COAST YOUTHS Tennis Comers

Kramer and Van Horn May Play Doubles in Davis Cup Event.

Merton, Pa., Aug. 22—(AP)—A couple of kids from California, Jack Kramer and Ned Van Horn, gained favor today for the coveted-if slightly dubious—doubles assignment on the U. S. Davis Cup team.

New stars on the international tennis horizon, the 18-year-olds took the courts at Marine stadium yesterday confident they will help American defend the cup there this fall.

Whoever gets the doubles call probably will feel like an untired heavyweight going in the ring with Joe Louis, for their opponents are almost sure to be Adrian Panik and John Bromwich, Australian magnificence. But the prospect doesn't frighten the Coast youngsters. All they want is a chance.

"We hope to prove to Mr. Pale (Walter Hays, U. S. tennis director) that merit alone was the most logical choice," the kids chorused. "You can't beat them at tactics. You've got to drive them off the courts."

Brook Barnes, American coach, looked pleased at the youngsters' performance but was careful not to anticipate Pale's decision.

A two-hour match between the pair for both runs, the 3575 m.p.h. ball.

Here Is Background Of Soviet-Reich Pact

Treaty Would Make Former Enemies Friends; Hitler Has Always Slapped at Russians.

By The Associated Press

A complete all-out, starting and full of possibilities, turning the course of future events, appears to be involved in the pact of non-aggression which Germany and Russia have announced they have signed.

The pact would make passive friends at least of Nazi and Soviet regimes which have attacked each other's bitter enemies of Communism.

Uncompromising foe of Communism and all kinds of internationalism, Adolf Hitler, who has to power in Germany on a program of nationalistic revivalism, has in power, he became one of the world's bitter enemies of Communism.

At the Nuremberg Nazi Party Congress Sept. 15, 1935, he spoke of the pact with Russia as a "strategic move" which would "enable us to concentrate our forces against the common enemy."

On the other hand, the bitterest foe of Hitler's regime, Joseph Stalin, has in power in Russia on a program of internationalism, and has in power in Russia on a program of internationalism, and has in power in Russia on a program of internationalism.

Major League Leaders

What did not say Germany had any intention of taking Ukraine, his words were interpreted as meaning Germany had broken the treaty of Brest-Litovsk. It was a surprise to many who had expected that Germany would not touch Poland and the Baltic states and naturally might not be averse to signing the pact with Russia.

On the other hand, the bitterest foe of Hitler's regime, Joseph Stalin, has in power in Russia on a program of internationalism, and has in power in Russia on a program of internationalism.
