BRITAIN TAKES UP MUNITIONS PROBE

Sir John Simon, Foreign Minister, Wants to Have His Name Cleared of U. S. Ready to Aid.

London, Dec. 8.—(AP)—It was announced unexpectedly today that a writ has been issued in behalf of Sir John Simon, British foreign secretary, in respect to statements that he was interested in armament firms and that his conduct of British foreign affairs was thereby affected.

This brief announcement from authoritative quarters in London was all that was available for the moment in what appeared to be a sensational development in the proposed British inquiry into the manufacture of arms.

It was recalled in these quarters that Sir John recently took a prominent part in the House of Commons discussion concerning a possibility of a British inquiry similar to the Washington senate investigation.

Sir John Simon's name figured also in the arms inquiry at Washington this week. Official quarters in London said they had no information in this connection excepting what had appeared in the press.

Late this week Sir John was subject to criticism in some newspapers in connection with British participation in the League of Nations jurisdiction during the forthcoming plebiscite.

Under-Secretary Anthony Eden announced in Geneva that British troops would cross the channel to supervise the plebiscite, and immediately demanded to know why only a few days previously Sir John in the House of Commons had indicated that British troops would not be used.

Foreign office personnel declined to discuss Sir John's action on the grounds that it was entirely personal and has nothing to do with the government.

The identity of the persons involved and when and where the statements were made, was withheld by the brief announcement made available in London early this afternoon.

Sir John himself was out of town. The foreign secretary in recent months has been rather severely criticized in some quarters of the British press concerning his administration of foreign affairs.

HUNGARIAN CITY WHERE REFUGEES SEEK HAVEN

CONNERY FAVORS THIRTY HOUR WEEK Bay State Congressman So Informs Silk Manufacturers at Parley.

New York, Dec. 8.—(AP)—Assuring manufacturers he was mindful of their interests, Congressman William P. Connery, Jr., of Massachusetts, chairman of the House labor committee, today informed the convention of the silk and rayon industry he favors immediate enactment of a 30-hour week with increased wages.

Connery also stated his belief that the next Congress will pass bills for unemployment insurance and old age pensions.

Unable to attend the session, Connery's spokesman, a statement which was read to the 300 textile men meeting here.

"While I realize that manufacturers in general seem to feel that the proposals of labor legislation disregard entirely the viewpoint of industry, I am convinced that a fair profit for investors," he said, "is not the primary consideration."

"I feel that Congress should take immediate action on a thirty-hour week bill with increased wages for the thirty hours."

"I fully realize that the costs of production will rise but I feel that it will result in the re-employment of some ten million new unemployed men and women."

"What action will be taken by Congress on a thirty-hour week bill is of course, only a matter of conjecture," he said, "but I am convinced that such a bill will have a beneficial effect on the economy."

"In other words, I believe in creating ten million new customers as a market for the manufacturer."

Henderson to Receive The Nobel Peace Prize

Oslo, Norway, Dec. 8.—(AP)—Henderson, whose work as president of the disarmament conference has brought him much into the public eye, was today awarded the Nobel peace prize Monday. It was learned here today.

Henderson, it was understood, would be the official guest of the British legation during his visit here.

It was expected that the Nobel peace prize for 1935 which was not awarded last year, probably would be conferred at the same time Henderson was honored. The recipient, however, was still undetermined.

"My instructions," he said, "are to tell anybody anything. The recipient, however, was still undetermined."

The character of the conversation, however, indicated that something big was going on in the Henderson family.

PACIFIC AIR TRANSPORT IN EXPERIMENTAL STAGE

Next Week at Bridgeport Pilots Will Start on Training Flights to Pre- pare Way.

New York, Dec. 8.—(AP)—Trans-Pacific air transport, a few years ago little more than dreamed of by most visionary aviation enthusiasts, will soon reach the experimental stage.

By spring, early summer at the latest, air liners will be flying the 8,000-mile route from New Haven to the California coast to Canada.

The undertaking which became known definitely in well-informed circles today, is fathered by Pan-American Airways.

The first training flights for the experienced aviators which are to pilot Pacific liners are scheduled to begin next week with the tailfin of the Boeing 247, the Pan-American's new twenty-ton SV2 for the Caribbean.

Present plans call for an all-India flight to Miami. From there, regular flights out to sea will be made to acquaint crews with the special work of navigation at sea, range finding and other developments of over water flights.

The tentative trans-Pacific route it was understood, calls for the following jumps with corresponding mileage:

PROFESSOR LIGHT REACHES MANILA

Yale Flier's Next Stop Will Be Hong Kong — May Go to Japan.

Manila, P. I., Dec. 8.—(AP)—Near the end of their "air cruise" which already has taken them 22,000 miles, Dr. Richard U. Light of Yale and Robert Wilson of New Rochelle, N. Y., flew into Manila today from Zamboanga, P. I.

Both were reticent regarding further plans for their leisurely world tour which started in New Haven last August.

It was believed likely they would fly across the China Sea to Hong Kong and thence to Shanghai since advance fueling arrangements had been made at these points.

Dr. Light laughed at the suggestion they attempted to conquer the Pacific in their small plane at this season of year.

"I was very anxious to exceed the safe flying range of the plane, which is a few hundred miles," he said.

"This is the best way to see the world," Dr. Light said. "It is little more trouble than by steamer. We have had no mishaps and little bad weather."

At the same time Pierre Laval, foreign minister of France and Captain Robert Anthony Eden, British parliamentary under-secretary for foreign affairs, were scheduled to voice their views on the Eastern frontier.

The size of the army and of the national contributions for its support was to be left to a special committee composed of representatives of the Argentine, Italy, Spain, Great Britain, the Netherlands and Sweden.

The supreme commander of the Swiss army, however, was not invited to participate as the Council, it was said, gained the impression it did not desire to contribute to the maintenance of the force.

FLAMES DESTROY CHURCH IN MERIDEN

$25,000 Damage Done to Lutheran Church — Ice Hampers the Firemen.

Meriden, Dec. 8.—(AP)—Fire of Meriden, Conn., destroyed the Lutheran church, a structure at 144 Center street, with a loss estimated today at $25,000.

The blaze which occurred last night necessitated two alarms and flames burst from the side, bringing all apparatus in the city to the scene. Water pressure failed when fire officials attempted to play seven lines of water on the flames, over taxing a six inch water main.

Pressure Falls
A 75 foot ladder which rose from Meriden's new $5,500 aerial pumper with a line of hose attached was ineffective when the water pressure failed.

Water freezing on pavements made work of the firemen difficult. The Rev. Oscar A. Winfield, pastor of the church, was visiting friends and arrived with his wife at the Park Avenue Baptist church where he was immediately placed at his disposal as a temporary place of worship.

LEAGUE APPROVES SAAR PATROL PLAN

Various Nations to Be Asked to Send Soldiers to Main- tain Peace.

Geneva, Dec. 8.—(AP)—A secret session of the Council of the League of Nations formally approved today a plan to patrol the Saar territory prior to its plebiscite January 13.

The council voted to issue official invitations to Great Britain, Italy, the Netherlands, and Sweden to contribute contingents to the patrol force.

The international force, to be placed under the direction of the League's Saar governing commission president of which is the dynamic Englishman, G. G. Knox.

It was expected a resolution embodying the committee's recommendations would be submitted for approval at a public session of the council this afternoon.

To Express Views
At the same time Pierre Laval, foreign minister of France and Captain Robert Anthony Eden, British parliamentary under-secretary for foreign affairs, were scheduled to voice their views on the Eastern frontier.

The size of the army and of the national contributions for its support was to be left to a special committee composed of representatives of the Argentine, Italy, Spain, Great Britain, the Netherlands and Sweden.

NEW KIDNAP SCARE IN GREW HOUSEHOLD

Same Voice Calls Up Home and Police Are Unable to Trace It.

Boston, Dec. 8.—(AP)—The same voice which previously threatened Eugene Grew, 37 year old vice of the United States Ambassador to Japan called the Grew home again today.

It was the second time within a week a kidnap scare had come to Randolph Clark Grew, Boston social light and father of the girl.

The same voice came over the telephone line at 12:15 a. m. e. s. t. today as was heard by Grew at about the same time Monday. The Grew butler who answered the phone both times, said he was convinced of that.

ARIZONA BOMBING AROUSES JAPANESE

Officials Say That America Is Not Attempting to Stop Them.

Tokyo, Dec. 8.—(AP)—Charges that authorities in Arizona were not attempting in good faith to end the bombings of Japanese homes in the Salt River district were made today in the House of Peers.

An interpolator, Junba Tsunamura declared: "The fact that not a single arrest has been made since the troubles began indicates they have no real intention to protect the Japanese."

"Not all Americans are uncivilized, but some are barbarians," he said.

CAN SEE NO CUT IN LIQUOR TAXES

Treasury Official Declares That It Will Not Drive Out Bootlegging.

Washington, Dec. 8.—(AP)—The drive to cut liquor taxes has suffered a setback in nothing terms, said the Treasury today.

Substituting for Secretary Morgenthau in a radio speech last night, Arthur J. Mott, deputy commissioner of internal revenue, said: "Some people think the Federal tax ought to be reduced. Their argument is that this will stop bootlegging. My feeling is that we have made big inroads on bootlegging with the present tax rates and that eventually we shall come close to stopping it entirely."

WILKS CHILD, FLEES

Plainfield, Dec. 8.—(AP)—No clue had been uncovered today of the car which struck and fatally injured a 14 year old Ruth Adams last night as she was walking along the state highway with her mother, Mrs. Adams did not see the car's registration numbers owing to the darkness. She picked up her daughter and carried her to a nearby house.

Medical Examiner Arthur A. Chase said death was immediate. State police of the Danbury barracks took over the case in the hope of finding the car and driver.

OLD AGE SECURITY BILL BEING DRAWN

County Commissioner Robert J. Smith On Committee Formulating Legislation.

County Commissioner Robert J. Smith, a member of the Connecticut Committee for Old Age Security, has returned from a meeting of the committee held in New Haven. The board, which is composed of non-partisan members, representatives of church societies, labor organizations and other groups vitally interested in the subject of Old Age Pensions is formulating a bill which will be presented to the incoming General Assembly.

The exact content of the bill is not yet known. It is hoped that when completed it will embody the best features of old age security laws now in force in some other states. As soon as the committee's work is finished copies of the proposed law will be published and the committee's arguments in its favor given publicity. Members of the committee will welcome any worthwhile suggestions.

More important to the committee, however, at present is the matter of funds. The work is entirely voluntary and has been going on for a long period. Many of the costs incurred have been paid by the committee members. There is still considerable to be done and the committee will be glad to see that the funds are directed to the right person.
