CAPT. JOHN HENRY WELL KNOWN HERE

The death of Captain John M. Henry of the Hartford Police Department, a noted figure in baseball and track during the past half century, recalls to old timers the happy days of Talbotville's supremacy on the diamond back in the Eighties.

It was in 1888—also remembered for a "kiss"—that Talbotville combined its baseball force with Manchester to produce a championship professional array that met and defeated all comers throughout the state.

Local Man To Go To Carlsbad Caverns in New Mexico—Won The Post.

Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Hallack and son, of 181 Main street, will leave on June 25 for Carlsbad Caverns National Park, Carlsbad, New Mexico.

Mr. Hallack recently received an appointment as Park Ranger as the result of a competitive examination given by the U. S. Civil Service Commission.

Mr. Hallack is a graduate of the Connecticut State College where he studied forestry. He has been actively engaged in this work since his graduation in 1933.

Following the hurricane of last fall, Mr. Hallack has been employed as Forester on the Forests of the U. S. Forest Service.

The Hallacks plan to drive to New Mexico, making short stopovers at Baltimore and Manassas Park National Parks, Ky.

their plans to church. If everyone could visit our church would be their very Sunday.

At a day crowded with friendly contacts the Howells took their royal guests down to the little railroad station at Hyde Park, and with handbags and wads of good-byes, sent them off to Canada again.

A throng at the depot saw "Auld Lang Syne" as the train pulled out, with George and Elizabeth waving from the rear platform.

The special train stopped for 20 minutes at Renouville, near Albany, last Sunday night, but the King and Queen evidently had retired, and were not seen by kinds of people who stood in the rain.
