Cambridge, Mass., July 26.—(AP)—If America wishes to continue as a world power, a Harvard biologist said today, the normal family must include four children.

"The American ideal is a family of four children," he said. "The present rate of births in this country is less than two children per family, which means that in 1950 there will be only 20 million families left, instead of the 40 million that we have today."

Dr. C. Zimmerman asserted that the normal family must include four children. He said that the normal family must include four children. He said that the normal family must include four children.

The Ramparts Britons Watch

The chalk cliffs of Dover, girding England's southern shore for over 100 miles, like a fortress built by Nature for herself. Here they stand in their most formidable bulk—at Beachy Head, where they tower 513 feet above the Channel. Down through the ages, from the glancing whiteness given England its ancient name of Albion, they have held against invaders, have symbolized the British spirit of defiance, and have stood, with seemingly British imperturbability, facing a foe more powerful than any in history.

Information Booth Here Lacking in Information

The young girls who are paid did not appear in the directory as through the National Youth Administration working the information booth at the Center are imparting such knowledge as they know or are able to glean from a town directory that is two years old. The map of the town of Manchester which they have for reference is also out of date, badly used up and lacking the names of streets and developments that have been opened in the past two years and some that are much older.

Italian Fliers Again in Raid On Gibraltar

Civilians were killed and 85 wounded in the raid Wednesday. The correspondent listed among the targets struck nine shell gasoline reservoirs with a total capacity of 20,000 tons, an oil tank, capacity 10,000 tons, and Socoy-Vac gasoline tank, capacity 4,000 tons. He said a potassium loading dock also was hit.

Circus Coming Soon Has Big Top of Green Canvas

A starting sight will greet old-time living in the "Green Canvas" circus which is expected to arrive Sunday. The canvas, a bright green, will be a big top (main tent) which will be set up on the site of the old circus grounds. The shade is known as "number green" and indeed the entire color scheme resembles nothing so much as a mammoth cucumber. The significance goes even further, giving added weight to the old saying, "Cool as a cucumber" for the green shade is said to have a decided cooling effect on the interior of the tent, besides being easy on the eyes of the circus spectators.

Another Homing Chicken... The Irish have been accused of everything on earth but stupidity. Yet Quentin Reynolds, Collier's magazine that has been searching Ireland for two weeks to find just one man who is afraid of the potential invasion of Eire by the Nazis, has yet to find one such man. The people there with one accord refuse to believe Hitler will ever attempt to take Ireland and are convinced that if the general Delacour, and seems to be to be sound in principle. But evidently the adjutant-general has not yet been able to get it to the serious attention of the War Department, because it doesn't appear to have advanced very far beyond its original tentative stage.

Man About Manhattan... New York.—There is an Italian on 50th street whose name is Sam and who owns quite a restaurant. Sam, as so many of his countrymen, is carrying the prohibition on the rocks. He is a product of the speakeasy and made his money in purveying illegal drinks behind closed doors. When repeal came he set himself up openly, procured a license, and now Sam is a brother-in-law who had no job. He managed to gain employment for his brother-in-law as a doorman at one of New York's highest priced restaurants. His lips there averaged $20 a day. No kidding. Tipping is an unexplored avenue of revenue to him. He has received through the fello opened a restaurant of his own. He is doing well. He is a waiter who has $5,000 for his job. He earns no salary. But the tips he receives run into an available annual figure.

Ellington... Two automobiles, one a Rockville car and one a Hartford car, were involved in a collision on the middle of the road after hitting another car, which was reported to have been backing up preparatory to entering the Millers' corner road to the right. The car was driven by Raymond Constable Linwood, 22, of 18 North Main street, Hartford.

Willington... The Willington Public Library, which is open two hours Wednesday, will be closed August 14 and 21. Mrs. John Merrill is librarian. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Woodman and children have returned home from Amston Lake after spending two weeks there.

Army of Democrats?... Such opposition as has developed against the selective draft for military service comes from several sources. First of all comes the antagonism of the great American individualist whose conception of freedom is the right to do as he pleases without anybody—neither from a policeman, a schoolmaster, a city council, a Congress or a city government, who is not in a position to do so.
