Then boards will announce exemptions which Congress or the President may have designated, including men with families and men whose special skills are needed in war industry or some phase of civil life.

Sense and Nonsense

64, and Spend the Day
There was a time, a good old time, not many years ago, when the boys would sit on a wagon box chuck-full of fragrant hay—and then old and young would tumble and go and spend the day. The women talked of many things: marriage, church, and chicks.

John Hayes of Johnson Block Held for Hearing on Monday

Has No Intention Of Controlling Colonies

Amsterdam, July 27.—(AP)—The German government has no intention of controlling Dutch colonial possessions, nor to end existence of the Netherlands as an independent state, according to Arthur Seyss-Inquart, Nazi commissioner for the Netherlands. (At Los Angeles last night Arthur Seyss-Inquart, Nazi commissioner for the Netherlands, said that Germany would prove that she has "no intention of invading either the territories or the rights of the American nations. The United States has the right to take over the West Indies owned by England and France. Canada should be a German possession.")

Japanese Act To Make Arms Barrier Tight
