Brinks to Observe 60th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Brink of 104 Edridge street, Auburn, R. I., former residents of Manchester, will observe the 60th anniversary of their marriage on Thursday, November 3. The anniversary was celebrated in Manchester on November 9, 1879, by Rev. Beverly Verrill.

The first pastor of St. Mary's Episcopal church after its organization and who served from 1878 to 1884, Mrs. Brink was the wife of the late Mrs. Brink, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Easton. Her mother, the late Mrs. Mary Easton, was the wife of the late Mr. Easton, a prominent citizen of the South Manchester district.

Mr. Brink was one of the first conductors on the Hartford-Manchester line which began in 1855. He was a regular trip in 1935 which within a few days will be replaced by buses. He was a driver for Chesney Brothers, and the first train conductor of the former North district when the town was divided into school districts.

Mr. and Mrs. Brink moved to Providence about 35 years ago. They have made frequent visits to their relatives and friends in Manchester. They have one daughter, Mrs. Chester Wood, with whom they live, and one granddaughter, Miss Virginia Wood. Mr. Brink is 83 and his wife 78. They are both enjoying good health and plan a visit to Manchester a short time ago.

— Sense and Nonsense —

Some of the most original humor originates with the Negro. For instance, we are giving you a "funny" column starting with "Tobe—Come to Dial" of it. For various past misdemeanors he had been in the boozery for several weeks, and tomorrow his regiment was overseas. With some difficulty he prevailed upon his company officer to grant him a mid-night pass for the last night. Armed with his pass, and arrayed in all his material glory, he approached the white sentry who guarded the camp gates.
