NEED CROP CONTROL, SAYS SEC. WALLACE

But in Future Farming Will Be Expanded; Not Reduced, He Tells the Grangers.

Hartford, Nov. 20.—(AP)—Secretary Wallace defined the future course of agricultural adjustment today as one of "controlled expansion rather than reduction."

Speaking before the National Grange he declared that "to permit a controlled expansion and also to permit agriculture profitably to produce enough to tide the country over years of drought ought to be our objective."

He warned the farm group of a prospective drive to scrap crop control by "sincere idealists, laissez faire economic experts and various groups interested in volume."

Forecast Opposite

Because certain surpluses have whittled down because farm incomes are rising and because of the consequences of the drought, he said "I can foresee a powerful drive in and out of Congress to remove any and all restrictions on agricultural production."

"I have the feeling that the various processors, handlers, and carriers may perhaps join with the more voracious consumers and possibly certain farm groups to suggest this winter that we should remove all restrictions on agricultural production."

"We must play with the cards that are dealt," he said. "Agriculture cannot survive in a capitalist society as a philanthropic enterprise. If the cry of thousands of American farmers think of all those hungry Chinamen were heeded, hundreds of thousands of American families would be destroyed."

Rage Frenzied

No one believes in the profit system, he added, and who grants the right to control its production can fairly deny agriculture the same right.

The secretary said he, too, was for unrestricted production provided there is a sufficient excess of imports to service the deficit of the foreign nations and in addition to pay a fair price for our exportable surplus, and provided, furthermore, that shipment of these excess products abroad does not impede the domestic market.

FEDERAL SLEUTHS SEEK MISSING MAN

—Kidnap Notes Only Recently Received.

Philadelphia, Nov. 20.—(AP)—Federal agents making a belated start in the search for William Weiss, wealthy night life figure who vanished more than three weeks ago, clamped a lid of secrecy on their movements today.

They acknowledged only that Weiss has been missing since October 28; that his family has received a note from a "donor" threatening death to Weiss if $100,000 is not paid, and that they have been working toward a solution since Sunday night, when the missing man's family sought their help.

Many Rumors

The circles in which Weiss is known are full of rumors and theories, none of which the Federal operative will discuss. He is reported to be the captive of underworld characters who originally intended to abduct Max (Boo Boo) Hoff, a friend of Weiss. Hoff is a boxing manager and is understood to be in Hollywood, Calif., with a number of girlfriends.

Weiss and his wife lived in near-by Overbrook Hills where he maintained a two and a half story house, Colonial in architecture, and spacious lawn and garden. He left that home for downtown Philadelphia on October 28 and has not been seen since by his family.

Legion

The door of an office he occupied in a Philadelphia building bore the name of a firm that is supposed to be a Canadian liquor manufacturer or distributor of which Weiss is the reputed local agent.

W. George Harvey, head of the special investigation unit of the Department of Justice here, questioned one man said to be a friend of Weiss for two hours. The man then left in the company of two operatives. Harvey's office made it known that it had been aware of Weiss' activities.

"There were no notes or threats received before I was notified last night that we know of," Harvey said. "The first note was received a few days later. We do not know the details of the kidnapping."

Asked reports that Robert Main, Philadelphia gunman who shot his way out of jail in Richmond, Va., on September 29 while awaiting extradition to the principal suspect in the Bremer kidnaping, Weiss, Harvey said definitely "we aren't looking for Main."

FEAR LYNNING OF NEGRO WHO MURDERED TWO

Confesses He Killed Two Small Girls — Feeling
Runs High Among the White Residents.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 20.—(AP)—Philip Jones, 28-year-old negro, was held under heavy guard in the county jail today after authorities announced he had confessed to the slaying of two young Clifton Forge girls, Alice and Ellen Hill.

Henrico county officials said Jones will be held here for several days before being taken to the Clifton Forge jail to face a charge of murder.

Sheriff Seay said that in his confession Jones avowed all guilt three other negroes arrested with him, Arthur Wittmer, Arthur Smith and John Fryer.

Feeling Runs High

Racial feeling ran high in Clifton Forge but it subsided somewhat after it was learned that Jones had been brought here for safe-keeping. At the peak of the excitement last night, the tenant home of Jones and his wife was burned to the ground.

Sheriff Seay said Jones steadfastly denied he had attacked the elder of the girls, Ellen, 13. A coroner's report said she had been criminally attacked.

The sheriff said that in his confession Jones said he had gone to Clifton Forge and Springfield, Va., to buy a car, and had brought him back home, leaving him on the side of the road near his home.

U. S. URGES PUBLICITY ON ALL ARMS ORDERS

Bold Proposal Made at Geneva—Plan Calls for
No Secrecy in Manufacture of Armaments.

Geneva, Nov. 20.—(AP)—A bold attempt to bottle up the arms trade from revolvers to battleplanes was made today by the United States in awaking proposals laid before the steering committee of the disarmament conference.

Power to investigate the arms manufacture and trade of any country signing a convention for a rigid license system and full publicity for all arms orders were provided in the most complete munitions document placed here in almost three years of disarmament argument.

$54,000 Stolen and Bank
Knew Nothing About It—
Three Are Held.

Chicago, Nov. 20.—(AP)—An alleged $54,000 bank swindle that evaded the institution's officials were aware of was confessed today by a ledger clerk who told his story in a confession to police.

The man, who held his story in a confession to police, said he had a "clean slate."

Three were held in connection with the alleged plot—the clerk, Otto von Derck, Joseph Bluff, alias Joseph Bremer, a former Communist Party worker, and a woman, who was arrested in a Massachusetts bank and charged with conspiracy.

BIG WASTE OF RELIEF FUNDS, BORAH STATES

Declares That in One State a Million Dollars Have Vanished — His Other Charges.

Washington, Nov. 20.—(AP)—Senator Borah of Idaho pressed a campaign today for Congressional investigation into his charges of "large wastes" in relief funds. To the charges he added the allegation that in one state a million dollars has vanished.

In a radio speech last night in the Washington Evening Star's forum, the Independent Republican said that he has offered no evidence and that the cost of administration of relief amounts to only 1.14 per cent.

He said he had a report that in one western county $572 was spent on admittance $4, worth of rent.

Declaring he was not charging the integrity of Administrator Harry L. Hopkins he added most of the facts he cited were known to FEPA in Washington.

Information There

"I do not charge," he said, "that these matters have been brought to the attention of Mr. Hopkins, but the information is there and is subject to his call."

He said he heard there is a "No Man's Land" in accounting between FEPA and state relief administrations, with each side believing the other responsible.

"The Federal government should be responsible for the administration of Federal funds," he said, "and should require a strict accounting for every dollar of his money."

The source of "waste," Borah said, is in the administration of the funds in the field. The administrative pay roll is enormous.

Washington, Nov. 20.—(AP)—Replying to new charges of waste in handling relief funds, the House of Representatives today asked the Senator to supply information on the matter.

POLICE, STUDENTS IN FREE FOR ALL

1,000 College Boys Stage
Riot Because 21 Students
Were Expelled.

New York, Nov. 20.—(AP)—Fists flew and several men were knocked down as police and striking graduates clashed on the City College campus today.

About 1,000 students gathered around the flagpole of the campus to protest the action of President Frederick B. Robinson in expelling 21 undergraduates for staging a demonstration during the visit here last month of a delegation of Italian students.

Although the protesters had been forbidden to meet at the flagpole, they gathered there anyway and Charles Milgrim, an expelled student, mounted the base of the pole and began to speak. He did not get very far.

In the name of the strike committee I am about to call a strike," a policeman rushed up. "Get down from there!"

The policeman pushed Milgrim from the base, and the angry students clung to him. Professor George M. Brett made a well-timed appearance and took Milgrim's place on the improvised rostrum. He told the students they might use Lewiston Stadium for their meeting.

The eight patrolmen on duty then directed the strikers to go to the stadium, and the students got as far as the main building of the college when they decided this should not be.

Many Blow Struck

"Cops off the campus! Cops off the campus!" they chanted, and began to repeat the herding tactics of the police. A struggle ensued in which numerous blows were struck and several men knocked down.

To avert a serious disorder, college authorities announced the students might return to the flagpole and speak, but the membership will have been given, an expelled student, was escorted off the campus by the police and told not to return.

He came back, however, and got in his speech, as did Wilfred Mendelson, another undergraduate who had been expelled from college.

Three students were arrested on charges of disorderly conduct. They were Edward Ward, Matthew Anderson and David Wolfthal.

COUGHLIN'S UNION BEING ORGANIZED

Radio Priest Says It Already
Has 100,000 Members —
Outlines Purposes.

Detroit, Nov. 20.—(AP)—The Rev. Father Charles E. Coughlin asserted today at a press conference that his National Union for Social Justice, which he said now has "well over 100,000 members" will be a direct up and above-hour lobby in Washington.

He said the Union had drawn members from every state, that 20 mail sacks, each containing 4,000 letters, were received at the office of the Little Flower last week, and that he expected the membership to reach 500,000.

By the time Congress convenes, he said, the membership will have been segregated by Congressional districts. The main lobby, he said, will approach individual members of Congress and say "we want this and here are the names of the persons who support this program."

Father Coughlin also disclosed that he and Senator Elmer Thomas had filed a bill on July 1 amounting to $1,487,002.21.

PLAN TO REGULATE MONSTER HOLDING COMPANIES IN U. S.

SENATE'S SILVER
BLOCK IS SPLIT

Washington, Nov. 20.—(AP)—The split within the Senate silver bloc was emphasized anew today by a statement from Senator Wheeler (D., Mont.) that he would re-introduce and continue his fight for his bill to authorize the free coinage of silver at a ratio of not more than 16 to 1 with gold.

Wheeler's attitude, made known on his return to the capital for the next session of Congress, was in sharp contrast with the view expressed previously by Senator King (D., Utah) that the silver situation was satisfactory and no further legislation was needed.

The aggressive Montana Senator contended that China's protest against the silver purchase program had "knocked into a cocked hat" the strongest arguments of opponents to his free coinage bill, that it would bring a flood of silver to this country.

His Explanation

Discounting the significance of Chinese protests, Wheeler said they were "simply coming from those who seek to entangle China's coolie and who by reason of the low price level in China are able to undercut American manufacturers in the world market, thereby driving down the wage levels and standards of living in the United States."

The Federal government should be responsible for the administration of Federal funds," he said, "and should require a strict accounting for every dollar of his money."

The source of "waste," Borah said, is in the administration of the funds in the field. The administrative pay roll is enormous.

POWER COMMISSION OUTLINES PROGRAM TO BE PLACED BEFORE CONGRESS — PRO- POSES FEDERAL LICENSE.

Washington, Nov. 20.—(AP)—An authoritative source disclosed today that laws to limit the stature and might of giant holding companies in the power business probably will be recommended to President Roosevelt by his power experts.

Regulation of holding companies, corporations which hold the shares of operating utilities and usually control those utilities—is an objective of the National Power Commission, appointed by the President to recommend a power policy to Congress.

A commission studying this subject is headed by Robert E. Healy who directed most of the Federal Trade Commission's six-year inquiry into utilities and who is now on the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Though a legislative program has not been drafted and the President's attitude has not been disclosed, the sub-committee was authoritatively reported to be thinking along these lines:

- 1.—No more than one holding company should be permitted on a group of operating companies. At present some holding companies are in turn held by other holding companies. The experts believe this pyramiding is uneconomic.
- 2.—Power resources which one holding company may control should be limited.
- 3.—Natural gas and electric companies should be divorced. In many cases holding companies control both kinds of utilities jointly. This leads in the opinion of the experts, to reduced use of the great natural gas resources.

The Federal Trade Commission, which is preparing a utilities report for Congress, is seriously considering recommending the holding company be licensed. Then they would not be permitted to operate interstate commerce without a Federal license. Such a plan might be used to attain objectives like those outlined above.

Healy's associates reported him as being convinced the trade commission has proved the uneconomic nature of holding companies and constituted and the possibility of government supervision.

Commission's Report

The trade commission's report on United Corporation, a concern holding interlocking interests in a large group of other utility holding companies, was prepared while Healy was still directing the commission's study. This report found that the United group represented 27 per cent of the kilowatt hour power output of the Nation, 25 per cent of the installed generating capacity and 30 per cent of the hydro-electric capacity.

Such a group may have influence on economic progress over vast areas. The investigation said: "Highly intelligent abilities may be exercised over the general public. Human historians are strongly impressed that qualified representatives of the public must supervise such concentrated power to prevent its abuse."

Other examples which the commission's report includes are Cities Service Company, described as representing a billion dollar empire controlled by Emory L. Doherty with an investment of only $1,000,000; Electric Bond and Share, Associated Gas and others.

The effect of the three-point plan would be to limit the influence of holding concerns to so-called economic areas. The plan also would aim to prevent holding companies from charging "excessive" management fees, and curb the "pyramiding" of security structure.

STREET FIGHTING IN AUSTRIA AGAIN

Insurrection, Austria, Nov. 20.—(AP)—The long prevailing tension between the Fascist Home Guards of Chancellor Kurt Schuschnigg and the Catholic Storm Troops was brought into open street fighting last night.

Police twice had to separate the embattling factions.

Eight hundred storm troops members of the so-called Freshetschuhbann an armed formation of the Chamber of Commerce (Trade Union) marching to an exhibition hall where a Catholic meeting was scheduled, met a strong detachment of Home Guards who were shouting "Heil Schuschnigg."

Battle Begins

The Catholic hood Storm Troops in reply and the Home Guards attacked. A police emergency squad was immediately called and succeeded in dispersing the Home Guard and the band of Youth.

Even assembled in front of the hall when the Catholic arrived fresh fighting developed. Again the police were called out and only after they used their riot batons freely on the rioting Home Guards was order restored.

Heavily armed police patrolled the city today in view of Home Guard riot orders not to molest the Home Guard.

Austrian newspapers received state orders last night's occurrences. The government has frequently proclaimed the unity prevailing among auxiliary formations such as the Storm Troops and the Home Guard, the principal supporters of the present government.
