ABOUT TOWN

Mrs. William Engleton, who prior to her marriage on July 9 was Miss Ida Jarvis, was the guest of honor at a luncheon given last evening at the cottage of Miss Louise C. Ham at Coventry lake.

Mrs. Annie Telford and Mrs. Hetty Bliska are co-chairmen of a food sale which the degree team of the Daughters of Liberty will conduct Saturday in the vacant store on Main street next door to Silbro's.

The choir of the Polish National church on Odway street will rehearse tomorrow evening at 7:30 o'clock the beginners at 8:30, the junior choir at 9 and the seniors at 9:30.

Frank Julian, of 509 Spruce street, has been accepted for the Civilian Conservation Corps and was sent to Fort Warren today. He will be connected with the 171st Company.

STOP HERE for Expert SERVICE! GENERATOR STARTER REPAIRS. We can save you expense and annoyance as we have instruments which can locate all electrical trouble quickly.

Of interest to a number of Manchester people is the coming marriage of Miss Alice Cox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joel W. Cox of the Boulevard, West Hartford, and William L. Kronholm, son of Mrs. Alena Kronholm of Bradford. Both are members of the Manchester Country club. The date for the marriage is August 11.

A special meeting of the Manchester Radio Club will be held tomorrow at 7 o'clock at home of Secretary Ralph Ingraham of Monroe street. It is important that all members be present at this meeting.

Miss Hattie Strickland, clerk in the office of Town Clerk Samuel Huntington, who is in New Rochelle, N. Y., at the present time, is expected back on the job Monday.

Contrary to expectations in this town, Rev. John F. Kenney, acting pastor of St. Bridget's Roman Catholic church, was not made the permanent pastor in the list of promotions and transfers of priests in the Hartford diocese made public last night by Most Rev. Maurice F. McAuliffe, bishop of the diocese.

Twelve priests were promoted to become assistant chancellors of the diocese, while 10 were appointed pastors of churches. The appointments are effective July 24.

PLAN CHECK-LIST VOTING IN NINTH

Committee of Opinion Important Problems Urged to Be Decided That Way.

The date of the next special meeting of the Ninth school district to act upon a petition of 21 residents that the charter of the district be cancelled will not be set until the committee can ascertain how long it will take to prepare a check-list of the district voters.

At last night's meeting Howell Cheney was named chairman again. He was elected to the committee for a three year term. At Friday night's meeting, other members of the committee are Rev. William Woodruff, Philip Cheney, Edward E. Taylor, Miss Emily Kissam, and Charles E. Martin.

It was decided last night not to divide the general committee into sub-committees. Previously members of the committee were assigned to separate committees, having charge of the library and recreation functions of the district. It was decided that the committee as a whole would act on both functions this year.

RECREATION CENTER ITEMS OF INTEREST

The swimming pool at the School Street Recreation Center will probably not be open this week. Repairs being made have taken longer than expected. An announcement will be made in The Herald when the pool is ready. The showers are available, however.
