What It Means
 Russia Marches West
 Washington, Sept. 30.—The Russian march on Poland at the gates of Vienna is not to be taken as a sign of a general assault on Europe. It is the reality that it brings up and France must decide now whether it will consider the last year as a year to defeat both Germany and Russia in a long war or whether it will consider the last year as a year to defeat Germany by adjusting the present conflict for a few years at most and by some means or other patch up a new alignment of forces with which later to again attempt to gain the mastery of Europe.

The Evening Herald As a Daily Now a Quarter Century Old

Herald Recalls Two Birthdays With This Issue

Completes Half Century of Service

25 Years Ago This Newspaper Began Daily Career; Publisher Ferguson Completes 50 Years

The Herald today observes its 25th anniversary as a daily newspaper in Manchester. Further than that, it celebrates its publisher as well as himself, since Thomas Ferguson, publisher, today completes 50 years as a Herald man.

The Herald family goes upon its 50th birthday, a date of particular importance to the family. It is not only the anniversary of the birth of the newspaper, but also the anniversary of the publisher's life.

Early in 1929 the Herald became a daily newspaper. This change was made possible through the generous support of the community and the determination of the publisher, Thomas Ferguson.

The Herald is published daily except on Sundays and public holidays. It is one of the largest and most influential newspapers in the region.

Through the medium of this newspaper, the publisher has been able to reach a wide audience and to provide news and information of interest to the community.

The Herald's history is a story of growth and progress. It has weathered many challenges and has emerged as a stronger and more resilient newspaper.

The Herald's commitment to journalism and its service to the community has been a constant throughout its history. It remains dedicated to providing accurate and timely news.

The Herald's success is a testament to the hard work and dedication of its staff and the support of its readers. It is proud to continue its legacy as a daily newspaper.

The Herald's future is bright, and it is confident that it will continue to serve the community with the highest quality of journalism and service.

List of Old Advertisers In the Town

Brief Histories of Firms and Individuals of Twenty-five Years Ago in Manchester.

Looking back over the list of business houses in Manchester on October 1, 1914, many changes are noted, all of which have been chronicled in the Herald as they took place.

One of the oldest and largest of the firms in Manchester is the Manchester Trust Company, which has been in business since 1864.

Another firm that has been in business for over 25 years is the Manchester Building Company, which has been instrumental in the construction of many of the city's buildings.

The Manchester Hotel, which has been a landmark in the city for many years, was built by the Manchester Hotel Company in 1904.

The Manchester Manufacturing Company, which has been producing a wide variety of goods for over 25 years, is another firm that has thrived in Manchester.

The Manchester Printing Company, which has been providing high-quality printing services for over 25 years, is another firm that has been a part of the city's industrial landscape.

The Manchester Retail Store, which has been serving the community with a wide variety of goods for over 25 years, is another firm that has been a part of the city's history.

The Manchester Wholesale Company, which has been providing wholesale goods for over 25 years, is another firm that has been a part of the city's business community.

The Manchester Service Company, which has been providing a wide variety of services for over 25 years, is another firm that has been a part of the city's history.
