J. F. BARSTOW OPENS NEW DISPLAY ROOM

House at 470 Main St. Is Remodeled to Allow for Large Display Window.

J. F. Barstow, well known radio dealer in Manchester for the past twelve years has opened up a new display room with a more diversified line of merchandise than he has carried in the past. The new location is at 470 Main street, just below the Center, next to the Fallot studio. The building has been remodeled and redecorated by E. J. Hoil and a large bay window installed for display purposes. The large display room has a separate entrance, and there is also a private entrance to Mr. Barstow's living rooms.

Ever since Mr. Barstow added Westinghouse Dual-Automatic Refrigerators to his line he has wished for a proper place to display his well known line to the public and now, with the fast growing list of happier Westinghouse Refrigerator owners, Mr. Barstow expects many more to be added this season.

The first church board consisted of President, Fred Montie; secretary, Emil Kohler; treasurer, Fred Bieher; trustees, John Lautenbach and John Zerfer; Elders, Fritz Hoepfner and William Pries.

The burden was great and it was not until 1906 that Rev. G. A. Nicelli, a resident pastor, could be sustained. Concordia has had the privilege of being served by ten pastors, as follows: Rev. H. Erdman, 1884-1896. Rev. Hartwig, 1896-1898. Rev. Lemke, 1898-1899. Rev. Lothar Bronke, 1899-1906. Rev. G. A. Nicelli, 1906-1908. Rev. Gille, 1908-1909. Rev. Otto Rappolt, 1909-1914. Rev. Herman Stippich, 1914-1924. Rev. Herman O. Weber, 1924-1933.

Rev. Karl Richter, 1933, at present. Many blessings have been received from Almighty God, and through the strength received from Him this congregation is growing remarkably and now has a bright membership of upwards of six hundred souls, Rev. Richter said today. The Sunday school now has one hundred thirty enrolled and is growing steadily. There are also four organizations within the church, namely, the Ladies Aid, the Young Peoples society, the Sewing Circle and the Brotherhood, as well as three choirs.

Members of the present church board are as follows: Pastor, Rev. Karl Richter; president, John Winzler; vice-president, Carl Hanson; secretary, Andrew Wenzler; treasurer, Louis Hanson; trustees, John Lurch, Adolph Knotha, Peter Frey, Michael Minnich and Adolph Schlack. Financial secretary, Jacob Klein; assistant financial secretary,

SILK FACTORIES FACE SHUTDOWN

Silk Code Authority to Ask Johnson for Week's Closing; Fabric Gluts Market.

Paterson, N. J., April 26.—The Silk Code Authority will petition General Hugh S. Johnson in the next few days for permission to shut down the entire industry for one week in an effort to reduce the gigantic amount of manufactured silk which is now glutting the market.

Peter H. Van Horn, chairman of the National Silk Code Authority, announced today that because of the overproduction of the last few months he would seek to close all silk mills for the week starting May 7.

If permission is granted, and leaders of the industry feel that it will be, about 20,000 employees of 600 mills in the Paterson area will be forced to take a holiday. About three times that number of workers will be affected in other districts in the northeastern states.

It was revealed today that the drastic step had been under consideration for some time but leaders in the movement had maintained the utmost secrecy to prevent harmful reactions among workers and in the silk markets. Van Horn finally confirmed the report.

Mr. Van Horn disclosed that total sales for the first half of April totaled 10,986,860 yards, a decrease of 32.4 per cent, as compared with the second half of March of this year. Silks represented 29.5 per cent of the total, synthetic fabrics 37.8 per cent and prints 27 per cent. Stocks on hand, as of April 15 totaled 69,527,721 yards, of which 92.7 per cent were unsold. More than half of these fabrics were in the raw. The figure shows an increase of about 1.2 per cent as compared with the total stock on March 31.

Sales in April Lower The sales for the first half of April showed a decrease of 35.4 per cent as compared with the second half of March, and a decrease of 38.9 per cent as compared with the same period one year ago. Production for the period was down 12.3 per cent as compared with the second half of March, and 5 per cent lower than for the same period last year. Total stocks show an increase of 3.9 per cent as compared with the total stock as of March 31 of this year and approximately 5.8 per cent lower than a year ago. Commission weaving showed a drop of 15.9 per cent for the first half of April as compared with the second half of March. This is based on a survey of 10,596 looms. Goods still to come off the looms amounted to 18,628,697 yards and showed a decrease of 1.5 per cent, as compared with March 31, 1934.

Howell Cheney of Cheney Brothers said today that he had not heard of the proposed petition of the Silk Code Authority for presentation to General Hugh Johnson regarding the closing of all silk mills in the country for at least one week because overproduction of the fabric had glutted the markets. Mr. Cheney said he would check up on the matter and make known what he learns as soon as he gets the necessary information.

RECIPROCAL TRADE AGREEMENTS URGED

Secretary Cordell Hull Says Country Never Faced Graver Economic Crisis.

Washington, April 26.—(AP)—Asserting that the United States "never faced a graver economic crisis," Secretary Hull today urged the Senate finance committee to approve the Administration bill granting President Roosevelt increased power to negotiate reciprocal trade agreements.

"Extraordinary conditions call for extraordinary methods of treatment," Hull declared, "and this measure of relief is urgently needed at this time."

The bill, Hull said, is designed to supplement our almost impregnable domestic markets with a substantial and gradually expanding foreign market for our burdensome surpluses."

More than 100 similar reciprocal trade agreements have been entered into by other nations to restore mutually profitable economic relations, Hull said. He added it was vitally necessary that the President be given the authority so that the United States might enjoy similar privileges.

Staye, Otto Mannel and Henry Custer.

Although no church building was erected at the time of formation, services were conducted at various places including private homes, Cheney Hall and St. Mary's Episcopal church. The first service on March 7, 1894, was conducted by Rev. Jaeger of Hartford. Later Rev. Hartwig of Rockville took charge and conducted services for a short time. Soon after Rev. Erdman served the congregation until March 1896, during which time services were conducted twice monthly.

Incorporated With thirty-two members incorporation papers were filed in December, 1897. Through the untiring efforts and faith of these members and the blessings of God, progress was made and it was decided to erect a church building. It was through the generous gift of Cheney Brothers, who presented the congregation with the plot of land on which the church and parsonage are stands, which made it possible to build. Funds were soon received and when the sum of fifteen hundred dollars ($1,500) was accumulated work on the construction began. The plan of the church was designed by Architect Erickson of Hartford, and was constructed by the late Emil Hohenthal and Gustave Schrieber, contractors. The corner stone was laid August 13, 1899, and the church was dedicated March 23, 1900. Thus another house of worship was established.

Electric radios will be featured, which Mr. Barstow introduced when they entered the field four years ago. Majestic Twin-Six Auto radios will be featured in that field.

A complete line of Tung-Sol radio tubes is stocked and any tube desired is delivered to your home free of charge. Radio service on all makes at all times. Mr. Barstow wishes to extend a cordial invitation to all old customers to drop in at all times and hopes to make many new friends at his new location.

FIRE DESTROYS HALL

Torrington, April 26.—(AP)—Pond Lodge, the dining hall at Camp Mohawk, the tri-county Y. M. C. A. camp in Cornwall, was completely destroyed by fire after being struck by lightning during the severe electrical storm Tuesday evening; it was learned today. The loss is estimated at $10,000 or $12,000.

Pond Lodge was built in 1923 and was a gift of Mrs. N. M. Fond of Milford for the use of young people of Litchfield, New Haven and Fairfield counties who attend the camp.

INJURED PERSONS APPEAR IMPROVED

Raymond Thomas, Badly Hurt in Nigger Hill Crash, Still in Critical Condition.

Stanley Wojciechowski of 39 Union street, who was injured in the automobile accident on Nigger Hill in Bolton early Sunday morning, April 15, when a leg was broken, had the fracture reduced on Tuesday and is showing improvement.

Raymond Thomas, another member of the party, who was brought to the Manchester Memorial hospital in an unconscious condition and has a fractured skull, is somewhat stronger, but his condition is still critical. John Mitchell, who sustained a dislocated collar bone in the same accident, was discharged two days after the accident. He is carrying his arm around in a sling, but is able to get out each day.

Elizabeth Moorhouse, who was injured when knocked down by an automobile driven by James W. Foley last Saturday evening, will be unable to appear in court when the case comes for trial on Monday. She suffered a fracture of the skull above the left eye. X-ray pictures have shown Sherwood Cone, who was injured at the same time, is also at the hospital. Both bones in his left leg below the knee are fractured.

Harry Cline of North Coventry, who has been an inmate of the Manchester Memorial hospital for the past six weeks, is now able to get around on crutches. He was employed by John Kingsbury of North Coventry. He was assisting in erecting a brooder house when the support that he was holding above his head slipped from his hands and struck him on the head. He was unconscious for several days, but is now so far recovered that he can get around the hospital.

Although nine hits were allowed by the Traders as compared with five for Windsor Locks, wild throwing on the Trade's part attributed to the downfall of the locals in the one-sided affair.

Keish Hits Homer

The Trade school started off with Ralph Smith leading the lineup. Smith struck out and Phelps, second man up, grounded out to Magliovici. Keish, heavy hitting infielder of last year, socked a home run which put the team in front and reached Eddie Raguskus when singled and was followed by Jarvis who grounded to third and was thrown out at first, ending the inning. In the second, Quartus singled, reached second on an error and then on a fielder's choice and was then knocked in by Karkavich to give the Mechanics a 2-0 lead.

Misplays Begin

It was in the fourth inning that Manchester Trade's infield went suddenly to pieces. Joe Barberie of Windsor Locks was the first man to face Oriowlaki. Upon fanning Barberie, the Trade's battery, Oriowlaki and Lashinski went to work on the next Windsorite, Moyn. Moyn grounded out to Keish to Raguskus. Magliovici singled and reached Windsor's first run on Ferrava's double. Pesce was hit by the pitcher putting two men on with two down. Draghi reached first on Raguskus' error. The bases were loaded when John Barberie hit a single and reached second on another error by Raguskus scoring three men, Ferrava, Pesce and Draghi.

Draghi who replaced Merlo on the mound in the third inning made short work of the Trade's next batters—Jarvis, Quartus, Lashinski and Karkavich—the first two flying out, Lashinski getting a base on balls and Karkavich grounding out to second, who threw to first for the putout retiring the side.

From Bad to Worse

Coch Crowley's infield was considerably shaken up in the fourth and went from bad to worse in the fifth. The fifth inning was the most eventful of all for Windsor Locks when they scored six runs—mostly all through Phelps' errors and Oriowlaki who walked three of the eleven men who faced him in the inning.

A new battery was sent in and consisted of Sweet, catcher and on all sitting on the sixth inning for the Trade school. Cook replaced Karkavich and Zeppa relieved Jarvis in the outfield. This brought about the desired effect until the eighth inning when Windsor once more ramped into Manchester Trade's shattered defense. Of the seven men who came to bat for Windsor three scored making the score 13-2. In the ninth, the stretch Quartus began Gill in the pitcher's box and began hurling nice ball. Micha, lead off man was accidentally hit by Quartus and was followed by Logan who flied out to Smith, shortstop rookie who played a fine fast game yesterday, tossed to Phelps on second for a double play.

Phovylo was given a base on balls and later scored the 14th run when Joe Barberie hit a double. Moyn then fanned retiring the Windsor team. In the last and final half of the ninth, Manchester Trade went down one-two-three ending the ball game.

At Stafford Today

Draghi relief pitcher who allowed but three hits in seven innings previously played with the Springfield American Legion team and is a pitcher of very high caliber, deserving of much credit. Windsor Locks High school chalked up its third victory this season, having previously drubbed Bloomfield High in two contests—the first game ending 20-2 and the second 6-5.

Manchester Trade travels to Stafford today where they encounter Stafford High school.

University of Southern California track and field men have won eight individual Olympic games championships.

Hoscoe Gillespie, Kansas City bowler, rolled four 800 games on ball alleys during the 1933-1934 season.

BAER ADVISES CARNERA TO SAVE HIS STRENGTH

Says He'll Smack Champ Flatter Than a Table Cloth in About Five Rounds; To Arrive in New York on Monday to Start Training.

By EDWARD J. NEIL

New York, April 26.—(AP)—The whereabouts and plans of Maximilian Adelbert Baer, who is about as easy to catch up with as John Dillinger, are no longer a mystery to Madison Square Garden.

It cost something over $20 in long distance calls to track down the leather lugging lothario in Des Moines, Iowa and relieve the blood pressure that was starting Jimmy Johnston's safety valve to popping. Baer was due here two days ago. The Garden's boxing manager had not heard from him since he signed to fight Primo Carnera for the heavyweight championship here June 14.

Johnston discovered from the conversation that Baer will arrive here Monday, that he is in fine condition and will choose a training camp from sites that have been offered him at Atlantic City and Asbury Park, N. J., speculator and Saratoga, N. Y.

"You'd better get in good shape," Johnston shouted over the telephone. "That Carnera's up in the Maine woods working hard."

"He might just as well save his strength," Baer yelled back. "I'm going to smack him flatter 'n a table cloth in about five rounds."

After suggesting diplomatically that the busier Baer kept on his transcendental exhibition tour, the less likely he was to get into mischief, Johnston hung up.

"Now," he sighed, "All I've got to find out is if that Carnera really is working up in Maine, and if he's there at all. He was due back here a couple of days ago too. This business gets tougher all the time."

Oddly Favor McLarnin and Barney Ross likewise are scheduled to reach New York next week to start training for a 15 round match in the Garden Bowl, May 28 that rivals the interest in the heavyweight title.

It will be the first meeting of a welterweight and lightweight champion since Jack Britton won from Benny Leonard on a foul in 13 rounds at the old velodrome in 1922. No lightweight champion ever has held both titles at the same time.

Coch Crowley, quoted today made McLarnin a slight favorite at 11 to 10.

FRENCH UNABLE TO SEE ANY PROSPECT OF TENNIS GLORY

First Time Since 1927 France Must Take Place With Underdogs in Net Battle for Davis Cup.

Paris, April 26.—(AP)—France is looking forward to the 1934 Davis Cup campaign with dark misgivings. For the first time since 1927 she will be forced to take her place in line with the rest of the underdogs and fight her way bracket by bracket.

After topping the world for so long she will be lucky this year if she comes through the European zone into the inter-zone finals.

Not Like Old Days
Andre Merlin and Christian Bousquet or Marcel Bernard—a pathetically feeble combination compared to the famous Musketeers—Lacoste, Cochet and Borotra—will bear the brunt of singles battle. Jean Borotra and the venerable Jacques Brugnon are likely to play doubles.

There always is a remote chance that the Basque will consent once more to trot out in singles harness as the "savior," but his days of hard match play are over and he knows it.

The tennis brains of the country—and chief among them Lacoste, the Davis Cup captain—have turned down for their search for a new star to polish has ended fruitlessly.

Meet the Germans
The French may trip on their first stiff competition with Germany on the low deserted Roland-Garros courts at Auteuil, June 8, 9 and 10. Sets are even as to the outcome of this match but the French hope that with Daniel Prenn, one time German ace, off the team, they will leave the courts with flag flying.

Marlin Pias, who trained the famous French champions, has been dropped as Davis cup trainer and replaced by Rene Tisoet. Pias's professional tennis tours with Cochet, Bill Tilden and Ellsworth Vines forced him to relinquish his job.

When George returns from England in June he plans to take his family to a secluded spot in the Maine woods to rest, fish and swim and forget all about fairways, traps and rough until two weeks before he is scheduled to defend the amateur title.

Climbs Slowly But Surely
"There's a great danger in playing golf the year round," George says. "It's just as foolish to do that as for a fight champion to engage in about 20 fights a year. I don't believe in too much practice, either. There's always the chance that you'll leave your game on some course you've practiced on when the time comes for some tournament."

There's been nothing sensational about the 25-year-old Dunlap's rise in golf. He's made the grade slowly but surely. Lacking in distance because of a fairly slender build, George has relied on accuracy for his long game. His approaching and putting are deadly and have accounted for his three victories in a row in the North and South amateur championships, eight triumphs in the mid-winter tournament at Pinehurst, the intercollegiate championship once and numerous minor events.

Allowing that he's seen and played approximately 30 years of golf, George has witnessed some extraordinary exhibitions. One stands out vividly in his memory. In 1931 he was playing the late Eddie Wild in the semi-finals of the New Jersey state amateur championship. Wild beat him two up at the short 14th, and where Dunlap drove the green and his opponent's ball was in a trap.

"Of all the unorthodox things," tells George, "he called for a jigger to play his ball, which was partly buried. Naturally he flubbed the shot. By this time his caddy had walked on to the next tee. Instead of calling the boy back, Wild decided to use the same club. Imagine my surprise when he not only ficked the ball from the sand but it rolled into the cup for a par. I got down in two puts alright for a halve, but that freak shot licked me for the rest of the match."

For the 40 years between 1850 and 1890, the Oklahoma "Pan-handle" was "no man's land"; it belonged to no state or territory, and had no government of any kind.

"Mermaids' Purse" are often thrown up on shore by storms at sea; these curious objects are really the egg cases of certain dogfish and sharks.

Amateur Champ Started Young, Learned To Mix Discretion With Golf

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the fifth of a series of articles on the careers and personalities of the members of America's 1934 Walker cup golf team which meets the British at St. Andrews May 11-12.

By BOB CAVAGNARO (Associated Press Sports Writer)

New York, April 26.—(AP)—An early and careful introduction to golf has had its effect on the going habits of George Terry Dunlap, Jr., Cup campaign with dark misgivings.

From this time he was able to keep his balance on his slender legs he's been playing the game, although not to the point of over-indulgence. At the age of two he was handed a putter and pushed a ball over a green in his back yard.

Five years later he was given a set of clubs and by the time he was 16 he was playing in junior tournaments.

Never Beaten By Staleness
At all times, George mixes wisdom with his golf, whether during a tournament or between seasons. He is a threat in every tournament largely because he lays off the game until two weeks before a championship. He never permits staleness to defeat him.

Dunlap, for the second time awarded a berth on the American Walker cup squad, sailed for England without having played any practice rounds. He's saving that energy until he reaches St. Andrews where he'll don heavy woolen underwear to protect himself against the fierce and biting gales, and prepare himself for the team competition and later the British amateur.

When George returns from England in June he plans to take his family to a secluded spot in the Maine woods to rest, fish and swim and forget all about fairways, traps and rough until two weeks before he is scheduled to defend the amateur title.

"I just can't look," he moaned. "I tell you that's mud out there. It ain't dust. Takes hours to get it off."

The crowning blow came when Cochrane slid into second in the eighth.

"Mister, I want you to look at Mickey's outfit," he said. "It's worse than Schube's ever was, and he's the manager, too."

"As far as I know," he confided, "he's the only Tiger that shews plug tobacco. There! See him spitting that in that glove? Now watch, he'll rub it off on those nice clean pants. See? What'd I tell you? Did you ever see a guy so tough on a uniform?"

Mr. Givney, you see, works in the shop where the Tiger uniforms are cleaned. Sitting in the pavilion at Navin field during Wednesday's games with the White Sox, he found nothing but gloom.

"Will you look at that?" he shouted, as Cochrane fopped down behind the plate to avoid being "dusted" by Sam Jones. "Look at that! He's dirt from head to foot. Why couldn't he dodge without rolling around in the dirt?"

Mr. Givney's gloom deepened when, in the seventh, Hank Greenberg stretched his hit into a double and slid ten feet to the bag.

No Thrill for the Cleaner When Tigers Slide Bases

Detroit, April 26.—(AP)—Tigers fans may cheer when Manager Mickey Cochrane and his boys start sliding bases but it's just a headache to Jeremiah Givney.

Braves Tie Dodgers for 4th Place by Winning, 9-4, as Hal Lee Features; Indians Whip Browns, Tigers Bow to White Sox.

By Hugh S. Fullerton, Jr. Associated Press Staff Writer.

Despite the manifest difficulties of having to get along without Rabbit Maranville, Bill McKechnie and his Braves are acting as if they intended to go places in the National league.

Hal Lee Features.

The Braves swung into their stride Sunday when they gave the Giants their first defeat of the season and since they have added a pair of victories over the Dodgers to go into a tie with Brooklyn for fourth place.

The Chicago Cubs continued their perfect start of season by downing the Cincinnati Reds 6-1 for their seventh consecutive triumph.

Zanks Top Lead.

The New York Yankees, still in the unfamiliar role of a "hitless" club continued to furnish the American league headlines by trimming the Athletics 3-2 and going to the top of the standing.

Lee made it almost a personal triumph. He smacked Van Mungo for a homer with two mates aboard in the fourth. He hit more than pounded in two more runs with a two bagger in the seventh.

Twelve Horses Considered Outstanding Derby Hopes

Louisville, Ky., April 26.—(AP)—Here are the horses to beat in the Kentucky Derby May 5—Cavalade, Mata Hari, Sir Thomas, Sing-derry, Wood, Peace Chance and Discovery.

Nominee conceded good chances to score an upset are: Ben, Sgt. Byrne, Riskulus, Spy Hill, Time Supply and Agrarius.

If these twelve horses go to the post, it will be the best Derby field recorded in the history of the race. Twenty Grand set the record of 2:01 4-5 for the mile and a quarter in the 1931 event.

The stock of Mrs. I. D. Sloane's Cavalade soared when the Eng-lish-bred colt equalled the track record in the Shenandoah Purse at Havre De Grace yesterday, doing a mile and 70 yards in 1:41 4-5.

Charles T. Fisher's filly, Mata Hari, Alex Gordon's Sir Thomas and Joseph E. Widener's Peace Chance are the Derby nominees training at Churchill Downs and considered in best condition at present. Sirest workouts also have been recorded by Mrs. John Hay Whitney's Singing Wood and Alfred G. Vanderbilt's Discovery, both training in the east.

Colonel E. R. Bradley will rely on his fleet filly, Bassar, and his well-bred colt, Blue Agate, in his attempt to win the third Derby in a row for Idle Hour farm.

John Simonetti's St. Byrne, winner of the Pausonok Handicap at Jamaica, Saturday, was expected today. Other probable starters that are not already on the grounds will arrive by next Tuesday.

Sir Thomas, the only maiden future book favorite in history, may not be a maiden on Derby day. Horses that never have won a race will be allowed 13 pounds under in 116-pound scale in the South Louisville purse over six furlongs at Churchill Downs Saturday. Carrying only 103 pounds, Sir Thomas would be conceded an excellent chance if entered for this $600 purse, which would more than pay his entry fee in the Derby.

GENERAL MOTORS HEAD SCORES 30 HOUR WEEK

with an important reduction in hours. He is concerned with an opportunity to work a reasonable number of hours at a fair and equitable rate in order to be able to buy those things which he has found to be essential to his happiness and well-being.

Mr. Sloan expressed "little patience" with the principle that the less we produce the more prosperous we become, or "the widely held notion that through mass production and the instrumentality of the machine, we have reached a chronic state of overproduction."

"To my mind," he said, "our problem is not one of overproduction—it is one of grave maldistribution. No overproduction.

"Overproduction in general is impossible until every one who is willing to work has at least those things to which he is entitled, on the basis of the value of his work. If this be true, and I believe it is, there is no overproduction of old things—and there is certainly a vast opportunity for production of new things. x x x If we could only install in the minds of all that we were not at the end but at the beginning of our development there would result a tremendous broadening of our vision and an appreciation of the vast opportunities that are before us."

The new relationship between management and the worker, which has been injected into industry through "collective bargaining," he characterized as the problem in which "every one of us is most vitally concerned."

Collective Bargaining

"I believe collective bargaining is a step forward in American industrial life," Mr. Sloan said, "not because it sets up new rights for the worker, but because it recognizes, in a better way, old rights that have appealed to the spirit of fair play ever since the principle of representative government was imbedded in our Republic.

"I am convinced that from every fundamental standpoint, the real interests of both employer and employee can best be promoted through the route of the employee representation plan. (The company union).

"x x x Unfortunately, the terms of the National Recovery Act with respect to this important question were very indefinite—probably necessarily so. Again unfortunately, until recently there has been no clear definition to guide either the employer in the discharge of the responsibility which has been placed upon him or the employee in the conditions surrounding his new opportunity.

portunity. An important step forward has been taken in clarifying the issue.

"We do not have to be very imaginative to forecast our position should industry fail to recognize and fail to aggressively deal with its responsibility in this matter. There results the closed shop. American industry would be dominated by an organization in no sense interested in the real problems between the individual employer and the individual employee, but concerned solely with the enhancement of its own selfish interests. The greatest monopoly the world has yet seen, would be created, and all outside the law.

"Does the record of American industry, x x x justify a decision in favor of union domination? Does the history of such industries in America as are dominated by the closed shop, indicate that that is the route to be followed? I cannot say that it does not."

"The history of industry in this country, conclusively demonstrates that, left to his own individual judgment, the American workman has in general decided that his interests are outside of a national union rather than inside one."

"The history of industry in this country, conclusively demonstrates that, left to his own individual judgment, the American workman has in general decided that his interests are outside of a national union rather than inside one."

MOOSE HERE TO ATTEND NEW HAVEN CONFERENCE

Women's and Men's Orders to Be Represented at Chapter Development Session.

A large number of the Women of the Moose as well as the men are planning to go to New Haven, Sunday to take part in the conference on chapter development. So many have signified their intention of making the trip Sunday it has been decided to charter a bus. Others who plan to go should get in touch with Mrs. Mary Burke of 104 Woodbridge street, dial 7914. The bus will leave at 8 a. m.

The conference on both Saturday and Sunday will be held in connection with the Pilgrim Governor's meeting of the Loyal Order of Moose. Senator James J. Davis, of Pennsylvania, Pilgrim Governor of the Moose fraternity, will be the honor guest and principal speaker on this occasion, when a large delegation will attend from the twelve chapters in the state.

All chapters of local committees that have been active in recent months will tell of their work and plans for the future during a discussion of committee work. Mrs. Lynn, Mass., a member of the New Haven Chapter, will be general chairman and will extend a welcome to the visitors. Mrs. Florence Chapin, publicity chairman for New Haven, will take part in the program, and Mrs. Eva Starkey, of Lynn, Mass., a member of the Council of Merit, will confer the Friendship Degree on those chosen for this honor.

Grand Recorder Katherine Smith of Mooseshart, will be conference leader and will explain the plan of having local committees follow a constructive program in setting up standards in homes of members of the fraternity and their communities that prevail at Mooseshart, where more than 1,000 dependent children of deceased members of the Loyal Order of Moose are being trained for life. This school was founded in 1913 by Senator Davis and the cornerstone was laid by Vice-President Thomas R. Marshall.

In the graduating class of 137 boys and girls from thirty-one states this year are three from Connecticut. They are: Wray McCormack, of Bridgeport, Alice Heikilla, of New Haven and Walter Winfrey, of New Britain. Illinois has twenty-two graduates in this year's class—the largest group from any one state—and Pennsylvania is second with twenty-one.

In addition to having a high school diploma every graduate carries with him a vocational diploma, to help him in selecting a job whereby he can earn his living. More than forty vocational courses are taught to the students and particular effort is taken to guide them into the trade for which they are best suited.

SPAIN FACING CRISIS; PRESIDENT MAY RESIGN

Young Republic in Most Serious Trouble Without a Cabinet and With Riots Daily Occurrences.

ONLY 2 INMATES AT TOLLAND JAIL

Towns of County Spent $97,143 for Care of Poor in 1933.

Hartford, April 26.—(AP)—Spain's young Republic faced what is probably its most serious crisis today, one that might force the resignation of President Niceto Alcalá Zamora.

Without a Cabinet and a state of alarm in force throughout the nation, Alcalá Zamora discussed all possible angles with leaders of various groups today but failed to reach a decision.

The President, who has held office since eight months after the monarchy was overthrown in 1931, realized a misstep would be extremely dangerous to the regime. The majority of his counselors insisted that Congress should not be dissolved under any circumstances because it would be playing into the hands of Socialists and Leftists.

In elections last fall the government swept far to the right, causing deep-seated opposition from Leftists of all ranks.

Although Alcalá Zamora was represented to be willing to resign if necessary to avert civil war, Rightist center leaders expressed confidence he would be able to untangle the situation without taking this drastic step.

The major task of forming a Cabinet to succeed that of Alejandro Lerroux confronted the President. It was thought he might name Lerroux premier again to form a wide coalition Cabinet, bringing in it several opponents of the last Cabinet's policy.

Many felt the crisis was the gravest since the formation of the Republic. Political discontent has been widespread, springing from many causes, but the chief is the conservative policy of Zamora and his government. Rightists propose to repeal anti-clerical laws and abolish agrarian reform and the strong labor influence.

Strikes have been almost daily occurrences since the suppression of a revolt in December, in which scores were killed.

Hartford, April 26.—(AP)—Tolland is the first county in the state to file returns with the State Department of Public Welfare concerning the cost of poor relief for the fiscal year 1933, in all of the towns in the county.

The Tolland county jail has the lowest census of prisoners of any of the county jails in the state, since there are but two inmates now in that institution. The population of the Tolland jail has been the smallest during the past three months that it has been for more than ten years. But three were admitted to the jail in February and four in March, all of whom with the exception of two have been discharged since that time. The towns in Tolland county spent $97,143.35 for the care of their poor during the fiscal year ended September 1, 1933, as compared with $68,821.14 in 1932, $58,852.87 in 1931 and $51,412.68 in 1930. The number of outside poor more than doubled in 1933 over 1932 and more than quadrupled over 1931, for the number of outside poor increased from 526 in 1931 to 2,150 in 1933.

REPORT CALLS WIRT CHARGES UNFOUNDED

Bulwinkle Committee Says Educator Failed to Prove "Brain Trust" Contentions.

Washington, April 26.—(AP)—The Bulwinkle committee today adopted a report to the House holding unfounded the claims of Dr. William A. Wirt that administration "brain trusters" were working for a "revolution."

The vote was 3 to 2, the majority of Democrats agreeing to the conclusion that Wirt, a Gary, Indiana, teacher, had not proved his contentions.

The two Republican committee members, Representatives McGugin of Kansas and Leibach of New Jersey, reserved the right to file a minority report contending the committee had not made a thorough investigation of Dr. Wirt's allegations.

Both reports are to be submitted to the House next Wednesday, Chairman Bulwinkle (D., N. C.) said, adding that they would not be made public before then.

It was understood, however, the majority opinion reviewed Wirt's assertions and told how they were based largely on conversation at a dinner at Virginia last September 1. Then, the majority report will point out, the other six guests at that dinner denied quotations attributed to them by Wirt.

The fine old woman who lived in the shoe cried, "What an awful din! I've never heard we youngsters make such awful noise before.

"The way all of you shout and run, you must be having lots of fun. I didn't know, when I let you come out, this was in store."

"Oh, don't scold them. 'Twould be a shame," said Doty. "They are not to blame. We've been suggesting lots of games. Gee, please don't make us stop.

"All of your tots, it seems to me, are just as happy as can be." "All right," replied the woman. "Play right on until you drop."

Then came a game of hide and seek, and Goldy said, "I will not peek. '

SENSE and NONSENSE

The Anvil of God's Word
 Last eve I passed beside a blacksmith's door, and heard the anvil ring the vesper chime; Then looking in, I saw upon the floor Old hammers, worn with beating years of time. "How many anvils have you had," said I. "To wear and better all these hammers so?" "Just one," said he, and then, with twinkling eye, "The anvil wears the hammers out, you know." And so, thought I, the anvil of God's Word, For ages skeptic blows have beat upon; Yet, though the noise of falling blows was heard, The anvil is unharmed—the hammers gone.

It was the day before the annual baseball game between the sales force and the office force. The sales manager of the company, and also the manager of the sales ball team, gave the captain some money to buy new bats, gloves, mitts and balls.
 Manager—They may help us win the game. The office force was a particularly good team this year.
 The next afternoon, five minutes before the game the sales manager again spoke to his captain:
 Manager—Did you get the bats, gloves, balls and mitts?
 Captain—No! Bats, gloves, balls and mitts won't help us. I gave the money to the umpire.

DROP E. HARTFORD INTIMIDATION CASE

Local Man Among Those Released of Charges by Judge O'Connell.

James McKenna, of 185 Maple street, Manchester, and two Hartford men, were found not guilty of charges of threatening, with the intent to intimidate, and breach of the peace, when arraigned before Judge Richard D. O'Connell in East Hartford town court yesterday.

All three men are striking workers of the Pratt & Whitney Aircraft plant in East Hartford. Edgar Abild, of 468 Burnside avenue, employed at the aircraft factory, testified that four automobiles containing ten or twelve strikers stopped in front of his home Monday night. Three men came to the door. His son responded to the call and the men asked for Mr. Abild.

The father did not want to talk to the men and the son so informed them but someone in the crowd said, according to the son's testimony, that "if the old man doesn't come down we will go up and bring him down."

The son could not identify any of the three men charged with having made the remark. After 10 or 15 minutes at the Abild home, the men reentered the cars and drove away. Judge O'Connell dismissed the cases with the comment that there appeared to be lack of evidence of intimidation in the case, nor was there a breach of the peace.

Although reports emanating from Hartford indicated that the Manchester and East Hartford police had been called out to give protection to residents of the two communities at present working at the aircraft station, it was stated at the local police station that the assistance of the Manchester department had not been requested, nor had any policemen been assigned to duty patrolling Silver Lane.

Scores of Manchester residents are employed at the Pratt & Whitney plant. Many are out on strike and others, it is reported, are continuing to work.

EPWORTHERS LEAD SALVATION SERVICE

Conduct Devotional Period at Citadel for Young People's Legion Last Night.

The regular meeting of the Young People's Legion of the Salvation Army was held last night at the Citadel and had as the leaders of the devotional period a group of young people from the Epworth League of the South Methodist church.

The devotions were led by Thomas Cordner and included favorite hymns and poems of both the young peoples groups. Ethyle M. Lytle played during the hymn singing. Two vocal solos, "Evening Prayer" and "The Stranger of Galilee," were sung by David Hutchinson, accompanied by his sister Miss Jessie Hutchinson.

The talk of the evening was given by Miss Evelyn Beers and was entitled "The Call Road." The speaker brought out the point in an interesting manner that, although we sometimes have a road ahead to follow we should not always go that way if it is not for our best interests.

Following the program, a social hour was enjoyed and refreshments were served by the Young People's Legion.
