Smith Editorial Comment

By ASSOCIATED PRESS
The record of the National party since the convention of 1932 was the record of a man who has uttered, he spoke with might and main, as if he were a man of iron, and he could not be discredited or dislodged. It is for the administration to weigh the counsel soundly and consider with new thoughtfulness the way in which it shall lead.

New York Herald-Tribune (Republican)—To this huge assembly of self-respecting, uncompanying, ambitious men and women Mr. Smith made his plea and made it with a simplicity and clarity that no one else could equal. He made it in his straight, American talk, his shrewd phrases, his good natured but biting thrusts.

State Comments
Arizona Sentinel: It is too early to tell what the exact effect of Al Smith's address will be, or whether it will make good his threat to "take a walk out from present Democratic and Republican political leaders plan to ask other Republican Democrats to make common cause with them against the Roosevelt regime may develop into a fusion movement strong enough to upset all orthodox procedure both at the National conventions and at the polls.

SENSE and NONSENSE

The pleasures of life, like its pains, must be picked carefully, or they may prick us with their thorns.

SUNSHINE SAYINGS
Do they call it the "mother tongue" because she is the one who uses the most? ... What we see depends mainly on what we think. ... Take care of the pennies, and the government takes will take care of the dollars. ... It is called "pin money" because the man of the house usually gets stuck with it. ... Make one person happy each day, and in forty years you have made 14,600 human beings happy, for a little while at least.
