NEW LIQUOR LAW IS NOW IN FORCE

Rush for Permits and Information Keeps Big Staff Busy at the Capital.

Hartford, July 1.—(AP)—The liquor commission offices was one of the busiest places in the Capitol today, the effective date of the new liquor law.

The commission has distributed forms on which applications for new permits are to be made, along with a copy of the regulations relative to sale of alcoholic liquors.

Taverns and restaurants whose permits expire between now and September 1, will be required to close unless a new permit is taken out by the commission, said, but new permits will be issued until July 23, the commission has announced.

Sunday Sales
Sunday sales are prohibited under the law except in the cases of hotels, restaurants and clubs, which may dispense liquor by the drink if so permitted by a vote at a town meeting or a city ordinance.

Under permits issued today and thereafter, permits are required to be on premises virtually all hours during which liquor is sold. Proposed alterations in permit premises must be approved by the commission.

FALSE ALARMS PRECEDE CALL FOR REAL FIRE

First Two Rung in Early This Morning Were Fakes; Third for Blaze in Gilligan Home on Middle Turnpike.

All four companies of the South Manchester fire department were called out on alarms early this morning, the first two being false but the last being for a fire in a house located in the north end district, Nos. 3 and 4, responded and extinguished the fire. That previously there had been two false alarms probably had much to do in preventing heavy damage and possibly loss of life in the third alarm.

The first alarm was turned in at 1:48 this morning from Box 75. This is located at the corner of Parker street and Middle turnpike, east. This alarm brought out Nos. 2, 3 and 4, all east side companies. It is a box from which false alarms have been turned in on several occasions. No. 3 was first to arrive and was followed soon after by No. 2. Joseph Prentice, in the police car, trailed No. 3 to the box, but did not stop, going further down Parker street, driving into an open space. He was conducting an investigation in the woods to the north of Middleturnpike when the second alarm was heard.

The second alarm was from Box 191, located at Center street and Olcott drive, in the west section of the town. This brought out No. 1, the only side that has been left in reserve when the first alarm was turned in. Chief Foley ordered No. 3 and No. 4 back to their houses and No. 2 was sent to assist No. 1.

ACCIDENT VICTIM WAS NOT MURPHY

Fingerprints Reveal Body to Be George Corcoran, Ex-Convict With Long Record.

Waterbury, July 1.—(AP)—Mistakenly identified as Richard Murphy, 33 Charles street, the body of George Corcoran, accident victim, which was shipped here last week, was identified by Department of Justice fingerprints as George Corcoran, alias Corcoran, an ex-convict with police records in Toledo, Detroit and Windsor, Ont.

Chief Inspector William P. Keegan announced simultaneously with the identification that it had been established that the body was at camp in Ohio, west of Cleveland, on June 25 and 26. Corcoran, the ex-convict was killed June 24. As Corcoran carried a wallet identification card bearing Murphy's name, which was feared by local police and Murphy's family that harm might have come to Murphy.

Wrote To Family
Murphy went west some time ago to accept work. He kept his family informed of his whereabouts writing last from Cleveland a few days ago.

Indians Start Sun Dance To Cure Sick of Tribes

Fort Hall, Idaho, July 1.—(AP)—The Great Spirit and the Sun God sat side by side today in a circular willow-sheltered enclosure on the Fort Hall Indian reservation, listening to the supplication of sick and ailing braves of the Shoshone and Bannock tribes for health and prosperity.

Broken in Body, sick at heart, half-blinded by cataract-filled eyes, crippled by rheumatism, more than two score Indians began their grueling sun dance last night as the sun sank behind the western ranges.

For three days the braves must dance without resort to food or drink. The strength comes from the will to please the Great Spirit and the Sun God who they believe are watching from within a buffalo skull and a bundle of willow sticks atop a tall pole in the center of the dancing arena. By showing the gods they are brave in the face of adversity they hope to win their favor and mended bodies.

MOVING U. S. PRISONERS FROM MANY STATE JAILS

Between 300 and 400 Already Placed in Safer Institutions, Dept. of Justice Announces.

Washington, July 1.—(AP)—The Justice Department announced today that it had "condemned" the Springfield, Illinois city jail as a place for the detention of Federal prisoners because of a break there June 5 in which four government offenders escaped.

It ordered the removal of 21 other Federal prisoners now held there. A statement by the Federal Bureau of Prisons said the action resulted from an inspector's report on the jail break.

"The information contained in his report justified the conclusion that the escapes were effected through the negligence of jail officials," the statement said. "For this and other reasons the Federal prisoners have been ordered removed."

The 21 prisoners are eight men under sentence, nine awaiting trial, one woman under sentence, one awaiting trial and two held for deportation. They may be moved to any nearby approved jail, officials said, including the Peoria county jail at Peoria, and the Logan county jail at Lincoln.

Recently justice officials said between 300 and 400 Federal prisoners had been removed from 18 condemned units in 11 states in 15 months.

JR. REPUBLICANS ANNOUNCE POLICIES

Constructive Program Decided Upon at the Conference at New London.

Eastern Point, July 1.—(AP)—Republicans throughout the east today studied the announced policies of the New England conference of Young Republicans, the conference ended here yesterday after voting to reconvene in September in New Hampshire.

It resulted in formation of a New England Young Republican League.

The men, believed to be three or four in number, were first seen on the roof of the bank building by Ben High who sounded the alarm. Shortly after High shouted his warning, George Cope, another citizen, found the automobile and seizing one of the shotguns from it opened fire on the men.

The bandit suspects climbed onto the roof of an adjoining building, cut their way into the lower floor and escaped out the front door while officers and citizens rained shot upon the bank roof.

Mrs. Charles Barker, operator of a small grocery, said she saw two or three men running away from the bank. One of them stumbled and fell, as he injured.

Officers said the notebook found in the automobile contained diagrams of the Citizens bank and the Bank of England, two local stores and a store nine miles from here.

ENDURANCE FLIERS ALL SET TO LAND

Have Been Up Since June 4—To Come Down Later in the Day.

Key Field, Meridian, Miss., July 1.—(AP)—The Key brothers, Fred and Al, holders of the official endurance flight record, radioed their ground crew this morning that they expected to land their endurance plane, the "Ole Miss", by "6:30 o'clock" tonight.

Al Key, talking with his father over short wave radio, said the descent would be made after the unofficial record of 647 hours, 26 minutes and 30 seconds, set by Dale Jackson and Forest O'Brien at St. Louis in 1930 had been broken. That record will be equalled at noon (Central Standard Time) today.

"After careful check-up and inspection of the plane," Al Key said, "it seems that crystallization has begun to set in due to the constant vibration on a number of the wires and small brads. Having the undisputed world's air record in the bag, we deem it unwise to remain in the air any longer than this afternoon."

Al said bad weather for the past two days had also influenced the brothers in their decision. They have been forced to "ride out" three rainstorms in 48 hours, and three (Continued on Page Two)

Walcott has appointed Robert J. Smith as deputy commissioner of the department which is a merger of the departments of State Agency and Institutions of Welfare.

He is in charge of the department of agencies after Governor Wilbur L. Cross accepted the resignation of Raymond C. Gates, Republican, of Windham.

ROOSEVELT CONTROL OVER HOUSE BROKEN IN TEST ON UTILITIES

DUCE OFFERED BRITISH LAND TO AVERT WAR

But Mussolini Refused to Accept It, Captain Eden Tells Commons—Tells Details of Conference.

London, July 1.—(AP)—Captain Anthony Eden revealed to the House of Commons today that Premier Mussolini of Italy had refused an offer by Great Britain to give Ethiopia a slice of British territory in an effort to facilitate a final settlement of the dispute between Ethiopia and Italy.

The minister for League of Nations relations, recently returned from conversations in Rome and Paris, was heard by packed galleries. Captain Eden told the Legislature he did his utmost to interest Il Duce in the British proposal for a peaceful solution of the Italo-Ethiopian dispute, and greatly regretted that his suggestion did not recommend itself to Mussolini.

Replying to a question by George Lansbury, Labor Party member, as to the purpose of his trip, Eden gave a long explanation but did not reveal what future course might be taken in the Italo-Ethiopian affair.

Britain's Proposal
He explained that the British proposal to Mussolini was that the British government should offer a strip of territory in British Somaliland to Ethiopia, giving that nation access to the sea. This, he said, was intended to facilitate such territorial and economic concessions from Ethiopia to Italy as might be involved in an agreed settlement.

He agreed that the British government did not ask concessions in return for this arrangement except grazing rights for their tribes in such territory as might be ceded to Italy.

Eden said he pointed out to Mussolini that the suggestion was not made lightly and that only the gravity of the situation could justify the cession of British territory without an equivalent return but that Mussolini expressed himself as unable to accept the proposal as a basis for the solution of the Italo-Ethiopian dispute.

Paris Conference
He said that on his inter trip to Paris, he gave Premier Pierre Laval of France an account of his conversations with Mussolini.

Eden explained that he told Mussolini of the government's great concern over the turn events were taking and that the attitude of the British was not egotistical nor dictated for the British interests in Africa, but was made because of the membership in the League of Nations.

The minister said that the British foreign policy was founded upon the League and the government could not remain indifferent to events (Continued on Page Two)

East Hartford, July 1.—(AP)—The consolidation of four subsidiaries of four airplane companies, into one company to be known as the United Aircraft Manufacturing Corporation was announced today by Donald F. Brown, president.

Brown said "the change was made solely to provide the United Aircraft Group with a simplified corporate structure and implies no change in personnel or in the duties of personnel as maintained under the former set up."

"None of the former subsidiary companies loses its identity in that the old names have been set up as divisions and will be maintained as such in the future."

Camera Trap Identifies Man Killed by Train

Washington, July 1.—(AP)—A camera trap set to catch an intruder who today produced a head-on and unexpected result. It enabled police to identify a man who had been killed by a train.

Last March, Edward M. Woods of Glenn Dale, Md., decided to do something to stop frequent looting of a refrigerator which stands on his back porch.

Being an ingenious man, he rigged a contrivance which he hoped would catch the thief. It was so arranged that when the handle of the refrigerator was touched at night, a flashlight would explode, a camera lens would snap and a horn sound raucously.

A few nights later, the horn sounded. When Woods reached the porch, his quarry had fled but he had left something behind that Woods believed was better than a calling card. It was a photograph (Continued on Page Eight)

Majority Bolts and Refuses to Pass "Death Sentence"

On Holding Companies Demanded by President—Vote Was 216 to 146—Powerful Forces Fought Desperately in Tense Session Called Two Hours Earlier Than Usual for the Showdown—Roll Call Prevented

Washington, July 1.—(AP)—President Roosevelt's request for legislation to abolish "unnecessary" utility holding companies by 1942 was turned down today by the House.

Climaxing one of the most bitter legislative disputes in recent years, the vote was studied for its reflection of the President's present control over the House.

The vote was 216 to 146 against the President's wishes.

GALLERIES CROWDED
Washington, July 1.—(AP)—Amid vigorous debate, the House today approached a decision on whether to grant President Roosevelt's request that utility holding companies deemed "unnecessary" should be abolished by 1942.

Faded galleries looked down upon the scene as one of the most bitter legislative battles in recent years approached a climax. Observers expected the outcome to be close, with both supporters and opponents of the President's proposal predicting victory.

The decisive struggle was precipitated by introduction by Representative Eicher (D., Iowa), of the "death sentence" provision, adopted by a one-vote majority in the Senate. The House Interstate Commerce had voted to make abolition discretionary with the securities commission.

Earlier, the House defeated by voice vote an amendment by Representative Southoff (P., Wis.), to equalize voting power of holding company stock. Chairman Rayburn of the Interstate Commerce committee explained the question was no technical it would be better to leave it for consideration of the conference committee which will adjust differences between House and Senate bills.

Withdraws Amendment
Representative Wadsworth (R., N. Y.), withdrew an amendment to put the holding company administration under the securities and exchange commission.

Representative Cooper (R., Ohio), claimed the "death sentence" meant utility company destruction, and declared, President Roosevelt in 1939 scored the very policies now being pursued by the administration.

A second attempt by Rayburn to obtain agreement for three hours debate on the Eicher amendment failed. Representative Andrews (R., N. Y.) objected.

Wants Regulation
Representative May (D., Ky.) declared he stood with the President and the 1932 platform 100 per cent for "regulation" of public utilities, but he was opposed to letting the party be led into "annihilation of property."

A third attempt, this time to get two hours debate under the 6-minute rule was objected to by Representative Huddleston (D., Ala.).

Chairman Conroy of the labor committee told the House the American Federation of Labor favored the Senate bill with its abolition clause.

William Green, A. F. of L. president, said, told him that "organized labor, through the American Federation of Labor, is standing 100 per cent behind Franklin D. Roosevelt, President of the United States."

He said he was disclosing the Federation's position because many House members had asked him to ascertain it.

"Sam" Turkington, general town clerk, is considerably puffed up these days and goes about the municipal building wondering if he should speak to the community on the subject of his office.

He learned the other day the great dignity of his office, finding in the Bible, (Acts-19, 35): "And when the town clerk had appealed the people, he said—"

Many persons in town will be more surprised than pleased to learn that the town clerk is to be succeeded by one of their own people.

The idea in the old section, have never been sold outright, the town conveying merely the right of the land.

The question has arisen of the owner of a tract of land in the town of East, Conn., who has a deed for the same, but the deed is not recorded.

Heirs of assigns in possession of the deed conveying the rights of the land to the town of East, Conn., are certain, has the right, so nothing is done about the ownership until a deed is recorded.

The Selectmen have occasionally been called upon to act as arbitrators in quarrelling about who shall and who shall not be buried in the cemetery.

The new liquor laws, under which, require druggists to sign their name to a register. "Dr. Epstein anticipates a boom in the stamp industry, saying he knows several men who are a few years ahead of him.

Then too, the new law would seem to bar illiterates from the indoor sport of betting the show. Besides, it occurs to us that it is not enough to wake up the next morning with an enlarged head without the complications of writer's cramp.

We do know that for a while resumption of other members desiring the fact put in black and white. During the month recent White Carnival at the town of East, the new Hampshire liquor bill, requiring a signature with each and every purchase, showed little increase in sales while the Vermont shiners across the river, not requiring the signature, showed an increase in business of $3,000.

ROCKVILLE MAN USES BEER MUG IN ASSAULT

Held for Assault and Breach of Peace Following Argument at Saturday Night Party

Rockville, July 1.—Following an argument alleged to have taken place about midnight on Saturday, Peter Bohob, 40, of Grand avenue, was arrested on Sunday by the local police on a charge of assault and breach of the peace. He is alleged to have had the argument with Stefan Trojan at Hammond street, and hit Trojan over the head with a beer mug, causing a deep laceration. The argument is alleged to have taken place at a party in the Gawlicka house on Stone street.

The laceration was a deep one on the forehead of Bohob, and was treated by Dr. Francis Burke at the Rockville City hospital and treated on Saturday.

It is a cocktail recipe guaranteed to make the most rugged individual in the world feel like a child. It is made with one-half ounce of gin, one-half ounce of rum, one-half ounce of whiskey, one-half ounce of brandy, one-half ounce of cognac, one-half ounce of brandy, one-half ounce of cognac, one-half ounce of brandy, one-half ounce of cognac.

What happens to the extra crop? A farmer dies possessed of 17 cows. He will give one-half to his widow, one-sixth to each of two children and one-sixth to a daughter. They don't want to cut up a cow so for easy distribution, assumed the farmer had 18 cows. He gave the widow nine cows, each son, one cow, and the daughter, one cow. The extra cow was assumed to belong to the herd.

Suppose the farmer had left 18 cows and left the herd giving the same shares would have given each beneficiary the same number of cows, but three would have been left over, although 18 is really divisible by nine, three and two.

A famous copper was said to have suffered constantly from hallucinations that the musical notes he was playing were being heard by some of the modern jazz composers. He was told that some of them had heard him play and were of some kind but we defy anyone to tell what it is.

A new item claims "statistics reveal the average man in one year speaks 11,000,000 words."

We now discover, with the aid of the Rockville telephone directory, that he is a cleaner and dyer in the Windy city.

BUILDING MODEL PLANES A HOBBY

Michael Vetrano of Garden Street Shows Much Skill in Workmanship.

Of all the known hobbies, that of constructing model airplanes is one of the most exciting and requires more than the ordinary skill in mathematics and workmanship, which of his great interest in model plane-making in Manchester is Michael Vetrano of 54 Garden street, an engineer in the State Highway Department, Hartford.

Imagine a hobby that calls for over 150 hours of delicate labor on a plane that after completion only weighs a few ounces yet is capable of flying for an hour or more. This is the hobby of model plane-making. It is a beautiful thing to look at in every detail and after aluminum in color.

The model planes are powered by a small electric motor which is connected to the "prop" in such a way that when twisted several hundred times the contraction of the rubber exerts a propelling force on the blades. It is a beautiful thing to look at in every detail and after aluminum in color.

An interesting hobby The hobby of making planes gives the maker a chance to use his hands at something that is interesting and instructive. It also gives the maker an insight into aerodynamics which may be of use to him in future years if aviation becomes increasingly universal—and who can doubt that it will?

There are all kinds of planes, many of which can be built by any bright boy and Michael Vetrano is no exception with his hobby that he will not share it with other youngsters. All that winter he had a class of boys of the Center Congregational church who met with him to receive instruction and to start plans of their own. A short time before the recent plane competition which was held in the state armory, Hartford, the boys built several planes which flew successfully in the air.

Planes are made by the boys with as great care as the larger models which come from the factory. They are made of wood and wire and are painted to look like the real thing. During the summer boys are out of school and unless they find work, they hang around street corners. These groups of boys do not add to the appearance of the town and certainly they are not doing themselves any good.

With the Recreation Center open all night, a good many of these boys will be occupied in a clean sport or working on a woodwork. This is a good thing for the town and for the boys.
