REICH WINS IN SAAR SAY EARLY REPORTS

Anti-Nazis Concede They Have Been Defeated Although Vote Has Not Yet Been Counted.

Saarbrücken, Saar Basin Territory, Jan. 14.—(AP)—Anti-Nazis virtually conceded today they had been defeated in the long awaited Saar plebiscite and that the rest of this little wealthy territory had voted to restore it to the fatherland.

Machine guns for watch dogs, 850 ballot boxes filled with the Saar leaders' expressions of desire for future rule were stored in Warburg auditorium to await the count at 3 p. m. Ninety eight per cent of the eligible voters on the Rhine cast ballots yesterday in the plebiscite awarded 15 years to determine whether the Saar should return to Germany, go to France, or remain under League of Nations control.

The League's Saar governing commission will make a final decision taking into consideration the results of the vote.

Defeat Conceded

Concession that the Hitlerites had been overwhelmingly victorious was seen in a statement issued by Max Braun, leader of the Common Front, Anti-Nazi organization who claimed voters had been subjected to duress.

Describing the vote as "the worst pseudo-democratic election ever held outside of Germany's farces Braun said responsible quarters had failed miserably to live up to their guarantees for a free election," and arraigned Red Cross nurses who aided invalids in marking their ballots as "tools of Hitler."

Results Tomorrow

"The Hitlerites declared" he said "that the Saar was already under Nazi rule." The counting of ballots may take all night and the results will be flashed to the world some time early tomorrow.

She Conquers the Pacific; Amelia Smiles in Victory

Amelia Earhart—already heavy laden with flying honors—became the first pilot to "fly solo" across the Pacific ocean from Hawaii to California, and the first woman ever to fly from Honolulu to California, when she landed at Oakland, Calif., Municipal Airport. She is shown just after landing, smiling at the throngs of admirers who were waiting to greet her, and holding a bouquet pressed upon her, while her ears still were deafened by over 15 hours of flying behind a roaring motor.

AMELIA EARHART RESTS AFTER LONG OCEAN HOP

Planned to Continue to Washington Today But Weather Reports Interfere; Says She Is Tired.

Los Angeles, Jan. 14.—(AP)—Amelia Earhart, pilot who made her first solo flight across the Pacific on her immediate flying plans were concerned.

America's "First Lady" of the air, travel weary from her epochal solo flight across the Pacific on the lone-lone Honolulu-to-California stretch and her leisurely jaunt down the coast line from Oakland to Los Angeles yesterday, made this much known: She was tired.

She wanted to take off for Washington, D. C.

She directed her ocean-spanning monoplane serviced.

She wanted to sleep.

That was the last heard of the tanned-headed aviatrix late last night when she left the Union Air Terminal at Burbank, forced because of bad weather reports to cancel for the time being, at least, her trip to the Nation's capital.

Silence On Plans

Repeated inquiries for a court order at the airport brought this laconic answer: "No, we don't know where Miss Earhart is or what she plans. We are just waiting."

The blonde Amelia cruised down to Los Angeles from Oakland yesterday in three hours and seven minutes, hoping to find favorable weather conditions to continue over the southern route to Washington.

Reports of a blizzard in the vicinity of Flagstaff, Ariz., however, terminated this plan for the time being.

I had my heart set on going to Washington," Amelia signed.

Over Ocean On Hand

News that the noted flier was heading to Los Angeles yesterday from Oakland spread quickly. Fully 2,000 admirers were at the Burbank airport.

FATHER AND SON KILLED BY FUMES

Mother and Another Son in Critical Condition; Neighbor Breaks Into House.

Putnam, Jan. 14.—(AP)—Five year old Raymond Lusak died today in a hospital, the second victim of a tragedy which brought death to his father and sent two other members of the family to a hospital. The boy's father, Joseph Lusak, 48, was found dead on a bed last night. His wife, Raymond and another son, Chester, were found semi-conscious.

The elder Lusak's death was tentatively attributed to carbon monoxide gas by County Detective Rowe H. Wheeler. Medical Examiner John J. Russell, however, withheld his finding in the boy's death.

Blood Tests Made

The coroner reported the finding after blood tests had been made on Lusak's body and that of a dog found dead last night at the same time that a neighbor discovered the dead Lusak family. Wheeler said a gasoline range in the kitchen was the source of the monoxide gas. Mrs. Lusak and her two children, Chester 7 and Raymond, were suffering from exposure. They were admitted to Day Kimball hospital.

Medical Examiner J. J. Russell autopsied the body. Lusak had been dead 24 hours. In addition to Lusak and the dog the family cat also was found dead.

Person Way Into Home

Albert Kimball who forces an entrance into the Lusak home said members of the family were last seen outside their home Thursday. He decided to investigate after noting that two bottles of milk and some bread at the front door had not been taken in.

Lusak was partly clad while the

NEGRO IS GUARDED AGAINST LYNCHING

Accused of Beating Couple to Death With Hammer—Had Victim's Watch.

Cleveland, Miss., Jan. 14.—(AP)—Special precautions to prevent mob action were taken today by officials guarding James Coyner, 38, negro, accused of slaying Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Turner, in their home here Dec. 9.

The negro, who was arrested Saturday after dismembered parts of bodies were found in his possession, was rushed to Jackson for arraignment. He was lodged in the drive floor of the Jackson jail, which is accessible only by elevator.

Coyner, arresting officers said, denied any connection with the killings, but admitted having served a term in the Indiana state penitentiary for stealing a body from a grave.

World Exhume Bodies

District Attorney Groek Rice said he would ask for a court order to exhume the bodies of Mr. and Mrs. Turner. The examination, he said, would be for the purpose of comparing the bodies with the dismembered parts.

The negro, when arrested, was wearing a watch identified as the property of Turner. All in his possession.

Report Four Violent Deaths In State Over the Weekend

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Four persons died violently in Connecticut over the week end and the death of a fifth was under investigation today by authorities who believe he may have met with a similar fate.

Drowning, suffocation and a hit-and-run driver accounted for the four while the fifth, a man, was found dead under mysterious circumstances, surrounded by his family, all of whom are in a hospital.

The lay waters of the Babcock river in Cromwell claimed the lives of two brothers yesterday. Stanley and Walter Smigelski, 12 and 10 years old respectively. They went to feed a calf and their bodies were taken from the river beneath a coating of ice several hours later.

WOMAN SAYS SUSPECT TRAILED DR. CONDON

Four Convicts Escape Prison in Oklahoma

McAlester, Okla., Jan. 14.—(AP)—After robbery in Pottawatomie county. Making their second break for freedom, four convicts tunneled their way out of the state penitentiary here early today. Three of them were reported to have commandeered a taxicab, while the other fled on foot.

All four of the convicts were inmates of the prison tubercular ward and were members of the party of seven which engineered a successful break from the prison last September 27.

The men were Coney Coffey, serving 20 years for robbery; Charlie Polina, serving a life term for the death of J. D. Gates, an Oklahoma City policeman in 1920; Vernon Brown, serving 20 years for robbery, and Earl Williams, serving 30 years for robbery in Pottawatomie county.

An early search failed to disclose any trace of the three convicts after they left the cab. The fourth, presumed on foot, also was believed to have temporarily made good his escape.

"I don't see how they can get far," Warden Brown said. "All four were pretty big men. I don't think they could have made good their escape without being spotted."

Brown said he did not know how the escape was engineered, other than the fact that the convicts tunneled under the outside prison wall.

NOBILITY AT WEDDING OF ALFONSO'S DAUGHTER

Infanta Beatriz of Spain Married to Prince Torlonia of Italy in Simple Ceremony at Rome.

Rome, Jan. 14.—(AP)—Prince Alessandro Torlonia, son of the former Duke of Genoa, and daughter of former King Alfonso, were married today in Rome's magnificent old Church of Santa Maria della Salute. The ceremony was presided over by the archbishop of the city. The bride, Infanta Beatriz of Spain, was surrounded by the sons of Europe's proudest royal families during the ceremony. Hundreds of persons jammed adjacent streets to catch a glimpse of the bride but she entered the church by a rear door.

The wedding was twice changed, first as Alfonso entered the church and again as he left the church. Royal and noble guests were so numerous that Italian police sought to clear them.

The wedding was performed by Cardinal Pasold, called cardinal primate from Spain. Among the guests in the royal pews were King Victor Emmanuel III, of Italy, Queen Elena and the Princess of the House of Savoy.

Former King Alfonso of Spain headed the prince of the blood of the Bourbon family who gathered to the administration's answer to the drive for the Townsend plan. Another belief, voiced with equal fervor was that the figure would be $30. The pension age and the other rules for eligibility also were subjects for varying Congressional forecasts.

Old Controversies Up

The week will see two old controversies renewed. On Wednesday the House Ways and Means committee will meet to decide how fast it shall handle the proposal to pay the $210,000,000 bonus immediately.

Friends and foes of the World Court were clearing their throats for oratory on the proposal to have the United States enter it. The debate is expected to start in the Senate today.

FRIEND OF FISCH TELLS HIS STORY

Believes That German Fur Dealer Gave the Ransom Money to Hauptmann.

Flemington, N. J., Jan. 14.—(AP)—Henry Uhlig, quiet, red-headed former roommate of Isidor Fisch and intimate friend of Bruno Richard Hauptmann, recalled incidents today in support of Hauptmann's story that he received the Lindbergh ransom money from Fisch.

"Of course, I may not know everything about the case," Uhlig said, "but I am prepared to tell what I know and, I think, will indicate that Hauptmann is not guilty."

Uhlig went to Germany with the 14 ransom money received by Colored Charles A. Lindbergh after his baby was stolen on March 1, 1932.

Suspect Turns Red

Hauptmann turned red when she spoke his name. Mrs. Anna Hauptmann, wife of the accused man, said: "Miss Alexander is 28 years old, chic. She took the defense by surprise, revealing on direct questioning that she had been requested by the state not to publicize her knowledge."

Eldridge W. Stein, second of the state's battery of handwriting experts, had sufficient time before the 14 ransom money received by Colored Charles A. Lindbergh after his baby was stolen on March 1, 1932.

The first expert, Albert S. Osborn, Jr., was on the stand early in the day's session. He related his opinion that Hauptmann wrote the notes and answered the question of "why?" with: "Because the evidence is irrefutable, unanswerable and overwhelming."

When he left the stand his cross-examination by Reilly was only partly complete, the defense attorney reserving the right to cross-question him on writings of the defendant and the writing in the ransom notes.

Fisch's Handwriting

Reilly handed Osborn a card today which purported to have on it the writing of Fisch, but which he did not further identify, and questioned him about alleged similarity of that writing and the writing in the ransom notes.

Osborn said a "4" was similar, but added the writing was "different." He will be recalled by the defense when the state produces the specimens it claims to have in its possession.

Fisch is alleged by Hauptmann to be the man who gave him the Lindbergh ransom money found in his Bronx garage and the defense has sought to connect him with the crime. He was a German fur dealer about which Hillyer was known. Sometime after the Lindbergh crime he was in Germany and there died of tuberculosis.

CALL WRITING EXPERTS

Flemington, N. J., Jan. 14.—(AP)—Bruno Richard Hauptmann today began the third week of his fight to escape the electric chair, with the state calling handwriting experts for further evidence that the Bronx ex-convict carpenter was the author of the Lindbergh kidnaping ransom notes.

Albert S. Osborn, the aged, widely known handwriting authority, was the day's first witness. In his position, convincing voice the elderly witness has already told the Hauptmann murder case jury that he is satisfied, after studying both ransom notes and specimens of the defendant's handwriting, that the notes were written by Hauptmann.

MADE NO PROMISE TO AID DILLINGER

Judge Denies Charge Made by Lawyer That He Would Aid the Bandit.

Chicago, Jan. 14.—(AP)—Attorney Louis F. Piquetti's claim that Judge William G. Murray promised clemency to the late John Dillinger, the Public Enemy No. 1, was denied today by the witness stand in Piquetti's trial today by the judge himself.

Admitting that he met the lawyer last summer at the World's Fair, Judge Murray declared they had no conversation about Dillinger's chances in court. The desperado was then in hiding, after his famous wooden gun escape from Crown Point jail.

"You said you had an alibi for Dillinger," the judge said today, recalling the conversation to Piquetti and said you'd prove by a Dayton, Ohio beach circuit judge that Dillinger was in Daytona Beach at the time of the shooting."

Nothing Else Mentioned

That referred to the charge, pending against Dillinger at the time of his escape, that he murdered a Cambridge City policeman in a bank raid.

"That's all we talked about—except the fair."

"That's all we had been cross-examining the judge, shrugged and quit. The lawyer, charged with him, Dillinger in May of 1934 from a nationwide search, rested his defense today with prospects that the case would go to the jury tonight.

Piquetti version of the conversation, given earlier in his trial on a Federal charge of harboring Dillinger, was:

"Judge Murray said if Dillinger came back to Crown Point and a death sentence was returned he would commute it to life, as he did not believe Dillinger killed the policeman."

REV. J. P. CHIDWICK DIES IN NEW YORK

Was Most Popular Priest in New York—Hero of the Maine Explosion.

New York, Jan. 14.—(AP)—Monksignior John P. Chidwick, whose courage in 1907 and pulpit made him one of New York's most noted prelates, died last night. He was 71.

Women wept and men cheered when he returned to the city after the destruction of the U. S. S. Maine in Havana harbor in 1898, for he was the chaplain the ill-fated battleship. His conduct had been officially reported to the Navy Department as "heroic and brave."

When the explosion rocked the vessel he ran on deck, even now dying all about him, and gave abolition to all in a loud voice. Reporters on shore later told him that they could hear him above the roar of the flames. He was given charge of arrangements for the dead.

Served Through War

Father Chidwick added to be re-designated and served throughout the Spanish-American war on the Connecticut. He later was chaplain of the New York and for a time served at the New York and Washington Navy yards.

In this city he was noted as a troubles enough without asking him to take a poor, sick wife. "Well," he thought, "I'm not the first girl who has placed the blame on me. I have the money to take a rest, and no need to take a rest, and no need to take a rest. That's all there is to it."

Am I dreaming or cuckoo, or what? "I'm giving you a straight story, she's Mrs. Kendall, wife of the millionaire. I have the money for months. I found out today she was in this apartment, building with you."

SENSE and NONSENSE

Flubba, like the weather, are seldom if ever very satisfactory. They were successful because they were cheerful when it was difficult to be patient; and were agreeable when they wanted to be disagreeable. That was all it was simple, and always will be.

"Fifty Luce" is usually that sum of money the other fellow has in excess of what you possess. A Chinaman, finding himself charged with conducting games of chance, put up a very novel device. Judge—Now, Ah Sin, you are charged with conducting games of chance. Have you anything to say for yourself? Chinaman—Yes, your Honor, we play to game of chance. Cards all marked and dice loaded. Ma win every time—no chance at all.

FLAPPER FANNY SAYS

At certain times of the year natives of Central Africa perform a frenzied dance around bushes where they dig in the ground. In fact, it is spreading everywhere.

CARNIVAL VOTING HELD UP BY COLD

Deposit of Slips, Retarded Yesterday, Expected to Flood Store Boxes Today.

The extreme cold weather last night and this morning retarded the deposit of votes in the Manchester Ice Carnival King and Queen contest. It is expected that when the first standings of the contest are given in tomorrow's Herald a flood of votes for Manchester's most popular boy or girl will be deposited in the various stores where boxes have been placed for the votes.

The votes of Monday and today will be counted by the Veterans committee this evening in the Chamber of Commerce office and the first standing will be carried in the Herald Wednesday night. Successful votes in the Herald may be clipped and deposited in the boxes in the following stores for credit in the contest: Main street, Curran's Barber Shop, Dewey-Richman, F. E. Gray, State Soda Shop, Kemps Inc., Home Bakery, Army and Navy Club, Pinhurst Grocery, Metter's Smoke Shop, Kotter's Clothing store and Nichols News Shop, Depot Square.

Manchester Y. M. C. A. England's store, Manchester Green, Cashion's store, East Center and Pkinn street; Hillier's store, Hartford Road; Buck's store, South Main street; Recreation Building, School street; and West Side.

Tickets for the ball are now available in the Chamber of Commerce office and from Clarence Wetherell, secretary of the committee, 122 Wells street. Workers for the respective candidates may secure tickets to sell for which each candidate will receive 50 votes per ticket sold.

The Carnival and Ball committees are hard at work to prepare the best social attraction and skating event possible for Manchester and the committee will soon announce the complete program for the Ice Carnival to be held on Center Springs pond Sunday, Feb. 2. The Ball committee is out to get as fine an orchestra as possible for the event in the armory Saturday evening, Feb. 2, which will be informal. In order to attract the younger element in town, who are genuinely interested in skating and all winter sports, the committee has purposely made the price of the ball tickets nominal.

All members of the ball committee are requested to meet this evening at 7 o'clock in the Chamber of Commerce to count the first votes deposited.

The Italian-American Ladies Aid society announce a benefit card party for tonight at 8 o'clock sharp at the Sub-Alpine clubhouse on Eldridge street. The first prizes for men and women in each section will be chickens; second prizes, 10 pounds of sugar. Both sections and the Italian card game, scope, will be played. Refreshments will be served and all players will be welcome. Mrs. Cecilia Zanlungo heads the committee of arrangements.

Royal Matron Mrs. Rachel Tilden of Chapman Court, Order of Amaranth, has called a rehearsal of all officers for Thursday night at 7:30 at the Masonic Temple. It is important that every one of the officers be present on time.

The Lutheran League of the Emmanuel Lutheran church will hold its regular meeting at 8 o'clock tonight, after which a short program will be presented and refreshments will be served. This is the first meeting of the new year and all members are requested to be present.

The Social Six met Friday evening at the home of the Misses Ann and Helen Talay of Buckland. An entertainment was presented and luncheon was served, after which a social hour was enjoyed.

Earl Howell, World War veteran, of 23 Ridgewood street, has entered the Veterans' hospital, Newington, to undergo an operation on his arm.

Elizabeth E. Rich, 257 East Center street, a member of the Senior class at the University of Vermont, has been re-elected vice president of the University of Vermont Outing Club.

POLICE COURT

Joseph Rogers of 2 Wells street, East Hartford, was fined $10 and costs in town court before Judge Raymond A. Johnson today on a charge of speeding on Center street January 11.

Rogers was arrested by Lieutenant Barron, who followed him from Schaller's garage on East Center street to near the Center and clocked him driving at a speed of 30 miles per hour or more. Rogers paid up.

TOWN STORE PLAN TO BE DISCUSSED

Expect Selection Tomorrow Night Will Turn Thumbs Down on Charity Proposal

The town store plan will probably be finally decided at the regular monthly meeting of the Board of Selectmen tomorrow night in the Municipal building. Postponed from the last three meetings, for further investigation, it is believed that the Selectmen will turn thumbs down on the whole plan after having made a thorough investigation of stores now in operation in New Britain, Hartford, East Hartford and other cities and towns.

One of the chief objections to the plan voiced by the Selectmen is the initial cost of establishing the store. The initial cost of equipping the store would be close to $4,000 and possibly more, it was stated by George H. Waddell. Objections from local citizens have been registered against subjecting charity recipients to the disgrace of having to do their shopping at a central charity established store, with other residents.

Town Engineer J. Frank Bowen will present plans of the proposed street lines on Vernon street for acceptance by the board. The regular town bills will be read and ordered paid and other town business conducted.

Question of Funds The surveys were presented to the commissioners and given over by them with Police Chief Gordon. At night and new regulations will be put in effect, in part at least, as soon as it is determined what funds of the police budget can be applied.

The first problem to receive attention will be the North Main street stretch. On this piece of road from Oakland street to Union street three separate speed zones will be considered and under the proposed plan night speed limit signs will be erected.

It will not be possible for the full board of police commissioners to meet in February and the carrying out of the work will be left with Commissioner Busell and Chief Gordon. Just what they will be able to do depends upon the available funds.
