CHAPTER VII
This week of the month of July Iris tried to make Bart by a summer suit.

He glanced at her curiously, and his mouth tightened but he didn't say anything. He thought she couldn't afford the movies, dances and parties they went to now, let alone any further gadding. Iris couldn't tell him his guarded expression.

She started at her perplexity. Her pretty, petulant face was angry and hurt and the heat had burned her eyes. She felt as if she were in a powder, rouge and make-up to un-derstand her. She believed it so much she was making herself miserable over it.

SHIELDS IS HONORED DURING ROYAL VISIT

Presented Personally To The King And Queen During Special Entertainment Held In The White House.

One Manchester man was highly honored during the recent visit to Washington of the King and Queen of Great Britain in being presented personally to both Queen Elizabeth and King George, and later called upon to give a special performance for their Majesties.

The one so honored was Chester Shields, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chester W. Shields of 10 School street, Manchester. Shields was accompanied by his wife, Mrs. Shields, and his daughter, Mrs. Marie Band, Washington, D. C. The President's Own High School joined the Marine Band a year ago and made their debut before the King and Queen during the Royal visitation, which was the first time that the band had ever performed before a monarch.

Shields, selected from the band of 125 members to form an orchestra for the entertainment to the King and Queen, was accompanied by his wife and daughter. The entertainment was given by Mrs. Shields following the entertainment by Lawrence...

MURPHY ADDRESS CATHOLIC CLIMAX

Congress Devoted To Discussions Of Social-Economic Conditions Doctrine Adjourns.

Cleveland, June 15.—The second National Catholic Social Action Congress was in adjournment today after a three-day session climaxed by an address by Attorney General Frank Murphy.

The Congress was devoted to discussions of social-economic doctrine as found in the encyclicals of Pope Leo XIII and Pius XI, treated from the viewpoint of management, labor and the church.

Shields, selected from the band of 125 members to form an orchestra for the entertainment to the King and Queen, was accompanied by his wife and daughter.

Engineer Devises Simple Blind Landing Indicator

Blind Landing Indicator

A simple and effective blind landing indicator has been devised by a young engineer named Bill Lewis of 10 School street, Manchester. The device is a simple mechanical contrivance which is attached to the tail of an airplane and which gives the pilot a visual indication of the height of the plane above the ground.
