Plead Guilty to Sale Of Circulars as Waste

Drivers Admit Tons of Publicity Material Was Dumped in Junkmen's Truck; Five Are Fined

A trial of advertising circulars dumped in a court jury five convictions on guilty pleas of five drivers and five officers and employees of a circular distributing company. The five drivers were assigned before Judge Raymond B. Brown in Manchester Town Court. Notices were granted in the case of three men held for investigation by police. Those in court this morning were: Sidney Schuman, head of the ABC advertising company; Attorney Cornelius J. Kaplan, and the five drivers and employees, Abraham Goldberg, represented by Attorney Joseph Prentice and Louis Kirshin, also defended by Prentice. The five drivers were fined $10 each and the five officers were fined $5 each.

Honor Sgt. Fitzgerald At Testimonial Dinner

Industrial, Business and Civic Leaders Gather to Congratulate Officer on His Advance in Rank.

Police department associates have a testimonial last night at O'Connell's cottage, Boston, honoring Sergeant Michael F. Fitzgerald upon his advancement in the local police department.

Chairman Pagani in his opening statement said that the testimonial was being held in honor of one of the city's finest police officers, one who in his long service had done his duty with the highest honor and had been faithful to the taxpayers of the town at all times.

Judge Raymond Bower of the Manchester town court brought the good wishes of Frobate Judge William H. Hyde as well as his own and stated that he was pleased that his old friend had earned a deserved honor in advancement to the rank of sergeant.

Police Captain Herman Schenck, who admitted having worked with the new sergeant, stated that he would work for 20 years, said that one would live with a person to know him intimately.

"The life of a policeman is not a easy one," Captain Schenck stated. "A policeman has to make a decision in his duty to go to a job two feet but nevertheless a decision must be made. However, the police officer should be an enemy. Sergeant Fitzgerald has made the right decision in his choice of duty as a policeman. It is so easy often to make a mistake. Sergeant Fitzgerald used his head and has long continued faithful."

Charles B. House, Deputy Judge and clerk of town court, said that he had known Sergeant Fitzgerald since he was a child, had always found him to be a good natured and the officer had never made a serious mistake in his work.

Attorney Harold J. Garity, who as judge of the town court saw much of Sergeant Fitzgerald in the line of duty, said that the honored guest was first of all a human being and that stories through the years which showed a place in the folklore of the town.

Judge Garity proceeded to tell several funny stories about "Mike" and of some pranks played on him during his early years of service, especially a prank which brought down the house and which brought down the house and which brought down the house.

Stormy Human Stirs Bahamas

Socially Prominent Boston Woman Put Flock Hard at Work.

Nassau, Bahamas (Correspondence of The Associated Press)—Easy-going folk of the beautiful Bahamas are little disturbed when a hurricanette rumbles in from the south. They find shelter until the storm has passed, then check up on the damage done.

Serviceman Leland T. Wood said that Fitzgerald's fine work in the past augured for future success in his new job. Jim Foley said that he had known Sergeant Fitzgerald since he was a child and that he had always found him to be a good natured and the officer had never made a serious mistake in his work.

Length of Day Discovery By Garner Upsets Senate

Washington, Oct. 26—The discovery by Vice President Garner that a day was 24 hours, not 24 and a half, has upset the traditional calendar as much as anything that the realistic Texas senator has done in his seven years as a legislator.

Sergeant Fitzgerald used his head and has long continued faithful."

Charles B. House, Deputy Judge and clerk of town court, said that he had known Sergeant Fitzgerald since he was a child, had always found him to be a good natured and the officer had never made a serious mistake in his work.

Attorney Harold J. Garity, who as judge of the town court saw much of Sergeant Fitzgerald in the line of duty, said that the honored guest was first of all a human being and that stories through the years which showed a place in the folklore of the town.

Judge Garity proceeded to tell several funny stories about "Mike" and of some pranks played on him during his early years of service, especially a prank which brought down the house and which brought down the house and which brought down the house.

Al Smith, Jr., Starts First Public Office Campaign

By Albert W. Wilson
New York, Oct. 25.—When Alfred E. Smith, Jr., made his maiden political speech as a candidate for the office of New York State Commissioner of Education, he was the only son of the late Governor Smith to do so.

Peanuts and Peanut Butter
Strictly speaking a peanut is not a nut, but a legume. However, its chemical composition is very much the same as that of nuts, and it is usually treated as such.

Voice of Sanity
The debate in the Senate on the neutrality legislation is drawing to a close. It is expected there will be a vote on the measure immediately. The debate has been long and exhaustive. It has been on the part of some senators, animated by spite and spite against the part of others there has been an expression of sincere but excited belief. Still other senators have manifested calm, patriotic wisdom and have given their views to thoughtful conclusions.
On Monday of this week there arose a senator who has not been greatly in the public eye. He is a freshman senator, a Republican, from Wisconsin, Alexander Wiley. It is our conviction that he made the finest speech that has been made in the entire debate.

Senator Wiley announced that he was deeply convinced that the repeal of the embargo, he frankly admitted that this decision was reached largely because his Wisconsin constituency, making every effort to influence the decision, had reached a unanimous vote for the repeal of the embargo. He pointed out that this decision was reached largely because his Wisconsin constituency, making every effort to influence the decision, had reached a unanimous vote for the repeal of the embargo. New York, Oct. 25.—When Alfred R. Smith, Jr., made his maiden political speech as a candidate for the office of assistant city clerk in the election of 17 of the Old Neighborhood in Brooklyn, George Boicourt, a veteran political writer, had to keep his legs under him to get him through. "A rain of bombs" on London will bring, at least, no doubt, the disaster of the German people brought by an answering storm of the same nature. It was the strong opinion of the Tammany machine that the selection of Alderman for many years.

Washington Daybook

Washington.—The second of President Roosevelt's executive orders on relief and labor policies has been placed in the hands of the public. The order is quite different from the other light matter. How many, where to be located, what type of relief. These questions have been discussed in many communities and not always satisfactorily answered. It is a community, which should be given a long time to come when police records has become as settled a thing as public water or the telephone. However, since the beginning of traffic lights to be made at this time must necessarily be a small one. It is our suggestion that the Police Commissioners, who have manifested so much enterprise in obtaining both these services, be permitted, without any interference or too much advice, to do the stop light job in their own way. Too many cooks can spoil the soup.

Now the Ace Threat
A German newspaper which usually serves as a megaphone for Field Marshal Goering declares that Great Britain is about to experience a rain of bombs. Presumably this is intended to serve as notice that Nazism is going to begin to fight in earnest. This rain of bombs is what British officials and military leaders immediately when he declared war. The declaration was made in full certainty that Germany's aerial bombardment would be against the Allies would be air and submarine offensives. The practical success of the former side that side there would be no reason why it should persevere in abandoning the war now.

Sense and Nonsense

A number of 'Vassar girls' were traveling through the Mediterranean this past summer. Their ship stopped widely about Addis Ababa, Ethiopia, and suddenly occurred to one of the girls, who had become ill, that if she could reach the port, she could get on deck the fresh air might revive her. In her scant and nightgown, without waiting for dress or put on her dressing gown, she suddenly occurred to one of the girls, who had become ill, that if she could reach the port, she could get on deck the fresh air might revive her.

Hold Everything

Believe it or not, but a couple well-known business men recently went to a trade convention in a nearby city and managed to break away from their wives long enough to have a quiet little dinner together in a cafe where the manager was over the water asked, "What's the occasion?" "We were married in Mexico three years ago," said the wife of one of the men.

Stamp Meeth

The inauguration of the 30th anniversary of the inauguration of postal service in colonial America has been suggested by a group of New England postmasters.

Flapper Fanny

War has forced the postponement of the London Philatelic Society's celebration planned for the centennial of the postage stamp in 1940. American collectors, hoping to prevent the anniversary from passing without notice, are drafting plans for a special American exhibition honoring the event.
