BINGHAM ASSAULTS NEW DEAL AGAIN

Tells Republican Women It's So Old It Was Abandoned 300 Years Ago.

Bridgport, Sept. 4.—(AP)—Two hundred women members of the Fairfield County Republican Women's Association, meeting today at the Trinity Parish House on Washington street for the first of a series of round table talks sponsored by the county women's unit, heard former Senator Bingham assault this so-called "New Deal" as "an old deal, so old that our ancestors abandoned it to England and Europe three hundred years ago."

Vigorously attacking out at the patriotism of the National Administration Senator Bingham spoke on "Tammany Nationalism."

"Tammany votes" he emphasized, "may buy the big cities, as it did in Connecticut last fall. But I do not believe it will buy the vote of the country as a whole, any more than it could buy the vote of the vast majority of Connecticut towns. Our people do not want to be treated like puppets."

The companion speaker at the round table was Miss Helen Levin, president of the County Republican Women's Association and five times member of the Legislature, who spoke on "The Political Influence of Republican Women in Fairfield County."

Tracing the growth of the organization from September, 1921, to today with its membership of 2,000 women in the county and representatives from all of the 23 towns, Mrs. Levin demanded more vigorous action to recover lost ground.

"Wild men" of 74th Congress CALMED DOWN

Looking back over the eight months of the congressional session, one of the most difficult things to understand was the episode of the "wild men" who were supposed to be in complete possession of Capitol Hill.

Political memory is notoriously short, but perhaps readers will recall that after the election of Roosevelt one of the paramount topics of the session was whether President Roosevelt would be able to hold within reasonable bounds the unbridled spirit of radicalism which supposedly had been voted into legislation.

The inflationists were rampant. The Townsend plan was sweeping eastward like a prairie fire. The forces of revolution and communism were rampant. Could the President hold the reins?

There can be no question that the session was witnessed an important event in the history of the nation, although the trend has fallen a short way from the predictions. The inflationist thing, however, has not quite into the origins of this trend.

Bills Modified. The first legislative proposal of the session was the $4,000,000 works relief appropriation. It came, not from the White House. Actually, it was introduced in the House by the Democratic majority.

Then followed a long list of measures, submitted with Presidential approval. They included the utilities bill, the social security bill, the bank bill, the A. A. A. amendments, the Outley coal bill, the wealth taxes, the bill to prohibit gold clause suits, and other measures.

The record is that almost every one of these measures was modified by the men in Congress to take out the more extreme provisions.

ROCKVILLE TERM IN SUPERIOR COURT IS OPENED

Judge Carl Foster Presides As First Case Heard—Sergeant Silvestri Case Assigned.

Bridgport, Sept. 4.—(AP)—The September term of the Tolland County Superior Court opened on Tuesday with Judge Carl Foster presiding on the bench. Everett Cunningham, 44, of Crystal Lake, was sentenced to one to three years at the Connecticut State Prison at Waterfield when he pleaded guilty to carnal abuse of a minor female. He was arrested during the summer at Crystal Lake following an investigation conducted by State Police Officer Robert Herr of the Stafford Springs Barracks and was bound over to the Superior Court.

Raymond Alfred Willis and Francis Willis, brothers, were before the court on charges in connection with the same case. They were each given a suspended sentence of one year and placed on probation for one year, with Probation Officer George Dunn of the Tolland County Jail, placed on city having custody over them.

Michael F. Mitchell of Springfield, charged with burglary in connection with a motor vehicle, was fined $50 and costs. This was an appeal from the Superior Court at Stafford Springs.

EMERGENCY PEAK IS PASSED—F. D. R. President Orders Alphabetical Units Under Budget Control to Cut Costs.

Hyde Park, N. Y., Sept. 4.—(AP)—President Roosevelt today placed all emergency Federal agencies under control of the Budget Bureau for the curtailment of personnel, with the exception that the peak of the emergency law passed.

By executive order Mr. Roosevelt placed the following seven government units under the budget for emergency administrative expenditures: The Federal Emergency Administration; the Federal Emergency Relief Administration; the Public Works Administration; the Tennessee Valley Authority; the Public Works Administration; the Community Credit Corporation; and the railroad coordinator.

This move completed the placing under budget control of all emergency agencies outside regular executive departments.

The President, in announcing the order at his regular semi-weekly press conference, held today in the White House, said that the emergency law passed.

He added that as fast as the various credit agencies have done their emergency aid he hopes for consolidation.

Asked for an appraisal of the accomplishments of the emergency agencies, the President cited that a million homes have been built for his homesteads and 7,000 banks had been reorganized.

He also stated that the cost to home owners and depositors had been reduced.

Baby and Breast. Portland, Ore.—Five-year-old Lillian Hayashi looked under the pillow in the Portland Zoo and stared, wide-eyed, at the shaggy-haired lion in the cage.

Ill-tempered for some reason, the lion made a sudden pass with his bare claws and struck Lillian. She was landed at a hospital for neck lacerations.

Stefan Zweig, who is a very good biographer, indeed, takes his turn with the body in "Mary, Queen of Scotland and the Isles," and produces a book which will probably rank as the best-seller lists for a long time.

He presents Mary as a woman who had good courage, more "ill" than was good for her, and very ill-luck. In all three qualities she was a great contrast to her arch-rival, Queen Elizabeth, who at last had Mary's head cut off; and to the way the qualities were mingled, Mary was doomed not only to come to a great many men.

Mary was crowned queen of Scotland at the age of six days. She was the daughter of Francis at 16. At 20 she had lost both thrones, crown and kingdom.

Mr. Zweig thinks there is no doubt that she was a woman of great courage, more "ill" than was good for her, and very ill-luck. In all three qualities she was a great contrast to her arch-rival, Queen Elizabeth, who at last had Mary's head cut off; and to the way the qualities were mingled, Mary was doomed not only to come to a great many men.

SOCIALIST LABOR PARTY MEETS THIS EVENING

John W. Allen, of Boston, 1932 Candidate for Vice President, to Be Speaker.

The Socialist Labor Party will hold its first indoor lecture in Manchester this evening at 7:30 p. m., when John W. Allen of Boston will speak on the subject, "Recovery or Revolution?"

Mr. Allen is a member of the National Executive Committee of the Socialist Labor Party and in 1932 was chosen as the party's candidate for the vice-presidency of the United States.

It is stated that the speaker is one of the foremost students of working class economics in the country and has combined this knowledge with great deal of experience in the labor movement. The workers of Manchester are urged to attend a discussion of what is stated to be the greatest problem that ever confronted the human race. There will be no admission charge and a period for questions will be allowed.

MAYOR IS WINNER IN TAMPA CONTEST

Turbulent Election Gives Chancy Big Lead in County-City Conflict.

Tampa, Fla., Sept. 4.—(AP)—Mayor R. E. L. Chancy today appeared to have won another term of office in an election marked by bloodshed in spite of military suppression.

Complete unofficial returns from 21 of the city's 29 precincts showed a total of 7,486 votes for Chancy, who had the support of the city election machine, to 8,007 for D. B. McKay, former mayor, who was favored by the military organization.

Chancy's victory was a surprise to many observers, who expected McKay to win. The election was marked by a riot in which several ballot boxes were overturned and a number of people were injured.

The riot broke out in the morning when McKay's supporters gathered to watch the election. They were met by a line of police and military forces.

SCHOOLS QUICKLY ATTAIN NORMAL STATUS TODAY

Opening Day Formalities Completed in Fast Order; Cold Weather Necessitates Heat Plenty of Home-work for Tonight.

Break and cold weather this morning turned out to be opening day attendance in the public schools of Manchester today was estimated as normal by Superintendent of Schools Arthur Kling, although accurate enrollment figures will not be available until early next week.

Last year, the total enrollment fell to 4748 as compared to 4892 for 1933 and 4861 for 1932. This year's enrollment is expected to approximate these figures. Mr. Kling said today that a check-up will be made tomorrow or Friday and other than Monday, which is usually made up by students who do not return until that time, the heavy drop-out of rain this morning will not affect attendance as possibly in the kindergarten and primary grades.

Plenty of Work. "You'll see the children books this afternoon," said Edson M. Bailey, Manchester High principal, "and there will be enough home-work to go around and keep them on their feet tonight." He added with a smile that he was seconded by Mr. Kling.

NO IMMEDIATE DANGER TO DIKIE'S PASSENGERS

bers of the Dikie's crew were hurt, but none of them seriously, Captain E. W. Sundstrom, captain, cool-headed skipper, reported.

And from an official of the Morgan line, which operates the Dikie, came the wireless that the passengers were "calm and in good spirits" despite their agonizing wait.

The prolonged hours of grinding undergone by the Dikie caused a link in one of her cables to snap, which was also making water in her double bottom.

No Immediate Danger. "She was not in immediate danger; however, according to messages to Captain Sundstrom.

Standing by the liner, ready to launch lifeboats were three fruit boats, Platano, Galun and Limon; a tender, the Kasper, and another passenger boat of the Morgan line, the El Occidente.

France and Britain. "The stormy water has now become calm, indicating that the mariners of the unsuccessful conference had met in Paris.

May Pick Conference. "The Council might appoint a sub-committee to devote itself to the conflict between the United States and that which is an appointment recommended by France.

One important question the Council must decide at the outset is whether the Council's examination of the conflict will be held under Article 10 and Article 10 of 11 of the League Covenant, which Ethiopia likewise has invoked.

Article 10 provides for Council advice on means to preserve the territorial integrity and existing political independence of all members of the League. Article 11 authorizes the Council in the event of a threat of war, to adopt any measures it may deem wise to safeguard the peace of nations.

WOMEN VOLUNTEER. Addis Ababa, Sept. 4.—(AP)—Ethiopian women, wearing sashes and carrying rifles volunteered as war nurses for Emperor Haile Selassie's army today.

For regular assistance in their patriotism, the men and women completely under the influence of the League, the women were not content to serve merely as nurses and assistants but also as combatants.

In past wars in accordance with an old Ethiopian custom, women chieftains who went to the front accompanied them as women warriors.

Retrospective precautions attended the arrival in Djibouti of 150 negro natives of India, who are now traveling by train to Addis Ababa.

Hale's Reorganization Sale Begins Tomorrow

Tomorrow Hale's launch one of the most spectacular sales in the history of the store, a reorganization sale. Hundreds of items throughout the store have been marked down drastically in order to move them quickly. This sale is being held as part of a new program of business being mapped out by the store's executive Herbert B. House and Elmer A. Wieden.

Parochial School Opens; 425 Pupils Begins Term Coincident With Public Schools, Contrary to Other Years.

The St. James' Parochial school on Park street opened for the 1935-36 term today along with the public schools, instead of remaining closed until the following Monday as has been the custom in the past.

Parochial School. The new term marks Rev. P. J. Killean's eighth year as principal of the local school, which has an enrollment of 425 students, most of whom were in school today for the opening session.

N. Y. Stocks Got $57 Weekly Pension And State Work Also

Hartford, Sept. 4.—(AP)—Legislation the comptroller was responsible for repairing to branch offices of the Motor Vehicle Department was preferable to a $20 temporary job or that for that matter, to a permanent job. Strange as it may seem, the former master mechanic at the State Hospital had to make this choice recently and needless to say, he took the pension.

Approval of the Public Works Administration in Washington was all that stood today in the way of the improvement of East Center street next year.
