METHODIST CONFERENCE DROPS EPISCOPAL TITLE

New England Parley Follows Example Of Kansas City Gathering When Methodist Churches Merged

By REV. W. D. WOODWARD
Full River, Mass. June 10.—New England Southern Conference of the Methodist church, which has been in session for several days, today voted to drop the title of "episcopal" from its name. The title was dropped by a vote of 100 to 50.

The above title is now the name of what has been called for several years by two different names. For about fifty years it was called the "Presbytery of New England" and for the last twenty years it has been known as the "New England Southern Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church."

The title work done in this 99th session of the Methodist Episcopal church here under the leadership of the new resident bishop, Dr. W. D. Woodward, was to drop the title of "episcopal" from its name.

By the unanimous and masterful presidency of the new young bishop, the conference was held in a way very pleasing to the members throughout the three districts. Providence, New Bedford and Northampton. Bishop Woodward has given three wonderful addresses under the title "A Sense of What is Vital," "The Stimulus of Christ," "Christ the Center." These talks were inspiring and uplifting.

The bishop also makes the routine business with fine ease and courtesy.

Appointments made by the large gathering of a couple of days ago at the appointments were completed by the presiding bishop at the close of the Sunday night service. Dr. Woodward returned home Saturday morning.

Among the special addresses of the week were those of Rev. John J. Charlton, who was pastor of the Union Church from 1917 to 1921. He gave an appealing sermon on "A Timely Word."

Old Age & Taxes

THE House of Representatives rejected the Townsend old-age pension plan last week. But the percentage of old folk in the American population is increasing, and Dr. Francis E. Townsend has promised to fight on in 1940. To discourage this movement and at the same time appease business, the aim of social security amendments which the House considered this week.

The WORLD This WEEK

Current Events As Seen By The Cartoonists

Abroad

For Peace, And How!
The "facilitate and moderate" formation of a British-French-Russian bloc. Prime Minister Chamberlain's small talk was not intended as a means of helping business. Sen. James M. Mead would provide federal insurance for bank loans. And Federal Reserve Board Chairman Marriner Eccles, former Utah banker and former Federal Reserve "spending" leader, is now advocating a new system of profits from gold development as a "solution" for a liberal new system of loans to small business.

Upcoming

What Farmers Made

Last year American farmers got $7,338,000,000 for products marketed. $482,000,000 in government benefits and agricultural $1,200,000,000. The bureau of agricultural economics estimates how this $9,220,000,000 compares with other years.

Officially Dead

One August evening nine years ago New York's Supreme Court Justice Joseph Crater, seemingly in excellent health, dined with a friend in a taxi and vanished. This week he was declared legally dead. But further court action is necessary to determine whether insurance companies must pay the $30,000 he had insured himself with.

SENSE AND NONSENSE

It is important to walk carefully as well as drive carefully.

An intoxicated man who boarded a metropolitan motor bus, instead of climbing the narrow steps, found the drunk would fall out on the street. A fellow passenger, fearing that the drunk would fall out on the street, stepped forward and caught him. He was so dizzy that he fell on his face. The driver, seeing the man in a dangerous position, stopped the bus. The man, however, was not hurt.

A Manchester man went to the insurance office to have his life insured. The agent asked him if he was a member of the local fire department. The man replied that he was not. The agent then asked him if he was a member of the local police force. The man replied that he was not. The agent then asked him if he was a member of the local fire department. The man replied that he was not.

Just as often as a firm, a firm will get this back through any means provided, but businessmen consider it money well spent. Winning a league, city or national championship can mean as much to a player as a bonus.

America is a sports-minded nation, and a three-hill man has a lot to the wader, stenographer or clerk.

Why Camel Survives As Form of Travel

Automobiles and the airplane are steadily revolutionizing transportation in the far corners of the world, speeding it up, making it easier. But when it comes to a vital form of travel, camels are just as important in some arid regions of the world as ever were centuries ago.
