Immeasurable Stake

Imagination is unequal to the task of assessing the stakes in the enormous battle now in progress in France. We only know that upon the issue of this frantic struggle depend consequences infinitely beyond those springing from any military conflict in many hundreds of years.

No Room for Failures

Edouard Daladier, the French Chamberlain, was freed out of Premier Reynaud's cabinet by a ruling made on Wednesday by Attorney-General Jackson is another matter. Under it the British army which lost so much equipment in Flanders, could receive in a very short time some 600,000 more rifles and Springfield rifles and 2,500 of our likewise war-burdened 70mm. calibre field guns.

Manhattan by George Tucker

New York—Ballyhoo goes back to the days of All Shook Goes and the Forty Thieves. It takes many forms of expression, though its basic motive is to get people talking.

Washington Daybook

Washington—The dream of a new road may be dragged to the days of the American Revolution. The United States is a potential army that needs salute no power in the world.

Some Touching Letters With Red Cross Gifts

Washington, D. C., June 7.—Among the thousands of letters carrying contributions, small and large, to the American Red Cross, the following are a few of the result of his radio appeal for the war relief fund.

Our World War Armies

Senator Pepper's excited proposal to bundle together all of the United States army's new plans, must and every kind of every kind and ship the whole business post haste to the Allies most expected date.

Hopes Nation Will Spend for Health

Boston, June 7.—Dr. Thomas Parran, surgeon general of the U. S. Public Health Service, is hopeful that the nation will be as united in providing for the physical, mental and moral well-being of its people as it is in providing the implements of war.

Report Nazis Seek Peace with France

New York, June 7.—The British Broadcasting Corporation reported today that Germany had made a new attempt to make a separate peace with France.

Love, Courtship And Marriage

By Ernest R. and Gladys H. Groves. Noted Authorities on Marriage Relations. "Of course the man I am going to marry is 'jealous,' boasted one woman.

Gathering Tonight To Launch Campaign

100 Men and Women To Meet at Masonic Temple to Hear Details of the Hospital Drive.

The public health of the Manchester Memorial hospital's $170,000 building fund will be officially launched at 6:30 this evening at a mass meeting in the Masonic Temple...

Mr. Watkins said that the only way in which the committee could expect to reach its goal for a four-story addition to the hospital...

It should be remembered that the hospital will not have deficit campaigns in 1940 and 1941. Those who have been subscribing liberally to our annual campaigns...

Americans Hurry To Board Liner

at least 700 of them would take advantage of the opportunity to return aboard the Washington. Her schedule calls for stops at Lisbon, Portugal, and an undesignated Irish port en route to New York. (It was reported reliably in London, where the United States Embassy urged Americans not to delay returning home, that the Washington would call at Galway, Ireland.) United States line officials said Italian calls would be resumed after this voyage.

Sense and Nonsense

Annual Report
To Our Stockholders: Your officers are glad to report business over the past year has been very improved, in fact we almost broke even.
We feel that much of the company's success from June 1, 1939 to June 1, 1940 was due to a more vigorous policy of trying to make the best of it. It has been the custom of company officers to work very hard and to work very hard in the charge of our officers have cut their fretting down eighty-six and one-half per cent for the fiscal year.

Serial Story
BETTE DAVIS—CHARLES BOYER
in ALL THIS, and HEAVEN TOO
by RACHEL FIELD
Coming to Strand Theater, Hartford, beginning Tuesday, June 18.

CHAPTER II
The young man continued earnestly: "I saw you first on the dock at Southampton. How sad those people were when they said goodbye to you. I was sad for them. I don't know why! That little girl, how bitterly she wept."

Ugly Duckling Tells Anderson's Own Story
THE story of the "Ugly Duckling" pictured on the Danish stamp, above, honoring Hans Christian Andersen, was the author's own life history, told in a fairy tale.
This story tells of a little swanling, hatched in a flock of ducks. Disliked by his mother duck and all the little ducks for its uncommon ugliness and difference in looks and manners from themselves. Only at the last does the little duckling learn he is really a beautiful swan, admired by all.
