

AMERICANS ENTERTAIN BRITISH ROYAL COUPLE

See Square Dancers From North Carolina And Kentucky Girls As Well As Opera And Radio Stars.

Washington, June 9.—The Queen of England, wearing a diamond and ruby coronet, sat forward in her chair to watch Soap Box Square Dancers from North Carolina and Kentucky "kick 'em down" with side and song.

Britain's king-emperor, resident in evening attire and glittering decorations, sat by Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt to hear the "Oon Creek Girls from Kentucky 'kick 'em down" with side and song.

The unusual scene was the climax of a state dinner and music at the White House last night in honor of the visiting monarchs—a program in which American folk artists and dancers appeared with such eminent entertainers as Lawrence Olivier and Marian Anderson, the Negro contralto.

Peak At State Dining Room. Before the program, take a look at the color-photographed room.

First, there had to be an extra cushion for Queen Elizabeth's chair, which of course was at the right of President Roosevelt. Then, Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, Letitia, Mrs. Cordell Hull, Secretary Woodrow Wilson and so on.

Across the big horseshoe table, decorated with hundreds of fragile white orchids, in and around Mrs. Roosevelt in lovely afternoon dress, King George was at her right.

Next to him was Mrs. Charles Evans Hughes, wife of the chief justice, now ill. Vice-President Garner sat at Mrs. Roosevelt's left, the Lady Lindsay, Secretary Hull, and Lady Katherine Seymour.

At the left of the president were Mrs. Garner, Sir Ronald Lindsay, Mrs. Benckard, and on around the table were 82 of Washington's and London's official elite.

Queen Elizabeth talked most about the weather, thought it was quite hot. Her children, she said, were just beginning to get the first sign: "Chicken is a king 25 cents."

Then the ladies moved to the dining room, where Queen Elizabeth sat on a couch and the guests took turns talking to her. In the dining room, President Roosevelt signed autographs for King George and Vice-President Garner to come around to his side of the table, and all the men were served liquors and coffee.

SALUTE RESERVED FOR KING ALONE

Navy Orders Higher Honors For Monarch Than For Its Commander-In-Chief.

Washington, June 9.—The Navy, host of the king and queen today, ordered that a brief voyage down the Potomac to Mount Vernon, ordered greater honors for the British ruler than for its own commander-in-chief.

At President Roosevelt's direction the salute of 21 guns customarily given the president and heads of other states was reserved for the king alone.

Otherwise all the Navy courtesies were put into the program for the monarch. The British royal standard flew 15 miles to the program for the monarch.

Bit of Buckingham Palace Brought to Garden Party

Washington, June 9.—The bit of Buckingham Palace in the White House garden party, but they didn't seem to mind the demurely American touches.

The queen, carrying a dainty ruffled parasol which matched her outfit, was escorted to the garden party by the king.

GOVERNMENT READY FOR TIMBER SAWING

Sawmills Arrive To Work On Manchester Hurricane Logs At Various Points.

Announcement made today indicates that the large amount of hurricane felled timber which has been stored at various landings near Manchester shortly will be saved for commercial use. During the past months government agencies have been purchasing thousands of bogged feet of timber, and it is understood that after the logs are saved the government will use part of the lumber itself and arrange for sale of the remainder by methods which will not depress the market. Four sawmills worth about $3,000 apiece were delivered recently to the Willimantic office of the Timber Salvage Administration. Bought by the U. S. Forest Service, they are near Manchester, Willimantic and Somers the mills will each manufacture 100,000 board feet of lumber per hour and are complete with edger and trimmers. They will be leased to private concerns by the Government and will saw hurricane damaged logs purchased by the Federal Foresters.

DISCIPLE OF YOGA BURIED ALIVE TODAY

Bombay, June 9.—A disciple of Yoga had himself buried alive today in a Bombay suburb to demonstrate the power of his philosophy. Before a huge crowd and with the ceremony broadcast by the All-India Radio, Shree Bhagwanramji proclaimed he would be unharmed by 12 hours in the sealed grave. Bhagwanramji said that the body would be unharmed but that the flowers that wreathed him would be undried when the grave was opened. He sat on a desk in a room at the bottom of the grave while bystanders piled in the earth. When the hole was filled corrugated iron sheets were placed on the top and the edges were cemented.

CHANCE OF AGREEMENT ON ALLIANCE IS SEEN

Moscow, June 9.—The Soviet government newspaper today prominently displayed today a suggestion in an article by Winston Churchill, wartime first lord of the British Admiralty, that an indirect guarantee be given three Baltic states in the proposed British-French-Soviet mutual assistance pact. This was interpreted to mean there was some chance of reaching a three-power agreement on the Baltic pact. The article stated that the pact would be a guarantee to Finland, Latvia and Estonia was well founded and the difficulty would be surmounted by a joint declaration that the three powers would not tolerate either an invasion of the Baltic states or the creation of puppet regimes within them.

WILL RETRACE ROUTES SAILED BY COLUMBUS

Cambridge Mass., June 9.—In an effort to rewrite more accurately the opening chapter in America's history, a Harvard expedition headed by Prof. Samuel Eliot Morison will retrace next fall the routes followed by Christopher Columbus during his voyages in the early world. Sailing aboard the 140-foot steel schooner Capitana about Aug. 1 from Oyster Bay, L. I., the party will study the discoverer's navigation, seek out on the Panama coast the site of the first European settlement on the mainland and view the route and islands as Columbus saw them. They expect to be gone until Feb. 1.

PICKED AS OFFICIAL WHITE HOUSE ANNEX

Washington, June 9.—The rambling old State Department Building, it was learned today, has been picked for an official annex to the White House across the street. Federal officials have decided to ask Congress for money to build the State Department Annex elsewhere so that the President's six new assistants, the Budget Bureau and other direct aides of the chief executive will have more room.

WILL ERASE BIRTHMARKS

Indianapolis, June 9.—Indiana University Medical Center researchers have found radium can be used to erase birthmarks. Dr. Lester Smith reported today. He said birthmarks are not ordinary skin blemishes but sometimes have a powerful psychological effect on children.
