SENATE'S FARM BODY IN FAVOR OF CHEAP MONEY

Agricultural Committee Has Plan For One-Agency Control To Keep Dollar Stabilized; Prices Too Low

Washington, Nov. 26.—(AP)—A recommendation for giving a single Federal agency power to adjust and stabilize the "value of the dollar" came today from the Senate Agriculture Committee in its report on the "ever-normal granary" bill. Asserting that the fluctuating value of the currency as well as crop production affected farm income, the committee report suggested: "The present price level is too low and should be raised to at least the 1929 levels."

Congress should concentrate all powers over the "value of the dollar" in one agency and order the agency "to properly adjust and regulate the value of the dollar thereafter to stabilize such adjusted value."

The Senate committee report was made public just as the House Agriculture Committee formally approved a new crop control bill, by a 16 to 7 vote, and prepared to start debate on the House floor Monday.

Senate Works on Report

Chairman Jones (D-Tex.) of the House committee immediately began writing a report asking the House to accept it. Representatives Anderson, (R-Minn.) and Bollweaver (P-Wis.) said they would file minority reports objecting to many features of the measure.

Reviewing administration monetary moves, the Senate committee report said "cheapening of the dollar" by gold devaluation moves of the President, had stimulated prosperity by raising prices. "The cheapening of the dollar is a deliberate government policy to raise the prices of farm commodities," the report said. "The policy has worked."

Suspects Dollar's Rise

The report attributed the recent recession to a rise in the value of the dollar since last March, adding: "The committee is of the opinion and reports that to date we have not cheapened the dollar sufficiently to raise the price level high enough to show sufficient profits upon which taxes are paid to balance the budget."

At present, the Senate group asserted, control over dollar value is exercised by the President, secretary of Treasury, Federal Reserve governors, Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, comptroller of currency, and private agencies.

On the floor of the Chamber, Senator Pope (D-Iaho), one of the authors of the "ever-normal granary" measure, resumed detailed explanations of the corn and wheat provisions.

Marketing Provisions

Jones, discussing his committee's new House bill, said he considered provisions for increasing domestic and foreign markets for farm commodities its "major feature."

Secretary Wallace, Jones asserted, is required to use the approximate $100,000,000 from tariff revenues set aside annually for agricultural purposes.

CROSS STAYS OUT OF PARTY BATTLE

Factions In State In Fight Over Naming Of Secretary To Succeed W. F. Greene.

Hartford, Nov. 26.—(AP)—Fresh from a victory of election of a National committeewoman, opponents of State Chairman J. Francis Smith and Senator Francis T. O'Connell today were mobilized for further test of their strength.

They predicted that they would again upset Chairman Smith by refusing to permit him to name Joseph F. Mulville of Waterbury as secretary of the Democratic State committee.

When the motion to give Mr. Smith that power is put at the state committee meeting in Waterbury Monday night, the same forces which defeated the Smith-Mulvey candidate for National Committeewoman, Mrs. Winthrop Palmer of Fairfield, except to elect Representative T. Emmett Clarke of Killingly as party secretary to succeed William M. Greene, resigned.

A close vote seems inevitable as both groups put the pressure on the 70 members of the State Central committee.

Underlying this second clash between the two groups is a movement leading to a bitter state convention battle next year for control of the party and, of course, the State Democratic ticket.

Chairman Smith and Senator Mulvey are seeking support for Mul-

New Haven Policemen Notice Broken Drug Store Door— Investigate and Find Man Unconscious Behind Counter.

New Haven, Nov. 26.—(AP)—A drug store cash register played an important part today in Alexander Mergitch's bout with the law, knocking out the 28-year-old Wallingford man in the first round.

Mergitch was found unconscious behind the store counter in the early morning hours, the heavy cash register lying on the floor beside him.

Mergitch insisted he didn't know what had happened when two policemen who noticed glass in the store's front door had been broken, found him. However, Patrolman Nicholas Starvo said it was evident that Mergitch had tugged at the cash register, trying to open it, until it fell on him.

Shanghai, Nov. 26.—(AP)—Spearhead units of Japan's Shanghai armies tore into the heart of Chinese defenses today in a drive which their commander-in-chief declared would force speedy collapse of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek's regime.

Troops were stationed inside the ministry courtyard and all gates to this important government building were barred.

HOLD THREE YOUTHS FOR STATE THEFTS

Waterbury Police Believe The Trio Responsible For Numerous Recent Holdups

Waterbury, Nov. 26.—(AP)—Police Captain Joseph P. Stevens announced today the arrest of three young men, charged with robbery with violence, who, he said, admitted participation in hold-ups or attempted hold-ups here and in several surrounding towns and cities.

He identified the trio as James F. McFee, 24, and Michael Basta, 21, of Waterbury, and George Schuster, 21, of Middletown.

Confessions did not come readily, the police captain said, but only after members of trio had been identified by hold-up victims and had been confronted with evidence by the police during hours of questioning last night and early today.

Police continued today to probe details of numerous other hold-ups and robberies of which the three are suspected but have not yet been definitely implicated, Capt. Stevens said, adding "it will probably take us a week to unravel the whole thing."

Crimes Confessed

Among crimes in which one or more members of trio admitted implication, according to the police officer, were:

The hold-up and shooting of Lou Burkhardt, 76, Southbury gasoline station proprietor on November 6. Burkhardt was slightly wounded.

The hold-up of a meat market last Monday night in Naugatuck with two men, accompanied by a third who stayed in a waiting automobile, made off with $240.

The hold-up of a meat market in Bristol last Tuesday when "about $50" was taken.

The hold-up of a florist's establishment in Naugatuck three weeks ago. About $60 was stolen.

The attempted hold-up of Robert Betta, collector for an insurance company, on a Waterbury street last week. Betta was slugged with a monkey wrench but his cries for help frightened his attackers off.

Captain Stevens also said the driver's license of Fred Shaw, proprietor of a Woodbury gasoline station who was held up recently, was found in a pocketbook carried by one of the trio.

Instead of segregation as in most aquaria, each of the huge tanks shown in the artist's visualization above will house a multitude of species, just as in the open ocean.

BOLSTER MINISTRY GUARD IN FRANCE'S PLOT PROBE

Troops Placed At All Gates Of Important French Govern- ment Building; More Caches Of Arms Found.

Paris, Nov. 26.—(AP)—The cordons of mobile guards which French authorities threw about the Ministry of the Interior with the unearthing of a gigantic conspiracy against the Republic was strengthened today as a "precaution."

Troops were stationed inside the ministry courtyard and all gates to this important government building were barred.

The Suroki National, the National police organization through which the People's Front government sought to trace and wreck the labyrinthine ramifications of the revolutionary ramification, operates under the interior ministry.

MOTHERS, BABIES MENACED BY FIRE

Nurses In Hospital Move 14 Patients To Safety; Paint- ers' Torches The Cause.

Cleveland, Nov. 26.—(AP)—Nurses hurriedly moved 14 mothers and 12 walling new-born babies—only one 12 hours old—to safety today as fire swept a wood and brick annex of St. Ann's maternity hospital.

"It's a good thing this happened in the daytime," said Mrs. Catherine Edgar, one of the nurses who took the patients to the main building. "We could see what we were doing."

Some of the mothers said they waited five minutes before they were carried out.

Mother Is Calm

"I smelled smoke," said Mrs. Fred Beggs, 28, "and I told the woman next to me there was a fire. She started to get up and I told her to lie down and not get excited—we'd be taken care of."

Mrs. Beggs's baby was born Wednesday. Older babies and their mothers were in the building. The delivery room in the annex was not in use.

The fire started in a sewing room. James Nimmo, assistant fire chief, placed damage at $20,000. He expressed belief blow torches used by painters to remove paint from the building caused the blaze.

TAX REVISION URGENT, ROOSEVELT WILL TELL CONGRESS IN MESSAGE

1,500 Soviet Planes Massed In Siberia, Says Japanese Paper

Tokyo, Nov. 26.—(AP)—The Tokyo newspaper Hochi today published a dispatch from Tsuruga asserting that 1,500 Soviet airplanes had been massed in the maritime provinces, that part of Siberia nearest Japan.

The same source reported, 1,000 Russian bombing planes were entering China by way of Stanfu, capital of western Shensi province, presumably to buttress China's resistance to Japan.

Tsuruga is a port on Japan's western coast normally the terminus of steamer services to Vladivostok. Japanese correspondents there frequently forward rumors of developments in Siberia which are not confirmed. Latest reports have not placed the Russian air strength in Far Eastern Siberia at more than 700 or 800.

The Hochi dispatch also said the Russians were rushing submarine parts to Vladivostok, where they were being assembled. This report was repeated in a Harbin, Manchoukuo, dispatch to the Tokyo Nichi Nichi.

The Harbin dispatch asserted that the Moscow government had ordered the staff of its consulate-general there to withdraw on Dec. 15.

Transportation facilities on the trans-Siberian railway, main source of supply for Soviet forces in the far east, were reported being increased.

(Reports that Soviet Russia was assembling a submarine fleet at Vladivostok and doing its utmost to increase the capacity of its railways across Siberia have been coming out of Siberia for three or four years, and in large measure have been confirmed.)

Reports of friction between Japanese and Soviet Russians on the island of Sakhalin, off the coast of Siberia, have reached Tokyo.

The Domei (Japanese) news agency in a dispatch from Toyohara, on the Japanese-owned portion of the island, said Japanese police had decided to adopt a more stern attitude toward Russians.

Several Japanese residents were sentenced to serve 30 years in Soviet prisons without cause, Domei said, and Soviet officials held Japanese fishing boats. Japanese border guards were instructed to "maintain the strictest possible lookout for protection of Japanese and maintenance of Japanese prestige."

State Board's Report On Escape Of O'Connell Kidnap- ers Says There Was Lax- ity In Regulation At Pen.

Albany, N. Y., Nov. 26.—(AP)—The New York State Correction Commission reported today "a laxity in regulation and control" at the Onondaga county penitentiary at Jamestown, N. Y., where three convicted O'Connell kidnapers escaped Nov. 16.

Members of the guard force interrogated were unanimous in stating that at no time had they received any instruction as to the searching or frisking of cells for contraband and that at no time had they made such examination. The commission said.

The report was made after an investigation conducted following the escape of John Oley, Percy (Angel Face) Geary and Harold (Red) Crowley, facing long Federal prison terms for the 1933 kidnaping of John J. O'Connell, Jr., of Albany.

The commission's report came while an Onondaga county Grand Jury was investigating the escape, and the wives of Oley and Geary were lodged in the Albany county jail, awaiting arraignment on charges of assisting Federal officers.

Commissioner's Report
"It is our further conviction that obtaining at this institution indicated a laxity in regulation and control which should not, under any circumstances, be permitted to continue," the commission said.

"On many occasions, it has been urged by the State commission of correction that the state, through legislative enactment, be empowered to take over the management and control of penitentiaries, except the penitentiary of the City of New York."

"In that event, the cost of maintenance and operation should continue to be a charge upon the county in which the institution is located."

"If this procedure were followed, it would result in appointees to institutions of this type being subjected to a three months course of intensive training, as is mandatory for similar employees of state prisons. The commission feels that only by following such a procedure can competent and efficient administration of these institutions be established and maintained."

One proposal favored by Mr. Roosevelt would make it possible for the Federal Housing Administration to finance a $5,000 home for a family head who had as little as

Also To Ask For Moves To Stimulate Private Finan- cing Of Big Housing Pro- gram; Also To Suggest Cut In Federal Expendi- tures For Road Building.

Washington, Nov. 26.—(AP)—President Roosevelt coupled today renewed advocacy of tax revision—as soon as Congress is ready—with three other moves designed to aid business.

Listed at a press conference in reply to questions they were:

A message to Congress Monday on means of stimulating private financing of a big housing program.

A message to Congress Tuesday recommending curtailment of annual Federal contributions to state road-building. This slash recently was suggested by Secretary Morgenthau to help balance the Treasury's budget.

A letter to department heads urging faster spending of a quarter of a billion dollars available for buying supplies in the remaining months of the fiscal year.

How soon tax revision might be "ready" was not immediately apparent, however. Chairman Vinson (D-Ky.) of a House Tax subcommittee said today he would have no objection to bringing legislation easing business tax burdens before the special session if it could be completed in time.

But he said he could not fix a probable date on which a measure might be ready, adding "we just are working as hard and fast as we can."

"If we can get a rounded out program," Vinson asserted, "I have no objection to taking it up any time, and I'm certain that's the attitude of the subcommittee."

Discuss Stabilization

While the White House discussed business aids, Congressional committees talked of dollar stabilization and foreign marketing as adjuncts to pending "ever-normal granary" measures to aid agriculture.

The Senate Agriculture committee suggested a single Federal agency to adjust and regulate the currency, adding that the dollar was buying too little now.

Chairman Jones (D-Tex.) of the House Farm committee, announcing approval by his group of a crop control bill said its most important feature was a step to widen markets and broaden distribution of agricultural products. The bill would require the agriculture secretary to use $100,000,000 from tariff revenues in disposing of farm products, here and expanding markets abroad for surpluses.

Both committees disclosed their views while the Senate was meeting an hour early to resume discussion of its farm measure.

Called Unfair

In that debate, Senator Burke (R-Neb) suggested that Russia lacked anything worse than a provision finding farmers $100 for failing to make reports in connection with marketing quotas. Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich.) called the same provision unfair and Senator Pope (D-Iaho), co-author of the legislation, said he would join in asking modification of it.

The House, which held its first Thanksgiving day session in the memory of the oldest lawmakers, was in adjournment until Monday.

A factor threatening to prevent tax revision at the special session was demand for a Senate vote on the controversial anti-lynching bill.

Senator Van Nuys (D-Ind.), co-author of the anti-lynching proposal, said today he would insist that the Senate stick to its agreement to take it up immediately after voting on the crop control program. An agreement on that point was approved formally in August.

Senator Bailey (D-NC) suggested that sponsors of the anti-lynching bill, which he opposes, might be willing to sidetrack it for tax debate on the ground that the latter is of an emergency nature. But Van Nuys declared:

"There is no reason in the world not to take up the anti-lynching bill after the farm program is out of the way."

"We should dispose of the bill—we have 70 votes in favor of it—and then proceed quickly to other measures."

The likelihood of prolonged anti-

AWAIT JOINT BOARD ON THE AUDITORIUM

Leaders of Movement Say Board of Education Will Set Discussion Date

Starting today there have been no developments in plans of the citizens' committee which has sponsored erection of a large municipal auditorium. Mrs. G. Albert Pearson, one of the leaders in the movement said, "Action soon rests with the Joint School Board in calling attention of the Board of Education to the project was referred."

No plans for the intended structure have yet been approved by the citizens' committee consisting of calling attention of the Board of Education to the project was referred."

Chief among propositions for use of the hall is that it contain a high school for partitioning into classrooms. Also mentioned as possible uses for parts of the building are spaces for cafeteria, classrooms, and gymnasium.

The citizens' committee is now endeavoring to secure the present East Side Rec. Many of the additional schools are expected to be completed originally by the "citizens' committee" but have been taken over by individuals who are in line up in favor of the auditorium.

The Board of Education will be called on Thursday to determine whether the auditorium should be a meeting place to be set for the Joint School Board to give proposition from all angles as to use, expense and feasibility.

Boulder City, Nev., Nov. 25.—(AP)—Buzo Holstrom saw the bones of what an ill-fated craft he made down the rocky Colorado river, and he doesn't want to do it again.

Holstrom was 28-year-old Coquille Ore. adventurer, landed his 16-foot commadore boat here yesterday after a hazardous 140-mile journey. The trip covered seven weeks. The green river stretches was peaceful, but the Colorado offered real trials.

"There were rapids and falls to wade out of," he said. "Huge rocks and swift-running water were fun. Striking one of those would have been a disaster."
