Woman Arrested Is Believed to Know Something of Case — Expect Arrests Within Five Hours.

Los Angeles, May 11.—(AP)—The sheriff's office today announced the detention of a woman in connection with the kidnaping of William F. Gettle, millionaire oil man. The woman, described as a brunette, about 30 years old and fairly well dressed, fell into a police dragnet early this morning along with six other persons, who also were questioned.

After apparently examining the woman at some length, Capt. Norris Stenland, sheriff's office extortion expert, and a figure behind the solution of a number of other kidnaping cases here, said:

"It looks hot, boys! I think we have something. It is possible that we will have this solved within five hours."

To Stenland's declaration, Blaney Matthews, chief of the district attorney's investigators, added that his inquiries gave "promise that we might have something important."

BOLIVIA THREATENS TO BOMB ASUNCION

Capital of Paraguay With Population of 100,000 New Object of Reprisal.

La Paz, Bolivia, May 11.—(AP)—Bolivia threatened today to bombard Asuncion, capital of Paraguay, from war planes. In a statement reviewing reports of mistreatment of Bolivian soldiers in Paraguayan prison camps in the Gran Chaco warfare, the Bolivian government said:

"In denouncing these crimes, we make it known that if they are confirmed the Bolivian air force will begin a bombardment of Asuncion. Population of 100,000. Asuncion has a population of more than 100,000. Bolivia already has sent her war planes to bomb certain Paraguayan outposts. In reprisal for these bombings, the Bolivian note said 'A reliable source' had disclosed that Paraguayan officers had 'drawn lots' to determine which Bolivian prisoners would be killed. The communique charged ten soldiers and an officer in the Bolivian army already have been condemned to death in Paraguayan prison camps."

May Offer Federal Reward For Capture of Kidnapers

Washington, May 11.—(AP)—Fluoyds, provided those designated Attorney General Cummings likes the idea of offering Federal rewards for notorious "public enemies," but he wants the "dead" eliminated from the "dead or alive" signs. The Justice Department chief, after conferring at the Capitol on the bill passed by the House last week to offer rewards for the capture or death of men designated by him, dead or alive, was notified today a change would be sought in the Senate. The Patman bill authorized $25,000 for putting a price on the heads of the Dillingers and Pretty Boy

CAPT. SERGIEVSKY AFTER NEW MARKS

To Attempt to Reach 20,000 Feet in His Giant Flying Boat.

Bridgeport, May 11.—(AP)—Captain Boris Sergievsky, chief test pilot of the Sikorsky aviation company, will lead his giant flying boat S-42 with 11,023 pounds of cargo, take aboard a department of commerce official and two mechanics, install oxygen tanks and attempt to soar more than 20,000 feet above the earth. Should he succeed, 11 new records will be added to the United States aviation achievements, and France will fall into second place. The flight will be attempted Monday afternoon, Captain Sergievsky declared yesterday.

Captain Sergievsky described the accomplishments already made by the S-42, which, he declared, demonstrates its superiority over modern European aircraft. He stressed the importance of such a ship to the United States, declaring that it would be perhaps the greatest weapon of defense in the event of war. Being able to cross the ocean faster and at a higher altitude and with a greater load of ammunition than any present European ship, it could easily halt any foreign plane headed for these shores, he declared.

The noted pilot, already holder of numerous records, pointed out that foreign representatives have been to Stratford on several occasions to view the magnificent ship, but that none have succeeded in "catching up" to the secret which makes it superior to the ships of their nations.

The United States has already advanced from third to second place in the number of aviation records held, as the result of the S-42's past flights, he declared. This country now holds six records while France has 13, Germany 4 and Italy 4. If Monday's flight is successful, the United States will hold 11 more records.

ITALY MAY DODGE WAR DEBT PAYMENT

Officials Puzzled Over Con- tradictory Statements from Washington.

Rome, May 11.—(AP)—Italy may not make any war debt payment at all in June, said official circles today, in consequence of the United States' notification that it will accept a token payment but that countries paying "tokens" will be considered in default.

These authorities said the American announcement was equivalent to putting countries such as Italy and Great Britain, which demonstrated their good will by paying portions of the instalments on the same level as such countries as France which refused to pay at all.

COUNTY TAKES UP FOSTER HOME PLAN

Middlesex First in State to Abandon County Home for Children.

Middletown, May 11.—(AP)—Middlesex county held the distinction today of being the first county in Connecticut to abandon the system of caring for dependent children in a county home.

Legislators at a meeting yesterday voted to substitute for the old system the policy of placing all dependent children in foster homes. An investigating committee recommended the change which had also been urged by the Connecticut Bureau of Child Welfare. The Legislators appropriated $3,000 for the salary and expenses of a county placing-out agent. He will investigate proposed foster homes and supervise the placing of children. Last March tentative plans were announced for the construction of a new county temporary home to replace the old structure at Haddam. The proposal was criticized by Child Welfare Organizations. At the meeting yesterday, the Legislators decided not to carry out the building project. The home at Haddam now has sixty children. It will be used in the future to house children only until homes can be found for them.

President Flashes "Million Dollar" Smile

If you ever saw the President looking like a million it's right here. For when this picture was taken in the East Room of the White House he was presenting a yard long check of $1,000,000 to Arthur Carpenter (left) to be turned over to the Georgia Warm Springs Foundation for the relief of infantile paralysis victims. The check represented proceeds from hundreds of Roosevelt birthday parties last January.

DUST STORMS MENACE CROPS IN MIDDLE WEST

Little Relief in Sight to Break Drought—Dust So Thick Plane Service is Interrupted.

Chicago, May 11.—(AP)—Apprehension over Middle America's crop prospects grew hourly today. Marched prairies and plains, long baked by a hot sun and swept by swirling, choking "black blizzards" of dust, swelled the alarm of agrarians and city dwellers alike. The only note of hope was the forecast of local showers tonight in Nebraska, and North and South Dakota, and in Iowa tomorrow.

Elsewhere no relief was in sight. Light showers have fallen in the Chicago area—the first in 28 days—and in Kansas, Oklahoma, Arkansas and Texas, but they were regarded as little value. The Chicago Board of Trade took cognizance of the situation and the prices of all future deliveries of wheat skyrocketed five cents yesterday. Whipped by strong winds, the dust clouds from the vast plains of Western Canada swept across the border with undying intensity yesterday, befogging the entire area from Montana on the west, Texas on the South and the Ohio Valley on the east.

HOT SPELL HELPS NATION'S BUSINESS

Volume of Wholesale and Retail Buying Goes Up With Temperature.

New York, May 11.—(AP)—The volume of retail and wholesale buying rose this week with the temperature, said the Dun & Bradstreet weekly trade review today. The agency reported that along with the "sudden spurt" in retail distribution, the rate of industrial operations reached new high ground for the year in several divisions.

SAUDIANS SOLDIERS APPROACHING SANA

Aim to Subjugate All of Yem- en; Foreign Warships Protect Their Nationals.

London, May 11.—(AP)—King Ibn Saud, climaxing his crushing drive to subjugate all Yemen, spared three separate armies to Sana, a combined movement last night. Yemen's walled and ancient capital. The powerful ruler's largest army, under Crown Prince Emir Eud, had opened an offensive against Sana, the gateway to the Red Sea port, already smashed by Ibn Saud's Saudi Arabian forces and now policed by them while British, French and Italian warships lie watchfully in the harbor.

FRANCE, BELGIUM, THREE OTHER NATIONS TOLD TO PAY CREDIT IN THIS COUNTRY — DEFAULT OF WHOLE "OR ANY PART THEREOF" BRINGS MANDATORY BAN ON FINANCIAL TRANSACTIONS HERE.

Washington, May 11.—(AP)—President Roosevelt, because of four little words tucked into the Johnson act, has called for a show-down in the international game of war debts. Word circulated through diplomatic circles today that further token payments on June 15, would fail to ring up a "no default" sign on the Treasury's register. The doors of America's money markets, under the Johnson act, are slammed shut on all defaulting nations.

RELEASE NEARS FOR INSULL AS BONDS APPEAR

New York Company Supplies $200,000 Security for His Appearance in Court Next Tuesday.

Chicago, May 11.—(AP)—Samuel Insull refused today to acknowledge the jurisdiction of the United States District Court and uttered no plea to the charges of violating the bankruptcy act and using his assets fraudulently in selling his company stocks.

Brought from the county jail for his formal arraignment before Federal Judge Philip L. Sullivan, the elderly prisoner remained silent and aloof while his counsel entered a plea challenging his seizure in the harbor of Istanbul as illegal and refusing to plead him guilty or not guilty.

His fellow defendants on the bankruptcy charge, however, entered their plea of not guilty, and Judge Sullivan, without discussing the value of Insull's contention, postponed the hearing until next Tuesday.

Fifteen of her girl friends at the Barnard school were present and spent a pleasant time with games and other pastimes. Mrs. Stratton had decorated her dining room with rose and yellow flowers and favors corresponded. A birthday cake with fourteen candles was the center of attraction. Miss Margaret Stratton assisted her sister-in-law in serving the young girls. Ruth received a number of dainty gifts from her friends.

A daughter was born yesterday to Mr. and Mrs. John H. Mooney of 12 Laurel street. The baby was born at Mrs. Howe's Maternity home.

The members of the Junior Mission Band of Emanuel Lutheran church will meet at the church tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock for a rehearsal. It is important that all the children be present.

OBITUARY

DEATHS

Mrs. Louise E. Belknap
Mrs. Louise E. Belknap, wife of William L. Belknap, of 128 Spruce street, died at her home this morning at 1:30. She has been in poor health and confined to her home for several weeks. Born in Rockville 54 years ago, she has been a resident of Manchester for the past 35 years.

Besides her husband she is survived by a son, Raymond Belknap of Ridgewood street, Manchester; two sisters, Miss Pauline Raich of Rockville and Mrs. Mary Rogers of Springfield, Mass.; a brother, Gustave Raich of Rockville and one grandchild.

The funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon, the hour to be later announced at the funeral home of Thomas Dougan, of 59 Holl street.

Harry McCavanagh
Word was received in Manchester today of the sudden death in New York city on Tuesday of Harry McCavanagh, 22, a son of John McCavanagh, both former residents of Manchester.

The death was caused by tonsil trouble, which was so far developed when he entered the Fordham hospital, that there was little hope for him. He has been making his home at 4673 Park avenue. The burial took place in that city.

COBBLERS EXPECT STORMY SESSION

Report of Violations of Closing Hour Rule Leads to Protests.

The meeting of the Manchester Shoe Rebuilders' association to be held tonight promises to be a stormy session due to a check up that was made by one of the members of the association last night. It is claimed that in the checkup made last night that instead of all shops being closed at 7:30 p. m. some were still open until 8 o'clock. The report of the alleged violation of the rules of closing of the association last night, and this morning, there was much discussion among the members. The meeting tonight will hear further about the trouble and gives promise of being one of the most interesting so far held.

BIG DUST STORMS HIT MANCHESTER

Gray Pall Over Town Spreads Idea That Forest Fires Rage.

New Haven, May 11.—(AP)—A dust storm moving eastward was reported today by the New Haven branch of the U. S. Weather Bureau as the possible explanation for a haze in the sky reported in some parts of Connecticut.

The haze resembled smoke and led some to believe a forest fire was responsible for it.

C. J. Doherty, the weather expert here, said the dust storm from the west has been moving eastward for the last two days. The bureau, however, had received no reports of any dust flying in any part of the state.

Torrington, May 11.—(AP)—At the state forestry office here this afternoon, it was stated that the "gray pall" which was hanging over Connecticut today may have been due to heavy dust storms from the west. It was reported that there was a bad woods fire on Kent mountain, but the forestry office stated there was no fire in Litchfield county.

Numerous telephone calls were received at the offices of the Evening Herald today in which inquiry was made as to the cause of the gray pall hanging over the town. Many wondered if a big forest fire was raging in the vicinity of the town. The heavy downpour of last night, however, had so drenched the woods and fields as effectively to prevent any fires for several days.

LOW REFUSES TO GIVE MANCHESTER ADDRESS

Salesman Arrested on Bigamy Charge in Hartford, to Fight Extradition to Jersey.

Hartford, May 11.—(AP)—Austin N. Low, 37, who told the police he is engaged in newspaper work, decided today to fight extradition to Jersey City, N. J., where he is wanted for alleged bigamy. Low, who is making his home in South Manchester with his second wife, declared that he obtained a divorce from his first wife in Mexico. He was arrested here Thursday by Detective Sergeant Patrick J. Sheran.

The accused was arraigned before Judge John M. Bailey in Police Court today. On request of Prosecutor Attorney Daniel C. Flynn, the case was continued for thirty days.

In the meantime the police authorities in New Jersey will prepare their case for readiness for a hearing before Governor Cross.

At Hartford police headquarters this morning Low admitted that he resided in this town but would not give the police his address. He has been employed at 410 Asylum street, Hartford, as a stock salesman.

IRENE JOHNSON WINS FIRST POSTER PRIZE

Local School Children Work Out Designs of Exceptional Merit in Poppy Contest.

Throughout the country, in connection with the annual poppy sale for the benefit of disabled war veterans, poster contests have been held in the schools. In Manchester the grammar schools and St. James' Parochial contested, and the work of the children was judged last evening by a committee consisting of Mrs. L. L. Hohenthal, representing the American Legion auxiliary, Miss Dorothy Cheney and Rev. J. Stuart Neill. The posters were of exceptional merit and the children showed considerable originality and understanding of what was desired.

The greater number of honors went to young artists in Miss Johnson's room in the Barnard school. Irene Johnson of that school was awarded first prize by the judges and will receive $2.50; Olga Pickow, also of the Barnard school, designed the second best poster in the opinion of the judges and will receive $1.

Other posters so good they were deemed worthy of honorable mention were drawn by John Gzeval of St. James' school, Eleanor Fraser of the Barnard school, Jane Curtis of the Hollister street school and Philip Dupont of St. James' school.

The prize posters will be on display tomorrow at the Park Hill Flower shop and those which received honorable mention in other Main street stores. The first prize poster will be sent to the annual state convention in Stamford in August.

Registrations for garden plots and materials to be used in the home garden work being organized by a committee of the American Legion last night totaled 220. There were about 60 who applied for assistance who did not ask for plots, as they have sufficient land that they can use, but do ask for help in getting seed and fertilizer.

Further applications must be filed with Albert Behrend, assistant charity commissioner at the Municipal building.

TO DEDICATE WAR MEMORIAL MAY 20

Rev. Leonard C. Harris and Captain Joel Nichols Will Be Speakers.

Final plans were made for the dedication of the memorial to the Spanish War veterans of Manchester at a meeting of Ward Cheney Camp, United Spanish War veterans last night. The dedication of the monument in Center Park will take place, Sunday, May 20 at 3 p. m., and the ceremonies will be preceded by a parade from the state armory to the park.

Catharine and Alice Madden of 74 Cooper street, daughters of Captain William F. Madden, who left High school to join Company G during the Spanish War, and who was later killed by the silk mill bandits on Pine street, will unveil the monument. The dedicatory address will be given by Rev. Leonard C. Harris, pastor of the South Methodist church and the monument will be accepted for the town by Chairman of the Board of Selectmen, Aaron Cook.

Members of the Ward Cheney Camp and Mary Bushnell auxiliary will assemble at the armory at 2:30 and will march to Center Park. Past Commander Harry Hilton, chairman of the memorial committee, will be marshal of the day.

The program at the park will start at 3 p. m., and will be as follows: Invocation, Rev. William F. Reidy; presentation of the Memorial to the Town of Manchester, Commander Lawrence Converse of Ward Cheney Camp; acceptance for the town, Aaron Cook, Chairman of the Board of Selectmen; vocal selections, roll call of Company G, address, Captain Joel Nichols, wartime commander of Company G; music, dedicatory address, Rev. Leonard C. Harris; unveiling of the monument, Catharine and Alice Madden; benediction, Rev. L. C. Harris; taps; Star Spangled Banner.

The fund for the memorial was started by members of Ward Cheney Camp and auxiliary in 1923 by the sale of coffee during the Centennial in Manchester and later a concert was given by Fred Patton, sponsored by the camp and auxiliary and the fund was subsequently increased by an entertainment and moving pictures. All the proceeds from these affairs were deposited in the bank, and it was specified that the money was to be used for a memorial and for no other purpose. No donations were made, and no collections solicited from outsiders. One share of stock in the National Tribune, Washington, D. C., was bought, the dividends from the stock going annually to the Memorial fund.

When it was decided to buy the monument, the fund had increased during the 11 years to $800, the cost of the stone. The contract provides that the memorial shall be kept in proper condition. The committee handling the details of the dedication is headed by Past Commander Harry Hilton, assisted by the following members: Commander Lawrence Converse, George Johnson, Charles E. Warren, Arthur Keating, Mrs. Rose Converse, president of the Mary Bushnell auxiliary; Mrs. Nelson L'Heureux, Mrs. Charles B. Warren and Mrs. Joseph Behrend.

WAPPING AUXILIARY HAS CARD PARTY HERE

School Aids Meet at Home of Mr. and Mrs. John Holden of Middle Turnpike West.

The Wapping School Auxiliary, and friends, met last night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Holden of 28 Middle Turnpike West. Cards were played and first prize went to Mrs. Emma J. Skinner and Raymond W. Belcher, with consolation to Miss Mary Hayes and I. B. Dunfield.

A report was given on the activities of the Auxiliary since last December and included seven dental clinics, X-ray pictures, books, rhythm bands, athletic equipment, coverings for tables and equipment for card games. Mr. Belcher was presented with a sum of money for his generosity in donating a bus for the different activities of the Auxiliary and Mrs. Frank House was also given a gift for her share in the success of the various events, in which she has been an untiring worker. Sandwiches, cake and coffee were served.

OAK POISONING SWELLS LOCAL WORKERS HANDS

James O'Brien Recovering After Treatment at Hospital—Working in Woods.

James O'Brien, discharged from the Manchester Memorial hospital Wednesday after being confined for ten days, is being given treatments for a peculiar poisoning that affected both of his hands. He was at work in the woods and contracted what is known as oak poisoning. Water formed under the skin on both hands and they were both badly swollen. It was necessary to puncture the skin to draw off the water, and this was followed by baking. The hands are nearly back to normal, but he is carrying both in bandages.

STEPS TO PREVENT FRAUD ARE TAKEN

Local Auction Market Officials Will Prosecute Guilty Buyers of Products.

The directors of the Manchester Fruit and Vegetable Auction Market met last night in Bolton to go over plans for the reopening of the market next month, when strawberries will be ready to be put up for sale. There were several matters that had to be taken into consideration as regards rules and regulations that will govern not only the growers, but also the buyers. The secretary was instructed to send a copy of the by-laws of the association to all members. It will be necessary for all members of the association to pay a yearly fee of $1 and this is to be collected before the market opens. To new members coming in for this year's market there will be a fee of $2 paid.

In addition to an auctioneer it was decided to have, under the by-laws drawn last night and to be presented at the meeting of the association on May 26, an auction clerk, and a collector of commissions. These men will be paid for their services and as far as possible the officers to do this work will be selected from members of the association. However, if necessary, the persons to fill these offices may be taken from the outside of the association.

A set of rules to govern the methods to be followed by the buyers is also to be presented to the meeting, the rules will provide that in case of a dispute between the buyer and the seller the ruling of the auction master will be final and he will be backed by the association in this ruling.

The farmer selling his goods has the right to accept or reject checks in payment for his berries or other market produce sold. No buyer will be allowed, after leaving the grounds and having given a check, to stop payment on the check. In doing so the association will back up the member of the association who has been involved and will prosecute the case.

If, after a buyer has made a purchase, it is found that berries are not as represented and the auction master has gone over the matter with him, the berries so sold must go back for auction. The farmer will have to pay the difference between the high price and the low price in case a lower price is brought.

Ten new applications for membership in the association were received. It was announced that most of the members had plowed in their old strawberry beds last fall and were planting new beds this year. The surplus of two plants set out this year plus the berries grown on plants put in last year, will produce one and one-half times as much fruit for the market as was the case last year. The berries will also be of a better quality, it was reported.

FIRST REAL THUNDER STORM OF THE SEASON

Heavy Rain Accompanies Brilliant Lightning Display—No Damage Done.

Manchester was visited by the second but the first really spectacular thunderstorm of the spring season last night, although the intensity of the storm seemed to be centered in areas surrounding the town. There were vivid flashes of lightning, accompanied by rumblings of thunder that shook the houses, but no buildings or trees in this vicinity were struck.

Dowpour: Rain descended in torrents during the height of the storm and continued until well after midnight. The sun broke through the clouds for a brief spell at 7 o'clock this morning but from then on the skies threatened more rain.

Electric lights were dimmed for a moment during the peak of the thunderstorm. No damage from washouts on roads was reported, however. The rain came as a blessing to farmers and garden enthusiasts, and so thoroughly drenched the forests in this section that there is not likely to be any woods fires for several days at least.

Mosquitoes have put in an appearance during the muggy weather of the past two days, residents report.

TO MAKE COURT APPEAL

Bridgeport, May 11.—(AP)—Spero G. B. Vronis of this city, recently elected head of the State Electric Association, today, through his counsel, filed notice in the Superior Court that he intends to carry his fight to compel Governor Wilbur L. Cross to name an Electric Examining Board for the state to the Supreme Court of Errors.

Some weeks ago Vronis brought a writ of mandamus against the governor in which he sought to have the latter show cause why he should not fill the vacancies on the Electric Board as required under the state laws.

WANTS SUCCESSOR TO G. O. P. LEADER

Col. Roosevelt Urges That Man Be Named Before November Elections.

New York, May 11.—(AP)—A group of Republican leaders came forward today in opposition to any delay in the selection of Everett Sanders' successor as national chairman.

Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., new head of the National Republican Club, and Charles D. Hilles, National committeeman from New York, spoke out against the suggestion of some Republicans in Congress that the selection be referred until after the November Congressional elections.

Other party leaders, including Senator Fess of Ohio, a former national committeeman; Representative Snell of New York, House minority leader, and George F. Getz, National treasurer, promptly endorsed the stand of Roosevelt and Hilles.

All said they believed a new chairman should be named at the national committee meeting in Chicago, June 5. Sanders has announced he will submit his resignation at that time.

Some Republican members of Congress suggested recently there was no need for filling the vacancy immediately since they have organized separate campaign committees for the Congressional elections.

MISSIONARY KIDNAPED

New York, May 11.—(AP)—A report that Chinese bandits had kidnaped the Rev. Howard Smith of Washington, Pa., from his mission in Pieng Shui, Szechuan province, China, was received today by the headquarters of the Christian and Missionary Alliance.

The report, sent by the Hankow office of the Alliance, said the Rev. Mr. Smith was being held for $100,000 (Mex) ransom by his captors. It was said none of the other missionaries at the station was alerted.

BOY FINED 50 CENTS
Waterbury, May 11.—(AP)—Police today were confident that City Judge Edward Mascolo had found the way to stop trolley car hopping by youths. Several boys, taken in custody by police, have been freed with reprimands and the practice has persisted.
When Joseph Mitrulerias, 15, a schoolboy, faced court today charged with breach of peace for hopping a Willow street car, Judge Mascolo said:
"To protect other boys, I'm going to make an example of you."

TWEED A FAVORITE FOR SUMMER SUITS

New York Designer Shows Dashing Model in Dusty Rose Color.

New York, May 11.—(AP)—Tweed in dusty rose with brown flecks is used by one designer for the coat to a three-piece summer ensemble.
Helen Cookman, whose summer coat and suit collection makes use of many soft wools in delectable shades, showed it today—an unlined box coat, knee-length, over a little homespun suit of pale pink.
The suit is two-piece, with a blouse-like fitted jacket having a high round neck. She makes the same suit for summer in light blue, gold and green, and recommends it for the race track, country and cruise wear.
Another pleasing color combination in a three-piece costume by this designer: white, caramel beige and brown. The skirt is caramel color, the linen jacket white, and the sweater top coat is brown tweed of a loose weave.
For a summer wrap to throw over evening gowns in an open car she recommends a long, warm tweed cape, oatmeal color. It is unlined and has a draped neck arrangement.
In general, her coats are semi-fitted and have shoulders slightly squared with padding. One of the smartest is of hand loomed Irish tweed in bluish green with a hint of brown. It has very square shoulders and a little close fitting collar. Down the front are ten small leather buttons in two rows.
Her favorite town coat for summer is hand-tailored, on the lines of a man's Chesterfield. The fabric is smooth black covert. The lines are semi-fitted, and it has a black velvet collar.
She makes the same coat in all white tweed, and in pastel homespun, with dark brown collar and cuffs.
Two of her summer refusers: A regulation six-button reefer in brown and white diagonal tweed, and one in washable white herringbone cotton, with pearl buttons.

LAST CIVIL WAR VET OF WESTPORT IS DEAD

Thomas Glynn, 88, Westport's last surviving Civil War veteran, died this forenoon at his home in North Main street.

Westport, May 11.—(AP)—Thomas Glynn, 88, Westport's last surviving Civil War veteran, died this forenoon at his home in North Main street. He served with Company C, 28th Connecticut Volunteers. During the winter, he was taken to the hospital with a heart attack.
The deceased was a native of Westport and until his retirement several years ago, he was a prominent contractor. He built the first macadam-surfaced streets in Westport, Norwalk and New Canaan. Until last fall he drove his automobile on weekly visits to a daughter in West Haven.
Besides his widow, Helen Halpin Glynn, he is survived by two sons, Frank of Westport and John of

NEWPORT MAN FOUND DYING ON HIGHWAY

Washington, May 11.—(AP)—William O'Sullivan, 40, of Newport, R. I., died in a hospital at Sandy Springs, Md., today an hour after he was found dying on the highway with a severe laceration of the scalp and a fractured leg.

He told police conflicting stories. First he said he had jumped from a car, and later said an automobile struck him. He told hospital authorities he "did not know what happened."
He left the home of a brother, Albert O'Sullivan in Washington yesterday afternoon, taking a bus to Rockville. He told hospital officials he was later picked up by two men while walking towards Norbeck, Md.
The last thing he remembered, he said, was leaving their machine when they turned into a lane towards their home, and starting to walk on the highway.

FAVORS STATE PAYING COST OF CHILD BIRTH

New York Health Officer Says This Would End "Reckless Waste of Lives."

New York, May 11.—(AP)—The use of public funds to pay the cost of child bearing to end a "reckless waste of lives" was advocated today by Dr. Thomas Farran, Jr., New York state commissioner of health.
He told the Maternity Center association, there occur in New York state each year more than 17,000 deaths as a result of "our mismanagement of the child bearing function."
His plan would provide state money to pay the entire medical, hospital and nursing costs of child bearing for every woman unable to provide "the best of care" for herself.
"Last year," he said, "there were 1,188 deaths of mothers in the state from child birth, two out of three of which could have been prevented. There were three thousand babies who died within 24 hours after birth and another three thousand who died within the first month, and about 8,000 still births."

DAN MURPHY'S BAND AT RAU'S TOMORROW

As previously announced, the first dance of the 1934 season at Rau's Crystal Lake will take place tomorrow night.

As previously announced, the first dance of the 1934 season at Rau's Crystal Lake will take place tomorrow night. Dan Murphy and his Musical Skippers from Boston are scheduled to play. This band has had a wide reputation and should please a host of dancers on Saturday night. The Skippers are heard over the radio quite frequently from Boston where they were playing last fall.
The following Saturday night, Harry Whitney and his music, and other one of Boston's leading dance orchestras, will be heard at Rau's.

10 CASES ARE LISTED FOR SUPERIOR COURT

Short Calendar Session to Be Held in Rockville Next Monday Morning.

Ten cases are listed to be heard by Judge Ernest C. Simpson, of New Haven, at the short calendar sitting of the Tolland County Superior Court to be held in Rockville Monday, May 14, at 9 o'clock, standard time. The session is expected to be completed within one day.

The cases are listed for hearing as follows: Savings Bank of Tolland vs. Sadie Greenstein Lavitt and others; (1) motion for permission to amend complaint; (2) default for failure to appear; (3) disclosure of defense; (4) judgment.

The Williams Lumber and Coal company against the Andover Lake corporation; (1) disclosure of defense; (2) default for failure to plead; (3) judgment of foreclosure; (4) hearing on limitation.

Dan Pletus against Charles Mitchell; (1) default for failure to plead; (2) judgment.

Holcomb R. Howard against Lumn W. Turner and others, judgment of foreclosure.

Emil Schober against Walter P. Martley and others; (1) default for failure to appear; (2) disclosure of defense; (3) judgment.

Matilda J. Cox Patterson against Frank Patterson, motion to place on uncontested list.

Peter Jamro against Barthomiej Gamowski and others; (1) disclosure of defense; (2) default; (3) judgment of foreclosure.

Lewis Getzoff against Jacob Markow; (1) default for failure to plead; (2) disclosure of defense; (3) judgment of foreclosure.

Eva M. Birge against Helena A. Scott, motion for permission to withdraw appearance.

The Rockville National Bank, trustees, against Ernest W. Pigeon; (1) motion to open judgment; (2) motion in arrest of judgment; (3) motion for new trial.

Peerless Silk to Close

The plant of the Peerless Silk Textile Corporation in Rockville is to be closed for one week, beginning Monday, May 14, upon order of the code authorities as will other silk textile plants in the country.

Approximately $2,000 will be lost in wages at the Rockville plant by the 135 persons employed there.

For more than six months the Peerless Silk Textile Corporation has been making rayon thread in place of silk and the rayon manufacturers are not supposed to close at this time, according to information received from the NRA headquarters.

The corporation claims that the cost of manufacturing has gone up a total of 44 per cent in the past few months and that it has to pay the minimum wage of $13 under the NRA code while competitors in Philadelphia are operating non-union.

Elks Election

"Election Night" was held Thursday evening by Rockville lodge, No. 1359, E. P. O. Elks, at which time Clarence J. McCarthy of Rockville was elected Exalted Ruler of the lodge for the ensuing year, succeeding Lewis H. Chapman, who has held the office for the past year.

The following officers were elected: Exalted Ruler, Clarence J. McCarthy; Esteemed Leading Knight, George L. Betts; Esteemed Loyal Knight, John H. Karges; Esteemed Lecturing Knight, William Preuss; Tyler, John F. Coleman; secretary, Michael J. Cosgrove; treasurer, Raymond E. Hunt; trustee for three years, Michael H. Roberts.

Rain Delays Work

Practically all outside work had to be abandoned yesterday morning in Rockville and vicinity because of the downpour of heavy rain which lasted for several hours.

The farmers reported a great improvement in their fields which were coming dry from the dry spell of the past few days.

The work on the streets had to be abandoned for the time and some of the work was not resumed until this morning. The M. A. Gammino company of Providence, R. I., which is constructing the new state highway at the so-called "Goat Farm" on the Rockville-Hartford road, found work seriously handicapped by the storm.

This firm is now at work digging out the loam and dirt at this point and storing it away for use of the Connecticut state highway department's landscaping men when the road building is completed following the work on the concrete road.

State Convention

Delegates from Rockville will represent Court Hearts of Oak and Court Snipsic, Foresters of America at this city, at the annual state convention of the Foresters of America, which will be held at Putnam Saturday. The delegation will leave Rockville this evening for Putnam and the business session will be held Saturday.

The Court Hearts of Oak will be represented by Chief Ranger Edward Fritzsche, Martin P. Hirth, Paul O. Ertel as delegates and Mangus Weber, Harry C. Dowling and S. C. Little as alternates.

Court Snipsic will be represented by Fred S. Berger as delegate and Roger J. Murphy as alternate.

Hartenstein Chairman

Former Mayor Frederick G. Hartenstein of Rockville has been appointed chairman of the annual financial appeal of the Salvation Army to be conducted in Rockville. It is hoped to raise a sum of money in this community for charitable work in Connecticut.

Letters are to be mailed to the prominent residents of Rockville and surrounding towns within a few days by the local committee.

Frederick H. Holt, cashier of the Rockville branch, Hartford-Connecticut Trust company, is to act as treasurer of the local committee. Contributions will be received either by Mr. Hartenstein or Mr. Holt.

The general committee will be named within a few days and the appeal for funds will open with a special service at the Union Congregational church at which Rev. Dr. George S. Brookes, pastor, will officiate.

Funeral of Daniel Kinsella

The funeral of Daniel Kinsella, 70, who died at the Elks Home, corner of Ellington avenue and Prospect street, early yesterday morning, will be held from Burke's Funeral Home Saturday morning at 8:30 o'clock and from St. Bernard's Catholic church at 9 o'clock. Rev. George T. Sinnott, pastor, will officiate at a solemn requiem mass. Burial will be in the family plot in St. Bernard's cemetery.

For a number of years Daniel Kinsella resided in Rockville, making his home at 73 Village street. For a number of years Mr. Kinsella was a painter by trade and was well known in Rockville and vicinity where he was employed.

He was a member of Rockville Lodge, No. 1359, B. P. O. Elks, the Painter's Union and St. Bernard's Catholic church.

He is survived by several nephews and nieces who reside in this locality.

Funeral of Mrs. Moritz F. Kennitzer

The funeral of Mrs. Mathilda (Neupert) Kennitzer, 66, wife of Moritz Kennitzer of 15 Windsor avenue, who died at the Rockville City hospital late Tuesday night following a long illness, was held from her late home this Friday, after-noon at 2 o'clock. Rev. K. Otto Klette, pastor of the First Lutheran church, officiated at the funeral services. Burial was in the family plot in Grove Hill cemetery.

Mrs. Kennitzer, who was born in Germany, has been a resident of Rockville for over 35 years, coming here as a young girl. She took much interest in the affairs of the First Lutheran church of which she was a member.

She is survived by her husband; two daughters, Mrs. Ellsworth M. Whiting, Jr., of Hartford, and Miss Loretta Kennitzer and a son, Frederick Kennitzer of Rockville; also several grand children and brothers and sisters.

Cast Chosen

The cast for the play "Crazy to Reduce", which is to be presented by the Friendly class and the Craft Club of the Union Congregational church in the chapel Tuesday evening, May 15, has been selected and announced.

The following is the program which has been arranged for the occasion:

"O. Mary Liveforever," a reduction and developing expert, Mrs. Estelle Kingston; "Salonica Swayback, calisthenics instructor, Helen Ky-noch; "Ima Nutt," the dumb assistant, Wilma Szalontai; "Sophena Sobbs," reporter on the "Whangville Whiz," Frisella Szalontai; "Thelma Thumb," the ivory tinkle of Whangville, Eleanor Neff; "Mrs. Mary Dubois Wellington Humphrey Vandoozen," with a family tree, Elizabeth Drummond; "The Four Musket-ers," on their way to choir practice, "Emiline Scheech," Mrs. Rosa O'Brien; "Balladina Whiese," Lois Alley; "Belinda Beller," Grace Bell; "Grisalda Schmultz," Mrs. Mary Gregus; "Mrs. Henrietta Hemaway," burdened with a husband, Gertrude Fuller; "Mrs. Tiny Waite," Whangville's heavyweight, Mrs. Myrtle Engler; "Mrs. Claribel Humming-bird," wife of a song writer, so-called, Constance Brookes; "Naona Nibbles," strictly on a diet, Vera Cobb; "Mrs. Widemore Bunch," the thinnest thing in town, Dorothy Stoneman; "Twins with moving picture ambitions, Lena Lott, Evelyn Tennstedt; "Fattina Lott," Hope West.

School Calendar

The Vernon town school committee, which has charge of the schools in the town of Vernon and City of Rockville, has adopted the school calendar for the school year 1934-35. The following is the schedule adopted:

Fall term—schools open Wednesday, September 5 and closes Friday, December 21.

Winter term—schools open Wednesday, January 2, 1935, and close Friday, March 29.

Spring term—schools open Monday, April 1 and close Thursday, June 20.

Days out—Thanksgiving Day and day after; Teachers' convention day, Good Friday (April 19), Memorial Day.

Recesses—February 16 to February 24 and April 27 to May 5, each period inclusive.

Whole year, 39 weeks, or 185 days; graduations—grades on June 19 and High school on June 20.

Margaretha Lodge

Margaretha Lodge, O. D. H. S. of Rockville, was well represented at the 87th annual state convention of the organization held in Meriden. Two special buses were used to take the Rockville delegation to Meriden, the group comprising more than fifty members. The buses left Rockville shortly after 7:30 o'clock in the morning and returned at a late hour.

The delegates to the convention were: Mrs. Fannie Mann and Mrs. Annie Murphy while the alternates were, Mrs. Margaret Mark and Mrs. Mary Lehmann. Mrs. Lehmann is a past Grand President of the state organization.

Unusual interest was shown in this trip as the fine degree team of the Rockville lodge, headed by Mrs. Fannie Mann as captain, performed.

Union Services

Plans are underway for the union summer services in the Baptist, Congregational and Methodist churches. The present plans call for the services to be held during the first three Sundays, namely, July 1, 8 and 15 at the Rockville Methodist church. On July 22 and 29 and August 5, the services will be held at the Union Congregational church and on the last three Sundays, August 12, 19 and 26, the services will be held at the Rockville Baptist church. This plan will permit the pastors of the different churches to enjoy short vacations.

Reception For New Pastor

A reception was held last evening at the social rooms of the Tolland Federated church for the new pastor and wife, Rev. and Mrs. Valentine Alison.

A very interesting program for the occasion, including the annual church roll call was given.

Rev. Mr. Alison began his duties last Sunday and came to Tolland from Springfield, Mass.

The Neighborhood club of Vernon will meet next Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Ethel Worcester. A very interesting program is planned for this occasion.

Plans for the spring flower show of the city of Rockville, sponsored by the Rockville Garden club, were discussed last evening at a meeting in Library hall at the Rockville Public Library. Miss Gertrude Fuller, president of the club, presided at the meeting.

The National Re-employment office, with headquarters in the post office, Rockville, and of which Jarvis Clapp of Ellington had charge, has been closed for the lack of funds to carry on the work. The work formerly conducted by the local office is now conducted through the Hartford National Re-employment office.

The Vernon Methodist church will hold an outdoor food sale Saturday on the church lawn. A large number are expected to patronize this sale.

George I. Schwarz of Spring street has returned to his home from a business trip to New Hampshire which he enjoyed several days ago.

Three masses were held at St. Bernard's Catholic church yesterday morning in observance of Ascension Thursday.

The Burpee Woman's Relief Corps of Rockville has been invited to a meeting of the Robert O. Tyler Corps of Hartford Saturday night at which time the latter will celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of its founding.

A meeting of Rockville Council, No. 1155, Knights of Columbus, was held last evening in the rooms in the Prescott block, at which time Special Agent John F. Dally of Belmont, Mass., made an inspection.

A large number from Rockville attended the annual strawberry abortcake supper last evening held at the Windsorville church social rooms under the sponsorship of the Ladies Aid society of the church.

Rockville was well represented at the meeting of Sabra Trumbull Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, which was held Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Lewis McLaughlin, regent, who resides in Stafford Springs. Reports were given of the recent Continental Congress, which was held at Washington, D. C., and which was attended by Mrs. McLaughlin and Dorothy Harlow of Rockville.

The Rockville Emblem club held the regular meeting Wednesday afternoon at the Elks Home, corner of Ellington avenue and Prospect street. Following the usual business meeting a social hour was enjoyed and bridge and whist played.

Edward Vanderman of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, is spending a few days with his mother, Mrs. Robert Brown of Grove street, this week.

Mrs. Paul Miller of Grove street, who underwent an operation at the Hartford hospital Monday, is showing improvement.

Mrs. Lewis Skinner of Ogden's Corner held a whist at her home yesterday afternoon. The whist was sponsored by the home economics committee of the Vernon Grange.

The meeting of Stanley Doboz Post, No. 14, American Legion, was held Wednesday evening in the G. A. R. hall, Memorial building. A social hour followed the meeting.

The regular meeting of the stockholders of the Savings Bank of Rockville was held yesterday morning at 11 o'clock at which the usual reports were presented by the officers.

Dancers Keep on Dancing As Firemen Battle Flames

New York, May 11.—(AP)—“On guard for the music, were minded to suggest that they speed up or else let the band slow down; but nothing came of it.”

One of the brighter of the young dancers caught the violinist's eye and cried out gravely: “Hello, Nero.” As he danced quickly away, another wag of the same ilk shouted: “What's Your Hurry? Going to a Fire?” This was judged to be a very smart sally.

Downstairs, where the fire had started from an undetermined cause, about 20 diners who had reached the dessert course became alarmed. They dashed out, simulating hysteria and forgetting the usual formality at the cashier's desk — although all remembered to take their hats. Other diners who had just begun their meal stayed on, as there was no percentage for them.

The damage was estimated at $2,000, not including the two E strings the violinist—excusably excited—broke.

WORKERS MUST RETURN OR LOSE THEIR JOBS

Buffalo, N. Y., May 11.—(AP)—An ultimatum to either return to work by tomorrow afternoon or have their names stricken from the company rolls was given to striking workers of the Curtiss Aeroplane and Motor Company, Inc., today by company officials.

Aeronautical workers from both the Curtiss plant and the Consolidated Aircraft Corporation have been on strike for six weeks. The Curtiss statement, signed by T. P. Wright, vice-president and general manager, said that strikers who had not returned to work by tomorrow would be removed from the payrolls and not returned except through rehiring. It also asked workers remaining out to remove their tools and personal property from the factory.

About 900 workers left the plant at the beginning of the strike but since then company officials have claimed that more than 100 men have returned to their jobs. Consolidated plant closed down a few days after the strike but the Curtiss company continued work with a skeleton force and some workers imported from other cities.

CHUCKLES

Washington, May 11.—(AP)—It happened at the House immigration committee table.

Representative Dirksen of Illinois, irked Chairman Dickstein of New York by disagreeing with provisions of Dickstein's own bills.

“Of course, I've only been here a little while—” Dirksen was saying, when Dickstein cut in: “I've been here long enough to make your hair stand—”

Right there he caught sight of Dirksen's conspicuously bushy pompadour, saw how apt his quotation

NEW POLISH PORT HAS A HARD NAME

That Is, Hard to Pronounce But United States Has Them Also.

Those of us who are habitually addicted to symptoms of lockjaw as a result of pronouncing names of some places are getting no relief these days. It's not enough that old cities stick to their fancy monickers, but along comes a brand new city, Poland's magical, made to order seaport on the Baltic, with a name like Gdynia (pronounced Gid-yen-ya). With Gdynia figuring prominently in the news during the past few months, newspaper editorials and other organs of protest have been questioning the wisdom of selecting so hard-to-pronounce a name for a place of such present and potential importance to world commerce, instead of a cosmopolitan name which could be recognizably sounded by the average tongue.

Defending the choice of Gdynia, Professor Stephen P. Miezwa (Meesh-va), director of the Kosciuszko Foundation, yesterday pointed out that many American cities, as often as Polish cities, looked as though they had been “pied” by the printer.

Some American Names

“If it is considered difficult to pronounce the Polish Gdynia,” said Professor Miezwa, “or the resorts named Szczawnica, Zaleszczyki or Inowroclaw in Poland, then certain American cities and towns are even tougher nuts to crack between your teeth. Can one say Oconomowoc in one breath? It is a town in Wisconsin, not Poland. Punksutawny, Pa., is no less difficult to mouth than Krzemienice, (Poland). And here are a few more jaw-breaking names of American cities, taken at random:

- “Nacogdoches, Tex., Appomattox, Va., Osawatimie, Kan., Tpsilanti, Mich., Apalachicola, Fla., Menominee, Mich., Talladega, Ala., Kissimmee, Fla., Waxahochie, Tex., Wauwatosa, Wis., Conshohocken, Pa., Wapakoneta, O., Canandaigua, N. Y., Tucumcari, N. M., Opelika, Ala., Oskaloosa, Ia., Canajoharie N. Y., and Ymoa, Ariz.”
- “As for Gdynia, the name has considerable charm and justification, for it means ‘to the deep sea.’ Doubtless a thousand or more years ago, some wandering Slav came upon the beautiful sand beach which marks this part of the Baltic, discovered the extraordinary depth of water close to the shore, and returned to his tribe to explain that here was the way to fathomless depths. It's been Gdynia since and always will be. At any rate, what's in a name?”
- Nevertheless, Professor Miezwa is urging the Republic of Poland, which is building two new express liners for the government-controlled Gdynia-America Line, to please christen the ships with names both short and easy to pronounce.

GIRL IS FOUND DEAD ON OPERATING TABLE

Doctor Found Unconscious Nearby from Effects of a Self Administered Drug.

Brooklyn, N. Y., May 11.—(AP)—An autopsy was ordered today to determine the cause of the death of Virginia Allen Ball, 21, former Broadway show girl, whose body, clad only in a slip, was found on an operating table in a Brooklyn physician's office.

The physician, Dr. Julius Phillips, 54, was found unconscious in a bedroom from the effects of what police said was a self-administered poison or drug. He was taken to a hospital and a charge of homicide placed against him. Attendants said he probably would not recover.

The young woman's husband, Thomas Ball, a theatrical booking agent, rushed into the physician's office yesterday in search of his wife. He nearly collapsed when police, called by the physician's son, showed him the body.

“I wanted a baby, she didn't,” police quoted Ball as saying.

He said she disappeared from their hotel home Tuesday night and he had searched frantically for her.

SAVED BY KITTENS

New Haven, May 11.—(AP)—Awaking by the scratching of her two pet kittens, Mrs. Antonio Russo found her two and a half story frame building afire early today. She aroused her husband, and with him awakened the three roomers on the floor below.

Mrs. Russo and Nicela Oliveri, a roomer, were injured slightly while leaving the building. Two hours fighting with several water lines was necessary to subdue the blaze. Firemen estimated the damage would be between $800 and $1,000.

NO FEDERAL AID FOR E. HARTFORD

War Department Refuses to Build Dykes to Stop River Floods.

Washington, May 11.—(AP)—The War Department today described proposals for the construction of dikes to protect the East Hartford meadows from Connecticut river floods as "not sufficiently general in scope to warrant the undertaking of this project by the Federal Government."

The report, outlined in a letter from Secretary of War Dorn to Senator Lonsorgan (D. Conn.), estimated the costs of two proposed dike projects at $602,200 and $668,000 respectively. The annual fixed costs for construction and maintenance, the report said, would be lower than the present cost to the town of relief to flood sufferers and the aggregate of minor damage to furnishings.

Senator Lonsorgan, pointing out that the report referred only to present conditions in the meadows, and not to possible development in the case of the removal of the flood danger, said he would ask either for a public works allotment for the work, or would introduce a private bill in Congress. The report was drawn at the Senator's request.

Condition Of State Roads

Road conditions and detours in the state of Connecticut made necessary by highway construction and oiling announced by the Connecticut highway department as of May 9, 1934.

Route No. U. S. 1: Bridgeport. Boston avenue. About 1 1/2 miles sheet asphalt on concrete base. Open to traffic. Clinton. Boston Post road is being oiled for 1 mile. Madison. Boston Post road. Shoulders are being oiled for 2 miles. Stratford. Boston avenue. About 1-4 mile reinforced concrete pavement. Open to traffic.

Route No. 2: Bozrah-Lebanon and Colchester. Norwich and Colchester road is being oiled for 8 miles. Marlboro and Hebron. Hartford-New London road is being oiled for 6 miles.

Route No. 4: Cornwall. Bunker Hill-Cornwall bridge road is being oiled for 4 miles. Cornwall. Cornwall road. From Cornwall bridge eight miles west. Grubbing, grading and installing culverts. Open but unsafe for traffic.

Route No. U. S. 5: Enfield. Hartford-Springfield road. 3 1/2 miles of 8 inch reinforced concrete pavement is under construction but open to traffic.

Route No. U. S. 6: West Hartford. Farmington avenue. From Farmington town line to Woodbury street. 2 miles of sheet asphalt under construction but open to traffic. One way traffic short distance. Woodbury. Watertown road. Shoulders are being oiled for 16 miles. Chaplin and Hampton. Willimantic road is being oiled for 3 1/2 miles.

FIND EXPLOSIVE BOMB PLACED FOR DOLLFUSS

Austrian Chancellor Has Another Narrow Escape from Death; Takes News Calmly.

Salsburg, Austria, May 11.—(AP)—Chancellor Engelbert Dollfuss again narrowly escaped death today when authorities found a high explosive bomb at the airport station here shortly before he arrived from Vienna for a Patriotic Front meeting.

The infernal machine contained eleven pounds of akrasite and was equipped with clockwork.

However, the little chancellor appeared unperturbed by the discovery. He and Prince Ernest von Starenberg, the handsome vice chancellor and head of the Fascist Heimwehr, were showered with flowers. The two leaders were almost mobbed by buxom peasant girls who swarmed around them, repeatedly holding their procession through the streets of Salsburg.

NEW AUTO RULING

Hartford, May 11.—(AP)—The removal, cleaning, adjusting and replacing of spark plugs in the engine of a motor vehicle is a repair job and those who perform such service must be licensed by the state of Connecticut, according to a opinion of the attorney general just received by Edwin B. Pratt, supervisor of the dealers and repairmen section of the State Motor Vehicles Department.

A New "Super-Charged" Gasoline That Gives up to 6900 More Firing Charges Per Gallon

Shell Refineries Develop a Sensational New Way to "Re-Make" the Chemical Structure of Gasoline... Resulting in More Mileage, Added Power and Quicker Starting STOP measuring gasoline by the gallon. It's WHAT YOU GET in your gallon that really counts.

The new Super-Shell gives you up to 6900 extra firing charges. Every gallon of it is "super-charged" with this extra energy.

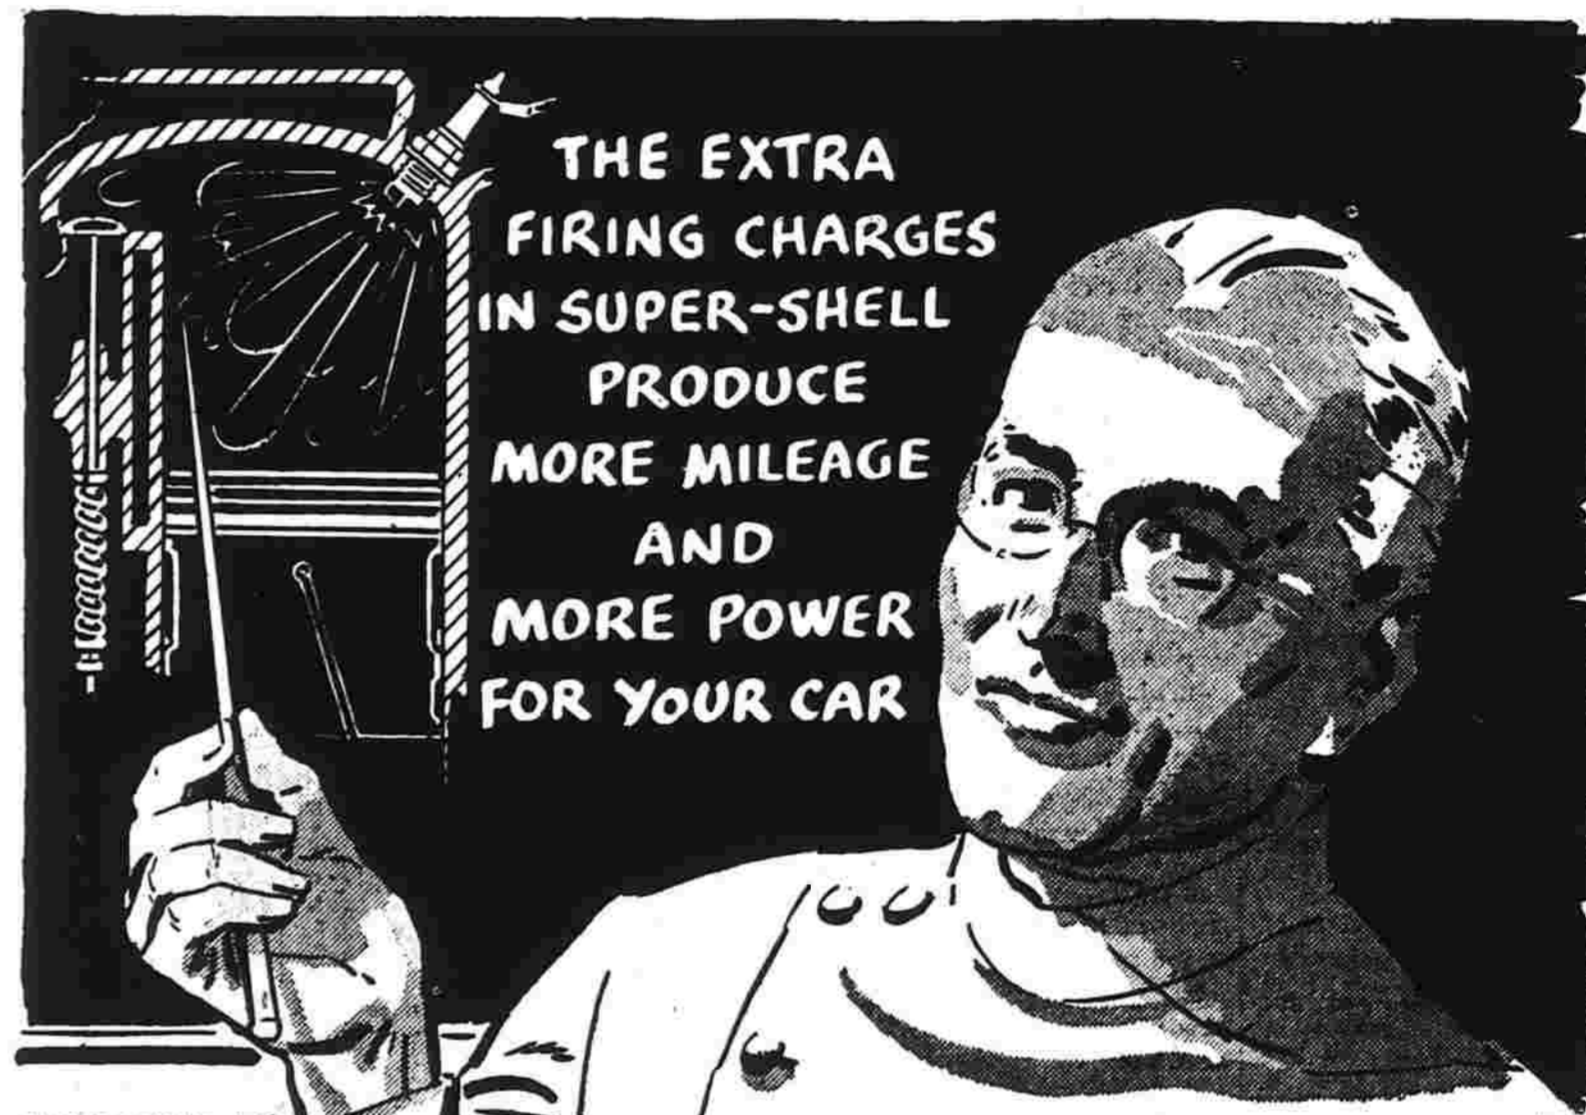

The secret of "super-charging" gasoline is the process by which Shell "re-makes" the entire chemical structure and packs it with additional energy units. There are actually thousands of additional power strokes in every gallon in traffic, on hills, wherever you drive this new-type motor fuel will win you. Acceleration is greatly increased. You can even feel Super-Shell's surge of extra power!

Try this first "super-charged" gasoline in your car. Do it today.

And remember, this new Super-Shell is good for your motor, too. It burns cleanly—with greatly reduced dilution of crankcase oil. It is knockless—a very top anti-knock rating.

And the added mileage from its extra firing charges per gallon is good for your pocketbook! Super-Shell still sells at the price of regular gasoline.

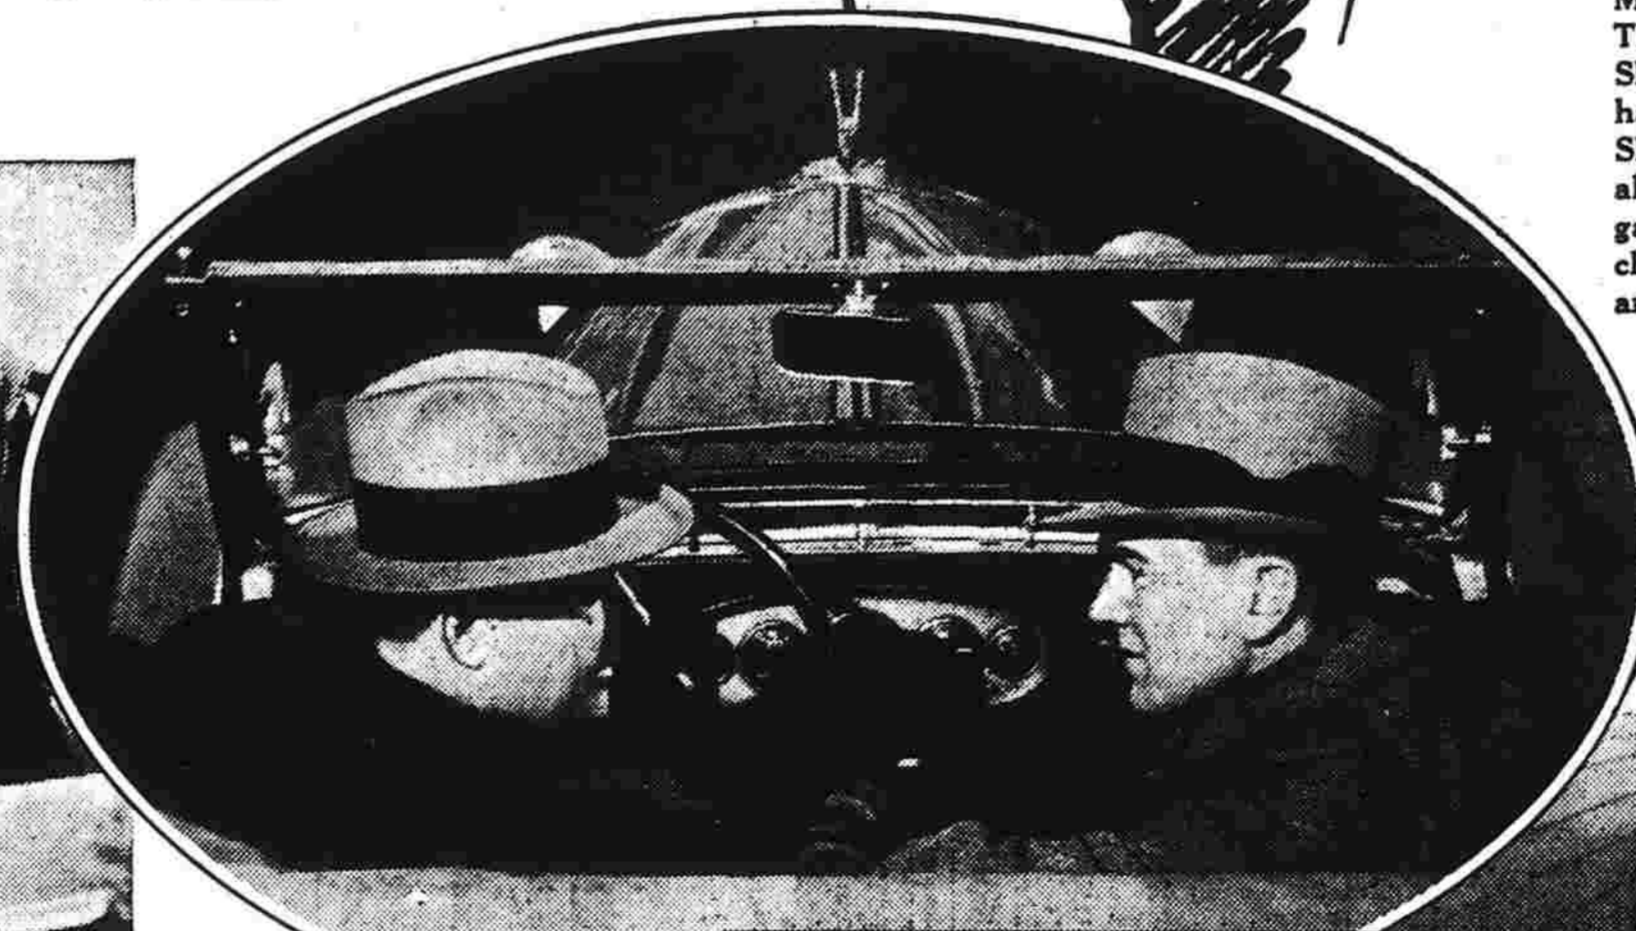

THE EXTRA FIRING CHARGES IN SUPER-SHELL PRODUCE MORE MILEAGE AND MORE POWER FOR YOUR CAR

MORE ENERGY IS NOW CONCENTRATED in every gallon of the new Super-Shell. As many as 6900 extra firing charges have been packed into every gallon by Shell's "re-making" process which actually changes the chemical structure of gasoline. Think what these extra firing charges mean to you in greater power and mileage. You'll never use any other gasoline again once you've tried Super-Shell.

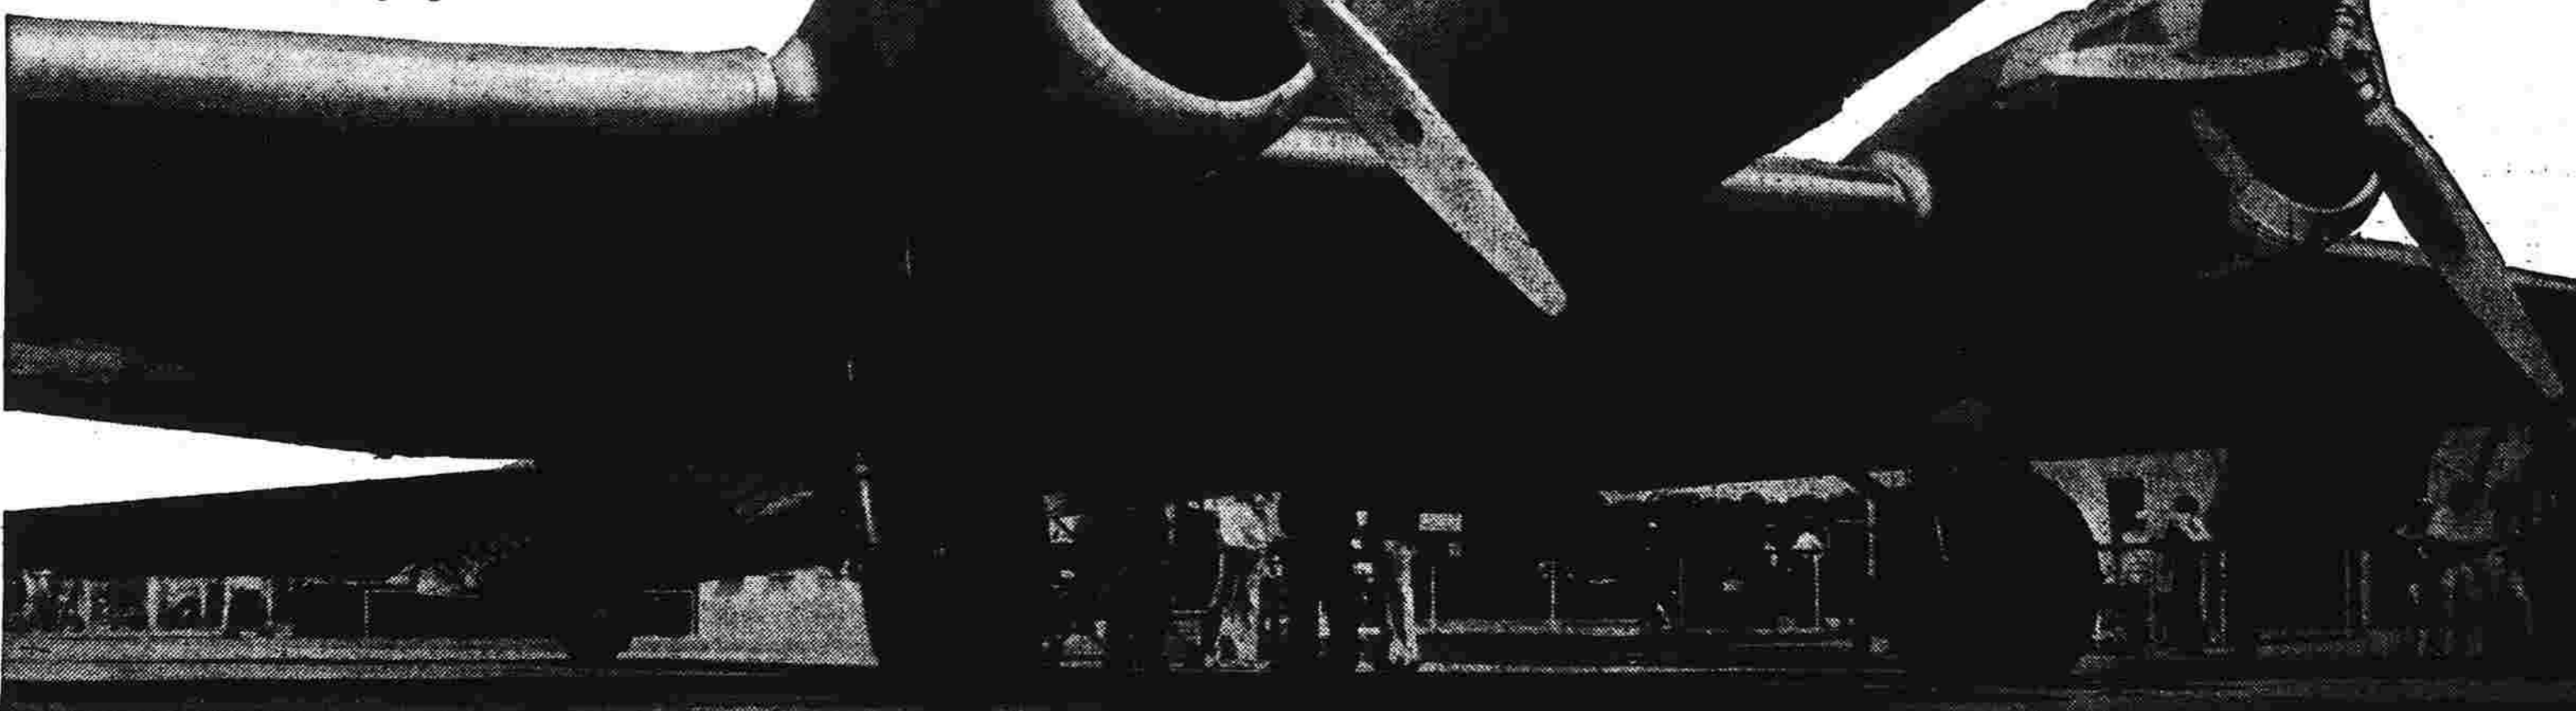

"I GOT BETWEEN 2 AND 3 MORE MILES to the gallon from 'Super-charged' gasoline in my first two trips with it," reports Jesse E. Woodward, Baltimore, Md.

AUTOMOTIVE ENGINEER IS AMAZED! Mr. Allen Taylor (at left) tried "super-charged" gasoline and tells Shell technical expert, Mr. Robert I. Lewis, "This new Super-Shell has the power we engineers have been looking for in gasoline these last few years."

THIS MODERN TRANSPORT AIRPLANE is powered with two 700 H. P. Wright Cyclone engines which are equipped with internal centrifugal super-chargers that force the gasoline mixture under pressure into the cylinders to obtain more power per gallon of gasoline consumed. Now gasoline itself is "super-charged." Super-Shell, by its "re-making" process, has up to 6900 extra firing charges per gallon.

STRIKE FOR PRESTIGE

In no recent labor conflict has the issue between strikers and employers been more clearly drawn than in the walkout of the workers of several Remington-Rand factories, including the one at Middletown where no less than typewriters are manufactured.
 On all questions of hours, wages, conditions of employment, etc., no agreement had been reached in a conference of employer's and employees' representatives with the National Labor Board. Then the labor union leaders who were representing the workers walked out of the conference on a question of union recognition in the written agreement.
 This subject is dealt with in two paragraphs which, after the words "union" and "union organization" have been stricken out, read as follows:

8. The company will deal with the duly chosen representatives of its employees in matters of wages, hours and conditions of labor and in matters of grievances of members of any organizations of its employees.
 9. Whenever any employee of the company thinks he or she has a grievance it may be taken up with the foreman of his or her department individually or through the proper representative in that department who shall try to settle the matter. . . . If they fail to do so then the general shop committee representing the employees shall take it up with the works manager or his representative. . . . If no settlement is thus effected then the general shop committee shall take the matter up with the general officials of the company.

As it will be seen from these paragraphs there is nothing whatever in them to prevent the employees from being represented by any union strong enough among the workers to be chosen as their representative. It leaves the choice of these representatives entirely to the company's employees. But on the other hand neither is there in the agreement any pledge to recognize no representative except a "union"—which in the course of time might come to embody in its membership only a small fraction of the company's workers but would still monopolize the right to negotiate for all of them.
 And this Remington-Rand strike is called solely to compel the company to restore those words, contrary to the expression of the head of the National Labor Board that the agreement, without them, is eminently fair.

A number of thousand men and women in several cities are thrown into idleness, a great business enterprise is made inoperative, not in any fight for better conditions or wages or for a decent principle, but to win for some professional labor organizers and agitators an unwarrantable grip on a great industry and a wholly unjustifiable position as representative of workers who might not want in the least to be represented by them.
 The walkout has just one obvious cause—the determination of a little group of labor professionals to exploit both workers and employers, ruthlessly and without regard to the well being of anybody but themselves.

SOMETHING TO REGRET

Joseph and Salvatore Ferrugia, brothers, are being sought for the wanton shooting down of two New York policemen, one of whom is dead and the other desperately wounded. A little more than a year ago these men, after a series of crimes committed in this state, were sent to Wethersfield on one-to-three year sentences. As soon as they had completed the minimum period they were released on parole. That was last January.
 If these two bad eggs had been kept in the Connecticut State Prison for even one-half of the maximum term of their sentences, the two New York policemen would both be alive and in health today. While it would be sheer captiousness to assume that the State of Connecticut is chargeable with the New York tragedy the facts possess a significance of no small weight.

 The adoption of the system of indeterminate sentences, with a wide spread between the minimum and maximum terms, was brought about in the belief that it held out to the convicted criminal a strong incentive to good behavior and might be expected to exercise a powerful reformatory influence. The prisoner who manifested an earnest purpose to correct his outlook on life and develop self discipline was to be released at the expiration of the minimum period because he had shown his capacity for future good citizenship.

In the relatively short time since the adoption of the system, however, one of two things have been shown. Either prison rehabilitation is far too often merely apparent or short-lived, or parole boards have permitted the freeing of prisoners at the first legal date to become largely automatic, without much regard to whether the subject has become a safe person to be at large, so long as he has not made an actually bad record while in confinement.
 At all events the list of criminals committing peculiarly atrocious crimes in recent years contains the names of many who have already been paroled at the end of minimum terms. There is, of course, another long and sinister list of "repeaters" who have been paroled without having served even a minimum term; but this is another subject having to do with a degree of political corruption with which, fortunately, Connecticut has had no experience. Here our prison system is proof against accusation of rottenness; the only question arising is whether we have not become too perfunctory in the extension of generosity to minimum term convicts.

From all accounts the Ferrugia brothers have always been particularly dangerous criminals and of such a low order of intelligence that they would not have been likely to fool anyone, who had made a close study of them, into believing them fit for freedom.
 Yet we had them safely behind bars and we let them go with one-third of their maximum terms served—and the consequences are not pleasant to think about. Understandably it is a very difficult thing for a parole board to resist seeing the prisoner trees to the obscuration of the forest of society's safety. It is, nevertheless, its duty.

MORE NEW DRIVERS

There may not be a third more people in Connecticut anxious to drive automobiles than there were a year ago but there are above a third more who hold that ambition plus the necessary seeds to pay for a driver's license and the examination fee. Examinations for licenses in the first three months of 1933 in 38 towns and cities which are examination points were 7,997, while for the corresponding period this year they were 11,071, an increase of 38.4 per cent. That's a pretty big jump. In only four of the towns was there a decrease in the number of applicants for examination. One of these, Westbrook, showed the marked falling off of 43.6 per cent; in the other three the difference was very small.
 No other place in the state showed as heavy an increase in new drivers as Rockville, where the jump was a gain of 188.8 per cent. Manchester, however, made a gain considerably exceeding the average for the state, 62 examinations having been reported for the first quarter of 1933 and 97 for the first quarter of the present year—a jump of 56.5 per cent. Bristol is the only examination point other than Rockville where the new applicants this year were double those of last year, its 195 applicants being an increase of 119.1 per cent, though Stafford Springs missed doubling by only a little over seven points. Fifty-four applicants were examined there against 28 last year, the increase being 92.8 per cent.
 We don't know what all this proves, if anything, in connection with recovery from the depression; but we're very sure we'd rather print these figures than figures showing that the number of new license applicants was diminishing instead of increasing.

SURPRISE WALLOP

Many, many years ago we witnessed a performance of refined cruelty. A very distinguished clergyman consented to deliver, in his own church, a temperance sermon under the auspices of the W. C. T. U., one of a series preached by various ministers from their own pulpits. The good ladies attended in full force, occupying a large block of seats yielded up by the regular pew holders.

 The sermon proved to be a temperance sermon indeed—but very far from a total abstinence sermon. "I have the greatest of sympathy," said the preacher, "with a social after-dinner glass of wine." What those stern uncompromising totalitarians felt, the agony they experienced, may be imagined. The more fearless zealots among them got up and walked out.
 Ever since then we have felt that if a speaker accepts an invitation to address a special purpose organization or to take part in a special purpose meeting he should, as a matter of ethical duty, make known to the promoters in advance any intention he may hold of saying something likely to shock the meeting into hysterics.
 Odell Shepard, Trinity professor and famed stroller-philosopher, addressing an anti-Nazi meeting at Hartford last night, took, in his serene and unwavering way, an awful wallop at one of our most select and most serious minded groups when he described Nazism as "dull, stupid, unimaginative patriotism very like that of the D. A. R.," and proceeded to compare some of the Daughters' proceedings to those of the Hitlerites, drawing an astonishing parallel. For a gentle nature lover, Professor Shepard showed that he could be amazingly rough. He was rough to the press, too. That was all right—the press has a hide thickened by many a beating—but he might at least have given an intimation of what he proposed doing to the Daughters, and to American "patriotism" generally, so that such of them as may have attended—if Daughters ever do attend anti-Nazi meetings—could have remained away.

BEHIND THE SCENES IN Washington

Four Notables Miss Chance of Lifetime To See—and Hear—Dr. Wirt Women Enjoyed Aftermath of His Show . . . Wallace Is No "Holler Than Thou" . . . No Formality for Darrow.
 By RODNEY DUTCHER (The Herald's Washington Correspondent.)
 Washington, May 11.—One of the few inside stories yet to be told of the dinner party made famous by Dr. Wirt is that of the folks who were invited by Miss Alice Barrows, but couldn't come.
 Wirt almost met a couple of persons that night whom he would have called "brain trusters" rather than "satellites." For Miss Barrows had also asked these four friends to meet the gentleman from Gray, Ind.: Prof. M. L. Wilson, head of the Subsistence Homesteads division and father of the domestic allotment plan which became the vital part of the New Deal farm plan. Assistant Secretary of the Interior Oscar L. Chapman, secretary of the Public Works Board and right-hand man to Secretary Ickes. Robert D. Kohn, director of PWA's $100,000,000 housing division. Miss Josephine Roche, president of the Rocky Mountain Fuel Co. of Colorado.
 Dr. Wirt later met Wilson and Kohn through Miss Barrows and, when he heard about subsistence homesteads, decided that pet project of Mrs. Roosevelt's was "communistic."
 Good Show For Women Women, including many feminists, packed the hearing and applauded proudly as the three of their sex accused by Wirt denied all and defended themselves against Republican attacks . . . Anna Dell, Mrs. Morgenthau, and Mrs. Tugwell were there . . . Democratic and Republican committee members grinned and nudged one another as they fought a bald partisan battle, but the latter were embarrassed to hear that Wirt had come to Washington not knowing who he would name and had to send Mrs. Wirt to Miss Barrows to get the names and positions of Hildegard Kneeland, Mary Taylor, and Laurence Todd . . . Ex-Senator Jim Reed was engaged as Wirt's counsel by a certain manufacturer, head of a $5,000,000 corporation, who has been fighting National Labor Board efforts to make the NRA collective bargaining clause apply to his employes . . . Reed, after the hearing, made the remarkable statement that it was "irrelevant" whether Wirt's story was "true of that dinner or some other dinner" . . . Representative Leubach, a minority cross-examiner, condescended to Miss Taylor: "If the party was as fatiguing as hearing the detail about it, I certainly want to extend my sympathy."

WALLACE IS NO PRIG

Secretary Wallace, who quotes the Bible, is intimate with the philosophers of the past, and uses the terminology of science, economics and religion with equal exactitude, often breaks into the more homely forms of speech.
 He knows and uses the language of the farm as well as anyone. The other night in an informal talk he told a poker story which betrayed at least a working knowledge of that game.
 And he confessed that in a recent argument with some congressmen he had wanted to know whether they were cockeyed or I was cockeyed.

A BOOK A DAY

BY BRUCE CATTON

Sir Wilfred Grenfell has devoted 40 noble years to the lonely land of Labrador; and in "The Romance of Labrador" he helps one to understand why he has done it. Whatever his other reasons may be, he loves this wild and far-off country with great devotion, and his book is a charming exposition of Labrador's appeal.
 Labrador, he says, is not a barren and frozen desolation. It lies in the latitude of England; three of his five hospitals there are actually farther south than London. The coast is rocky and forbidding, perhaps, and the northern barrens are empty; but much of Labrador is timbered, lovely to look upon, susceptible of cultivation, a fine spot for a man to make his home. Potentially, he says, the country is very rich. Its fisheries are amazingly productive, its ancient rocks contain minerals, its soil is productive.
 It could easily be reforested. Some day it will be a land of enormous value.
 Dr. Grenfell presents Labrador's history as a great and romantic pageant. First visited by the Vikings—it was Labrador, he says, and not New England, that was the Vinland of the ancient sagas—it was also known by French fishermen before Columbus sailed. Cartier, who claimed Canada for France, had almost certainly been there before. So, probably, had the English.
 He also pays tribute to the heroic work of the Moravian missionaries, who have tried so hard to save the dying Eskimo population.
 Published by Macmillan, this book is priced at $4.

Clarence Darrow is bound to be informal. As chairman of the National Recovery Review Board, he was presiding over an oil hearing when someone handed him a cup of ice water. He raised it high prior to tossing it off, winked at the audience and hissed, "Booze!" . . . Congressman Clarence McLeod, author of that controversial bill to pay off bank deposits, has a picture of a smashed plane in his office. He was its pilot and escaped in a parachute as it crashed 2,000 feet . . . When Democratic Congressman Canon of Missouri rose for a speech on Jefferson, it was Republican Congressman Martin of Massachusetts who endorsed it with: "Any Democrat who believes in Thomas Jefferson nowadays should indeed be allowed to express himself." . . . Mrs. Henry T. Rainey, wife and secretary of the Speaker, is sometimes attacked because she remains on the Federal payroll. But her entire salary goes for employment of extra stenographers and an office research assistant. In two years she has had 97 cents of it for herself. . . . William B. Shearer, the "big bass drum" accused of breaking up the 1927 Geneva naval arms conference for pay from American shipbuilding companies, is to be seen at such places as the Mayflower cocktail lounge, the Interior Department, and the Wirt hearings. His present lobbying connections are a mystery.

KNIGHTS TO MEET SPECIAL OFFICER

J. F. Dailey to Be Guest of Campbell Council on Mon- day Evening.

John F. Dailey, of Belmont, Mass., special agent and traveling auditor to New England for the Knights of Columbus, will pay his annual visit to Campbell Council Monday evening, the regular meeting night of the council. At 7 o'clock he will meet with the officers of the Council and discuss Council matters and will address the membership which will convene at 8 o'clock.

On Sunday members of Campbell Council will receive communion in a body at the 8:30 mass in St. James's church and following the communion the members will go to the Hotel Sheridan where a breakfast will be served.

Sunday afternoon a third degree working on a large class of candidates, which will include some from Campbell Council, will be held in Windsor Locks and a large number of members of Campbell Council are planning on attending.

LOCAL FRUIT GROWERS WARNED TO USE SPRAY

Calyx Solution Should Be Applied When 90 Per Cent of Blossoms Disappear.

The Hartford County Farm Bureau advises local fruit growers to be prepared to put on an early Calyx spray as soon as 90 per cent of the petals are off the trees. According to Assistant County Agent W. L. Harris, this is particularly important this season inasmuch as the recent warm weather forced the buds from an early pre-pink stage into full bloom without sufficient lapse of time for growers to apply the usual pre-pink blossom spray.

Mr. Harris states that this application is the most important single spray of the whole apple season. A reliable fungicide spray or dust should be used in order to control apple scab and that a stomach poison should be included to take care of the leaf eating insects such as curculio and codling moth.

Inasmuch as most growers have failed to put on the usual pre-pink blossom spray, special care should be taken to make this calyx application particularly thorough and timely. For further information call at the Hartford County Farm Bureau office, 85 Washington street, Hartford.

Queer Twists In Day's News

New Orleans—His babyhood curls were cut off to show that Davis Townsend, two years old, had become "a real boy."

A few hours later he was killed as he ran from his grandmother's home into the path of an automobile.

Springfield, Mo.—The early bird traditionally catches the worm—but he also draws the wrath of an aroused citizenry.

"Persons living near Perry Smith's bird colony have asked the city council to do something about the noise their feathered neighbors make in the morning.

"Even Sunday mornings," the protesters said, "the birds get up as early as 4 o'clock—just when we want to sleep late."

Portland, Ore.—An ordinance to prohibit pretty entertainers from sitting in the laps of customers in restaurants and night clubs has been passed by the Portland City Council.

The measure provides that the girls must not come "in physical contact" with patrons. It awaits the signature of Mayor Joseph Carson.

Fort Atkinson, Wis.—Ray Keatol looked out his window to see a large truck leave the road, tear off five guar posts, crush several small trees, climb an embankment, shatter a 12-inch tree and tip over, spilling cartons of fruit and meat over the lawn within three feet of his house.

"I didn't expect my breakfast to arrive in such quantities and in such a novel way," commented Keatol as he helped the two truck drivers soothe their cuts and bruises.

Memphis, Tenn.—Frank Baker, 74, and Mrs. Baker, 80, say they like good shows, but rarely find time to attend.

Thirty years ago they went to a theater in St. Louis. Their next trip to a playhouse was to see two who stars here a few days ago.

Missouri, Wis.—Elvera Forster, 30, was injured when the automobile of her friend, Gerald Taylor, 23, ran into a ditch as he attempted to repair the speedometer cable so it wouldn't tear Elvera's stockings. She was awarded $3,675 damages by a Civil Court jury in her suit against Taylor.

Oklahoma City—Each member of the newly organized "Gratitude Club for Husbands" is required to embrace the little woman daily and tell her he loves her, and to pay a compliment upon at least one dish at every meal. But there's a joker—the club is only chartered for two weeks.

Columbus, Ga.—Wheeler Tolbert, Jr., learned his lessons well from his mother and that's probably the reason he outspelled her to win the Chattahoochee Valley championship. Mr. Tolbert, a member of the Georgia Legislature, stumbled over "punchinello." Then Wheeler stepped up and spelled it correctly.

Butler, Pa.—Deciding "Modern Kids are too sophisticated for that sort of thing," the Board of Education refused to grant school children a recess to see a circus parade. There was a stormy protest from the pupils and they won. They will see the next parade.

Seattle—Just back from his honeymoon, John D. MacGillivray, 34-year-old assistant to Prosecutor Robert M. Burgunder, found himself assigned as a divorce proctor, while half a dozen women obtained decrees.

"No, I'm not a bit disillusioned about marriage," he said later.

Milwaukee, Wis.—Alleging Miss Sarah B. Hathaway, 83, who lives alone, is squandering her $80,000 fortune for stray cats and dogs and at one time had nine employees helping her minister to the pets, Mrs. A. V. Jackowska-Peterson, a friend, has asked the court to appoint a permanent guardian for the aged spinster.

Ruston, La.—This business of kidnapping is a costly one, non-engineering students of Louisiana Tech learned.

They swooped down last week on their rival, Wayne Hill, King of the Engineer's ball. Now "Tech Talk," student publication, carries this advertisement:

"Needed: Cash from non-engineering students to pay for damage done in connection with the kidnapping of the King preceding the engineer's ball. Items included in this expense are: 17 stitches taken in the King's arm, hospital accommodations and a broken car window amounting to $14.75, signed P. P. Love, unofficial chairman of kidnapping committee."

Essex, Conn.—Those old inseparables—fingers and bones—have been divorced by George K. Yoshida, veteran Japanese chef at an Essex club.

He is reputed to be the only person in this section able to remove the 400 or more bones in a shad without marring its appearance.

It used to take him two hours to do the job, but practice has reduced his time to 25 minutes.

Philadelphia—"A key to the city?" Of course. Just a minute x x x."

Mayor J. Hampton Moore fumbled in his pockets for the key he was to present to Mrs. J. Hampton Moore at a function in her honor.

But the mayor had changed his suit and the key to the city was at home. From his pocket came a chain of keys, and one was removed.

"Hump," said Mrs. Moore. "Since he can't give me the key to the city he gives me the key to the cellar. I'd rather have the key to the safe."

ELECTRIC REFRIGERATOR REJUVENATES KITCHEN

Spring, the time of year when housewives are beginning to think of rejuvenating their homes, is always, somehow, the time for thinking, too, of making the kitchen a more pleasant place to live in. In these modern days, when housewives are releasing themselves from the drudgery that once encompassed our mothers and grandmothers in going about their day-in and day-out tasks of preparing meals for the family, nothing is more in the limelight than an electric refrigerator. Not only has this industry made tremendous strides in the last several years, but today, more than ever before, housewives appreciate, not only the convenience that an electric refrigerator affords, but the down-right economy of having one in the home.

It's interesting to know that electric refrigerators, like other modern developments, started out as more or less homely things. Perhaps one would laugh at an original electrical refrigerator just as much today as they would be inclined to snicker at seeing the original model of one of today's deluxe automobiles.

Chet's Service Station local agents for Grunow refrigerators, with safe Carrene, in common with other retail dealers this week are holding a spring showing of the new Grunow refrigerator models at the Refrigerator show. Yes, indeed—refrigerators today have spring showings the same as automobiles, dresses and furs. And the Grunow, said to be one of the most beautiful refrigerators on the market is offered in a wide variety of modern and beautiful models.

If Mothers Only Knew
Thousands of Children Suffer from Worms, and Their Mothers do not know what the trouble is.

Signs of Worms are: Constipation, deranged stomach, swollen upper lip, offensive breath, hard and full stomach with pains, pale face, eyes heavy, short dry cough, grinding of the teeth, etc.

Mrs. E. W. Stephan, 31 Kanberma Road, Dorchester, Mass., wrote:—"My little girl's freedom from children's diseases, colds, constipation, etc., I attribute in a large measure to the use of Dr. True's Elixir."

Dr. True's Elixir
Laxative Worm Expeller
A pure herb medicine, not a harsh stimulant; natural relief from constipation.

GOLDKETTE ORCHESTRA TO PLAY NEW ENGLAND

Jack Keeney of Rockville Is Saxophonist With Band That Has Been in Middle West.

Jack Keeney of Rockville is touring the country as a member of the famous Jean Goldkette orchestra as first saxophonist directed by Henry Biagini, formerly leader of the Casa Loma orchestra is at the Riverside Night club, Utica, N. Y., for a two weeks engagement with the band, following a special engagement last Saturday for Cornell University at Ithaca, N. Y. The band made a 500-mile jump by bus from Columbus, O., where they played a week following long engagements at the Kentucky Hotel, Louisville, Ky., for six weeks and the Gibson Hotel, Cincinnati, O., three weeks.

At the conclusion of the Utica, N. Y., engagement, the band will make a five weeks tour of New England under the direction of W. J. Cook of Springfield, Mass., before leaving for the Stead Pier, Atlantic City, about July 1.

The band featuring Betty Jane Wolfe, Rosalie Green and Babe Godet, vocalists with the orchestra of sixteen pieces, will be heard at Riverside Park Crystal Ballroom, Springfield, about May 25. This celebrated orchestra has been a sensation throughout the south and mid-west where they have been heard during the past five months, playing at hotels, colleges and the bigger ballrooms of the larger cities.

HERRIOT DEFIES FRENCH "LEFT WING" OPPONENTS

Hurla Challenge at "Young Turks" to Throw Him Out as Radical Chief.

Clermont-Ferrand, France, May 11.—(AP)—Edouard Herriot launched a flat challenge to the "Young Turks" to throw him out as chief of the Radical Socialists, France's dominant political group, at the opening of the party Congress today.

"I will quit the presidency of the party rather than quit the Cabinet," Herriot declared in a secret session of Radical Socialist leaders.

The "Young Turks"—militant Left Wing adherents of the party—are opposed to the Radical sharing Cabinet power with parties of the Right. Herriot is a minister of

THE BARGAIN HOUND

"Of all the Mothers in the world the one who seems most fine Who reigns supreme within my heart Is you, Mother of mine."

If you'd like to give Mother a practical gift this year, Hale's has all sorts of lovely as well as useful things. A pair of white doekin slipper gloves will delight her heart and for summer wear they're indispensable—$1.50 a pair.

Whether you're giving a luncheon, dinner or after bridge party, a chocolate ice-box cake is sure to give your guests something to remember you by. It's easy to make, requires no cooking, and really is a perfect hot weather dessert.

Blend together one and one-third cups (one can) of sweetened condensed milk, one-fourth cup of lemon juice and the diced sections of two oranges from the whole membrane has been removed. Place a layer of chocolate wafers in a heart shaped mould or, if you haven't one, in a loaf pan which has been lined with wax paper. Spread some of the condensed milk concoction over the wafers; put on another layer of wafers; spread again with the sweet mixture and repeat in layers until all is used. Place in either an automatic refrigerator or a very cold ice-box for at least 12 hours.

King Cotton's kingdom is far from mythical this year. Some of the season's handsomest creations are made of gingham, percale, cotton lace, organdy net and pique. When the sun goes down, a lady dresses for dinner, a moonlit garden party, the theater or a thrilling evening of dancing and you may be sure that there is the right cotton costume for each of those occasions.

For tomorrow only Norton's are having a sale on their chiffon and semi-service stockings, all first quality for 50 cents a pair.

A novel idea brought out this season in suits of silk or light weight materials is to have the jacket reversible, plain on one side and printed on the other. This makes it possible to wear a plain or figured skirt or dress of harmonizing color and fabric, and effect several changes of costume with a modest outlay.

Remember Mother on "her" day with flowers. I saw the most attractive pottery pieces filled with different cut flowers at Milkowski's.

The sizes of the brims and the amazingly mad fruit, feather, ribbon and vegetable fascioman's with which they are trimmed make the new summer hats creations that even an experienced hat-tryer-on will be bound to marvel.

You should have a very friendly feeling for a hat or else you shouldn't buy it—this is the fashion designer's job to sell you on the idea as well as to sell you the hat. This year, she shouldn't have such a difficult job. If one kind of brim doesn't suit or one piece of trimming doesn't flatter, try something else. And keep trying until you find a model that really lifts you out of the so-so class into the heights of fashion.

Can't you see Mother run right up stairs to try it on if you surprise her on Mother's Day with a Nelly Don dress? They are the daintiest, coolest things ever invented for summer wear and so moderately priced—$1.98 to $5.98 at Hale's (2nd floor).

Iron utensils often are covered with a thin coating of some sort of shellac when shipped from the factory. This must be removed and the iron "seasoned" before using. First let the utensil stand for several hours in water in which washing soda has been dissolved. Wash in warm soapsuds and dry. Then rub with unsalted fat and let stand in a warm oven for two or three hours and then heat to the smoking point. Let cool and wash in hot soapsuds, scald and dry. Rub well with fat for the second time and heat slowly and thoroughly in the oven. Wipe off the surplus fat with a soft crumpled paper and the utensil is ready to use.

Work on the remodeling of Montgomer's store starts Monday, May 14th. They're over anxious to sell out most of their present stock in order to avoid the unnecessary work of moving out of the contractor's way. On the larger items such as stoves, bathroom outfits, furnaces, parlor heaters, bedroom, diningroom and livingroom suites, bedding, studio couches, egg chairs and tables, breakfast sets—prices are reduced to half (honest and true!). Today would be an ideal time for the June bride of 1934 or the bride of 1890 to buy her furniture needs at the greatest savings she could possibly expect. Washing machines as low as $37.88, a beautiful 4 piece walnut bedroom suite, for as little as $60.50—a real $129.95 set (imagine!). And look at these summer necessities—pajamas 19c, anklets 9c (tennis players hurray!) cotton prints 10c yard. Men's hats 79c, men's dress shirts 79c, men's wash ties 10c (perfect for summer!) Boy's washable play suits 50c and hundreds of other thrilling bargains!

The tender cuts of beef and lamb are relatively expensive just now but veal, pork and the forequarter cuts of beef are still at low budget levels. These meats require long slow cooking to be at their best. Fish is plentiful and fairly cheap. Green peas are lower than in months. Asparagus is plentiful, as are beets, carrots, cabbage and spinach.

Pineapples are plentiful, strawberries are cheap and very good and the first cherries are in market. Cantaloupe and honeydew are becoming fairly plentiful and reasonably priced.

The Magnell Drug Company has a most attractive selection of Mother's Day candy, 60 cents to $1.50.

Here's a good medium cost dinner menu: Veal Cutlet French Fried Potatoes Glazed Carrots Bread and Butter Rhubarb and Strawberry Pie Coffee Milk

Gotham Gold Stripe stockings, medium service weight would make an ideal Mother's Day gift. They're 95 cents a pair at Hale's.

Here's a recipe for Ambrosia—food of the gods. Peel fine, large, seedless oranges and slice as thinly as possible. Arrange the slices on individual serving plates and sprinkle lightly with powdered sugar and then with shredded coconut. Cover each slice of orange with a layer of shredded fresh pineapple. Add another layer of orange, sugar and coconut. Add a third layer of orange and cover thickly with coconut. Strew with slices of strawberries and put a perfect whole berry right in the very center.

I dropped in at the Pincess Candy Shop and found so many attractive boxes of Mother's Day candy that it was hard to know which one to choose—all prices.

A few style notes for fashion-conscious women. Due to the early arrival of spring in the film city, summery clothes are the current vogue. Every second outfit is linen and the favorite tones seem to be navy blue, black and dark brown, and red combined with white.

Carole Lombard, whom you'll see with Bing Crosby in "We're Not Dressing" wears a long tunic of dark red linen over a pleated crepe skirt of white. This tunic, which is quite new and daring, is a wrap-around effect, and slips on like a coat, terminating midway between knee and ankle.

Good milk and plenty of it will give your children, big or little, the chance for the health they ought to have. For strong bones and teeth and sound muscles and tissue, physical energy and mental alertness give them plenty of Bryan and Chapman milk—it's nourishing, well balanced and highly recommended. Call 7697 for service or just call one of the salesmen when you see him on the street. He will gladly bring you any of the many different kinds of dairy products sold by Bryan and Chapman. In addition to their well known brands of milk they also feature salt and sweet butter, heavy and light cream, lactic and real butter, milk, Choc-O-Vite Syrup, chocolate malt, sour cream and cottage cheese.

Enamelware requires gentle handling since hard knocks make it chip. Nor will the average stand intense heat without chipping. However, it has little tendency to discolor and stains are easily removed with any good scouring powder. Wood must be used for scraping and stirring in enamel ware, too, because metal scratches the glaze of enamel and makes dark streaks. Hot soapsuds, thorough scalding and drying keep this material at its best. If food sticks and burns let the pan cool before putting water in it. Then soak and scrape off the burned particles with wood. If the burning was bad and some of the spots obstinate, melt a small amount of fat slowly in the pan and scrape again.

For style comfort, and health try a Spirella. Lulu M. Bidwell, resident corsetiere. Dial 6081.

Glass is popular for ovenware and requires no special preparation if it's one of the brands particularly constructed to withstand the strain of expansion and contraction. I took a long look at Hale's candy counter this morning and noticed that they are featuring Mother's Day candy and regular week-end prices.

The woman who lives in a small town or in a community easily accessible to berry markets will find it profitable to do her own canning. The hot-water bath, steam pressure cooker and heat controlled oven all represent satisfactory equipment for home canning. But if a high price must be paid for fresh berries, plus labor, fuel and equipment, it may be found more economical to invest in the commercially canned product when the fruit is wanted in the winter.

It took a huge amount of grit up and get to get out of that yacht chair at Watkins—the most comfortable chair of its kind I ever hope to sit in! When I tell you they're only $1.98 you'll want two or three on the porch or to take along to the seashore. They're made of very attractive gayly striped duck.

Exercise in the open air makes you happier, more cheerful. And as soon as you are in a pleasant frame of mind you'll be more beautiful. A smiling face may some day have laugh lines, but what of that?

Cheney's haven't forgotten Mother's Day. They're displaying a gorgeous new lot of summer prints, and they're really very moderately priced. Why don't you take a run down and see them before Sunday?

Mint jelly is preferred by many persons to mint sauce to serve with lamb. An attractive way to serve

It is to mold it in tiny individual molds and turn out each on a slice of orange. Be sure to wash the orange before cutting it in slices.

Three-fourths cup minced mint leaves, 1-3 cup sugar, 1-4 teaspoon salt, 1-4 teaspoon paprika, 1-2 cup vinegar, 3-4 cup water, 1 tablespoon granulated gelatine.

Soak gelatine in water for ten minutes. Heat mint leaves with vinegar, sugar, salt and paprika and simmer closely covered ten minutes. Strain through cheesecloth and add gelatine at once. Stir until dissolved and turn into mold to chill and become firm. If a vivid green is wanted, a drop or two of green coloring must be added.

Marianne BIBLE CLASS CLOSES ACTIVITIES MONDAY

Concluding a successful winter season with a special supper on Monday evening, May 14, at the Second Congregational Church, the Everyman's Bible Class will suspend further activities till fall. Supper will be served at 6:30 o'clock, daylight time, and according to Harry Elliott, chairman of the committee, something out of the ordinary from the general run of past suppers, will be in store for all.

Desiring that the repeat may be a surprise in every way, no definite information regarding the menu has been advanced, but suffice to say the loss will be to each member that misses it. Arrangements have been completed for an after dinner speaker from Hartford needing no introduction to Bible Class members; a man who has addressed the class on several occasions and considered as outstanding.

The committee is desirous of a large attendance and asks that all members submit their intentions of being present to Mr. Elliott before Saturday noon.

The bond was furnished by the Fidelity and Casualty Company of New York.

GETTLE KIDNAPING NEARING SOLUTION

It moved almost without sound. "My tennis shoes were not tied and I wriggled my feet out of them. Soon I worked the binding from my ankles—they weren't very tightly bound, as it was done in a hurry—then I worked myself over to a small tree. Working against this tree for a few minutes I was able to stand on my feet. "I then hurried to the recreation room, where I ran into Albert (Albert Hitchen, another guest.) He jerked the adhesive from my face and untied my hands. "It was about ten minutes from the time the two kidnapers held me up until I was back in the room."

DUST STORMS MENACE CROPS IN MIDWEST

(Continued from Page One) In some localities that municipal embargoes were established on drinking water. CROPS GOOD IN SOUTH Atlanta, May 11.—(AP)—The south rejoiced today over prospects of abundant crops. Most southern states reported favorable weather conditions and indications of excellent harvests. Only three states—the Carolinas and Tennessee—have had dry weather. Three others, Georgia, Florida and Louisiana, had too much rain. The outlook was not alarming in the three dry states. Small fruits and grain suffered in North Carolina, where farmers were late in planting crops. Cotton needed rain, and so did tobacco. Lack of rain held up tobacco growers in South Carolina. While Tennessee had only half-normal April rainfall, university officials said there was no threat of a drought. The dry weather has helped cotton and corn in Tennessee. The commissioner of agriculture in Mississippi reported the weather the best "I have ever seen" with ideal rainfall and vegetable crops further advanced than in years.

SHE ATE ALL-BRAN TWELVE YEARS WITH FINE RESULTS

Delicious Cereal Relieves Constipation Read this very enthusiastic letter: "Something like eleven or twelve years ago, I began eating Kellogg's ALL-BRAN. When I started, it was called simply Kellogg's Bran, and I believe it was one of the first products of the kind on the market. "My friends often laugh at my fondness for ALL-BRAN. It gives such a clean taste in the mouth, and I do not feel satisfied until I have had my ALL-BRAN. "If the Kellogg Company should ever stop manufacturing ALL-BRAN, here is one who would be greatly disappointed."—Miss Amy Person, University Park, Iowa. Science says that ALL-BRAN provides "bulk" to exercise the intestines, and vitamins B to further aid regularly. Also iron for the blood. The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is much like that of leafy vegetables. How much safer than taking potent medicines—often harmful. Just eat two table-spoonfuls daily for most types of constipation. For serious cases, try it three times daily. It not relieved this way, see your doctor. Sold in the red-and-green packages. At all grocery stores. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

Wet weather held up cotton planting in Louisiana for cotton, corn and sugar cane to catch up. Central Florida truck crops suffered from too much rain but the wet and dry conditions in that state otherwise were agreeable to growers.

The severe winter retarded Virginia crops, but the wheat estimate called for more than 500,000 bushels above last year's yield. Cotton had to be replanted in South and Central Alabama because of the cold weather. Prospects were described as "good" for corn, oats, pastures and gardens in Alabama.

FORMER PATIENTS HOSPITAL GUESTS Men and Women Over 60 Will Be Treated to Program Tomorrow.

All former patients of the Manchester Memorial hospital, men and women over sixty years of age, will be the guests of the hospital tomorrow afternoon in observance of National Hospital Day. Miss Miriam Watkins, soprano and G. Albert Pearson, bass, will give a program of vocal selections including many old songs, favorites of other years. Miss Watkins and Mr. Pearson will be accompanied on the piano by Miss Eva Johnson. The day is dedicated to Miss Mary Cheney, who for so many years was almost a daily visitor at the hospital and contributed much towards the maintenance of the institution. Rev. Watson Woodruff will speak to those assembled. An opportunity will be given all who desire, to visit the many departments of the hospital from 10 a. m. until 2 p. m. tomorrow. Refreshments will be served.

Sergievsky described the feelings he has experienced in past record-breaking flights, particularly the one in which, flying solo, he broke three records by soaring more than 30,000 feet into the air in a plane with two supercharged Wasp engines.

AUTO SALESROOMS TO CLOSE SUNDAYS

Favorable Action to This End Taken by Dealers at Meeting.

Eight of the ten local automobile dealers voted in favor of closing their salesrooms all day Sunday at a meeting held in the Chamber of Commerce office this morning. Six dealers were present and two voted by telephone. As a result, these eight will close this coming Sunday. The request received to local dealers to close on Sunday is based on a state law, it is understood, and the Hartford County Automobile Dealers association has announced its intention of prosecuting any violation of the ordinance that occurs this Sunday and thereafter. If later developments indicate that closing will not be uniform throughout the state, the local dealers will rescind their action and remain open on Sundays. However, by closing this Sunday, the dealers will indicate they are in favor of the plan. The sales department for new and used cars will be closed but filling stations run in connection with agencies will, of course, be operated as usual.

TO EXEMPLIFY SECOND DEGREE THIS EVENING

Plans to Put On Third Degree in Full Form Completed by Lodge.

Full form ritual of the second degree will be exemplified by King David Lodge, I. O. O. F., this evening at Odd Fellows hall. This will be the first time in a year that this manner of presenting the degree has been worked. Final rehearsals were held last night and practically every detail settled. Members of the degree team are asked to be on hand at 7 o'clock to clear up the last ends. The lodge will be opened at 7:30 o'clock sharp. It was announced this morning that plans had been completed for the third degree. Members of that team are now hard at work. This degree, also, will be put on in full form. Although several Grand officers of the Grand Lodge of Connecticut have signified their intentions of being present this evening, it will not be in official capacity. The Grand Lodge convenes at Stratford May 15-16. Delegates from the local lodge will be instructed to-night. Plans for Memorial Day services will also be placed before the meeting and the committee on the annual picnic will make a preliminary report. Refreshments will follow the degree work and meeting this evening.

TOWN MATERNITY STANDARDS HIGH

Survey of Mrs. Horace Learned to Be Entered in National Contest.

Fifty members of the Manchester Public Health association, several medical doctors and nurses, educators, town officials and laymen, attended the luncheon-meeting this afternoon at the Country club. Mrs. William C. Cheney, president of the P. H. N. presided. Mrs. Horace Learned, who made a survey of maternity care in the town, read her report in the form of a questionnaire, which will be entered in a nation-wide contest conducted by the Maternity Center Association of New York in connection with its annual Mother's Day observance. The results of Mrs. Learned's survey shows the record of this town is equal if not better than any community in the country with an equal population. A delicious baked shad dinner served by Steward Jerry Williams preceded the round-table discussion, which lasted well into the afternoon. The tables were adorned with many artistically arranged bouquets of spring flowers. The speakers were C. W. Holman, Dr. D. C. Y. Moore, Dr. D. M. Caldwell, F. A. Verplanck, Dr. N. A. Burr, Dr. Howard Boyd, Dr. George Lundberg, Miss Dorothy Buttle, head nurse of the P. H. N. association; Mrs. Jane J. Aldrich, superintendent of the Memorial hospital; Town Treasurer George H. Wadell, Mayor Aaron Cook, Dr. R. P. Knapp, C. Elmore Watkins.

CROSS APPOINTMENTS

Hartford, May 11.—(AP)—Governor Cross today announced the appointment of Dr. George E. Corwin of Hartford to be a member of the state board of veterinary registration and examination for a term of five years from July 1, 1934. He succeeds Dr. John J. Kavanek of Hartford on the board. The governor also announced the reappointment of John H. Goss of Waterbury as director of the Connecticut State Farm for Women for a term of seven years from July 1, 1934, and the reappointment of Elijah Rogers of Southington as member of the board of control of the Connecticut Agricultural Experiment station for three years from July 1.

STATE PSYCHIATRISTS FORM AN ASSOCIATION

Membership Restricted to Private Physicians Specializing in Mental or Nervous Cases. Middletown, May 11.—(AP)—A group of about forty physicians from several sections of the state, each of whom is prominent in treatment of mental and nervous diseases, met at the Connecticut State hospital this week and formed the Connecticut Society of Psychiatry. The membership of the new body is representative of private physicians who practice in mental and nervous causes, physicians from the state hospitals for the insane, from private institutions caring for the insane, and members of the faculty of Yale University. Dr. A. R. Diefendorf of New Haven was elected president, Dr. R. L. Leak of Middletown, vice president and Dr. E. Van Norman Emery of the Yale faculty, secretary and treasurer. The counselors will be Dr. O. T. Wiedman of Hartford, and Dr. Charles T. La Moure of the Mansfield state training school and hospital.

Luther Hutson of 4 Hudson street today moved from Hudson street to 46 School street.

The usual Friday evening dance will be held this evening at the Wapping school hall, with free bus transportation for Manchester attendants.

The annual meeting of the Wesleyan Guild will take place this evening at the South Methodist church. There will be no guest speaker. The heads of the various groups will make their reports and the nominating committee will submit a slate of officers for the year. A social time with refreshments will follow. Mrs. L. S. Burr will be in charge of games.

Teachers of the North Methodist church school will meet this evening at 7 o'clock at the church.

Daughter of Liberty, No. 125, L. L. O. L., will meet Monday evening in Orange hall. The business session will be followed by a social in charge of the following committee: Mrs. Jane Wilson, Mrs. Colby Witoske, Mrs. Nellie Woodhouse, Mrs. Margaret Bain, Mrs. Hetty Elnik, Mrs. Shirley Booth, Mrs. Minnie Brown.

The usual Friday night setback party will be held in Orange hall tonight with cash prizes for the winners. Refreshments will also be served. The committee in charge has decided to continue the parties as long as the large attendance warrants it.

Adjutant Martin of the Salvation Army in company with Brigadier Bates of Hartford, Major Malpass and Major Atkinson will leave tomorrow for a trip through Vermont where they will visit corps throughout the state and assist in the services. They expect to return on the evening of the 18th, in time for the musical festival at the local corps. Colonel Joseph Atkinson, who will be chairman on that occasion, will be introduced by Mayor Aaron Cook. Among the guest artists will be the New England instrumental quartet of Boston.

There will be a meeting of the board of directors of the Orange Hall Corporation in the Washington Social club rooms at 6:30 tomorrow night.

BRIDGEPORT DIVORCES

Bridgeport, May 11 (AP)—Charles Wicks of Norwich told Judge Alfred C. Baldwin in the superior court here today that his wife, Elizabeth V. Wicks of Providence, was a back seat driver, possessed a fiery temper, called him a fool, criticized him for his baldness and manner of dress and was suspicious of him. He was granted a divorce for cruelty.

A marriage contracted in 1927 by Milton J. French of Greenwich, when he was 20 years of age, was ended today when he was granted a divorce from Rose C. French of Port Chester. French declared that his wife was six years his senior. He told the court that the marriage was never consummated.

POPULAR PRICED CIRCUS COMING

World Brothers to Put on 3 Ring Show at One Price —Two Bits.

The World Brothers Big 3 Ring Wild Animal Circus, combined with the Buffalo Ranch Wild West will exhibit in Manchester for one day only, on Tuesday, May 15th and it has been the policy of the World Wonder Show to present strange and out of the ordinary features with their aggregation, so it is not a surprise to know that they have again surpassed all others with offering the greatest of all—"circus day bargain", twenty-five cents to everybody.

This is not for one of the side shows—nor just to get in the front door, but means that the World Brothers are going to give everybody the opportunity to see the greatest exhibition of marvelous wonders that has ever visited this community. Twenty-five cents—will admit man, woman or child "to the circus" and in addition it "includes a seat in the circus"—Also this price will prevail at both performances—afternoon or night. There will also be ample free parking for all that bring their automobiles to the big show at the circus grounds at Daugherty and Center streets.

We don't mean that the World Brothers have cut the show down to meet the low price—as that is just the opposite. The circus is far bigger, better than it has ever been. More people have been employed, more acts, more rings and more seats. The new policy is a step further in the progress and modernization of the outdoor amusement field. The World Brothers are playing to volume. In other words they would rather exhibit to a "packed house at twenty-five cents, than a half-full house at a dollar and a half." They are giving just as good a performance at the small price than many shows are still charging six times as much. At this price they feel that no one has an excuse—not being able "financially to witness the finest and best exhibition in the world"—the circus.

WEEDE-MEYER BAND AT SANDY BEACH

Sandy Beach Ballroom has booked another big attraction for Sunday evening, May 13, when the Weede-Meyer orchestra, featuring Frances Delaney, "The Songbird of the South," Babe Pearson and the Weede-Meyer trio come to this popular ballroom for their first engagement in this section of New England. The Weede-Meyer orchestra comes direct from the Wardman Park Hotel in Washington, D. C., where they broadcast nightly over the National Broadcasting System. They have played all the southern universities, including Georgetown, Washington-Lee, University of Alabama, Princeton and many more. A number of "talkie" shorts done in their own distinctive style have added further to their popularity. The orchestra comes to Sandy Beach Ballroom Sunday, with an enviable reputation comparable to the leading orchestras of the country and it is anticipated a record crowd will be on hand to dance to their matchless music and perfect dance rhythm.

HOSPITAL DRIVE MEETING MONDAY

183 Volunteer Canvassers Are to Assemble at Masonic Temple at 6.15.

A luncheon meeting of the entire drive organization of 183 volunteer workers will be held at the Masonic Temple at 6:15 o'clock Monday evening to open the annual Memorial Hospital campaign for a goal of $15,000, it was announced today by General Chairman William E. Halsted. It is most important that all workers be present at that time, as final instructions will be issued.

15 Persons to Worker The meeting is not expected to last later than 8 o'clock. About fifteen cards will be given to each worker for persons to be canvassed, the majority of whom are yearly subscribers to the Hospital Fund. These will all be on one street, to lighten the work of the canvassers. A report meeting will be held Friday from 6:30 to 7:30 o'clock at the Temple and a final meeting will be held on the following Monday, May 21, at 6:15 o'clock. The two luncheon meetings will not mean expense to the campaign, as they will be paid for personally by members of the executive committee and directors of the hospital.

Team Completed The complete team captained by Helge Pearson, the only one not reported in the list published yesterday, was announced today and consists of Mr. Pearson, Carl Gustafson, Philip Franzen, Ernest Kjellson and Joseph DellaFera.

KIDNAPING GANGS STILL A MENACE

Despite Many Convictions
Underworld Continues to Keep Up the Practice.

New York, May 11.—(AP)—Despite an unusually successful record of arrests and convictions of kidnapers, the stealing of human beings for ransom continued today to present the most serious challenge to American police.

The results of police work in most "snatch" cases of the last two years has put many abductors and bad men behind bars, yet they have not appeared to serve appreciably as deterrents to this form of crime. The cycle of kidnappings which has kept police and the spending of hundreds of thousands of dollars by police agencies. The crime remains today unsolved.

Another child—little June Robles of Nogales, New Mexico—is in the hands of kidnapers (or possibly a victim of kidnaper-killers) today. The case remains unsolved, the ransom of $15,000 unpaid, the child still missing.

The most recent kidnaping is that of the wealthy William Gettles, a broker. Abducted from his home near Los Angeles late Wednesday night, he was still missing today, his fate unknown.

Some Good Work
The government and various local governments have plenty of good stars to mark their work on other cases, however.

In the kidnaping of Charles Boettcher II of Denver, who was held captive three weeks, Verne Sankey (among others) was finally seized and charged with the crime. He committed suicide.

The kidnaping of Jerome Factor 18 months ago in Chicago and of his father, John (Jake the Barber) Factor nearly three months later have been solved and the kidnapers in the latter case—the infamous Touhy gang of Chicago—sent to prison for long terms. The kidnaping of John J. O'Connell of Albany, N. Y., which had political ramifications owing to the prominence in New York state politics of the youth's uncle, is closed, with Manny Strelw serving time for the crime.

The abduction of August Luer of Alton, Ill., of little Peggy McMath at Harwichport, and of Charles F. Urschel, Oklahoma City oil man, all are scored as victories for the law, with kidnapers in each case captured, convicted and sentenced.

The kidnap-murder of Young Brooks Hart at San Jose, Calif., had a national reaction when his murderers were taken from jail and lynched.

If any city could be said to have suffered most from the kidnap scourge it is St. Paul, with three major kidnapings—Edward Bremer, Haskell Bohn and William Hamm. Kansas City is another community which had more than its share, with two nationally-known abductions—those of Mrs. Nell Quinlan Donnelly (now the wife of former Senator Read of Missouri), and Miss Mary McElroy, daughter of the city manager. Kidnapers were caught, tried and sentenced in both cases. One kidnaping was sentenced to death in the McElroy case.

Among the child kidnappings the case of James de Jute of Niles, O., was of special public interest because it occurred the day after the Lindbergh baby was stolen. Two kidnapers have been sent to prison for life in that case.

In every case except those of the Robles baby and Gettles, now under investigation, the fate of the victim has been established. In nearly all cases he was finally freed.

Boettcher was kept prisoner from February 12, 1933, to March 1, O'Connell was in the hands of kidnapers 23 days, Urschel, the Oklahoma oil man, was a prisoner of the notorious Machine Gun Kelly eight days, and Edward Bremer was kept imprisoned from January 17 to February 7 of this year. The latter case has not yet been closed, though part of the ransom money—amounting to $200,000—has been recovered.

WOMEN ENJOY "SAMPLE FAIR"

Large Attendance Yesterday at Wesleyan Guild's Affair.

Mrs. William T. Burgess and her committee from the Wesleyan Guild of the South Methodist church, under whose auspices the Sample Fair was held at the Masonic Temple yesterday, were congratulated on the success of the venture both from a social as well as a profitable viewpoint. The business people concerned also lauded the management.

More than 60 out-of-town manufacturers of grocery staples, drugs and household conveniences contributed samples sufficient to supply 500 persons—the limit placed on the ticket sale. All around the banquet hall local merchants and utility companies had booths for the display of their merchandise.

Groups of the church women were on hand to greet all who stopped at their counters and to serve them with estables or samples, worth many times the modest admission fee. Small tables were placed throughout the hall so that guests might sit down for a social cup of coffee, cold drinks, a hot pancake with syrup, sandwiches, cookies and ice cream, or a whole pint of delicious milk if they didn't care to take it home.

During the afternoon a fashion show absorbed the attention of all present. Later, a march was held at permanent ways was demonstrated to all who could get within sight and hearing of the expert. A feature of the fair was the chance to win more than 200 items, articles donated by the various merchants and personal tools or roses by the Manchester nurserymen. The tendance was greatest during the afternoon. The thunderstorm in the evening doubtless prevented many from attending.

Mrs. Burgess was assisted by Mrs. Frits Noren, Mrs. Edward O'Malley, Mrs. Robert Seaman, Mrs. C. A. Goodrich, Mrs. Horace Murphey, Mrs. Jay Rand, Mrs. Lawrence Case, Mrs. Harold Cude, Mrs. Howard Boyd, Mrs. H. L. Carr, Mrs. Paul Ferris, Mrs. Clarence Bidwell, Mrs. F. A. Randall, Mrs. Albert Holman, Mrs. Harold Richmond, Mrs. Earl Seaman, Mrs. George Harris, Miss Thelma Carr and other members of the Wesleyan Guild.

JAP KILLER HANGED

Walla Walla, Wash., May 11.—(AP)—Ted Bradley was hanged here early today for the murder more than two years ago of George Ikeda, Seattle Japanese.

The trap was sprung at 12:05 p.m. and at 12:20 a. m., the prison physician declared him dead.

DONNA of the BIG TOP

by BEULAH POYNTER
 © 1934 NEA SERVICE, INC.

BEGIN HERE TODAY

DONNA GABRIEL and MADIELNE SIDDAL who call themselves "The Gabriel Sisters" are circus performers. Years earlier Madeline ran away from her grandfather's home.

When Donna is injured in a fall from the trapeze Madeline arranges for her to be taken to GRANDFATHER SIDDAL'S farm. To please her partner Donna pretends to be Madeline. She falls in love with BILL DODD, Madeline's cousin, and though she is ashamed of deceiving Bill and Grandfather she is afraid to tell them the truth.

Messyville Madeline marries COLE DAVIS, an actor, and then she is forced to leave him and the circus. He tells her he is going to put her in his animal act. NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY

CHAPTER XIV
 Almost before Con David had kissed his bride, the entire circus troupe descended upon them. Down the Pullman aisle came the strange folk, rattling tin cans and drums raising a blatanst din above the grind of the train wheels and the chug-chug of the engine. State room doors were thrown open. Chairs and cushions were flung into the aisles. Hampers of food and against all regulations, bottles of wine and beer were produced. Every one from clown to musician from equestrian star to midget, had something to contribute to the festivity in the way of food or song or comedy.

Renfro, who had had a good week, was the gayest of all. With the mercurial spirit of the trouper, he was certain that business was going to be good now. Didn't the weather reports for the next few days predict sunny skies? And sunshine brought the farmers to town and sent pennies into Renfro's pockets. Beside that a wedding always brought good luck.

La Belle Madide, regal in black satin and diamonds, had few occasions to be supervised and supervised she had been ready to denounce Madeline as a trouble-maker, but that was over. Madeline was a bride now.

Two acrobats seized the girl in their strong, muscular arms and flung her upon the upper berth. Some one demanded a speech and Madeline, between giggles of embarrassment and the bravos of the crowd, proclaimed her great happiness and gratitude to them all.

When it was time for Con to make a speech it was discovered that he had disappeared. During the merry-making and confusion he had slipped from the car to the adjoining train, where he hid in a couch in the smoking room and fallen asleep.

His absence was a signal for the crowd to disperse, though none of them realized as Madeline did (since she one she knew that Con did not love her) that the celebration of his wedding was like pouring vinegar into an open wound.

Madeline was pale and weary when she bade the crowd good night. Then she sat down to wait for her husband's return. She had few illusions about her marriage. Con had played the gallant to save her, with no intention of marrying her, really. Between herself and Renfro he had been captivated into publicity stunts that made a husband and wife. He never argued, he need not insult her the way. He hadn't been compelled to tell Renfro they were engaged, and whether Donna ever married Bill Sidral or not she certainly would never have married Con.

"Damn!" Madeline muttered. "Why did I have to make all that fuss? Just when he seemed to care something for me they had to come in and spoil everything! But I don't care! I won't care! I'm his wife and he's my husband, nothing he does will send me away from him!"

But because she loved him and because more than her pride was hurt by his indifference she burst into her sob that shook her from head to foot.

Daylight crept under the blinds, streaking a pattern of yellow on the strip of carpet beside her bed. It made gray and bleak the whitewashed walls of the stateroom and showed the girl's swollen eyelids, the tense lines about her mouth, and the bluish pallor of her face.

Madeline rose, swaying dizzily, and stared at her reflection in the mirror. "My wedding night," she laughed grimly. "My wedding night! Well, the joke's on me! What a hag I look!"

She bathed her face in cold water, opened her makeup box and proceeded to rouge her cheeks and lips. When her appearance was improved she opened the stateroom door and peered into the aisle. It was still in darkness. A draft of cold air made her shiver. She lifted a shawl from the untouched berth, pulled it about her bare shoulders and then crept cautiously, noiselessly down the corridor.

On right and left doors were closed, but from the slatted transoms issued moans and audible breathing.

She stepped out on the platform and stood in the chill morning air, letting the wind tangle her curls until her bewildered senses cleared a trifle. Then she went into the next car. The smoking room door was ajar. Con, in his wedding suit, sprawled on the couch, one arm flung over his head, the other hanging limp at his side.

Her lips twisted as she stood looking at him. Then, with a half-defiant toss of her head, she entered the room, closed the door behind her and crossed to his side. She bent over him and placed her hand on his forehead.

"He moved," opened his eyes, blinked in bewilderment and then sat upright. "Has the gang gone yet?" he asked.

"Gone? It's morning. I didn't want any one to find you here. It might cause talk."

"Morning?" He looked towards the window. "Good Lord! Have I slept here all night?"

"You have."

"Oh, I'm sorry. Why did you let me?"

She turned her face away so he could not see the quivering of her chin and her tear-filled eyes.

"I thought you did it on purpose."

"You know I didn't. I couldn't stand their racket and—"

"I know," she interrupted bitterly. "You were thinking how different everything would have been if Donna were there instead of me."

"We won't speak of her," he said coldly. "If you're going to lay the blame on Donna every time I do anything you dislike, well, get along about as peacefully as a lion and a tiger. I'm not used to staying awake much after midnight and I was tired. Maybe that doesn't seem much of an excuse to you—but I didn't intend to hurt you. You've got to believe that."

"If you loved me nothing could have kept you away from me last night," she said.

He took her hands and pulled her around, facing him. "Let's get this straight, Madeline. I never said I was crazy about you but I think you're a nice kid. I'm fond of you. You said you loved me and would take me just as I was. I'm no good at pretenses—and if I was 'I would' make them. Too much of an effort. But there's no reason why we can't be happy together if you don't get false notions and jealousy in your head. Probably I'll make you a better husband than I if I were mad about you. And I promise not to walk out on you again. Forgive me?"

"Yes."

He laughed and, bending, gave her a perfunctory kiss. She clung to him, her moist lips pressed against his. "I love you so," she sobbed. "I love you so terribly, Con."

"But you mustn't. Too much love only causes headaches. I know from experience."

She drew back with a sharp intake of breath. "Donna," she cried.

"Stop it. I was in love with her once, but that's dead. I wouldn't walk across the street to save her from perdition now. Just remember that when green devils get hold of you."

"You—hate her?" breathlessly. "I certainly am not going to waste affection on another man's wife."

He pulled into the siding near the lot where the circus performance was to be held.

Con, who always attended mass when it was possible, asked Madeline if she wanted to accompany him. She agreed eagerly, but when she added that they might have a priest remarry them with a church ceremony, he frowned and said it could be done after when they played a longer engagement somewhere.

By one o'clock, when they returned from services, the tents had been raised and Con strolled off to inspect his cargo of cats. While the men who cared for and fed the animals were to be trusted, Con never failed to visit them. An aching tooth, an ingrown nail or an irritating insect might cause his own death.

The new Bengal tiger, in a cage alone, snarled viciously and Madeline beside her husband, shrank back with a little cry of terror.

Con laughed at her fears. "The poor thing is nasty because she isn't used to confinement. But isn't she a beauty? Don't believe I ever saw a handsomer animal. Wait until your spirit is broken, old lady," he added, leaning near the bars.

"Don't do that!" Madeline rasped. "That's no way to begin." He said, turning to her. "The first thing you have to do is to conquer your own fear. I think we'll have between your teeth—now. Yes, after lunch we'll see how you can behave in a cage of lions."

Deaths Last Night

Wellington, Kas.—Robert E. Willett, 50, a former pitcher for the Detroit Tigers.

Vera Cruz, Mexico—Col. Manuel Contreras, Mexican hero in the defense of Vera Cruz, April 21, 1914.

Harlan, Ky.—John Henry Blair, 82, sheriff of Harlan county during the mine labor troubles of 1931 and 1932.

New York—Isaac Koch, 61, president of a wholesale furniture house and founder of the New York Furniture Exchange.

Hantsport, N. S., May 11.—(AP)—Fire raging through $20,000 worth of pulwood threatened the mill of the Minas Pulp and Paper Company today.

The office and adjoining building were burning and the mill was directly in the path of the flames.

Rangers directing hundreds of volunteers expressed fears a shifting wind might threaten the entire township of Hantsport.

A group of men from the mill ventured into the danger zone and carried out several boxes of dynamite and dynamite caps which had been causing anxiety.

DEATH DIVIDES TWIN BROTHERS

One Dies, Other Lives, as Pneumonia Attacks Two Brooklyn Infants.

Brooklyn, May 11.—(AP)—One lost and the other won today in the effort of twin six months old brothers to stave off death.

Roy Barry, the smaller and the weaker, succumbed to pneumonia at 3:40 this morning, in the 116th Brooklyn flat that was his home.

But Ross Barry who weighed six pounds at birth to two and a half lb. his brother, was reported in "good condition" and apparently out of danger.

Just a year ago today the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Barry, lost both of their first twins, Vera and Eileen, one year old, also because of pneumonia.

Neighbors and the family had prayed the second pair might be spared, and police, volunteer doctor and nurse, and two gas companies worked that they might live.

The father, a clerk and carpenter, has been unemployed for nearly a year. There are three other children, Ronald, 8; Max, 7, and Robert 3.

FIRE THREATENS MILL

Hantsport, N. S., May 11.—(AP)—Fire raging through $20,000 worth of pulwood threatened the mill of the Minas Pulp and Paper Company today.

The office and adjoining building were burning and the mill was directly in the path of the flames.

Rangers directing hundreds of volunteers expressed fears a shifting wind might threaten the entire township of Hantsport.

SENSE and NONSENSE

Friday is considered unlucky because it was the day on which Christ was crucified.

Mrs. Newrich had given the landscape artist full authority and he was showing her over the formal garden he had just completed for her.

Mrs. Newrich (pointing) — What is that?

Landscape Artist — That is a sundial.

Mrs. Newrich — What's a sundial, Landscape Artist — That is to tell the time of day. The sun moving through the heavens casts a shadow which is recorded on the dial, indicating the time of day.

Mrs. Newrich (beaming with interest) — My goodness! These modern inventions! What will they be thinking of next?

We know a girl who is so dumb she thinks a thimble is one of those things that goes on the top of a hip flask.

Sweet Revenge
I would I were the rouge upon your cheeks;
Then life would be one long, delightful frolic.
When touched by lips of bold, bad rival geeks,
I'd give each one the painter's colic.

Photographer (to woman sitter) — Look pleasant, please.

Sitter — I get the idea.

Photographer (click, click) — Now you can resume your natural expression.

After chasing a street car for blocks, or a boy for years, says a well known girl, nothing equals the feeling of disappointment of finding you've caught the wrong one.

A manager of a concern was presenting a purse and a watch to one of the employees who was leaving the concern. The purse and watch were gifts of the other employees. After a long flattering speech, the manager would up with: "The contents of this—holding up the purse—"may in time disappear. But"—holding up the watch—"here is something that will never go."

Joe — I've just come from a dog show.
Sam — Did you win a prize?

Never Bother About The Man Who Calls You Names To Your Face, But Beware Of The "Bird" Who Goes Around And Talks About You Behind Your Back.

Wife — Why does the whistle blow for a fire?
Husband — It doesn't blow for the fire, it blows for water. They've got the fire.

No Matter What You Do, Somebody Always Knows You Would.
