G. O. P. SENATE MEMBERS AID SOUTHERNERS

McNary Declares Republic- ans Will Oppose Any At- tempt To End filibuster On The Lynching Bill.

Washington, Jan. 15.—(AP)—Senator McNary of Oregon said today that Republican senators would oppose any attempt to shut off debate on the anti-lynching bill. "We can not vote for closure (debate limitation)," the Republican leader said. "We have few enough rights left, and we ought to try to preserve those we do have." Some proponents of the bill have urged a limitation on debate to end the filibuster of southern members.

Southern senators, cheered by the Republican stand, asserted that there now was no chance that the bill's sponsors could muster the necessary two-thirds vote to impose closure.

Without such a limitation, they said, their filibuster, now in its ninth day, could be kept going indefinitely. Night sessions—another parliamentary weapon generally used against filibusters—have been discussed, but Senator Barkley of Kentucky, the Democratic leader, reiterated today he did not know when they might be held.

Senator McNellar (D., Tenn.) asserted that night sessions "will only stir up our opposition."

Southerners tied the Senate in parliamentary knots late yesterday with numerous demands for quorum and roll calls.

Senator Connally (D., Tex.) protested that "if the Senate is going to make us stay here and discuss this infernal legislation then the Senate is going to have to stay here and listen."

While the Senate wrangled with the lynching debate, some members of the House Appropriations committee rebelled against approval of legislation to give the President power to veto separate items in appropriation bills. This authority was included in the independent.

ARMY'S EXPANSION IS ALSO PLANNED

Congressman May Urge That It Be Kept In Step With An Enlarged Navy.

Washington, Jan. 15.—(AP)—Rep. May (D-Ky.), newly elected chairman of the House Military Affairs committee, urged today that army expansion be kept in step with the proposed strengthening of naval forces.

May said he would confer next week with General Adm. Craig, chief of staff, about building up the nation's land forces.

He said that he was uncertain how much or in what departments the Army should be bolstered. From other House members, however, came suggestions for the immediate purchase of automatic rifles and other modern equipment, in large quantities.

May became committee chairman upon the resignation of Rep. Hill (D-Ala.) to become a Senator.

Members of the House naval committee disclosed President Roosevelt's message asking a new naval construction program would not be sent to Congress until the House completes action on the regular annual naval appropriations bill about the middle of next week.

Funds to start operation of 22 new naval vessels were recommended for inclusion in the regular measure, but the President is expected to request authorization for a special construction program which would expand the navy well beyond the limits of the deficit London naval treaty.

Chairman Vinson (D-Ga.) of the House Naval committee has proposed a bill to carry out the President's proposals, but has refused to divulge its contents in advance of the message.

Well-informed House members said, however, the bill would authorize construction 20 per cent in excess of present limitations.

27 New Warships
Some members also unofficially provided the extra construction would provide between 27 and 40 warships—three battleships, three or four heavy cruisers, a similar number of light cruisers, 20 destroyers, six submarines and three aircraft carriers. They said the program also would call for aircraft construction about 20 per cent in excess of treaty strength.

JAPS CAPTURE TSINING, PUSH ON FOR SUCHOW

Big Rail Junction Is Main Ob- jective; Chiang Executes Two Generals; Chinese Planes Make Many Raids.

Shanghai, Jan. 15.—(AP)—Vital rail junctions controlling Central China's rich agricultural region were menaced today as the Japanese drove retreating Chinese troops southward after capturing strategic Taining, in South Shantung province. Gunfire had reduced Taining to ruins and all civilians had fled when Japanese forces finally gained control of it. The town, lying along the ancient Grand Canal on a spur of the Tientsin-Pukow railway, had changed hands several times in recent fierce fighting engaging close to half million Chinese and Japanese soldiers.

Pushing south toward the important junction city of Suchow on the Lunghai railway, the Japanese seized another small town, Ting-chiakiao, while the Chinese 29th Army was withdrawing in the direction of Kinasau, 27 miles south of Taining.

Suchow, in Kiangsu province approximately 150 miles south of Taining, was the main objective of the Japanese forces advancing southward. It is the junction point of the Lunghai railway, the great north-south line linking Tientsin and Pukow.

Of equal importance to the Japanese is their drive to capture the Peking-Hankow line near Chengchow, where the Lunghai railway crosses the Peking-Hankow line.

Control of Chengchow, situated about 200 miles west southwest of Taining in Honan province, would cripple the transportation of supplies from interior China to Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek's forces struggling to hold this fertile plains region. Chiang Kai-shek has about 600,000 troops in this area.

The Chinese press, in contrast to the loss of Taining, also reported that General Liu To-Chieh and Wan Pu-Lin had been tried and executed on charges that they were responsible for unnecessary deaths in the vicinity of Shanghai and Szechow.

Chinese sources said Japanese warplanes and bombers shelled Chinese positions at Taining, on the Yangtze river above Wuhu, were dispersed by Chinese planes.

A Japanese naval report told of Japanese planes "bombing all day" when they discovered ten freight trains on the Chinghai-Hankow railway in the vicinity of Pakoowok. The planes were said to have destroyed the trains.

Since Bonn's success under such circumstances was considered impossible, Albert Sarraut, head of the Chamber of Deputies, was considered the next choice for the post.

The Socialist delegation in the Chamber of Deputies adopted a resolution demanding the Premier.

"Smallest Baby" Has Birthday

Brown-eyed Jacqueline Jean Benson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Benson of Chicago, celebrates her second birthday anniversary by tipping the scales at 24 pounds, compared to an estimated 12 ounces when she was prematurely born. Physicians said medical history showed no evidence of a twin baby surviving.

SOCIALISTS OPPOSE BONNET'S PLAN TO FORM NEW REGIME

New French Leader Told Party Will Not Support Cabinet To Carry Out His Conservative Policy.

Paris, Jan. 15.—(AP)—Determined Socialist opposition today threatened efforts of Georges Bonnet, Radical-Socialist premier-designate, to reform France's shattered People's Front into a government under his leadership.

Leo Blum, leader of the Socialist and head of the original People's Front government, flatly told Bonnet his party could not support a cabinet formation to carry out Bonnet's conservative solution for the people.

SNOWBALLING ROW ENDS IN MURDER

New Britain Man, Demand- ing Revenge For Child, Slain; Killer Is Sought.

New Britain, Conn., Jan. 15.—(AP)—A factory worker, who, police said, sought "revenge" for his children's snowballing died today of a gunshot wound. Sergeant Daniel Michael, of the University Police force, disclosed the discovery today and said most of the snowballs were nearly 200 years old and were written by a snowballer with a "special" when he called at the home of Charles Abowee, a neighbor, last night.

The officer quizzed Abowee as saying that he had a knife apparently to enforce his demand. He was pushing his wife into the kitchen when he heard a shot.

Michael, 34, brother-in-law of Abowee, present at the time, was sought by the police for questioning today. Sergeant Michael said that he had seen Abowee's name on the list of names.

He said he had been shot. He leaves his wife and two step-sons and two stepdaughters.

TOKYO WORRIED BY NAVY SHOW AT SINGAPORE

Sees U. S.-British Combine In Cruisers' Visit As Cabinet Gives Up Hope Of China Yielding, Until The End.

Tokyo, Jan. 15.—(AP)—The Japanese cabinet and high navy and army officials decided today that the conflict with China must continue to "its ultimate objective." A draft of the government's China policy was prepared after lengthy conferences by the cabinet and the imperial headquarters of military leaders directing the undeclared war.

Twenty-four retired generals endorsed the decision, growing from an imperial conference with Emperor Hirohito. Among them was former Premier Senjuro Hayashi.

The Japanese government, for the permanent peace of East Asia, has hitherto been conducting punitive operations against the anti-Japanese government of China on the one hand and endeavoring, on the other, to give that government a chance for self-reflection at weakening of its general point of view.

From general circumstances, however, the Japanese government is compelled to conclude that China shows no signs of reorientation, and the Japanese government therefore must proceed with resolution to the enforcement of its established policy objective.

The home minister summoned retired government officials acquainted with the seriousness of the situation, and through them the Japanese public.

Emergency legislation for presentation to the Diet was being drafted the day after the visit.

The newspaper Yomiuri said the Chinese ambassador might be urged to leave the country.

Domestically, reports that Japan and Korea were declaring allegiance to the Peking regime.

In apparent contradiction, however, the Japanese public.

Fairbanks, Alaska, Jan. 15.—(AP)—Sir George Hubert Wilkins and a companion dared bitter Arctic winds and deep snow today to continue a renewed search for Russian fliers. The expedition, led by Wilkins, left on a trans-Arctic flight.

After cruising to within 700 miles of the North Pole, Wilkins headed back toward Alaska, N. W. T.

FAVORS UNIFORM LAWS FOR ALL MUNICIPALITIES

Over 100 Mayors, Town and City Officials Of Con- necticut Hear Plea For A Change In The Statutes.

Hartford, Jan. 15.—(AP)—A well-attended, uniform, general state statute governing local financial administration is needed in Connecticut, according to a plea made today by more than 100 mayors, town and city officials of Connecticut.

The Connecticut League of Municipalities at its first annual meeting here today.

Roger S. Baldwin of Greenwich, secretary of the Connecticut League of Municipalities, said that the league would bring before the legislature a bill to create a commission to study municipal finance and to recommend uniform laws governing local financial administration, including budgeting, accounting and reporting as well as an adequate regulatory system for that year.

AGREE TAX PLAN WOULD AID TRADE

Republicans, Democrats In Accord On Some Points As Hearings Are Begun.

Washington, Jan. 14.—(AP)—Republican and Democratic legislators also asserted today a proposed tax revision plan, on which the House Ways and Means Committee ordered hearings, would help business and far exceed the present tax system.

The committee asked Roosevelt Magill, Treasury undersecretary, to start the testimony at 9 a. m. eastern standard time by explaining how the new tax program would work. It would make fundamental changes in the taxes on capital gains and undistributed corporate income, reduce exemptions from estate and gift taxes, and abolish some 223,000,000 in excise levies.

Subcommittee said in a report yesterday that the result should be business without any loss in revenue.

Becomes Associate Justice To Succeed Justice Sutherland; Expect Quick Action By Senate On Nomination; Had Long Been Mentioned For Position.

Washington, Jan. 15.—(AP)—President Roosevelt today nominated Solicitor General Stanley Reed to be an associate justice of the Supreme Court.

Reed will succeed Associate Justice George Sutherland, whose retirement from the high tribunal is effective January 18.

The nomination is the second Mr. Roosevelt has made in his two terms.

Last fall he selected the then Alabama Democratic Senator Hugo L. Black to succeed Associate Justice Willis Van Devanter.

There is some expectation that soon he may have to fill another seat on the court since it is believed that the serious illness of Justice Benjamin Cardozo may necessitate his resignation.

Reed long has been discussed as a possible appointee to the Supreme Court. His name was mentioned in speculation over Van Devanter's successor.

News Spreads Quickly
Word that the nomination would be made today spread through the Capitol a few minutes before it was presented to the Senate by Maurice C. Latta, White House executive clerk.

On the Senate floor, where copies of the nomination were quickly passed among members by pages, knots of excited conversation formed speedily.

Reed was born at Mayville, Ky., Dec. 21, 1884, and practiced law there after studying at Kentucky Wesleyan college, Yale, the University of Virginia, Columbia and the Sorbonne in Paris.

As solicitor general he has carried the burden of arguing many of the New Deal's general bills before the Supreme Court. During the Roosevelt administration.

He is known to have made a highly favorable impression among lawyers and even his opponents in the Supreme Court.

SNOW ON SIDEWALKS
 When the town of Manchester, many years ago, adopted an ordinance making it obligatory for property owner or tenant to assume responsibility for removal of snow from sidewalks abutting on his holdings, it did so under authority of a statute passed long ago by the Connecticut General Assembly. An acre of the skating surface of Center Springs pond was cleared today by Sherwood G. Bowers, using a caterpillar tractor equipped with a snow pusher. It is the first time that a tractor has been used to clear the pond of snow and it does the work much better and faster than by scrapers and horses. The ice on Center Springs is about ten inches thick.

Owners of sleds who have had little opportunity to use them in the past two years, are taking advantage of the ski jump off Edgerton street onto the skating pond in Center Springs Park. There is a sharp decline from the west side of Edgerton street down the grade through the woods towards the pond, with a fair jump to be made. Manchester has but few real ski jumpers and while they are able to hold their feet on the downgrade there are many spills when they strike the pond.
