WPA BOOMERANG

The government's made-work program being carried on by the Works Progress Administration has proved a boomerang in many ways than one.

The administration's plan to spend $3 billion to employ the unemployed has not only failed to reduce the unemployment rate, but it has also failed to reduce the cost of living.

While providing work at what is termed a "subsistence" wage, the program has failed to provide the necessary training and experience for the unemployed.

COL. PARKER'S BOYCOTT

John H. (Mac) Parker, the man who had been an editorial in the Herald criticizing the Yankee Division veterans association for its attempt to force all teachers and educators to take an oath of allegiance to the United States.

Colonel Parker took it to a letter to the Open Forum which is printed elsewhere in today's Herald.

Now Colonel Parker is a busy man, with campaigning for the nomination as Representative to Congress from the Third Congressional district and attempting to devote to the public schools and colleges and universities of the country.

LOTTERY LAWS

The inconsistency that is general throughout the country in the enforcement of lottery and gambling laws is reaching a point gradually that will require pretty explicit clarification.

The laws are being enforced in a way that is causing a great deal of confusion.

Behind The Scenes At G. O. P. Convention

LONDON PROVES HE'S FIDEL, COURAGEOUS

By ROBERT DUTCHER

Cleveland, June 18.—The Republican platform of 1936, like most political platforms, would have been another meaningless document if it hadn't been written by a man who is known as a "break" in a Paris night club.

White, Henry Allen, and Roy Roberts, the three men who drafted the platform, were not the only ones who were behind the scenes.

White, Henry Allen, and Roy Roberts

The three men who drafted the platform were not the only ones who were behind the scenes. They were joined by a group of men who were known as the "backbone" of the party.

These men were the ones who were responsible for the success of the party's platform.

SENSE and NONSENSE

The Business Man Proposes

Upon receipt of your food glance...
Wife - Goodness! I believe you're coming down with a cold again...

Frenchman - You have filled in nationality blank also, sir. You are a Spaniard, are you not?

Spanish - That's nothing. If you dog had paws in the china closet, would you call them soup-plates?

Client - Doctor, I am particularly

Mable to see these men. Could you tell me what is in case of an attack?
Doctor - It isn't necessary, you'll do it.

TRIPS

Fifty years ago, women wore hoop skirts, bustles, petticoats, corsets, cotton stockings, high hats...
Men wore whiskers, square hats, frock coats, red flannel underwear, long shirts and cravats...
Stores burned coal oil lamps, carried everything from needles to an inventory, placed orders for necessities in advance and always made money...

READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE!

Today, women wear silk stockings, high heels, low slung, no corsets, an ounce of make-up, they have had pet dogs and go in for politics...
Men have high blood pressure, wear no hat (some no hair), drink molasses, work five hours a day and play ten, and die young.

WELL stick together!

Scouty cried. "All of you stand right by my side. If we are going to have to fight, we may as well be set!"

There is always one discouraging fact about a great fighter. He is sure to keep it up until he gets whipped, and usually even cowed and badly broken.

Awkwardness in the saddle becomes a sore point for riding novices.

Jim - The boss just made me manager of his doughnut factory.

Joe - Congratulations! Are you in charge of everything?
Jim - Yeah, the hole works.

WELL, SINCE I AM THE

ONE WHO IS MOST INTERESTED IN CONSERVING THE PREHISTORIC SPECIMEN, I'LL TAKE CARE OF THAT!

YOU WOULDN'T MIND CUTTING

THAT OFFER DOWN TO THREE DOLLARS AND A HALF, WOULD YOU?

HEV I GOTTA SEE EASY?

MY GOSH! THAT NITRO TRUCK, EVEN SPLODED TO LIFE DURING AN ACCIDENT. IT WAS MURDER! THEY KILLED TRYING TO GET HIS SON!

WHAT LUCK! WE AIN'T

SHOT A SINGLE THING FOR SUPPER!
NEAR, RE'LL HAFTA EAT SARDINES! (A) WIFE HAVE 'EM LAFF ON US!

WELL, I TOLD YOU

MISSESS OUR DUTZ? FIRST DAYKED TO HAVE A MEAL WE SHOT OURSELVES!

LEAVE IT TO

WOT YA GONNA DO, SAMP? WONT HAVE 'EM HA- HA ON 'EM! LET'S BEAT IT BACK TO CAMP!

ALF M. LANDON : : Picture Story of His Life No. 6

Heartbroken after his wife's death, Alf M. Landon turned over his oil operations to his father in August, 1915, and enlisted for war service. Because of his knowledge of petroleum gas, he was commissioned as a lieutenant in the chemical warfare division in Washington. Less than four months later the war ended.

Landon had won his spurs in politics in 1912 when he followed his father, a Kansas delegate to the Republican national convention, in the Bull Moose revolt. After campaigning for Theodore Roosevelt, he was named precinct committeeman in the Progressives in 1914, serving until the party expired in 1916.

In 1922 Landon served six weeks as secretary to Governor Henry J. Allen (left). Two years later he supported William Allen White (right), newspaper editor, in an unsuccessful, independent campaign for governor.

Except for the two occasions, 1912 and 1924, when he followed White in excursions across party lines, Landon has guided the rising trajectory of his career within the boundaries of Republicanism. In 1928 he was elected state chairman and in that capacity managed Clyde Reed's successful campaign for governor.
