Nazi Asserts London Scene Of Chaos Now

Chaos. And remember this is only the beginning.

"Throughout Greater London and all along the outskirts, industrial plants alternate with warehouses, electric power plants, gas and oil tanks and munitions dumps. All these are doomed as our attacks continue."

"Ordered life in the British capital is well-nigh impossible," Reichenberg declared.

Reichenberg, who left his post as official in the Economics Ministry when war began, was first a parachutist but later became a gunner in bombers during the London blitz.

Plans Installation

Past Commander Victor Bronke has been named chairman of the committee to arrange for the joint installation of officers of the Dillworth-Cornell Post and Auxiliary, American Legion which will be held in the Legion Home, Leonard street on Saturday evening, September 28. Past Commander Bronke will be assisted by Henry Weir and Edward Gush.

Edward C. Humphrey, 25, of 315 Park street, Hartford, pleaded guilty to a charge of speeding up to 60 miles per hour on West Center street and was fined $10 and costs.

On Sunday we started again. The picture of London was gruesome. Everywhere fire wreither burning brightly or smoldering. Between the fires were veritable craters where bombs had fallen.

Docks of London Being Destroyed

Against southern England was said to have put one airplane factory out of production.

In today's intensified raids on London, DNB, the official news agency, reported new fires visible for miles were started in several sections of the city proper and on docks along both sides of the Thames.

Royal Couple Not Injured By 5 Bombs

The first announcement of this building which has been a royal residence for a century—did not come until the second bombing.

The Ministry of Information communique, issued while London was still under attack, said simply: "In the course of this morning's raids bombs were dropped on Buckingham Palace and adjacent areas. The royal couple were unharmed."

On Sunday we started again. The picture of London was gruesome. Everywhere fire wreither burning brightly or smoldering. Between the fires were veritable craters where bombs had fallen.

Explain High Meat Prices

Combination of Events Cited as Cause of Increase; Some Helps. Hartford, Sept. 13.—Higher fresh meat prices which have developed since mid-summer for some classes of beef, pork and lamb were caused by a combination of events according to a statement issued today by the Connecticut Department of Agriculture.

Pershing Lives to See Military Creed Adopted

Washington, Sept. 13.—(AP)—has been Pershing's secretary since the days of the Mexican military revolution. He has seen the general's military career from the adoption of a national policy. Celebrating his 60th birthday today, the veteran of five major American military campaigns could find few comments of cables, clerks and congressmen other than those of the carefully-worded statements that have been issued regarding national defense.

Tropical Storm Is Moving Northward

Jacksonville, Fla., Sept. 13.—(AP)—A full-blown tropical hurricane whipped up a turbulent path in the Atlantic ocean today as it moved north of Turks Island in the Bahamas. The Weather Bureau said the storm, which was moving west-northwestward about 14 miles an hour, hurricane intensity in 75 miles or more an hour.

Appropriations of Present Congress Peace-Time Mark

Washington, Sept. 13.—(AP)—Congress has appropriated $13,127,477,190 so far this season and may be asked to approve $1,500,000,000 in additional funds before adjournment. In addition, it has authorized another $3,226,082,000 for expenditures in future years—the actual cash to be voted in subsequent sessions—for a grand total of $21,383,009,200.

Foreign Residents Viewed as Asset

Rangley Lakes, Me., Sept. 13.—(AP)—New England's foreign population, meeting of the New England Council, has not only accepted a resolution endorsing the country, but also has recognized its own contribution to the country's defense. The foreign-born and their descendants make up 28.84 per cent of New England's population, he said.

Radio Day by Day

New York, Sept. 13.—(AP)—Charles Marlow is six six, and like all six-year-olds he is bad some. One time his father had sent him to the woodshed for talking back from a neighbor. While he was thinking he kicked at the door. By and by his toe turned up a package buried there. He found the package was $205 in cash. The package was buried there, he said, but he hid the money. Bob Hupley thought the story was interesting enough for Believe It or Not. So you'll hear it on Ripley's season-opening program on CBS at 9 p. m. tonight.

First Sermon By New Rabbi

Spiritual Leader to Occupy Pulpit at Beth Shalom on Sept. 20. Saul M. Silverstein, president of Temple Beth Shalom, announced today that Rabbi Berthold Woythaler, the new spiritual leader of the congregation, will occupy the pulpit of Temple Beth Shalom for the first time on Friday evening, September 20 at 8 p. m. Rabbi Woythaler is a native of Bromberg, Germany, and graduated from the University of Berlin with high honors.

House Hatch Act Sponsor Battles for Senate Seat

Albuquerque, N. M., Sept. 13.—(AP)—White-haired, bearded John J. Dempsey, who sponsored the Hatch act through a reelection in the House of Representatives, faced the fight of his life today to win the Democratic nomination for Senate in his effort to wrest the Democratic nomination from active-born Senator Dennis Chavez. The fight, waged with a bitterness rarely seen in the catch-as-catch-can politics of New Mexico, topped today in the state's first direct primary elections tomorrow at which nominees for all state offices, Congress, and the State Legislature will be chosen at the polls instead of in convention.

Woman Dies After Plunge From Window of Her 17th Floor Room

New York, Sept. 17.—A woman registered at the Marguerite Wynne Hotel, 17th Street, Cambridge, Mass., was killed today when she fell from the window of her 17th-floor room at the hotel in New York.

The body landed at the curb on the 17th Street sidewalk. The woman was dressed in pajamas. A silk stocking was draped across the sill of the window.

Detectives said an automobile driver's license found among her belongings bore the address of the Beacon Street apartment house in Cambridge, Mass. Numerous cards from hotels in various sections of the country also were found.

A card bearing her name and that of a Chicago automobile company was found in the room, which contained only one piece of luggage, a valise.

Condition Of State Roads

Construction in force in the State of Connecticut announced by the Connecticut Highway Department September 11, 1942 for the week ending September 21, 1942, together with the names of the roads and the work to be done on them, is as follows:

Route No. 1.—From the intersection of the Meritt Parkway and the Wilbur Cross Parkway, both of which are being constructed on new locations, to the intersection of the Meritt Parkway and the Wilbur Cross Parkway.

Connor Getting Better Steadily

Hartford, Sept. 17.—(AP)—Commissioner of Motor Vehicles Michael A. Connor, suddenly taken ill Tuesday at the Farmington Country Club, is registering steady improvement, it was reported today.

Nevertheless, it was understood that no attempt will be made to move him from the club to his home until Monday in order to give him an opportunity to get as much rest as possible before being moved.

Exams Announced For Civil Service

The United States Civil Service Commission announces open competitive examinations for the following positions for employment in the First Civil Service District comprising the New England States:

Route No. 101.—Killingly, Bridge over Five Mile river and approach to the town of Killingly.

Willington

Joseph Goodrich, who has been clerking at the Haven store in West Willington, left Wednesday to attend the State Teachers' College in Willimantic.

Dr. S. William Price, professor of education and director of the University Extension Service, will offer a course in Organization and Administration of the Secondary School, intended primarily for teachers and administrators. The class will meet on Wednesdays at 4:30 p. m. and the first meeting will be on Wednesday, September 23. The course includes study of the internal organization of a modern high school, staff selection, staff relations, administration of the school, and the various careers in college grade.

U. of Conn. Opens Two New Courses

Stores, Sept. 12.—Two courses for graduate students, or advanced undergraduate students, will be offered this fall in Hartford by the University of Connecticut. Classes will meet in the Board of Education Building, 249 High Street.

Dr. George E. McRayolds of the Department of History and Government, will offer a course in Contemporary World Problems, devoted primarily to a study of the background of the present European War and the day-to-day developments in the war. ### Open Forum

On my return from London in June I had but one burning desire and that was to find the organization in which I could be of most use. There are in the New England area many organizations which are doing good work, but I am not sure that any one of them is doing it as well as the British War Relief Society.

Problem in Fingerprinting

Bellington, Tex.—(AP)—Postmaster Tom Caudle is having his woe. Charged with alien registration in the district, Caudle found it difficult to fingerprint many of the Mexicans because their fingers have been torn by burrs while picking cotton. He appealed to the Justice Department for advice.
