

REGIONAL AMERICAN FURNITURE DISPLAYED

Three Groups of Bedroom Suites to Be Shown at Watkins Next Week.

In response to the great interest shown by the American public in the furniture used by our forefathers, Watkins Brothers will exhibit all next week three new groups of bedroom furniture, known as "Regional American."

These groups will be displayed in attractive room backgrounds specially prepared for the exhibit. Each group will represent reproductions from the bedroom pieces that are treasured heirlooms now in museums and homes located in the three regions in which different racial groups concentrated.

One group takes its inspiration from the most artistic pieces of furniture found in the home of Colonial New England. Another group reproduces the best types used by the Dutch pioneer settlers of Pennsylvania and New York states. A third group shows the effect of the sophisticated, elegant courts of the Louises of France on the furniture of our French ancestors who settled in Louisiana at the mouth of the "Mighty Father of Waters," the Mississippi.

There is a decided tendency today for the American family, a blend of racial types, to furnish one room, usually a bedroom, to compliment the efforts of their homelike ancestors, to retain the artistic accumulations of centuries of living and to elevate their home in a rugged country above its mere utilitarian purpose.

This exhibit also exemplifies the interesting and individual manner in which the Colonial pioneer accumulated one piece at a time... often using one painted piece with two or more pieces of furniture to achieve beauty and charm we deem worthy of emulation.

For those who take pride in the fact that they are descended from strains of the hardy English, Dutch or French pioneer and wish to furnish one room as an ancestral room, this exhibition will be of unusual interest.

Another feature of this Exposition of Regional American furniture at Watkins will be a lecture to be given Friday afternoon at 2:30, "The Art of Furnishing and Attractive Home," by Paul G. Towles, noted author and lecturer and educational instructor for leading furniture manufacturers.

Miss Marjorie Rich

Miss Marjorie Rich, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rich, of 33 New street, will make her debut tonight in Noel Coward's play "Till Leave It To You," which will be presented at the High School auditorium by Sock and Buskin. Marjorie is a lower senior and was admitted to the club in February. Her ability immediately brought her to the attention of the faculty coach, Miss Helen Page, and the other members of the club. She tried out for the part of Mrs. Dermott and there again her ability came to the fore and she received the part. Mrs. Dermott is a typical English mother, faced with the problem of running her family on a meager pittance left her by a recent disaster to her money. Her children, Oliver, Evangeline, Sylvia, Bobby and Joyce, are luxury-loving young people without any idea of how to

NURSE SAVES ESCORT FROM BANDIT'S TRAP

Gloversville, N. Y., April 6.—(AP)—Miss Ruth Michaelson, a trained nurse, broke out of a bandit trap near here last night, and drove her wounded escort, Gregory Johnson, to a hospital.

The couple were driving toward Gloversville when a tire went flat. As Johnson stopped the car, two masked men appeared. They told Johnson not to move, but as he was somewhat deaf he did not hear them and started to get out of the car. One bandit fired, the bullet lodging in Johnson's chest near the heart. When the holdup men went to the front of the automobile to smash the headlights, Miss Michaelson slipped behind the steering wheel, started the car and drove ahead between the two gunmen.

LOCAL PUBLIC UTILITY RATES TO BE DEBATED

Albert Levitt Will Match Opinions With Samuel Ferguson in New London Tonight.

New London, April 6.—(AP)—A public debate on questions as to local public utility rates (gas and electricity) proposed by the New London Central Labor Union will be held here tonight between Albert Levitt of Redding, now an assistant in the Department of Justice in Washington, and Samuel Ferguson, chairman of the board of directors of the Connecticut Power Company. As a basis for discussion the union has taken the rate schedules of the Connecticut Power company as its general subject. Questions will cover rates on electricity and gas; actual receipts of the company in the area, the justifiability or otherwise, of the charges; state tax relations with the public utilities commission; income taxes paid to the Federal gov-

ACCORD IN WHEAT IS BELIEVED NEAR

Russia's Delegate Promises to Co-operate; No Increase in Carry Over.

Rome, April 6.—(AP)—The world wheat advisory commission continued its discussions today with hope of reaching an agreement with Russia on a wheat export quota for the Soviet.

The agreement is being sought through conversations among delegates of the Soviet Union and those of other wheat exporting countries.

The conference was brightened somewhat by the disclosure made in an official communique after yesterday's opening discussions that the world wheat carry-over on August 1 will be approximately 1,100,000,000 bushels—no greater than last year's figure.

The communique took note of an exceptionally short northern American crop.

John I. McFarland, chief Canadian delegate, told the conference that the Dominion had taken definite steps to implement the London wheat agreement of last August.

To Restrict Sales

He explained bills had been introduced in the legislatures of the three prairie provinces to provide enabling legislation to restrict the amount of wheat each farmer may sell. The extent of the restriction, he said, will be based on Canada's export quota.

McFarland said it was expected that acreage sown to wheat in Canada this year would be reduced considerably, because of widespread discussion of the necessity for reducing production, dissemination to farmers of information regarding proposals to restrict sales and unfavorable natural and economic conditions.

Russia's Crop

M. Gourevitch, Soviet delegate, told the meeting that although the area Russia sowed to wheat in 1933 was larger than that of 1932, it was considerably smaller than the acreage of 1931.

The Russian increase in wheat acreage, he said, was made at the expense of rye, so that it would have no material influence on the total supply of grains for bread-making.

M. Gourevitch emphasized the Soviet Union's desire to co-operate in every way possible to solve the world wheat problem. His words gave rise to hope that an agreement on a Russian export quota might be reached.

Speaking for the United States, Dr. Mordecai Ezekiel reported an acreage reduction of six per cent for winter wheat in 1934 as compared to 1931 and an 11 per cent decrease in the spring wheat acreage.

Enthusiasm greeted the report of Thomas A. le Breton, Argentine representative, in which he said his government would continue to co-operate and expressed hope the present meeting of the committee would achieve "substantial results."

There were about sixteen tables at play last Wednesday evening at the Wapping school hall at the bridge and setback, given by the School Auxiliary. Dancing was enjoyed after the games.

There were nine members of Wapping Grange who motored to Columbia Grange Hall last Wednesday, where they attended the meeting of East Central Pomona Grange, No. 3. There were about 170 present.

A class of candidates were initiated into the fifth degree in the forenoon with a beautiful dinner at noon, prepared by Columbia Grange members. In the afternoon, the Worthy Lecturer presented a fine program. Mr. Cox of Storrs College, who is connected with 4-H club work in Tolland County, gave a very interesting address. His subject was, "Beautification of Our Home Grounds." This was followed by vocal and instrumental music recitations and a sketch.

There will be a minstrel at the Wapping Community church house Friday evening, April 20, at 8 p. m. There are six men, ten chorus girls and an orchestra of four pieces. The show will be from 8 to 10 o'clock, which will be followed by dancing until 2 to 11 rhythm's orchestra. Proceeds are for the Wapping Community "Y."

TO ASK PRESIDENTIAL ACTION ON CARRIERS

Regulation in Administration Program Sought; Conditions Called Disturbing in Field.

Chicago, April 6.—Action by President Roosevelt to include Federal regulation of motor carriers in the administration program of legislation to be enacted at the present session of Congress is anticipated by the motor carriers of the country, according to a statement made today by J. L. Keeshin, President of the National Highway Freight association. A series of conferences for the purpose of pressing the subject to the immediate attention of Congress are being held in Washington this week with J. B. Eastman, Federal co-ordinator of transportation, and members of Congress who agree with his views as to the urgency of this legislation. Mr. Keeshin, and other leaders in the National Highway Freight association, which represents the regularly established motor transport services, have been called to Washington to attend these conferences.

"Conditions in the motor carrier field are steadily becoming more disturbing," said Mr. Keeshin, in discussing the pending legislative proposals, "and the wisdom of prompt establishment of a permanent federal policy is apparent to everyone who has studied the subject with an open mind. Established routes, service and rates are subjected under present conditions to demoralizing influences and practices which threaten public interest, as well as the interest of motor carrier enterprises. It is becoming increasingly evident that the sound

ARMY FLIER IS KILLED IN LEAP FROM PLANE

Machine Falling So Aviator Jumps When at Height of 200 Feet.

Altoona, Pa., April 6.—(AP)—The body of Second Lieutenant John Leland McAllister 25, who leaped from his falling Army plane, was moved to the Duncansville air port today pending word from Federal authorities.

Farmers who saw the crash near Altoona late yesterday, said the pursuit ship was losing altitude as it sped through this mountainous region and at a height of about 200 feet the pilot stood up and jumped. The farmers found the body of McAllister, a resident of McCormick, S. C., in tangled underbrush about 80 feet from the wreckage of the plane.

Local flyers could give no reason for the crash. They said visibility was "fairly good."

The officer was on his way from Langley Field, Va., to Cleveland. He had been flying the mail from Cleveland to Chicago for the past month. Lieutenant McAllister received his "wings" just three years ago yesterday.

TYDOL

INSPECTED AND QUALITY GUARANTEED

THE finest motor fuel ever sold at the regular gasoline price. That's what we pledged TYDOL to be in 1934. And that's what it is!

And now we seal that pledge of quality by sealing a tag on every TYDOL pump. Behind that tag is a story of the integrity of 22,000 TYDOL dealers. They were determined, in these days of substitution, "cutting" and adulteration... that TYDOL must be protected... there should be no tampering with TYDOL's high quality. So with their cooperation, the makers of TYDOL developed a patented device... a "Secret Detector."

This device shows instantly the slightest impurity or adulteration in TYDOL. It is used in thousands of tests, made day and night, every inch of the way from the refinery to your car.

When you ask for TYDOL you get TYDOL! You get the highest anti-knock, the most powerful gasoline ever sold at the regular gas price. You get the gasoline that is different... that actually lubricates as it drives. The gasoline that is best for your motor... and the most for your money.

The first assignment of the report said, should be into their accounts, records, methods of handling depositions, contracts, and "to what extent communications companies contribute to campaign expenses or otherwise participate in political activities."

"It must be borne in mind that the American Telephone and Telegraph Company system has assets estimated at $6,000,000,000 and that the gross telephone revenue of the system in the year 1932 was $989,732,645," the report said.

This one system in the field of communication has assets to about one-fifth of all the railroads and the average per capita contribution to its telephone service in 1932 was $7.88, the report added.

MANCHESTER MEN SAW DROWNING

Witnessed Fatal Accident in Connecticut River Yesterday Afternoon.

J. Leo Fay, Kenneth Ringrose and Howard Wetherell, three Manchester men, yesterday afternoon witnessed the drowning of Harry McDonald of Baltimore, who slipped from a pontoon of a seaplane in the Connecticut river and was swept down the river in a rapid current and was carried away just as aid reached him.

Mr. Fay said that McDonald, a good swimmer, was within twenty yards of the shore when he went down. Oliver Yoro, of Rockville, who had pulled off his shoes, coat and vest and dove into the river to try and assist him, had been able to get a hold on the man, but it was broken as the turn was being made to bring him ashore. Yoro dove down to try and locate the man, but the fast moving stream carried the body away and both he and C. T. Fenn, a member of the seaplane crew who also dove into the river after him, were weak when they returned to shore. Fenn was so weak that it was necessary for Mr. Fay to pick him up and carry him into the superintendent's office at Brainard Field.

Mr. Fay, along with others who were present and witnessed the drowning of the man, have high praise for the part played by Yoro in the attempt he made to save the man.

Penny Important Factor In This Man's Business

Weighing Machines Located Throughout New England Give Him His Livelihood—Some Experiences In Collecting.

Five years ago the lowly penny was unnoticed and unrecognized. Today it has its place in the sun as it has for centuries in many European countries, including our own possession, the Philippines and even in Cuba and other Latin-American countries.

We have learned to associate the penny with penny arcades and various kinds of weighing machines. Until recently, the old-time penny candy was hard to find. Now scarcely a neighborhood store can do business without a good stock of candy and gum of the kind we used to know when we went to school.

This penny candy business has attained considerable volume in the big cities. From nearly every confectionery house, salesmen are urged to stress the advantages of the penny candy line, especially in the smaller neighborhood stores and in the rural communities. The big volume of pennies is garnered from the penny weighing machines. In New York's suburbs alone over a ton and a half of pennies are taken from the subway weighing machines each day—a fine business for one concern. We may take the word of Charles Smith of Hartford for it—he has a chain of 154 weighing machines located in Massachusetts, Vermont, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York and Connecticut and he should know his pennies after several years on the collection end of their penny weighing machine business.

Some Experiences "Collecting pennies is a novel experience," said Smith the other day. "It's a great job to get a line on folks—their habits and eccentricities. I remember the collection trip I made last year through Vermont. Imagine my surprise when I dumped the box on the machine in Basin Harbor, a summer place located on Lake Champlain, to find $17.50 in dimes and nickels. The machine was the usual penny type but nobody put in less than a nickel! There must have been plenty of money in that burg that season, believe me!"

"Another machine on the Vermont-Canada border yielded a $3.50 gold piece. Other machines in that section were filled with Canadian pennies. After the war the weighing machines were being constantly filled with foreign coins and an effort was made to find out the reason. The owner of the machines found that they were deposited in the slots by some gold digger who salvaged foreign coins while in France, and who possibly inserted them in the slots by mistake. Collection in Museum "Anyway, all the coins were saved and the collection was turned

C. writes: "I would like to ask you if you think there is any danger of my inheriting fits of Apoplexy? Also do you think my children will be afflicted as they grow older?" Answer: I see no reason to believe that you will develop Apoplexy simply because your mother had this disorder. I suggest that you try to live in such a way that you will retain complete good health and if you do this, I am sure that you will be in little, or no danger of Apoplexy. If you care to secure further information on the subject, I advise that you write to me in care of this newspaper, enclosing one large, self-addressed, stamped envelope, as I will be very pleased to send you the article called "Apoplexy."

NEA Service Staff Correspondent
Indio, Calif., April 6 — An opera bouffe war between two states, with a shanty boat flagship and an "army" of six men protecting the sovereign rights of one of the belligerents, has drawn national interest to one of the world's greatest engineering projects — one which the country at large had paid little heed, despite its magnitude.

While 4000 men speed the colossal task of building the Colorado river aqueduct, which will carry Boulder Dam water to Los Angeles and 12 other southern California cities, Arizona stands guard to protect her water rights.

Ira of Gov. B. B. Moear was aroused by reports that California was violating these rights in building Parker Dam, north of Parker, Ariz., and the dispatch of the army followed. To date, the war has been bloodless.

Will Cost $220,000,000
Disregarding the marital display of General Manager F. E. Waymouth, are making rapid progress in carrying out orders issued by voters of the Metropolitan Water District on Sept. 29, 1931, when a $220,000,000 aqueduct bond issue was authorized by 15 to 1 majority.

Already this throng of toilers has completed 17 miles of the project's 91 miles of 16-foot tunnels and hard rock history was made here recently, when 100 miners gathered for the largest drilling contest ever held in construction annals.

Under a blazing California desert sun, Robert Banovich and Charles Carlson set what is believed to be a world record, driving a shaft of steel 5 1/2 feet into solid granite boulder in 5 minutes and 38 seconds.

Within two months, the aqueduct forces in the field will be increased by launching of several new units of work. The federal Public Works Administration has allocated $2,000,000 for financing of the first year of construction on Parker Dam, the aqueduct diversion dam on the Colorado river.

Start Dam Work Soon
This structure, 350 feet high from its foundation on bedrock and 740 feet across its crest, will be built at a cost of approximately $13,500,000. It will be situated in Parker Canyon, about 15 miles north of Parker, Ariz., and 150 miles below Boulder Dam.

Behind Parker Dam the aqueduct will have its intake, the dam providing a large regulating reservoir. Work on Parker Dam is scheduled to get under way within 60 days. The project necessitates construction of 85 miles of tunnel through mountains, 55 miles of covered conduit, 24 miles of pressure line, and 75 miles of lined canal across deserts.

There will be 23 tunnels, the longest 18 miles.
Drilling a 13-mile tunnel through a high mountain at the foot of which nestles Palm Springs, fashionable desert resort, is the greatest single task confronting engineers.

More than 750,000 cubic yards of rock will be taken from the 16-foot bore. When completed in 1939, it will be one of the most notable tunnels in the world.
241 Miles in Length

The gigantic water supply system, now being built from 31 construction camps in the desert will be 241 miles in length from its intake on the river to its terminal reservoir near Riverside, Calif.
East of this terminal reservoir, 141 miles of huge mains will carry water to Los Angeles and the other district municipalities.

Actual construction work has been going forward for approximately a year and great strides have been taken.

In all, work is under way and contracts have been awarded by the district on approximately one-third of the total construction program. All this work and these contracts involve a total investment and obligation of approximately $75,000,000.

Preparation
Before building of the aqueduct proper was begun, district engineers completed a large amount of preliminary construction—the building of roads, power lines, camps, water lines, and the communication systems.

In 300 days, 446 miles of high voltage power, transmission lines were erected, making an average of 1 1/2 miles a day during that period. A large portion of the aqueduct line is situated in rugged desert and mountain country, remote from existing highway and railroad systems.

To overcome this obstacle, the water district during the first six months of 1933 constructed 150 miles of modern surfaced highways and additional feeder roads totaling more than 100 miles.

of almost three miles a month—an unprecedented program of tunnel construction work.
This isn't the first time southern California has been forced to build an aqueduct to insure water for its residents. Twenty-five years ago Los Angeles met a water crisis by building the Owens river aqueduct, which brought pure snow water from the High Sierras, 250 miles distant.

Several years later scientific studies proved that Los Angeles was nearing the bottom of her rain barrel. The pressing question of the day was where more water could be secured.

William Mulholland, great dreamer and great builder, undertook to answer this question.
Simultaneously with launching of preliminary plans for Boulder Dam, Mulholland had city engineers survey the wild and rugged desert and mountain country between the Colorado river and the Pacific ocean.
At the conclusion of the survey, in 1926, he announced that construction of an aqueduct to bring water to Los Angeles from the river after erection of Boulder Dam was both feasible and practical.

The school savings plan has been adopted in more than 10,890 schools in the United States; deposits of 3,080,685 pupils last year totaled $10,382,568.

$25,000 FIRST
LOTTERY PRIZE

Bill Introduced to Raise
$15,000,000 Relief Fund
for New York City.

Albany, N. Y., April 6.—(AP)—A plan to raise from $10,000,000 to $15,000,000 in relief funds for New York City by means of a lottery today was under consideration by the Legislature.

Assemblyman Ernest Lappano, New York Republican, introduced the measure yesterday at the request of Mayor Fiorello LaGuardia and James J. Lyons, Borough President of the Bronx.

Avoiding all mention of the word lottery, so as not to conflict with the Constitution, the measure would form a membership corporation, with $260,000 in prizes going to officers as salaries.

The officers would be selected from the membership, which would be composed of all ticket buyers, by election by the turn of a wheel.

The salaries would be paid by the Board of Estimate and Apportionment which would act as a Board of Trustees to manage the corporation. All funds must be used for public health and relief purposes.

The sponsors of the measure would not reveal the price of tickets or the amount of the prizes, but it was recalled that Mayor LaGuardia, in early discussion of the plan, had mentioned tentative figures.

At that time he indicated tickets might be sold for $2.50, with the following prize list:
President, $25,000; first vice president, $20,000; nine other vice presidents, $15,000; three secretaries, $10,000 and ten sergeants-at-arms, $5,000.

We have sinned, and have committed iniquity, and have done wickedly, and have rebelled, even by departing from thy precepts and from thy judgments.—Daniel, 9:6.

SENSE and NONSENSE

"HELL"
 Just what is meant by this word "Hell"? They say sometimes "It's cold as Hell." Sometimes they say, "It's hot as Hell." When it rains hard, "It's Hell" they cry. It's also Hell when it's dry.

They "hate like Hell" to see it snow; It's a "Hell of a wind" when it starts to blow; Now "how in Hell" can anyone tell "What in Hell" they mean by this word "Hell"?

"This married life is Hell" they say; When he comes home late, "there's Hell to Pay"; "It's Hell" when the kid you hate to tote, When he starts to yell, it's "a Hell of a note."

"It's Hell when the doctor sends his bill For a "Hell of a lot" of trips and pills; When you get this you will know real well Just what is meant by this word "Hell."

"Hell, yes!" Hell, no!" and "Oh, Hell, too," "The Hell you don't" and "the Hell you do," And "what in Hell?" and "the Hell it is?" "The Hell with yours!" and "the Hell with his!"

"Now, who in Hell—" and "Oh, Hell, where!" And "What in the Hell do you think I care!" But "the Hell of it is"—it's sure as Hell We don't know what in the Hell is Hell.
