HIGHWAY EFFICIENCY IN A CRACK-UP AGAIN

Selectmen Rip Open Management; Chambers Says Board 'Hasn't Backbone' To Correct Situation.

By E. MALCOLM STANNARD
The highway department's failure to handle the spring road repair situation properly, together with what was called a "breakdown in management" of the department, has been the subject of a scathing attack by the selectmen of the town of Southbury, Conn. The selectmen, in a meeting held last night, criticized the highway department's performance and called for a complete reorganization of the department.

Not Capable
Previous to this request it was pointed out that the highway department is not capable of handling the road work, and that "everybody in the highway department is a loss except for the selectmen."
