G. O. P. OLD GUARD IS LOSING GROUND

Nicholas Roosevelt So Says After Tour of Nation - Says New Deal Dead.

New York, Jan. 9.—(AP)—The National Republican Builders Conference today a political analysis by Nicholas Roosevelt, former minister to Hungary, that the "people are losing faith in the Democratic New Deal, but the same time show a marked distaste for the old Conservative leaders of the Republican Party."

"The people," he said, "are sorry they did not vote for Herbert Hoover in 1932, but they do not want to see him get the nomination this time."

Reporting his great aversion to Hoover, he said that the "people are not ready to give up their support for the New Deal, but they are not ready to give up their support for the New Deal."

He said that the G. O. P. presidential ticket would be under the leadership of William E. Borah and that the "people are not ready to give up their support for the New Deal, but they are not ready to give up their support for the New Deal."

MORGAN CO. HANDLED ALL OF ALLIES' TRADE

Lament found fault with a committee which included Charles E. Morgan and others, gathered in New York to discuss the handling of the trade information listed in the "New Deal" magazine.

Whitney said the department's work had been "a failure" and that the "people are not ready to give up their support for the New Deal, but they are not ready to give up their support for the New Deal."

SENSE and NONSENSE

It is so easy to do right when it ceases to be a pleasure.
 Angry Father—What do you mean by bringing my daughter home from a dance at 6 o'clock in the morning?
 Young Man—I had to be at my work at 7.
 Clerk—I cannot live on my salary.
 Boss—Then I'll try to be patient, and wait instead of firing you.
 The kind of patience that causes the trousers to grow shiny has no reward.
 Someone says he doesn't believe anyone "knows where we're going." High Does anyone know where we're at?
 Teacher—Now if I subtract 39 from 87, what's the difference?
 Pupils—That's what I say. Who cares?
 Folks who never do any more than they get paid for never get paid for any more than they do.

Quotations—

I'm too choleric to hit a woman, but if she said I did I'm too good a gentleman to contradict her.
 Fred Stanley, San Francisco, bled to court by a woman with a blue eye.
 The American people won't vote for their president a man by the name of Hoover.
 Norman Thomas, Socialist leader.
 Every human being must have a hero. Life moves along with a routine, sometimes a bit of a titter, but everyone must fill the passing days with the splendor which comes from a hero.
 The Rev. Dr. L. H. Hough, New York.
 About the only people who read poems any more, for the most part, are those with something to lose.—Booth Tarkington, novelist.

FLAPPER FANNY SAYS

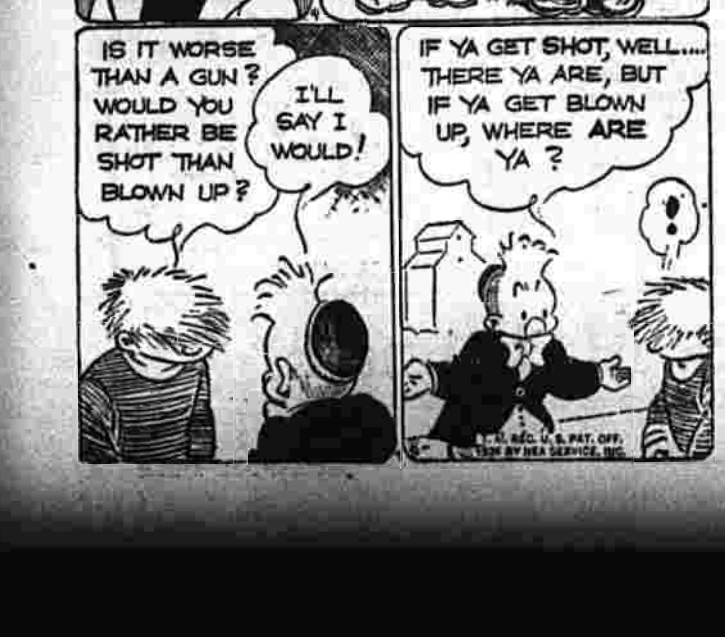

"You think the boats are fat stuck to their jobs, you say? Well, follow me! We'll have a lark and capture one before it's dark. It's just about a minute I will make a little trap."
 "Oh, I will help you," Duncy cried, as he rushed to the hunter's side. "I'm pretty good at things like that, as you will soon find out. If we should make a dandy haul in one trap, at least should cradle 'twill be goodby for you."
 "Why, you're so little," Duncy cried, and he gave the hunter a shove. "I'm glad to say that you can do anything, if you wish to. It had as its miseries" row the boat himself, you Gerbig, and Long Bob Meehan, with the resources of Tony Lutzer at second base, Jumping Dugan at third, and a graceful pitcher staff headed by the highly intelligent southpaw, Herb Fenwick.

Pennek was a manager who played the game on long and well as he did should succeed in that capacity.
 Ruth was popular with his fellow players and didn't make an effort. The Sultan of Swat laughs about his first and only blunder.
 "Ben Egan was my first catcher in organized ball in Baltimore," smiles Ruth.
 A powerful hitter came to the plate in my early days with the Orioles. Ben asked out to the box, told me to pitch carefully, and not to give the batter a good ball.
 "I did it right," he said.
 "I threw a ball waist high over the plate and the batter smacked it for a triple."
 "You said you told me what I told you!" asked Ben.
 "I did," I replied. "It was just waist high."
 But George Herman Ruth is out of it all now with his memories and 76 records.
 The Babe hit more home runs than any other player, and he scored the most runs, and batted in the most runs. He made 100 or more hits in three seasons. He drew the most bases on balls.
 Ruth played in the most world series. He compiled the highest world series batting average. He batted in more runs than any other player in world series competition, and made the most home runs. He played without a manager's salary and still has the respect and admiration of baseball fans everywhere. As field marshal of a team, he shortly would wear the Bronx club as did lovable Walter Johnson.
 Ruth considered the Yankees of 1926, '27, and '28, the finest he ever played with or saw. He had as his pitchers' row the Sox of 1912. Speaker says that was the longest outfit he ever saw with or set eyes on.
 Ruth, here for a while, of sunshine with other graybeards on the green benches that line the sidewalks of this resort city.
 Ruth played with three fat to midling Red Sox array himself. The 1915 Boston outfit for which he pitched included Speaker, Harry Hooper, and Duff Lewis. Jack Barry, Bill Carrigan, Del Gainer,
 The Times all raved out and Scully say, "This man's a little hunter. He's as friendly as can be. We're welcome on his side, and a lark and capture one before it's dark. It's just about a minute I will make a little trap."
 "Oh, I will help you," Duncy cried, as he rushed to the hunter's side. "I'm pretty good at things like that, as you will soon find out. If we should make a dandy haul in one trap, at least should cradle 'twill be goodby for you."
 "Why, you're so little," Duncy cried, and he gave the hunter a shove. "I'm glad to say that you can do anything, if you wish to. It had as its miseries" row the boat himself, you Gerbig, and Long Bob Meehan, with the resources of Tony Lutzer at second base, Jumping Dugan at third, and a graceful pitcher staff headed by the highly intelligent southpaw, Herb Fenwick.

Freckles and His Friends

The 515 oughta be along any minute now!
 I don't want to spoil your fun, boys, but if that crate really contains dynamite, I'll have to take it away from you!
 Sure, it's about as dangerous as money with as all this dynamite as you're carrying around.
 It's okay by me, chief—we don't want that stuff around any more than you do!
 IS IT WORSE THAN A GUY? WOULD YOU RATHER BE SHOT THAN BLOWN UP?
 IF YA GET SHOT WELL... THERE YA ARE, BUT IF YA GET BLOWN UP, WHERE ARE YA?
 I'll say I would!
 I know of!
 I know of!
