Crack Train Cracks
Many long steel trains pull out of Chicago every night for the west coast. For years passengers on them have felt as safe as in their own homes.

Last weekend Frank Merrifield, known as "one of the best men who ever handled a locomotive," was speeding one of the best of those trains, the Olympian, across Montana. A track walker, on ahead, found Custer creek practically dry.

But Custer creek suddenly filled and ran wild, sweeping out the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul's 100-foot trestle over it. The leading passenger car, with all its crew, was jacked up on blocks Monday night after hours of toil, but slipped and sank in two minutes again, and workmen did not get its occupants' bodies out until Tuesday night.

ABOUT TOWN

The members of the arrangement committee for the General Welfare mass meeting to be held in the Nathan Hale school auditorium Sunday, are requesting to convene in the classroom at the north end of the lobby in order that they may enter the auditorium in a body.

Officers were not elected at the meeting of the Painters and Paperhangers, as scheduled for Thursday night, the election of officers going over to a meeting to be held on July 23 when it is expected a larger number of members will be present.

J. A. Trivette of 34 Spruce street leaves for Scranton, Penn., today to attend the national convention of the Lithuanian National Alliance, which opens in that city on Monday and will continue through the week. He goes as a representative of the alliance in Connecticut.

The Misses Nellie Hudson of Center street and Enna Johnson of Maple street left yesterday on the S. E. George Washington for two weeks' stay at the Kenilworth Cottage, Virginia Beach, Virginia.

Mrs. John Tabano and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Testatore have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Fabiano at their beautiful home at 128 Autumn street. Mr. Testatore is a rice and sugar broker in Wall street and business makes it necessary to return to New York this coming week. Mrs. Fabiano is the mother of Vincent Fabiano and is no stranger in Manchester for this is her fifth visit here.

Manchester Assembly, No. 15, Order of Rainbow, will hold its final meeting of the season, Monday evening at 7:30 at the Masonic Temple.

Rev. Lee Baker, pastor of the Adventist church in Pasadena, Cal., is visiting his uncle, Martin L. Gilman of Main street. Mr. and Mrs. Gilman also have at their week-end guests, Mrs. Ariona Jackson and two children of Newbury, Vermont.

Owing to a delay in the receipt of a part of the equipment, it has been found necessary to postpone the opening of the new Bolton Lake playhouse until Wednesday evening, July 6.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Armstrong of East Center street have as their guests, Mr. Armstrong's brother William, his wife; their daughter, Miss Dorothy Armstrong and two sons and daughter, and Mrs. Armstrong's mother. Formerly of Providence they have been residents of Sarasota, Florida for 14 years.

Mrs. Theora Roehr of Greenhill street will present a group of her piano pupils in closing recital Monday evening at 7:30 at Emanuel Lutheran church. The program will consist of solos, duets and two-piano numbers. William Ferritt, local journalist, will be the assistant artist. Parents and all friends interested will be welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. Nils Carlson and son Ronald of Forest street are visiting friends in Big Lake, Minn., where they formerly lived. Mrs. Carlson prior to her marriage was Miss Madeline Bolin.

There will be a special rehearsal of Center church choir at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning.

LOCAL VETS ATTEND STATE CONVENTION Leave This Morning For Annual Program, Election Of Officers In Greenwich. More than a dozen cars loaded with VFW boys, members of Anderson-Bea Post, started for Greenwich and the State Convention parade and review this morning from Hartford in the State Police conducted convoy. The parade will start at 2:30 p. m. with Manchester's band and unit leading. Shortly after the parade the state's National Championship Drum Corps will compete with other state units in the State Championship tournament. While the local post has no candidate for office in the department, it is expected that the unit will be given recognition for the fine record established in past activities and with the band at the department session this evening. Clarence Peterson and Herbert Husek are in charge of the parade unit this afternoon.

Receives Degree In Chiropractic

Dr. Richard C. Alton, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard C. Alton of 249 East Center street, received the degree of Doctor of Chiropractic at the commencement banquet of the Connecticut Chiropractic College, held at the William Penn Hotel, Pittsburgh, Penn. Prior to his entrance in college, he graduated from Manchester High School and took a short course at Morse Business College in Hartford. While at University he was a staff member of the school publication, "The Universalist," and the president of his class during his Junior year. He has also been a member of the Upsilon Chi Beta Fraternity throughout his school term, acting as secretary during his Junior year, and the highest in this comparatively new profession, and it is supported and directed by the own Alumni Association. The science of Chiropractic, though a twentieth century edition to the healing arts, has developed the second largest following among the healing professions of the United States. Dr. Alton's present plan is to pursue further specialized study for the next year, prior to opening his office.

AUCTION MARKET TRADING IS HEAVY

Volume Of Sales Large, Prices At High Level; Vegetables Coming In. LOCAL MAN IS "IN" ON DAILY DOUBLE

On arriving home last night after opening the afternoon at the Agawam race track, a Manchester man found in looking over the tickets that he had bought, that he held a ticket with the combination 78 on the daily doubles run at the track yesterday. Friends of his in checking the races noticed that the winner of the first race, Eeter, was No. 7 horse, and who, winner of the second race was the No. 8 horse, which meant that the combination formed the number 78. The daily double yesterday paid $110.60 and as the ticket was not cashed yesterday the holder of the ticket is starting early this afternoon for Agawam to present the ticket and hope to cash in on the ticket to the tune of $110.60, considered not a bad return on a $2 investment.
