

ATTITUDE CHANGED TOWARD UTILITIES

Investment Bankers Declare Time Is Past to Protest Against Any Government Competition.

White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., Oct. 30.—(AP)—Planners of the public utility industry were told by the Investment Bankers Association today that the time for protest against competition from Federal and municipal governments is past, that it is now up to the privately owned companies to justify themselves by providing the most efficient service.

This represented a dramatic change of policy on the part of the association, now in its fourth day of its annual convention here. It has in the past issued vehement protests and long arguments against the entrance of the government in the electric power and light business. Its new attitude as voiced by its committee on public service securities in its annual report to the convention, was in keeping with the association's new approach toward Federal regulation of the securities business, which was made public in a ground that the banks now face a threat, that the time for argument is past.

Former Protests
 Referring to its protests against government ownership and operation three years ago, the association's committee said the threats at that time have now "become overt acts." Fundamental principles are by way of being tested and failures of the industry must be pointed out by argument but by actual experience. The committee thought the industry could meet the test of competition, particularly from municipal plants, but felt that the entrance of the Federal government into the business presents a different and a much blacker picture.

This challenge, said the leaders "is to the leadership of the industry itself, and that leadership which has demonstrated the highest efficiency in its extraordinary development of the business and in which all its operating problems cannot fail to meet them."

Watch Developments
 The investment bankers, the report said, "will watch developments."

PLAN MADE JOBS FOR THIS WINTER

Government Studies Expansion of Public Works That May Cost Millions.

Washington, Oct. 30.—(AP)—The government today announced a plan for a direct tax on payrolls to support unemployment insurance development to the depression of some of their terms.

The Federal Public Works Administration was known to be studying an expansion of public works and work relief.

Only the Chief Executive and—in the last analysis—the Legislature can say just how much will be appropriated for PWA by the next Congress. Some believe it may run into billions.

Plan Made Jobs
 Through huge numbers will remain on direct relief, Secretary James F. W. F. director, are believed to be working together even more closely, in an effort to get many people off direct relief into made-jobs.

Hopkins also has been seeking to rehabilitate jobless persons by lump sum loans.

The President's economic security committee is considering several plans of unemployment insurance, all of which involve a tax on industrial payrolls.

To take the Congress
 The plan will be completed in two weeks for submission to President Roosevelt and is January to Congress.

Yesterday saw two relief demonstrations in western states. A group designated "The General Strike Committee" led 500 persons to Columbia state house, and asked Governor Johnson to curb what they called Federal relief "abuses." Calling the leaders "just another bunch of Communists," he said he was not the relief administrator.

A band of men, women and children camped in front of the Texas Capitol in Austin and swore they would starve in public until they got relief. They abandoned the hunger strike, however, after they had been fed. He later broke his fast by buying a cup of coffee.

Some Toledo automobile workers got good news when David R. Wilson, receiver and president of the Willys Overland company, announced 600 men would be recalled to work in early November.

HAUPTMANN ASKS FOR BOOK TO READ

Sheriff Supplies It But Forgets to Note Its Title — Gets Letters.

Phenington, N. J., Oct. 30.—(AP)—Bruno Richard Hauptmann, Lindbergh kidnap-suspect, got a new book to read today, Sheriff John H. Curtis forgot to notice the name of it.

The sheriff said that Hauptmann had finished reading Emil Ludwig's biography of Abraham Lincoln, and asked for another book. The local library supplied the book, and the sheriff delivered it to his prisoner without, he admitted in some embarrassment, looking at its title. He said he'll have to do that later.

Another thing the sheriff said he'd do later would be to turn over to Hauptmann a list of 300 names of prospective jurors will be posted in the sheriff's office. From this list a special panel of 48 will be drawn for the Hauptmann trial by the sheriff and jury commissioners.

The panel is exhausted before a jury is completed, additional names will be drawn from the list.

There is no limit to the number of challenges allowed either prosecution or defense for cause, such as prejudice, opposition to capital punishment, etc. The defense is limited to 20 peremptory challenges, and the prosecution to 10.

A. & P. Employees Try To Save Jobs As 300 Stores Are Shut

High School Hall was filled last night at an enthusiastic rally of the Democratic party led by Governor Wilbur L. Cross, Congressman Herman P. Koppelman and supported by eleven state and local party candidates. The rally was preceded by a parade over the Army and Navy club where the candidates were accorded a reception by President Arthur McCann and other club members.

Party President
 The rally was opened shortly after 8 o'clock by Democratic Town Committee Chairman, Thomas Danaher. He stated that the Democratic party had made the best record this year of any year in its history in acquiring new voters and proposed a great year. Chairman Danaher introduced Attorney Harold W. Gerrity, who also complimented the party on the record made by its members.

Gerrity was present at the rally was the largest he had ever seen in a similar meeting in Manchester.

Chairman Gerrity said that President Roosevelt had done many things since he had taken office and that the only question before the people today is "Are we going back on Roosevelt or are we first year with tried legislation?" He said that the present outlook was bright and that the Home Owners' Loan, his boy taken care of and some assistance given the head of the family from a boy in CCC camp and the rising current of Democratic support for the President's policies is a result of these attempts to better the people's condition.

Koppelman speaks
 Chairman Koppelman introduced Congressman Herman P. Koppelman, stating that he went down to Washington without any record for the past few years. He was a speaker and was supposed, in his first year with tried legislation, due to generous applause when he took the speaker's station on the platform.

Congressman Koppelman did not do that, the speaker stated, in the House with the result that he had the farmer and worker in many ways through the support of administration bills. Congressman Koppelman was greeted by a cheering crowd of people who took the speaker's station on the platform.

President Roosevelt brought back more confidence in a few weeks after his inauguration. Mr. Koppelman said opening his address, that he had been shown in all of the Republican administrations over the past 32 years. He said that when he arrived in Washington he at once busied himself keeping the promises he had made the electorate. His responsibility was to take on electric light bills, pay by

LOU TELLEGEN KILLS HIMSELF WITH SCISSORS

Hollywood, Cal.—(AP)—Lou Tellegen, one time stage and screen idol is dead, the victim of repeated thrusts of a pair of scissors into his breast.

Tellegen said the wounds obviously were self-inflicted. Friends said the actor had been in poor health for some time.

32 year old actor, broken in health and doing bit parts in the movies, Tellegen was found dead in the home of Mrs. John T. Cuddey, widow of the meat packer, and benefactor of the charity. She had her butler to learn why Tellegen had not left his room since breakfast.

The death weapon was jabbed into the actor's breast seven times but police surgeons said only one of the wounds was fatal. The blood stains tell by near his outstretched right hand rather than his left.

Tellegen died only a few days ago.

U. S. LABOR BOARD ACTS TO MEDIATE IN A. & P. DISPUTE

PROPOSE RADICAL CHARITY CHANGES

Heads of Families to Get Cash and Work It Out on Projects.

A radical change in the charity system of the town was voted last night at a meeting of the Board of Selectmen at the home of Chairman Aaron Cook. As soon as arrangements can be made, all heads of families will be given cash from the Federal relief fund in lieu of grocery or rent orders and the recipients will work out the amount on town work projects.

The Selectmen pointed out that they felt that the town should get something from the men on the charity list and the plan was endorsed by the Board to take effect immediately.

System Adopted
 Those on the charity list will be given 40 cents an hour for all work done by the town weekly until the required amount given the worker has been worked out. Case records of all charity recipients will be checked by the charity department with the assistance of the workers' union. The town will be required to assure the town that all those receiving charity are entitled to it. Budgets for each family will be checked and will be made to conform with the town's needs.

It is believed that the 779 families on the charity list, fully 100 men will be available to start this project and that there have been many men who objected to receiving outright charity, and the new plan is expected to be received with favor by many who have sought work rather than outright charity.

Cleveland stores of the A. & P. were closed yesterday with an announcement that the company was quitting business here. Officials of the company said union picketing of the warehouses had prevented the shipment of merchandise to the stores, and charged that Cleveland police had not given the company requested protection.

Mayor Harry L. Davis, however, denied that protection had been denied the firm and said it was given all the help it asked for.

With more than 2,000 Cleveland employees of the concern forced out of work by the closing of the stores, several efforts are in progress today to adjust the differences between the company and the union.

Officials of the company and representatives of the Cleveland Federation of Labor arrived in Washington today for a peace conference called by the National Labor Relations Board, and other peace efforts were in process in Cleveland.

SOCIALISTS TAKE PART
 New York, Oct. 30.—(AP)—Housewives were enlisted today by the Socialist Party in an effort to compel the Great Atlantic and Pacific Tea Company to open its stores in Cleveland, O.

John Altman, secretary of the labor committee of the Socialist Party of New York City, said that a committee of housewives had been instructed to visit the offices of the A. & P. in New York and ask officials to reopen the Cleveland stores.

Altman said that orders had gone out from National Headquarters of the Socialist Party to all local divisions calling for organization of committees of housewives.

If the A. & P. does not accede to the demand for reopening the stores, he said, the housewives will institute a boycott against the company's stores throughout the country.

Altman also said that members of the Socialist Party began to picket local A. & P. stores today. He estimated that about 100 picketers were on duty, and predicted this number would be tripled by tomorrow.

Altman said that if necessary housewives would be asked to sign petitions promising they would not buy at A. & P. stores.

HELP PROMISED
 Washington, Oct. 30.—(AP)—Assistant Secretary of War William C. Clegg said today that the 100 per cent unionization was the result of the union's demand for 7A of the Recovery Act. That guarantee to labor the right of collective bargaining.

John Hartford, president of the A. & P., said men would be recalled to work any possibility of the company's stores throughout the country.

WILCOX CALLS ON CROSS TO ANSWER HIS QUERIES

Seeks Information As to Calling Out of Guardsmen During Textile Strike — Cross Talks on Liquor.

By ASSOCIATED PRESS
 Bucking on their armor, Democratic, Republican and Socialist nominees for office began their last week campaigning in earnest with verbal exchanges and attacks on each other well up to the mark of last week.

Lieut. Gov. Roy C. Wilcox in a broadcast, he having been to all on the hustings, returned to interrogations of Governor Cross as to the calling out of the National Guard during the textile strike.

Wilcox asked the governor to answer on a point card, previous questions put to him. "I'll promise not to give out the answers until November 7, if you say the word" said the Lieutenant Governor. "You know"

REYNOLDS' FORTUNE INVOLVED IN SUIT

Baby Son of Libby Holman Enters Litigation Over Tobacco Man's Millions.

Winston-Salem, N. C., Oct. 30.—(AP)—Christopher Smith Reynolds, posthumous son of the late Smith Reynolds and Mrs. Libby Holman Reynolds, today entered the litigation over disposal of his father's tobacco millions.

A petition asking that the baby son of the former Broadway Trust be allowed to intervene in the motion of the Cabarrus Bank and Trust Company to set aside a settlement made by Reynolds on his first wife and her child was filed with William B. Church, clerk of Superior Court here, by Fulkhoff and McLellan and Graves, counsel for Mrs. Libby Holman Reynolds.

Church immediately appointed Robert C. Vaughn of Winston-Salem as "next friend" of the baby and a hearing on the petition was set for Monday before Judge P. A. McCoy.

All heirs involved
 The move brought the late Smith Reynolds' heirs into the litigation, making the outcome binding upon all Reynolds' brother and sisters and their children, previously had been main parties to the action.

As guardian of Agricultural Economic funds, H. Child of Smith Reynolds and his first wife, Mrs. Anne Cannon Reynolds, were named in the suit.

NATION'S FARMERS BETTER OFF NOW

Cash Income This Year Greatly Increased Over Same Period Last Year.

New York, Oct. 30.—(AP)—Washington is conservatively cheered by the finding that when all crops are finally harvested the farmer will "dig in" for the winter with a much larger pocketbook than last year.

In sharp contrast to conditions prevailing in industry, where earnings statements and labor disorders reflect the stress and strain of the hard times, farm income in the first nine months was reported by the Bureau of Agricultural Economics to have totalled $4,519,000,000 compared with $3,479,000,000 in the same period last year.

The flags of all the states where the Women's National Republican Club has units are massed in the assembly room where Mrs. Coolidge will speak.

Tonight Mrs. Coolidge will be a guest of honor with Mrs. James Roosevelt, mother of the President, at a Y. W. C. A. rally.

TREASURY BALANCE
 Washington, Oct. 30.—(AP)—The position of the Treasury on October 27 was: Receipts, $12,033,016.27; expenditures, $10,430,000.12; balance, $1,603,016.15; customs receipts for the month, $27,502,574.12.

Receipts for the fiscal year (since July 1), $1,191,307,655.41; expenditures, $2,119,425,071.29 (including $1,068,897,228.56 of emergency expenditures); excess of expenditures, $928,117,415.87; gold assets, $7,997,187,280.47.

COOLIDGE LIBRARY DEDICATED TODAY

Widow of Former President to Make Brief Address During the Ceremonies.

New York, Oct. 30.—(AP)—Mrs. Calvin Coolidge arrived quietly last night for the dedication today of the Calvin Coolidge library at the Women's National Republican Club.

She will speak for five minutes at a half-hour ceremony late this afternoon. In the club's George Washington small group of club members will attend the dedication. They will hear extracts from Mr. Coolidge's writing, read by William R. Castle, Jr., his assistant secretary of state, and his address by F. Tribus Davidson, his assistant secretary of war.

Then Anna Chase, the former Metropolitan opera star, now Mrs. Clarence Mackay, will sing "The Battle Hymn of the Republic."

Thousands of books
 Books line the pine-paneled walls of the library from floor to ceiling. Among the thousands of volumes are Mrs. Coolidge's books, and several of her favorite books on politics.
