, and no ad will be accepted, but no allowance or refund can be made on six time ads stopped after the fifth day.

CLOSING HOURS: Classified ads to be published same day must be received by 10 o'clock noon; Saturdays 10:30 a. m.

MOVING-TRUCKING-STORAGE

PERRETT & GLENNEY INC. local and long distance moving. Daily express to Hartford. Overnight service to and from New York. Tel. 3063-8860 or 8864.

PUBLIC PASSENGER SERVICE

IN ADDITION TO Silver Lane Bus Line, De Luxe Bus for lodge, party or team trips, we also offer 7 passenger sedan livery. Phone 3063, 8860, 8864.

HELP WANTED-FEMALE

WOMAN WITH OWN TELEPHONE to make telephone appointments at home, and spare time. Absolutely no selling. Excellent earnings. Experience unnecessary. Give age and phone number. Write Herald, Box 2.

HOMEWORKERS-MAKE UP TO $50 WEEKLY listing names, addresses—other work. National Relief Alliance, Berwyn, Ill.

EARN EXTRA MONEY copying names, addresses for mail order firms. Home spare time, experience unnecessary. Write for information. Circle Advertising, 401 Broadway, New York.

INDEX OF CLASSIFICATIONS

Births	A
Engagements	B
Deaths	C
Deaths	D
Deaths	E
Deaths	F
Deaths	G
Deaths	H
Deaths	I
Deaths	J
Deaths	K
Deaths	L
Deaths	M
Deaths	N
Deaths	O
Deaths	P
Deaths	Q
Deaths	R
Deaths	S
Deaths	T
Deaths	U
Deaths	V
Deaths	W
Deaths	X
Deaths	Y
Deaths	Z
Deaths	AA
Deaths	AB
Deaths	AC
Deaths	AD
Deaths	AE
Deaths	AF
Deaths	AG
Deaths	AH
Deaths	AI
Deaths	AJ
Deaths	AK
Deaths	AL
Deaths	AM
Deaths	AN
Deaths	AO
Deaths	AP
Deaths	AQ
Deaths	AR
Deaths	AS
Deaths	AT
Deaths	AU
Deaths	AV
Deaths	AW
Deaths	AX
Deaths	AY
Deaths	AZ
Deaths	BA
Deaths	BB
Deaths	BC
Deaths	BD
Deaths	BE
Deaths	BF
Deaths	BG
Deaths	BH
Deaths	BI
Deaths	BJ
Deaths	BK
Deaths	BL
Deaths	BM
Deaths	BN
Deaths	BO
Deaths	BP
Deaths	BQ
Deaths	BR
Deaths	BS
Deaths	BT
Deaths	BU
Deaths	BV
Deaths	BW
Deaths	BX
Deaths	BY
Deaths	BZ
Deaths	CA
Deaths	CB
Deaths	CC
Deaths	CD
Deaths	CE
Deaths	CF
Deaths	CG
Deaths	CH
Deaths	CI
Deaths	CJ
Deaths	CK
Deaths	CL
Deaths	CM
Deaths	CN
Deaths	CO
Deaths	CP
Deaths	CQ
Deaths	CR
Deaths	CS
Deaths	CT
Deaths	CU
Deaths	CV
Deaths	CW
Deaths	CX
Deaths	CY
Deaths	CZ
Deaths	DA
Deaths	DB
Deaths	DC
Deaths	DD
Deaths	DE
Deaths	DF
Deaths	DG
Deaths	DH
Deaths	DI
Deaths	DJ
Deaths	DK
Deaths	DL
Deaths	DM
Deaths	DN
Deaths	DO
Deaths	DP
Deaths	DQ
Deaths	DR
Deaths	DS
Deaths	DT
Deaths	DU
Deaths	DV
Deaths	DW
Deaths	DX
Deaths	DY
Deaths	DZ
Deaths	EA
Deaths	EB
Deaths	EC
Deaths	ED
Deaths	EE
Deaths	EF
Deaths	EG
Deaths	EH
Deaths	EI
Deaths	EJ
Deaths	EK
Deaths	EL
Deaths	EM
Deaths	EN
Deaths	EO
Deaths	EP
Deaths	EQ
Deaths	ER
Deaths	ES
Deaths	ET
Deaths	EU
Deaths	EV
Deaths	EW
Deaths	EX
Deaths	EY
Deaths	EZ
Deaths	FA
Deaths	FB
Deaths	FC
Deaths	FD
Deaths	FE
Deaths	FF
Deaths	FG
Deaths	FH
Deaths	FI
Deaths	FJ
Deaths	FK
Deaths	FL
Deaths	FM
Deaths	FN
Deaths	FO
Deaths	FP
Deaths	FQ
Deaths	FR
Deaths	FS
Deaths	FT
Deaths	FU
Deaths	FV
Deaths	FW
Deaths	FX
Deaths	FY
Deaths	FZ
Deaths	GA
Deaths	GB
Deaths	GC
Deaths	GD
Deaths	GE
Deaths	GF
Deaths	GG
Deaths	GH
Deaths	GI
Deaths	GJ
Deaths	GK
Deaths	GL
Deaths	GM
Deaths	GN
Deaths	GO
Deaths	GP
Deaths	GQ
Deaths	GR
Deaths	GS
Deaths	GT
Deaths	GU
Deaths	GV
Deaths	GW
Deaths	GX
Deaths	GY
Deaths	GZ
Deaths	HA
Deaths	HB
Deaths	HC
Deaths	HD
Deaths	HE
Deaths	HF
Deaths	HG
Deaths	HH
Deaths	HI
Deaths	HJ
Deaths	HK
Deaths	HL
Deaths	HM
Deaths	HN
Deaths	HO
Deaths	HP
Deaths	HQ
Deaths	HR
Deaths	HS
Deaths	HT
Deaths	HU
Deaths	HV
Deaths	HW
Deaths	HX
Deaths	HY
Deaths	HZ
Deaths	IA
Deaths	IB
Deaths	IC
Deaths	ID
Deaths	IE
Deaths	IF
Deaths	IG
Deaths	IH
Deaths	II
Deaths	IJ
Deaths	IK
Deaths	IL
Deaths	IM
Deaths	IN
Deaths	IO
Deaths	IP
Deaths	IQ
Deaths	IR
Deaths	IS
Deaths	IT
Deaths	IU
Deaths	IV
Deaths	IW
Deaths	IX
Deaths	IY
Deaths	IZ
Deaths	JA
Deaths	JB
Deaths	JC
Deaths	JD
Deaths	JE
Deaths	JF
Deaths	JG
Deaths	JH
Deaths	JI
Deaths	IJ
Deaths	JK
Deaths	IL
Deaths	JM
Deaths	JN
Deaths	JO
Deaths	JP
Deaths	JQ
Deaths	JR
Deaths	JS
Deaths	JT
Deaths	JU
Deaths	JV
Deaths	JW
Deaths	JX
Deaths	JY
Deaths	JZ
Deaths	KA
Deaths	KB
Deaths	KC
Deaths	KD
Deaths	KE
Deaths	KF
Deaths	KG
Deaths	KH
Deaths	KI
Deaths	KJ
Deaths	KK
Deaths	KL
Deaths	KM
Deaths	KN
Deaths	KO
Deaths	KP
Deaths	KQ
Deaths	KR
Deaths	KS
Deaths	KT
Deaths	KU
Deaths	KV
Deaths	KW
Deaths	KX
Deaths	KY
Deaths	KZ
Deaths	LA
Deaths	LB
Deaths	LC
Deaths	LD
Deaths	LE
Deaths	LF
Deaths	LG
Deaths	LH
Deaths	LI
Deaths	LJ
Deaths	LK
Deaths	LL
Deaths	LM
Deaths	LN
Deaths	LO
Deaths	LP
Deaths	LQ
Deaths	LR
Deaths	LS
Deaths	LT
Deaths	LU
Deaths	LV
Deaths	LW
Deaths	LX
Deaths	LY
Deaths	LZ
Deaths	MA
Deaths	MB
Deaths	MC
Deaths	MD
Deaths	ME
Deaths	MF
Deaths	MG
Deaths	MH
Deaths	MI
Deaths	MJ
Deaths	MK
Deaths	ML
Deaths	MM
Deaths	MN
Deaths	MO
Deaths	MP
Deaths	MQ
Deaths	MR
Deaths	MS
Deaths	MT
Deaths	MU
Deaths	MV
Deaths	MW
Deaths	MX
Deaths	MY
Deaths	MZ
Deaths	NA
Deaths	NB
Deaths	NC
Deaths	ND
Deaths	NE
Deaths	NF
Deaths	NG
Deaths	NH
Deaths	NI
Deaths	NJ
Deaths	NK
Deaths	NL
Deaths	NM
Deaths	NN
Deaths	NO
Deaths	NP
Deaths	NQ
Deaths	NR
Deaths	NS
Deaths	NT
Deaths	NU
Deaths	NV
Deaths	NW
Deaths	NX
Deaths	NY
Deaths	NZ
Deaths	OA
Deaths	OB
Deaths	OC
Deaths	OD
Deaths	OE
Deaths	OF
Deaths	OG
Deaths	OH
Deaths	OI
Deaths	OJ
Deaths	OK
Deaths	OL
Deaths	OM
Deaths	ON
Deaths	OO
Deaths	OP
Deaths	OQ
Deaths	OR
Deaths	OS
Deaths	OT
Deaths	OU
Deaths	OV
Deaths	OW
Deaths	OX
Deaths	OY
Deaths	OZ
Deaths	PA
Deaths	PB
Deaths	PC
Deaths	PD
Deaths	PE
Deaths	PF
Deaths	PG
Deaths	PH
Deaths	PI
Deaths	PJ
Deaths	PK
Deaths	PL
Deaths	PM
Deaths	PN
Deaths	PO
Deaths	PP
Deaths	PQ
Deaths	PR
Deaths	PS
Deaths	PT
Deaths	PU
Deaths	PV
Deaths	PW
Deaths	PX
Deaths	PY
Deaths	PZ
Deaths	QA
Deaths	QB
Deaths	QC
Deaths	QD
Deaths	QE
Deaths	QF
Deaths	QG
Deaths	QH
Deaths	QI
Deaths	QJ
Deaths	QK
Deaths	QL
Deaths	QM
Deaths	QN
Deaths	QO
Deaths	QP
Deaths	QQ
Deaths	QR
Deaths	QS
Deaths	QT
Deaths	QU
Deaths	QV
Deaths	QW
Deaths	QX
Deaths	QY
Deaths	QZ
Deaths	RA
Deaths	RB
Deaths	RC
Deaths	RD
Deaths	RE
Deaths	RF
Deaths	RG
Deaths	RH
Deaths	RI
Deaths	RJ
Deaths	RK
Deaths	RL
Deaths	RM
Deaths	RN
Deaths	RO
Deaths	RP
Deaths	RQ
Deaths	RR
Deaths	RS
Deaths	RT
Deaths	RU
Deaths	RV
Deaths	RW
Deaths	RX
Deaths	RY
Deaths	RZ
Deaths	SA
Deaths	SB
Deaths	SC
Deaths	SD
Deaths	SE
Deaths	SF
Deaths	SG
Deaths	SH
Deaths	SI
Deaths	SJ
Deaths	SK
Deaths	SL
Deaths	SM
Deaths	SN
Deaths	SO
Deaths	SP
Deaths	SQ
Deaths	SR
Deaths	SS
Deaths	ST
Deaths	SU
Deaths	SV
Deaths	SW
Deaths	SX
Deaths	SY
Deaths	SZ
Deaths	TA
Deaths	TB
Deaths	TC
Deaths	TD
Deaths	TE
Deaths	TF
Deaths	TG
Deaths	TH
Deaths	TI
Deaths	TJ
Deaths	TK
Deaths	TL
Deaths	TM
Deaths	TN
Deaths	TO
Deaths	TP
Deaths	TQ
Deaths	TR
Deaths	TS
Deaths	TT
Deaths	TU
Deaths	TV
Deaths	TW
Deaths	TX
Deaths	TY
Deaths	TZ
Deaths	UA
Deaths	UB
Deaths	UC
Deaths	UD
Deaths	UE
Deaths	UF
Deaths	UG
Deaths	UH
Deaths	UI
Deaths	UJ
Deaths	UK
Deaths	UL
Deaths	UM
Deaths	UN
Deaths	UO
Deaths	UP
Deaths	UQ
Deaths	UR
Deaths	US
Deaths	UT
Deaths	UU
Deaths	UV
Deaths	UW
Deaths	UX
Deaths	UY
Deaths	UZ
Deaths	VA
Deaths	VB
Deaths	VC
Deaths	VD
Deaths	VE
Deaths	VF
Deaths	VG
Deaths	VH
Deaths	VI
Deaths	VJ
Deaths	VK
Deaths	VL
Deaths	VM
Deaths	VN
Deaths	VO
Deaths	VP
Deaths	VQ
Deaths	VR
Deaths	VS
Deaths	VT
Deaths	VU
Deaths	VV
Deaths	VW
Deaths	VX
Deaths	VY
Deaths	VZ
Deaths	WA
Deaths	WB
Deaths	WC
Deaths	WD
Deaths	WE
Deaths	WF
Deaths	WG
Deaths	WH
Deaths	WI
Deaths	WJ
Deaths	WK
Deaths	WL
Deaths	WM
Deaths	WN
Deaths	WO
Deaths	WP
Deaths	WQ
Deaths	WR
Deaths	WS
Deaths	WT
Deaths	WU
Deaths	WV
Deaths	WW
Deaths	WX
Deaths	WY
Deaths	WZ
Deaths	XA
Deaths	XB
Deaths	XC
Deaths	XD
Deaths	XE
Deaths

SENSE and NONSENSE

About the only addition to the family the moderns look forward to is the day their new car will arrive.

Judge (in traffic court)—I'll let you off with a fine this time, but another day I'll send you to jail.

Driver—Sort of a weather forecast, eh, Judge?

Judge—What do you mean?

Driver—Fine today—collar tomorrow.

Stung!
You ask me why I look so sad?
I met my neighbor's daughter—
It isn't that I loved and lost,
But that I loved and got her.

Man—I can't understand why they call this a pleasure car.

Neighbor—Why not?

Man—The blessed thing has given me nothing but trouble.

Buying a license to marry has an advantage over buying one for a car or a dog. You don't have to get new license tags every year.

Ben—Tomorrow is dad's birthday—what shall we do for him?

Daughter—We might let him have his car for a change.

Well, the American dollar has entered the low price field. We are wondering what the quotations on the 1935 model will be.

A good many people were expecting prosperity to start as quick as the motor oil fellows claim they'll start your car on a morning 40 below zero.

Knees for automobiles are now all the vogue. You can now get run over without the drivers even knowing they hit you.

Women are like reckless drivers. One will never admit she's a day over twenty-nine—and the other will swear he wasn't going a mile over thirty.

LOOSE SCREWS, NUTS AND BOLTS—There is still too much confidence put in automobile brakes . . . Everybody on a political machine wants to blow the horn, and nobody wants to buy the gas . . . You can't tell. What is speeding now may be called blocking traffic in another hundred years. . . . In every town there are two or three men so well to do they can afford not to own an automobile. . . . When kissing a girl in an auto arrange matters so she is looking one way and you the other. . . . A hick town is a place where the traffic cop nods and smiles as you pass by. . . . It is getting so now that the person killed by an automobile dies a natural death. . . . Putting your foot down doesn't necessarily show strength of character if it's on the accelerator . . . You can tell when you are on the wrong road. You miss the smell of hot dogs. . . .

"STOP, LOOK and LISTEN." is a good slogan in connection with railroad crossings, but the man who stops and looks at a pretty woman may have to listen to her later on.

Asker—Is there a simple remedy for sleeplessness?

Answerer—Yes, one only need count up to 100.

Asker—Sounds very good, but our baby cannot count up to 100.

Two jopies really should consider changing husbands and wives. One of the pairs had their car freeze in January because each of its members thought the other had had alcohol put in it. The other's car was ready for 38 below zero because both took the precaution of having a lot of anti-freeze poured into the radiator of their car.

Demosthenes had some regard for his fellow men. When he filled his mouth with pebbles he spoke on the seashore instead of into a microphone.

DID YOU KNOW THAT—

A radio station with a tower 1,022 feet tall, said to be the highest in the world, has started broadcasting in Budapest.

A drunk who leaned against a post and set off a false fire alarm was fined $100 in a Kansas City police court.

The agricultural department of the University of Kentucky says the outlook for tobacco growers in that state has improved greatly since last year.

Figures published in London show that Canada's made more telephone calls in 1932 than any other people, average 225 calls each. The United States had 222 calls a person, while Britain had only 33.

Restaurant men say Miami, Fla., has more eating places than any resort center in the world five times its size.

The dome on Jesse hall, administration building at the University of Missouri, will not be replaced as planned, due to protests of students and alumni.

There is a "no smoking" rule at meetings of the Texas relief commission because Gov. Miriam A. Ferguson has hay fever.

Classed as a tree and plant pest, mistletoe is outlawed by ordinance in several California cities and its destruction made compulsory.

Sugar beet shipments from Utah in 1933 were 10 per cent higher than those of 1932.

FLAPPER FANNY SAYS:

Girls looking for action can find plenty stirring in the kitchen.

Girls looking for action can find plenty stirring in the kitchen.

Girls looking for action can find plenty stirring in the kitchen.

Girls looking for action can find plenty stirring in the kitchen.

Toonerville Folks

By Fontaine Fox

SCORCHY SMITH

WASHINGTON TUBBS

By Crane

SALESMAN SAM

And Don't Stumble!

GAS BUGGIES

Theory vs. Practise

OUR BOARDING HOUSE

By Gene Ahern

OUT OUR WAY

By Williams

THE WHISTLE RUSHER.

By Small

FRANK BECK'S

By Frank Beck

FRANK BECK'S

By Frank Beck

FRECKLES AND HIS FRIENDS

By Blosser

ABOUT TOWN

With the return to duty last night of Policeman Raymond Griffin all members of the Manchester police department, having regular beats, are again on duty.

Another well pleased audience was in attendance at the School Street Recreation Center last night for the regular weekly dance.

Rock salt has been used on many different walks in town this winter to dissolve the ice that has formed and to make the walks safer.

The Washington L. O. L. degree team will meet in Orange hall at 2 o'clock tomorrow.

Friday, March 16, is the date set for a dance at the new Wapping Community Church House.

All members of the Junior choir of St. Mary's Episcopal church are urged to meet in the parish house tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

J. S. Altrock, sales manager of the Fuller Brush company of Hartford, will be the guest speaker at the meeting tomorrow morning at 9:30 of the Everyman's Bible class at the Second Congregational church.

The Amaranth drill team will have a rehearsal Monday evening at 6:30 at the Masonic Temple, after which at 7:30 a rehearsal will be held for the play, "Hiring Help."

Harrison Harries of Hartford, who is well qualified to discuss all phases of the motion picture subject, will address the Manchester Kiwanis club at its Monday noon meeting at the Hotel Sheridan on "What Makes the Movies Go Round."

A meeting of the minstrel committee, which is composed of men and women from St. Bridget's church, is called for tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 at the parish hall.

The first sitting of the third tourney in duplicate contract bridge was held last evening at the Manchester Country club.

Winners at the Manchester Green setback party last evening were Alice Lauritsen and Carl Stoltzenfeldt, first; Annie Brown and Joseph Lovett, second.

Do you know-- WATKINS Rug Cushions. That a rug cushion will increase the life of a rug from one-half to two-thirds? And that Watkins' all hair waffled cushions in 9x12 size start at $7.50?

A cast of young people from the Second Congregational church, under the direction of the pastor, Rev. F. C. Allen, will present a biblical drama, "The Cross," by Ralph Claggett, tomorrow evening at the North Methodist church, Hartford.

James H. Wilson, advertising solicitor for The Herald for nearly four years, will enter the employ of the Manchester Gas company on Monday, in the sales department.

Chairman Clifford Boyce of the St. Mary's Young Men's club last night appointed members of his official committee for the annual nautical regatta ball which will be held in the state armory April 20.

Manchester Assembly, No. 15, Order of Rainbow for Girls, will hold its regular meeting, which will include initiation Monday evening at 7:30 at the Masonic Temple.

Dr. Morris C. Fancher of the Rubenow building will be absent from town until Tuesday. He will attend the funeral of his grandfather, A. B. Fancher, who died Thursday at the age of 85 and was the oldest active business man in Winsted.

Richard Hewitt of 169 East Middle Turnpike has sold to George Dart of Rockville, the milk route and dairy plant equipment located at 24 Trotter street.

With this week's payroll added, the Civil Works Administration has spent a total of $72,662.13 in Manchester during the past five months.

BIBLE CLASS CONFERENCE TO BE HELD IN ROCKVILLE. For the past five years the State Federation of Men's Bible Classes has held successful conferences of the class officers with the state officers.

Frank B. Florau, Glastonbury; Emil Kroymann, Rockville; Milton Button, Hartford; Henry Thomas, Ansonia; and Alfred W. Loukas of Bridgeport are the committee arranging this conference.

The year's program for the state will be considered at this conference. The Tenth National Convention of the Federation of Men's Bible Classes will be held in Hartford on May 5 and 6.

The Epworth League of the Rockville Methodist church, under the direction of Mrs. C. S. Johnson, Mrs. Emil Kroymann and Miss Ruth E. Litz, are to give a luncheon to the visiting delegates.

PUBLIC RECORDS. Bill of Sale. Richard Hewitt to George Dart of Vernon, milk truck and dairy equipment located at 24 Trotter street.

DEALERS REQUEST THAT RESIDENTS PLACE MILK BOTTLES ON DOORSTEPS REGARDLESS OF WHOSE NAME IS ON BOTTLE. Manchester Milk Men.

Announcing The Opening Today of The North End Package Store. Depot Square - Next To A. & P. Cavalier Gin $1.00, Marlowe's Dry Gin $1.00, Old Mr. Boston Gin $1.40, Sagamore Whiskey $1.25, Sweepstakes Whiskey $1.25.

MANY SCHOOL PUPILS ENTER ESSAY CONTEST

Miss Helen M. Smith, Home Economics Teacher, Enrolls Students in Meat Story Competition.

Miss Helen M. Smith, teacher of home economics at Franklin school, has entered her students in a nation-wide essay contest in which university scholarships are the major awards.

This educational project for home economics students is known as the national meat story contest and, according to Miss Smith, is of material assistance in developing a well-rounded study of this subject in foods classes.

Since all essays must be in the hands of the judges by March 15, the girls are losing no time in selecting their topics and assembling their material.

TALENTED HARPISIT ON PROGRAM HERE

Miss Senta Hoffman to Assist at G Clef Glee Club Concert.

Miss Senta Hoffman, Hartford harpist, who will be one of the two assisting artists on the annual concert program of the G Clef Club to be presented at the Emanuel Lutheran church on Tuesday evening, March 20, has a wide background of experience in her chosen field.

She has been a member of the staff of WTIC since last November and previous to that time toured the country with the German Opera company and the Russian Symphony.

The G Clef Club is practicing extensively for this concert, which the members believe will be the best the club has ever given.

FILMS DEVELOPED AND PRINTED. 24 HOUR SERVICE. Film Deposit Box At Store Entrance. KEMP'S.

'ERSTWHILE SUSAN' DRESS REHEARSAL

Portrayal of Life in Pennsylvania Dutch Settlement Will Be Amusing.

Final dress rehearsals of the play "Erstwhile Susan," are scheduled for tomorrow afternoon and Monday evening at the Whitton Memorial hall, where the Community Players will give the performance Tuesday evening under the auspices of Orford Parish Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution.

The cast in the order of their appearance on the stage follows: Miss Florence Spillane, Arthur Scranton, Mark Holmes, Joseph Handley, Thomas Conran, Richard Owens, Miss Faith Fallow, Miss Sylvia Hagedorn, Mrs. Ethel Keller, Walter Henry, Louis Genovesi, Miss Florence Donahue, Mrs. Mabel Holmes and Russell Potterton.

The cast in the order of their appearance on the stage follows: Miss Florence Spillane, Arthur Scranton, Mark Holmes, Joseph Handley, Thomas Conran, Richard Owens, Miss Faith Fallow, Miss Sylvia Hagedorn, Mrs. Ethel Keller, Walter Henry, Louis Genovesi, Miss Florence Donahue, Mrs. Mabel Holmes and Russell Potterton.

AGAIN! We offer a delicious variety of Freshly Made Chocolates at our special week-end price.

59c POUND AN EXTRA POUND ... 1c PRINCESS CANDY SHOP.

NORTH END ICE DELIVERY. Henry and Raymond Starkweather. PHONE 6861.

MAYTAG STARTLES The WASHER WORLD with new all-time LOW PRICES.

WANTED TO BUY ALL KINDS OF LIVE POULTRY. A. Gremmo & Son. PHONE 3441.

The new, improved, square-tub, cast-aluminum Model 30 washer now only $79.50. FORMERLY $165.00.

KEMP'S Inc. STANDARD MERCHANDISE. and substantial price reductions on other models... a Maytag as low as $59.50.

Manchester Date Book

Next Week. March 13—"Erstwhile Susan," Manchester Community Players at Whitton Memorial hall, auspices D. A. R.

March 13, 14, 15, 16—Annual Herald Cooking School at State Theater, sessions in morning.

March 17—Musical revue, "Radio Revels of 1934," presented by the choir of St. James's church.

March 20—Annual concert of G Clef club at Emanuel Lutheran church.

March 31—Entertainment and dance by Daughters of Scotia at Orange hall.

April 2—Masonic Ball, State Armory.

April 6—Play, "I'll Leave It To You," by Sock and Buskin club at High school.

April 11—Three-act comedy "The Brat," at High school auditorium by Junior Sons of Italy.

April 23—Ninth annual concert of Beethoven Glee club at High school auditorium.

May 12—Opening of Memorial Hospital drive for $15,000.

Cottage Street Package Store. Open Until 6 P. M. Marlowe's Gin, 90 Proof $1.00, Capt. Kidd Whiskey $1.50, Alcohol $1.65, Wines 75c.

Straight Whiskey, 100 Proof $2.00.

The ICE and OIL BUSINESS. Formerly Owned and Operated by F. W. Starkweather. Starkweather. Phone 5940.

EASTERN STAR DANCE. Wednesday Evening, March 14. Masonic Temple. Admission including refreshments 35 Cents.

FRIGIDAIRE Exclusive Agents KEMP'S, Inc. Registered Frigidaire Service Dept. Maintained.

TYPEWRITERS. Now on display, the new model Underwood and Royal Portables, these machines have all the features and are standard in every way. New Price $45.00. Service Typewriter Co. Hartford, Conn. Local Agents—Kemp's, Inc.

DINE and DANCE AT CAVEY'S GRILL. East Center Street—Next To Masonic Temple.

SATURDAY SPECIALS. APPETIZERS: Crab Cocktail, 30c, Shrimp Cocktail, 30c, Lobster Cocktail, 40c, Celery and Olives, 25c.

PIEL'S-CROFT'S BEER ON DRAUGHT. CAVEY'S GRILL. Manchester's Finest Place To Meet!

PROFESSOR HEDLEY SPEAKS HERE MONDAY

Hartford Seminary Authority to Be Guest of Men's Friendship Club at South Church.

Professor George F. Hedley of Hartford Seminary will be the speaker at the regular monthly meeting of the Men's Friendship club of the South Methodist church next Monday evening at 7:45 o'clock.

Mr. Hedley is one of the most popular speakers at the Seminary and is always in demand. He is one of the foremost progressive religious thinkers, a brilliant student of the origin of religion and has a fluent delivery.

Consideration of your means is one of the deepest obligations we feel in the sacred pursuit of our service. The same attentive direction and impressive equipment is accorded whether the funeral is to be a modest or an elaborate one.

Everyone Can Afford A LeCLERC FUNERAL. The Walter N. LeClerc Funeral Chapel. 259 No. Main St. Phone 5289.

Wanted to Buy ALL KINDS OF LIVE POULTRY. A. Gremmo & Son. PHONE 3441.

FRIGIDAIRE Exclusive Agents KEMP'S, Inc. Registered Frigidaire Service Dept. Maintained.

FRIGIDAIRE Exclusive Agents KEMP'S, Inc. Registered Frigidaire Service Dept. Maintained.

FRIGIDAIRE Exclusive Agents KEMP'S, Inc. Registered Frigidaire Service Dept. Maintained.

FRIGIDAIRE Exclusive Agents KEMP'S, Inc. Registered Frigidaire Service Dept. Maintained.

Manchester's Most Complete LIQUOR STORE. IF You Desire Low Priced Liquor... WE HAVE IT. Beer, Ales and Wines for Immediate Delivery. DIAL 8500. MIDLAND PACKAGE STORE.

STEADY HEAT. HEALTHFUL HEAT. When you burn 'blue coal' LESS ATTENTION. LOWER FUEL COSTS. The W. G. Glenney Company. Coal, Lumber, Masons' Supplies, Paint. 336 No. Main St. Tel. 4149. Manchester.

A Comparison of Prices Which Proves That Now Is the Time to Buy A PLYMOUTH CAR. 1929 SEDAN Specifications. 1934 SEDAN Specifications. $845. $777. Schaller Motor Sales Inc. PLYMOUTH AND DODGE CARS. 634 Center Street. Manchester.

RANGE & FUEL OILS. We Handle Only The Best! When In Need Of Range Or Fuel Oil. PHONE 5293. The Bantly Oil Co. 155 Center Street. Manchester.

COAL—FUEL OIL. MASON'S SUPPLIES. LUMBER. G. E. Willis & Son, Inc. 2 Main St. Tel. 5125. Manchester.

ADVERTISE IN THE HERALD—IT PAYS