ROUGH SEAS DELAY

PRESIDENT'S FISHING

Miami, Fla., April 6 - (AP) - Strong winds are giving President Roosevelt and his fishing mate a good chance today to test the sea.

The President, accompanied by Mrs. Roosevelt, left the White House at 8 o'clock today for the fishing grounds off the coast of Florida.

High winds have prevailed for the last two days and have caused some delay in the President's departure. He is expected to return to the White House tomorrow.

The President's fishing mate, Mr. Roosevelt, was about due south of Fort Lauderdale today, near St. Augustine, Fla., completing two full weeks at sea.

It was believed likely he would decide during the day on the time he intends to go ashore, probably tomorrow.

One of the two accompanying destroyers, the U. S. S. Dale, came to port here today and the President will remain here until the morning of the 10th.

James Roosevelt, elder son of the President, is expected to arrive in the Dale, planning to take an airplane north to return to his business.

READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE

The long canoe was whirling round, as Scouty paddled fast. Then Scouty loudly cried, "I guess I've paddled right into a man! I wonder how long this will last."

"The way you tried that fish out was wonderful, without a doubt. I'll bet nobody else can catch a fish the way you can."

"Oh, I'll admit I'm pretty good. I did the very best I could, and now I have a monstrous fish."

"I'm going to drag it to the shore, and then I'll make a big blaze row. If you lots want to join me we will eat fish supper awhile."

"You bet we do," yelled Copy. "Gee, a bit of fish appeals to me. Come on, now, Scouty, paddle that canoe right up to land."

The building of a fire means work, and it's not fair for us to shirk. Whatever Duncy plans to do, we ought to lend hand."

As Duncy slowly waded in, he watched the others, with a grin.

SENSE and NONSENSE

Peace at Any Price:
A married man will say: "All right," although he knows that wife's wrong. For that's the only way to make your wedded life one grand sweet song.

FLAPPER FANNY SAYS
The way hats are decorated, women ought to be in the trim for Easter.

Edith, seven years old, came to her mother with a grievance.
Edith—Brother got a quarter for mousetrap last week and it took him only an hour, and I wipe the dishes all week for a quarter.
Mother—I know dear, your kind of work is greatly unappreciated.
Edith (sighing)—Well, I guess there's nothing for us women to do but get married.

Strokeroper—Say, listen, boy, this dime don't ring good!
Boy—Say, listen—what do you expect for a dime—a set of chimes?
Strokeroper—What are you talking about?
Polliceman—What are you talking about?
Battered Man—Well, you see I live on the fourth floor of this building. My wife and I are both very busy people. I just came home from a long business trip, and my wife and I were at the dinner table when a step sounded in the hall and someone tied the door. Well, my wife is so absent-minded that she said, "Goodness, here comes my husband! and I'm so absent-minded that I jumped out of the window."

TOONERVILLE FOLKS

IF YOU MEAN YOU WANT ME TO TAKE HIM ACROSS THERE THROUGH ALL THIS MUD TO CONVINCE HIM THAT IT AIN'T REALLY A BIG STICK OF CANDY?

Margie had been out in the yard playing with some newly hatched chickens and cats running into the kitchen.
Marge—Mother, aren't those little chickens ours?
Mother—Well, dear, Margie—Well, that old hen thinks they are hers.

The past seems more pleasing than the present, not always because things were so much better with us, but because those distant days agree, but because our minds dwell upon the brighter spot.

DEFINITION: A newspaper is a possible screen behind which man hides from the women who are standing up in a street car.

The Clock of Life:
The clock of life is wound but once and no man has the power to reset when the hands will stop, at a late or an early hour. Now is the only time you live; love, eat and sleep will. Place no faith in "tomorrow," for the clock may then be still.
