HOLD-UP FEARED IN SOUTHTON

Salesman Reports Two Cars Filled With Men Looking Over the Bank.

New Britain, Oct. 19. (AP)—State Police were notified in Southington today to prevent the possibility of the holdup of a bank...

A traveling salesman, approaching Southington from Waterbury, noted two automobiles filled with men ahead of him which stopped frequently to exchange passengers.

His suspicions aroused, the salesman stopped and watched them and later took up their trail as they drove toward Plainville.

He reported in Southington today that the Meriden police had detained for questioning several men who are said to have had photographs of the Southington bank in their possession.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Question: Miss Amelia K. asks: "What would you suggest to drink in place of coffee, as I am nervous, and I think that coffee is bad?" Answer: Substitute some "tealike" tea. This is made by adding a small amount of cream to a cup of water. It makes a pleasing warm drink and will not make you nervous.

THE CLEW OF THE FORGOTTEN MURDER

By CARLETON KENDRICK

By Olive Roberts Barton

When DAN HLEKZAK, publisher of the Blade, learns that a buried settlement was completed with the Blade because of his husband's death, he is not a little surprised. "Not because of the article," said Mrs. Cathay. "Not because of the article," said Mrs. Cathay. "Not because of the article," said Mrs. Cathay.

YOUR CHILDREN

By Olive Roberts Barton

A kindergarten teacher has put this problem up to her.

TOLLAND

The third and fourth degree were conferred on a class of candidates in the Tolland Grange Tuesday evening last.
